I. VIOLATION:

Controlled Substances; Directives and Conduct; Special Condition (7) Abide by any curfew imposed: On June 26, 2019, Mr. Nunn was transported from the Clark County Detention Center (CCDC) to the Day Reporting Center and was placed on electronic monitoring pending his transfer to the state of California. Mr. Nunn was explained the rules and requirements of electronic monitoring, including curfew. He was then transported to his residence of One Day at a Time (Transitional Living) at 1960 Saylor Way, Las Vegas, Nevada 89108.

On July 3, 2019, at approximately 5:00pm, the Division was notified by Sentinel, the electronic monitoring service provider, that Mr. Nunn's GPS battery had died 4 hours prior. During the review of his last known location, it was noted that Mr. Nunn was not home. On July 3, 2019, at approximately 11:23pm, the Division was notified by Sentinel that Mr. Nunn had returned to his residence and was charging his GPS unit, since the battery had been dead. On July 4, 2019 at approximately 9:50am, the Division responded to Mr. Nunn's residence of 1960 Saylor Way, Las Vegas, Nevada 89108. Mr. Nunn was located and was drug tested. Mr. Nunn admitted to leaving his residence approximately a day and a half ago to see a girlfriend and that he had consumed Ecstasy. He further stated that the Cocaine and Methamphetamine must have been in the Ecstasy pill he took. Mr. Nunn was placed into custody and transported to CCDC. During transport, Mr. Nunn stated "I'm not going to lie, I thought I'd be clean by Monday" in regards to the ecstasy/molly. Mr. Nunn signed an admission form for the consumption of controlled substances. Mr. Nunn was booked on probation violation.

II. RESPONSE TO SUPERVISION:

Mr. Nunn was granted the privilege of probation approximately 1 month ago. He has shown blatant disregard for the Court and the Division by not abiding by failing to adhere to the conditions set forth by the Court by breaking curfew and consuming a controlled substance. He has shown that he lacks the discipline and responsibility of a person who has been granted probation by leaving his residence for an entire day during his curfew hours. Therefore, the Division views him as unfit for further community based supervision.
