1. Evidence of the Harrah's Hotel Room Burglary is Admissible, Non-Propensity Evidence of Defendant's Intent Regarding the Burglary in this Case.

Here, Defendant is charged with the crime of burglary. Burglary is a crime requiring proof of a specific intent rather than mere general criminal intent. See NRS 205.060(1); Carr v. Sheriff, 95 Nev. 688, 690 (1979) ("The offense of burglary is complete when the house or other building is entered with the specific intent to commit larceny..."). In other words, the State is required to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Defendant possessed the specific intent to commit larceny the very moment that he stepped into the Excalibur hotel room. See NRS 205.060(1).

When a defendant is charged with a specific intent crime, his intent is inherently at issue. See Hubbard v. State, Nev. App. 129 No. 66185 (2016) (unpublished) (Tao, J. concurring in part and dissenting in part). In United States v. Gomez, 763 F.3d 845, 858-859 (7th Cir. 2014), the court noted that "for general intent crimes, the defendant's intent can be inferred from the act itself, so intent is not automatically at issue." (internal quotations and citations omitted). "In contrast, when intent is at issue—in cases involving specific intent crimes ... other-act evidence may be admissible to prove intent." Id. (internal quotations and citations omitted); see United States v. Tan, 254 F.3d 1204, 1212 n.8 (10th Cir. 2001) ("because specific intent cannot be inferred from the charged conduct, other act evidence may be especially probative in cases where the defendant is charged with a specific intent crime"); United States v. Van Metre, 150 F.3d 339, 350-51 (4th Cir. 1998) (bad acts evidence is especially probative of specific intent); United States v. Johnson, 27 F.3d 1186, 1192 (6th Cir. 1994) ("intent is in issue precisely because a specific intent, separate and apart from underlying prohibited conduct, is made an element of the crime charged ... In prosecuting specific intent crimes, prior acts evidence may often be the only method of proving intent.") (citations omitted); United States v. Gruttadauro, 818 F.2d 1323, 1327-28 (7th Cir. 1987) ("Evidence of prior bad acts is admissible to prove intent if intent is automatically in issue or if the defendant puts his or her intent in issue. We have said that intent is automatically in issue in a criminal case ... if the crime is a 'specific intent' crime."). This is because the crime of burglary is commonly committed in secret. Edwards v. State, 90 Nev. 255, 258 (1974). Rare is the case in which a defendant announces at the top of his lungs "I am here to commit larceny." Because of this, the crime of burglary must frequently be proven by circumstantial evidence. Id. Indeed, in determining the intent with which entry was made is a question of fact, which may be inferred from a defendant's conduct before, during, and after the entry, and all other circumstances disclosed by the evidence. See Flynn v. State, 93 Nev. 247, 562 P.2d 1135 (1977).

In Darnell v. State, 92 Nev. 680, 558 P.2d 624 (1976). The Court held that evidence that the defendant had previously purchased stolen property was properly admitted to prove he intended to possess stolen property in a subsequent prosecution for Attempted Possession of Stolen Property. Id. (citing Richardson v. State, 91 Nev. 266, 534 P.2d 913 (1975); Wallace v. State, 77 Nev. 123, 359 P.2d 749 (1961); cf. State v. Carner, 541 P.2d 947 (Ariz.App. 1975)). Like the prosecution for Attempt Possession of Stolen Property in Darnell, the prosecution of Burglary in this case requires proof of Defendant's specific intent, and so the evidence of the Harrah's burglary is properly admissible here.

In United States v. Beechum, 582 F.2d 898 (CA5 1978), the case of a United States Postal Service letter carrier unlawfully possessing a 1890 silver dollar that had been stolen from the mail, the government introduced evidence of defendant's possession of two credit cards stolen from addresses on the defendant's mail route some ten months earlier. The court held in that:

Where the issue addressed is defendant's intent to commit the offense charged, the relevancy of the extrinsic offense derives from the defendant's indulging himself in the same state of mind in the perpetration of both the extrinsic and charged offenses. The reasoning is that because the defendant had unlawful intent in the extrinsic offense, it is less likely that he had lawful intent in the present offense.

Id., 582 F.2d at 911.

As to the time period between the 2013 Excalibur hotel room burglary and the 2016 Harrah's hotel room burglary, the court in United States v. Kirk, 528 F.2d 1057 (CA5 1976), held that the fact that another offense occurred three years prior to the charged offense does not make it inadmissible. In Kirk, defendant was charged with threatening the life of the President of the United States of America. At trial, the prosecution presented evidence showing that three years earlier defendant had committed the same crimes. The court ruled this evidence to be properly admissible to show defendant's intent, holding as follows:

Whether the prior intended to show that defendant made this threat intentionally or as the result of "alcohol taking," was a matter for the jury's termination. The fact that the former offense occurred three years prior to the offense charged does not make it so remote as to be excluded.

528 F.2d at 1061. Likewise, in United States v. Wilson, 732 F.2d 404 (CA5 1984), defendant was convicted of conspiracy and illegal shipping of explosives to Libya in 1977. The prosecution introduced evidence concerning extraneous offenses and incidents involving terrorism, including a 1979 incident and a 1982 incident in which similar explosives were discovered. The court ruled the evidence concerning the extraneous offenses and incidents were properly admissible to establish defendant's motive, intent, and plan.

In this case, Defendant committed the same crime in the same exact manner almost three years to the day after he committed the burglary charged in this case. Especially given the specific and unique crime the Defendant is charged with, namely two hotel room doorpush burglaries, Defendant's criminal intent in one is relevant to show his criminal intent in the other. Because intent is inherently at issue here, and Defendant's specific intent cannot solely be inferred from the fact that he entered the hotel room, and so his conduct and participation in strikingly similar crimes, both of which are identical in design, is relevant, highly probative and material in demonstrating the existence of his specific intent to commit larceny inside the Excalibur hotel room. Therefore, evidence of the Harrah's burglary is properly admissible, non-propensity evidence of Defendant's intent.

2. Evidence of the Harrah's Hotel Room Burglary is Admissible, Non-Propensity Evidence of Defendant's Common Plan or Scheme Regarding the Burglary in this Case.

In order for a crime to constitute a common "scheme or plan," there must exist some "design or plan formed to accomplish some purpose – a system. A plan is a method of design or action, procedure, or arrangement for accomplishment of a particular act or object. Method of putting into effect an intention or proposal." Weber v. State, 121 Nev. 554, 572, 119 P.3d 107, 119-20 (2005) (internal quotations omitted). Essentially, the Court noted that purposeful design is central to a scheme or plan. Id. Nonetheless, the Court noted that "this does not mean that every scheme or plan must exhibit rigid consistency or coherency ..." Id. Indeed, the Court noted that "a scheme or plan may have to contend with contingencies, and therefore [] can in practice reflect some flexibility and variation...." Id.

In Graves v. State, 112 Nev. 118 (1996), the defendant was charged with two counts of burglary, first for entering the one casino and attempting to steal coins from a patron, and second for entering another casino and attempting to steal money from a cashier's booth. The Court held that the district court did not abuse its discretion in allowing the two charges to be joined because the defendant "systematically walked from casino to casino and acted similarly suspicious at each casino." Id. at 128, 912 P.2d at 239. This Court held that both offenses were part of a common scheme or plan. Id.

In Brinkley v. State, 101 Nev. Adv. Op. 135 (1985), defendants Brinkley and Drummond were convicted of five (5) counts of Unlawfully Obtaining a Controlled Substance and one (1) count of Unlawful Conspiracy to Obtain a Controlled Substance. The prosecution successfully offered evidence revealing that subsequent to the occurrence of the substantive crimes, Drummond attempted to pass a forged prescription while Brinkley waited outside in a car. Under these facts, the high court stated:

Evidence under the "common plan or scheme" exception must tend to prove the charged crimes by revealing that the defendant planned to commit the crimes . . . [t]he offense must tend to establish a preconceived plan which resulted in the commission of the charged crime . . .

In Thompson v. State, 102 Nev. Ad. Op. 79 (1986) the Court affirmed a conviction for Murder, Attempt Murder, Robbery, and Attempt Robbery all with use of a deadly weapon and imposition of the death penalty. Thompson shot, killed and robbed a man he met camping beside the railroad tracks near Reno. Later, he shot and attempted to rob two woman of their car in a parking lot outside of a Reno casino. At the time of the commission of these crimes, Thompson knew police were looking for him concerning a double homicide in California. The trial court allowed evidence of the two collateral homicides in California under NRS 48.045(2) stating in 102 Nev. Adv. Op. 79, at 3:

That statute provides for the admission of such evidence when used for certain limited purposes. One of the listed exceptions concerns evidence tending to show that a defendant's crime was committed in furtherance of a plan. The State offered the evidence in question to show Thompson's plan to obtain money to allow him to flee the state because he knew that law enforcement officers were looking for him concerning another homicide. The evidence was admitted for this purpose. The district court did not err in allowing the admission of such evidence.

Defendant's actions in the instant burglary and in the Harrah's burglary demonstrate a systematic design by him to unlawfully enter into hotel rooms and systematically search through the contents inside the rooms in order to steal any items of value. As noted, in both cases, Defendant enters a hotel room by pushing open the door, begins to search the room and luggage inside the room. This is no different than in Graves, when the defendant systematically walked from casino to casino attempting to steal money. Here, Defendant entered multiple hotels searching for hotel rooms to burglarize. Review of the Defendant's actions in the both cases shows they are woven together with the same common scheme. Defendant's plan was to gain entrance to both hotel rooms to commit larceny therein. Evidence of Defendants common scheme is extremely probative of his intent, which is an element of the charged crimes in both cases, and to rebut his probable defense of mistake. Therefore, evidence of the Harrah's burglary is properly admissible, non-propensity evidence of Defendant's common plan or scheme of committing hotel room door-push burglaries.

3. Evidence of the Harrah's Hotel Room Burglary is Admissible, Non-Propensity Evidence of Defendant's Absence of Mistake Regarding the Burglary in this Case.

In Petrocelli v. State, 101 Nev. 46 (1985) the defendant was convicted of First Degree Murder and the death penalty was imposed. The Court affirmed the verdict. One issue raised on appeal concerned the admissibility of testimony relating to the prior killing of Petrocelli's girlfriend. Petrocelli had gotten into an argument with his fiancé and tried to drag her away from work; she refused and a struggle ensued. Petrocelli pulled out a gun and killed his fiancé in a flurry of shots; he claimed the death was accidental. After killing his fiancé, Petrocelli fled Washington and eventually ended up in Reno, Nevada. While test driving a vehicle in Reno, Petrocelli shot and killed the car dealer with the same gun used on his fiancé, robbed the victim, and hid the car dealer's body under rocks and sagebrush. At trial for the murder of the car dealer, Petrocelli claimed he had gotten into an argument with the car dealer and as they struggled for the gun it went off two or three times. The Court held the testimony was properly admissible under NRS 48.045(2) to show absence of mistake or accident stating:

... that the "two killings with the same gun involving the same person, Mr. Petrocelli, who within a short period of time [committed both killings]" bore sufficient similarity to admit the evidence at trial.

101 Nev. at 50.

In United States v. DeLoach, 654 F.2d 763 (D.C.C.A. 1980), defendants were convicted for submitting false application for labor certification of an alien. The court allowed admission of testimony of three government witnesses, all undocumented immigrants, that defendant was a swindler who took their money with false promises to find them jobs and labor certifications. The testimony showed that defendant's swindling conduct occurred over a year and a half prior to the offense charged. The court held in 654 F.2d at 769:

These prior acts were instead introduced to show intent. In this case, where intent was the only real issue, and where appellant predictably raised the defense of mistake, the admissible bad acts evidence need not show incidents identical to the events charged, so long as they are closely related to the offense and tend to rebut the defense of mistake.

In this case, it became apparent at the preliminary hearing that Defendant intends to predictably raise a defense of mistake – e.g. Defendant mistakenly walked in to the victim's hotel room and searched through the victims' luggage, but did not intend to commit larceny. This defense of mistake is quickly rebutted by the relevant and highly probative evidence of Defendant's nearly identical hotel room burglary at the Harrah's hotel three years later. For this reason, the Court should permit the State to admit evidence of the Harrah's burglary as it is necessary to rebut the deceiving defense of mistake or accident.

4. Evidence of the Harrah's Hotel Room Burglary is

The State bears the burden of requesting the admission of the evidence and establishing its admissibility. Tavares v. State, 117 Nev. 725, 731, 30 P.3d 1128, 1131 (2001). To accomplish this task, the State must demonstrate, at a hearing outside the presence of the jury, that: "(1) the incident is relevant to the crime charged; (2) the act is proven by clear and convincing evidence; and (3) the probative value of the evidence is not substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice." Rhymes v. State, 107 P.3d 1278, 1281 (2005); Tinch v. State, 113 Nev. 1170, 1176, 946 P.2d 1061, 1064-65 (1997).

For the foregoing reasons, the State has shown that the Harrah's burglary is relevant to show Defendant's intent, common scheme/plan, and absence of mistake. As follows, after a court finds that evidence of other crimes does not violate NRS 48.045(2), the court must then review the evidence in regard to NRS 48.035. This statute requires a weighing of probative value against prejudicial effect. Tucker v. State, 82 Nev. 127 (1966). The court in Tucker then went on to state how the balancing of "probative vs. prejudicial" is to occur in 8 Nev. at 130:

The reception of such evidence is justified by necessity and, if other evidence has substantially established the element of the crime involved (motive, intent, identity, absence of mistake, etc.), the probative value of showing another offense is diminished, and the trial court should rule it inadmissible even though relevant and within an exception to the rule of exclusion.

As demonstrated above, the evidence of Defendant's intent and absence of mistake are not established by other substantial evidence. Therefore, evidence of the Harrah's burglary is necessary to establish the burglary-element of intent and to rebut the defense of mistake in the case of the Excalibur burglary at issue.

The State must also show by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant committed the other crime, Petrocelli v. State, supra. The State has attached the preliminary hearing transcripts of the Harrah's burglary (Exhibit 2) for this Honorable Court to review. At that hearing, the Defendant had the full opportunity cross-examination and so it is properly relied upon to determine whether the Harrah's burglary is proven by clear and convincing evidence. Nonetheless, the State is happy to present the evidence to this Honorable Court by way of hearing, should this Honorable Court so desire. In sum, the Court should admit evidence of the Harrah's burglary because it is relevant to show Defendant James Hayes's intent and absence of mistake, its extraordinary probative value outweighs any chance of undue prejudice, and it is patently established by clear and convincing evidence.

Ш.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the above and foregoing, the State respectfully requests this Honorable Court find the other acts requested for admission have been proven by clear and convincing evidence by review of the preliminary hearing transcript attached as Exhibit 2 or, if deemed necessary, a hearing before Your Honor, and grant the State's Motion to admit evidence of the Defendant's nearly identical crime perpetrated at the Harrah's hotel.

THE COURT: Let's get everybody moving.

And we're going to get going on James Howard Hayes, unless we have a final resolution.

All right. So let's transport the in-custodies out, so that we can get going on the preliminary hearing.

James Howard Hayes, 13F10723X.

He's present out of custody with the assistance of the Public Defender.

This is the time and date set for the preliminary hearing.

MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Your Honor, the Defense is ready to proceed.

MR. DICKERSON: The State's ready to proceed,

19 Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Any preliminary motions to make at this particular juncture?

MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Your Honor, I would ask the exclusionary rule be invoked at this time.

THE COURT: Counsel invoked the exclusionary rule.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES

1 DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JOSHUA JARVIS 2 BY MR. DICKERSON: 3 Q. Mr. Jarvis, on April 9th, 2013 were you here in 4 5 Las Vegas on vacation? 6 Α. Yes. 7 And at that point in time were you staying at the 0. Excalibur Hotel casino? 8 9 Yes, I was. A. Located at 3850 south Las Vegas Boulevard? 10 Q. That's correct. 11 A. And specifically that is here in Clark County, 12 Nevada? 13 14 A. Yeah. 15 And the room that you were staying in was room 17151? 16 17 Α. I believe so. 18 I'm not -- It was a while ago, I'm not sure 19 exactly. 20 Q. That rings a bell to you? 21 Α. Yes. At that point in time in the morning hours of 22 Q. 23 April 9th, 2013 where were you? 24 Α. I was in the room the whole time. 25 Q. In that hotel room?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

Α. Yes. 1 At the Excalibur Hotel? 2 Q. That's correct. 3 Α. The one you were staying in? 4 Q. 5 Α. Yes. And did something out of the ordinary happen in 6 the early morning hours of April 9th, 2013? 7 I heard some rattling, which was kind of 8 upsetting because my sister and her friends were out, so 9 I was guessing it was them, until I saw him in the room, 10 and I was wondering if if he was with the people I was 11 with -- on vacation with, and then I noticed that there 12 was no one else there besides him, so that's when I got 13 up, and he proceeded to run out the door -- or tried to 14 run out the door. 15 Okay. So you're saying, he, you saw he in the 16 17 room. Who are you referring to? 18 19 Α. James, that guy right there. MR. DICKERSON: Your Honor, if the record could 20 reflect, the witness just identified the Defendant? 21 THE COURT: It will. 22 23 24 .25

- Q. So the Defendant is the individual you saw in your room?
 - A. That's correct.
 - Q. And in the -- early in the morning?
 - A. That's correct.
 - Q. What did you happen to see when you wake up?
 - A. I just heard rattling, I saw him going through luggage.
- I kind of yelled at him, and then he ran through the door.
- 12 I ran towards him.
- He didn't seem to be aggressive at all.
 - I turned around, patted him down, and then I took his wallet out. At that time I told him to sit down on the bed and put the license right in front of the camera and took a picture of him.
- 18 Q. Okay. So we'll get to all of that.
- 19 Firstly, who were you staying with in the hotel
- 20 room?
- A. It was my sister, her friend, which was in the hotel room, she was pretty much knocked out, and my
- 23 girlfriend at the time.
- Q. Okay. What is your sister's name?
- 25 A. Jessica Jarvis.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES
Certified Court Reporters

And what is -- or what was your girlfriend at the Q. 1 2 time, her name? 3 Misty Mustafa. And you were staying with both of them in that 4 room 17151? 5 6 That's correct. A. 7 Now, it's approximately 7:05 a.m. when these 8 events start? That's correct. 9 A. Who's in the room at that point in time? 10 At that time it was just me and my sister's 11 friend, Daisy. 12 13 Q. Daisy is who? My sister's friend, she's the third person that 14 was on vacation with us. 15 16 Okay. Is she staying in that room? Q. A. Yes, that's correct. 17 18 Q. And are you guys awake? 19 Α. I was awake the whole time. 20 She was asleep. 21 Q. So were you awake prior to this event, or asleep? 22 A. Negative. 23 I was asleep. 24 Q. So at approximately 7:05 a.m. you hear something? 25 Α. That --

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- 1 Q. What exactly does it sound like?
 - A. Just rustling around under -- I didn't hear any door open, just really sounds I'm not accustomed to because usually my sister's -- or her friends come in really loud.
 - Q. Okay. So it was quiet?
 - A. Yes, it was quiet.
 - Q. Rustling?
 - A. Yes.
- 10 Q. Where did you hear that sound coming from?
- 11 A. From like the lower end of my bed towards the
- 12 | wall.

- 13 Q. Okay. What -- or where is this area?
- A. When you walk in, there's the dresser with the
- 15 TV.

23

- When you first walk in, that's where tall luggage
- 17 was at.
- So it's like there's two beds, and then the hallway is right there at the end of the bed next to the wall, next to the TV.
 - Q. Okay. And the luggage was next to the wall.

 Is there a window there as well?
 - A. Negative.
 - Q. If you could, describe the room from the point of entry from the door, could you do that for the Court?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- A. Standing up or --
- Q. No, describing if you're looking into the room from the door to the room.
- A. When you look into the room, there's a window facing 12:00.

To the right side there's two beds.

As soon as you pass the hallway, there's a TV on the left side, just before you get to the window, and there's luggage right before you get to the TV.

- Q. Okay. So the luggage was directly in front of the bed?
 - A. That's correct.
- Q. And is that the bed you were sleeping on?
- 14 A. Yes.

12

- Q. Was the individual you identified as Daisy, was she also sleeping in that bed?
- 17 A. Negative.
- On the bed to the right of me.
- 19 Q. Was there anybody else sleeping in that room?
- 20 A. Negative.
- 21 Just me and her.
- Q. Okay. Now, when you wake up, what was the first thing you see?
- A. I see him going through the luggage, that's the first thing I see.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- Q. The Defendant?
- A. Yes.

10

- Q. So you see the Defendant going through luggage that you identified as being at the foot of your bed?
 - A. That's correct.
- Q. Can you see what part of his body at this point in time?
 - A. I just saw his back, didn't see his face.
 - Q. Okay. And what did he look like at that point in time?
- 11 A. At that point in time?
 12 I don't really understand.
- Q. What did you see, what did you recognize the individual to be?
- A. Just a guy, older male, going through my luggage, or my sister's luggage.
- 17 Q. Did you recognize him?
- A. Not from any time frame when we were in Vegas, no.
- That was the first time I ever seen him, when he went into the hotel room.
- Q. So you didn't know the Defendant before approximately 7:05 a.m. on April 9th, 2013?
- 24 A. No.

25

Q. And when you wake up, you see this, what do you

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

do? 1 I just freaked out, just reacted and asked who he 2 3 is. What did he say? 4 Q. He just stared at me and made a run for the door. 5 What did you do? 6 Q. 7 I ran to the door to stop him, and at that time Α. 8 he wasn't aggressive at all. How was it that you stopped him? 9 Q. Just turned him around, patted him down, and then 10 at the bed sat him down at the bed, and he said, sorry. 11 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Objection, Your Honor. 12 Narrative. 13 MR. DICKERSON: I don't believe so. 14 THE COURT: Overruled. 15 BY MR. DICKERSON: 16 17 Q. Go ahead, sir. So you stopped him how? 18 19 I stopped him before he got to the door and then 20 just patted him down, and then as soon as I patted him 21 down I took his wallet out, took a picture with the 22 phone. 23 So he's heading towards the door, you have to grab him, you get in front of him?

I get in front of him.

24

25

- Q. And as soon as you get in front of him what does he do?
 - A. He wasn't aggressive, just --
 - Q. He just stopped?
 - A. He just stopped.
- Q. And then you took the steps to pat him down?
- 7 A. That's true.

- 8 Q. How did you pat him down?
- 9 A. Just from left to right, and then took his wallet 10 out, and took his ID out, and took a picture.
- Q. Was he facing you, or facing away from you, when you patted him down?
- A. I'm pretty sure he was facing away from me at the beginning.
- Q. Okay. So you had him turned away from you when you patted him down?
- 17 A. That's correct.
- Q. And while you're patting him down, you take his wallet out?
- 20 A. That's correct.
- Q. And once you take his wallet out, do you see whether there's any identification in that wallet?
- 23 A. Yes, that's correct.
- Q. And did you retrieve that identification?
- 25 A. That's correct.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- Did you recognize that identification as a Nevada 1 2 driver's license? From the picture, yeah. 3 The picture you took? 4 Q. 5 That's correct. Α. So you say you pulled the wallet out, pulled the 6 ο. 7 ID out, then you take a picture. 8 What do you take a picture with? With my phone. 9 Α. Your cell phone? 10 Q. That's correct. 11 Α. It has a standard camera on it? 12 Q. A. That's correct. 13 MR. DICKERSON: I'm going to ask to approach, 14 Your Honor. 15 I'll be showing him State's Proposed Exhibit a 16 and 2. 17 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: No objection, Your Honor. 18
- 22 BY MR. DICKERSON:

Defense counsel.

Q. Sir, take a look at State's Proposed Exhibits 1

MR. DICKERSON: I've already shown this to 24 and 2.

19

20

21

25 Do you recognize these two documents?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- A. That's correct.
- 2 Q. Okay.

- A. I also seen that she was sleeping over there the whole time.
- Q. How do you recognize first State's Exhibit 1, what do you recognize it to be?
 - A. This is what I took the picture of and told him to sit down, and this --
 - Q. So State's Exhibit 1 is a picture you took?
- 10 A. That.
- 11 0. Of the Defendant?
- 12 A. Yes, that's correct.
- Q. And State's Exhibit 2, do you recognize this?
- A. Yeah, I took that picture as well. It has my finger on it.
- MR. DICKERSON: Okay. The state moves for admission of State's Exhibit 1 and 2, Your Honor.
- 18 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: No objection.
- THE COURT: 1 and 2 will be admitted for the purposes of the preliminary hearing only.
- 21 BY MR. DICKERSON:
- Q. First we'll go into State's Exhibit 1, which is right there in front of you.
- 24 What is that?
- 25 A. That's a picture of him on the bed with me taking

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- 1 a picture of his driver's license that I took out of his 2 pocket.
- Q. So the foreground is that the Defendant's driver's license?
 - A. That's correct.
- Q. That's the driver's license you pulled out of his wallet?
 - A. Yeah.

8

- 9 Q. All right. And in the background sitting on the 10 bed, who is that?
- 11 A. That's my sister's friend Daisy.
- 12 Q. Sitting on the bed?
- 13 A. Sitting on the bed is the Defendant.
- Q. That's that same individual you identified today as being in your room?
- 16 A. Yes.
- Q. And this is the picture you took of him in your
- 18 room?
- 19 A. That's correct.
- Q. How long after you awoke was it you took this
- 21 | picture?
- 22 A. I want to say, within like five to ten minutes.
- Q. Okay. And at that point in time did you also
- 24 | take another picture?
- 25 A. Yes, I did.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- Q. Looking at State's Exhibit 2, is that the other picture that you took?
 - A. That's correct.

- Q. What is that a picture of?
- A. His driver's license.

I took a second picture because I wasn't sure if the first picture was good.

- Q. So you took the second picture, so you could get a better view of the license?
- 10 A. That's correct.
- Q. And, in fact, this was the same license you pulled out of the Defendant's wallet?
- 13 A. That's correct.
- 14 Q. You see the Defendant's name on that license?
- 15 A. Yes, I do.
- 16 Q. What does it say?
- A. It says, James -- This one is black and white, so
- 18 I can't really see the middle one, Howard, Jr.
- Q. Okay. And after you took these two photographs,
- 20 what did you do?
- A. He wasn't aggressive, and he didn't seem like he was --
- 23 Q. Did you say anything to him?
- A. I can't remember much of what I said to him.
- I just I remember him saying he was sorry.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- 1 Q. How many times did he tell you he was sorry?
- A. A multiple amount of times. I can't remember exactly how many times.
 - Q. That is the primary substance of what he said?
- 5 A. Yes, that's correct.
 - Q. Do you recall him saying anything else?
- 7 A. Negative.

- Q. Did you at any point in time decide to call for 9 assistance?
- A. From the time I apprehended him, no, and then after that we called I guess the authorities within the building.
- Q. Okay. That would be security at the Excalibur
 Hotel?
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 Q. So you called security at Excalibur Hotel?
- 17 A. That's correct.
- Q. And does anything happen during that time you're calling security?
- A. No, just they wanted to have us explain what happened and a report, and that was it.
- Q. Had the Defendant already run out of the room by then?
- 24 A. Yeah, he left.
- 25 Q. How did he leave?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- A. I just let him leave.
 - Q. He walked right out the front door?
- A. Yeah.

10

11

15

- Q. And how long after he left was it that you called security?
 - A. I want to say, within like 20 minutes.
 - Q. Very short?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Now, you pointed out on State's Exhibit 1 that Daisy was on the other bed?
- A. Yes, that's correct.
- Q. Was that the opposite bed that you -- that she was originally on?
- 14 A. She was on the right side of me.
 - Q. Is that the bed that is closest to the wall?
- A. Yeah, that's to the wall to the doorway on the right side.
- Q. Is that the bed that is directly -- or the luggage that the Defendant was going through was directly in front of you?
- 21 A. No, it was in front of my bed.
- 22 Q. In front of the bed close to the door?
- 23 A. Yes.
- Q. The same bed he's seen sitting on in State's
- 25 | Exhibit 1?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

A. Yes, that's correct.

- A. I don't know, that's not my luggage. That was my sister and her friends' luggage.
- Q. Okay. Do you have any idea -- or do you know at all what was in there?
- A. All I know is, she took out extra money, which I told her not to do, and I don't know anything else that was inside that luggage.
 - Q. Do you know how much extra money?
- A. I think a hundred bucks or something like that.

 MR. DICKERSON: Okay. Court's brief indulgence.

 THE COURT: Yes.
 - BY MR. DICKERSON:
 - Q. Did you ever give the Defendant permission to be in your room at Excalibur Hotel on April 9th, 2013?
 - A. Negative.
- Q. Do you have knowledge of whether any of your roommates staying in that room at that time gave the Defendant permission to be in that room on April 9th, 22 2013?
 - A. Actually, no, one of them was actually crying when she found out she was asleep the whole time someone actually entered the room.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

1	Q. Who was that?
2	A. That was Daisy.
3	Q. And so your answer whether any of your roommates
4	gave the Defendant permission to be in the room?
5	A. No, there was no permission given.
6	Q. And Daisy, why was she crying?
7	A. She felt like if I wasn't there, something could
8	have happened to her.
9	Q. Were there any steps taken after security was
10	called as far as relation to Daisy?
11	A. Just to calm her down, that was pretty much it,
12	like gave her a bottle of water and just talked to her,
13	and that was it.
14.	MR. DICKERSON: The State will pass the witness.
15	THE COURT: Cross.

17	CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOSHUA JARVIS
18	BY MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER:
19	Q. Mr. Jarvis, there had been three other people
20	staying in this hotel room with you?
21	A. Correct.
22	Q. And to make sure I'm clear, the first is your
23	sister, Jessica Jarvis?
24	A. Yes.
25	Q. The second is Jessica's friend, Daisy Ramirez?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

22

- 1 A. That's correct.
- 2 Q. And the third was your girlfriend?
- 3 A. Yes.
- 4 Q. And then would you repeat her name again?
- 5 A. Misty Mustafa.
- 6 Q. Thank you.
- 7 Okay. And how long had you known Ms. Ramirez at
- 8 | this point?
- 9 A. Daisy?
- 10 Q. Yes.
- 11 A. I have known her since I was little.
- 12 Q. Since you were a child?
- 13 A. Yeah.

15

- 14 Q. How long had the four of you been in Las Vegas?
 - A. Let me see.
- 16 That's was our first night.
- 17 Q. Your first night in town?
- 18 A. We were coming back from California.
- 19 Q. What time did you arrive at the Excalibur?
- 20 A. Afternoonish.
- I can't be exactly sure, that was like three
- 22 | years ago.
- Q. But it was daylight you think when you arrived?
- 24 A. Yeah, it was.
- 25 Q. And had you all gone out to do any partying after

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

I was the one driving, so --

- Q. So you opted to stay behind, make sure you're the designated driver and sober?
 - A. Yes, that's correct.
 - Q. And then the three ladies went out on The Strip?
- A. The three ladies went out.

One of them came back at first, was Daisy, and the other two stood out.

- Q. So Misty and Jessica had remained out on the The Strip?
 - A. That's correct.
 - Q. Do you remember what time Daisy had returned to the hotel room?
- A. I do not recall exactly what time.

I would say, probably around 1:00 -- 1:00.

- Q. And at the time of this incident Misty and Jessica had not yet returned to the hotel room?
- 20 A. No.
- 21 Q. But you had been asleep during these hours?
- 22 A. While they were out, yes.
 - Q. When do you believe you fell asleep?
- A. I was pretty much -- So they took like three hours to get ready, so I fell asleep around probably

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

9:00. 1 When they were ready to go out, which was around 2 3 I want to say 11:00, I told them to go out, they were taking too long, and I have to drive in the morning. 4 5 The other two decided to stay out, and the other one came back, and that's when I went back to sleep. 6 7 To make sure I have it clear then, you went to 8 sleep at 9 p.m., you awoke again at 11 when the ladies 9 were ready to go out? 10 Yeah, I woke up, and one other person came back. 11 You fell asleep again at some point after they had gone out? 12 Exactly. 13 Α. From there, did you stay asleep until about 7 14 Q. a.m.? 15 I stayed asleep until he came in. 16 Α. 17 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Court's brief indulgence. THE COURT: Yes. 18 19 BY MS. - 9 Q. Clothes everywhere, that kind of getting ready to 10 go out mess?
 - A. Not particularly, like mostly in the bathroom.
- Q. Okay. And do you know if you didn't know what
- A. Yes, I didn't know, besides she took extra money
- 15 out.
- Q. Okay. And so you had patted down Mr. Hayes after waking to find him in the room?
- 18 A. Yes, that's correct.

was in this luggage?

- 19 Q. But first you had been yelling and using
- 20 profanity you noted?
- 21 A. Yes, I did.
- Q. Do you remember what you had said?
- 23 A. Do you want me to say verbatim?
- 24 Q. I don't mind profanity, yes.
- 25 A. I told him -- I said, who the fuck are you, and what are you doing in here, and he looked at me and with like just a deer in the headlights, and he tried to make a run for the door, and so I patted him down to make sure he didn't have any weapons or anything like that.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

- Q. And you had been then very freaked out to be yelling at the stranger in your room?
 - A. Me or him?
 - Q. You.

A. Yeah.

I don't know, you would be freaked out if someone came into your hotel, tried to rob you.

- 12 Q. Understandable.
- 13 A. Okay.
- Q. So you, even though you noted that he had not been aggressive, you had been aggressive?
 - A. I'm sorry?

17 Rephrase that.

- Q. You noted earlier that the man in your room had not been aggressive towards you?
- A. When I say, he wasn't aggressive, I mean in terms of when he ran for the door, and I stopped him, he didn't try to hit me, or try to do anything, that's what I meant by not being aggressive.
 - Q. So you took control of the situation?
- A. Exactly.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

1 All right. And at this time then you patted him Q. 2 down? 3 Α. Correct. You noted earlier you were afraid of any sort of 4 a weapon? 5 Exactly. 6 Α. 7 So you had been I take it moving quickly patting 8 him down? 9 Well, yeah, fairly quickly. 10 You wanted to make sure as quickly as possible there wasn't any sort of a weapon on his person? 11 Yes, that's correct. 12 Α. 13 ο. So --MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Court's indulgence. 14 BY MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: 15 So you didn't do a very thorough search of this 16 Q. 17 person? Ma'am, I've done a lot of searches in the past, 18 19 my search was good enough to know he didn't have a 20 weapon on him that could hurt me or Daisy that was in 21 the room. 22 Q. That's okay. 23 Can I ask you a question?

MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Well, actually --

Do you find him innocent?

THE COURT: No, you can't ask her questions. 1 It's for her to ask questions of you. 2 Don't answer that question. 3 BY MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: 4 5 So backing up a bit, you had not gone out with Q. the women onto The Strip? 6 7 No, not with my sister and her friends. So you don't know whether or not they were 8 Q. 9 drinking that night? It's Vegas I'm pretty sure they were. 10 11 0. You don't have any reason to know whether they 12 had met anybody out on The Strip? I'm pretty sure that they did not know this guy. 13 Α. 14 Q. But you couldn't say for sure? No, I couldn't say for sure. 15 Α. 16 Because you had not gone out with the ladies? Q. No, because I know them, I grew up with them. 17 They are not stupid, they are street smart. 18 But you weren't with them to see if they talked 19 20 to anybody while out on The Strip? 21 First of all, they ain't going to find him attractive, so they're not going to talk to him. 22 23 I'm simply asking you, confirming you had not 24 been with them and seen their interactions with anybody that night?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

25

- A. I told you I was in the hotel.
- Q. So you're telling me today then you don't believe that they would have had a drink with this gentleman here today?
 - MR. DICKERSON: Speculation, Your Honor.
- 6 THE COURT: Sustained.
- 7 THE WITNESS: No, I don't think so at all.
- 8 THE COURT: You don't have to answer that.
 - BY MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER:
- Q. The three women staying in the hotel room with you were all adults, correct?
- 12 A. I hope so, yeah.
- Q. And each one then had the ability to go out on their own on The Strip?
 - A. Yes, that's correct.
- Q. Okay. And you had not been with them every moment of the trip?
- 18 A. No.

- Q. And as each of them was an adult in the room, each would have the ability to invite someone back to the room?

- 23 Q. But they have the ability to invite people back?
- 24 A. They would not do that.
- Q. But you're not making the statement today based on anything you had witnessed on the night of May 28th 1 2 to the morning of May 29th? MR. DICKERSON: Vague, Your Honor. 3 4 THE COURT: Actually --5 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: My apologies on the date. 6 Why don't you rephrase the question. 7 BY MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: 8 Q. You were not basing that statement though on 9 having been with them through the night and into the early morning before this incident? 10 11 In terms of a lot, so you are saying that -you're asking me, or stating that they met this guy, and 12 somehow invited him --13 Well, I'm not stating anything. 14 0. 15 I'm asking you questions, sir. 16 Rephrase the question then. Α. 17 You say that these young women would not have had any interaction with Mr. Hayes, or anyone? 18 19 Α. Interaction? I'm clarifying your basis for that statement that 20 Q. 21 it is based on your impression of these women and your 22 opinion about Mr. Hayes, not about anything that you had 23 witnessed on the night or early morning leading into 24 this incident?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

I'm basing it on my knowledge of my sister and her friends, that I know that they did not meet after 1 2 speaking with him. 3 After the incident, they never seen the person, after showing the picture that I took, so yes, I'm 4 basing it on the fact I was not with them that night. 5 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: No other questions, Your 6 7 Honor. 8 THE COURT: Redirect? 9 MR. DICKERSON: Thank you, Your Honor. 10 REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF JOSHUA JARVIS 11 BY MR. DICKERSON: 12 Mr. Jarvis, you said that you conducted a lot of 13 searches? 14 Yes, that's correct. 15 A. 16 Q. What did you mean by that? I did searches in Afghanistan for people trying 17 18 to come inside, that I was conducting a detail. What do you do for a living? 19 Q. 20 Right now -- I used to be in the military for 21 nine years. I'm switching over to a cop. 22

And on April 9th, 2013 can you estimate how many searches you've done before that date?

- A. I don't know, probably like 60.
- Q. Were those searches when you were in Afghanistan for weapons?
 - A. That's correct.
- Q. The search you conducted on April 9th, 2013 of the Defendant, was that also a search for weapons?
 - A. That's right.
- Q. Did you search the Defendant for any property that he may have stolen?
 - A. Negative, no.
- Q. So if there was something that was concealed upon his person that was not a weapon, your search was not designed to detect that?
- 15 A. Negative, no.
- 16 O. That's correct?

- 22 A. That's correct.
- Q. And to your knowledge nobody that you were here in Las Vegas with gave the Defendant permission to be in that room?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

1 A. That's correct. 2 MR. DICKERSON: The State has no further questions for this witness. 3 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Court's indulgence. 4 5 No questions, Your Honor. 6 THE COURT: Mr. Jarvis, thank very much for your 7 time and testimony today. You're excused. 8 9 You may step down. 10 Please don't discuss your testimony with anybody, aside from a representative of the Public Defenders 11 office or District attorneys office. Both will identify 12 13 themselves appropriately. 14 State, call your next witness. 15 MR. DICKERSON: The State has no further witnesses in this matter, Your Honor. 16 THE COURT: The State rests? 17 18 MR. DICKERSON: Prior to resting, the State's 19 going to strike Count 2, attempt grand larceny count. 20 THE COURT: All right. Count 2 is stricken by 21 the State. MR. DICKERSON: If I could, Your Honor, Mr. 22 23 Jarvis, can you could just wait outside? 24 Thanks. 25 THE COURT: The State rests as to Count 1?

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

MR. DICKERSON: The State rests as to Count 1. 1 THE COURT: All right. 2 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Court's brief indulgence. 3 THE COURT: Any witnesses or evidence on behalf 4 5 of the Defense today? MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: No, Your Honor. 6 7 I have advised Mr. Hayes of his right to testify in this matter, and he's opting not to testify in 8 9 accordance with my advice. 10 THE COURT: Mr. Hayes, is that correct, you had a 11 discussion with your attorney, and you are following her 12 advice today? 13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am. 14 THE COURT: All right. The Defense rests? 15 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: The Defense rests. 16 THE 'COURT: State. 17 MR. DICKERSON: The State will waive and rebut. THE COURT: Defense. 18 19 MS. DEVANEY-SAUTER: Your Honor, I will note that 20 the State has failed to meet its burden of establishing 21 probable cause as to entering the hotel room on the 22 count of burglary. 23 While Mr. Jarvis here today was able to testify 24 that he had not given Mr. Hayes permission to enter the 25 room, or go through any property, he simply is unable to state whether or not the other ladies in the room whose luggage it was actually could have given him that permission.

He is only able to say that he doesn't think they would have been attracted to Mr. Hayes, but not that he had been present with them the whole night, and did not know to his knowledge -- Court's indulgence -- He's not able to say he had been present with him the entire night, or he had not, or he had been in a position to know whether they would have actually permitted someone access to the room in order to obtain property for them.

THE COURT: State.

MR. DICKERSON: Your Honor, thé intent element of burglary is well established by the Defendant's actions once inside the room.

Upon first being seen in the room, the Defendant was seemingly rummaging through the property of the occupants of the room, which lends to the reasonable inference that in rummaging through property that is not yours he was there to commit a larceny of that property.

Upon being confronted, he looked like a deer in the headlights, and he attempted to run for the door, also showing his intent that was not above board intent, showing what he was doing with that luggage was likely trying to commit a larceny.

BILL NELSON & ASSOCIATES Certified Court Reporters

Defendant said, I'm sorry, which only indicates more that he was not supposed to be in that room an had felonious intent to be in that room. It's pretty clear, Your Honor, the reasonable inference is drawn, and the preliminary hearing slight or marginal evidence is met for the intent element of burglary. THE COURT: Mr. Hayes, I do find the State has met their burden of proof to hold you to answer in the Eighth Judicial District Court on the charges of burglary. You will appear with your attorney in the Lower Level Arraignment Court on the following date and time. THE CLERK: June 23rd, 10 a.m., lower level District Court arraignment. THE COURT: My suggestion is, Mr. Hayes, stay out of the resort corridor.

Then after being confronted by Mr. Jarvis, the Sir, stay in contact with your attorney.

Make sure you make your lower level arraignment.

All right?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, MAY 23, 2016 1 2 3 4 5 THE COURT: This is the date and time scheduled for the preliminary hearing in the matter of 6 7 James Howard Hughes, Jr., Case Number 16F05242X. It's the Court's understanding that 8 both parties are ready to proceed; is that correct? 9 MR. ROWLES: Yes, Your Honor. 10 11 And before the State calls its first 12 witness, there are a few housekeeping matters that I'd 13 like to put on the record. Do you want me to do that 14 now? 15 THE COURT: Go ahead. 16 MR. ROWLES: Your Honor, I would just like to 17 note for the record that the State did extend an offer 18 to plead guilty to a Category B felony in this matter, 19 16F05242X. The State would agree to make no 20 recommendation at the time of sentencing. In 21 addition, the State would agree to dismiss 13F10723X 22 after rendition of sentence in this, which is also 23 another Category B felony, and also another burglary 24 charge that the defendant, Mr. Hayes, currently faces. 25 Additionally, I was provided video surveillance this morning. I have it. I informed defense counsel that I am in possession of the video 2 surveillance. There are a number of copies that I'd 3 like to sort out before I provide that over to him. I 4 5 think what I have is a copy of each camera that was used. I did inform Mr. Gaston that I do not intend to use these, and I will provide these to him as soon as 7 possible. 8 MR. GASTON: He actually -- he actually gave 9 me a chance to view them this morning, too, if I 10 11 wanted, and he was going to give me his copies. But I think that was all the copies, so he said he would go 12 back to his office and send an e-mail and whatnot. I 13 haven't had an opportunity to review them, just this 14 morning, but I don't think that's a basis to continue 15 16 the prelim. And he indicated that they're not going 17 to be used in preliminary hearing. MR. ROWLES: Yes. 18 THE COURT: Thank you. 19 20 How many witnesses does the State 21 anticipate calling? 22 MR. ROWLES: One to two. 23 THE COURT: One to two. 24 MR. ROWLES: I believe this may be able to be 25 done in one witness, Your Honor.

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

             THE COURT: Go ahead and call your first witness.

             MR. ROWLES: The State's first witness would be David Travis, Your Honor.
             MR. GASTON: And I'd just invoke the
6
   exclusionary rule at this point.
7
             THE COURT: If there are any parties in the courtroom today that are anticipated to testify in the 8 preliminary hearing or the trial in this matter, I'm

10

             MR. ROWLES: I do believe, just for the record, there is one additional witness,

14
   Richard Lazo, who is in the courtroom. He will be 15
   present outside.

3475 Las Vegas Boulevard South. 1 Α. 2 Sir, and were you working in your capacity as a security investigator on that day? 3 Yes, sir. 4 A. 5 Q. And on that day, were you conducting an 6 integrity check? 7 Α. Yes, sir. 8 And could you just briefly describe for the 9 Court what an integrity check is? 10 What we do is that we set up a room to make 11 it look like an occupied room and place it with money and other valuable items in it. And then we'll leave 12 13 the door open, ajar, to make it look like a guest may 14 have forgot to close the door. 15 Okay. And where within the hotel were you 16 conducting that integrity check? 17 Α. That would have been done on the Mardi Gras, 9th floor. 18 19 THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. Mardi Gras? 20 THE WITNESS: Mardi Gras. 21 THE COURT REPORTER: Okay. Thank you. BY MR. ROWLES: 22 23 Q. And what is the Mardi Gras? Is that in one 24 of the towers? 25 A. That's the name of the towers we have.

have three -- we have two towers. We have the Mardi 1 Gras tower and the Carnival tower. 2 What rooms were you specifically occupying? 3 Q. A. I believe it was Mardi Gras 946 and 948. 5 Okay. And what room were you present in? Q. I believe I was in Mardi Gras 946. 6 Α. 7 Okay. And so the -- the integrity check would have been in? 8 Mardi Gras 948. 9 Α. 10 Okay. While conducting the integrity check, 11 did you come into contact with anyone that you see 12 here in the courtroom? Yes, sir. 13 Α. 14 Mr. Hayes walked into our room about 15 1:49 at night. 16 You referenced Mr. Hayes. Can you please 17 point to that individual and describe an article of 18 clothing? 19 A. (Indicating) He's in the white suit, the 20 gentleman in the white suit. 21 MR. ROWLES: Your Honor, may the record 22 reflect the identification of the defendant? 23 MR. THE WITNESS: White or beige or --1 2 THE COURT: Green perhaps? THE WITNESS: Green. 3 THE COURT: All right. So noted. 4 THE WITNESS: The light colored suit. 5 THE COURT: The defendant has -- I 6 7 apologize -- the witness has identified the defendant. Thank you. 8 9 BY MR. ROWLES: 10 You testified that you came into contact with 11 Mr. Hayes while conducting the integrity check. Can 12 you describe how you came into contact with the 13 defendant? 14 A. What we do is that we set two cameras up 15 inside the room. And one is on our luggage that we have on the wall inside, and the other one is on the 16 17 door. We also have a camera in the hallway that we 18 use. 19 Q. And these -- these cameras, during the 20 integrity check, are you watching this in realtime? 21 A. Yes. We're watching it live from the 22 observation room, which was Mardi Gras 946. 23 Q. And you're personally watching this; correct? 24 Α. Yes. I am personally watching it at all 25 times.

    $350 in it, costume jewelry, and other ladies'

             It's ajar. We leave it ajar.
        Α.
             Okay. And so while you're conducting this 10 integrity check, what do you see the defendant do?
11
12
             He comes down the hallway. He sees the door
13 open. He pushes the door. He walks into the room.
14
    He closes the door behind him. He comes up to our appears to see the wallet. Walks over to our

THE COURT: -- to the questions that are 1 asked? And the State's attorney will go ahead and ask 2 you the appropriate questions. 3 THE WITNESS: Okay. 4 5 THE COURT: All right. BY MR. ROWLES: 6 7 Q. We'll break this down step by step. Α. 8 Okay. 9 Sir, you mentioned that you saw the defendant 10 approach the room? 11 A. Yes, sir. Did he enter the room? 12 Q. 13 A. Yes, sir. He pushed the door open and 14 entered the room. 15 Q. And after he entered the room, where did he 16 go? 17 Α. He went over to the luggage. 18 Q. What did he do when he went to the luggage? 19 He looked at the luggage at that point but 20 didn't touch anything at that second. 21 Q. What was inside the luggage? 22 A white ladies' wallet, clothing, and costume Α. 23 jewelry. 24 So you're saying he didn't grab anything Q. 25 inside the luggage, he was just looking at it?

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

At that time. 1 Α. 2 What does he do after that? Q. He walked over to where we had electronics, 3 Α. an iPad, and another piece of reading material. 5 What did he do when he was in that area? Q. He didn't touch that part of the item either. б Α. 7 Okay. And so after he was looking at the 8 electronics, what did he do? 9 He walked back over to the luggage, picked up 10 the white wallet, took the money out of the white ' 11 wallet, turned around, and put it into his left 12 pocket, turned around and checked the costume 13 jewelry -- checked through the jewelry, checked 14 through the rest of the jewelry, and then closed the 15 lid to the luggage. 16 Okay. You referenced that he grabbed the Q. 17 money out of the wallet. How much money was there? 18 How much money did you guys place in there before --19 A. $350. 20 Okay. And so he placed that money -- where did you place that money? 21 22 Α. The left front pocket of his pants. 23 Okay. And then so he also -- you also 24 mentioned that he looked at some jewelry; did he take 25 any of the jewelry?

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

1	A. He didn't take any of the jewelry.
2	Q. Okay. What did he do after that?
3	A. He went through the rest of the luggage, the
4	ladies' luggage. When he was done, he closed the lid.
5	Q. After closing the lid, where did he go?
6	A. He started heading out. Once he opened the
7	door, he exited.
. 8	Q. Okay. And so after he exited the room, was
9	he subsequently detained by security officials?
10	A. He was detained by security as soon as he
11	1 opened the door to leave, yes, sir.
12	Q. Did you after detaining the defendant, was
13	Metro contacted?
14	A. Yes, they were.
15	Q. And did Metro respond?
16	A. Yes, sir.
17	Q. Were you present when Metro was speaking with
18	the defendant?
19	A. Yes, sir.
20	Q. And did you observe anything at that time?
21	A. Metro we searched him, read him his
22	rights, searched him, and removed the money from his
23	left pocket. And they verified the money with our
24	photo copies.
25	Q. And did you personally observe the money that was confiscated from the defendant?

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

A. Yes, sir.
Q. And was that the money that you placed in the luggage?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Sir, did with regards to Room 248, who was the registered occupant of that room?
A. Do you mean 948? That would have been
Q. 948.
A. It was under a fictitious name. And it was my room, but we used a different name in case an employee is involved.
Q. And did you give the defendant permission to enter Room 948?
A. I did not.
MR. ROWLES: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.
(Pause in proceedings)
MR. ROWLES: I'll pass the witness,
Your Honor.
THE COURT: Cross-examination.
CROSS-EXAMINATION
BY MR. GASTON:
Q. Where do you work, again?
A. Harrah's Las Vegas.

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

And how long have you been working there? 1 Q. I've been at Harrah's Las Vegas for 15 -- for 2 Α. 13 years. Excuse me. 3 What's your job title? 4 Q. 5 Security investigator. Α. What does that mean? 6 Q. 7 I'm responsible for investigating any crimes 8 or activities -- illegal activities on property. Okay. And you call this an "integrity 9 check"; correct? 10 Yes, sir. 11 Α. 12 What it really is, is, like, kind of, a bait operation; right? 13 14 THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. Could you 15 please repeat that? BY MR. GASTON: 16 What it really is, kind of, like, a bait 17 Q. operation; right? 18 19 You can call it that. Yes, sir. 20 So you guys essentially set up bait and watch 21 it on cameras and wait for someone to come and take it; right? 22 Yes, sir. 23 Α. 24 Okay. About how many of these integrity 25 checks, just a guesstimate, would you say you've done?

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

MR. ROWLES: Objection, Your Honor. 1 2 Relevance. MR. GASTON: I think it goes to their 3 procedures, and it goes to what their actions are and whatnot. 5 THE COURT: I'm going to overrule the 6 7 objection. 8 THE WITNESS: I have done probably -probably a dozen of them 9 BY MR. GASTON: 10 11 Q. A dozen of them. Okay. 12 And that's over about 13 years? 13 No, sir. That's over the last 4 years probably. 14 15 Q. Okay. Is there a reason you didn't do any of 16 them prior to 4 years ago? 17 Before I was an investigator, I was only a 18 supervisor. 19 Q. So --20 I've been an investigator for 4 years. 21 So it just wasn't your job function? Q. 22 Yes, sir. A. 23 But the security office itself was still doing integrity checks; right? 24 25 A. Excuse me?

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

1	Q. The security office itself
2	A. The security department, yes, sir.
3	THE COURT REPORTER: I need you to both go
4	one at a time, please.
5	MR. GASTON: I'm sorry.
6	THE COURT REPORTER: Thank you.
7	BY MR. GASTON:
8	Q. How many how many cameras did you set up
9	in the room?
10	A. I had two in the room and one in the hallway.
11	Q. Okay. And did you provide all of that
12	surveillance video to the State?
13	A. Yes, I did.
14	Q. Is that the surveillance video that you
15	A. There is two copies of each. I could show
16	you which ones are which.
17	Q. That's okay.
18	A. There is two copies of each. Yes, sir.
19	Q. So they should have gotten six disks; right?
20	A. Actually sorry actually, the video is
21	small enough that they were put on the same disk, and
22	then you have the interviewing disk. So you've got
23	three cameras on one disk and they each have a
24	separate disk.
25	Q. Okay. How many people were in this room

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

watching the video? 1 2 Α. Three of us. And who were those people? 3 Q. It was myself, Richard Lazo, and then 4 5 Anthony Maliwat. Okay. And what were the items set up in the 6 Q. room again? You have ladies' luggage; right? 7 Α. 8 Ladies' luggage. And what's in there, just clothing items? 9 0. We have two suitcases, ladies' luggage, with Α. 10 11 clothing in it. 12 Q. Okay. Costume jewelry, various hygiene products. 13 14 There's a ladies' wallet in this case and the money. 15 We also had an iPad, and a reading device that was on the table. 16 What's a reading device? 17 Q. This one -- this device I used was a 18 hearing-impaired reading device. 19 20 So, if you know, what's the approximate value of the costume jewelry? 21 I haven't -- can't answer. I don't know. 22 A. Okay. If you know, what's the approximate 23 value of the wallet itself? 24 25 A. The wallet we valued at $25.

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

Okay. Was there anything else in the wallet 1 Q. 2 other than just cash? There was gift cards or -- correction -- it 3 Α. was, I guess, a Smiths, kind of, reward card. 4 5 was also a Sam's Club card. There was some -- a fake ID in there that we used. And there was also other 6 items inside the bait that made it look like a real 7 8 wallet. Were there any credit cards inside? 9 Q. No, sir. We don't use credit cards in that 10 Α. wallet. 11 Any actual gift cards? 12 Q. No, sir. Nothing with actual value in it. 13 Α. 14 Q. If you know --15 Α. Besides the money. 16 If you know, let's talk about the suitcase Q. that has the clothing inside. What is the approximate 17 value of that suitcase? 18 $20, approximately. 19 A. What about the other suitcase? 20 Probably about $10. 21 Α. Okay. What about the clothing inside? 22 Q. I can't answer that. 23 Α. 24 Okay. Excuse me. I'm sorry. I'm not feeling very well. 25

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

What's the approximate value of the 1 2 iPad? That iPad was valued at $200. 3 Α. Okay. What about the hearing-impaired Q. reading device? 5 I don't have a value on that, sir. 6 Α. 7 So originally the defendant looked through the luggage; right? 8 9 Α. Yes, sir. And he looked through the wallet; right? 10 Q. He doesn't look -- he looks at the luggage 11 12 originally, but doesn't go through it until he comes back to it. 13 Okay. So when is the first time he saw the 14 Q. 15 wallet? That would be speculative. A. I'm assuming he 16 17 saw it when he first walked by. Okay. So he walked by the wallet. He didn't 18 take it out at that point; right? 19 20 A. No. He goes and he looks at the iPad and the 21 electronic devices; right? 22 23 A. Yes, sir. But he didn't try to pocket any of those or 24 anything; right? 25

Metro. 1 And then you said you call Metro? 2 Q. 3 Yes, sir. Α. And then Metro comes out and does what they 5 do; right? Yes, sir. 6 Α. 7 Okay. If you know, you've had some experience with this job function. You were a 8 9 supervisor before this; right? A. Yes, sir. 10 0. So, if you know, I'm not asking you to guess, 11 but if you know, why do you guys do this operation 12 instead of Metro doing the operation? 13 14 MR. ROWLES: Objection, Your Honor. 15 Relevance. MR. GASTON: I think it's relevant to an 16 entrapment defense on statute because we're going to 17 18 talk about whether it's a state action or not. And because the first element of entrapment is government 19 20 instigation. And in this case if we want to go with an entrapment defense, we have to show government 21 instigation. In this case I think security is so 22 23 intertwined with Metro and especially its operations as to amount to state action. So I'm trying to follow 24 and develop that. 25

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

MR. ROWLES: Your Honor, if I may respond? 1 2 THE COURT: Yes. MR. ROWLES: Your Honor, what we're here for 3 is the preliminary hearing. It's the justice court's 4 jurisdiction to determine whether or not there's 5 slight or marginal evidence that a crime was committed б and this defendant committed the crime. Any 7 constitutional issues are best left to the district 8 court. And on that, I'll submit it. 9 MR. GASTON: If I can respond? 10 A couple points. Number one, 11 constitutional issues are relevant in justice court. 12 There are statutes on point, they are the subject of 13 litigation, and there's disagreement among various 14 justice courts. Judge Lippis is under the position, 15 which she's made very clear, that she does consider 16 justice court to have jurisdiction on constitutional 17 18 issues. Additionally, the confrontation clause 19 doesn't apply to preliminary hearings in Nevada; 20 however, in Colorado it does. And when deciding that, 21 the Nevada Supreme Court ultimately decided that when 22 23 we do a preliminary hearing in Nevada, we give attorneys much more leeway on the questioning and 24 whatnot, rather than Colorado, which is one reason why 25

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

the confrontation clause doesn't apply at prelim, but 1 it would apply at Colorado. And on that, I'd submit. 2 THE COURT: I'm going to go ahead and 3 4 overrule the objection and allow Mr. Gaston to continue questioning. 5 MR. GASTON: Thank you. 6 7 BY MR. GASTON: If you know -- if you know, in your 8 Q. 9 experience and whatnot, is there a reason that you guys conduct these operations instead of just letting 10 Metro try to do it? 11 12 Α. I have no clue, sir. We have always done 13 them. You have always done them? 14 Q. 15 Well, yes, sir. As long as I've been around. Α. MR. GASTON: Court's indulgence. 16 17 (Pause in proceedings) BY MR. GASTON: 18 Now, you said that you didn't give him 19 permission to enter the room; correct? 20 21 Α. Correct. Do you know if any of the other people gave 22 23 him permission to enter the room? No one gave him permission to enter our room. 24 25 But, I mean, you don't know for sure, though; Q.

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

right? 1 2 Α. I know for sure. No one gave him permission 3 to enter my room. Okay. How do you know that nobody gave him 4 Q. 5 permission to enter the room? Because only three people knew it was our 6 room. And it was -- I was sitting in the room all by 7 myself. And in order to enter the room, someone had 8 to give him permission; for example, if you don't have 9 your key, you don't have whatever, we send an officer 10 up to do a check, we verify through the front desk 11 that your name is correct, and then we have you enter 12 the room. 13 14 Q. We can agree, though, it's possible that some 15 other individual told him, Hey, my money's up in that Will you go get it for me? Right? 16 17 Α. I don't know that, sir. 18 Q. You don't know one way or the other? I don't know. 19 A. 20 You said you've done about 12 or 13 integrity checks? 21 Approximately, that many, yes, sir. 22 Α. 23 And in those 12 or 13 times, how many times did somebody not enter the room? 24 25 A. (No verbal response)

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

So you guys just sat there and, kind of, 1 Q. watched TV for a while? 2 Probably -- probably four sets. 3 Α. I'm sorry? 4 Q. 5 Α. Probably four -- four sets. How long do you run the operation until you 6 7 guys, kind of, give up? We have a set period of time depending on 8 what shift we're looking at. At this operation, for 9 this one, was 16 hours. 10 11 Q. And about how long -- you were into the 12 operation for about 16 hours before my client entered 13 the room? Not -- no. We were only on this -- this 14 Α. 15 one before he walked into the room was 10 hours, 16 10 1/2 hours. 17 So then you took care of all of the stuff you had to do with him, and then you resume the operation? 18 19 Α. Yes, sir. 20 Did anyone else get arrested that day 21 entering that room? A. No, sir. 22 23 Q. Did anyone else try to enter that room? 24 Α. No, sir. He never actually left the room, though; 25

When you observed the defendant enter the 1 Q. 2 room, did he use a room key? 3 No, sir. A. Did he punch in a code? Q. No, sir. 5 Α. When he was subsequently detained, did he 6 Q. 7 present the room key to you? No, sir. 8 A. Did he present a receipt showing access --9 that he had purchased the room? 10 No, sir. 11 A. 12 MR. ROWLES: I'll pass the witness, Your Honor. 13 14 MR. GASTON: Really brief recross. 15 16 RECROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. GASTON: 17 18 Did he say anything to you? When you 19 arrested him, did he say anything to you? 20 I don't remember the conversation we might 21 have had up in the hallway. But he didn't -- but it's your understanding 22 Q. 23 that you don't remember whether he said anything or 24 not? 25 I was -- I was the one watching the camera. Α.

SHAWNA J. MCINTOSH, CCR NO. 770 (702) 671-3464

The officer detained him. But he didn't say nothing 1 2 to me at the hallway or in the hallway. If he had said something, like a reason for Q. 3 entering the room or vice versa, if he said anything admitting that he was trying to steal stuff, you would 5 have put that into your report; correct? 6 7 I would. If he said something before we took him down, yes, sir. And I don't remember the 8 conversation in the interview room, but the interview 9 room was recorded. 10 I'm sorry? Q. 11 I don't remember the conversation we had with 12 13 him in the interview room, but the interview room is 14 recorded. 15 0. All right. Thank you. Do we have video surveillance of that 16 17 interview? Yes, you do. 18 Α. And you provided that to the State? Q. 19 Yes, sir. 20 Α. MR. GASTON: No further questions. 21 THE COURT: Great. Thank you. 22 23 Mr. Travis, a quick point. You indicated that you personally provided those CDs? 24 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. 25

MR. GASTON: No, Your Honor. I've advised my 1 2 client of his right to testify. Based on my advice, he's going to decline to do so today. And the defense 3 would rest. 5 THE COURT: Great. Mr. Hayes, I just want to make sure 6 7 that information is correct. You have been informed by your counsel that you have the right to testify and 8 the right to remain silent and that cannot be held 9 10 against you? 11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am. 12 THE COURT: Do you understand that? THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am. 13 14 THE COURT: And you've elected not to 15 testify; is that correct? 16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am. 17 THE COURT: Great. Thank you. 18 The Court is ready to hear closing 19 arguments. 20 State. 21 MR. ROWLES: Submit and reserve, Your Honor. 22 MR. GASTON: Court's indulgence. 23 (Pause in proceedings) 24 MR. GASTON: Your Honor, at this time I'm going to move to dismiss this case. I don't think they've met their burden of probable cause to show that when he entered the room, he intended to commit a larceny. We've heard about what he did when we was actually in the room. We've also heard it was, kind of, a bait set up. He originally didn't take the wallet when he first saw it. He didn't take the electronic devices when he had the opportunity to do so. He didn't take any jewelry. He didn't take anything else. Ultimately, yes. Did he give into temptation? According to the evidence and light most favorable to the State, did he give into temptation and take the cash? Yes, he did. But there's nothing to show that he intended to do so when he entered the room.

Now, I know that officer said he

Now, I know that officer said he didn't give him specific permission to enter that room, but he doesn't know if someone else might have told him to go get the cash for him in the room because they're gambling downstairs or what his reason was for going into the room. The State didn't present any evidence to show the intent. If he had been charged with petty larceny here or theft or something, then they would be in a different situation. But they have to show his intent when he enters the room, and all they have to do so is his eventual actions. And I think that's pretty -- that's countered by the fact that he didn't take the cash when he first entered the room. He didn't take everything. In fact, it shows a man who was looking for -- we don't know what he was doing, but when he was in that room, he ultimately gave in to temptation. But he still only took the cash. An iPad is obviously valuable, and he didn't take that. And on that, I would submit.

MR. ROWLES: Your Honor, the question with which the defendant enters with any intent is a question left for the jury. I will touch briefly upon this right now. With regards to any affirmative defense with regard to entrapment, that is an affirmative defense. That's a question for the jury, not for here.

Intent, the crime is completed for burglary when he enters the room. You're well aware. Defendants don't enter rooms saying, I am here to commit larceny. You look at the circumstances and conduct before, during, and after. In fact, even the mere fact that a crime was committed after entry is sufficient to prove intent with regards to that. And the fact that it's a question that's left for the ultimate trier of fact, the jury, I'll submit it, Your Honor.

DECLARATION

KELLI M. DEVANEY-SAUTER makes the following declaration:

- 1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada; I am a Deputy Public Defender for the Clark County Public Defender's Office appointed to represent Defendant James Howard Hayes in the present matter;
 - 2. I am more than 18 years of age and am competent to testify as to the matters stated herein. I am familiar with the procedural history of the case and the substantive allegations made by The State of Nevada. I also have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein or I have been informed of these facts and believe them to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. (NRS 53.045).

EXECUTED this 20th day of December, 2016.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

James Howard Hayes is currently charged with one count of Burglary (Category B Felony), arising from the State's assertion that Mr. Hayes committed a "door push" hotel room burglary at the Excalibur Hotel & Casino on April 9, 2013. The instant case was set for Calendar Call on December 20, 2016 and set for trial on January 3, 2016.

On December 12, 2016, the State filed its Motion for Joinder of Case C315718 into Case C315125. On December 16, 2016, the State filed the instant motion, giving the same arguments in support of the introduction of bad act evidence as those which were given in support of consolidating the instant case with Mr. Hayes' other case, C315125. The State's Motion for Joinder of Case C315718 into Case C315125 is set for argument in District Court Department 20 on December 22, 2016 at 9:00 am.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

The Nevada Supreme Court has consistently held that the use of bad act evidence to convict a defendant is heavily disfavored in our criminal justice system. Tavares v. State, 117 Nev. 725, 730, 30 P.3d 1128, 1131 (2001) holding modified on other grounds by Mclellan v. State, 124 Nev. 263, 182 P.3d 106 (2008); Knipes v. State, 124 Nev. 927, 936, 192 P.3d 1178, 1184 (2008); Weber v. State, 121 Nev. 554, 589, 119 P.3d 107, 130-31 (2005) (concurring opinion); Richmond v. State, 118 Nev. 924, 932, 59 P.3d 1249, 1254-55 (2002). The Court's primary concern with the admission of such acts is that juries are often unduly influenced by the evidence, and thus convict the accused because they believe the accused is a bad person. Richmond, 118 Nev. at 932, 59 P.3d at 1254-55; Weber, 121 Nev. at 589-90, 119 P.3d at 130-31.

"Evidence of other crimes, wrongs or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a person in order to show that he acted in conformity therewith." Richmond, 118 Nev. at 932, 59 P.3d at 1254-55. Under NRS 48.045, evidence of a defendant's prior bad acts may only be used for purposes which do not relate to the defendant's propensity to commit the crime charged, and instead may only relate be used for non-propensity purposes. NRS 48.045; Weber, 121 Nev. at 589-90, 119 P.3d at 130-31.

Based on the foregoing, evidence of uncharged bad acts is presumed to be inadmissible. Rosky v. State, 121 Nev. 184, 195, 111 P.3d 690, 697 (2005). In order to overcome the presumption of inadmissibility of a prior bad act, the State must request a hearing. Id. The State has the burden of establishing at a hearing outside the jury's presence that (1) the incident is relevant to the crime charged for a purpose other than establishing the defendant's propensity to commit the crimes charged, (2) the act is proven by clear and convincing evidence, and (3) the probative value of the evidence is not substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice to the defendant. Tavares, 117 Nev. at 730, 30 P.3d at 1131. However, there is no need for a hearing in this instant case because the State simply cannot meet this burden.

Here, the State cannot establish the prerequisites to allow admission of the acts referenced in the State's motion. The State asserts that the alleged bad acts are relevant to Mr. Hayes' innocence or guilt in the current offenses – however, the prior bad act which the State seeks to admit is not admissible for any non-propensity purpose which would be acceptable under NRS 48.045(2). And most importantly, any limited probative value of the Mr. Hayes' alleged prior bad acts is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice to Mr. Hayes.

I. EVIDENCE OF THE ALLEGED HARRAH'S BURGLARY IS NOT ADMISSIBLE FOR ANY NON-PROPENSITY PURPOSE

When the State requests the introduction of bad act evidence, it must thoroughly explain how one or more of the specific exceptions contained in NRS 48.045(2) apply to the facts of the case. "A mere recitation of the statute is not sufficient justification for the admission of prior acts." Taylor v. State, 109 Nev. 849, 854 (1993). NRS 48.045 and all the jurisprudence stemming from this statute is based on the fundamental principle of our criminal judicial system that bad acts cannot be used to show that a defendant acted in conformity therewith. However, this prohibited use is precisely why the State seeks to admit the bad act evidence in this case.

A. EVIDENCE OF THE ALLEGED HARRAH'S BURGLARY DOES NOT CONSTITUTE EVIDENCE OF INTENT; INSTEAD, IT IS MERELY PROPENSITY EVIDENCE.

The State asserts that the alleged Harrah's burglary establishes Mr. Hayes' intent to commit burglary in the instant case because Mr. Hayes' alleged "conduct and participation in strikingly similar crimes" establishes Mr. Hayes' "specific intent to commit larceny" upon entry into the hotel room in the instant case. State's Motion at 6. Such a purpose is impermissible under NRS 48.045(2).

The fact that Mr. Hayes entered a different hotel room, on a different date, and allegedly intended to steal is of little to no relevance to prove that he had the intent when he entered the hotel rooms in the instant case. Rather than to prove intent in the instant case, the only thing this prior bad act evidence can be offered to prove is conformity with prior conduct: that Mr. Hayes is accused of burglarizing a hotel room in 2016, so he must have also done the same in the instant case.

And while the State notes that specific intent offenses are more difficult to prove, the State cites no authority to suggest that it may improperly present evidence of prior bad acts in order to lessen its burden. While a defendant's intent is at issue in a Burglary trial, the State is not excused from the prohibitions against the introduction of propensity evidence set out in NRS 48.045.

The cases cited by the State in its Motion are readily distinguishable from the case at hand. In each of the cases cited by the State, the Supreme Court concluded that admission of evidence of other bad acts was permissible where the bad act occurred at the same time or involved the same set of actors. See Darnell v. State, 92 Nev. 680 (1976) (evidence that defendant had previously purchased firearms he knew to be stolen was admissible when defendant was on trial for purchasing firearms from the same individual, as the evidence of the prior purchase and his knowledge that the individual sold stolen firearms evidenced his intent to buy a stolen firearm); see also, United States v. Beechum, 582 F.2d 898 (5th Cir. 1978) (evidence that postal employee/defendant had in his possession two credit cards, which were known to have been stolen from his route 10 months prior to the charged incident, was admissible where defendant had the credit cards in his possession at the same time he had the silver dollar he was charged with stealing in his possession, in order to show that defendant did not have intent to return items to their rightful owners); see also, United States v. Kirk, 528 F.2d 1057 (5th Cir. 1976) (evidence of a previous threat to kill the President of the United States made by the defendant was admissible at trial where defendant was once again charged with threatening to kill the President of the United States, with the court noting that the incidents surrounding the prior threat evidenced the defendant's knowledge at the serious nature of such a statement). Here, we are not dealing with the same time frame or same sets of actors. Instead, the State is asking this Court to extend the "intent exception" to ensure that an individual accused of burglary can never enter a building again without that prior accusation being used to establish intent: essentially that, if he did it once, he will do it again.

The State proposes the introduction of pure propensity evidence masquerading as a non-propensity purpose. It is propensity evidence in sheep's clothing, and it is the exact type of analysis that NRS 48.045 forbids. Therefore, evidence of the alleged 2016 Harrah's burglary is not admissible in the instant case under NRS 48.045.

B. EVIDENCE OF THE ALLEGED HARRAH'S BURGLARY DOES NOT CONSTITUTE EVIDENCE OF A COMMON SCHEME OR PLAN.

Under NRS 173.115(2), Nevada case law defines a common scheme or plan as a method of design or procedure for accomplishment of a specific act or object. Weber, 121 Nev. at 572. "The test is not whether the other offense has certain elements in common with the crime charged, but whether it tends to establish a preconceived plan which resulted in the commission of that crime." Nester v. State, 75 Nev. 41, 47 (1959) abrogated on other grounds by Bigpond v. State, 128 Nev. Adv. Op. 10, 270 P.3d 1244 (2012). Therefore, the Supreme Court of Nevada has stated that District Courts must engage in a fact-specific analysis before they may determine whether a common plan or scheme exists. Weber, 121 Nev. at 572.

In its Motion, the State cites to Graves v. State, 112 Nev. 118 (1996), as support for its assertion that the crimes allegedly committed by Mr. Hayes constitute part of a common scheme or plan. This is likely in acknowledgement of the fact that Mr. Hayes is accused of committing "door push" hotel room burglaries, a crime of opportunity which requires no true planning to execute. The State notes that in Graves, the defendant was found to have a common scheme or plan after skulking around downtown casinos, seeking crimes of opportunity. However, the State fails to note the massive distinction between Graves and Mr. Hayes' two cases: the time frame within which these crimes of opportunity are said to have occurred. In Graves, there was only one night between the two incidents which were joined at trial. Id. at 120, 128. Whereas, in Mr. Hayes' cases, the alleged crimes are separated by a span of over three years.

This extreme gap in time between alleged crimes is significant. The Supreme Court of Nevada has previously concluded that similar offenses do not automatically constitute a common scheme or plan, especially where the two alleged offenses are remote in time. Tabish v. State, 119 Nev. 293, 303 (2003), citing Mitchell, 105 Nev. 735. The combination of the alleged crimes being "door push" burglaries, which are crimes of opportunity that require little to no planning, and the time in between the alleged crimes precludes joinder on the grounds that the two alleged burglaries being part of a "common scheme or plan."

Further, the Nevada Supreme Court held that a perpetrator's purpose of attaining money in multiple crimes does not alone sufficiently connect crimes to create a common scheme or plan behind them. Tabish, 119 Nev. at 303. Therefore, any assertion by the State that Mr. Hayes' entry into hotel rooms to obtain private property and money cannot support a joinder, either.

C. EVIDENCE OF THE ALLEGED HARRAH'S BURGLARY DOES NOT CONSTITUTE EVIDENCE ON THE ABSENCE OF A MISTAKE OR ACCIDENT.

Lack of mistake is in issue only when a defendant is claiming his acts were a mistake or an accident. An example of this is classic case where the husband shoots the wife with his shotgun and he alleges it accidentally went off while he was cleaning the gun. In that case, the State needs to prove that the shooting was not a mistake or an accident. Per NRS 48.045, the State would be allowed to admit evidence of prior incidents where the defendant shot his previous wives with firearms. There is no conceivable correlation from that example to this instant case.

Mr. Hayes is not alleging that there is any mistake or accident in this case. There will be no defense that Mr. Hayes accidentally tripped and entered a hotel room, or that he erroneously believed Mr. Jarvis' luggage to be his own. Without the existence of a mistake or accident being an issue in this case, any evidence seeking to prove the absence of a mistake or accident is simply irrelevant. Thus, this alleged bad act evidence is not admissible under the guise of having to prove the absence of mistake or accident. The State's Motion must be denied.

II. INTRODUCING EVIDENCE OF THE ALLEGED HARRAH'S BURGLARY WOULD UNDULY PREJUDICE MR. HAYES; FURTHER, THAT UNDUE PREJUDICE WOULD SUBSTANTIALLY OUTWEIGH THE PROBATIVE VALUE OF THE BAD ACT EVIDENCE.

The primary concern with the admission of such acts is that juries are often unduly influenced by the evidence, "and thus convict the accused because they believe the accused is a bad person" rather than on a factual or evidentiary showing of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Richmond, 118 Nev. at 932, 59 P.3d at 1254-55; Weber, 121 Nev. at 589-90, 119 P.3d at 130-31. It cannot be denied that showing the jury evidence that Mr. Hayes is alleged to have committed a second burglary will unduly and unfairly prejudice Mr. Hayes while offering no probative value to any of the elements or facts at issue in the instant case. Under such circumstances, the jury would not be analyzing the weight and sufficiency of the evidence in this case, but rather, would be quick to punish Mr. Hayes for his alleged other bad acts.

These prior bad acts are presented under the guise of establishing intent, absence of mistake or accident, or identity and are purely a pretextual attempt to prejudice the jury. The State seeks to offer the prior bad act evidence solely for the prejudicial effect it will have on the jury, all but ensuring a guilty verdict regardless of the proof presented as to the instant offense. The defense implores this Honorable Court to consider the insurmountable prejudicial effect the admission of prior bad acts will have on jurors, particularly in comparison to the minimal relevance the prior bad acts have as to intent, common scheme or plan, or lack of mistake or accident.

Here, it is apparent that the State only seeks to introduce evidence relating to the alleged Harrah's burglary in order to inflame the passions of the jury and to lead the jury to conclude that, if Mr. Hayes had committed such a crime once, he would do it again. In the State's Motion to Admit Evidence of Other Acts, the State concedes that it does not have sufficient evidence to secure a conviction in each of the cases alone, by acknowledging the difficulty it would have in establishing intent in the offenses at issue. See State's Motion pg. 10, line 19-22. Allowing for the introduction of the bad acts evidence relating to the alleged Harrah's burglary would serve as a tool to have to jury find Mr. Hayes guilty because of the fact that he has been accused of a similar crime, rather than based on the evidence relating to the instant charges. The law does not allow for the State to unfairly prejudice Mr. Hayes through the use of prior bad act evidence in order to bolster the weaknesses in the State's case.

III. THE STATE'S MOTION CANNOT BE GRANTED WITHOUT A PETROCELLI HEARING; PRELIMINARY HEARING TESTIMONY DOES NOT SATISFY THE PETROCELLI REQUIREMENTS.

"Before admitting evidence of a prior bad act or collateral offense, the district court must conduct a hearing outside the presence of the jury." Armstrong v. State, 110 Nev. 1322, 1323–24 (1994) (citing Petrocelli v. State, 101 Nev. 46 (1985) (emphasis added). The Supreme Court demands a Petrocelli hearing to enable adequate appellate review, Meek v. State, 12 Nev. 1288, 1293 (1996); see Knipes v. State, 124 Nev. 927, 931-32 (2008) (confirming the purpose of requiring on-the-record determinations in Petrocelli hearings), and the Supreme Court will reverse a conviction and order a new trial if a Petrocelli hearing is not held. Id., at 1297.

The State asserts that merely attaching the transcript from the preliminary hearing on a charge satisfies the requirements of Petrocelli; this is wholly inaccurate. First and most importantly, the standard the State must meet differs between a Preliminary Hearing and a Petrocelli Hearing. At the Preliminary Hearing stage, the State must only establish probable cause that a crime occurred, and this may be satisfied by a showing of slight or marginal evidence. Sheriff v. Middleton, 112 Nev. 956, 961-62 (1996). However, in a Petrocelli Hearing, the standard is significantly higher, requiring the State to establish that the bad act occurred by a showing clear and convincing evidence. Petrocelli, 101 Nev. at 52. Thus, attaching a copy of the preliminary hearing transcript cannot satisfy the requirements of Petrocelli, as it was only established at the hearing that there was slight or marginal evidence supporting the finding of probable cause; not the clear and convincing evidence demanded by Petrocelli. Second, the purpose of the two hearings is entirely distinct and involve different considerations and inquiries.

And finally, the State asserts that somehow, because defense counsel had the opportunity to cross examine witnesses at the Preliminary Hearing, this somehow justifies using the transcript in lieu of conducting a Petrocelli Hearing. The State cites no authority as to why such a substitution for a Petrocelli Hearing is permissible on those grounds, and actually seems to be conflating the opportunity to cross-examine consideration from Crawford v. Washington, 541 US 36 (2004), which addressed the use of prior statements by an unavailable witness. Crawford does not address the introduction of bad act evidence and is wholly unrelated to NRS 48.045.

Based on the foregoing, if the State is not inclined to immediately deny the State's motion, a Petrocelli hearing is required.

CONCLUSION In order for JAMES HAYES to get a fair trial, free from undue prejudice, this Court should DENY the State's request to introduce evidence of the alleged Harrah's burglary. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On June 23, 2016, Defendant James Howard Hayes appeared in District Court for Initial Arraignment, his first appearance, in this case. At that time, the magistrate ordered "if the Preliminary Hearing Transcript has not been filed as of today, Counsel has 21 days from the filing of the Transcript." Thirty-six (36) days later, on July 29, 2016, the preliminary hearing transcript, entitled "Reporter's Transcript of Proceedings Preliminary Hearing 6/14/16," was filed.

Jury trial was initially scheduled for January 3, 2017, with Calendar Call set for December 27, 2018.

On November 18, 2016, Defendant filed Defendant's Motion For Discovery. On December 5, 2016, the State filed State's Response to Defendant's Motion for Discovery, and State's Request for Reciprocal Discovery. That Motion was ultimately adjudicated on December 8, 2016.

On December 12, 2016, the State filed Notice of Motion and Motion for Joinder of Case C315718 into Case C315125. That motion was adjudicated and denied in Case No. C315125.

 Calendar Call was moved up to December 20, 2016. On December 20, 2016, at the Calendar Call, Defendant requested a continuance due to pending motions and their request for time to complete "additional investigation."

On December 16, 2016, the State filed Notice of Motion and Motion to Admit Evidence of Other Acts. On December 20, 2016, Defendant filed Opposition To The State's Motion To Admit Evidence Of Other Acts. That Motion was untimely heard and denied on January 12, 2017. On January 20, 2017, an Order Denying State's Motion To Admit Evidence Of Other Acts was filed.

On January 26, 2017, trail was scheduled to begin on March 21, 2017.

On February 8, 2017, Substitution of Attorney. On February 9, 2017, recusal of the court was ordered. On February 10, 2017, Notice of Department Reassignment issued assigning this case to this Honorable Court.

On March 6, 2017, trial was scheduled by this Court to begin on March 27, 2018, with Calendar Call on March 22, 2018. On March 22, 2018, at Calendar Call, the Defendant requested trial be vacated and a status check be set for negotiation of the case. The State was ready for trial, but did not oppose the request.

After a number of status checks, defense counsel filed Tony Abbatangelo, Esq's Motion to Withdraw as Attorney of Record on May 31, 2017. After that Motion was granted, the Public Defender re-confirmed on the case on July 10, 2017.

On August 30, 2017, Pretrial Conference was heard by this Court. On September 27, 2017, Calendar Call was held and Defendant advised there is an offer Defendant wants to accept; however, Defendant filed an appeal which a decision has not been reached. Trial was vacated and the case was set for a Status Check as to the Supreme Court Decision. On October 25, 2017. On October 25, 2017, Defendant asked for a new trial setting, stating that the Court of Appeals dismissed his pro per writ petition. Trial was scheduled to begin on May 14, 2018.

On March 1, 2018, five-hundred-eighty (580) days after the filing of the preliminary hearing transcript, Defendant filed Courtesy Filing Of Defendant's Pro Per Petition.

On April 6, 2018, six-hundred-sixteen (616) days after the filing of the preliminary hearing transcript, Defendant filed Amended Courtesy Filing Of Defendant's Pro Per Petition For Writ Of Habeas Corpus.

On April 11, 2018, Pretrial Conference was held.

On April 23, 2018, the Court heard Defendant's Amended Courtesy Filing Of Defendant's Pro Per Petition For Writ Of Habeas Corpus and requested a written response from the State. This matter is set to be heard on May 9, 2018.

Trial is scheduled to begin on May 14, 2018.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. DEFENDANT'S PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS IS PROCEDURALLY BARRED

Defendant has failed to properly file his petition for writ of habeas corpus. As such, the Court lacks jurisdiction to consider the petition. NRS 34.700 is mandatory and states:

- 1. Except as provided in subsection 3, a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus based on alleged lack of probable cause or otherwise challenging the court's right or jurisdiction to proceed to the trial of a criminal charge may not be considered unless:
- (a) The petition and all supporting documents are filed within 21 days after the first appearance of the accused in the district court; and
- (b) The petition contains a statement that the accused:
- (1) Waives the 60-day limitation for bringing an accused to trial; or
- (2) If the petition is not decided within 15 days before the date set for trial, consents that the court may, without notice or hearing, continue the trial indefinitely or to a date designated by the court.
- 2. The arraignment and entry of a plea by the accused must not be continued to avoid the requirement that a pretrial petition be filed within the period specified in subsection 1.
- 3. The court may extend, for good cause, the time to file a petition. Good cause shall be deemed to exist if the transcript of the preliminary hearing or of the proceedings before the grand jury is not available within 14 days after the accused's initial appearance and the court shall grant an ex parte application to extend the time for filing a petition. All other applications may be made only after appropriate notice has been given to the prosecuting attorney.

Any petition which is not filed in conformance with NRS 34.700 is not cognizable and cannot be considered by the Court. NRS 34.710. See also Gatlin v. State, 96 Nev. 303, 608 P.2d 1100, 1980 Nev. LEXIS 576 (Nev. 1980); Sheriff, Clark County v. Marshall, 96 Nev. 304, 608 P.2d 1101, 1980 Nev. LEXIS 577 (Nev. 1980). As such, the petition must be dismissed. Sheriff, Clark County v. Jensen, 95 Nev. 595, 600 P.2d 222, 1979 Nev. LEXIS 690 (Nev. 1979); see also Sheriff v. Toston, 93 Nev. 394, 566 P.2d 411 (1977) (holding that a pre-trial writ of habeas corpus that did not meet the requirements imposed on habeas petitioners by the NRS was not cognizable in the district court); see also Sheriff of Washoe County v. Chumphol, 95 Nev. 818, 603 P.2d 690 (Nev. 1979) (pre-trial petition for a writ of habeas corpus not containing the consent required by subdivision 1(b) of this section and not verified as required by statute was not cognizable in the district court); see also State v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231-33, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074-75 (2005) ("[a]pplication of the statutory procedural default rules to post-conviction habeas petitions is mandatory," and "cannot be ignored [by the district court] when properly raised by the State.") (emphasis added); see also Gonzales v. State, 118 Nev. 590, 596, 53 P.3d 901, 904 (2002) (post-conviction writ for petition of habeas corpus rejected by the Nevada Supreme Court filed two days late, despite evidence presented by the defendant that he purchased postage through the prison and mailed the notice within the one-year time limit).

A review of the Court's electronic filing system shows that Defendant never sought an extension of time for the filing of the petition, either ex parte or otherwise. As such, his time for filing the petition ran on August 19, 2016, twenty-one (21) days after the filing of the preliminary hearing transcript. Defendant filed the instant Petition five-hundred-ninety-five (595) days late. Since no request was filed, and no extension was granted, the writ is procedurally barred.

As the Court lacks jurisdiction to hear the writ, the State will not be responding to the substantive allegations without further order of the Court.

DECLARATION

JESSICA W. MURPHY makes the following declaration:

- 1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada; I am the Deputy Public Defender assigned to represent the Defendant in the instant matter, and I am familiar with the facts and circumstances of this case.
- 2. That, Mr. Hayes has left me numerous voicemail messages accusing me of being racist, and has yelled "black lives matter' numerous times.
- 3. That Mr. Hayes believes I have not shared discovery with him because he is black. I have informed him many times that I have provided him all the discovery I have received. However he refuses to believe me.
- 4. That Mr. Hayes believes that I have not investigated his case because he is black. I have updated him regarding the investigation with him numerous times and repeatedly asked for his input and direction.
- 5. That Mr. Hayes continually files his own pleadings both in the Nevada Supreme Court and this Court because he does not think I am litigating his case.
- 6. That there is a complete breakdown in the attorney-client relationship. At this point my representation is detrimental to Mr. Hayes and it is in his best interest to have new counsel so he can feel properly represented and focus on his case.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. (NRS 53.045). EXECUTED this 27th day of July, 2018.

GUILTY PLEA AGREEMENT

I hereby agree to plead guilty, pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970), to: ATTEMPT GRAND LARCENY (Category D Felony/Gross Misdemeanor - NRS 205.220.1, 205.222.2, 193.330 - NOC 56025/56026), as more fully alleged in the charging document attached hereto as Exhibit "1".

My decision to plead guilty by way of the Alford decision is based upon the plea agreement in this case which is as follows:

The State has agreed to make no recommendation at the time of sentencing. The State has no opposition to probation with the only condition being thirty (30) days in the Clark County Detention Center (CCDC), with thirty (30) days credit for time served.

I agree to the forfeiture of any and all weapons or any interest in any weapons seized and/or impounded in connection with the instant case and/or any other case negotiated in whole or in part in conjunction with this plea agreement.

C – 16 – 315718 – 1 GPA Guilty Plea Agreement 4794960

W:\2013\2013F\107\23\13F10723-GPA-(HAYES JAMES)-004.DOCX

I understand and agree that, if I fail to interview with the Department of Parole and Probation (P&P), fail to appear at any subsequent hearings in this case, or an independent magistrate, by affidavit review, confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges including reckless driving or DUI, but excluding minor traffic violations, the State will have the unqualified right to argue for any legal sentence and term of confinement allowable for the crime(s) to which I am pleading guilty, including the use of any prior convictions I may have to increase my sentence as an habitual criminal to five (5) to twenty (20) years, Life without the possibility of parole, Life with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years, or a definite twenty-five (25) year term with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years.

Otherwise I am entitled to receive the benefits of these negotiations as stated in this plea agreement.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

By pleading guilty pursuant to the Alford decision, it is my desire to avoid the possibility of being convicted of more offenses or of a greater offense if I were to proceed to trial on the original charge(s) and of also receiving a greater penalty. I understand that my decision to plead guilty by way of the Alford decision does not require me to admit guilt, but is based upon my belief that the State would present sufficient evidence at trial that a jury would return a verdict of guilty of a greater offense or of more offenses than that to which I am pleading guilty.

I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit "1".

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty by way of the Alford decision the Court may elect to treat this offense as a felony or as a gross misdemeanor. If the Court elects to treat this offense as a felony I may be imprisoned in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than four (4) years. In addition, I may be fined up to $5,000.00. I further understand that the minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. If the Court elects to treat this offense as a gross misdemeanor, I may be imprisoned in the Clark County Detention Center for a period of not more than three hundred sixty-four (364) days. In addition, I may be fined up to $2,000.00. I understand that the law requires me to pay an Administrative Assessment Fee.

I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the victim of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related offense which is being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I will also be ordered to reimburse the State of Nevada for any expenses related to my extradition, if any.

If the Court elects to treat this offense as a felony or as a gross misdemeanor, I understand that I am eligible for probation for the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty. I understand that, except as otherwise provided by statute, the question of whether I receive probation is in the discretion of the sentencing judge.

I understand that I must submit to blood and/or saliva tests under the Direction of the Division of Parole and Probation to determine genetic markers and/or secretor status.

I understand that if I am pleading guilty to charges of Burglary, Invasion of the Home, Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Sell, Sale of a Controlled Substance, or Gaming Crimes, for which I have prior felony conviction(s), I will not be eligible for probation and may receive a higher sentencing range.

I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I am eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the discretion to order the sentences served concurrently or consecutively.

I understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or charges to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge at sentencing.

I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by statute.

I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend any specific punishment to the Court, the Court is not obligated to accept the recommendation.

I understand that if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty was committed while I was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I am not eligible for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s).

I understand that if I am not a United States citizen, any criminal conviction will likely result in serious negative immigration consequences including but not limited to:

- 1. The removal from the United States through deportation;
- 2. An inability to reenter the United States;
- 3. The inability to gain United States citizenship or legal residency;
- 4. An inability to renew and/or retain any legal residency status; and/or
- 5. An indeterminate term of confinement, with the United States Federal Government based on my conviction and immigration status.

Regardless of what I have been told by any attorney, no one can promise me that this conviction will not result in negative immigration consequences and/or impact my ability to become a United States citizen and/or a legal resident.

I understand that P&P will prepare a report for the sentencing judge prior to sentencing. This report will include matters relevant to the issue of sentencing, including my criminal history. This report may contain hearsay information regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report at the time of sentencing. Unless the District Attorney has specifically agreed otherwise, then the District Attorney may also comment on this report.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the following rights and privileges:

- 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right to refuse to testify at trial, in which event the prosecution would not be allowed to comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.
- 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, free of excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which trial I would be entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained. At trial the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the offense(s) charged.
- 3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses who would testify against me.

- 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.
- 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.
- 6. The right to appeal the conviction with the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained, unless specifically reserved in writing and agreed upon as provided in NRS 174.035(3). I understand this means I am unconditionally waiving my right to a direct appeal of this conviction, including any challenge based upon reasonable constitutional, jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the proceedings as stated in NRS 177.015(4). However, I remain free to challenge my conviction through other post-conviction remedies including a habeas corpus petition pursuant to NRS Chapter 34.

VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with my attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me.

I understand that the State would have to prove each element of the charge(s) against me at trial.

I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies and circumstances which might be in my favor.

All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best interest, and that a trial would be contrary to my best interest.

I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my attorney, and I am not acting under duress or coercion or by virtue of any promises of leniency, except for those set forth in this agreement.

I am not now under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or other drug which would in any manner impair my ability to comprehend or understand this agreement or the proceedings surrounding my entry of this plea.

My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

DATED this 7 day of September, 2018.

JAMES HOWARD HAYES, aka James Howard Hayes, Jr.

Defendant

AGREED TO BY:

MICHAEL R. DICKERSON Deputy District Attorney Nevada Bar #013476

CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL:

I, the undersigned, as the attorney for the Defendant named herein and as an officer of the court hereby certify that:

- 1. I have fully explained to the Defendant the allegations contained in the charge(s) to which Alford pleas are being entered.
- 2. I have advised the Defendant of the penalties for each charge and the restitution that the Defendant may be ordered to pay.
- 3. I have inquired of Defendant facts concerning Defendant's immigration status and explained to Defendant that if Defendant is not a United States citizen any criminal conviction will most likely result in serious negative immigration consequences including but not limited to:
 - a. The removal from the United States through deportation;
 - b. An inability to reenter the United States;
 - c. The inability to gain United States citizenship or legal residency;
 - d. An inability to renew and/or retain any legal residency status; and/or
 - e. An indeterminate term of confinement, by with United States Federal Government based on the conviction and immigration status.

Moreover, I have explained that regardless of what Defendant may have been told by any attorney, no one can promise Defendant that this conviction will not result in negative immigration consequences and/or impact Defendant's ability to become a United States citizen and/or legal resident.

- 4. All pleas of Alford offered by the Defendant pursuant to this agreement are consistent with the facts known to me and are made with my advice to the Defendant.
- 5. To the best of my knowledge and belief, the Defendant:
 - a. Is competent and understands the charges and the consequences of pleading Alford as provided in this agreement,
 - b. Executed this agreement and will enter all Alford pleas pursuant hereto voluntarily, and
 - c. Was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or other drug at the time I consulted with the Defendant as certified in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.

Dated: This 7 day of September, 2018.

CLERK'S CERTIFICATE

STATE OF NEVADA, ss.

I, Elizabeth A. Brown, the duly appointed and qualified Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada, do hereby certify that the following is a full, true and correct copy of the Judgment in this matter.

JUDGMENT

The court being fully advised in the premises and the law, it is now ordered, adjudged and decreed, as follows:

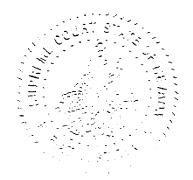

"ORDER this appeal DISMISSED."

Judgment, as quoted above, entered this 12th day of December, 2018.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have subscribed my name and affixed the seal of the Supreme Court at my Office in Carson City, Nevada this January 07, 2019.

JAMES HOWARD HAYES, JR., Appellant,

VS. THE STATE OF NEVADA, Respondent. No. 77151

DEC 12 2018

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a pro se appeal from an order of the district court denying appellant's pretrial petition for writ of habeas corpus. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; William D. Kephart, Judge.

Our review of this appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, no appeal lies from an order denying a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Gary v. Sheriff, 96 Nev. 78, 605 P.2d 212 (1980). The right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists. See Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 352, 792 P.2d 1133, 1135 (1990). Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On November 7, 2018, the Defendant pled guilty, pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970), to Attempt Grand Larceny (Category D Felony/Gross Misdemeanor - NRS 205.220.1, 205.222.2, 193.330 - NOC 56025/56026). Pursuant to the Guilty Plea Agreement (GPA), the State "agreed to make no recommendation at the time of sentencing [and have] no opposition to probation with the only condition being thirty (30) days in the Clark County Detention Center (CCDC), with thirty (30) days credit for time served." (GPA at 1:22-24). Defendant further agreed to the following terms:

I understand and agree that, if I fail to interview with the Department of Parole and Probation (P&P), fail to appear at any subsequent hearings in this case, or an independent magistrate, by affidavit review, confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges including reckless driving or DUI, but excluding minor traffic violations, the State will have the unqualified right to argue for any legal sentence and term of confinement allowable for the crime(s) to which I am pleading guilty, including the use of any prior convictions I may have to increase my sentence as an habitual criminal to five (5) to twenty (20) years, Life without the possibility of parole, Life with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years, or a definite twenty-five (25) year term with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years.

(GPA at 2:1-9 (emphasis added)).

Prior to the GPA being entered, the State filed Amended Notice of Intent to Seek Punishment as a Habitual Criminal on August 29, 2017. That notice lists the Defendant's prior convictions as follows:

- 1. That on or about 2007, the Defendant was convicted in the State of Texas, for the crime of CREDIT CARD ABUSE (Felony) in Case No. 108378501010.
- 2. That on or about 2011, the Defendant was convicted in the State of Nevada, for the crime of ATTEMPT POSSESSION OF CREDIT OR DEBIT CARD WITHOUT CARDHOLDER'S CONSENT (Category E Felony) in Case No. C270308.
- 3. That on or about 2017, the Defendant was convicted in the State of Nevada, for the crime of BURGLARY (Category B Felony) in Case No. C315125.

(Amended Notice of Intent to Seek Punishment as a Habitual Criminal, August 29, 2017).

The Defendant is currently scheduled to be sentenced by Your Honor on March 6, 2019.

STATEMENT OF FACTS AND RELEVANT BACKGROUND

1. The Instant Case - Excalibur Hotel and Casino Burglary

The underlying facts of the this case stem from April 9, 2013, when victim Joshua Jarvis was sleeping his hotel room at the Excalibur Hotel and Casino while on vacation here in Las Vegas, Nevada. (See Reporter's Transcript of Proceedings Preliminary Hearing 6/14/16). Mr. Jarvis awoke to hear some "rattling," then notice the Defendant inside the hotel room searching through luggage. Mr. Jarvis "freaked out," jumped out of bed and asked the Defendant who he was. Id. Defendant immediately attempted to run for the door. Id. Mr. Jarvis, a United States military Special Forces operator, proceeded to stop the Defendant, pat him down, and detain him. Defendant then apologized to Mr. Jarvis multiple times. Id. Mr. Jarvis photographed the Defendant and the Defendant's Nevada identification, then allowed the Defendant to leave. Id. Security and police officers eventually responded to Mr. Jarvis' hotel room and an arrest warrant was subsequently issued for the Defendant for the crimes of Burglary and Attempt Grand Larceny.

The Defendant remained at large and the arrest warrant active until April 2, 2016, when the Defendant was arrested at the Harrah's Hotel and Casino perpetrating yet another burglary of a hotel room.

2. Case No. C315125 - Harrah's Hotel and Casino Burglary

On April 2, 2016, Harrah's security investigators were conducting an integrity check at the Harrah's Hotel and Casino. (See Docket of Case No. C315125: Transcript of Proceedings Jury Trial - Day 1, January 9, 2017; Transcript of Proceedings Jury Trial - Day 2, January 10, 2017). An integrity check occurs when hotel security investigators stage a room to appear occupied, including placing money and other valuable items within. Id. The investigators left the door slightly ajar, to make it appear as if a guest may have forgotten to close the door, and conducted surveillance on the hotel room. Id. While conducting surveillance, security investigators observed Defendant James Hayes walk down the hallway, push the door open, and walk into the hotel room. Id. Once inside, Defendant surveyed the items inside, and subsequently stole $350 in bait money from a wallet inside the room. Id. Defendant then proceeded to search through the other items, including luggage, in the room before leaving. Security investigators subsequently detained the Defendant with the bait money in his possession. Id. Defendant did not have permission to be inside the hotel room or take property. Id. The Defendant was arrested and charged with Burglary of the Harrah's hotel room.

On January 10, 2017, following jury trial in which the Defendant testified untruthfully about his entry into the hotel room, a jury found the Defendant guilty of Burglary. On February 23, 2017, the court sentenced the Defendant to 21 to 72 months in prison. The Defendant was released to parole on October 1, 2018.

3. LVMPD Event 190100120467 - Mirage Hotel Burglary

On January 26, 2019, the Defendant yet again committed another hotel-room burglary, this time at the Mirage Hotel in a room occupied by victim James McGroth. (See Exhibit 1 – Declaration of Arrest, 190100120467; Exhibit 2 – Voluntary Statement of James McGroth; Exhibit 3 – Show-up Witness Instructions of McGroth identification of Defendant; Exhibit 4

- Voluntary Statement of Ryan Erhart; Exhibit 5 - Voluntary Statement of James Huang). Approximately 2:00 A.M., the Defendant entered Mr. McGroth's room, saw Mr. McGroth, said "sorry" and exited. Id. The Defendant was uncooperative with security when contacted in the hotel and gave a story that he was meeting a friend in valet. Id. The story did not check out, as security escorted the Defendant to valet and there was no friend located there. Id. The Defendant was also found in possession of a Mirage hotel room key, but was not found to be currently, or ever in history, a Mirage hotel guest. Id.

In Las Vegas Township Justice Court case number 19F01534X, The Defendant has been charged by way of Criminal Complaint with Burglary. On January 27, 2019, Justice of the Peace De La Garza found probable cause for the charge. (See Exhibit 6 - Court Minutes, 19F01534X, 1/27/19).

A status check in that matter is scheduled to be heard on February 2, 2019, regarding Defendant's revocation of bail in this case. The Defendant is currently being held in the Clark County Detention Center on the aforementioned charge with no bail and is schedule for preliminary hearing on February 12, 2019.

ARGUMENT

Pursuant to NRS 178.487:

Every release on bail with or without security is conditioned upon the defendant's good behavior while so released, and upon a showing that the proof is evident or the presumption great that the defendant has committed a felony during the period of release, the defendant's bail may be revoked, after a hearing, by the magistrate who allowed it or by any judge of the court in which the original charge is pending. Pending such revocation, the defendant may be held without bail by order of the magistrate before whom the defendant is brought after an arrest upon the second charge.

Here, the underlying event charged in 19F01534X, which are detailed for Your Honor in the sworn declarations attached as Exhibit 1 through 5 show the proof is evident and the presumption great that the Defendant has committed a felony during the period of his release from custody in the instant case. Probable cause has been found on that charge by an independent magistrate. As a result, the condition precedent in the Guilty Plea Agreement has been met for the State to regain the right to argue at sentencing and seek habitual criminal

1	treatment. The State will be arguing for habitual criminal treatment and, therefore,
2	incarceration in the Nevada Department of Corrections. Accordingly, the State requests
3	revocation of the Defendant's release in the instant case in light of Defendant's continued
4	felony criminal behavior.
5	CONCLUSION
6	In light of the foregoing, the State respectfully requests the Court to grant State's
7	Motion to Revoke Bail and hold the Defendant in custody without bail until he can be
8	sentenced in the instant case.

The undersigned makes the following declarations subject to the penalty of perjury and says: That I am a peace officer with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Clark County, Nevada, being so employed for a period of approximately 2 year(s).

That I learned the following facts and circumstances which lead me to believe that the above named subject committed or was committing the offenses above at the location of 3400 LAS VEGAS BLVD S LAS VEGAS NEVADA 89109 and that the offense(s) occurred at approximately 02:00 hours on the 26th day of January, 2019.

Details for Probable Cause:

(Body Worn Camera Available)

On January 26th, 2019 while operating as marked patrol units 7M94, Officers E. Varsin P#16252 and A. Fox P#16559 along with marked patrol unit 7M96, Officers L. Jex P#16622 and D. McElroy P#16995 responded to a call for service at The Mirage Hotel 3400 S Las Vegas Blvd reference a subject in custody for a possible attempted burglary.

Upon officers arrival we made contact with Mirage hotel security. Security stated that a victim had called the front desk and reported a black male that had entered his room without his permission while he was sleeping. Hotel security had a subject in custody that had been identified via his California Driver's License as HAYES, JAMES DOB 2/2/1970. Mirage Security Officer Apolonio Batoon said that around 0256 hours via security surveillance footage, Hayes was seen entering elevator bank 9-16 and then seen exiting from elevator bank 2-8. Security said that this means that Hayes had to have taken the elevator to another floor in order to enter at one bank and exit at another.

Security Officer Brandon Huang was contacted and stated the following:

On 26 January 2019 at approximately 0300 I, Security Officer Brandon Huang, responded to a report of a man entering a persons room without permission. The man refused to identify himself and attempted to leave property. At main valet Officer Erhart read the man a trespass warning in accordance with NRS 207.200. Control instructed us to bring the man to processing. He refused and was placed in mechanical restraints. I secured and double locked the restraints. We walked back to the processing without further issue.

Officers than made contact with the victim who identified himself verbally as McGroth, James DOB 4/18/1958. McGroth stated the following:

I was asleep at approximately 2:00 AM on 1/26/19. I heard my door open. A man walked in approximately 5 feet into my room. I was startled and sat up in bed. The man was dark complected and wearing a white jacket. The man saw me. He Wherefore, Declarant prays that a finding be made by a magistrate that probable cause exists to hold said person for preliminary hearing (if charges are o felony or gross misdemeanor) or for trial (if charges are misdemeanor).

said "sorry" then left my room and closed door.

Officers then conducted a Show-Up Witness (via LVMPD 497) with McGroth and he stated the following:

I was asked to identify subject. He appeared to be the man that entered my room at approx 2 AM. He was also wearing the same white jacket I saw. I am approximately 80% sure this was same person.

Hayes was read his Miranda Rights via LVMPD 148 at 0331 hours by Officer Fox, to which he replied "yes". When asked about what took place tonight, he stated he had nothing to say. Security also told officers that when Hayes was confronted he told security that he was meeting a friend in valet, but when they escorted him to valet there was no friend there. Once Hayes was escorted back to security located on him was a Mirage Hotel room key. However security stated that Hayes was not located in their system as a hotel guest, nor was he ever a hotel guest at Mirage

Hayes is a two time convicted ex-felon in Nevada for Burglary and Att/Poss CC W/O Owner's Consent. He is also a two time convicted ex-felon in Texas for Fraud Use/Poss of Identifying Info and Credit Card Abuse.

Due to the fact that Hayes by night entered a hotel room without the owners consent with the intent to commit grand or petit larceny, assault or battery on any person or any felony, or to obtain money or property by false pretenses, he was arrested and charged with Attempted Burglary. Hayes was transported to CCDC where he was booked accordingly.

 End *******

Wherefore, Declarant prays that a finding be made by a magistrate that probable cause exists to hold sold person for preliminary heating (if charges are a felony or gross misdemeanor) or for trial (if charges are misdemeanor).

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

"Motion to modify sentence" is limited in scope to sentences based on mistaken assumptions about defendent's criminal record which work to defendant's extreme detriment, while " Motion to correct illegal sentence " addresses only facial legality of sentence. State v. District Court, 100 nev. 90, 97, 677 p.2d 1044 1048 (1984), and Edwards v. State, 918 p.2d 321 (nev. 1996).

Further N.R.S 176.555 Motion to Modify and/or Correct a sentence, may be filed at any time.

Defendant herein alleges that his sentence should be modified and/or corrected pursuant to the following facts.

Wheres, the state Clerk County Nevada violated the U.S. County tution J. 6.8 is 14th amadments in the Judgment of conviction for attempt grand largery by subjecting defaultent to "Double Jespady" through projection and for purishment twine for the same offense. Whereas the defaultent was arrested April 2,2016 and charge with the crimers of burglary and attempt grand largery by the way of a criminal complaint in Justice court for the alleged event that took place on or about April 9, 2013 that defautent posted band on both charges. Whereas, the state at preliminarly hearing projected defautent for the crimes of burglary and attempt grand largery and attempt grand largery and attempt of hurglary was bound over to district court leaving the charge of hurglary was bound over to district court leaving the charge of allegent grand largery despect distributions of the hearing only the charge of hurglary was bound over to district court leaving the charge of allegent grand largery distributions of the hearing only the charge of allegent grand largery distributions of the hearing only the charge of allegent grand largery distributions of the No Corpus defects slight or marginal aridance to bound over to district round for the 1st time defendant was subjected to reoperaly and defendants bond for ettempt grand leverny was exenuerited. Whereas, the defautant was subjected to jeopardy for the 2" time when the state by the way of amounded information in District could xix drap the charge of burgland and again charge defaulted with oftenpt ground largery that was tilled in open court on Navember 7, 2018. The state for their subjected defendent to jeopordy for the 3rd time on reducery 4 2019 by a few rebook on the charge of attempt grand leicently and issued a No bond trively. The state convicted the defaudant on the sherge of athingt grand leasened on Merch 6, 2019 to egant for the 4th hime subject the defaudant to jeoperaly for the same offence by the way of proseruhal and/or principment which is blantly a 5th smandment Violetion of the U.S constitution and a client misceriage of justice. Where fore basis on the foregoing facts and bus extere beginn any to englishow Nevada constitutions this Honogophe Court is respectfully mand to overturn / verete the detendent's judgment against him.
