4 Glenn Miller Doolin was charged by way of Information with Grand Larceny Auto
5 filed September 17, 2012, for the theft of a motor scooter. An Amended Information was filed
6 November 6, 2012 charging Doolin with Grand Larceny Auto and Possession of Burglary 7 Tools, for the screwdriver he used to start the motor scooter he stole. He entered a plea of 8 guilty to both counts without a negotiation. Pursuant to the Judgment of Conviction filed April 9 26, 2013, he was adjudged guilty of Count 1, Grand Larceny Auto (Category C Felony) and 10 sentenced under the Small Habitual Statute. Mr. Doolin was also adjudged guilty of Count 2, 11 Possession of Burglary Tools (Gross Misdemeanor).
12

14 Doolin was sentenced to 60-150 months in the Nevada Department of Corrections for 15 Count 1 (to run consecutive to Cases C283685 and C262611); and 12 months in the Clark 16 County Detention Center for Count 2 (to run consecutive to Count 1) with zero days credit for 17 time served.
18

19 After serving approximately seven years in prison, Mr. Doolin filed a Motion to Modify 20 Sentence on October 10th, 2019. In said motion, Mr. Doolin requested that the consecutive 21 gross misdemeanor sentence be modified to informal probation as he was already going to be 22 supervised by Parole and Probation upon his release from prison. Moreover, Mr. Doolin had 23 both a job and housing lined-up as well as a record of success in prison during the last seven 24 years of incarceration.
25

26 At the time the Motion for Modification of Sentence was filed, Mr. Doolin had yet to 27 serve a day on the gross misdemeanor which ran consecutive to the prison sentence he was 28 imminently about to expire. Moreover, statutory authority precluded Mr. Doolin from serving

1 any time on the imposed gross misdemeanor in the Nevada Department of Corrections where 2 he has been housed since sentencing.¹ The State opposed the motion and on November 6, 3 2019, the Court denied the motion agreeing with the State that the Court did not have the 4 ability to modify Defendant's sentence as he had already started serving his sentence when the 5 judgment of conviction was issued in the case. The Order denying Doolin's Motion was filed 6 November 18, 2019. This appeal follows.
7

8 11. Indicate whether the case has previously been the subject of an appeal to or 9 original writ proceeding in the Supreme Court and, if so, the caption and Supreme Court
10 docket number of the prior proceeding: Doolin v. State, 72189
11

12 12. Indicate whether this appeal involves child custody or vitiation: No 13

14 13. If this is a civil case, indicate whether this appeal involves the possibility of 15 settlement: No

Mr. Storms requested Deft. be allowed to parole with the job and house he has set up. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED, and STATED FINDINGS; ultimately Court agrees with the State that It does not have the ability to modify Deft's. sentence at this time on the basis Deft. has already started serving his Gross Misdemeanor sentence, and based upon the rulings in Edwards v. PRESENT: Jones, Jr., John T. Attorney
 State of Nevada Plaintiff
 Storms, William J. Attorney

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Jones requested a continuance; his Appeals Department have not had the chance to respond to the Addendum filed the prior week. Mr. Storms argued all the State's arguments have been raised in earlier motions. Deft. has been transferred to the Clark County Detention Center (CCDC) to start serving the Gross Misdemeanor sentence. It is not Deft's. fault we are now into him serving his sentence. COURT ADVISED It would absolutely nunc pro tunc it back to when Deft. began serving his sentence. COURT ORDERED, State's Response DUE 11/05, matter CONTINUED; State's Response is to be emailed to the Court and Mr. Storms.

	State of Nevada	Plaintiff
	Storms, William J.	Attorney
	Thomson, Megan	Attorney

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Storms stated the matter was continued for the State to respond; he understands they won't be responding at this point. Ms. Thomson stated upon review of the file, it appears to be more of a Reply to the Supplement therefore, the State won't be responding. Mr. Storms argued regarding jurisdiction; by law, where Deft. has been housed for the last 4 years could not house Deft. for the Gross Misdemeanor sentence. Mr. Storms requested Deft. be allowed to parole with the job and house he has set up.

COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED, and STATED FINDINGS; ultimately Court agrees with the State that It does not have the ability to modify Deft's. sentence at this time on the basis Deft. has already started serving his Gross Misdemeanor sentence, and based upon the rulings in Edwards v. State and Passanins and other cases. Not every mistake by the State give rise to a due process error. Once Deft. started serving the sentence the Court is precluded from doing anything. It does not have jurisdiction and can't exercise jurisdiction in the way Deft. is asking. COURT NOTED It expects Its decision to be appealed. State is to prepare the Order.
