ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This is an appeal which challenges a single district court order entered in consolidated district court cases numbered A-19-786962-B and A-19-787004-B. Review of the docketing statement and documents before this court reveals a potential jurisdictional defect.

The challenged order, entered on August 23, 2019, appears to have only initially been filed case number A-19-786962-B. An amended version of the order with case numbers A-19-786962-B and A-19-787004-B and the corresponding captions was filed on February 7, 2020. However, the current appeal arises from case number A-19-787540-W and it appears that the order is not subject to challenge in the context of a notice of appeal filed in this case.<sup>1</sup>

Accordingly, appellant shall have 30 days from the date of this order to show cause why the appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Respondents may file any replies within 14 days of service of appellant's response. The briefing schedule in this appeal shall be suspended pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.

Pickering, C.J.

<sup>1</sup>It appears that this defect may be remedied by filing a copy of the August 23, 2019 order in the underlying district court case.
