Case No. 11-CV-0296

Dept. No. II

IN THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF DOUGLAS

PEGGY CAIN, an individual;
JEFFREY CAIN, an individual;
and HELI OPS INTERNATIONAL,
LLC, and Oregon limited liability company,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

ORDER DISMISSING THIRD
AMENDED COMPLAINT WITH PREJUDICE

D.R. RAWSON, an individual; C4
WORLDWIDE, INC., a Nevada corporation; RICHARD PRICE, an individual; JOE BAKER, an individual; MICKEY SHACKELFORD, an individual; MICHAEL K.
KAVANAGH, an individual;
JEFFREY EDWARDS, an individual;
and DOES 1 through 10,
inclusive,

Defendants.

THIS MATTER COMES before the Court on Motion to Dismiss with Prejudice, filed September 23, 2019. The motion has been fully briefed and is ripe for consideration. Good cause appearing, the Court finds and orders as follows:

Plaintiffs seek to voluntarily dismiss the Third Amended Complaint as to remaining Defendants, Richard Price and Mickey Shackelford ("Defendants" herein). Because Defendants have filed answers, Plaintiffs request is made pursuant NRCP 41(a)(2).

1 Defendants do not oppose dismissal with prejudice, but argue
2 said dismissal should be conditioned upon payment of their 3 attorney's fees by Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are opposed to the 4 condition.

5 Post-answer, a case may be dismissed at the plaintiff's
6 request "only by court order, on terms that the court considers 7 proper." NRCP 41(a)(2). Defendants represent that no reported
8 Nevada case has construed this portion of the rule and point the 9 Court to federal cases interpreting FRCP 41(a)(2), which is 10 identical to NRCP 41(a)(2). Defendants cite Steinert v. Winn
11 Group, Inc., 440 F.3d 1214 (10th Cir. 2006) for the proposition
12 that while attorney's fees and costs should not ordinarily be 13 imposed as a condition of voluntary dismissals with prejudice,
14 attorney's fees and costs may be imposed in exceptional
15 circumstances.

16 Defendants argue the existence of exceptional circumstances
17 in this case. The Court now turns to assessing each of the five 18 considerations interposed by Defendants.

19 Defendants first point to NRCP 68(f). While NRCP 68(f)
20 supplies a statutory basis for consideration of an award of 21 attorney's fees and costs where the offeree of a rejected offer of 22 judgment fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, the existence
23 of such circumstances does not equate to exceptional circumstances
24 for the purpose of NRCP 41(a)(2). Even so, the Court would not 25 exercise its discretion to award attorney's fees and costs
26 pursuant to NRCP 68(f).

27 Generally, Plaintiffs' lawsuit, initiated in 2011, seeks 28 redress for $20,000,000 alleged to be owed to Plaintiffs by

1 Defendants pursuant to a joint venture agreement and/or settlement
2 agreement.

3 On or about April 30, 2015, Defendant Shackelford made an 4 offer of judgment against him in the amount of $2,500, "including
5 all accrued interest, costs, attorney's fees and any other sums
6 that could be claimed by Plaintiffs. In the event $2,500 is paid
7 within ten (10) days after acceptance of this offer, Mickey
8 Shackelford instead shall be entitled to dismissal with prejudice
9 of said complaint as a means of avoiding entry of judgment."

10 Offer of Judgment, Exhibit 1, Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to 11 Dismiss with Prejudice.

12 On or about April 30, 2015, Defendant Price made an offer of 13 judgment against him in the amount of $7,000, "including all
14 accrued interest, costs, attorney's fees and any other sums that 15 could be claimed by Plaintiffs. In the event $7,000 is paid
16 within ten (10) days after acceptance of this offer, Mickey
17 Shackelford instead shall be entitled to dismissal with prejudice
18 of said complaint as a means of avoiding entry of judgment."

19 Offer of Judgment, Exhibit 1, Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to 20 Dismiss with Prejudice.

21 At the time the foregoing offers of judgment were made, the 22 lawsuit had been pending for four years. Defendants Rawson, C4,
23 Kavanagh and Edwards had defaulted. Plaintiffs had received 24 favorable rulings against the remaining defendants, including an 25 Order Denying Motion to Dismiss, January 19, 2012, and an Order
26 Denying Renewed Motion to Dismiss Regarding Personal Jurisdiction
27 or for Summary Judgment, November 20, 2012 (subsequent to the 28 offers of judgment, Plaintiffs also successfully reversed an

1 order granting summary judgment).

2 It is against this backdrop that the Court assesses the 3 factors supplied in Beattie v. Thomas, 99 Nev. 579, 588-89 (1983).
4 As indicated in a prior court order and based upon the lawsuit
5 surviving motions to dismiss and for summary judgment, Plaintiffs 6 claims were not brought in bad faith. Defendants' offers of 7 judgment to resolve the $20,000,000 lawsuit for $9,500, including 8 interests, costs and attorney's fees, were not reasonable in 9 amount at the time. Plaintiffs' rejection of the offers was not,
10 at the time, grossly unreasonable or in bad faith when considering
11 the nature of the claims and the posture of the case. The Court
12 is in no position to assess the reasonableness of the fees sought
13 as the Court does not know the amount of fees requested by 14 Defendants or the nature of the support for said fees.

15 The Beattie factors weigh against an award for attorney's
16 fees pursuant to NRCP 68, even if Plaintiffs failed to obtain a
17 more favorable verdict and even if Defendants requested fees were 18 ultimately deemed reasonable. Frazier v. Drake, 131 Nev. 632, 642
19 (2015). Due to this finding, the Court does not assess other 20 aspects of Plaintiffs' opposition to utilizing NRCP 68, such as 21 the import of subsequent offers to settle, although these 22 arguments also appear to favor Plaintiffs.

23 Defendants next argue, as an extraordinary circumstance, that
24 Plaintiffs' claims are not meritorious. Defendants' disagreement
25 with Plaintiffs as to the merits of their claims, is not an 26 extraordinary circumstance. In any event, Plaintiffs have 27 repeatedly and successfully defended against motions to dismiss
28 and motions for summary judgment.

1 Defendants next attack the affidavit of Plaintiff Jeffrey
2 Cain as being disingenuous as to his reasons for volunteering to
3 dismiss with prejudice. Defendants ask the Court to disregard
4 Cain's affidavit.

5 The Court does not question Cain's credibility as to his 6 reasoning to dismiss the case. But even if the Court were to 7 disregard Cain's affidavit, that would not have the effect of 8 creating an extraordinary circumstance warranting the conditioning
9 of the dismissal with prejudice on payment of attorney's fees.

10 Lastly, Defendants argue as an extraordinary circumstance,
11 that Plaintiffs have previously been sanctioned by the Court for 12 violating court rules and orders.

13 Plaintiffs have, on occasion, been sanctioned by the Court
14 for various violations of rules and/or orders unattributed to the 15 merits. For instance, Plaintiffs recently had to pay Defendants
16 $8,315.50 in attorney's fees as a court-imposed sanction. As 17 another example, on July 17, 2019, and well before Plaintiffs
18 filed the pending motion, the Court awarded Defendants reasonable
19 attorney's fees for their efforts to oppose a motion. Order
20 Denying Plaintiffs' Motion for Extension of Time. The amount of 21 the fees and the timing of payment is contained in the Court's 22 Order Determining Amount of Attorney's Fees to be Paid by 23 Plaintiffs and Directing Payment Thereof, entered November 1, 24 2019.

25 Plaintiffs have already been penalized for their violations.
26 Plaintiffs' violations are not so pervasive in nature and kind as 27 to create an extraordinary circumstance for the purpose of NRCP
28 41. The Court finds it proper, however, to condition dismissal

1 on payment of the outstanding sanction in the manner ordered.

2 NRCP 41(a)(2).

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED Plaintiffs' Third Amended Complaint is
4 DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE, conditioned upon Plaintiffs' compliance
5 with the November 1, 2019 Order Determining Amount of Attorney's
6 Fees to be Paid by Plaintiffs and Directing Payment Thereof.

7 DATED this 13th day of November, 2019.

27
28 THIS MATTER COMES before the Court on Motion to Dismiss with Prejudice, filed September 23, 2019. The motion has been fully briefed and is ripe for consideration. Good cause appearing, the Court finds and orders as follows:

29 Plaintiffs seek to voluntarily dismiss the Third Amended 30 Complaint as to remaining Defendants, Richard Price and Mickey 31 Shackelford ("Defendants" herein). Because Defendants have filed 32 answers, Plaintiffs request is made pursuant NRCP 41(a)(2).

1 Defendants do not oppose dismissal with prejudice, but argue
2 said dismissal should be conditioned upon payment of their
3 attorney's fees by Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are opposed to the 4 condition.

5 Post-answer, a case may be dismissed at the plaintiff's
6 request "only by court order, on terms that the court considers 7 proper." NRCP 41(a)(2). Defendants represent that no reported
8 Nevada case has construed this portion of the rule and point the 9 Court to federal cases interpreting FRCP 41(a)(2), which is 10 identical to NRCP 41(a)(2). Defendants cite Steinert v. Winn
11 Group, Inc., 440 F.3d 1214 (10th Cir. 2006) for the proposition
12 that while attorney's fees and costs should not ordinarily be 13 imposed as a condition of voluntary dismissals with prejudice,
14 attorney's fees and costs may be imposed in exceptional
15 circumstances.

16 Defendants argue the existence of exceptional circumstances
17 in this case. The Court now turns to assessing each of the five 18 considerations interposed by Defendants.

19 Defendants first point to NRCP 68(f). While NRCP 68(f)
20 supplies a statutory basis for consideration of an award of 21 attorney's fees and costs where the offeree of a rejected offer of 22 judgment fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, the existence
23 of such circumstances does not equate to exceptional circumstances
24 for the purpose of NRCP 41(a)(2). Even so, the Court would not 25 exercise its discretion to award attorney's fees and costs
26 pursuant to NRCP 68(f).

27 Generally, Plaintiffs' lawsuit, initiated in 2011, seeks 28 redress for $20,000,000 alleged to be owed to Plaintiffs by

1 Defendants pursuant to a joint venture agreement and/or settlement
2 agreement.

3 On or about April 30, 2015, Defendant Shackelford made an 4 offer of judgment against him in the amount of $2,500, "including
5 all accrued interest, costs, attorney's fees and any other sums
6 that could be claimed by Plaintiffs. In the event $2,500 is paid
7 within ten (10) days after acceptance of this offer, Mickey
8 Shackelford instead shall be entitled to dismissal with prejudice
9 of said complaint as a means of avoiding entry of judgment."
10 Offer of Judgment, Exhibit 1, Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to 11 Dismiss with Prejudice.

12 On or about April 30, 2015, Defendant Price made an offer of 13 judgment against him in the amount of $7,000, "including all
14 accrued interest, costs, attorney's fees and any other sums that 15 could be claimed by Plaintiffs. In the event $7,000 is paid
16 within ten (10) days after acceptance of this offer, Mickey
17 Shackelford instead shall be entitled to dismissal with prejudice
18 of said complaint as a means of avoiding entry of judgment."
19 Offer of Judgment, Exhibit 1, Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to 20 Dismiss with Prejudice.

21 At the time the foregoing offers of judgment were made, the 22 lawsuit had been pending for four years. Defendants Rawson, C4,
23 Kavanagh and Edwards had defaulted. Plaintiffs had received
24 favorable rulings against the remaining defendants, including an 25 Order Denying Motion to Dismiss, January 19, 2012, and an Order
26 Denying Renewed Motion to Dismiss Regarding Personal Jurisdiction
27 or for Summary Judgment, November 20, 2012 (subsequent to the 28 offers of judgment, Plaintiffs also successfully reversed an

1 order granting summary judgment).

2 It is against this backdrop that the Court assesses the 3 factors supplied in Beattie v. Thomas, 99 Nev. 579, 588-89 (1983).
4 As indicated in a prior court order and based upon the lawsuit
5 surviving motions to dismiss and for summary judgment, Plaintiffs
6 claims were not brought in bad faith. Defendants' offers of 7 judgment to resolve the $20,000,000 lawsuit for $9,500, including 8 interests, costs and attorney's fees, were not reasonable in 9 amount at the time. Plaintiffs' rejection of the offers was not,
10 at the time, grossly unreasonable or in bad faith when considering
11 the nature of the claims and the posture of the case. The Court
12 is in no position to assess the reasonableness of the fees sought
13 as the Court does not know the amount of fees requested by 14 Defendants or the nature of the support for said fees.

15 The Beattie factors weigh against an award for attorney's
16 fees pursuant to NRCP 68, even if Plaintiffs failed to obtain a
17 more favorable verdict and even if Defendants requested fees were 18 ultimately deemed reasonable. Frazier v. Drake, 131 Nev. 632, 642
19 (2015). Due to this finding, the Court does not assess other 20 aspects of Plaintiffs' opposition to utilizing NRCP 68, such as 21 the import of subsequent offers to settle, although these 22 arguments also appear to favor Plaintiffs.

23 Defendants next argue, as an extraordinary circumstance, that
24 Plaintiffs' claims are not meritorious. Defendants' disagreement
25 with Plaintiffs as to the merits of their claims, is not an 26 extraordinary circumstance. In any event, Plaintiffs have 27 repeatedly and successfully defended against motions to dismiss
28 and motions for summary judgment.

1 Defendants next attack the affidavit of Plaintiff Jeffrey
2 Cain as being disingenuous as to his reasons for volunteering to
3 dismiss with prejudice. Defendants ask the Court to disregard
4 Cain's affidavit.

5 The Court does not question Cain's credibility as to his 6 reasoning to dismiss the case. But even if the Court were to 7 disregard Cain's affidavit, that would not have the effect of 8 creating an extraordinary circumstance warranting the conditioning
9 of the dismissal with prejudice on payment of attorney's fees.

10 Lastly, Defendants argue as an extraordinary circumstance,
11 that Plaintiffs have previously been sanctioned by the Court for 12 violating court rules and orders.

13 Plaintiffs have, on occasion, been sanctioned by the Court
14 for various violations of rules and/or orders unattributed to the 15 merits. For instance, Plaintiffs recently had to pay Defendants
16 $8,315.50 in attorney's fees as a court-imposed sanction. As 17 another example, on July 17, 2019, and well before Plaintiffs
18 filed the pending motion, the Court awarded Defendants reasonable
19 attorney's fees for their efforts to oppose a motion. Order
20 Denying Plaintiffs' Motion for Extension of Time. The amount of 21 the fees and the timing of payment is contained in the Court's
22 Order Determining Amount of Attorney's Fees to be Paid by 23 Plaintiffs and Directing Payment Thereof, entered November 1, 24 2019.

25 Plaintiffs have already been penalized for their violations.
26 Plaintiffs' violations are not so pervasive in nature and kind as 27 to create an extraordinary circumstance for the purpose of NRCP
28 41. The Court finds it proper, however, to condition dismissal

1 on payment of the outstanding sanction in the manner ordered.
2 NRCP 41(a)(2).

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED Plaintiffs' Third Amended Complaint is
4 DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE, conditioned upon Plaintiffs' compliance
5 with the November 1, 2019 Order Determining Amount of Attorney's
6 Fees to be Paid by Plaintiffs and Directing Payment Thereof.

7 DATED this 1st day of November, 2019.
