11). Plaintiffs filed an opposition and Defendants filed a reply.

Defendants support the amount of fees requested by affidavit and billing statements. Plaintiffs submit that some of the billing entries were for efforts unrelated to Defendants' opposition to the motion in question. Defendants reply that to the extent time spent by counsel was tangentially related, the attorney's fees are justified as a fine.

The Court has considered the factors supplied by Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat'l Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349 (1969) in evaluating the amount of fees requested by Defendants. Counsel for Defendants advocated against the underlying motion by filing a seven-page opposition together with an affidavit of counsel. Counsel's efforts were of sufficient character and quality to successfully defeat the motion. Some of the billed time was, however, only tangentially related to opposing the motion. Defendants did not request a fine and a fine was not assessed by the Court.

The Court finds that billing entries for 6/5/2019, 6/10/2019, 6/11/2019 and 7/18/2019, for both Defendants Price and Shackelford, best exemplify the time directly spent on opposing the motion. The amount of time was reasonable as was the hourly rate given the qualifications and experience of counsel.

Good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the amount of attorney's fees payable by Plaintiffs to Defendants Price and Shackelford is set at $2,100.00. Plaintiffs shall remit said amount to counsel for Defendants Price and Shackelford by November 18, 2019, at 1:30 p.m.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs shall appear before the Court for a status hearing on November 18, 2019, at 1:30 p.m. prior to the hearing, Plaintiffs comply with this order and file proof of the same with the Court, the hearing will be vacated. ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS'

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

IN THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF DOUGLAS

PEGGY CAIN, an individual; JEFFREY CAIN, an individual; and HELI OPS INTERNATIONAL, LLC, and Oregon limited liability company,

Plaintiffs,

D.R. RAWSON, an individual; C4

WORLDWIDE, INC., a Nevada corporation; RICHARD PRICE, an individual; JOE BAKER, an individual; MICKEY SHACKELFORD, an individual; MICHAEL K.

KAVANAGH, an individual;

JEFFREY EDWARDS, an individual; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Motion for Extension of Time, filed May 30, 2019. The motion has been fully briefed and is ripe for consideration. Good cause appearing, the Court finds and orders as follows:

Procedural and Factual History

On September 24, 2014, the Court issued a Scheduling Order designating July 17, 2015 as the discovery deadline. The Scheduling Order provides, "No extensions or modifications shall be permitted, except by Order of the Court. NRCP 16(b)(3)." Id. at p. 3 (no emphasis added).

25

26

27

On December 26, 2014, Plaintiffs requested that Defendants
Price and Shackelford produce "any and all Form W2s, Form 1099's and any and all personal tax returns for tax years 2009 and 2010."
Price and Shackelford objected. Plaintiffs brought a motion to compel. The motion was denied. Plaintiffs successfully appealed.
Remittitur issued on May 7, 2018. Post-appeal, Price and Shackelford produced their 2009 and 2010 tax returns.

On April 26, 2019, Plaintiffs propounded a discovery request on Price and Shackelford to "provide any and all Form W2s, Form 1099s and any and all personal tax returns for tax years 2011 to the present." On or about May 28, 2019, counsel for Defendants Price and Shackelford conferred with counsel for Plaintiffs and voiced an objection.

On May 30, 2019, Plaintiffs filed the pending Motion for Extension of Time. Plaintiffs "move pursuant to DCR 17 and NJDCR 10 for an extension of time to allow the additional discovery permitted by Cain v. Price, 134 Nev.Adv.Op. 26 (April 12, 2018). Plaintiffs attached as exhibits the April 26, 2019 requests for production noted above. Citing NRCP 26(e), Plaintiffs also claim Defendants have a duty to provide the documentation as a supplement to documents already provided in reference to 2009 and 2010 taxes.

Defendants Price and Shackelford argue that DCR 17 and NJDCR 10 are inapplicable; they have fully complied with the order of the Nevada Supreme Court by producing their 2009 and 2010 tax information; their tax information from 2011 onward should be protected; that NRCP 26(e) does not require them to supplement the information for 2011 onward; for an award of attorney's fees; and previously provided 2009 and 2010 tax information with tax for enforcement of the Court's July 1, 2016 order imposing

The authorities relied upon by Plaintiffs, DCR 17 and NJDCR 10, are plainly inapplicable to Plaintiffs request for an extension of time to allow additional discovery. Plaintiffs' motion stands to be denied on this basis alone.

Although not cited by Plaintiffs, the Court has considered whether Plaintiffs have demonstrated good cause to extend the discovery deadline pursuant to NRCP 16(b)(4). In 2014, Plaintiffs specifically requested tax information for the years 2009 and 2010. Plaintiffs did not ask for tax information for any other year, including 2011-2014, or even 2009 "to present". Plaintiffs did not move for modification of the Scheduling Order prior to the discovery deadline and do not state good cause, let alone any cause, as to why they failed to do so. Plaintiffs waited until May 30, 2019 to request an extension. Plaintiffs' request comes grossly after the close of discovery and one year after Inexplicably, Plaintiffs served Defendants with the remittitur. extremely delinquent additional discovery request without court authorization and before they even filed the motion seeking an extension. Plaintiffs conduct is in direct violation of NRCP 16 and the Scheduling Order. Plaintiffs have not demonstrated good cause to extend the discovery deadline. In accord, the postdiscovery deadline requests propounded by Plaintiffs, as reflected in the exhibits to the motion, were improperly served and are ineffectual.

After framing their request for Defendants' 2011 to present tax information as additional discovery, for which they seek an extension of the discovery deadline, Plaintiffs pivot and argue that Defendants are required to provide the documentation pursuant to NRCP 26(e) as being supplemental to the 2009 and 2010 tax documents already provided. Plaintiffs do not claim that the produced 2009 and 2010 tax documents are incomplete or incorrect. NRCP 26(e). Plaintiffs do not state how a specific request for 2009 and 2010 tax documents, made in 2014, requires Defendants to produce their tax information for 2011-present. NRCP 26(e) is inapplicable.

The Nevada Supreme Court held that Defendants are compelled to produce their 2009-2010 tax information in response to Plaintiffs specific and timely request. Defendants have complied. The Nevada Supreme Court did not order an extension of the discovery deadline or order Defendants to produce 2011-present tax documentation. The Nevada Supreme Court did not give Plaintiffs carte blanche to violate court rules and procedure and their affirmance of the July 1, 2016 Order Granting Attorney's Fees as a Sanction (NRCP 11), strongly suggests otherwise. Therein, Plaintiffs were ordered to pay Defendants Price and Shackelford $9,514.00 within 30 days. Three years later, and one year postremittitur, Plaintiffs have yet to pay.

There are multiple authorities warranting another monetary sanction against Plaintiffs. These include NRCP 26, NRCP 16, NJDCR 23, NRCP 16(f)(1)(C), NRCP 37, NRCP 11 and NRS 7.085. By propounding an extremely tardy and over burdensome discovery request for personal information and subsequently bringing a frivolous motion to extend the discovery deadline, Plaintiffs have demonstrated an improper purpose. The Court is concerned that prior monetary sanctions have not been paid and have not been effective in deterring Plaintiffs' disregard for court rules and procedure. Further violations may be met with sanctions beyond monetary sanctions, such as those provided in NRCP 37(b)(1).

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion for Extension of Time is DENIED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants are awarded reasonable attorney's fees for their efforts to oppose the motion.

Defendants shall file and serve documentation in support of the amount of fees requested within 10 judicial days of this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs shall appear before the Court on July 29, 2019 at 1:30 p.m., to show cause as to why they should not be held in contempt of court for violating the July 1, 2016 Order Granting Attorney's Fees as a Sanction (NRCP 11). Contempt is punishable by up to 25 days in jail and a fine of up to $500. If, prior to the hearing, Plaintiffs comply with the 2016 Order Granting Attorney's Fees as a Sanction (NRCP 11) and file proof of compliance, the hearing will be vacated.

DATED this $/7^{\prime\prime}$ day of July, 2019.

The Court having considered the briefs and the record herein, finds and orders as follows:

2728

26

On March 9, 2015, Plaintiffs filed a motion to compel

THOMAS W. GREGORY
DISTRICT JUDGE
NINTH JUDICIAL
DISTRICT COURT

MINDEN, NY 89423

Defendants Price and Schackelford ("Defendants") to produce their personal W-2's, form 1099's and any and all personal tax returns for the years 2009 and 2010. Defendant's opposed, contending Plaintiffs could not establish the factual predicate for discovering confidential income tax information. Hetter v. District Court, 110 Nev. 513 (1994). The Court agreed with Defendants and denied Plaintiffs' motion to compel.

Plaintiffs appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court reversed, finding that Plaintiffs sufficiently established the factual predicate. Cain v. Price, 134 Nev.Adv.Op 26, p. 10 (2018).

"While the evidence of the factual predicate might not be "clear and convincing," it does constitute "some factual basis." Id.

Citing NRCP 37, Plaintiffs request attorney's fees for litigating the motion to compel at the district court level and on appeal. Plaintiffs specifically request "$4,375 in connection with their Third Motion to Compel in District Court," and $127,310 "for the entire combined cost of the appeal." Defendants are opposed.

When granting a motion to compel, a court shall require the opposing party to pay "reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds...that the opposing party's nondisclosure, response or objection was substantially justified, or that other circumstances make and award of expenses unjust." NRCP 37(4)(A).

The information requested by Plaintiffs carries particular legal protection. Specifically:

THOMAS W. GREGORY DISTRICT JUDGE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT P.O. BOX 218 MINDEN, NY 89423 Because of the policy considerations of protecting taxpayer privacy and encouraging the filing of full and accurate tax returns, both state and federal courts have subjected discovery requests for income tax returns to a heightened scrutiny, especially in the context of requests for punitive damages.

Hetter v. District Court, 110 Nev. 513, 519 (1994).

While this state [Nevada] does not recognize a privilege for tax returns or necessarily require that liability for punitive damages be established before discovery of financial condition, public policy suggests that tax returns or financial status not be had for the mere asking. Claims for punitive damages can be asserted with ease and can result in abuse and harassment if their assertion alone entitles plaintiff to financial discovery. See, Moran v. International Playtex, Inc., 480 N.Y.S.2d 6, 8 (N.Y. App. Div. 1984). We hold that before tax returns or financial records are discoverable on the issue of punitive damages, the plaintiff must demonstrate some factual basis for its punitive damage claim.

Id. at 520; see also, Cain v. Price, 134 Nev.Adv.Op 26, p. 10 (2018).

Since the information at issue cannot "be had for the mere asking," Defendants were substantially justified in denying disclosure pending judicial determination of the factual predicate. NRCP 37(4)(A). This is particularly so given the small quantum of evidence supporting the factual predicate. It would be unjust to award attorney's fees to Plaintiffs under these circumstances. Id. Also, the law does not provide for an award of attorney's fees incurred on appeal. Bd. of Gallery of History v. Datecs Corp., 116 Nev. 286, 288 (2000).

None of the parties requested or were granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis

9. The Date the Proceedings Commenced in the District Court:

Complaint – September 14, 2011

10. Brief Description of the Nature of the Action and Result in District Court:

This case against the remaining defendants Richard Price and Mickey Shackelford has previously been on appeal, Consolidated Case Nos. 69333, 69889, 70864. Those appeals arose from an order granting summary judgment in favor of Price and Shackelford and awarding attorney's fees. The summary judgment and attorney's fees order were reversed and the case was remanded to the district court. See Cain v. Price, 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 26 (2018). That opinion also reversed an order denying Plaintiffs' motion to compel and awarding attorney's fees against Plaintiffs. Following reversal and remand, Plaintiffs filed a motion for attorney's fees stemming from the discovery dispute, which was denied, and eventually moved to dismiss the case, which was granted. Price and Shackelford have appealed the dismissal. That appeal has not been docketed or assigned a case number as this date. This is a cross-appeal in that same case.

Plaintiffs herein appeal from the order denying an award of attorney's fees in relation to their motion to compel, and another order awarding a monetary sanction.

11. Prior or Related Proceedings in the Supreme Court:

Price and Shackelford already appealed the November 1, 2019 order dismissing the case. That appeal has not been docketed or assigned a case number as this date. This is a cross-appeal in that same case.

Prior proceedings in the Supreme Court include:

Petition 71548 which culminated in the opinion Rawson v. District Court (M. Rawson), 133 Nev. Adv. Op. 44 (2017).

Consolidated Appeals 69333, 69889 and 70864 which culminated in the opinion Cain v. Price, 134 Nev. Adv. Op. 26 (2018).

Appeal 76381 was dismissed upon a stipulation and order.

12. Possibility of a Settlement:

Appellants believe this case is appropriate for settlement.

Dated this 13th day of December, 2019.

11). Plaintiffs filed an opposition and Defendants filed a reply. Defendants support the amount of fees requested by affidavit and billing statements. Plaintiffs submit that some of the billing entries were for efforts unrelated to Defendants' opposition to the motion in question. Defendants reply that to the extent time spent by counsel was tangentially related, the attorney's fees are justified as a fine.

The Court has considered the factors supplied by Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat'l Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349 (1969) in evaluating the amount of fees requested by Defendants. Counsel for Defendants advocated against the underlying motion by filing a seven-page opposition together with an affidavit of counsel. Counsel's efforts were of sufficient character and quality to successfully defeat the motion. Some of the billed time was, however, only tangentially related to opposing the motion. Defendants did not request a fine and a fine was not assessed by the Court.

The Court finds that billing entries for 6/5/2019, 6/10/2019, 6/11/2019 and 7/18/2019, for both Defendants Price and Shackelford, best exemplify the time directly spent on opposing the motion. The amount of time was reasonable as was the hourly rate given the qualifications and experience of counsel.

Good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the amount of attorney's fees payable by Plaintiffs to Defendants Price and Shackelford is set Plaintiffs shall remit said amount to counsel for at $2,100.00. Defendants Price and Shackelford by November 18, 2019, at 1:30 p.m.

- 1
1	IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs shall appear before the

THOMAS W. GREGORY DISTRICT JUDGE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT P.O. BOX 218 MINDEN, NV 89423

RECEIVED FILED 1 Case No. 11-CV-0296 JUL 17 2019 2 Dept, No. II 2019 JUL 17 PM 3: 16 Douglas County District Court Clerk 3 ACTUAL ENTELLIAMS 4 5 IN THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA 6 7 IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF DOUGLAS 8 9 PEGGY CAIN, an individual; JEFFREY CAIN, an individual; and HELI OPS INTERNATIONAL, 1.0 LLC, and Oregon limited liability company, 11 Plaintiffs, 12 ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS' 13 vs. MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME D.R. RAWSON, an individual; C4 14 WORLDWIDE, INC., a Nevada corporation; RICHARD PRICE, an 15 individual; JOE BAKER, an individual; MICKEY SHACKELFORD, an individual; MICHAEL K. KAVANAGH, an individual; 17 JEFFREY EDWARDS, an individual; and DOES 1 through 10, 18 inclusive, 19 Defendants. 20 THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Motion for 21 Extension of Time, filed May 30, 2019. The motion has been fully 22 briefed and is ripe for consideration. Good cause appearing, the 23 Court finds and orders as follows: 24 Procedural and Factual History 25 On September 24, 2014, the Court issued a Scheduling Order 26 designating July 17, 2015 as the discovery deadline. 27 Scheduling Order provides, "No extensions or modifications shall 28

THOMAS W. GREGORY BISTRICT JUDGE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT E.O. BOX 218 MINDEN, NV 89423 be permitted, except by Order of the Court. NRCP 16(b)(3)." Id. at p. 3 (no emphasis added).

On December 26, 2014, Plaintiffs requested that Defendants
Price and Shackelford produce "any and all Form W2s, Form 1099's and any and all personal tax returns for tax years 2009 and 2010."
Price and Shackelford objected. Plaintiffs brought a motion to compel. The motion was denied. Plaintiffs successfully appealed.
Remittitur issued on May 7, 2018. Post-appeal, Price and Shackelford produced their 2009 and 2010 tax returns.

On April 26, 2019, Plaintiffs propounded a discovery request on Price and Shackelford to "provide any and all Form W2s, Form 1099s and any and all personal tax returns for tax years 2011 to the present." On or about May 28, 2019, counsel for Defendants Price and Shackelford conferred with counsel for Plaintiffs and voiced an objection.

On May 30, 2019, Plaintiffs filed the pending Motion for Extension of Time. Plaintiffs "move pursuant to DCR 17 and NJDCR 10 for an extension of time to allow the additional discovery permitted by Cain v. Price, 134 Nev.Adv.Op. 26 (April 12, 2018). Plaintiffs attached as exhibits the April 26, 2019 requests for production noted above. Citing NRCP 26(e), Plaintiffs also claim Defendants have a duty to provide the documentation as a supplement to documents already provided in reference to 2009 and 2010 taxes.

Defendants Price and Shackelford argue that DCR 17 and NJDCR 10 are inapplicable; they have fully complied with the order of the Nevada Supreme Court by producing their 2009 and 2010 tax information; their tax information from 2011 onward should be protected; that NRCP 26(e) does not require them to supplement the previously provided 2009 and 2010 tax information with tax information for 2011 onward; for an award of attorney's fees; and for enforcement of the Court's July 1, 2016 order imposing sanctions on Plaintiffs.

Discussion

The authorities relied upon by Plaintiffs, DCR 17 and NJDCR 10, are plainly inapplicable to Plaintiffs request for an extension of time to allow additional discovery. Plaintiffs' motion stands to be denied on this basis alone.

Although not cited by Plaintiffs, the Court has considered whether Plaintiffs have demonstrated good cause to extend the discovery deadline pursuant to NRCP 16(b)(4). In 2014, Plaintiffs specifically requested tax information for the years 2009 and 2010. Plaintiffs did not ask for tax information for any other year, including 2011-2014, or even 2009 "to present". Plaintiffs did not move for modification of the Scheduling Order prior to the discovery deadline and do not state good cause, let alone any cause, as to why they failed to do so. Plaintiffs waited until May 30, 2019 to request an extension. Plaintiffs' request comes grossly after the close of discovery and one year after remittitur. Inexplicably, Plaintiffs served Defendants with the extremely delinquent additional discovery request without court authorization and before they even filed the motion seeking an extension. Plaintiffs conduct is in direct violation of NRCP 16 and the Scheduling Order. Plaintiffs have not demonstrated good cause to extend the discovery deadline. In accord, the postdiscovery deadline requests propounded by Plaintiffs, as reflected in the exhibits to the motion, were improperly served and are ineffectual.

After framing their request for Defendants' 2011 to present tax information as additional discovery, for which they seek an extension of the discovery deadline, Plaintiffs pivot and argue that Defendants are required to provide the documentation pursuant to NRCP 26(e) as being supplemental to the 2009 and 2010 tax documents already provided. Plaintiffs do not claim that the produced 2009 and 2010 tax documents are incomplete or incorrect. NRCP 26(e). Plaintiffs do not state how a specific request for 2009 and 2010 tax documents, made in 2014, requires Defendants to produce their tax information for 2011-present. NRCP 26(e) is inapplicable.

The Nevada Supreme Court held that Defendants are compelled to produce their 2009-2010 tax information in response to Plaintiffs specific and timely request. Defendants have complied. The Nevada Supreme Court did not order an extension of the discovery deadline or order Defendants to produce 2011-present tax documentation. The Nevada Supreme Court did not give Plaintiffs carte blanche to violate court rules and procedure and their affirmance of the July 1, 2016 Order Granting Attorney's Fees as a Sanction (NRCP 11), strongly suggests otherwise. Therein, Plaintiffs were ordered to pay Defendants Price and Shackelford $9,514.00 within 30 days. Three years later, and one year postremittitur, Plaintiffs have yet to pay.

There are multiple authorities warranting another monetary sanction against Plaintiffs. These include NRCP 26, NRCP 16, NJDCR 23, NRCP 16(f)(1)(C), NRCP 37, NRCP 11 and NRS 7.085. By propounding an extremely tardy and over burdensome discovery request for personal information and subsequently bringing a 2 frivolous motion to extend the discovery deadline, Plaintiffs have 3 demonstrated an improper purpose. The Court is concerned that prior monetary sanctions have not been paid and have not been effective in deterring Plaintiffs' disregard for court rules and procedure. Further violations may be met with sanctions beyond monetary sanctions, such as those provided in NRCP 37(b)(1). IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion for Extension of Time is DENIED. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants are awarded reasonable 11 attorney's fees for their efforts to oppose the motion. 12 13 Defendants shall file and serve documentation in support of the 14 amount of fees requested within 10 judicial days of this order. 15

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs shall appear before the Court on July 29, 2019 at 1:30 p.m., to show cause as to why they should not be held in contempt of court for violating the July 1, 2016 Order Granting Attorney's Fees as a Sanction (NRCP 11). Contempt is punishable by up to 25 days in jail and a fine of up to $500. If, prior to the hearing, Plaintiffs comply with the 2016 Order Granting Attorney's Fees as a Sanction (NRCP 11) and file proof of compliance, the hearing will be vacated.

finds and orders as follows:

On March 9, 2015, Plaintiffs filed a motion to compel

Defendants Price and Schackelford ("Defendants") to produce their personal W-2's, form 1099's and any and all personal tax returns for the years 2009 and 2010. Defendant's opposed, contending Plaintiffs could not establish the factual predicate for discovering confidential income tax information. Hetter v. District Court, 110 Nev. 513 (1994). The Court agreed with Defendants and denied Plaintiffs' motion to compel.

Plaintiffs appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court reversed,

Plaintiffs appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court reversed, finding that Plaintiffs sufficiently established the factual predicate. Cain v. Price, 134 Nev.Adv.Op 26, p. 10 (2018). "While the evidence of the factual predicate might not be "clear and convincing," it does constitute "some factual basis." Id.

Citing NRCP 37, Plaintiffs request attorney's fees for litigating the motion to compel at the district court level and on appeal. Plaintiffs specifically request "$4,375 in connection with their Third Motion to Compel in District Court," and $127,310 "for the entire combined cost of the appeal." Defendants are opposed.

When granting a motion to compel, a court shall require the opposing party to pay "reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds...that the opposing party's nondisclosure, response or objection was substantially justified, or that other circumstances make and award of expenses unjust." NRCP 37(4)(A).

The information requested by Plaintiffs carries particular legal protection. Specifically:

NINTH JUDICIAE,
DISTRICT COURT
P.O. BON 218
MINDEN, NV 89423

Because of the policy considerations of protecting taxpayer privacy and encouraging the filing of full and accurate tax returns, both state and federal courts have subjected discovery requests for income tax returns to a heightened scrutiny, especially in the context of requests for punitive damages.

Hetter v. District Court, 110 Nev. 513, 519 (1994).

While this state [Nevada] does not recognize a privilege for tax returns or necessarily require that liability for punitive damages be established before discovery of financial condition, public policy suggests that tax returns or financial status not be had for the mere asking. Claims for punitive damages can be asserted with ease and can result in abuse and harassment if their assertion alone entitles plaintiff to financial discovery. See, Moran v. International Playtex, Inc., 480 N.Y.S.2d 6, 8 (N.Y. App. Div. 1984). We hold that before tax returns or financial records are discoverable on the issue of punitive damages, the plaintiff must demonstrate some factual basis for its punitive damage claim.

Id. at 520; see also, Cain v. Price, 134 Nev.Adv.Op 26, p. 10 (2018).

Since the information at issue cannot "be had for the mere asking," Defendants were substantially justified in denying disclosure pending judicial determination of the factual predicate. NRCP 37(4)(A). This is particularly so given the small quantum of evidence supporting the factual predicate. It would be unjust to award attorney's fees to Plaintiffs under these circumstances. Id. Also, the law does not provide for an award of attorney's fees incurred on appeal. Bd. of Gallery of History v. Datecs Corp., 116 Nev. 286, 288 (2000).

Defendants support the amount of fees requested by affidavit and billing statements. Plaintiffs submit that some of the billing entries were for efforts unrelated to Defendants' opposition to the motion in question. Defendants reply that to the extent time spent by counsel was tangentially related, the

The Court has considered the factors supplied by Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat'l Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349 (1969) in evaluating the amount of fees requested by Defendants. Counsel for Defendants advocated against the underlying motion by filing a seven-page opposition together with an affidavit of counsel. Counsel's efforts were of sufficient character and quality to successfully defeat the motion. Some of the billed time was, however, only tangentially related to opposing the motion. Defendants did not request a fine and a fine was not assessed by the Court.

The Court finds that billing entries for 6/5/2019, 6/10/2019, 6/11/2019 and 7/18/2019, for both Defendants Price and Shackelford, best exemplify the time directly spent on opposing the motion. The amount of time was reasonable as was the hourly rate given the qualifications and experience of counsel.

Good cause appearing,

attorney's fees are justified as a fine.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the amount of attorney's fees payable by Plaintiffs to Defendants Price and Shackelford is set at $2,100.00. Plaintiffs shall remit said amount to counsel for Defendants Price and Shackelford by November 18, 2019, at 1:30 p.m.

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs shall appear before the 2 Court for a status hearing on November 18, 2019, at 1:30 p.m. 3 prior to the hearing, Plaintiffs comply with this order and file proof of the same with the Court, the hearing will be vacated. 4 DATED this 1st day of October, 2019. 5 6 7 DISTRICT GUNGE 8 9 10 2019, addressed to: Copies served by mail on Gataber 11 12 Michael Matuska, Esq. 2310 South Carson Street, #6 13 Carson City, Nevada 89701 14 Mark Forsberg, Esq. 504 E.
