None.

12. Nature of action. Briefly describe the nature of the action and the result below:

Mr. Harlan was charged by way of Information with one count of 1st Degree Murder With Use of a Deadly Weapon (under the Felony Murder theory); one count of Robbery With Use of a Deadly Weapon and one count of Accessory to Murder With Use of a Deadly Weapon.

The case went to trial and Mr. Harlan was convicted of all counts with the first degree murder being under the Felony Murder Rule. Shortly after the verdict Defense Counsel became aware of juror misconduct and filed a Motion for a New Trial. Ultimately after a limited evidentiary hearing, the motion was denied. Mr. Harlan was then sentenced to the above on December 10, 2019.

The Defense's position, which was uncontested at trial was that Mr. Harlan was asleep on the couch when the killing occurred and that there was no planned robbery. Additionally, after the verdict Defense Counsel was given an affidavit signed by one of the jurors alleging numerous instances of juror misconduct, one of which specifically affected her verdict.

13. Issues on appeal. State specifically all issues in this appeal (attach separate sheets as necessary):

1. The limiting of the scope of the evidentiary hearing given on Appellant's Motion for New Trial based off of juror misconduct. Appellant was only allowed to question jurors about one particular fact that was discussed during deliberations, which was a prior bad act that was excluded from the trial upon the granting of Appellant's pre-trial Motion in Limine. Appellant had other facts of juror misconduct that were unable to be testified to or made a part of the record because of the District Court judge's ruling to exclude such facts.
2. Denying of Appellant's Motion for New Trial after multiple jurors testified under oath that the prior bad act, which was excluded from trial but brought up by the lead detective on the case during cross examinations, was talked about amongst the juror's during deliberations. Additionally, it was testified to that this prior bad act that was to be excluded, affected the verdict of at least one juror.
3. Denying of Appellants Motion for a Mistrial that was argued for during the trial itself, after the State's witness improperly testified about the prior bad act.
4. Double Jeopardy and/or Redundancy for being convicted and/or sentenced for 1st Degree Murder and Accessory to that Murder. Additionally, for a Deadly Weapon Enhancement on a Robbery Charge as well as the 1st Degree Murder Charge when the theory for the Murder was under the Felony Murder Rule. But for the alleged Robbery there would be no Murder conviction for the Appellant as he committed no killing.

14. Constitutional issues: If the State is not a party and if this appeal challenges the constitutionality of a statute or municipal ordinance, have you notified the clerk of this court and the attorney general in accordance with NRAP 44 and NRS 30.130?

☒ N/A
