1 gun, I associate with killing and death.

2 MR. HELMICK: That's what you associate it with?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: Yes. And I'm still
4 very afraid. And I am -- up until today, I never really hold a gun.
5 And I only see the guns in like the law enforcement's pockets --

6 MR. HELMICK: Uh-huh.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: -- or in the movie. I
8 never really seen a real gun.

9 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Does that bother you when you see
10 it in the movies and when you walk by an officer who has a gun?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: No.

12 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: No. Uh-uh.

14 MR. HELMICK: Do you understand -- or can you see Ms.
15 Leon's opinion and Mr. Contreras opinion in regards to carrying 16 guns? Do you understand other people's reason for it?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: I do.

18 MR. HELMICK: All right.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: But it still -- I still 20 have the fear.

21 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: Yeah.

23 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. So you just have a fear. Do you
24 have anything against somebody who carries a gun?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: Should I say my

1 opinion?

2 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: Yes, I do. Nobody
4 should carry a gun except the law enforcement people.

5 MR. HELMICK: And if you were to find out there was guns
6 involved in this case, is that going to negatively affect your ability 7 to --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: Yeah.

9 MR. HELMICK: Yeah?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: I think I will.

11 MR. HELMICK: And that's because you have a fear of 12 them?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 471: That's right.

14 MR. HELMICK: Okay. All right. Thank you.

15 Anybody agree with Ms. Kord? I've had a few people
16 already. Anybody else though?

17 Yeah. Mr. Pereda, let's get you the microphone.

18 May I call you Juan?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Juan, go ahead.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: How -- based on 22 your last question I would -- I think that it would make me feel
23 uncomfortable and against the person in general that uses a gun
24 irresponsibly.

25 MR. HELMICK: Irrespons --

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: You know, if
2 [indiscernible], if it's used to commit a crime, if you don't have the
3 license, whatever condition whether it is illegal or irresponsible, I
4 would feel -- I would take that as a [indiscernible], you know,
5 something that will make me feel very uncomfortable.

6 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. But will that --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: I believe in guns.

8 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: I like guns, I like
10 going shooting [indiscernible] you know, guns. I like shotguns
11 and -- it's not that I don't like them or disapprove them --

12 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: -- or whatever. But 14 use them irresponsible --

15 MR. HELMICK: Well --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: -- commit a crime
17 while owning or carrying a gun that is -- was stolen or something 18 like that, you know, that would make me feel very, very --

19 MR. HELMICK: Right.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: -- bad.

21 MR. HELMICK: I think that'd make everybody in here feel 22 bad, right? Anybody -- everybody agree with Juan, if somebody is 23 using a gun irresponsibly, right?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: And that's all I have.
25 On the other hand, I'm okay with guns. I don't own one because

1 my wife, we're divorced, wouldn't buy a gun.

2 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, you don't want to do that.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: No. But I feel that
4 I -- you know, irresponsible in general. What is irresponsible with 5 guns or, you know, [indiscernible] or whatever --

6 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: It makes me feel a
8 little uncomfortable.

9 MR. HELMICK: Well, you know, Judith talked about her
10 not being able to be fair on this jury possibly because there was a 11 gun involved. Do you agree with Judith or do you disagree with 12 her?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: I will be fair, but I
14 can be influenced badly if the gun had been used irresponsibly or, 15 you know.

16 MR. HELMICK: That's going to negatively affect you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: That would be a
18 negative, you know? It will -- I don't know how I'm going to react to 19 that. I know how I'm going to react.

20 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: I know I -- I know
22 me, you know?

23 MR. HELMICK: Are you still going to listen to all the 24 evidence or do you still going to require the Prosecution to prove 25 the case beyond a reasonable doubt? Or when you hear those

1 facts, are you going to say you know what, I just don't know. I
2 mean, I'm already kind of -- I've already kind of answered it, like
3 kind of like Luis said earlier.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Exactly.

5 MR. HELMICK: You have already kind of answered it if 6 you see some facts like that?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Yes, I -- I'm not sure
8 but I will feel inclined to that. I -- knowing me [indiscernible], I think 9 that will tip the balance, you know, on the [indiscernible] --

10 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: -- [indiscernible]
12 I'm just being honest --

13 MR. HELMICK: Please, that's what -- I mean, listen, isn't 14 that the duty of this, right? Everybody has their different opinion --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: [Indiscernible].

16 MR. HELMICK: -- and everybody's walked this earth in 17 different shoes, right?

18 All right. Okay. Thank you, Juan.

19 All right. I want to talk about something that I know
20 probably all of you guys have heard about.

21 Okay. Anybody here ever heard about or read about or 22 watched a movie or anything in regard to somebody being 23 wrongfully charged or wrongfully convicted? Can I see your hands,
24 please?

25 Looks like we got a lot of people. All right. Hold those up

1 for me again real quickly just so I can see if I can visualize it. Okay.

2 All right. Let me talk to a few people here. Mr. Barrett,
3 right? Can I call you Brett?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Sure.

5 MR. HELMICK: Okay, Brett. Have you heard of a scenario
6 like that?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: I've heard of a few.

8 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Do you know the facts that you
9 could share about one in particular?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: I can't think of one
11 in particular, but I do know that kind of the recurring facts are that 12 oftentimes witnesses memories -- they can come up with phantom
13 memories and belief based on emotion more than what they 14 actually remember about particular crimes and get things wrong --
15 honestly wrong.

16 MR. HELMICK: So okay -- so one thing you said was 17 maybe a bad memory, right, could be a factor?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Bad memory or 19 influenced memory in some way by the biases and the trauma of 20 the situation. Or by being coerced.

21 MR. HELMICK: Coerced, yeah. Thank you. Nick said
22 something about that, right?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Yeah.

24 MR. HELMICK: Okay. When you hear about those things,
25 I mean, how does that make you feel?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: More informed.
2 MR. HELMICK: More informed? When you hear about a
3 story like that, more informed is --
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: About the human
5 psyche, I guess, yeah.
6 MR. HELMICK: Sure.
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: I mean, it's a good
8 thing to know.
9 MR. HELMICK: Okay.
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: You know, the more
11 people know that or to be aware of that condition that it actually 12 happens more often than you might think.
13 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay. Thanks, Brett.
14 You want to pass it over to Mr. Young.
15 Can I call you Chris?
16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 540: Yes, sir.
17 MR. HELMICK: Okay, Chris. What do you think? Have 18 you ever heard a scenario like that?
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 540: Absolutely. A 20 couple.
21 MR. HELMICK: Okay.
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 540: I mean, I don't have 23 any definitive details --
24 MR. HELMICK: Sure.
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 540: -- but there's lots of

1 accounts of that happening; yes, sir.

2 MR. HELMICK: How does that make you feel?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 540: Bad for the 4 wrongfully convicted. I mean, I don't know. It's just part of the 5 process. It does happen, absolutely. But I don't know if there's 6 anything --

7 MR. HELMICK: I'm going to add something else here to --
8 just to charge -- wrongfully convicted or wrongfully charged. Let's
9 go that end there.

10 So I mean, let me ask everybody this. How do you think 11 that that happens when we know, right that they have had a jury of 12 12 people. They all went through the same process as you guys are 13 going through, what are some reasons -- and let's put these on the 14 board. What are some reasons --

15 MR. PESCI: Judge, can we approach?

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 [Bench conference transcribed as follows.]

18 MR. PESCI: Your Honor, The State objects and I don't
19 understand how this is getting into the qualifications for jurors. I
20 think this is arguing the case. That's, again, violation of Eighth
21 Judicial District Court Rule 7.70. So I don't know how this goes to 22 the qualifications, asking them to opine about reasons for wrongful
23 convictions.

24 MR. HELMICK: It's not going to the facts of the case at all.
25 I'm talking about -- this is normal voir dire done at countless trials

1 that we have a duty to exercise our peremptive challenges
2 appropriately. We have a ethical duty to do that in any case like
3 this and cause -- or talking --

4 THE COURT: I don't know that I've ever had anybody
5 question the jury from the standpoint of wrongful convictions as 6 the basis for questioning them about, you know, evidence in a case.
7 You need to be talking about --

8 MR. HELMICK: Well --

9 THE COURT: -- what constitutes evidence and talking
10 about witness testimony and what affects witness's --

11 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

12 THE COURT: -- credibility and all that. But --

13 MR. HELMICK: [Indiscernible] before if I'm going to say --

14 THE COURT: Wrongful convictions?

15 MR. HELMICK: No, I said so what are some of the reasons
16 why and then I want to say again, can we promise to hold
17 everybody accountable in this case, so it doesn't -- so something
18 like that doesn't happen.

19 MR. PESCI: So we're going to give them scenarios --

20 THE COURT: He's kind of started with this kind of telling
21 them this idea that there's a wrongful conviction and, you know --

22 MR. HELMICK: We can't talk about those -- all those 23 incidents before the -- whether they're --

24 THE COURT: But the problem is that starts talking about
25 other cases, right? And you're starting to say, okay, you've heard

1 about wrongful convictions or why do those occur in those other
2 cases. But the focus is this case. And so you're asking him
3 questions about how witnesses perceive things and what would 4 affect their credibility and their perception and their recall and if
5 they have any thoughts on those things is okay.

6 But just kind of saying hey has anybody ever read
7 about ---

8 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: -- wrongful convictions and what did you
10 read about those, that's not part of this case.

11 MR. HELMICK: I don't mind the facts, I just want to know
12 why they think that can happen on a jury of 12 people. Bad
13 memory, bad witnesses, bad defense lawyers, what are the 14 reasons. I don't think that that's crossing the line.

15 THE COURT: But I think that talking to them -- this is what
16 I'm saying about talking to them about have you seen other cases
17 where wrongful convictions occurred. That's like the State --

18 MR. HELMICK: What if I'm talking about Shawshank
19 Redemption.

20 THE COURT: Hold on, hold on, hold on. Have you seen --
21 that's a movie. Have you seen cases where people get convicted
22 and why do people get convicted? You know, it doesn't matter
23 whether you're talking about somebody's conviction or 24 somebody's acquittal in another case --

25 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

1 THE COURT: -- these people don't know anything about
2 the other cases.

3 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

4 THE COURT: They don't know anything about all the facts
5 there, so you just got to ask them questions about -- let's just talk
6 about witnesses in general. Not making reference to other
7 scenarios and other cases and what they've seen on TV or what
8 have you. That's what I'm trying -- that's what I think their 9 objection is and what I'm trying to focus you on.

10 It's not about writing things on the board, it's just --

11 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

12 THE COURT: -- about trying to get them to think about 13 other cases where things have gone wrong --

14 MR. HELMICK: Right.

15 THE COURT: Right. They could not know everything in 16 that case. So then --

17 MR. HELMICK: No, I know.

18 THE COURT: -- you're talking in front of the whole jurors
19 about a case that everybody doesn't know everything about. So we 20 don't know what really went wrong there or not wrong.

21 MR. HELMICK: Well what if I reference a movie then, like 22 the --

23 THE COURT: Shawshank Redemption.

24 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

25 THE COURT: So what are you going to ask --

1 MR. HELMICK: How that --

2 THE COURT: What are you going to ask them about
3 Shawshank?

4 MR. HELMICK: You know, it's kind of the same --

5 THE COURT: Have you seen it?

6 MR. HELMICK: Have you seen it?

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. HELMICK: How did that make you feel? What are 9 some of the reasons why the -- that guy ended up in -- you know, if 10 they remember the movie.

11 THE COURT: What is that relevant to this case though?

12 MR. HELMICK: Well it's putting in their head --

13 THE COURT: It's in a movie or in another case.

14 MR. HELMICK: -- some things that they have to look at in 15 this trial, so it doesn't -- so that potentially doesn't happen here.

16 THE COURT: I think that's getting into, you know, kind of 17 arguing the case. And you can argue your case with Shawshank
18 Redemption, but that's not --

19 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

20 THE COURT: -- can somebody be fair and impartial.

21 MR. HELMICK: Okay. I'll figure out -- so tell me how I can
22 tailor this then. You said I can ask about a witness, how a witness
23 can --

24 THE COURT: Yeah, you just say I'm making these 25 references -- have you seen these other situations where we don't

1 really know what happened in those other situations and then
2 trying to educate the jury to a situation that other people don't
3 know anything about is kind of very risky in my mind.

4 So if you're just saying -- you know, when you're talking
5 about the sufficiency of evidence in a case and you're talking about 6 okay, witnesses. Witnesses have -- testify. What do you think
7 affects a witness's ability to recall and relay things that have
8 happened or is going to affect their ability to, you know,
9 misinterpret --

10 MR. HELMICK: Okay. I can do that. I can do witnesses --
11 what do you think affects a witness's ability? Time?

13 MR. HELMICK: Memory?

14 THE COURT: Yeah.

15 MR. HELMICK: Things like that.

16 THE COURT: Do you have any opinions about those 17 things --

18 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: -- about how you're evaluating witnesses,
20 okay?

21 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 [End of bench conference.]

24 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Helmick.

25 MR. HELMICK: All right. Thank you, Judge.

1 Let me change this for a second here.

2 So you're going to have a lot of witnesses come in here
3 and testify about an event that happened a year ago. What are
4 some things that you think can affect the witness's ability to, you
5 know, recall events? Does anybody here that -- has anybody heard
6 a witness testimony? Anybody read about that, witness testimony,
7 and things like that?

8 Can I see your hands if you have?

9 Okay. I haven't talked to you yet. I don't know how to say
10 your last name, but I know your first name's Gordon, right?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Correct.

12 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Gordon, okay.

13 Can we get the microphone to Gordon, please?

14 What do you think, what can -- could affect he witness's
15 ability to testify as to what really took place?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: It could have been a
17 distraction, it could have been something where something else --

18 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: A vague memory,
20 something --

21 MR. HELMICK: Distraction is one, okay. And you said --
22 you actually said two, you said memory; that can affect it, right?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Uh-huh.

24 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Gordon, Thank you very much.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: You're welcome.

1 MR. HELMICK: And Sylvia, I think you raised your hand,
2 right? What's your badge number?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Ummm --

4 MR. HELMICK: Sorry, it's -- take that microphone and --

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: No, that's okay.

6 463.

7 MR. HELMICK: All right. 463. What do you think?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Again, probably just 9 bad memory like Gordon said.

10 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Especially since it's 12 so long ago --

13 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, so time, right?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Yeah. It can just 15 kind of become distorted in a way.

16 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. What are some things that the 17 jurors can do to kind of cipher through that stuff?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Well do they -- they 19 initially speak to them when the crime first happens, correct?

20 MR. HELMICK: Who, the police?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Or --

22 MR. HELMICK: People in general?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Yeah. There's --

24 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: -- some sort of

1 statement --

2 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: So you can look --

4 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: -- back at the
6 statement and see if it changed in any way.

7 MR. HELMICK: Oh, okay. Okay. Yeah.

8 So maybe focus on the statement when it was fresh in 9 their mind, right?

11 MR. HELMICK: Statement, okay.

12 Okay. Thanks, Sylvia.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Uh-huh.

14 MR. HELMICK: Who else raised their hand? I know
15 Shayra?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Yeah.

17 MR. HELMICK: Shayra, am I saying that right?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Shayra.

19 MR. HELMICK: Shayra, okay. Shayra.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Well I --

21 MR. HELMICK: What do you think?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: -- agree with Sylvia,
23 I was going to say time.

24 MR. HELMICK: Time.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Yeah.

1 MR. HELMICK: That's a big one, right?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Yeah. The more -- I
3 mean, I don't remember what I did two weeks ago, you see, so I
4 think that's a huge one.

5 MR. HELMICK: And then she had mentioned maybe you
6 go back, and you look at the statement, right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Right.

8 MR. HELMICK: What else do you think though? Vantage
9 point, maybe?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Explain that.
11 Vantage point?

12 MR. HELMICK: Were they -- was something blocking their 13 view or --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Would that fall with 15 like distraction?

16 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, I guess it could fall under that, right?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Okay.

18 MR. HELMICK: I'll put it like this.

19 Anybody else?

20 Markletter [sic], anything from you?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Oh, no, I'm good.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Just checking. All right.
23 Thank you.

24 Okay. So Mr. Yampolsky had talked about kids and he
25 was talking to Ms. Fox because it seems like you got the kid thing

1 down pretty well. Who else here has kids besides Ms. Fox? We got
2 a lot of people, I know. Okay. All right, good. Who have I not
3 talked to yet?

4 Okay. So can you raise your hands for me, who has kids?

5 All right. I'm going to come over to you, Ms. Huston.
6 How many kids do you have again?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: I have five of my
8 own and two stepkids.

9 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So I mean, maybe this is a
10 rhetorical question but do kids do stupid stuff?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: All the time.

12 MR. HELMICK: Okay. What are some reasons then with 13 being a mom, what are some reasons that kids do stupid stuff?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Peer pressure,
15 fitting in, just because they're not thinking.

16 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Peer pressure, yeah. Yeah, maybe
17 they're not thinking right.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Fitting in.

19 MR. HELMICK: Fitting in, okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Not thinking clearly.
21 Tired.

22 MR. HELMICK: So there's a lot of things, right?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Oh yeah.

24 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Have you experienced that yourself
25 with kids?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Yeah, sure.

2 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Anybody else? Who else raised

3 their hand? Did you raise your hand, ma'am?

5 MR. HELMICK: Ms. Alvarez, yeah?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 425: Yes.

7 MR. HELMICK: All right. Thank you.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 425: In my experience,

9 my kids when they were bored, they would do things that they were

10 not supposed to do.

11 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, right. Too much time on their

12 hands, right? That's a big one, huh?

13 THE COURT: That's Ms. Alvarez.

14 MR. HELMICK: Ms. Alvarez, yes.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Ms. Alvarez, Thank you very much.

17 What else? There's a couple more that I'm trying to think of that I

18 want to get up there.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: What was the

20 question?

21 MR. HELMICK: Do you have kids, Shayra?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Uh-huh. Too many.

23 MR. HELMICK: So we're talking about -- what was that?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Too many.

25 MR. HELMICK: Too many?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Uh-huh.

2 MR. HELMICK: You know, what are some reasons that

3 kids do stupid stuff?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: I think fear to cover

5 up certain stuff.

6 MR. HELMICK: Fear.

7 All right. Oh, I'm sorry. What's your badge number

8 again?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: 452.

10 MR. HELMICK: Ms. Estrada, right?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Esparza.

12 MR. HELMICK: Esparza.

13 Okay. Fear. And then you else had raised their hand?

14 Yeah, Gordon, what do you think?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: A lot of them will do

16 it because they don't know what the consequences are.

17 MR. HELMICK: And why is that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: They're young.

19 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay. So they're just not mature.

20 Anybody else have anything to add to this?

21 Yeah, Juan? Let's get you the microphone.

22 Okay. Go ahead. Pass that, Jessica, thank you.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Just influence from 24 others.

25 MR. HELMICK: Right, like the peer pressure. Is that what

1 it was?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Yeah.

3 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Influence huh? Do you think
4 they're easier to influence kids or -- than adults or what do you
5 think?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: What was --

7 MR. HELMICK: Do you think kids are easier to be
8 influenced than adults?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Yes.

10 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. You were hesitant there.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Because there are 12 smart kids too.

13 MR. HELMICK: That's true, right?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: I was
15 [indiscernible].

16 MR. HELMICK: Well we -- right. We all can --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: I wasn't -- I don't
18 remember being easily influenced when I was young, so that's why
19 I was thinking to myself.

20 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: But in general, I
22 think so, yeah. They're not mature, they don't know --

23 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: -- the 25 consequences.

1 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, thank you, Juan. Thank you. Yeah.
2 Anybody else have anything to add?

3 We got to keep Luis awake. What do you think, Luis?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: I just want to say --

5 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, let's get you the microphone.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: I just want to say
7 ego -- just ego-driven is what I remember seeing a lot, you know,
8 from my younger days. Just a lot of just ego --

9 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Hot head, right?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: -- short-term
11 thinking.

12 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Selfish thinking and 14 lack of maturity but yeah, driven by ego.

15 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Yeah, I mean, is that kind of the gist
16 of it for everybody? Like kind of the gist of it. Okay.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Gutierrez-Sosa, thank you.

18 MR. HELMICK: Thank you.

19 All right. Thanks, Henry. Let me see what else we can
20 talk about here.

21 All right. Let's talk about something else here.

22 Okay. So -- I mean, you guys see right that there's two 23 people being charged here. Do you think that because they're both 24 sitting at the same table that they must be -- that you're going to 25 keep them tied together? That you're going to think that they

1 busted them together? Anybody think that because they're sitting
2 at the same table?

3 Luis, I see you shaking your head. Can we get Luis the 4 microphone, please?

5 Do you think that they're tied together in some way
6 because they're sitting at the same table?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: Everyone's
8 responsible for their own actions.

9 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Does anybody disagree with Luis?
10 Anybody disagree? Everybody agrees, right, they're responsible for 11 their actions, right?

12 Yeah, thank you, Luis.

13 But Luis, let me take it a step further. If there are bad
14 facts, even evil facts against one person in this case, are you going 15 to hold it against the other person just because they were friends?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: Well the facts will 17 speak for themselves.

18 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: You have to look at 20 the facts.

21 MR. HELMICK: Sure. Well I'm just saying --

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: It's like the answer
23 to the question earlier about the blueberry pie whatever, you know?

24 MR. HELMICK: Right.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: I mean, same thing

1 here. I got three kids of my own and just because one kid did one
2 thing, I can't blame the other. I can't treat them the same.

3 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: You know, it's
5 every -- like I said everyone's responsible for their own actions.

6 MR. HELMICK: What if I give you this hypothetical and 7 maybe this happened to some people in this room when they were
8 in school and if it did, I'll have you raise your hand. But have you
9 ever been in a situation where you were in school, so think back a 10 little bit, and you were taking a test, right, and you're done with the 11 test and the teacher finds out that one kid has cheated and they 12 make everybody take the test all over again. Do you think that 13 that's fair?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: No, it's not but I'm 15 pretty sure it happens to all of us in this room in different scenarios.
16 I mean, you know, you could just be at the wrong place at the 17 wrong time. You could be -- I mean, it's just part of life. You can't 18 really change those things. It just happens because it happens, 19 that's it.

20 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: You know? But as 22 far as like attaching things to, you know, actions from one person to 23 the other person, that's just not fair.

24 MR. HELMICK: So it's not fair.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 378: No, it's not.

1 MR. HELMICK: Right, right.
2 Okay. Anybody agree with Luis?
3 Yeah? I see a lot of heads shaking here.
4 Let's go over to -- thank you, Luis.
5 Let's go over to Gabriel, right?
6 Yeah, please, Gabriel. If you could ahead and just let us
7 know your badge number.
8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: 424.
9 MR. HELMICK: Okay. What'd you think about what Luis
10 was saying?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: I think I agree with 12 Luis what he was saying because, you know, you can't look at these 13 two and say, you know, that one of their actions, you know, you
14 could apply that to the other and say, you know, that because he 15 did this, you know, it's also his fault, you know, that he let that 16 happen or --
17 MR. HELMICK: Okay.
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: -- something like
19 that.
20 MR. HELMICK: So you would hold -- in this trial, you
21 would hold each one accountable for their own actions?
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yes.
23 MR. HELMICK: Is that the fair thing to do?
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yes.
25 MR. HELMICK: Sanjuana, I see you nodding your head.

1 Thank you, Gabriel. If you can give it Sanjuana.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 425: Yes because it's not
3 like one of them grabbed the other one's hand and did the same
4 action. One of them did it and one of them didn't, probably.

5 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 425: So.

7 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, thank you very much.

8 Okay. Leonard, go ahead.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: Hi. Badge Number
10 426. Can we not focus on these gentlemen over here? Let's go
11 back to the blueberry pie.

12 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: There were two 14 children involved but both of them knew that they were in the 15 young to even eat, even to cut into the pie, even though only one of 16 them did it, right?

17 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: I think the mother
19 has a responsibility to chasten both of them, maybe not equally but 20 they both need to be held accountable and responsible for the 21 action to -- I feel to society because the act was against society.

22 MR. HELMICK: Hmm. But what if only one -- one of -- you
23 said only one of --

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: I don't know those 25 facts.

1 MR. HELMICK: No, no. No, I'm asking about the pie.
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: Pie.
3 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: I'm not the mother.
5 I'm just saying --
6 MR. HELMICK: Okay.
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: -- if I were the 8 mother, I would hold both children accountable for my pie, which 9 was going to a judging contest, right --
10 MR. HELMICK: Okay.
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: -- they probably
12 wouldn't get TV for several weeks.
13 MR. HELMICK: Now if they -- if you knew which one ate
14 the pie though, would you still hold them accountable is what I'm 15 asking.
16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: Because the other
17 one knew that he wasn't supposed to, he should have talked to his 18 brother and say no, no, don't do that.
19 MR. HELMICK: I mean, I thank you for that opinion,
20 Leonard.
21 What do you think, anybody disagree with that? Please
22 tell us if you do.
23 Yeah, I mean, Jessica, I saw her foot -- Jessica. What do
24 you think? Do you agree with what he was saying?
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: I mean, I agree that

1 everyone's responsible for their actions, but I --

2 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: -- also heard the 4 saying guilty by association.

5 MR. HELMICK: Anybody else heard that saying? Do you
6 agree with that?

7 Sorry, go ahead, Jessica.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: No, that's it.

9 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, that -- okay. All right. So I mean, I
10 think that's kind of what Leonard was saying, right? I mean, isn't 11 that you were saying, the kids should have told the brother hey, put 12 that pie down man --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: Right.

14 MR. HELMICK: -- right? Or mom's going to get us, right?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: Right.

16 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay. Thank you very much.

17 Who else? Anybody disagree though with that guilt by 18 association? I saw -- Shayra, you were shaking your head and Ms.
19 Powell.

20 Yeah, let's go ahead and pass it down here.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: I disagree with guilt
22 by association because in the instance with the pie, it could be two 23 toddlers, one is older, one is younger. The younger one may not 24 even know what they're doing is wrong.

25 And this case is completely different because these two

1 are old enough to know right.

2 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Now you said a couple things there.
3 And I'll come back to Leonard in regard to one of them. But do you
4 feel that there's guilt by association simply based off of age? Is that 5 what you mean?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: No, because it's still 7 individual.

8 MR. HELMICK: So kind of what Luis was saying?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: Uh-huh.

10 MR. HELMICK: You would hold each person in this trial,
11 each person, accountable for the actions that they did.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: Yes.

13 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Anybody agree with the guilt by 14 association or anybody agree with Terry's -- I guess -- I mean,
15 everybody has their own opinion on this stuff. Leonard, you had a
16 little bit different of an opinion. She had mentioned something
17 about the toddlers. Is your position still the same if it was toddlers
18 and they didn't -- they weren't really able to think about it?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: These were twins --

20 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: -- and they were all
22 over ten years old so --

23 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: -- you can build all
25 kinds of stuff --

1 MR. HELMICK: Well it could go forever, right?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 518: Exactly.

3 MR. HELMICK: All right. So anybody disagree with Terry
4 at all?

5 All right. Thank you.

6 Well let me get a show of hands though. Can everybody
7 here promise, as many of you already have, to hold each person
8 accountable for their own actions?

9 Can I see your hands, please?

10 Okay, good. Thank you very much.

11 Let's tie that into something else here. Kind of what Luis
12 was saying earlier. When you walked into this courtroom and you
13 saw these individuals sitting over here and you heard what the 14 charges are, did you automatically think that because he's sitting in 15 this courtroom that he must have done something wrong or why
16 would he be here? Did anybody think that?

17 Please. Okay. May I see your hands if you thought that? I
18 got a couple hands up already. Yeah. Okay. So let's start with 19 Henry and then we'll come -- we'll work our way down. Let's get 20 Henry the microphone, please, Ms. Powell.

21 What do you think, Henry?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Well to the question
23 you asked earlier in regards to wrongful convictions or charges,
24 before DNA testing, I -- you know, I could give -- I could give more
25 of a pass as to why someone would find themselves in court. Now

1 I think with the progress of investigation and police work, I
2 wouldn't -- I don't see a case why someone would end up in court if 3 they were not -- you know, if they were not somehow associated 4 with the case they were being charged for.

5 It doesn't mean they're guilty but somehow associated 6 with it.

7 MR. HELMICK: Associated, okay. All right. So that -- so
8 you didn't have the opinion that hey, he must have done something
9 wrong was my question? Did you have that opinion that -- did you
10 feel that hey, they must have done something wrong? That's 11 different than being associated, right?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: My initial thought
13 was they must have something to do with this, simply put.

14 MR. HELMICK: Okay. And you heard Mr. Pesci talk about 15 the presumption of innocence and so forth?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

17 MR. HELMICK: Do you understand that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

19 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So you understand that it's a
20 beyond a reasonable doubt standard, right?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

22 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So you understand that -- well let 23 me ask you this. I'm standing right here in the middle of the 24 courtroom, here's the Prosecutor's table over here and you
25 understand that he starts at the presumption of innocence back

1 here, right? Do you understand that?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

3 MR. HELMICK: Okay. And are you saying then that based 4 off of your opinion when he walked into this courtroom, you felt
5 that he kind of already stood over here?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Closer to that edge,
7 yes.

8 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay.

9 But when we talked about the presumption of innocence,
10 do you feel that you can be fair -- as we have all discussed this
11 throughout today, do you feel that you could be fair though now
12 and listen to all the evidence and make a decision knowing that 13 they're presumed innocent?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Having reviewed all
15 the evidence and facts presented, absolutely, I'd feel like I'd be fair.
16 But that was my initial thought coming in, just simply saying why
17 would someone end up here if they had nothing to do with --

18 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: -- a particular
20 charge?

21 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. And you know what, I'm ashamed
22 to admit it because I have watched stuff on TV and I say to myself
23 oh God, those guys look guilty, right? And I say hold on, and you
24 take a step back, right? I think that's a human reaction, right?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Uh-huh.

1 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Thank you for sharing. Well, let me
2 ask you this. As you sit here now though, do you still feel that way?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: I feel that I can be
4 fair is what I can say. I feel I can review the evidence, the facts
5 presented, and form a fair -- a more fair opinion. You know, I --
6 there has to be reasons as to why they were charged --

7 MR. HELMICK: Uh-huh.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: -- and those are the 9 reasons I would carefully consider.

10 MR. HELMICK: Okay. But let me just clarify. Do you feel
11 that just because he's sitting here, he did something wrong? Is that 12 your personal opinion right now?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Not necessarily that 14 they did something wrong, but they had some association with the 15 case likely to be not good; likely to be wrong.

16 MR. HELMICK: Well do you feel the police ever get it
17 wrong? What's your feeling on that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes. I feel they 19 used to get it wrong a lot more back before the advancement of 20 DNA testing or -- you know, the advancement of police work and 21 evidence collection.

22 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: I saw this show on 24 Netflix, When They See Us, and that made me lose faith in, you
25 know, the justice system, quite a lot.

1 MR. HELMICK: I've never seen it.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: It was rough.

3 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: But I think times
5 have somewhat changed and science now is able to provide, you
6 know, concrete evidence and evidence that didn't exist. So it's not
7 impossible but it's tougher now to get a wrongful conviction.

8 MR. HELMICK: Okay. I hear you. I mean, you laid that 9 out pretty well. Thank you, Henry for that.

10 Gordon --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Uh-huh.

12 MR. HELMICK: -- because I saw you shaking your head.

13 Can we get it down to Gordon here, please?

14 Gordon, what do you think about what Henry was 15 saying?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Well I agree. You
17 know, they're here for a reason. So whatever that is, these two 18 were the ones that were actually -- you know, I guess you could say 19 the evidence proved that they -- we have enough evidence to go to 20 court. Something that probably happened.

21 MR. HELMICK: Something that probably happened.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Right.

23 MR. HELMICK: Did you feel that they -- I guess what
24 you're saying then, when you walked in here you felt they had done
25 something wrong in order to even be here. Is that what went

1 through your head?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Yes.

3 MR. HELMICK: Okay. When we talked about the
4 presumption of innocence just now, are you able to give them
5 that --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Yes.

7 MR. HELMICK: -- presumption of innocence, even though
8 you had said that earlier?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Yes.

10 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So I guess there's a bit of a conflict
11 in what you had said just a moment ago in a presumption of 12 innocence. Do you understand that that may look like a conflict?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: It does. You know, 14 it's just like --

15 UNKNOWN SPEAKER: Can you come over to the --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: -- prejudging is 17 what you're saying.

18 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: But they're here for 20 a reason. That's why you just said so looking at it, I think weighing 21 out the evidence and hearing how everything comes through, I
22 think yeah, I can sit there and make a very good judgment.

23 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Good. Yeah. I mean, it's hard for 24 us to sit here because we haven't seen a piece of evidence, heard
25 from one witness, nothing, right? We're just talking hypothetical

1 stuff, right? Yeah.

2 All right. Thank you, Gordon.

3 Anybody disagree with Gordon that hey, when I walked in 4 here, I mean, I didn't offer any opinion, I didn't think that they
5 were -- did anything wrong. Did anybody kind of -- was anybody
6 kind of just neutral?

7 Can I see your hands that you were just -- kind of just
8 neutral about this whole thing?

9 All right. Let's go over to Ronald and then we'll go to 10 Mindy. Let's go ahead and get it back here to Ronald.

11 Thank you, Gordon.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: Yeah, I just -- I don't 13 have any information on the case so I can't make any decisions on 14 it so -- and, you know, the way it's set up, you're innocent until 15 proven guilty.

16 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. So what are your thoughts on then
17 what Gordon was saying? I mean, do you saw -- I assume you
18 disagree with that position?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: Yeah, I do. I didn't 20 have any assumptions when I come in. It doesn't matter who was 21 sitting at any of the tables or anything. I mean, in my mind -- I
22 mean, I just come. I was just neutral.

23 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: So -- and that's how 25 I'm supposed to be and if I'm picked as a juror -- and then I would

1 see all the evidence and then, you know, talk with the other jurors
2 to make a conclusion.

3 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So let me just hone in on
4 something you said there. You would talk with the other jurors.
5 Would the other jurors -- can they influence you in any way or 6 would -- if you had made up your mind, would you be kind of stuck
7 in your shoes there?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: I wouldn't have my 9 mind made up -- if I did have my mind made up, I would still have 10 to validate what I was thinking by going through the evidence with 11 the other jurors --

12 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: -- in case I missed
14 something. So I would still be open, you know, to other people's 15 opinions.

16 MR. HELMICK: Sure. Right. Maybe they saw something
17 differently, right?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: Yeah.

19 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay. All right. Thank you very 20 much, Ronald.

21 And we had -- Mindy, let me come over to you and then
22 Nick, I'll get you in a second. Thank you very much.

23 What was your badge number again?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: Hmm?

25 MR. HELMICK: Badge number real quick.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 504: 504.

2 MR. HELMICK: 504, okay.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 429: Badge 429. And I'm 4 pretty much the same. I came in here not even knowing who was
5 who on the panel. It's not my place to judge and that's pretty much
6 how I try to live it. And obviously we're here to listen to the 7 statements, to listen to the evidence, and from there make a
8 decision, but I definitely came in here as a blank slate.

9 MR. HELMICK: Blank slate, okay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 429: Okay.

11 MR. HELMICK: Now we did have a couple people raise
12 their hand when I had asked who here thought they did something 13 wrong. It was Gordon, I think, Jessica raised their hand. Who 14 elements raised their hand? Who was it because I want to talk to 15 those people?

16 Let's get over to Jessica and then I'll come back over to 17 you. I'll try to get everybody. I'm sorry. I got about an inch 18 [indiscernible].

19 Okay. What do you think?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: So walking into the 21 courtroom, I do have an idea that someone did something wrong.
22 And then after hearing the short story of what actually happened, it
23 kind of jogged my memory of the article I read --

24 MR. HELMICK: Oh, that's right.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: -- a year ago.

1 MR. HELMICK: And we don't have to get into the facts of
2 that.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: So it kind of just --

4 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: -- made me feel like
6 something happened.

7 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Yeah, so maybe a little bit different
8 for your scenario, which I -- we'll talk about later. But thank you for 9 sharing that.

10 Okay. Let's get it over to Nick because I almost forgot
11 about him.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: Hi. Yes, thank you.
13 Perhaps you can clear it up. I'm hearing this discussion, I'm really 14 like in my head just almost going crazy because I don't understand,
15 if you're -- if somebody's innocent, as you're saying, you know, not 16 guilt by association, then why weren't they listed on the witnesses
17 that the assistant DA gave? Wouldn't they have every incentive
18 to -- the prisoner's dilemma to turn State evidence.

19 And so going by guilt by association, they're really 20 together. Like either one's innocent or the other one's innocent or 21 one's guilty, the other one's guilty. So I don't know if I could find --
22 I think that's -- tell me if I'm wrong, the question you're asking --

23 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: -- one guilty and 25 one innocent. I really think that they're just -- they're connected in

1 that sense. So whatever you make -- determination on one of them,
2 the other one would be in the same boat so to speak.

3 MR. HELMICK: Okay. That's an interesting perspective.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: Because I think
5 that -- I remember Sociology 101, you know, if you're going to --
6 you know, I don't see how you could say that you're completely
7 innocent but at the same time give every piece of information that 8 you possibly know -- you know, I'm not -- I don't know if that's 9 going to be --

10 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: -- the case or not in 12 the trial but again, you would -- whatever we find you to be
13 innocent, the other person would be innocent. We find you guilty --
14 that -- I don't know that I could find a separate verdict so to speak.

15 MR. HELMICK: Well I mean, I think that some people had 16 said that maybe they had different roles and so forth. What are 17 your thoughts on that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: I haven't really
19 formed an opinion on that, so to speak.

20 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: I don't know the 22 facts of the case again, so.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: Maybe that'll
25 change but just like from the initial tidbits of information you're

1 giving, it really -- it would be hard for me right now --

2 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: It may be a bias, I --
4 we're supposed to tell that I suppose to you. I don't know that if I
5 find one guilty, I could find the other one innocent. Or if I find one
6 innocent that I -- I think it's going to be the same.

7 MR. HELMICK: That might be difficult for you is what
8 you're saying.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: It may be 10 impossible for me.

11 MR. HELMICK: Impossible for you.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: Potentially. If 13 there's not something that resolves that dilemma that I just laid out 14 for you.

15 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Now if -- you said a good word
16 there resolve. Now if you hear facts and evidence and so forth, are 17 you going to be open to listen to things that could resolve it or 18 could not resolve that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: Certainly.

20 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. And then you'll be able to make a
21 fair decision.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: Like I said, from the 23 initial facts, that's the first assumption I'm getting is if you're 24 completely innocent, why haven't you given -- you know, what is it
25 the speaking to the queen or whatever they call it; where you come

1 in and you tell everyone everything. Why hasn't that happened?

2 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: That's --

4 MR. HELMICK: I got ya. All right. Thank you very much,
5 Nick.

6 Marklester. Let's get it over to Marklester.

7 Pedronan, right? Is that how you say your last name?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Yes.

9 MR. HELMICK: What do you think?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Yeah. I mean, I feel
11 like murder is a very serious charge and that there's different
12 checks and balances for the police and the prosecutors have looked 13 at enough evidence at least charge the people here. So I just feel 14 like I have that bias that yeah, if you're here, you have some 15 evidence against them. That's all.

16 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Do you feel that they're guilty
17 based on them being here or they must have done something
18 wrong?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: They must have 20 done something wrong.

21 MR. HELMICK: Okay. But not guilty.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Not guilty.

23 MR. HELMICK: Okay. You want to hear everything, right?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Yes, sir.

25 MR. HELMICK: Can you give them the presumption of

1 innocence that we talked about? Are you able to do that?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Somewhat, but with
3 a heavy bias that they're here for a reason.

4 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So you said somewhat in regard to 5 the presumption of innocence. What do you mean by that?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Well I could see -- I
7 could look at evidence and if you could sway me, yes for sure.

8 MR. HELMICK: So you just kind of need to see everything
9 is what you're saying?

11 MR. HELMICK: [Indiscernible].

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: But like I said,
13 they're here for a reason.

14 MR. HELMICK: They're here for a reason. Okay. Thank
15 you very much, Markletter.

16 All right. Court's indulgence.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. HELMICK: Now I want to talk about this big topic that 19 Mr. Yampolsky talked about. And I think that Henry had said
20 something about Defendant's right to testify. We talked about that.
21 That's always a big one. And since you got the microphone,
22 Markletter, I'll talk to you about it first.

23 Let's see what I wrote down here.

24 Okay. All right. So I mean, let's go back for a second
25 there. Who here wants to hear -- my client's Mr. Harlan. Who here

1 wants to hear him testify?

2 Henry, yeah. Mr. Meng. Okay. Go ahead. Let's get them
3 the microphone, Markletter.

4 All right. Go ahead. Henry first and then we'll go over to 5 Mr. Meng.

6 You want to, right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes, I want to.

8 MR. HELMICK: Do you need to in order for you to be fair
9 in this case?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Not necessarily. It
11 doesn't outweigh the evidence.

12 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So you can still be fair, even if that 13 doesn't happen?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes, I would think 15 you can tell a lot about a person, maybe a person's motives or who 16 they are just from hearing them speak -- just from hearing them
17 say -- whether they're genuine or not if they feel that they are 18 innocent. So I would prefer to hear an innocent testify and say so
19 in their own words.

20 MR. HELMICK: Okay. You would prefer it.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

22 MR. HELMICK: But I guess what I'm trying to pin you
23 down is, do you absolutely need to be -- to keep an open mind, to 24 be fair in this case?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: No, the evidence

1 outweighs everything.

2 MR. HELMICK: Okay. All right. Mr. Meng.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: Actually I really
4 agree with exactly what he said.

5 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: I would like to hear
7 him but if the evidence was, you know, such then that would be 8 what it would be.

9 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So you don't -- it's not a need for 10 you. I got to do it, or I can't even be fair to the State --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: No, just kind of -- it
12 would just be a deal about why didn't he get up there and, you
13 know, say hey, I didn't do that. I didn't do it. That's all.

14 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Yeah, yeah. That's fair.

15 Anybody else? Anybody else feel the same way Mr. Meng
16 and Henry does?

17 Okay. While I got you -- while you got the mic there. I
18 mean, what are some of the risks of testifying? What are some of 19 the risks that you can see?

20 Leonard -- let's get you over to Leonard. Thank you, Mr.
21 Meng.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: Leonard, Badge
23 Number 426.

24 First of all, at the beginning of this in the Judge's
25 instructions, the necessity to testify or to do anything on behalf of

1 the Defense is not required because of the presumption of
2 innocence.

3 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: The risk involved is
5 that some people maybe don't present very well --

6 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: -- and we had a case
8 of that with Robert Mueller.

9 MR. HELMICK: Was that just on the TV a few days ago?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: Yeah.

11 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, okay.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: So talk -- you can
13 shoot yourself in the foot, literally.

14 MR. HELMICK: So maybe just -- I guess how would you
15 word that then? They don't present themselves well?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 426: They don't present
17 their case well.

18 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Presentation.

19 What's another risk?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: [Inaudible].

21 MR. HELMICK: Sorry, Juan, we got to get you the
22 microphone.

23 Thank you, Leonard.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: 432, that's my juror
25 badge number.

1 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Yeah.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: You might
3 contradict yourself with something you said on the -- you know,
4 when you were being investigated or something.

5 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, you might contradict yourself, right?
6 Be caught in a lie, right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Yep.

8 MR. HELMICK: Okay. What about being questioned by 9 the Prosecution? Is that another one?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 432: Yeah, that's a big 11 one.

12 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Go ahead and give it over to Ms.
13 Huston there. Thank you, Juan.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: I'm 506.

15 MR. HELMICK: 3-0 -- yeah, go ahead.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: 506.

17 MR. HELMICK: 506, okay.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: I -- I mean, if I can 19 put myself in their shoes, I would just be scared out of my mind. I'd 20 be nervous.

21 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So nervous, right? Maybe people
22 don't speak well in front of other people, right?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Yeah. And I
24 wouldn't want to be questioned by somebody that wasn't on my 25 side, I guess. They could twist things around. Whatever I'm trying

1 to say or whatever.

2 MR. HELMICK: Could be twisted up, huh? That's a good
3 one.

4 All right. Well let's do the inverse though, right, because
5 there's two sides to this. I mean, what are the risks of not
6 testifying?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: You don't get to tell
8 your side of the story and you don't get to see -- somebody else
9 was saying like your intent or your motives or your personality
10 and --

11 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. I mean, Henry was --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: -- how it happened.

13 MR. HELMICK: -- saying that, Donald was saying that,
14 right? They want them to get up there and say, you know, what the 15 heck happened, right? Okay. So what's a word that we can choose 16 for that?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Accountability

18 MR. HELMICK: Risk of not testifying. Who said that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Me.

20 MR. HELMICK: Shayra?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: Uh-huh.

22 MR. HELMICK: What's your badge number?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 452: 452.

24 MR. HELMICK: 452.

25 THE COURT: Shayra.

1 MR. HELMICK: Shayra. Shayra. Okay. Accountability.
2 Okay. And what did you say again, Ms. Huston, I'm -- I
3 couldn't remember.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: The risk of not
5 testifying?

6 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: That they don't 8 have the chance to tell their side of the story; that leaves some 9 doubt as to why they didn't testify.

10 MR. HELMICK: Tell --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: What their motives
12 were.

13 MR. HELMICK: -- their story, okay?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: What do they have 15 to hide by --

16 MR. HELMICK: Oh, that's a good one, right?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: -- not telling it.

18 MR. HELMICK: If they're innocent then why the heck --
19 why won't they get up here, right? You know?

20 Okay. So I mean we talked about two different sides of 21 this. Can anybody here see the dilemma that there's two sides to 22 this. Is there a dilemma?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Yes, there's always 24 two sides.

25 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Fred, I see you nodding your head.

1 Let's get over to Fred.

2 Ms. Huston, thank you.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Well when there's 4 two people involved such as this then it's pretty classic behavior for 5 one to quote, unquote plea bargain. So there's always that.
6 There's that influence.

7 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Thank you very much for sharing
8 that.

9 Anybody else? Anybody see the dilemma in the risk of 10 testifying, the risk of not testifying?

11 Let me ask you this, Brett, I mean, do you think that that's 12 why the founding fathers came up with that rule because they saw 13 the dilemma?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Possibly.

15 MR. HELMICK: Would it be fair for me to advise my 16 client -- are you okay with me advising my client as to what I think
17 he should do --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Of course.

19 MR. HELMICK: -- ultimately for him making this decision?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Yeah, you're his 21 attorneys. Yeah, of course. And then again, there's so much
22 nuance that we don't know about yet. You know, there might be a
23 viable reason why not. But of course, like a lot of people have said
24 here, the decision not to testify does, you know, on the face look
25 pretty badly.

1 MR. HELMICK: Okay. And nobody talked about -- you
2 said the decision not to testify, right? But nobody talked about the
3 reasons --

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Yeah.

5 MR. HELMICK: -- for testifying, right?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Yeah. Again, I --

7 MR. HELMICK: But for you --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: I can -- I'm trying 9 not be emotionally biased --

10 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: -- either way.

12 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: You know, I want to 14 just base it on the facts an evidence and I don't have any of that yet.

15 MR. HELMICK: Of course. Right. And that's -- I mean,
16 that's all we're talking about right now anyways.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 398: Yeah.

18 MR. HELMICK: Would it be fair -- I mean, I asked Brett
19 about that. Can everybody agree with that that it would be fair to 20 allow myself to advise my client with his permission as to what I
21 think he should do? Is that fair?

22 Anybody think that's not fair?

23 Okay. Thank you.

24 Okay. So let's talk about something else here for a
25 minute. Big decisions. Big decisions in life, right? What are some

1 things that we do -- people do in their lives before making big
2 decisions? Moving, getting a new job, having a kid, right? what are
3 some things that people do? Everybody does something
4 differently. I write it plus and minus. You know, what's the pluses,
5 what's the minuses. That's what I do.

6 Does anybody do something like that when they're trying
7 to make big decisions in their life? Can I see your hands, please?

8 All right. Who have I not talked to? Go ahead and hold
9 those up for me for a second, please?

10 All right. Let's go over to Markletter [sic] and then we'll 11 come down to Ms. Leon.

12 Brett, right here. Thank you.

13 What are some things you do?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: I do a pros and cons
15 sheet.

16 MR. HELMICK: Pros and cons, right? Yeah.

17 Okay. Yeah? What else? Anybody else?

18 Markletter, thank you.

19 Who else raised their hand? I saw some -- yeah, that's 20 right, Ms. Leon.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 512: Well so for personal
22 decisions for pros and cons obviously you outweigh the risk versus 23 the benefit. But when I have to make big decisions as it relates to 24 the workplace, it comes into doing your research on what's going
25 on, what's the evidence that you have, what are your options,

1 what's the best fit for all parties involved. There's quite a few
2 things that go into it. It's an investigation in itself.

3 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Yeah, that's a lot of good stuff.
4 Thank you for sharing that. Right.

5 Steven, we haven't talked to you yet. What do you think?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 514: All of those things
7 are fantastic that you said and also consult with your spouse.

8 MR. HELMICK: Oh that's a good one, right?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 512: Oh. No.

10 UNKNOWN SPEAKER: [Indiscernible] now.

11 MR. HELMICK: We're going to tell him that, right? You
12 know that.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 512: He knows.

14 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So we got spouse, we got notes.
15 What else?

16 Anybody over here? I'm sorry you guys. Anything to add
17 over here?

18 Yeah, yeah. Ms. Huston. Let's give Ms. Huston --

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: I'm 506.

20 MR. HELMICK: Here you go.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: The biggest thing I
22 do when I'm making a big decision is, I pray.

23 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. A lot of people do that too, right?
24 Of course.

25 Well I mean, you heard the charges in this case, right? I

1 mean, can anybody here agree that they will do -- that they will take
2 the time in making a decision in this case? Anybody agree that they
3 will do that with a case like of this magnitude? Could I see your 4 hands if you agree that you're going to do that?

5 Thank you very much.

6 And Ms. Leon had talked about note -- research. Now you
7 can't do research, you heard the Judge say that, right? But you can
8 take notes. Can any -- can everybody agree that they'll do their best 9 to take good notes in this case as to what they hear from the 10 witnesses? And we rely upon you to do that. Can you raise your 11 hand, please, if you're going to do that?

12 Gabriel, come on.

13 Here we go. All right. Okay. Thank you.

14 Okay. So today's July 29th. Halloween is October 31st. I
15 want to give you a hypothetical, especially for the parents. I want
16 you to pretend that you heard on the news that there are a handful
17 of Snickers bars in the valley that contain poison, right? And you
18 are -- you send your kids out the door to go trick-or-treating, they 19 come home, they take out the Snickers -- they take the candy, they 20 dump it on the floor and you see just a few Snickers bars. Maybe
21 one out of ten on the News said that there's some poison in it.

22 I want to see your hands if you're going to let your kid
23 have one of the Snickers bars.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 551: If you don't like
25 your kid.

1 MR. HELMICK: Okay. And why is that? I mean, what is
2 the reason for that?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: You're not going to 4 take the chance.

5 MR. HELMICK: Take the chance, okay.

6 What else?

7 And who was that, I'm sorry, Ms. Huston?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Yeah, 506.

9 MR. HELMICK: Sorry, we just have to --

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: I still have the 11 microphone.

12 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: Yeah, 506.

14 MR. HELMICK: Good. 506, all right.

15 What else? And nobody --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 506: You love your kids.

17 MR. HELMICK: -- raised their hand. Thank God, right?

18 I'll talk to you, Roxanne. Let's get the microphone up
19 here.

20 Why? What's another reason? She's not going to let 21 them take the chance. We had Gordon say protection. What do
22 you think?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 466: I'd only not take the 24 chance, but they have more candy, so let them eat the other.

25 MR. HELMICK: You let them eat the other candy, right?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 466: Yeah.

2 MR. HELMICK: Okay. I mean, what's another word here?
3 because they have a what? A doubt as to the what, safety, of the 4 Snickers bars, right? Everybody understand that?

5 Okay. Would you consider that doubt to be reasonable?

6 THE COURT: Ah, we're not going to go there.

7 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

8 THE COURT: There is a very specific definition of 9 reasonable doubt that you'll get at the conclusion of the case. So
10 we don't discuss that or quantify it in any fashion.

11 MR. HELMICK: I wasn't trying to go further on that.

12 THE COURT: I know.

13 MR. HELMICK: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I always jump in anyway. It's not a you
15 thing. Don't worry.

16 MR. HELMICK: All right.

17 Okay. Let's see what else we have here, hold on.

18 All right. So anybody here, let me see your hands, please,
19 ever been blamed for something and think back when you were 20 kids if you had siblings or anything like that -- blamed for 21 something they didn't do?

22 Okay. All right. Let's go to Sydney here and then we'll go
23 over to some other people.

24 Can you give us an example of that, Sydney? What's your 25 badge number please?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: 418.

2 MR. HELMICK: 418.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: I have four younger
4 siblings, so I was always blamed when I was a kid -- or when we
5 were kids, I was always blamed. Like who snuck out at night? Who 6 left the doors unlocked? Just something just stupid. It was always 7 my fault.

8 MR. HELMICK: And how did that make you feel?

9 THE COURT: Well --

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Well --

11 THE COURT: -- were you sneaking out at night?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: No, my brother was 13 and I got blamed for it.

14 MR. HELMICK: You got blamed for it, okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Yeah, actually. But 16 my parents didn't trust me, they trusted the younger kids which 17 sucked.

18 MR. HELMICK: So it bothered you, right?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Yeah.

20 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay, good. That's a very good
21 example. Thank you for sharing that, Sydney.

22 Gilbert [sic], I saw you raise your hand too. Let's get you
23 the microphone.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yeah, I think my 25 friends and I were arguing about something that -- about like an

1 argument, debate that was happening between us and they'd think
2 that like in that particular case -- I forgot what it was about really
3 but they think I was the one who did it but like clearly I was just --
4 you know, just trying to be in a debate with them.

5 MR. HELMICK: Uh-huh.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: But for some reason
7 they all pointed towards me being like the culprit of this thing that I
8 know I didn't do, and nobody would listen to me and it -- that kind
9 of feeling just sucked overall.

10 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So it made you -- it sucked.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yeah.

12 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. And Sydney said she -- what was 13 the word that you used, I'm sorry? How did that make you feel?
14 Sydney? Bad?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Yeah, bad.

16 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Sucked, it was bad.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yeah.

18 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Thank you for sharing.

19 Anybody else, right? I mean, I think -- Henry, did you
20 raise your hand on that one too?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes. But I'd rather 22 not comment on that.

23 MR. HELMICK: That's all right. That's okay.

24 Okay. Let me ask you this then. Hold on. This is kind of 25 going back to what I guess Mr. Yampolsky was talking about with

1 Sarah in regards to the cookies. So you have two people that say
2 that they felt bad, that they felt it sucked being blamed for 3 something they didn't do. I mean, what are some things that -- let
4 me ask you this, Gilbert, what are some things that those people
5 should have done who were accusing you of this?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: They should have
7 listened to my side of the story because they just write it off.

8 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. So I mean, listen to both sides of 9 the story, right?

10 Okay. What else? What else, Sydney.

11 Thank you, Gilbert.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: My siblings could 13 have owned up to their own actions.

14 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Does that make 16 sense?

17 MR. HELMICK: So the other people that did it should have 18 owned up to their own actions?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Yeah.

20 MR. HELMICK: That kind of goes back to what we were 21 saying in regard to taking responsibility, right?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Uh-huh.

23 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay. Sarah, I forgot what you --
24 thank you, Sydney.

25 What did you say in regard to the cookies? I mean, you

1 had -- one of the kids was being blamed for something, right? And
2 what did you do to solve the dilemma?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: I knew who liked the 4 blueberries. The pie.

5 MR. HELMICK: I would have done cookies, that's why. I
6 don't know why. Okay, so what would you do -- you had it easy
7 then, I guess.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: Yeah.

9 MR. HELMICK: Can you think of anything else? You
10 raised your hand when I asked that question --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: Yes.

12 MR. HELMICK: -- have you ever been blamed for 13 something.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: I have.

15 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Tell us about that.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: Sixth grade, there
17 was -- it was guilt by association. I was friends with a bunch of girls
18 that were stealing candy bars.

19 MR. HELMICK: Uh-huh.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: So I got blamed for 21 one of the school fundraisers. I was not stealing candy bars.

22 MR. HELMICK: But how did that make you feel?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: Angry.

24 MR. HELMICK: Angry. So there's another adjective, right?
25 Angry, okay.

1 What should those people have done?
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: They should have
3 told the truth.
4 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay. So kind of like take
5 responsibility --
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 381: Correct.
7 MR. HELMICK: -- right?
8 Okay. Thank you very much, Sarah.
9 Okay. I got one more topic and then I just want to talk to 10 just a few jurors that I made some notes on earlier. This is a very 11 important topic though.
12 Okay. Redwoods. Anybody know what a Redwood tree
13 is? Everybody know what that is, right? A sequoia, right, versus 14 palm trees? Okay.
15 You know, there's some people on this jury that have 16 served on juries before, right? Who was that, again, can you raise
17 your hand? Henry, I think you did, right? Okay.
18 Let me talk to you just for a second, Henry. And you
19 went -- you were in that deliberation room, right? Okay.
21 MR. HELMICK: Yes.
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.
23 MR. HELMICK: Okay. And you said that you had some 24 reservations about what happened in that case, right?
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

1 MR. HELMICK: Now you understand that based off of
2 what we have talked about here today that everybody has their own
3 opinion, right?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

5 MR. HELMICK: And sometimes I think that -- somebody
6 over here said that they may feel that they could be swayed but 7 they'll still have their own opinion, right?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Correct.

9 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So what's -- I mean, what's one of 10 the reasons that that may happen and a jury of 12 -- or eight people
11 in your case. What are some of the reasons that people might be 12 swayed or convinced otherwise of their opinion?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Sometimes you can
14 misinterpret facts as they're presented to you. You can come up
15 with your own story as to what happened, rather than sticking to 16 the facts. So go off on a tangent based on your imagination.

17 MR. HELMICK: Uh-huh. Yeah. And when you're in a 18 room with other people, maybe there's peer pressure? Is that 19 possible, you think?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yeah, that's 21 possible. Also --

22 MR. HELMICK: That happen --

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: -- being in a room
24 with those other people for a very long time --

25 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: -- it will start to
2 wear you down as well.

3 MR. HELMICK: Okay. And can you imagine that that can 4 happen in a scenario like that?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Yes.

6 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay. So you have had a firsthand
7 experience with that then.

8 Is anybody here -- I mean, does anybody here, please
9 honest with yourselves, especially for a case like this. Does
10 anybody here feel if they are back there in that deliberation room --
11 [beeping]. Am I out of time, Gordon?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: [Indiscernible].

13 MR. HELMICK: All right. Just making sure.

14 Does anybody here feel if they're back there in that 15 deliberation room that they have the personality that you know
16 what, enough people are saying this and I'm just going to go with 17 the crowd. I'm just going to be a palm tree. If enough wind blows
18 on me, then I'm going to sway with the others. Does anybody here
19 feel that you know what, I'm a palm tree? And it's okay if you are.
20 Anybody feel that way? Let me see your hands if you do. If enough
21 wind is blown on you that you may sway.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Can I comment on
23 that?

24 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, go ahead.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: When people

1 present an argument, they don't do it without basis. People can
2 present a very logical argument, very logical way of interpreting
3 their facts and seeing things that maybe you didn't consider. And if 4 you're a nonbiased person, if you're attempting to judge a case
5 fairly, then you're considering their points of views as well. And if 6 they're logical enough and they go along with the evidence and it's 7 something that you haven't considered before, that can sway a
8 person's opinion. That can change your opinion.

9 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Do you feel that if -- that that could 10 happen to you?

12 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: Sometimes. I'll tell
14 you something happens in my life candidly.

15 MR. HELMICK: Uh-huh.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: My girlfriend and I
17 are arguing about something we see on TV, you know, a topic
18 relating to politics or culture, and she brings up points that I may 19 not have considered before and vice versa. So we change each
20 other's opinions all the time --

21 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So --

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 505: -- and we grow each
23 other's perspectives. We expand them.

24 MR. HELMICK: So you have an open mind is what you're 25 saying basically, right?

2 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Okay, good.

3 Anybody disagree with Henrry? Or feel the same as
4 Henrry? Let me get -- okay, let's go over to Nick.

5 Henrry, if you could just pass it down there.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 474: Yeah, in terms of 7 the palm tree argument, I just -- I was -- when you said that I just
8 thought about the Challenger disaster where everyone knew the O-
9 rings were faulty in that weather. And all those PhDs from NASA,
10 50 of them, when there wasn't the stakes of someone on a murder
11 trial and you're -- you know, your ethical bounds, et cetera, they all 12 went for it, even though most of them knew that it was wrong.

13 And so if those people succumb to that kind of pressure, I
14 don't know if there's anyone here who legitimately can say I'm a
15 Redwood, 100 percent of the time. So for me, being truthful, I
16 probably have a bias that I don't even know about, you know, kind
17 of hidden with regards to whether or not I can be swayed. And so
18 that's where I come down on this.

19 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, thanks for sharing that.

20 Well we got two different perspectives here. Does
21 anybody understand the point that Nick was trying to make; that 22 that could happen? Does anybody feel that you know what -- and 23 you made a good point, maybe that could happen to me?
24 Anybody?

25 Anybody feel that if they are in the minority and the wind

1 is blowing very hard and the rest are in the majority, do you feel
2 that you're just -- you're going to stick -- you're going to stand
3 strong. That you are a Redwood, that you're not going to be
4 swayed by the winds. Anybody feel that way?

5 All right. Thank you, Nick.

6 I mean, what is the most important -- what is the most 7 important function of the jury that you think I'm trying to point out
8 here? What's the most important pieces of this whole thing? What 9 do you think?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Individuality.

11 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, there it is.

12 Gordon said -- can we give Gordon the microphone?

13 We just got to get that recorded, Gordon.

14 What did you say again?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Individuality.

16 MR. HELMICK: Right. So unique personal power, right?

17 Gilbert -- I think that Gilbert is -- and correct me if I'm 18 wrong, I mean, there's some younger people on this jury, right? So
19 Gordon, you're saying that no matter what age you are, what 20 occupation you have, what your color of your skin is, everybody is 21 as powerful as the person next to them, is that -- that's the beauty
22 of it all?

24 MR. HELMICK: Right.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 460: Yeah.

1 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Well let's see a show of hands then.
2 I mean, who here feels that they can be a Redwood in this case, no
3 matter how hard the winds may blow in the back of that jury room?
4 Let me see your hands if you feel that you can be a Redwood.

5 Uh-oh, we don't have all the hands up. Sydney, what do
6 you think?

7 Let's give Sydney the microphone. Thank you, Gordon.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: I feel like I would 9 be -- I would lean towards more of a palm tree just because I don't
10 want to have a different opinion than everybody else. I don't want
11 to stand out from everybody else. I want to kind of blend in, if that 12 makes sense.

13 MR. HELMICK: Sure. No, I appreciate you sharing that.
14 That's what I'm looking for. And there's nothing wrong with that, 15 right? There's wrong with being a palm tree or a redwood. This is 16 just a figure of speech that I'm talking about --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 418: Yeah.

18 MR. HELMICK: -- right?

19 Okay. Thank you very much.

20 Sylvia?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: So with being like a
22 palm tree, it's not more like oh, I want to go with the crowd.

23 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: It's kind of like if 25 you can sway me with the evidence --

1 MR. HELMICK: Oh, okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: -- then I would
3 possibly become a palm tree, but I'm going to be a redwood when 4 it comes to being fair.

5 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, so that's -- I mean, that's a good
6 analogy but what I'm going for is swayed with the crowd --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Yeah.

8 MR. HELMICK: -- right? So you would be a redwood --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 463: Yeah.

10 MR. HELMICK: -- in that scenario.

11 Okay. All right. So there were some people that didn't 12 raise their hand though.

13 Gilbert, did you raise your hand?

14 Okay. Let's give it to Gilbert. Thank you, Sylvia.

15 What do you think, are you kind of like in Sydney's shoes?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: I'm more of being
17 palm tree out of the fact that it's -- I think it's best to keep an open
18 mind and say yeah, you could be a redwood in the sense that you
19 could have your opinion of staying strong but in the -- but you
20 could also be like a palm tree in the fact that you can consider what 21 other people think about the same thing because what someone
22 else said before, you know, points could be, you know, there are 23 points that could be brought up about the --

24 MR. HELMICK: Henry.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yeah, Henry.

1 About the case that you haven't considered before and maybe you
2 might put those points that you haven't considered for into your 3 own conclusion about what had happened in considering all the 4 facts that -- you know, that can be interpreted.

5 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So in regards to what Sylvia was 6 saying, do you agree with her that you're not going to be swayed
7 by the crowd, but you're going to be open-minded to what's 8 presented in this case.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yes.

10 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. That's different, right?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 424: Yeah.

12 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Okay.

13 Who else didn't raise their -- Jessica, did you raise your 14 hand?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: No, I did not.

16 MR. HELMICK: She did not. That's what I thought.

17 All right. Go ahead, Gilbert, if you could get to Jessica.
18 Thank you very much.

19 What do you think?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: I mean, I get the 21 concept that redwoods are sturdy and strong, but the base of the 22 palm trees are as well. It's more along the top of the palm tree that 23 makes it sway back and forth. So regardless, you're still a strong 24 tree.

25 MR. HELMICK: Okay.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: So I still think I'm a
2 palm tree; I still lean towards things, depending on the
3 circumstances. Like based on the evidence, I might be swaying one
4 way or the other.

5 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: And I might be
7 leaning towards the crowd.

8 MR. HELMICK: So it's possible for both?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: Yeah.

10 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Anybody else? Who else did I
11 miss? Anybody over here?

12 Okay. I just want to follow up with a few jurors here and 13 then I'll be done. I know everybody wants to get out of here.

14 All right. Let's go ahead and pass the microphone to 15 Markletter, please.

16 Thank you, Jessica.

17 All right. So you had mentioned earlier that you feel that 18 you would be a little biased towards the police. You would tend to 19 believe the police more kind of like gentleman over here, Mister --
20 what's your last name, sir, Sultan?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 523: Sulstrom.

22 MR. HELMICK: Sulstrom

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 523: 523.

24 MR. HELMICK: Thank you.

25 Yeah, I mean -- so tell me about that. Why?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Yes, because I have
2 friends and family who are in a -- the police and I know they have 3 good character and also it's their job and their civil duty to do the 4 right thing. And murder is not a small charge, it's some -- it's a very
5 serious charge and I think most or all police officer will take that 6 murder charge very seriously and not just throw a charge out there
7 or make things up.

8 MR. HELMICK: So are you saying -- are you saying -- and 9 maybe I'm taking this the wrong way but are you saying that every 10 murder charge that comes about is legit?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: I feel like there is 12 evidence to it, yes.

13 MR. HELMICK: Okay. And you feel that -- do you feel that 14 the cops are immune to making mistakes?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: No, obviously not.
16 They are human.

17 MR. HELMICK: Okay. That's all I'm asking.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: And my name is 19 Marklester, by the way.

20 MR. HELMICK: Marklester.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Yeah.

22 MR. HELMICK: I've been saying wrong, huh?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Yep.

24 MR. HELMICK: I apologize. Thank you.

25 Who else -- I mean, who disagrees with Marklester?

1 Nobody disagrees with Marklester?

2 Okay. Yeah, Ms. Leon. Thank you.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 512: I think what we are 4 raised to believe is that those in law enforcement and our
5 firefighters and our first responders that they are above reproach
6 and that's mainly because they're held to higher standard. But we 7 also have you're innocent until proven guilty, that's part of it.

8 So yes, we give our respect to our law enforcement
9 officers, but we also have to be realistic and understanding that not 10 everyone behind the badge is of sound mind and not everyone
11 who's behind the badge has the best intentions in their heart. I
12 mean, we have to be honest in saying that sometimes there are 13 people that will lie, no matter what profession they're in.

14 So I think we have to take that into account and not, you
15 know, have that confirmation bias that simply because that's what 16 you are then everything you say is golden. We have to be open-
17 minded in the evaluation of that.

18 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, confirmation bias, I've heard about 19 that lately. I mean, right, any profession, does anybody -- does
20 everybody agree that any profession that there are good lawyers, 21 bad lawyers; good doctors, bad doctors, right? I mean, they're 22 human beings, right?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 512: Yes.

24 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Leon.

25 So, I mean, let's pass it back to Mr. Marklester, because I

1 just want to ask you, based off of what you said, sir, do you feel that 2 you're going to give more weight to the Prosecution because of
3 that?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 507: Yes.

5 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Thank you very much.

6 Let's go ahead and give it over to Mr. Donald Meng,
7 please.

8 Now, you had talked about some scenarios in your life
9 that sounded absolutely horrifying and I understand your position
10 on guns and all that -- and all those things. So you had said that 11 this is going to affect your ability to fair. Do you still feel that --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: I said it could.

13 MR. HELMICK: Could. Could affect your ability to be fair?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: It could, yeah.

15 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: That's honest --
17 yeah.

18 MR. HELMICK: No, I mean, that's what we're looking for,
19 right? Yeah.

20 Are you going to start off looking at this scenario on the 21 Prosecution's side or are you going to be kind of neutral?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: You're going to 23 have to repeat that.

24 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. I mean, are you going to start off
25 looking at the Defendants in this case negatively? Are you going to

1 think that they are -- they must have done something wrong or are
2 you going to believe the Prosecution --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: I don't think I'd be
4 sitting if they -- something -- somebody did something wrong.

5 MR. HELMICK: Sure.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: I don't think they'd
7 be sitting at the Defendant table --

8 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: -- if something,
10 yeah.

11 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So I mean, can you be fair though
12 in regards to --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: Yeah, absolutely.
14 I'm a very fair person.

15 MR. HELMICK: Even based off of your -- are your personal
16 experiences with criminals going to affect your ability to judge this 17 case?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 390: I don't believe so.

19 MR. HELMICK: You don't believe so. All right. Thank 20 you, Donald.

21 Let's go ahead and get it over to Ms. Williams, please.
22 Okay. Thank you very much.

23 Okay. What's your badge number, again, ma'am?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: 468.

25 MR. HELMICK: Now you had mentioned that you're going

1 to have more sympathy to the victim in this case, right, because
2 somebody was killed, right?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: Yes.

4 MR. HELMICK: Is that what you said?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: Yes.

6 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Now is that going to affect your 7 ability to be fair to the people that have -- that were charged in this
8 case?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: I believe so, yes.

10 MR. HELMICK: Yeah. Are you going to believe them to 11 be -- are you going to be more prone to looking at them as being 12 guilty because of that?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 468: I believe so, yes.

14 MR. HELMICK: Okay. Thank you, Jessica.

15 Okay. Thank you very much, everybody. I don't have any 16 other questions.

17 THE COURT: Thank you. Will you guys approach?

18 [Bench conference transcribed as follows.]

19 THE COURT: All right. Who all are you going to 20 challenge for cause?

21 MR. HELMICK: Contreras, Sulstrom, cop guy, Jessica
22 Williams, Donald Meng.

23 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Pedronan.

24 MR. HELMICK: Huh?

25 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Pedronan or whatever it was.

1 MR. HELMICK: Oh, yeah, Pedronan. Yeah, Pedronan.
2 MR. PESCI: That's five.
3 How many is that, five?
4 THE COURT: That's five.
5 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Five or six.
6 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.
7 THE COURT: Is that it?
8 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.
9 So what is your -- you all's position on Lambert now?
10 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I agree with everything on them, but I 11 also --
12 MR. HELMICK: On who?
13 MR. YAMPOLSKY: On all of yours --
14 MR. HELMICK: Oh.
15 THE COURT: No, no, no, we're starting with -- they had 16 challenged Lambert. You disagreed earlier.
17 MR. PESCI: Earlier I made one on Lambert. You at that 18 point disagreed. You disagreed.
19 MR. YAMPOLSKY: No, I agree --
20 THE COURT: What's your position on Lambert?
21 MR. PESCI: Right. [Indiscernible].
22 MR. HELMICK: I still object to --
23 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I'm submitting --
24 MR. HELMICK: -- for cause, I still object to that one.
25 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to grant the challenge as

1 to Lambert.

2 And then you all both are challenging Williams. What's
3 your position as to Williams?

4 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Yes.

5 MR. PESCI: Judge, I oppose the challenge for cause. I
6 think that's she indicated that she can lean one way. We've talked
7 about the palm trees and redwood, but I don't think that she says
8 that she can't be fair.

9 MR. YAMPOLSKY: She --

10 MR. HELMICK: Hold on, hold --

11 MR. YAMPOLSKY: She --

12 MR. HELMICK: -- on, let him --

13 THE COURT: Calm down.

14 MR. YAMPOLSKY: All right. Sorry. Sorry.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And they both have challenged
16 Sulstrom. What's your position on Sulstrom?

17 MR. PESCI: I object again, to him being released.

18 THE COURT: Okay. I think that he's even a stronger
19 position to stay. He's talked about how he would listen to police
20 officers -- he was leaning towards police officers, but I asked him
21 specifically if we did not prove the case could you come back not 22 guilty and he said yes, he could.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. YAMPOLSKY: And I asked him black and white --

25 THE COURT: Hold on, hold on.

1 They also challenged Contreras. Are you in agreement
2 with any of their challenges?

3 MR. PESCI: No.

4 MR. HELMICK: Oh come on, Giancarlo.

5 MR. PESCI: You didn't agree with --

6 MR. HELMICK: Oh, one.

7 MR. PESCI: -- Lambert.

8 THE COURT: Hold on, hold on. I'm going to send them
9 home then and we'll argue on the record, so that we cannot have to 10 be crammed over the microphone. I was just trying to see if there
11 was an agreement, then I was going to let those people go right
12 now.

13 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I agree that he's wrong.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So hold on, hold on, come
15 back. When we get them back, I'm going to start at 10:30
16 tomorrow.

17 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Okay.

18 THE COURT: And we'll bring back those extra six, I guess,
19 that we have and I'll probably have them send down some more as 20 well.

21 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Okay.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. PESCI: Judge, sorry, can you --

24 You know, we haven't quite gotten there yet, but I'm 25 having a really hard time with 466, Ms. Lambert.

1 MR. YAMPOLSKY: The marijuana smoker?
2 MR. PESCI: She can't stop talking --
3 THE COURT: I know.
4 MR. HELMICK: Yeah, I know.
5 MR. PESCI: -- when it's not her time.
6 THE COURT: I know.
7 MR. PESCI: I'm afraid that someone who has already
8 manifestly expressed inability --
9 THE COURT: Do you guys have --
10 MR. PESCI: -- to follow instructions --
11 THE COURT: -- any objection?
12 MR. HELMICK: No, I don't have --
13 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I like her, but --
14 MR. HELMICK: -- an objection to her.
15 MR. YAMPOLSKY: -- yeah --
16 MR. HELMICK: If Giancarlo doesn't have any objection to 17 all the other ones.
18 THE COURT: You good?
19 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Yeah.
20 THE COURT: All right. I'll tell the marshal.
21 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I don't have an objection.
22 MR. HELMICK: She's a loose cannon.
23 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Yeah, I like her.
24 MR. HELMICK: She's a loose cannon.
25 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

1 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Thank you.
2 THE COURT: Thank you.
3 [End of bench conference.]
4 THE COURT: Hey, will you come here for a sec?
5 THE MARSHAL: Yes, sir.
6 THE COURT: No, not you guys.
7 [Bench conference transcribed as follows.]
8 THE COURT: Jill, my noise back.
9 So I'm going to send them home for the evening
10 obviously.
11 THE MARSHAL: Uh-huh.
12 THE COURT: But there are one or two --
13 THE MARSHAL: Can I use your stickies here?
14 THE COURT: Yeah. They've agreed to let Ms. Phillips go,
15 the lady on the end of that row that keeps talking all the time.
16 THE MARSHAL: Oh.
17 THE COURT: She's Badge Number --
18 THE MARSHAL: 551.
19 THE COURT: -- 551.
20 THE MARSHAL: Okay.
21 THE COURT: So once you get them outside you can just 22 tell her she's off.
23 THE MARSHAL: Okay.
24 THE COURT: Okay.
25 THE MARSHAL: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 THE MARSHAL: Thank you.

3 [End of bench conference.]

4 THE COURT: Okay. So here's what we're going to do,
5 folks. I think we go it worked out. We're going to go ahead and
6 break for the evening. We're going to start at 10:30 tomorrow
7 morning. I am anticipating that we should by -- before we break for 8 lunch, get everything whittled down to the 14 of you. That's my 9 hope. Might need to go through the lunch hour a little bit but get it
10 whittled down to the 14 of you and then the rest of you will be on 11 your way, okay?

12 So during the recess you're admonished not to talk or 13 converse among yourselves or with anyone else on any subject
14 connected with the trial. Or read or watch or listen to any report of 15 or commentary on the trial by any medium of information
16 including, without limitation, newspapers, television, the internet,
17 and radio. Or form or express any opinion on any subject
18 connected with the case until it's finally submitted to you. No legal 19 or factual research, or investigation or social media communication
20 on your own.

21 Thank you very much for your time today and I will see
22 you tomorrow morning.

23 Do you want them on the third floor and then you'll get
24 them? Hallway?

25 THE MARSHAL: 16B.

1 THE COURT: 16B?

2 THE MARSHAL: In front of 16B.

3 THE COURT: So just collect down this hallway down the 4 way there and when we get you all here, we'll get started, okay?

5 All right, guys, thank you very much.

6 [Outside the presence of the prospective jury]

7 THE COURT: Okay. So outside the presence of the jurors,
8 I did tell the marshal, pursuant to your agreement at the bench that 9 he can excuse Ms. Phillips, Badge Number 551. And I agree that 10 she was constantly wanting to answer questions when I told her we 11 weren't talking to her at those moments and she was -- just kept 12 answering things out loud when people were -- other people were 13 talking. So I agree with you all's assessment.

14 So on the challenges for cause, the defend -- or excuse
15 me, the State challenged Ms. Lambert and there was some 16 discussion at the bench but what I had said over Mr. Helmick's
17 objection -- I think Mr. Yampolsky agreed with the challenge for 18 Lambert, but I was going to grant the challenge as to Ms. Lambert.

19 She -- I think overall what she was saying about the 20 difficulties she faces is that she works in an industry where she is 21 involved in essentially euthanizing people by giving them drugs in a
22 hospice-type setting and helping them to -- kind of give them -- I
23 think she referred to it as comfort meds. And that it's a -- it's 24 something that she struggles greatly with, helping people with their 25 death and feeling guilt over that and she did not think -- and it was

1 obvious through her body language as well that she did not think
2 that this was a case that she could be involved in and fairly assess
3 everything because of those aspects of her work.

4 And I recognize Defendant Harlan was objecting, but I
5 think the totality of things, which is the way I always view it, was 6 appropriate to grant the challenge on her, as to her ability to be a
7 fair juror.

8 Then in regard to both Defendants, they've challenged
9 Contreras, Sulstrom, and Williams. And then Mr. Yampolsky also 10 challenged Gutierrez-Sosa. And then Mister -- or Mr. Helmick did
11 not challenge Gutierrez-Sosa but challenged Meng and Pedronan.
12 So I think we have --

13 MR. YAMPOLSKY: And I agree with those challenges.

14 MR. HELMICK: I'm sorry, I didn't hear what you said, Your 15 Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So Mr. Yampolsky challenged
17 Williams, Contreras, Sulstrom, and then Gutierrez-Sosa. And you,
18 Mr. Helmick, challenged Williams, Contreras, Sulstrom, and then
19 also Meng, and Pedronan.

20 MR. HELMICK: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

22 MR. YAMPOLSKY: And I also join in those challenges.

23 THE COURT: You join in on Meng and Pedronan?

24 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Yes.

25 THE COURT: All right. Are you joining in his Gutierrez-

1 Sosa challenge or no?

2 MR. HELMICK: No, not at this time.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So essentially the Defense has 4 challenged six people. And the State doesn't agree with any of 5 them, correct?

6 MR. PESCI: The State agrees with Gutierrez-Sosa.

7 THE COURT: With Gutierrez-Sosa. Okay. And I'm sorry,
8 Ryan, you disagreed with that one or agreed?

9 MR. HELMICK: I disagreed.

10 MR. YAMPOLSKY: No, he --

11 THE COURT: Disagreed with that one. So what's your 12 disagreement on Mr. Gutierrez-Sosa?

13 MR. HELMICK: I'm trying to look at my notes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. HELMICK: You want to maybe come back to this one.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So what's the -- and I know you
17 started to talk about it, but I'll give you more of an opportunity,
18 Giancarlo. As to the three in common, Williams, Contreras,
19 Sulstrom?

20 MR. PESCI: Williams, Contreras, and Sulstrom. Judge, I
21 think that they've indicated, you know, building on this redwood
22 versus palm trees concept and I think that one juror, in particular
23 said it really, really well. She talked about how, you know, you
24 could be a redwood on being fair but be a palm tree based on the 25 evidence. That you're willing to listen and be swayed by the

1 evidence but you're not going to be unfair.

2 I think that those three individuals were asked questions
3 and I think that they were very honest with saying that they may
4 lean one way, for example, Mr. Contreras, towards police; or Ms.
5 Williams, towards the victims; Mr. Sulstrom, the police. but they
6 didn't say that they couldn't be fair.

7 And I specifically asked Mr. Sulstrom who was retired out
8 of the LA County Sheriff's Department, I believe, if he's going to 9 have any problem coming back with a not guilty if the State
10 proves -- doesn't prove it, including calling police officers. And he 11 said he would not have a problem returning a not guilty verdict in 12 that scenario.

13 I think with Ms. Williams, she also talked about how, you
14 know, she would be feeling sympathy towards the victims -- the 15 victim or the victim's family, but that she also said that she could 16 listen to the evidence and make her decision on the evidence.

17 I think that applies to Mr. Contreras. I'm trying to look
18 really fast. He specifically -- I wrote it in quotes: No one is guilty 19 until proven. Without seeing the evidence, you can't answer the 20 question.

21 So he's been given all these hypotheticals and he said
22 unequivocally no one's guilty until it's proven guilty. So he's not 23 starting off as guilty. So under those three, I object.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So Mr. Yampolsky, as to those three?

25 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Well, on Ms. Williams, I mean, she

1 said lots of things and I wish I wrote down all of them but the last
2 question -- the last question he asked, so you think -- and you can
3 tell me it's -- so you think you prob -- and I'll probably find him
4 guilty. Would you lean this way? She said yes. After everything.
5 After the pound her in the head, you got to be fair; she couldn't be 6 fair. So there's no question in my mind, she's got to go.

7 Now on Mr. Sulstrom, he's not an idiot. She was a county
8 sheriff for 30 years, his wife was a county sheriff, they probably 9 have kids that are county sheriffs. And when I asked him --

10 THE COURT: I don't think he said anything about having 11 kids that are the county sheriff.

12 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Well I'm speculating.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Well in any event, when I said hey, if 15 this one says black, this one says white, well without anything
16 more, he'd believe the cop. Now yeah, he's going to say well I'm 17 swayed by the evidence, this and that, but when you're going in like 18 that, you don't believe in the presumption of innocence and I think
19 that's where we go back to.

20 I don't think he believes in the presumption of innocence.
21 I believe he believes in the presumption that cops tell the truth and 22 other people don't. Or maybe cops tell more of the truth or cops
23 are more believable. But because of that you're skewing the 24 balance. It's not presumption of innocence, it's presumption of 25 maybe innocence, unless the cops say so. So I think he's got to go

1 for cause.

2 And Mr. Contreras, he did go back and forth, but I mean,
3 his cousin was killed four years ago, and he said in the beginning --
4 and I forget exactly what because I questioned him this morning
5 that he would --

6 THE COURT: You questioned him this afternoon. It was 7 an hour and a half ago.

8 MR. YAMPOLSKY: It was right after him and before him,
9 that was like yesterday.

10 THE COURT: No.

11 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Anyway, I'm remembering --

12 THE COURT: You are correct in your chronology --

13 MR. YAMPOLSKY: All right.

14 THE COURT: -- but it was an hour and --

15 MR. YAMPOLSKY: All right.

16 THE COURT: -- a half ago. Hold on. The young lady --

17 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Look --

18 THE COURT: -- Ms. Alvarez would like to tell you
19 something.

20 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Excuse me.

21 [Colloquy between Counsel]

22 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I believe -- and I don't know who --
23 maybe Mr. Helmick because he has better questions than me,
24 unfortunately. But I think he said to him -- and if it's not him, I
25 apologize. Should the Defense be scared about you being on the

1 jury and I think he said yes. Someone said yes, I believe it was him.
2 So if he's saying that, what does that mean?

3 He also said he had a problem with people having guns
4 illegally and he also said if someone's underage they shouldn't
5 have guns. Well what's going to happen in this case? There's
6 going to be evidence that people who were underage had guns. So
7 when you add that to the murder and add that to the fact that he
8 said the Defense should be scared, I don't know how he could fair,
9 even if he said it later, he couldn't. So that's him.

10 Do I have anyone else I can rail against?

11 THE COURT: Well not yet, I'm just dealing with those --

12 MR. PESCI: I'm sure you do.

13 THE COURT: -- three for this moment.

14 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Okay.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Helmick?

16 MR. HELMICK: All right. Thank you. Okay, so are we 17 talking about Williams?

18 THE COURT: Yeah, Williams, Contreras, Sulstrom.

19 MR. HELMICK: Okay. The last two questions that I asked
20 her, I said will this affect your ability to be fair? Yes. Or more
21 inclined to prove him guilt -- to rule him guilty, something like that.
22 Yes.

23 Also, she's the one who said she knew about the case and 24 we forgot to bring her up to talk about that aspect.

25 THE COURT: I know.

1 MR. HELMICK: So I mean, she's already admitted that she
2 can't be fair in this case. I mean, Mace already said all those things,
3 but that's what she just said to us.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. HELMICK: I don't think you can rehab her.

6 And then in regards to Contreras, I wrote down, because 7 he said it so many times, he said, I've already came up with an 8 answer in my head. This always leads me to -- I've already been led 9 to the answer in this case. The Defense should be worried. If I get 10 picked, I guess we'll find out.

11 I mean, come on? I mean, he's clearly at a huge bias
12 towards the Defendants in this case already. He said it multiple 13 times, he's already made up his mind. He doesn't need to hear a
14 single piece of evidence.

15 THE COURT: All right. So here's the thing, I'm going to 16 grant the challenges as to all three of those. And look, when you're 17 evaluating things from the totality, you do have individual topics
18 that people can talk about and express a problem with, but they can 19 still be overall --pass the smell test, so to speak, for their ability to 20 be fair and impartial and move forward in the process, even though
21 you may later challenge them with a peremptory challenge.

22 And that works both ways. There are times when people,
23 you know, tell the Prosecution that they have a lot of problem with 24 police officers, right? That they've had bad encounters, et cetera
25 and they read the news about horrible things the police officers do.

1 But they say look, I'm going to listen to this case for whatever it is
2 and I'll evaluate evidence and give you a fair decision. It may not
3 make the State have a warm feeling about them, but they still can 4 be passed for cause.

5 Likewise, the Defense may have people that say look, I
6 think a Defendant should testify. I don't know why somebody
7 wouldn't testify if they're innocent and why they wouldn't want to 8 get up there. But look, I get it, you guys might advise your clients
9 some way, I'm still going to listen to whatever the Judge tells me
10 the law is and I'll give you a fair opinion, based on the evidence.

11 Again, it may not make the Defense feel real good about 12 what they think about your client not testifying but they've still, you
13 know, been able to be fair. So what I look for through all of your 14 questions are consistent themes or issues where maybe I feel 15 somebody that's inconsistent was confused about something and 16 sincerely understands it now and have answered in a certain way.

17 So Ms. Williams I thought was pretty consistent in saying
18 she would -- was struggling with the idea of whether she could be 19 completely fair. And if a juror is anything other than unequivocal in 20 that, then I think case law says they are to be challenged.

21 And you're right, we didn't go into what it was she read in 22 the news. I didn't have a sense that she really read anything
23 prejudicial, she just remembered seeing it. But I do think that she 24 consistently was struggling with this idea and telling us that it
25 would be hard for her to be fair. Regardless of how she viewed

1 herself on the redwood/palm tree analogy, she was still saying it
2 would be hard to be fair.

3 Similar on Mr. Sulstrom, the thing that I think was -- what
4 kind of tipped the balance with him was yes, he was saying he
5 could return a verdict of not guilty if he felt the State didn't prove 6 their case but he was saying, and his word was heavily, he would
7 lean very heavily in favor of believing the cops over anybody else
8 just believe they're cops.

9 And that kind of a viewpoint on that, kind of informs the 10 rest of how you view evidence in a case if it's coming from police
11 officers and I think that is an inappropriate person to have on the 12 jury.

13 Mr. Contreras, I do think he was fairly consistent in the 14 problem areas that had been elucidated here during our discussion.
15 I'm not going to go into all those but obviously it kind of came up in 16 the beginning when he was talking about his cousin having been 17 murdered and the difficulty sitting on a trial with individuals that 18 are charged with that.

19 All right. That leaves us with first off, Ryan, Gutierrez-
20 Sosa. Have you had a chance to look at that?

21 MR. HELMICK: Yes, I did.

22 THE COURT: Mace challenges, State agrees, your 23 position is?

24 MR. HELMICK: Let's see here. I mean, I can't remember
25 exactly what was -- what notes I had written down in regard to

1 talking to him, but I mean --

2 THE COURT: And let me just add this into it. He is the
3 gentleman that said he's self-employed and has a number of --

4 MR. HELMICK: Oh the construction guy.

5 THE COURT: -- projects due in the next two weeks and 6 then he's going to be gone and so it's going to be really difficult for 7 him financially as well. If that informs you at all about what 8 position you want to take.

9 MR. HELMICK: Right, right. I mean, I thought he was 10 pretty -- I think I asked him multiple times if he could be fair and 11 impartial and all those basic questions. From what I understood he 12 seemed like he could have that position. I will go ahead and just 13 submit that to Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I think he's a gentleman that was kind
15 of hard because I felt like he was not consistent in any one thing.
16 Not because he was trying to get out of jury duty, but I couldn't 17 really figure out exactly what his position overall was in terms of 18 his ability to be fair, separate and apart from his prior jury
19 experience that he seemed to be troubled by. And it sounded like 20 he was saying he signed off on a verdict that he then regretted and 21 didn't disagree with and -- so.

22 He was somebody that I think was challenge -- or could
23 have been excused for cause based on his work issues but we left
24 him on. You guys didn't really explore that anymore with him,
25 which is fine, you don't have to. But that's one of the reasons I left

1 him there in the beginning was to let you all follow up if you
2 wanted to. But I think under the totality, I will go ahead and grant
3 Defendant Caruso's challenge as to that gentleman as well.

4 All right. And then we have Meng and Pedronan that are
5 being challenged and joined in -- so Mr. Harlan challenges, Mr.
6 Yampolsky joins in for Mr. Caruso. So State, what's your position
7 as to Mr. Meng and Mr. Pedronan?

8 MR. PESCI: So, Judge, I think it's a different approach in 9 the sense that Pedronan would fall under kind of the Sulstrom
10 because Pedronan's got the family members that are with the 11 police department in Hawaii, so it's that bias -- or the perception of 12 bias towards that. I mean, if it's -- if the analysis is the same as it
13 was for Mr. Sulstrom, I'm assuming that's what's going to happen
14 but not --

15 THE COURT: I don't think he was as --

16 MR. PESCI: Adamant.

17 THE COURT: -- adamant or used the same kind of 18 terminology in what he thought about cops.

19 MR. PESCI: Right. And, you know, Judge, it brings up
20 something -- and I want to bring it up now because we're going to 21 bring in other jurors tomorrow, so it's impossible to rebut or 22 prepare for they must have done something to get here.

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. PESCI: Because he --

25 THE COURT: I know.

1 MR. PESCI: -- kept going back to that, right? And it's
2 really crazy to ask a jury they must have done something. Well of 3 course they must have done something, they're been charged,
4 right? For me to really respond to that I got to talk about well you
5 see there was a determination of probable cause, then a sergeant
6 reviewed what that person decided, then it was submitted to the 7 DA's office.

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. PESCI: Then the screening department decided to 10 look at it, then it was decided by our office to send it. There are so
11 many layers of things that are done. Someone doesn't just show
12 up here willy nilly. And I'm going to do that tomorrow if this same
13 thing happens. In fact, I'm going to do it unless you're making a 14 ruling that they can't do that because I go first, they go last.

15 There's no way for me to respond to that where there's 16 smoke, there's fire analysis. There is something that got you here
17 but he, specifically, and that's why I'm bringing this up, kept saying 18 they're innocent until proven guilty. They're here for a reason, he 19 would say that, I admit that, I could see that, but that's factually
20 accurate. Whether we believe there's sufficient evidence is a whole
21 nother issue. You've already made a determination in a Writ
22 context that there was sufficient evidence.

23 Do you want me to tell him guess what, that guy thinks
24 that there's enough evidence?

25 THE COURT: No. Look, I get what you're getting at. I

1 don't think it's inappropriate to ask the question that's being asked
2 about, you know, do you think they're guilty just because they're 3 here and somebody says no, look, I figure they're here because 4 there's a reason they're here. And a lot of people have that kind of 5 belief that gee, if a case is going to trial there must be some 6 evidence against these people. It doesn't mean they can't
7 appreciate the presumption of innocence and still evaluate the case
8 fairly.

9 So I don't think -- no, you don't get to go back in and say
10 to them well the reason you're here, you understand, is people
11 have found evidence against them. It's just like they're here
12 because they were charged, right? That's the -- the reason they're 13 here is because they were charged with crimes and the trial is to 14 decide what evidence is there that they either did or didn't commit
15 the crimes.

16 MR. PESCI: Then it's inappropriate --

17 THE COURT: Right?

18 MR. PESCI: -- to have a basis of trying to remove them by 19 saying they're here for a reason.

20 THE COURT: I -- well that hasn't --

21 MR. PESCI: There's some reason that they're here.

22 THE COURT: Well first off that hasn't happened yet, right?

23 MR. PESCI: Well I think that's the underpinnings of the 24 arguments for these individuals.

25 THE COURT: For Mr. Pedronan?

1 MR. PESCI: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

3 MR. PESCI: And so that's my concern.

4 THE COURT: Okay. What about Mr. Meng?

5 MR. PESCI: Mr. Meng, it's a different analysis because
6 he's the victim of armed robberies when he's working at Albertsons
7 four times.

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. PESCI: I asked him specifically if he could set that
10 aside, if he could make the determination as to his own experience
11 and he said yes. Of course he has emotional experiences or 12 feelings based on that but he said he would make his determination
13 based on the facts of this case and so I don't think it's appropriate 14 for him to be released because he said he could be fair.

15 In fact I wrote down -- he said, I'm a very fair person and 16 he said that he didn't believe that that was going to affect his ability
17 to be fair.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Mr. Helmick.

19 MR. HELMICK: Thank you. Are we talking about Mr.
20 Meng?

21 THE COURT: Yeah. Sure.

22 MR. HELMICK: Okay. So in regards to Mr. Meng I mean, I
23 think that -- I recognize what Mr. Pesci said in regards to can he be 24 fair but there were a lot of things that he said prior to that after he 25 was so to speak, rehabilitated, even though some of those

1 questions were by me that he said that he would look at individuals
2 with guns with bias because he had been on the other end of the 3 gun.

4 And so, I mean, I don't think it's to the level of Sulstrom,
5 for sure, but I think that it's something the Court should consider. I
6 think it's a chal -- it's a basis for a challenge for cause. It doesn't 7 seem like he can be fair given his scenario, his personal
8 experiences being robbed four times and being held at gunpoint, I
9 just don't it's possible for him to be fair.

10 THE COURT: And then Mr. Pedronan?

11 MR. HELMICK: Now Mr. Pedronan at the end there I think 12 I really kind of pinned him down on whether he could be fair to the 13 Defense and I forgot what the question was I asked him, but it
14 seemed like he could not. He said he feels like every murder charge
15 is legit. He is biased in believing in police authority because he has 16 friends and family in the force. He didn't seem at all like he could 17 be fair towards the Defense based off of the last questions that I just 18 asked him.

19 MR. YAMPOLSKY: And I believe the last was, you know,
20 would you lean towards the Prosecution and he didn't even 21 hesitate, he -- yes.

22 MR. HELMICK: Yeah.

23 MR. YAMPOLSKY: So I think it was abundantly -- I think
24 he's worse than Sulstrom and I think Sulstrom's bad.

25 THE COURT: So let Ryan finish, please. Thank you.

1 MR. HELMICK: Well thank you. So he refreshed my
2 memory and that's what I asked him. And you could tell he's pretty 3 clear cut on that.

4 THE COURT: All right. So I'm going to grant the 5 challenge as to Pedronan. I'm going to deny the challenge as to 6 Meng. And I agree that Meng made comments early on about what
7 I believe are more in terms of I don't really relish the idea of sitting 8 on a case investigation robbery considering I was the victim of 9 armed robberies. But it wasn't that he ever said he couldn't be fair.

10 And you got to remember, you know -- let's take the 11 sexual assault of a child case for instance. Pretty much every juror
12 will say I have a bias against people that sexually abuse kids. Well
13 that's fine, you can still be a fair juror. I mean, the issue isn't if you 14 think badly of people that sexually abuse kids, it's can you be fair in 15 evaluating a trial and then listening to the evidence, which you
16 don't have any of right now and then deciding whether somebody's
17 guilty of that crime.

18 So whether people think minors should or shouldn't have 19 guns, think badly of people that, you know, commit crimes, things
20 like that, that's not the issue for them as jurors. The totality of what 21 that gentleman said I believe was that he could be fair. And a lot of 22 that quite honestly kind of came out at the Defense questioning. It
23 wasn't the State doing that. And he said I agree that he said he 24 could -- he was a very fair gentleman, that he could be fair
25 regardless of the other aspects. So I think he -- that gentleman

1 passes for cause.

2 So we will be excusing Lambert, Williams, Contreras,
3 Sulstrom, Gutierrez-Sosa, and Pedronan.

4 MR. PESCI: Judge, I apologize, I forgot one.

5 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

6 MR. PESCI: 474, Jaska. I wrote down specifically he said
7 he would give less weight to police officers. That was just one of --
8 and then he put into context about the Reid method -- he actually
9 utilized --

10 THE COURT: Yeah, I -- look, that guy was a little odd. I
11 don't think the singular comment about, you know, I would give 12 less weight or credence to police officers is something that's 13 automatically going to make you challengeable. Well first off, -- I
14 mean, like I said the guy was just kind of -- seemed a little odd. I
15 don't know. Mace, what's your position?

16 MR. YAMPOLSKY: He was all over the board.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I --

19 MR. PESCI: Right. He says things that are bad for you.

20 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Well --

21 THE COURT: Well that's why -- you know, [indiscernible]
22 argument that nobody --

23 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Well all I'm saying --

24 THE COURT: -- wants that kind of a person.

25 MR. YAMPOLSKY: -- is my recollection, he was all over

1 the board. One thing he did say which troubled me and should
2 really trouble you is that either they're both innocent or they're both
3 guilty. So what that says, he's not going to consider all the
4 evidence fairly and he's going to decide one way or another. So I
5 think based on that --

6 THE COURT: So you're in agreement.

7 MR. YAMPOLSKY: What?

8 THE COURT: You're in agreement.

9 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Yeah, I'm in agreement.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

11 MR. YAMPOLSKY: I hate to say it.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Helmick.

13 MR. HELMICK: I'm in agreement with Jaska too.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. PESCI: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: So we will excuse Jaska as well then. Thank 17 you. So that's --

18 MR. PESCI: Sorry, I forget that earlier.

19 THE COURT: -- seven total.

20 So when we get back tomorrow morning, we'll let those 21 folks go. We have six right now. So before we start with those six,
22 I'm going to have Jury Services send us more people and then I'll 23 run through my stuff with them first and then we'll fill the seven
24 empty seats and then we'll move forward.

25 MR. PESCI: What do you want me to do -- or I'm sorry, us
