The District Court is comprised of 15 Departments. Each Judge sits in a differently numbered Department. When a Judge leaves service, the new Judge's name replaces the former Judge's name on all matters pending and previously closed in that department. This change will not reflect that a previous sitting Judge presided over a matter.

The District Court is comprised of 15 Departments. Each Judge sits in a differently numbered Department. When a Judge leaves service, the new Judge's name replaces the former Judge's name on all matters pending and previously closed in that department. This change will not reflect that a previous sitting Judge presided over a matter.

The District Court is comprised of 15 Departments. Each Judge sits in a differently numbered Department. When a Judge leaves service, the new Judge's name replaces the former Judge's name on all matters pending and previously closed in that department. This change will not reflect that a previous sitting Judge presided over a matter.

Wespac Advisors LLC Asset Management Services Investment Policy Questionnaire

Introduction:

- > The following series of questions are designed to develop a better understanding of your tolerance for investment risk.
- > Understanding your tolerance for investment risk relative to your investment return expectations is an important first step in designing a portfolio.
- > The answers you select will indicate your comfort level with investment risk and your ability to withstand it.
- > Please carefully consider each question and select the answer that most closely fits your current situation.
- Consultation with your Investment Advisor while filling out this form is key to developing a recommended portfolio that fits your comfort level and is appropriate to reach your financial goals.

Instructions for completing this form:

- > Please check the box next to each appropriate answer.
- > The assigned points for each answer appear in red to left of the box.
- ➤ After the conclusion (Page 7), please add up the selected points for each question (1-15) and compare the total with the investment objective ranges on page 8. This is the investment objective that is consistent with your responses.

- Appointment. Client appoints WA as investment adviser of the Portfolio Assets (as hereinafter defined) with designated investment authority over the Portfolio Assets, and WA agrees to serve in that capacity on the terms and conditions as set forth in this Agreement.
- 2. Acknowledgments of Client. Client represents and acknowledges that Client is the sole owner of the cash and securities described in Exhibit A (the "Initial Portfolio Assets"), and that the Portfolio Assets are and will remain at all times during the continuation of this Agreement free, clear, and unencumbered. Client acknowledges that Client has reviewed the investment policies of WA as set forth in WA's Form ADV Part II, a copy of which has been provided to Client, and that these investment policies meet Client's overall criterias. In the event Client's financial situation changes, Client agrees to notify WA in writing of the change and new investment objectives, if different from those described. Client acknowledges that in the process of active portfolio management, cash may be held in the portfolio account at the discretion of WA. Client agrees to give WA immediate notice of any deposit to or withdrawal from the Portfolio Assets and to promptly confirm the same in writing.
- 3. Procedures. The following procedures shall be followed by WA in performing the services called for by this Agreement:
 - Records. WA shall keep separate and accurate records of all of the Initial Portfolio Assets and additions to, dispositions from, and changes in the Initial Portfolio Assets (the "Portfolio Assets"). WA shall provide Client with a written summary and appraisal of the Portfolio Assets at least once each calendar quarter. The portfolio appraisal statement shall list the Portfolio Assets as of the last business day of the immediately preceding quarter, and shall indicate the fair market value of the Portfolio Assets on that date as determined in Paragraph 4a hereof.
 - 2. Custody of Portfolio Assets. The Portfolio Assets subject to WA's supervision will be maintained in street name in Client's account at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. or at a brokerage house, bank, trust company, or other firm (the "Custodian") selected by Client as set forth in the attached Confidential Client Profile. Client shall be responsible for all Custodians' fees incurred in maintaining Client's account(s). In no event shall WA act as Custodian, and nothing herein shall be construed to authorize WA to take possession of any cash or securities comprising the Portfolio Assets. Client shall instruct the Custodian to provide WA with confirmations of all transactions with respect to Portfolio Assets and shall instruct Custodian to provide to Client a monthly account statement indicating all amount dispersed from Client's accounts (including the amount of any fee paid pursuant to Client's authorization to WA), all transactions occurring in the account during the period covered by the statement and all the funds, securities, and other properties in the account as of the end of the period, with a copy to WA. Client shall instruct Custodian to provide WA with such other periodic reports concerning the status of the Portfolio Assets as WA may reasonably request. It is agreed that WA, in the maintenance of its records, does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of information furnished by Client or any other party.

3. Brokerage. Client may instruct WA to utilize the services of designated broker(s) in all transactions involving Portfolio Assets separately designated in Exhibit B. If no broker(s) is designated by Client for Portfolio Asset transactions, WA may select broker(s), and such broker(s) may be broker(s) that provide research or other portfolio services to WA. In making any such selection, WA will take into consideration a number of factors including, without limitation: the overall direct net economic result to the Portfolio Assets (including commissions, which may not be the lowest available but which ordinarily will not be higher than the generally prevailing competitive range), the ability to effect the transaction where large block trades or other complicating factors are involved and the availability of the broker to stand ready to execute possibly difficult transactions in the future. WA may also take into consideration other matters involved in the receipt of brokerage and research services as contemplated by Section 28(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the regulations and interpretations of the Securities and Exchange Commission promulgated thereunder, without having to demonstrate that any such factor is of a direct benefit to the Portfolio Assets. If WA believes that the purchase or sale of a security is in Client's best interest along with the best interest of its other clients, WA may, but shall not be obligated to, aggregate the securities to be sold or purchased to obtain favorable execution or lower brokerage commissions, to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations. WA will allocate securities so purchased or sold, as well as the expenses incurred in the transactions, in the manner that it considers to be equitable and consistent with its fiduciary obligations to Client and its other clients.

Client shall be responsible for all brokerage charges in connection with the Portfolio Asset transactions. Brokers or dealers that WA selects to execute transactions may from time to time refer clients to WA. WA will not make commitments to any broker or dealer through brokerage or dealer transactions for client referrals; however, Client recognizes that a potential conflict of interest may arise between Client's interest in obtaining best price and execution and WA's interest in receiving further referrals.

4. Services of Adviser.

a. Management Fee. Client agrees to pay WA an investment management fee as determined in accordance with the schedule set forth as Exhibit A. One quarter of the annual fee due shall be payable in arear on the last day of each calendar quarter in which this Agreement is in force. All fees are determined on the basis of the market value of the Portfolio Assets as of the last day of the calendar quarter. In computing the market value of any investment of the Portfolio Assets, each security listed on any national securities exchange shall be valued at the last quoted sale price on the valuation date on the principal exchange in which such security is traded. Any other security or asset shall be valued in a manner determined in good faith by WA to reflect its fair market value. If the account is opened after the start of a calendar quarter, the initial fee will be prorated from acceptance by WA through the end of the quarter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for clients who request to have their fee calculated and determined by their Custodian, it is agreed that the fee will be calculated in the manner agreed upon with such Custodian. WA agrees to send a copy of the fee computation and billing, at least quarterly, to both Client and Custodian as required. In addition, Client will receive a portfolio appraisal as set forth in Paragraph 3. The fee schedule set forth in Exhibit B may be amended from time to time by WA upon thirty (30) days written notice to Client. If Client does not notify WA of termination within thirty (30) days of such notice, this Agreement will continue in effect under the terms and conditions as set forth herein with the revised fee schedule.

b. Fee Billing Option.

- A) Client may authorize WA to invoice the Custodian for its fees, and Client may authorize the Custodian to pay such fees to WA directly from Client's account. WA will send a copy of its bill to Client prior to or at the time the original is sent to the Custodian.
- B) Client may authorize WA to invoice Client directly for the payment of WA fees. Any such payment will be made by Client to WA by separate check and will not be deducted from amounts held in Clients account.

c. Proxy Voting Option.

WA is authorized to vote all proxies on behalf of the Portfolio Assets. Client will instruct the Custodian to forward all proxy materials to WA or its agent so that it may vote them accordingly. WA will report to Client at such time and in such manner as Client may reasonably request with respect to all proxy voting responsibilities exercised by WA for Client's account. Client may revoke WA's authority to vote proxies by notifying WA in writing of the revocation of the delegation of proxy voting authority.

[Please note that accounts subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), as amended, which choose this option must provide to WA a copy of Plan Documents showing that the right to vote proxies has been reserved to the trustees or other fiduciaries.]

5. Discretionary Authority. WA shall have designated full power and authority to make all investment decisions on a discretionary basis for Portfolio Assets, including decisions to buy and sell any domestic or foreign security, except to the extent Client provides written instructions limiting such authority. Although WA may make investment decisions without prior consultation with or further consent from Client, all such investment decisions shall be made in accordance with the investment objectives of which Client has informed, and may inform, WA from time to time in writing. Client appoints WA as agent and attorney-in-fact to, and expressly authorizes WA in making its investment decisions to: a) make, order, and direct any and all transactions involving designated Portfolio Assets in Client's name and for Client's account and b) sell, convert, or exchange securities comprising part or all of the Portfolio Assets, to otherwise acquire and dispose of such securities; provided, however that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize WA to take custody or possession of any funds, securities or other property of which Client has any beneficial interest in any manner whatsoever. All transactions in Portfolio Assets will be done at WA's sole discretion and without obligation to first notify or consult with Client. Client agrees that WA will not advise or act for client in any legal proceedings, including bankruptcies or class actions, involving securities held or previously held as Portfolio Assets or the issuers of these securities.

- 6. Representations of WA. WA represents that it is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an Investment Adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and that such registration is currently in effect. If the Portfolio Assets are subject to ERISA, WA also acknowledges that it is a fiduciary as that term is defined in ERISA, with respect to the Portfolio Assets. In accordance with sections 405(b)(1), 405(c)(2) and 405(d) of ERISA, the fiduciary responsibilities of WA and any partner, employee or agent of WA shall be limited to his, her or its duties in managing the Portfolio Assets, and WA shall not be responsible for any other duties with respect to Client (specifically including evaluating the initial or continued appropriateness of Client's retention of WA or the diversification standard under section 404(a)(1) of ERISA).
- 7. Representations of Client. Client confirms that it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement, that the employment of WA is authorized by its governing document relating to the Portfolio Assets and that the terms hereof do not violate any obligation by which Client is bound whether arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise, and that: a) this contract has been duly authorized by appropriate action and is binding upon Client in accordance with its terms; and b) Client will deliver to WA such evidence of such authority as it may reasonably require, whether by way of a certified resolution, trust agreement, or otherwise. Client further agrees to provide WA with copies of all documents governing the Portfolio Assets. If the Portfolio Assets are subject to ERISA, Client hereby represents and confirms to WA that Client's employment of WA as the Investment Adviser to the Portfolio Assets, and any instruction Client has given to WA, is authorized by and does not violate any provision of any applicable plan or trust documents. Client hereby acknowledges that Client is a "named fiduciary" with respect to the control and management of the assets of Client's account, a trust qualified under Section 401 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and Client agrees to notify WA promptly of any change in the identity of the "named fiduciary" with respect to the account. In addition, in any directed brokerage transaction Client has determined, and will monitor the Portfolio Assets to assure, that the directed broker is capable of providing best execution for the account's brokerage transactions and that the commission rates that have been negotiated are reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and other services received.

- 8. Liability. WA does not guarantee the future performance of the Portfolio Assets, any specific level of the performance, or the success of any investment decision or strategy. Client understands that the investment decisions made by WA are subject to various market, currency, economic and business risks and those decisions will not always be profitable. Except as may otherwise by provided by law, WA will not be liable to Client for: a) any loss Client may suffer by reason of any investment decision made or other action taken or omitted in good faith by WA with the degree of skill, care, prudence or diligence under the circumstances that a prudent person acting in a like capacity would use; b) any loss arising from WA's adherence to the Client's instructions; c) any act or failure to act by the Custodian, any broker or dealer to which WA directs transactions for the Portfolio Assets or by any other third party; or d) its failure to purchase or sell any security on the basis of information known to any principal or employee of WA where the utilization of such information might constitute a violation of any federal or state laws, rules or regulations or a breach of any fiduciary or confidential relationship between any principal or employee of WA and any other person or persons. Federal and various state securities laws impose liability under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and therefore nothing in this Agreement shall waive or limit any rights, which Client may have under those laws.
- Confidentiality. All information and advice furnished by either party to the other shall be treated as confidential information and shall not be disclosed to third parties except as required by law or with consent.
- 10. Service to Other Clients. WA acts as adviser to other clients and may give advice and take action with respect to such other clients' accounts which may differ from the action taken by WA with respect to the Portfolio Assets. WA agrees to act in a manner consistent with its fiduciary obligations to deal fairly with all clients when taking investment actions. WA shall have no obligation to purchase, sell or recommend for the Portfolio Assets any security which may be purchased or sold by WA, its principals, affiliates, employees or for the accounts of any other client. Client recognizes that transactions in a specific security may not be accomplished for all client accounts at the same time or at the same price.
- 11. Termination. This agreement may be terminated at any time by either party giving the other written notice of termination. However, this Agreement shall continue in effect until so terminated. Termination shall be effective when a notice of termination, properly executed, is actually received. Upon termination, any fees paid in advance will be prorated to the date of termination and any excess will be refunded to Client. If this Agreement is terminated by Client within five business days of the date it is executed or accepted, such termination shall be without penalty or liability for payment of fees. If Client is an individual, this Agreement shall terminate upon the death or adjudicated incapacity of Client, but shall take effect only upon actual receipt by WA of written notice of Client's death or adjudicated incapacity. Upon notice of termination, WA shall notify Custodian to deliver all assets held pursuant to this Agreement, according to Client's written instructions.

- 12. Notices. Unless otherwise specified herein, all notices, instructions, and advice with respect to all matters contemplated by this Agreement shall be deemed duly given when received in writing at the address set forth herein. Copies of all notices affecting the Custodian shall also be directed to the Custodian at the address which Client designates. Addresses may be changed by notice to the other parties given in accordance with this paragraph. WA may rely on any notice from any person reasonably believed by WA to be genuine and to have authority to give such notice. All written notices shall be addressed to: a) WESPAC, 2001 Broadway, 2nd Floor, Oakland, California 94612; and b) Client at the address set forth in the Confidential Client Profile attached hereto.
- 13. Assignability. This Agreement may not be assigned by WA without the prior consent of the Client. This Agreement may not be assigned by Client without the prior consent of WA.
- 14. Miscellaneous. This Agreement, including the Confidential Client Profile and all Exhibits attached hereto, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the management of the Portfolio Assets, supersedes all prior agreements, and, except as otherwise provided herein, may be amended only with a written document signed by the parties. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State where the agreement is governed and so executed. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable, such unenforceability shall not affect the remainder of this Agreement. This Agreement may be signed in one or more counterparts, and when taken together shall create a valid and binding Agreement as though all signatures appeared on the same document. The captions in this Agreement are otherwise for convenience of reference only and in no way define or limit any of the provisions hereof or otherwise affect their construction or effect. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors. No party intends for this Agreement to benefit any third party not expressly named in this Agreement.
- 15. Acknowledgment of Receipt of Form ADV Part II. Client hereby acknowledges that Client has received and had an opportunity to read WA's Form ADV Part II as required by Rule 204-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. WA's ADV Part II contains a clear and conspicuous notice of WA's privacy policy.
- 16. Arbitration. The parties waive their right to seek remedies in court, including any right to a jury trial. The parties agree that in the event of any dispute between the parties arising out of, relating to or in connection with, this Agreement or the Portfolio Assets, such dispute shall be resolved exclusively by arbitration to be conducted only in the county and state at the time of such dispute in accordance with the rules of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service ("JAMS.) applying the laws of the State where the agreement is governed and executed. Disputes shall not be resolved in any other forum or venue. The parties agree that such arbitration shall be conducted by an arbitrator who is experienced in dispute resolution regarding the securities business, that discovery shall not be permitted except as required by the rules of JAMS, that the arbitration award shall not include factual findings or conclusions of law, and that no punitive damages shall be awarded. The parties understand that the party's right to appeal or to seek modification of any ruling or award of the arbitrator is severely limited. Any award rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and binding, and judgment may be entered on it in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county and state of the principal office of WA at the time such award is rendered, or as otherwise provided by law.

The effective date of this Agreement shall be the date of its acceptance by WA.
Agreed to this 31 day of August of the year 2005.
