13 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

14 I.

15 NATURE OF MOTION

16 This litigation arises from an incident occurring on or about November 4, 2016, when Plaintiff
17 claims to have been injured on the property of Venetian while in the course and scope of her
18 employment with Brand Vegas, LLC (Brand Vegas). Specifically, Plaintiff claims that she slipped and 19 fell while walking from her second floor kiosk in the Grand Canal Shops to a restroom located in the 20 Grand Lux Café rotunda area of the Venetian casino at approximately 12:37 pm.

21 There is no dispute that Plaintiff fell on November 4, 2016 while in the course and scope of her
22 employment for Brand Vegas, that Plaintiff filed a workers compensation claim which was accepted,
23 and that Plaintiff has received and continues to receive benefits from her employer's workers
24 compensation insurer. Venetian contends that Plaintiff is precluded from suing Defendants for civil 25 liability under the circumstances as her employment with Brand Vegas was at least in part
26 accomplished pursuant to a series of contracts between Venetian and Brand Vegas to promote and sell
27 tickets for various shows and events occurring on Venetian property. (The contracts are collectively
28 referred to hereafter as the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement.) Each Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement

1 is derived from a separate agreement between Venetian and the entertainment company producing
2 and/or performing the event or show on Venetian property.

3 Plaintiff's daily employment at the Brand Vegas kiosk, which required her to sell tickets for 4 Venetian events, utilize Venetian parking and other related facilities, and to regularly interact with the 5 Venetian box office in furtherance of the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement precludes her from 6 recovery under the Nevada Industrial Insurance Act (NIIA). Plaintiff's injuries, without question,
7 occurred as she was engaged in a "subcontracted fraction of" the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement
8 and associated entertainment agreement. Thus, according to Meers v. Haughton Elevator, 701 P.2d
9 1006, 1007 (Nev. 1985), Plaintiff was a statutory employee at the time of her injury and cannot bring 10 a civil action for damages against Venetian.
11

12 Similarly, because Plaintiff was engaged to perform the exact same or substantially similar 13 work performed by Venetian employees for guests seeking tickets for Venetian events as a requirement
14 of her employment, Plaintiff cannot seek recovery from Venetian for her alleged injuries under Meers.
15 Plaintiff was not performing a specialized job or unique task at the Venetian on November 4, 2016.
16 Instead, as a Brand Vegas kiosk employee selling tickets to the public, Plaintiff was engaged in the 17 exact kind of work performed by many other Venetian employees working at both the Venetian box
18 office and at its Concierge Desk who, like Plaintiff, not only sold tickets to Venetian events, but also 19 sold tickets as a broker to non-Venetian events. Indeed, Plaintiff and Venetian employees were so
20 aligned in their respective tasks and responsibilities that they were actually competing for the same
21 guests on Venetian property to sell tickets to events. Accordingly, should the Court find against 22 Venetian on the issue of the contractual connection described above, Venetian would qualify as a
23 statutory employer under the Meers test and deemed immune from suit under NRS 616B.612, as 24 Plaintiff's work was not specialized or unique in any way as contemplated under NRS 616B.603(1).
25 To the contrary, she was performing the exact same work accomplished by Venetian employees. In fact, Plaintiff's work was so similar to that of Venetian employees that she was actually in competition with them to sell tickets not only to Venetian events, but also events, shows and attractions throughout the Las Vegas area. As such, under that separate analysis, Plaintiff is also precluded from recovery for damages against Venetian in a civil action.
26
28

II.

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL A. ROYAL, ESQ. PURSUANT TO NRS 53.045

[illegible]

MICHAEL A. ROYAL, ESQ., being first duly sworn, under oath deposes and states:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada and I am counsel for Defendants in connection with the above-captioned matter. I have personal knowledge of the following facts and if called upon could competently testify to such facts.

2. Venetian entered into series of agreements with Brand Vegas to facilitate the sale of tickets to Venetian shows and events occurring on Venetian property. (See Exhibit A, Venetian/Brand Vegas Ticket Broker Agreements with Invoices (VEN 135-268).)

3. Each Ticket Broker Agreement was linked to an agreement between Venetian and the respective entertainment company. (See Exhibit T, Addendum to Affidavit of Charry Kennedy, dated July 5, 2019 (VEN 1396 - VEN 1398, with attached Exhibits VEN 1123 - VEN 1126 (November 28, 2018 affidavit), and VEN 1190 - VEN 1391 (Venetian Entertainment Agreements).)

4. Brand Vegas operated kiosk spaces in three areas of the Grand Canal Shops, located above the Venetian casino area. (See Exhibit E, Affidavit of Edward DiRocco (02.20.19); Exhibit K, Deposition of Ed DiRocco (taken May 14, 2019) at 14, ln 1-20; see also Exhibit H, Deposition of Joyce Sekera (taken March 14, 2019), at 207-12, deposition Exhibit EE.)

1 5. Plaintiff was employed by Brand Vegas to operate one of its three kiosks, from on or 2 about December 28, 2015 through November 4, 2016. (See Exhibit G, Plaintiff, Joyce Sekera's,
3 Answers to Defendant Venetian Casino Resort, LLC's First Set of Interrogatories (08.27.18) at 2,
4 Response No. 1; see also Exhibit E at para 17.)

5 6. Plaintiff's work with Brand Vegas required her to park on Venetian property, adhere 6 to Venetian's parking policies, and to other policies surrounding employees of tenants and those 7 working in the Grand Canal Shops. (See e.g., Exhibit C, Las Vegas Sands Corp. Supplier Code of 8 Conduct; Exhibit F, Venetian Parking Policy.)

9 7. Edward DiRocco, CEO and President of Brand Vegas, Charry Kennedy, Venetian
10 Director of Ticketing Services & Box Office, and Anna Hersel, Venetian Director of Concierge
11 confirmed that services provided by Brand Vegas kiosk employees and those of Venetian box office
12 and concierge employees are similar in the following ways:
13

- 14 a. They provide information to guests about Venetian shows and events;
15 b. They accept payment to secure seats at Venetian shows and events;
16 c. Input guest information related to the ticket purchase; and 17 d. Provide documentation confirming the ticket purchase so guests may 18 gain entry into the Venetian event or show desired. (See Exhibits D, E, T and U.)
19

20 8. Actual tickets for Venetian events and shows were not provided to guests directly by 21 Brand Vegas kiosk employees. Guests purchasing from kiosks received vouchers and presented them
22 to the Venetian box office to exchange for tickets upon showing proper identification. (See id.)
23

24 9. Brand Vegas kiosk employees do not perform any kind of specialized work not usually 25 accomplished by Venetian box office employees. (See id.)

26 10. In or about April 2016, Venetian employees began selling tickets to a non-Venetian
27 attraction located adjacent to the Venetian property, Madame Tussauds Wax Museum - Las Vegas, 28

1 pursuant to a separate ticket broker agreement for which they received commissions. (See Exhibit T
2 at VEN 1397-VEN 1398, VEN 1375 - VEN 1391.) Plaintiff was also selling tickets for Madam
3 Tussauds in 2016. (See Exhibit B, BV 012-47.)

4 11. Prior to and throughout 2016, Venetian Concierge Desk employees not only sold tickets
5 for Venetian events, shows and attractions to guests, but also used a ticket brokering software service
6 provided by Entertainment Benefit Group (EBG), which allowed Venetian employees to sell tickets
7 for events throughout the Las Vegas area. (See Exhibit U, Affidavit of Anna Hersel, dated July 5, 8 2019.)

10 12. Plaintiff testified that she daily took occasional breaks from her Brand Vegas kiosk and 11 went to the Venetian casino area to purchase food and beverage items and use the restroom.
12 (See Exhibit G at 2, No. 4; Exhibit J at 86, ln 19-25; 87, ln 1-5; 88, ln 10-14.)

13 13. Plaintiff was injured in the course of her employment for Brand Vegas while walking
14 on the Venetian casino floor has she had done on hundreds of occasions. (See Exhibit E at 5, Para 24.)

16 14. Plaintiff made a claim for workers compensation and continues to receive benefits
17 associated with that claim. (See id.)

18 15. I declare that the exhibits identified in Defendant's Motion For Summary Judgment
19 Pursuant to NRCP 56(c) Based on Statutory Immunity Under the Nevada Industrial Insurance Act, as 20 set forth in the table below, are true and correct copies of documents produced in this matter pursuant

7 STATEMENT OF FACTS

8 Venetian began entering into Ticket Broker Agreements with Brand Vegas prior to December
9 2015. (See Exhibit A at VEN 135-46. See also Exhibit D, Affidavit of Charry Kennedy (11.18.18);
10 Exhibit E, Affidavit of Edward DiRocco (02.20.19).)¹ Each Ticket Broker Agreement was executed
11 after Venetian had entered into a contract with an entertainer and/or entertainment company securing 12 the event or show to occur on Venetian property. (See Exhibit T, Addendum to Affidavit of Charry
13 Kennedy (07.05.19).) Pursuant to each Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement, Brand Vegas was expected 14 to sell tickets to Venetian events in exchange for compensation. (See Exhibit A at VEN 135, 15 preamble.) Per the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement, Venetian was to provide Brand Vegas with 16 seats for patrons to attend Venetian shows and events, Brand Vegas was to sell tickets through its 17 efforts, and Venetian was to then release the seats to Brand Vegas customers. (See Exhibit A at VEN
18 136, para. 1. See also, generally, Exhibits D and E.) As part of the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement, 19 Brand Vegas stipulated to be solely responsible for the acts of its employees and/or agents while in 20 furtherance of its obligations under the agreement. (See id. at VEN 139, para 17, 19.)

26 ¹Exhibits A and B referenced in the Charry Kennedy affidavit are identical to Exhibits A and 27 B of this motion and are not attached a second time to the affidavit in an effort to avoid redundancy
28 and reduce the number of pages accompanying this motion. The same is true with Exhibits A, B and C of the Edward DiRocco affidavit, all of which refer to Exhibits A, B and C of the subject motion in the order referenced.

1 Venetian and Brand Vegas entered into separate agreements related to shows on Venetian
2 property. (See Exhibit A at VEN 147-268. See also Exhibits C, D and T.) These Venetian/Brand
3 Vegas Agreements related to the following events (in chronological order):

- 4 1. Lipshtick (05.22.14) (see Exhibit A at VEN 135-46)
- 5 2. R5 (12.10.15) (see id. at VEN 147-58)
- 6 3. Carly Rae Jepsen (12.21.15) (see id. at VEN 159-67)

- 11 8. Puppet Up - Uncensored (07.12.16) (id. at VEN 251-68)

12 (See also Exhibit D at para 4-6; Exhibit E at para 3-16.) Guests could purchase tickets to these shows
13 from Brand Vegas kiosks, the Venetian box office and concierge. (See Exhibits D, E, T and U.)

14 Plaintiff began her employment with Brand Vegas on or about December 28, 2015. (See 15 Exhibit G, Plaintiff, Joyce Sekera's, Answers to Defendant Venetian Casino Resort, LLC's First Set
16 of Interrogatories (08.27.18) at 2, Response No. 1; see also Exhibit E at para 17.) Plaintiff was 17 assigned to work at a Brand Vegas kiosk located in the Grand Canal Shops, within the same structure
18 as Venetian, one floor above the Venetian casino. (See Exhibit E at para 17; see also Exhibit L, 19 Deposition of Ed DiRocco (taken May 14, 2019) at 14, ln 1-20.)

25 ²Sales under the Ticket Broker Agreement for Human Nature continued through November
26 2016 per invoices at VEN 201-02.

27 ³Sales under the Ticket Broker Agreement for Baz Star Crossed Love continued through 28 November 2016 per invoices at VEN 239-40.

⁴Sales under the Ticket Broker Agreement for Clint Holmes continued into December 2016.

1 Plaintiff's employment duties with Brand Vegas included her efforts to further the interests of
2 Brand Vegas and Venetian pursuant to the Ticket Broker Agreement. (See Exhibit E at para 20.)
3 Plaintiff specifically testified as follows regarding her obligation to represent Venetian as a Brand
4 Vegas kiosk employee:

5 Q. . . . when you were working for Brand Vegas, if people come up to you and ask
6 you questions related to Venetian events and so forth, that you would provide 7 the information with a smile?

8 A. Definitely. Oh, yes.

9 Q. And when you were on Venetian property or Grand Canal Shoppes, you had --
10 wasn't there some kind of a code of conduct that you --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What was the code of conduct that -- your understanding about it?

13 A. Just be pleasant, smile a lot, and make sure you give the right information
14 for the Venetian.

15 Q. Okay. Because it's important to your employer to represent the Venetian 16 appropriately?

17 A. That's correct.

18 (See Exhibit J, Transcript of Joyce Sekera Deposition (03.14.19) at 213, ln 2-17. Emphasis added.)

19 During her employment with Brand Vegas in 2016, Plaintiff sold tickets to Venetian shows and 20 events consistent with her responsibility associated with the Ticket Broker Agreement. (See Exhibit
21 C at para 19-20.)⁵ While on Venetian property, Plaintiff was expected to follow the Code of Conduct 22 expected by Venetian of contracted workers. (See id. at para 20-23. See also Exhibit D at Para 10-13;
23 Exhibit E at Para 21-23.)

24 Plaintiff described the process of engaging guests interested in seeing Las Vegas shows in part
25 as follows:

26 Q. Do you remember -- can you give us an idea of some of the shows you sold 27 tickets to at the Venetian?

28 ⁵This number is taken from a review of Plaintiff's sales per the report attached to Exhibit C as Exhibit B, identified as BV 012-47. Mr. DiRocco testified in deposition on May 14, 2019 that information provided on Plaintiff's sales for 2015-16 is not complete, due to a significant loss of electronic data following a transfer to a new system after 2016. (See Exhibit L, Transcript of Ed DiRocco Deposition (05.14.19) at 25, ln 1-18; 40-41.)

1 A. Phantom of the Opera, when it was there. You'd almost have to name them and
2 I'd say yes or no.
3 Q. Human Nature?
4 A. Oh, definitely Human Nature. Yes.
5 Q. There's a puppet one, Puppet Up or something?
6 A. Yeah.
7 Q. I'm trying to think of others. But whatever the events were at the Venetian, so 8 somebody says, "We're kind of looking to see a show. Do you have any 9 recommendations?" would people do that sometimes?
10 A. Oh, definitely. We'd recommend the Venetian, like the others also.
11 Q. Right. And so you would say, "Well, Phantom of the Opera is very popular.
12 That happens to be on property at the Venetian"; right?
13 A. Right.
14 Q. So whatever it is, when you would -- let's say somebody says, "Okay. I'd like 15 some tickets for Phantom of the Opera," what's the next thing that you do?
16 What would you do? Could you sell them tickets?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Okay. So they say, "We want two tickets," what's the next thing that you do 19 when you were employed as a kiosk worker for Brand Vegas?
20 A. Tell them the price.
21 Q. Okay. "So I'd like two tickets and I'd like to get them -- four seats."
22 A. Show them the seating chart.
23 Q. So you had a seating chart and they could pick their seats?
24 A. Yes. Well, providing they're still available, yes.
25 Q. Okay. How do you know if they're still available?
26 A. There's certain ones that are blocked off so you can't.
27 Q. I see. Did you have communication with the Venetian box office so you 28 knew?
29 A. Yes. We can call them and ask them.
30 Q. If something was sold?
31 A. Yes. Or if they should go downstairs where they could sell and we couldn't.
32 We had a section. We didn't have all the seats.
33 Q. I see. Okay. So you had a certain section of the theater allotted to Brand
34 Vegas where you could sell tickets?
35 A. Correct.
36 Q. And if people wanted to spend more money and wanted something nicer, they 37 had to go to the box office?
38 A. Correct. We would send them to them.
39 Q. Okay. So let's say they want to buy tickets for Phantom of the Opera and you 40 take the money, I guess credit card or something you can do that?
41 A. Correct, or cash.
42 Q. Whatever you do, you take their money. What do you give them next? Do you
43 have the actual tickets?
44 A. Yes.
45 Q. Okay.
46 A. But the actual voucher. They have to go down and change it downstairs
47 sometimes. It depends on the show.
48 Q. Okay. So you would give them -- so you take the money --

1 A. They get a -- yes.
2 Q. You take the money and then you give them -- let's say they buy two tickets. You
3 give them a voucher; correct?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. Q. Then --
6 A. Some were tickets, but it depends on the show.
7 Q. Okay. Let's stay with the voucher so I can follow that. You give them the voucher, then
8 what do they have to do with the voucher? Can they go to the theater or how do they 9 get the tickets?
10 A. Depending on the show whether they -- if it was, like, the Blue Man Group that 11 was there, they'd have to go downstairs to their desk and change it for an 12 actual ticket.
13 Q. Okay. And the ticket would be available based upon what they purchased from 14 the kiosk; correct? In other words, if they say, "I want seats A and B in Row 15 21" --
16 A. Right.

17 (See Exhibit J at 62, ln 4-25; 63, ln 1-25; 64, ln 1-25; 65, ln 1-19. Emphasis added.)

18 In summary, Plaintiff would engage guests walking by her kiosk about their interest in a 19 Venetian show, would offer a service to provide information and sell vouchers which had to be 20 redeemed at the Venetian box office by the purchasing guests. (See id. See also id. at 66, ln 1-15.)
21 Plaintiff would communicate with the Venetian box office for guests about shows when circumstances
22 so required. (See id. at 63, ln 20-22.) Plaintiff likewise sold tickets to non-Venetian events.
23 (See Exhibits B and E.) Venetian employees likewise sold thousands of tickets to shows, events and 24 attractions to guests in 2016 for non-Venetian events, shows and attractions in direct competition with 25 Brand Vegas. (See id.; see also Exhibits T and U.)

26 Plaintiff testified that Venetian required her and other to wear badges for identification. (See 27 id. at 71, ln 11-14 ("[Venetian] wanted all employees that come into the building to have badges, so 28 we had to have badges" which were intended to show "[t]hat we worked there, employee badges").)
29 Plaintiff was parked on the eighth floor of the parking garage on the date of the incident, which is the 30 employee level. (See Exhibit F, Venetian Parking policy; Exhibit I, Venetian Security Report -
31 Narrative (11.04.16) (VEN 008-09); Exhibit J at 140, ln 7-25; 106, ln 1.)

1 On November 4, 2016, at around 12:30 pm, Plaintiff left her Brand Vegas kiosk in the Grand
2 Canal Shops to use a restroom located on the Venetian casino floor, per her usual daily routine.
3 (See Exhibit G at 2, Response No. 4.; Exhibit I.) Plaintiff fell just outside the Venetian restroom and
4 fell at approximately 12:37 pm. (See Exhibit G at 3, Response No. 6; Exhibit I.) Plaintiff was in the 5 course and scope of her employment with Brand Vegas at the time of the subject incident, which
6 employment required Plaintiff to come upon Venetian's property for each shift. (See Exhibit H,
7 Plaintiff, Joyce Sekera's, Responses to Defendant Venetian Casino Resort, LLC's First Set of Request
8 for Admissions, (08.23.18) at 3, Request Nos. 5-7, 11-12; Exhibit J, Transcript of Joyce Sekera
9 Deposition (taken 03.14.19) at 28, ln 1-12).

11 In addition to the above, Plaintiff further testified in deposition as follows in pertinent part:

12 1. Brand Vegas subcontracted half a kiosk booth within the Grand Canal Shops at the 13 Venetian to sell show tickets (id. at 28, ln 3-5);

14 2. When speaking with guests of the property in the course of her employment for Brand 15 Vegas, Plaintiff stated: "We just told them about Venetian shows, and then the rest of the shows on the 16 Strip, we had a book with all of them" (see id. at 60, ln 9-13);

17 3. Once guests would decide to purchase tickets to a Venetian show, Plaintiff would 18 provide guests with seating availability, pricing, etc., would call the Venetian box office on occasion 19 to verify ticket availability, and then accept money in exchange for a voucher, which the guests would
20 take to the Venetian box office to obtain actual tickets, and Plaintiff would be paid commission on the 21 sale (see id. at 63, ln 4-25; 64, ln 1-25; 65, ln 1-25; 66, ln 1-15; see also id. at 74, ln 24-25; 75, ln 1-4);

22 4. Plaintiff followed the same process to sell tickets as Venetian employees who were 23 likewise engaged in ticket brokering activities (see Exhibits D, T and U);

24 5. Plaintiff underwent a background check by Venetian investigations to obtain an 25 identification badge (see id. at 70, ln 11-19; 71, ln 3-19; 74, ln 2-19; 105, ln 20-25; 106, ln 1); and 26
27
28

6. Plaintiff understood that her employment with Brand Vegas required her to positively represent the Venetian to guests on property (see id. at 213, ln 2-17).

Mr. DiRocco testified that Plaintiff's work as a Brand Vegas kiosk employee was in furtherance of the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement, among other like agreements. (See Exhibit L at 41, ln 1; 42, ln 1-25; 43, ln 1; 44, ln 2-5.) Mr. DiRocco agreed that Brand Vegas is in the entertainment business to the extent that it promotes and sells tickets to shows for entities with whom it has contracted. (See id. at 68, ln 22-25; 69, ln 1-21; 70, ln 11-19.) Venetian is, in fact, engaged in the same kind of ticket brokering sales work as that engaged in by Plaintiff in 2016. (See Exhibits D, E, T and U.)

IV.

DISCUSSION

A. Summary Judgment is Appropriate Because The NIIA Is Plaintiff's Exclusive Remedy

Summary judgment must be rendered if the pleadings, discovery, disclosures, depositions, admissions and affidavits show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. (NRCP 56 (c). Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 732, 121 P.2d 1026 (2005) citing Matusushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 586, 106 S. Ct. 1348 (1986).) A material issue of fact is one that affects the outcome of the litigation and requires a trial to resolve the differing versions of the truth. (SEC v. Seaboard Corp., 677 F.2d 1301, 1306 (9th Cir. 1982).) Conclusory allegations that are unsupported by factual data cannot defeat a motion for summary judgment. (Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989).)

If the moving party presents evidence that, if left uncontroverted, would call for judgment as a matter of law at trial, then the respondent must show the existence of specific facts that create a genuine issue for trial. (Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 250 (1986). Cuzze v. Univ. & Cmty. College Sys., 123 Nev. 598, 602, 172 P.3d 131 (2007)citing Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 324-25, 106 S. Ct. 2548 (1986).)

1 In the context of summary judgment, the moving party "bears the initial burden of production
2 to show the absence of a genuine issue of material fact." (Cuzze, supra, 123 Nev. at 602.) If the
3 nonmoving party will bear the burden of persuasion at trial, as in the instant matter, the moving party
4 "may satisfy the burden of production by either (1) submitting evidence that negates an essential
5 element of the nonmoving party's claim, or (2) 'pointing out . . . the absence of evidence to support the 6 nonmoving party's case.'" (Id. at 602-03, citing Celotex, 477 U.S. at 325.) In opposition and to defeat 7 summary judgment, the nonmoving party must then "transcend the pleadings" and "introduce specific
8 facts that show a genuine issue of material fact" through admissible evidence. (Cuzze, supra, 123 Nev.
9 at 603.)

11 Here, the following facts are undisputed, as reviewed herein above:

- 12 1. Brand Vegas was operating kiosks adjacent to the Venetian property in part pursuant 13 to the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement on November 4, 2016 (see Exhibits A-F);
- 14 2. Brand Vegas employed Plaintiff on November 4, 2016 (see Exhibits E, G, H, I and J);
- 15 3. Plaintiff's employment responsibilities included selling tickets for events hosted by 16 Venetian occurring on its property (see id.);
- 17 4. Plaintiff regularly used Venetian property in furtherance of her employment with Brand 18 Vegas, including the restroom area where she fell on November 4, 2016 (see Exhibit G at 2, No. 4; 19 Exhibit G at 86, ln 19-25; 87, ln 1-5; 88, ln 10-14);
- 20 5. Plaintiff fell on November 4, 2016 in the course and scope of her employment with 21 Brand Vegas on Venetian property when the subject incident occurred (see Exhibits E, G, H, I, J and 22 L; see also Exhibit K, Plaintiff, Joyce Sekera's, Responses to Defendant Venetian Casino Resort, 23 LLC's First Set of Request for Production of Documents (08.27.18) at 6, Response No. 16);
24
25
26
27
28

1 6. Plaintiff made a claim for workers compensation, which was accepted, and has
2 continued to receive all benefits available to her under the NIIA (Exhibit E at Para. 24; Exhibit G, No.
3 30; Exhibit K at 6, Response No. 16);

4 7. Plaintiff's work for Brand Vegas in selling tickets for Venetian shows and events is the 5 kind of work normally performed by Venetian employees at its box office and concierge locations
6 (see generally Exhibits D, E, J, K, T and U); and

7 8. Representing Venetian's interests and selling tickets to its shows and events was a 8 subcontracted fraction of the work performed by Plaintiff for Brand Vegas. (See Exhibit Q, Table of 9 Relationships.)

10
11 B. NIIA: Generally

12 Chapter 616B.612(1), Nevada Revised Statutes, provides that the immunity from third-party 13 liability afforded to employers for work related injuries may be expanded to include others who 14 "provide and secure compensation" to protect workers from such occurrences "arising out of and 15 in the course of the employment." Accordingly, statutory employers are exempt from "other liability
16 for recovery of damages or other compensation for such personal injury." (NRS 616B.612(3).) The 17 rights and remedies under the NIIA are exclusive. (NRS 616A.020(1).) District courts are without
18 jurisdiction to entertain common law suits between co-employees arising out of injuries suffered
19 during the course and scope of the employment. (Howard v. District Court, 98 Nev. 87, 640 P.2d 1320
20 (Nev. 1982).) This protection has been recognized to include employees of separate subcontractors 21 working on the same job in accordance to a main contract. (See Stolte, Inc. v. District Court, 89 Nev.
22 257, 259, 510 P.2d 870, 871 (1973).)

23 The NIIA is "uniquely different" from industrial insurance acts of other states in that sub-24 contractors and independent contractors are given "employee" status. (Holand v. Westinghouse
25 Electric Corporation, 97 Nev. 268, 628 P.2d 1123, 1125 (Nev. 1981); see also Leslie v. J.A. Tiberti
26
27
28

1 Constru. Co., 99 Nev. 494, 497, 664 P.2d 963 (1983); Whitley v. Jake's Crane & Rigging, Inc., 95 Nev.
2 819, 603 P.2d 689 (1979).) This broad protective view of coverage is intended to protect employees
3 of subcontractors against the potential irresponsible acts of their immediate employers by making the 4 principal contractor or employer liable as if he had directly employed every workman on the job. (See
5 Howard, supra, at 89, 640 P.2d at 1321; Antonini v. Hanna Indus., 94 Nev. 12, 15, 573 P.2d 1184,
6 1186 (1978), overruled in part by Tucker and Clark v. Action, 113 Nev. 1349, 951 P.2d 1027 (1997).)

8 C. Venetian is a Statutory Employer as a Party to the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement
9 with Brand Vegas

10 Plaintiff was engaged in work pursuant to the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement at the time the 11 incident occurred. She was, in fact, injured while performing work that was "obviously a 12 subcontracted fraction of a main contract." (See Meers v. Haughton Elevator, 101 Nev. 283, 286, 701
13 P.2d 1006, 1007 (1985).)

14 In See Meers v. Haughton Elevator, 101 Nev. 283, 701 P.2d 1006 (1985), the Nevada Supreme
15 Court adopted the "normal work test" to evaluate whether a third party defendant would qualify as a
16 statutory employer (discussed further herein below). (See id.) There, plaintiff Meers was employed
17 by Central Telephone Company and sustained a work injury when the elevator in which she was riding
18 on her work premises malfunctioned. After filing for workers compensation, Meers filed a third-party
19 lawsuit against Haughton Elevator Company, which had a contract with her employer to maintain the 20 elevator at her work premises. Haughton asserted that it was immune from suit as a statutory 21 employee. It was from these factual circumstances that the Nevada Supreme Court adopted the 22 "normal work" test to evaluate matters related to subcontracted activities. The court concluded that 23 since the specialized kind of maintenance for the elevator was not part of the work performed by 24 Centel's normal business, that Haughton was not a statutory employer and, therefore, was subject to 25 third-party liability.
26
27
28

1 Before applying the “normal work test,” reviewed above in Meers, the Court first looked to
2 whether the on the job injury occurred as part of a “subcontracted fraction of a main contract.” (See
3 id.) Where such a contract setting forth the working business relationship between the parties is 4 established, and an on the job injury occurs in furtherance thereof, the contracting parties are all
5 entitled to statutory immunity. Venetian has presented documents and evidence through the course
6 of discovery to resolve all questions in this regard.

8 There are no reasonable disputes as to the following key facts:

9 1. Each Ticket Brokering Agreement was derived from an entertainment agreement for 10 each respective show or event (see Exhibits A and T), the latter of which constitute a “main contract”;

11 2. Plaintiff was working pursuant to the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement at the time the 12 subject incident occurred;

13 3. The Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement provided that Brand Vegas, through its 14 employees, would perform work in compliance with Venetian’s Code of Conduct;

15 4. Plaintiff was in the course and scope of her employment in furtherance of the “main 16 contract” at the time of the subject incident;

17 5. Plaintiff was engaged in work designed to benefit both Brand Vegas, her employer, and 18 Venetian under Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement at the time of the incident;

19 6. Venetian and Brand Vegas contemplated under the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement
20 that any work injuries would be resolved exclusively through Brand Vegas and workers compensation,
21 with Brand Vegas taking on sole liability for the acts of its employees occurring on the job
22 (see Exhibit A at VEN 139, para 17 and 19);

23 7. Venetian guests could purchase tickets to Venetian shows and events from Venetian
24 box office and/or Venetian Concierge Desk employees as well as Brand Vegas employees; and 25
26
27
28

1 8. Venetian guests could purchase tickets to non-Venetian shows, events and attractions
2 via the Venetian box office and/or Venetian Concierge Desk as well as Brand Vegas kiosks.

3 The significance of a written contract governing Plaintiff's work here, where she was allowed
4 by Venetian to come upon its property daily to sell tickets to shows, events and attractions, is that it
5 stands "in the shoes" of Brand Vegas. (See Rio Hotel & Casino, Inc. v. Harris, 117 Nev. 482, 493,
6 25 P.3d 206, 213 (2001).) Defendants recognize that the Harris case relates to an NRS 624
7 construction matter; however, its given rationale is applicable by analogy here, where Defendants hired
8 a duly licensed company to perform sales of Venetian events, which company was required to provide
9 workers compensation and be fully responsible for the acts of its employees. (See Harris at 494-95, 10 25 P.3d at 214-15. See also Exhibit A at VEN 139, para 17, 19.) There is no reasonable dispute that 11 Plaintiff was performing work under the "main contract" between Venetian and its entertaining entity
12 as a Brand Vegas employee. The only remaining question is whether Venetian is entitled to the same
13 kind of landowner protection afforded by the Court in Harris. (See also Tucker, supra.)

14 In Richards v. Republic Silver State Disposal, Inc., 148 P.3d 684, 689 (Nev. 2006), the Nevada
15 Supreme Court held that an employee injured while working on a swamp cooler was precluded from 16 suing the landowner because his employer was duly licensed under NRS 624. Again, Defendants refer 17 to this by analogy, where the Court held that the owner, having made a conscious decision to ensure 18 that a licensed contractor was retained for the work, thereby ensuring that all workers were covered 19 by worker's compensation, was therefore entitled to immunity along with the employer/contractor.

20 Here, Brand Vegas was licensed to do business in Clark County, Nevada, and Venetian required
21 that Brand Vegas and its employees conduct themselves in accordance with Venetian's Code of 22 Conduct. Both Venetian and Brand Vegas, which provided workers compensation for its employees
23 as required by Venetian, took all reasonably necessary steps to ensure that Brand Vegas employees
24 injured in the course of employment at the Venetian would be covered for work related injuries.

1 Plaintiff was injured while performing work which was “a subcontracted fraction of a main
2 contract.” Thus, under Meers, she cannot recover against Defendants. Plaintiff has received all
3 benefits to which she is entitled through her workers compensation insurer. Accordingly, the 4 Complaint should therefore be dismissed, as Venetian is immune from suit under the NIIA.

5 D. A Factually Similar Case Was Recently Ruled Upon by Judge Loehrer, and Affirmed by 6 the Nevada Supreme Court in an Order Affirming in Part and Remanding in Part 7 (unpublished).

8 While Venetian recognizes that decisions of other district judges on similar issues, and 9 unpublished Nevada Supreme Court decisions have no binding effect on Nevada law, the following 10 may be instructive as the Court considers the present set of facts. In Roberta Brooks-Handler v.
11 Venetian Casino Resort, LLC, et. al, Case No. A4677123, Eighth Judicial District Court, State of 12 Nevada, Judge Sally Loehrer considered a motion to dismiss in a case with the following facts. There,
13 Venetian entered into a contract with Ramada Franchise Systems, Inc. (“Ramada”), for the 2001
14 Ramada/Rina Conference, to be held in Venetian Convention Hall D in May 2001. Pursuant to the 15 contract, Ramada was to engage a private security company. The plaintiff in that matter was injured
16 in the course and scope of her employment for the security company. She sued Venetian, Ramada, and 17 all other parties working in furtherance of the Venetian/Ramada contract.
18

19 In that litigation, Judge Loehrer expressly recognized that all parties performing work in 20 furtherance with the “main contract” (Venetian/Ramada contract) were immune from suit under the 21 NIIA. (See Exhibit M, Order (09.04.03.)) She affirmed her decision on reconsideration. (See Exhibit
22 N, Order (10.07.03.))
23

24 On appeal, in an unpublished opinion, the Nevada Supreme Court agreed with the district
25 judge’s legal analysis, and dismissed all parties where evidence in the record demonstrated a direct 26 connection to the Venetian/Ramada contract. (See Exhibit O, Order Affirming in Part, Reversing in 27 Part and Remanding (06.15.05.)) The higher court concluded: “The district court properly dismissed
28

1 Brooks-Handler's claims against SOA, Ramada and Venetian under the NILA." (Id. at 2.) It further
2 stated: "Here, contractual relationships exist between Ramada, Venetian, and SOA. The main
3 contract for the convention was between Ramada and Venetian." (Id. at 5, emphasis added.) The 4 only issue that remained to be resolved in the aforementioned case was whether the other subcontractor
5 defendants could demonstrate that their work arose from the "main contract." (Id. at 5-6.)

7 The above fact scenario in the Brooks-Handler matter is offered to emphasize that all Venetian
8 did, as a property owner, was enter into a contract with an outside company to assist in operating a
9 convention. Similarly, here, Venetian entered into contract with Brand Vegas to assist in the operation
10 of an entertainment business to benefit both Brand Vegas and Venetian. (See Exhibits A-F.) This 11 unpublished decision further demonstrates that, in the instant matter, Nevada law does not only protect 12 the Plaintiff's direct employer: Brand Vegas from third party liability, but also the party with whom 13 it contracted: Venetian. (Compare, Willison v. Texaco Ref. & Mktg., 109 Nev. 141, 848 P.2d 1062
14 (1993), motion for summary judgment on statutory immunity under the NIIA failed only because 15 "Texaco failed to factually establish a subcontractor/contractor relationship with Petroman under the 16 test in Meers".)

17
18 In a more recent matter, Gogolos v. Venetian Casino Resort, LLC et al, case no A691678,
19 Judge Stefany Miley granted summary judgment in a circumstance where the plaintiff was injured 20 while attending a convention as an HP employee. (See Exhibit P, Findings of Fact, Conclusions of 21 Law, and Order Granting Summary Judgment (filed 03.17.15).) There, as in the instant matter, the 22 contract was between Venetian and the plaintiff's employer. (See id.) Judge Miley found that both
23 Venetian and HP were entitled to immunity under the NIIA. (Id.)

24
25 E. Alternatively, Venetian is a Statutory Employer Under The "Normal Work Test"

26 Although Venetian contends that Plaintiff's employment by Brand Vegas under the 27 Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement entirely resolves the issue here, thereby rendering it immune from 28

1 liability here as a statutory employer, it will nevertheless alternatively address the “normal work test”
2 first articulated in Meers, supra and later codified in NRS 616B.603 as an alternative argument.

3 Under the “normal work test,” a person who enters into a contract with an independent
4 enterprise in a different line of work, to perform work not normally carried out by the person's own
5 employees, is not considered a statutory employer. As articulated in Meers:

7 The test (except in cases where the work is obviously a subcontracted fraction of a 8 main contract) is whether that indispensable activity is, in that business, normally 9 carried on through employees rather than independent contractors.

10 (Meers, supra at 286, 701 P.2d at 1007, emphasis added.) As later codified in 616B.603(1), there are 11 two prongs to this analysis: 1) Brand Vegas is an “independent enterprise”, and 2) Brand Vegas “is 12 not in the same is not in the same trade, business, profession or occupation as” Venetian. (Emphasis
13 added.)

14 In Meers, the court looked to whether the independent enterprise was performing a specialized 15 kind of work unique to the employer. Here, Brand Vegas employees were engaged in the exact same
16 work as Venetian employees within the box office and concierge areas of Venetian’s business
17 operation. (See Exhibits D, E, T and U.)

18 Evidence presented to the Court establishes the following:

19 1. Venetian and Brand Vegas are both in the business of marketing and selling tickets for 20 Venetian and non-Venetian shows, events and attractions (see id.);

21 2. Venetian and Brand Vegas both engage employees to engage with potential customers
22 for the purpose of providing information about Venetian events and selling tickets (see id.);

23 3. The process of selling tickets followed by Venetian employees and Brand Vegas kiosk
24 employees are substantially similar (if not identical), consisting of welcoming guests, offering
25 information about Venetian events and shows, responding to customer questions and requests, 26 checking resources about ticket availability, confirming show ticket availability, providing 27

1 confirmation of tickets, accepting payment for tickets, and providing vouchers/tickets (see id.; see also
2 Exhibit J at 63, ln 4-25; 64, ln 1-25; 65, ln 1-25; 66, ln 1-15; see also id. at 74, ln 24-25; 75, ln 1-4;
3 Exhibits D, E, T and U);

4 4. Plaintiff, in her capacity as a Brand Vegas employee selling tickets for Venetian events,
5 would communicate with the Venetian box office to coordinate her sales efforts (see id.); and

6 5. Venetian and Brand Vegas are both in the entertainment and ticket sales/brokering
7 business for the same events within the Las Vegas area (see Exhibit L at 68, ln 22-25; 69, ln 1-21; 70, 8 ln 11-19; see also Exhibit D, E, T and U).

10 It is clear from the evidence that Venetian and Brand Vegas were engaged in a common 11 entertainment business enterprise memorialized by an executed written contract for a joint purpose of 12 selling tickets to guests for Venetian events. Indeed, they were direct competitors for selling tickets
13 to guests not only for Venetian shows, but also for shows and events occurring off Venetian property.
14 (See Exhibits D, E, T and U.) They are clearly “in the same trade, business, profession or occupation”
15 as contemplated by NRS 616B603(1). Plaintiff’s work selling tickets to Venetian events and shows
16 was nearly identical to that of Venetian box office employees. (See id.)

17
18 In Hays Home Delivery, Inc., vs. EICON, 117 Nev. 678, 680, 31 P.3d 367, 368 (2001), the 19 court held that an employee injured while engaged in work “normally carried on by through an 20 employee rather than an independent contractor” was a statutory employee for purposes of the NIIA.
21 There, Hays Home Delivery, Inc., was “a national logistics management company incorporated in
22 Delaware and qualified to do business in Nevada,” providing “appliance, electronics and furniture
23 delivery services nationwide for retailers like Montgomery Wards, Sears and Circuit City.” (Id.) In 24 Hays, retailers would enter into contracts with Hays Home Delivery, Inc., to transport merchandise
25 from retail stores and warehouses to customers. (Id.) Hays, in turn, would then subcontract out the 26 delivery to local “owner-operators.” (Id.) Everett Green was an “owner operator” under contract
27
28

1 with Hays to deliver goods. The contract expressly provided that Green was an independent contractor
2 and not an employee of Hays, and that Green was responsible to acquire all moving equipment,
3 insurances, licenses, etc. (Id.) Green subsequently filed a claim against Hays for personal injuries
4 occurring in the course and scope of his employment. (Id.) The court held that Green was a statutory
5 employee of Hays (noting that NRS 616A.210(1) provides that independent contractors of the principal 6 contractor are deemed to be employees for purposes of workers compensation), because they are in the 7 “same trade, occupation or profession.”⁶ (Id. at 682-83, 31 P.3d at 370.) The court noted the 8 following:

10 Both Green and Hays were in the "trade" of delivering merchandise from retailers to 11 end-customers. Although Hays attempts to distinguish its business from Green's by 12 characterizing Hays's business as administering the deliveries, and Green's business
13 as delivering the merchandise, this distinction is unpersuasive. Even though Green
14 arguably delivered the merchandise, while Hays arguably only acted as an 15 administrator and oversaw the deliveries, both Green and Hays are in the same trade of delivering merchandise from retailers to end-customers. Therefore, notwithstanding any minimal distinction between Green's and Hays's functions, both are in the same trade of delivering merchandise.

16 (Id. at 684, 31 P.3d at 371, emphasis added.) (See also, D & D Tire, Inc., v. Ouellette, 352 P.3d 32, 17 36-37 (Nev. 2015) (the “normal work test” analysis is based upon an overall review of the working 18 relationships existing before and after an incident, as opposed to what was occurring at the exact time
19 an incident occurs).)

20 The Hays decision is on point with the present facts. Here, Venetian, Brand Vegas and Plaintiff
21 were in the same trade of marketing and selling tickets to Venetian shows and events; therefore, they
22 are all in the “same trade, business, profession or occupation” as contemplated under Meers and NRS
23 616B.603(1). As noted above, Venetian employs staff in its box office who perform the same
24 substantive duties as employees of Brand Vegas when it comes to the selling of tickets to Venetian
25

27 ⁶Chapter 616A.210(1) reads generally as follows: “subcontractors, independent contractors and 28 the employees of either shall be deemed to be employees of the principle principal contractor for the purposes of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS.”

1 events and shows. There is no unique skill involved in Plaintiff's job as a kiosk employee for Brand
2 Vegas beyond basic customer service training provided to Venetian box office employees.
3 (See Exhibits D, E, J, T and U.)

4 In Quick v. Freeman Decorating Co., 55 Fed. Appx. 450, 2003 U.S. App. LEXIS 1525, the 5 Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals addressed a similar factual circumstance in a case decided by the 6 United States District Court for the District of Nevada, Case No. CV-99-01734-PMP.⁷ There,
7 Defendant Freeman Decorating contracted with Glasgow to be a service provider for a trade show.
8 Renaissance engaged Freeman to provide accessible storage for its equipment until disassembly.
9 Plaintiff was injured while working on a Renaissance ladder that collapsed. Plaintiff filed for and 10 received workers compensation benefits, then filed against Freeman for third-party liability. The 11 federal court recognized that Renaissance was a principal contractor in relation to Freeman because 12 it contracted and paid for the services of Freeman, an independent contractor. The court applied NRS
13 616B.603(1) to the facts and determined that Freeman and Renaissance "were both involved in the 14 same activities of assembling and disassembling trade show exhibit booths." (See id. at 452-53, 2003
15 U.S. App. LEXIS at *6-7.) In fact, the court noted that Freeman and Renaissance were competitors
16 "in providing labor to erect and tear down booths." (See id.) When evaluating the issue of "same
17 trade" under the Meers test, the Ninth Circuit wrote: "we must ask whether the 'indispensable activity
18 [of Freeman] is, in that business, normally carried on through employees rather than independent
19 contractors." (See id. at 453, 2003 U.S. App LEXIS at *7, citations omitted.) The Ninth Circuit held
20 as follows:
21
22
23

24 The District Court properly found that Renaissance and Freeman were both involved
25 in the same activities of assembling and disassembling trade show exhibit booths. Both 26 entities provided these services at the APAA show. Renaissance competes with 27 Freeman in providing labor to erect and tear down booths. Given the fact that Quick,
28 a Renaissance employee, was actually injured while disassembling the NASCAR exhibit

⁷A true and correct copy of this decision is attached hereto as Exhibit R.

1 booth, Renaissance clearly furnished these services through its employees and not
2 independent contractors.

3 Quick challenges the District Court's finding by pointing to Freeman's additional 4 duties as the APAA show's official service provider and asserting that the erection and 5 dismantling of each separate exhibit booth was essentially a unique activity. No case
6 under the NIIA suggests that a court must apply the "same trade" requirement so 7 rigorously as to distinguish between different exhibit booths and to consider as
8 dispositive the broader activities of Freeman. In Hays Home Delivery, Inc. v.
9 Employers Insurance Co. of Nevada, 31 P.3d 367 (Nev. 2001) (en banc) (per curiam),
10 the Nevada Supreme Court refused to draw such a technical distinction between the 11 administrative and supervisory tasks performed by a delivery company and an 12 independent driver's physical deliveries. Id. at 371.

13 Quick does present a more persuasive argument when he challenges the relevance of 14 the assembly and disassembly activities under these circumstances. He argues that,
15 because the only contractual relationship between Freeman and Renaissance 16 concerned the transportation and storage of equipment after assembly, a court should 17 only consider transportation and storage activities in the "same trade" analysis.

18 We need not resolve the broader questions raised by this argument given the facts of 19 this case. The action of transporting and storing equipment used to erect and take 20 down exhibit booths is closely related to the actual assembly and disassembly of these 21 booths. It would therefore be inappropriate to draw any clear distinction in these 22 circumstances. Cf. id. (refusing to distinguish between administrative tasks and actual 23 deliveries). Additionally, Freeman has still satisfied the "same trade" requirement
24 even if any inquiry were limited to a consideration of transportation and storage
25 activities. Like Freeman, Renaissance was involved in the transportation and 26 storage of the equipment, with its runners normally removing the equipment from the 27 show floor.

28 Because Renaissance and Freeman were in "the same trade, business, profession
29 or occupation," Freeman is immune as a statutory co-employee of Quick. Quick
30 advances a number of arguments against this conclusion. He asserts that the District
31 Court erred in failing to consider various factors under the "control" test. While the 32 issue of control may remain "one factor to be considered in resolving 'normal work'
33 issues," Tucker v. Action Equip. & Scaffold Co., 113 Nev. 1349, 951 P.2d 1027, 1032
34 (Nev. 1997), the District Court committed no reversible error in omitting an express
35 discussion of the control question given Freeman's clear satisfaction of the "normal 36 work" test. Quick further asserts that any finding of immunity would be contrary to 37 public policy because of the lack of an incentive on the part of Freeman, particularly 38 as Renaissance's competitor, to make Quick's workplace safe. Notwithstanding these 39 broader concerns, Freeman clearly constituted a co-employee of Quick under 40 Nevada's statutory scheme. A different result must be rejected as inconsistent with 41 section 616A.210 and the doctrine of co-employee immunity. (Id. at 453-54, 2003 U.S.
42 App. LEXIS at *7-*11, emphasis added.)

1 Keep in mind that Court here would only apply the analysis presented in Quick if it first
2 determines that the subject incident (where Plaintiff admits injury occurring in the course and scope
3 of her employment) did not occur as a subcontracted fraction of a main contract. In the Quick
4 analysis, it is noteworthy that the Court determined that Freeman and Renaissance were not only in the 5 same trade, but that they were actually competitors therein. The same is true with Venetian and Brand
6 Vegas. Both entities are in the business of entertainment, selling tickets to guests for the purpose of 7 making a profit. Brand Vegas did not contract exclusively with Venetian, but also contracted with 8 various other properties and entities, offering guests options to purchase tickets for events not only 9 within Venetian but elsewhere. (See Exhibits B, D, E, T and U.) Thus, Brand Vegas was not only in 10 the same trade of the Venetian box office and Concierge employees, but it was also a direct competitor.

11
12 In Potter v. Wedgewood Group, Case No. 3:08-CV-00272-LRH-VPC, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS
13 95367, the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, applying Nevada law, granted a
14 motion for summary judgment on the issue of statutory immunity.⁸ There, Plaintiff, a certified nursing
15 assistance for VistaCare, brought an action for injuries following a slip and fall occurring at the Life
16 Care Center of Reno. In ruling for the defense, the court relied largely upon Hays Home Delivery,
17 supra, writing as follows:

18
19 In Hays Home Delivery v. Employers Insurance Company of Nevada, 117 Nev. 678, 20 31 P.3d 367 (Nev. 2001), the Nevada Supreme Court took an expansive view of what
21 constitutes the "same trade" under Nevada law. There, Hays Home Delivery, a 22 national logistics management company, provided appliance, electronics, and furniture
23 delivery services nationwide for various retailers. Id. at 368. Rather than having its* 24 own employees deliver the merchandise, Hays contracted with "owners-operators"
25 to make the deliveries. Id. Hays attempted to distinguish its business from the 26 business of one such owner-operator by characterizing its business as merely 27 administering deliveries and characterizing the owner-operator's business as making 28 deliveries. The court rejected Hays' argument and held that the owner-operator was in the same trade as Hays because "both were in the 'trade' of delivering merchandise from retailers to end-customers." Id. at 371.

⁸A true and correct copy of this case is attached hereto as Exhibit S.

1 Here, even assuming, as Plaintiff contends, Life Care does not provide hospice care
2 services to its patients, Life Care and VistaCare nonetheless each engage in the same
3 trade of providing care and treatment to patients. In Hays, the employees of Hays
4 Home Delivery did not complete one aspect of Hays' business, delivering merchandise,
5 and instead, the company hired independent contractors to make the deliveries.
6 Similarly, here, Life Care hires independent contractors to provide hospice care
7 services. Under the broad approach used by the Court in Hays, these services fall
8 within the "trade" of providing care and treatment to patients. (Id. at *8-*9, emphasis
9 added.)

10 Again, the Court here only gets to the NRS 616B.603(1) analysis absent a finding that the 11 incident did not arise from "a subcontracted fraction of a main contract." However, following the 12 analysis presented by the Federal District Court, Venetian and Brand Vegas are in the same trade of 13 selling tickets for entertainment events to guests coming onto the Venetian property.

14 J The control test presented Tucker is one factor to consider in resolving normal work issues
15 under Meers, supra. Here, Venetian controlled where Brand Vegas employees parked on the property,
16 required Plaintiff to undergo a background investigation then presented her with an identification
17 badge. Venetian controlled the tickets to its events that could be sold, and had general rules to which 18 Brand Vegas agreed to have its employees follow in the course of their employment. Further, without 19 question, the activities associated with promoting Venetian events to guests on Venetian property and 20 selling tickets is one normally carried out by Venetian box office employees rather than by independent
21 contractors. (See Meers, supra, 122 Nev at 286.) The general rule is that major repairs, or specialized 22 repairs of the sort which the employer is not equipped to handle with his own workforce, are held
23 to be outside of regular business. (See id., citing Farish v. Courion Industries, Inc., 722 F.2d 74 (4th 24 Cir. 1983).) That is not the case here.

25 The fact that similar jobs may vary slightly is immaterial under the Hays analysis discussed
26 above. Indeed, the facts in the present case are even more compelling than those presented in Hays,
27 and application of the "normal work test" clearly leads to the conclusion, as a matter of law, that 28 Venetian is protected from third party litigation as a statutory employee. Plaintiff was injured on the

1 job, has thus far received all benefits to which she is entitled in her workers compensation claim.
2 Under Nevada Law, she is not entitled to further benefits beyond those which may be allowed under 3 Chapter 616C, Nevada Revised Statutes.

4 F. Venetian is a Statutory Employer of Plaintiff as One Having Common Interests and 5 Objectives Engaged in a Common Project: the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement

6 In addition to the above discussion, Nevada law recognizes that circumstances may fairly 7 dictate that more than one entity be entitled to protection with employer status under the NIIA, such
8 as where the injured worker is furthering the interests of more than one entity, or where the employer
9 and third party entity have common interests or objectives related to a common project. For 10 example, in Antonini, supra, an employee of Las Vegas Convention Services (“LVCS”) was injured
11 while taking down exhibits for exhibitor Hanna Industries (“HI”). An agreement between LVCS and 12 HI provided that HI would have the right to control and supervise the dismantling of its exhibits, which 13 included the right to terminate and request replacement of employees provided by LVCS. The court
14 found that the worker was furthering the interests of both entities at the time of the incident, and 15 therefore applied employer immunity under the circumstances. (See Exhibits B and C, generally.)
16 Brand Vegas employees were to sell tickets for Venetian shows and events and Plaintiff was to follow
17 Venetian rules and its Code of Conduct to the common benefit of both contracting entities. (See id.)

18 G. There are No Genuine Material Facts Preventing Granting of the Instant Motion

19 Venetian has carefully laid out all key facts supporting the subject motion. There is no dispute
20 that Plaintiff was injured while in the course and scope of her employment with Brand Vegas, that she 21 was working pursuant to the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement in furtherance of Venetian’s interest
22 to sell tickets to events and shows occurring on its property, and that Plaintiff’s employment was 23 similar to that which Venetian’s own box office employees accomplish daily on its property. There
24 is also no dispute that Plaintiff has filed for and is presently receiving workers compensation benefits
25
26
27
28

1 for her injuries, which is the result contemplated by Venetian and Brand Vegas under the
2 Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement in response to on the job injuries.

3 VI.

4 CONCLUSION

5 Based on the foregoing, Venetian respectfully submits that there are no genuine material issues
6 of fact which would prevent the Court from granting summary judgment for lack of jurisdiction
7 pursuant to the exclusivity of remedies afforded to Plaintiff under the NIIA. Venetian has 8 demonstrated entitlement to statutory protection by virtue of Plaintiff's employment with Brand Vegas
9 under the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement, sustaining her injuries in the course and scope of her
10 employment while so engaged. Venetian has further, alternatively, demonstrated that if the Court were 11 to look beyond the contract and apply the "normal work test" under Meers (to be applied only where 12 such a contract as the Venetian/Brand Vegas Agreement is not available), it will find that Plaintiff was 13 engaged in work normally accomplished by Venetian box office employees, and that her employer,
14 Brand Vegas, and Venetian are both engaged in the same entertainment business activity.

15 All roads lead to the conclusion that Venetian is the statutory employer of Plaintiff, thereby
16 precluding her from filing a third party claim.

17. Indemnification. Broker agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Venetian, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors and employees, harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liability, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of any nature whatsoever arising out of (a) a breach of this Agreement by Broker, or (b) the acts, intentional omissions or negligence of Broker or either of its respective employees, agents, or contractors.

Broker shall obtain, at Broker's expense, any license, qualification, clearance or the like which shall be required of Broker by any Gaming Authority or any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian. If Broker fails to satisfy such requirement or if Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian is directed to cease business with Broker by any such Gaming Authority, or if Venetian shall in good faith determine, in Venetian's sole and exclusive judgment, that Broker or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, designees or representatives (a) is or might be engaged in, or is about to be engaged in, any activity or activities, or (b) was or is involved in any relationship, either of which could or does jeopardize Venetian's licenses, or those of its affiliates, or if any such license is threatened to be, or is, denied, curtailed, suspended or revoked, then Broker shall immediately (i) terminate any relationship with the individual or entity which is the source of the problem, or (ii) cease the activity creating the problem. If Broker does not comply with item (i) or (ii) above, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement without liability to either Party because of such termination; provided, however, if any matter described herein can be appealed or is reasonably susceptible to cure, Broker shall have a reasonable time within which to make such appeal or effect such cure (but in no event longer than the time available to fully comply with any requirement imposed by any Gaming Authority or any other law, rule or regulation) and Venetian shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement during such appeal or cure period.
19. Independent Contractor. The Parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and nothing herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other business relationship between the Parties except supplier and buyer. Broker shall be solely liable for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and representatives.

TICKET BROKER AGREEMENT

This Ticket Broker Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into as of December 1, 2015 ("Effective Date") by and between Brand Vegas, LLC d/b/a Vegas On Demand ("Broker"), and Venetian Casino Resort, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company ("Venetian") on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Venetian sponsors, hosts, produces, or otherwise provides various entertainment acts (each a "Show") from time-to-time in the Venetian property showroom ("Showroom");

WHEREAS, Venetian desires to engage the Broker with respect to the sale of tickets for performances ("Performance") at the Showroom;

WHEREAS, Broker is in the business of selling tickets for various entertainments shows;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into this Agreement pursuant to the below terms and conditions regarding the Broker's sale of tickets ("Ticket") to the Show, with the specifics for each Show to be agreed in writing between the Parties through execution of individual attachments (each an "Addendum"). Each Addendum to this Agreement, shall be substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Attachment "A", shall reference this Agreement, and contain at minimum the following information:

- a) Show name;
- b) Date and Times of the Show for which Tickets are authorized to be sold;
- c) Location of Show;
- d) Age restrictions;
- e) Ticket prices; and
- f) Broker Commission.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in the above Recitals, with each and every Recital above incorporated into the Agreement in its entirety by this reference, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Venetian agrees to provide Broker with seats for each Performance of the Show and upon Venetian's receipt of payment in full from Broker will provide those Patrons ("Patrons") tickets to the Performance and all seats will be designated by Venetian in a specified predetermined block according to price.
2. Broker will only sell Tickets at the Ticket prices listed and agreed to on any Addendum to this Agreement. In addition, Broker will receive a commission ("Commission") and charge a service fee ("Service Fee"), as provided on any Addendum hereto, for each ticket sold upon the express condition that funds for tickets are received by Broker and remitted, within 10 days of receipt, in full to Venetian as set forth in this Agreement and the funds are not subject to a chargeback by a merchant bank. Broker may not modify the Commission without the express written consent of Venetian. Venetian's consent to change the Commission may only be provided by an Addendum which, once fully executed by authorized representatives of all parties, will act as an amendment to the Agreement for the limited purpose of modifying Commission and will be subject to all other terms and conditions of the Agreement. Broker must expressly disclose, identify and advise Patrons of any Service Fee imposed by Broker and place Patron on notice that such fee is in addition to the Ticket prices. Further, any advertisement of the Ticket price and the Ticket price on any voucher(s) MUST include the designation that the Ticket prices include the Live Entertainment Tax (LET). The LET shall be calculated as base Ticket price plus Venetian base ticket service fee times 9%.

3. Tickets may not be sold more than one hundred twenty (120) days in advance of the Performance date nor less than two (2) hours prior to any Performance. Performance dates and times may be modified and updates to the schedule will be provided to Broker from time to time in an Addendum. Broker may not sell for Performance dates or times that have not been established. Broker will fax (702-414-1252) or email (ticketrequest@sands.com) all show orders at least 2 hours prior to the Performance sold.
4. Venetian reserves the right to refuse admittance to any patron who arrives later than one (1) hour prior to Performance time. Venetian reserves the right to refuse any Patron without proper identification. Broker shall inform Patrons of the foregoing.
5. Venetian will provide marketing and advertising materials for the Show to Broker. Broker shall not use any other materials to promote the Show and may not make any changes to any materials provided by Venetian without explicit written approval of Venetian. Only logos and images that have been pre-approved by Venetian may be used by Broker. Broker agrees that it will refrain from any advertising with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement which is, in any way, objectionable to Venetian and in all instances advertising requires the express prior written consent of Venetian. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Broker shall not use the "Venetian Casino Resort", "Palazzo Casino Resort" or "R5" names or logos, or any other trademarks belonging to Venetian Casino Resort LLC, R5, or any of their respective parent, affiliates or subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the trademark owner.
6. Broker shall not accept discounts or other promotional offers in connection with Tickets sold by Broker. Broker shall not under any circumstances sell tickets to other third-party ticket brokers, ticket wholesalers or any other ticket resellers.
7. Broker specifically agrees that any and all information relating to the Show may be modified or discontinued at any time by Venetian in its sole discretion.
8. Broker must send Venetian a daily manifest/sales report for all tickets sold as well as a weekly manifest/sales report by Friday of each week for all ticket sales in the prior Monday to Sunday week. Each calendar week, Broker will collect and remit payment for all tickets sold less Commission derived from ticket sales along with the weekly report by the following Friday to the following:

Accounts Receivable
Attn: Administrative Assistant
The Venetian Resort - Hotel - Casino
3355 Las Vegas Boulevard South
Las Vegas, NV 89109
702-414-4590

The report will detail at a minimum each Ticket sold by total price paid by customer, Ticket price and Commission.

Broker shall make payment only by check, wire transfer or other commercially reasonable method requested by Venetian, and, if by wire transfer, Broker will be responsible to promptly contact the Venetian accounting point of contact following its execution of the Agreement to obtain wire transfer information and directions. In the event Broker fails to remit funds for tickets sold, Venetian shall refuse to release Tickets to the Patron(s).

9. Venetian reserves the right, at any point in time during the term of the Agreement and in addition to any other legal rights and remedies it may have, to require that Broker submit a security deposit or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount satisfactory to Venetian if it is determined in Venetian's sole discretion: (i) Broker's credit worthiness or financial condition has decreased or changed; (ii) Broker has failed to remit any amount(s) when due; (iii) Broker has dishonored any payment(s) due and owing Venetian; or (iv) Broker has filed any voluntary or involuntary petition under insolvency laws or had a receiver appointed for all or any portion of its business.
10. Broker shall, at a minimum, provide the information set forth in the attached Attachment "B" on its website and in other printed materials regarding the Show and shall sell the Tickets in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth therein. Broker is not authorized to refund any amounts collected or remitted for Ticket sales.
11. Venetian shall have the right to charge interest of one (1%) percent per month on any amounts overdue from Broker. In the event of any disputes between Broker and its customers involving, but not limited to, requests for refunds with respect to Tickets sold by Broker, Broker agrees to be solely liable for the financial responsibility of such refunds. As such, Broker remains liable for all Ticket sales and submission of funds associated therewith for all performances. Should Broker fail to remit payments for any reason Broker shall remain solely liable to Venetian for its Ticket handling/Service Fee and will remain solely and directly liable to Venetian for the base price of the Ticket.
12. All ticket receipts shall be held in trust for the benefit of Venetian pending settlement, regardless of the name or title of any account in which the funds are located or the identity of the account holder, and receipts due to Venetian shall be released from trust only upon settlement. Broker agrees that should it become a debtor or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Venetian and receipts due Venetian shall not become property of the estate, and further agrees that Broker shall hold only legal title to such funds and no equitable interest therein, until the Venetian and receipts due to Venetian are actually paid to Venetian by Broker.
13. In the event that Venetian changes the Ticket prices or Performances for the show, Venetian shall notify Broker of the new Ticket prices and/or Performance dates and times and the dates that the new Ticket prices and/or Performance show times will be in effect. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued by Broker at the prevailing Ticket price prior to notice to Broker.

14. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by a party to this Agreement. Any party hereto may terminate this Agreement with or without cause upon twenty-four (24) hours written notice to the other party(ies). Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued or Ticket sales finalized by Broker prior to notice of termination, provided Broker is able to account for such vouchers or Ticket sales and remits payment in full to Venetian associated therewith in accordance with this Agreement.
15. Broker and its agents and representatives shall not solicit or receive from Venetian or any person representing Venetian, and Venetian or any person representing Venetian shall not offer to give to Broker or its agents or representatives, any money, gift, gratuity or other thing of value as an inducement to sell Tickets. The foregoing provisions of the paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to Commissions paid to Broker, as described herein.
16. Any and all notices and demands by or from any party required or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be validly given or made on the date served personally, on the date sent by confirmed facsimile, on the next business day after delivery to a recognized overnight delivery service or three days after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

18. Broker acknowledges that Venetian and affiliates of Venetian are businesses that are or may be subject to and exist because of privileged licenses issued by governmental authorities relating to casino gaming ("Gaming Authorities"). Broker shall obtain, at Broker's expense, any license, qualification, clearance or the like which shall be required of Broker by any Gaming Authority or any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian. If Broker fails to satisfy such requirement or if Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian is directed to cease business with Broker by any such Gaming Authority, or if Venetian shall in good faith determine, in Venetian's sole and exclusive judgment, that Broker or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, designees or representatives (a) is or might be engaged in, or is about to be engaged in, any activity or activities, or (b) was or is involved in any relationship, either of which could or

19. The parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and nothing herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other business relationship between the parties except supplier and buyer. Broker shall be solely liable for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and representatives.
 20. This Agreement shall not be assigned by Broker without the prior written consent of Venetian. Any purported assignment without such consent is void.
 21. This Agreement and all of the rights and obligations of the parties hereto and all of the terms and conditions hereof shall be construed in accordance with and governed by and enforced under the laws of Nevada, excluding conflict of law rules.  22. Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of a party to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of that right, remedy, power or privilege. No waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any particular occurrence, shall be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any other occurrence.
 23. In any action or proceeding arising out of, related to or brought to enforce the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred.
 24. This Agreement is confidential information of Venetian and any unauthorized review, use, disclosure or distribution is prohibited.

25. Compliance.

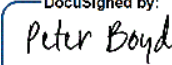

(a) Regulatory Requirements. Venetian and any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and other related companies may from time to time require that Broker complete vendor registration documents, background checks and personal history documents, acknowledgements of policies and other documents in connection with gaming, regulatory and compliance matters. Broker shall complete and otherwise cooperate with such requests promptly but in no event later than the date reasonably requested. If Broker fails to comply fully with the request and does not cure such failure within the time specified in any follow up notice to Broker, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement upon notice to Broker without any liability by Venetian.

(b) FCPA. In connection with performing its services under this Agreement, Broker shall comply with all applicable anti-corruption and anti-money laundering laws and regulations, including those governing the providing of incentives, inducements, kickbacks, gratuities or bribes, including without limitation the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (FCPA) (15 U.S.C. §§ 78dd-1, et seq.) which precludes giving, offering or agreeing to give anything of value to foreign government officials or holders of and candidates for public office or political parties, their families and agents, directly or indirectly, in connection with obtaining or maintaining contracts or orders or obtaining other benefits.

Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through your DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) Express user account. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the "I agree" button at the bottom of this document.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in the above Recitals, with each and every Recital above incorporated into the Agreement in its entirety by this reference, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Venetian agrees to provide Broker with seats for each Performance of the Show and upon Venetian's receipt of payment in full from Broker will provide those Patrons ("Patrons") tickets to the Performance and all seats will be designated by Venetian in a specified predetermined block according to price.
2. Broker will only sell Tickets at the Ticket prices listed and agreed to on any Addendum to this Agreement. In addition, Broker will receive a commission ("Commission") and charge a service fee ("Service Fee"), as provided on any Addendum hereto, for each ticket sold upon the express condition that funds for tickets are received by Broker and remitted, within 10 days of receipt, in full to Venetian as set forth in this Agreement and the funds

- are not subject to a chargeback by a merchant bank. Broker may not modify the Commission without the express written consent of Venetian. Venetian's consent to change the Commission may only be provided by an Addendum which, once fully executed by authorized representatives of all parties, will act as an amendment to the Agreement for the limited purpose of modifying Commission and will be subject to all other terms and conditions of the Agreement. Broker must expressly disclose, identify and advise Patrons of any Service Fee imposed by Broker and place Patron on notice that such fee is in addition to the Ticket prices. Further, any advertisement of the Ticket price and the Ticket price on any voucher(s) MUST include the designation that the Ticket prices include the Live Entertainment Tax (LET). The LET shall be calculated as base Ticket price plus Venetian base ticket service fee times 9%.
3. Tickets may not be sold more than one hundred twenty (120) days in advance of the Performance date nor less than two (2) hours prior to any Performance. Performance dates and times may be modified and updates to the schedule will be provided to Broker from time to time in an Addendum. Broker may not sell for Performance dates or times that have not been established. Broker will fax (702-414-1252) or email (ticketrequest@sands.com) all show orders at least 2 hours prior to the Performance sold.
 4. Venetian reserves the right to refuse admittance to any patron who arrives later than one (1) hour prior to Performance time. Venetian reserves the right to refuse any Patron without proper identification. Broker shall inform Patrons of the foregoing.
 5. Venetian will provide marketing and advertising materials for the Show to Broker. Broker shall not use any other materials to promote the Show and may not make any changes to any materials provided by Venetian without explicit written approval of Venetian. Only logos and images that have been pre-approved by Venetian may be used by Broker. Broker agrees that it will refrain from any advertising with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement which is, in any way, objectionable to Venetian and in all instances advertising requires the express prior written consent of Venetian. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Broker shall not use the "Venetian Casino Resort", "Palazzo Casino Resort" or "CARLY RAE JEPSEN" names or logos, or any other trademarks belonging to Venetian Casino Resort LLC, CARLY RAE JEPSEN, or any of their respective parent, affiliates or subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the trademark owner.
 6. Broker shall not accept discounts or other promotional offers in connection with Tickets sold by Broker. Broker shall not under any circumstances sell tickets to other third-party ticket brokers, ticket wholesalers or any other ticket resellers.
 7. Broker specifically agrees that any and all information relating to the Show may be modified or discontinued at any time by Venetian in its sole discretion.
 8. Broker must send Venetian a daily manifest/sales report for all tickets sold as well as a weekly manifest/sales report by Friday of each week for all ticket sales in the prior Monday to Sunday week. Each calendar week, Broker will collect and remit payment for all tickets sold less Commission derived from ticket sales along with the weekly report by the following Friday to the following:

Accounts Receivable
Attn: Administrative Assistant
The Venetian Resort - Hotel - Casino
3355 Las Vegas Boulevard South
Las Vegas, NV 89109
702-414-4590

The report will detail at a minimum each Ticket sold by total price paid by customer, Ticket price and Commission.

Broker shall make payment only by check, wire transfer or other commercially reasonable method requested by Venetian, and, if by wire transfer, Broker will be responsible to promptly contact the Venetian accounting point of contact following its execution of the Agreement to obtain wire transfer information and directions. In the event Broker fails to remit funds for tickets sold, Venetian shall refuse to release Tickets to the Patron(s).

9. Venetian reserves the right, at any point in time during the term of the Agreement and in addition to any other legal rights and remedies it may have, to require that Broker submit a security deposit or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount satisfactory to Venetian if it is determined in Venetian's sole discretion: (i) Broker's credit worthiness or financial condition has decreased or changed; (ii) Broker has failed to remit any amount(s) when due; (iii) Broker has dishonored any payment(s) due and owing Venetian; or (iv) Broker has filed any voluntary or involuntary petition under insolvency laws or had a receiver appointed for all or any portion of its business.
10. Broker shall, at a minimum, provide the information set forth in the attached Attachment "B" on its website and in other printed materials regarding the Show and shall sell the Tickets in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth therein. Broker is not authorized to refund any amounts collected or remitted for Ticket sales.
11. Venetian shall have the right to charge interest of one (1%) percent per month on any amounts overdue from Broker. In the event of any disputes between Broker and its customers involving, but not limited to, requests for refunds with respect to Tickets sold by Broker, Broker agrees to be solely liable for the financial responsibility of such refunds. As such, Broker remains liable for all Ticket sales and submission of funds associated therewith for all performances. Should Broker fail to remit payments for any reason Broker shall remain solely liable to Venetian for its Ticket handling/Service Fee and will remain solely and directly liable to Venetian for the base price of the Ticket.
12. All ticket receipts shall be held in trust for the benefit of Venetian pending settlement, regardless of the name or title of any account in which the funds are located or the identity of the account holder, and receipts due to Venetian shall be released from trust only upon settlement. Broker agrees that should it become a debtor or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Venetian and receipts due Venetian shall not become property of the estate, and further agrees that Broker shall hold only legal title to such funds and no equitable interest therein, until the Venetian and receipts due to Venetian are actually paid to Venetian by Broker.

13. In the event that Venetian changes the Ticket prices or Performances for the show, Venetian shall notify Broker of the new Ticket prices and/or Performance dates and times and the dates that the new Ticket prices and/or Performance show times will be in effect. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued by Broker at the prevailing Ticket price prior to notice to Broker.
14. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by a party to this Agreement. Any party hereto may terminate this Agreement with or without cause upon twenty-four (24) hours written notice to the other party(ies). Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued or Ticket sales finalized by Broker prior to notice of termination, provided Broker is able to account for such vouchers or Ticket sales and remits payment in full to Venetian associated therewith in accordance with this Agreement.
15. Broker and its agents and representatives shall not solicit or receive from Venetian or any person representing Venetian, and Venetian or any person representing Venetian shall not offer to give to Broker or its agents or representatives, any money, gift, gratuity or other thing of value as an inducement to sell Tickets. The foregoing provisions of the paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to Commissions paid to Broker, as described herein.
16. Any and all notices and demands by or from any party required or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be validly given or made on the date served personally, on the date sent by confirmed facsimile, on the next business day after delivery to a recognized overnight delivery service or three days after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

17. Broker agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Venetian, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors and employees, harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liability, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of any nature whatsoever arising out of (a) a breach of this Agreement by Broker, or (b) the acts, intentional omissions or negligence of Broker or either of their respective employees, agents or contractors.
18. Broker acknowledges that Venetian and affiliates of Venetian are businesses that are or may be subject to and exist because of privileged licenses issued by governmental authorities relating to casino gaming ("Gaming Authorities"). Broker shall obtain, at Broker's expense, any license, qualification, clearance or the like which shall be required of Broker by any Gaming Authority or any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian. If Broker fails to satisfy such requirement or if Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian is directed to cease business with Broker by any such Gaming Authority, or if Venetian shall in good faith determine, in Venetian's sole and exclusive judgment, that Broker or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, designees or representatives (a) is or might be engaged in, or is about to be engaged in, any activity or activities, or (b) was or is involved in any relationship, either of which could or does jeopardize Venetian's licenses, or those of its affiliates, or if any such license is threatened to be, or is, denied, curtailed, suspended or revoked, then Broker shall immediately (i) terminate any relationship with the individual or entity which is the source of the problem, or (ii) cease the activity creating the problem. 19. The parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and nothing herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other business relationship between the parties except supplier and buyer. Broker shall be solely liable for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and representatives.

20. This Agreement shall not be assigned by Broker without the prior written consent of Venetian. Any purported assignment without such consent is void.
21. This Agreement and all of the rights and obligations of the parties hereto and all of the terms and conditions hereof shall be construed in accordance with and governed by and enforced under the laws of Nevada, excluding conflict of law rules. 22. Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of a party to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of that right, remedy, power or privilege. No waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any particular occurrence, shall be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any other occurrence.
23. In any action or proceeding arising out of, related to or brought to enforce the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred.

24. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement of the parties and supersedes all previous negotiations, agreements, understandings or commitments and shall not be released, discharged, changed or modified, except by an instrument in writing signed by both parties. This Agreement is confidential information of Venetian and any unauthorized review, use, disclosure or distribution is prohibited.

25. Compliance.

(a) Regulatory Requirements. Venetian and any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and other related companies may from time to time require that Broker complete vendor registration documents, background checks and personal history documents, acknowledgements of policies and other documents in connection with gaming, regulatory and compliance matters. Broker shall complete and otherwise cooperate with such requests promptly but in no event later than the date reasonably requested. If Broker fails to comply fully with the request and does not cure such failure within the time specified in any follow up notice to Broker, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement upon notice to Broker without any liability by Venetian.

(b) FCPA. In connection with performing its services under this Agreement, Broker shall comply with all applicable anti-corruption and anti-money laundering laws and regulations, including those governing the providing of incentives, inducements, kickbacks, gratuities or bribes, including without limitation the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (FCPA) (15 U.S.C. §§ 78dd-1, et seq.) which precludes giving, offering or agreeing to give anything of value to foreign government officials or holders of and candidates for public office or political parties, their families and agents, directly or indirectly, in connection with obtaining or maintaining contracts or orders or obtaining other benefits.

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into this Agreement for the standard terms and conditions regarding the Broker’s sale of Tickets, with the specifics for Human Nature Jukebox to be agreed in writing between the Parties from time-to-time hereafter through execution of individual attachments as further detailed below (each an “Addendum”).

Addendum: Each individual Addendum to this Agreement shall be substantially similar to that Addendum set forth as Attachment A (“Addendum”), reference this Agreement, and contain at a minimum the following information:

- (a) Show Name;
- (b) Date and Times of the Show for which Tickets are authorized to be sold (each presentation of a Show, a “Performance”);
- (c) Location of the Show;
- (d) Age Restrictions;
- (e) Ticket Prices;
- (f) Broker Commission.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in the above Recitals, with each and every Recital incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows.

1. Principal Provided Tickets. Principal agrees to provide Broker with seats for each Performance of the Show and upon Venetian's receipt of payment in full from Broker will provide those Patrons ("Patrons") Tickets to the Performance and all seats will be designated by Principal in a specified predetermined block according to price.
2. Ticket Sales - Financial. Broker will only sell Tickets at the Ticket Prices for the Show as set forth in the Addendum. . In addition, Broker will receive commission for each Ticket sold upon the express condition that funds for Tickets are received by Broker and immediately remitted in full to Venetian as set forth in this Agreement and the funds are not subject to a chargeback by a merchant bank. Broker may not modify the commission without the express written consent of Principal. Broker must expressly disclose, identify and advise Patrons of any service fee imposed by Broker and place Patron on notice that such fee is in addition to the Ticket Prices. Further, any advertisement of the Ticket Price and the Ticket Price on any voucher(s) MUST include the designation that the Ticket Prices include the Live Entertainment Tax (LET). The LET shall be calculated as base Ticket Price plus Venetian base Ticket service fee times 9%.
3. Ticket Sales – Dates/Times. Tickets may not be sold more than one hundred twenty (120) days in advance of the Performance date nor less than two (2) hours prior to any Performance. Performance dates and times that are identified in Attachment A may be modified and updates to the schedule will be provided to Broker from time to time. Broker may not sell for Performance dates or times that have not been established. Broker will fax (702-414-1252) or email (ticketrequest@sands.com) all show orders at least 2 hours prior to the Performance sold.
4. Principal Reservation of Rights. Principal reserves the right to refuse admittance to any Patron who does not comply with Principal's reasonable admittance procedures applied in good faith to all Patrons, regardless of where Patron acquired a Ticket. Examples of reasonable refusal of admittance are lack of proper identification, drunk and disorderly conduct, or arriving later than Performance time. Broker shall inform Patrons of the foregoing.
5. Show Marketing. Principal will provide marketing and advertising materials for the Show to Broker. Broker shall not use any other materials to promote the Show and may not make any changes to any materials provided by Principal without explicit written approval of Principal. Only logos and images that have been pre-approved by Principal may be used by Broker. Broker agrees that it will refrain from any advertising with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement which is, in any way, objectionable to Principal and in all instances advertising requires the express prior written consent of Principal. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Broker shall not use the "Venetian Casino Resort", "Palazzo Casino Resort" or "Human Nature Jukebox" names or logos, or any other trademarks belonging to Venetian Casino Resort, LLC or its parent, affiliates or subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the trademark owner.

6. Ticket Sales Restrictions. Broker shall not accept discounts or other promotional offers in connection with Tickets sold by Broker. Broker shall not under any circumstances sell tickets to other third-party ticket brokers, ticket wholesalers or any other ticket resellers.
7. Show Information. Broker specifically agrees that any and all information relating to the Show may be modified or discontinued at any time by Principal in its sole discretion.
8. Sales Reporting. Broker must send Venetian a daily manifest/sales report for all Tickets sold as well as a weekly manifest/sales report by Friday of each week for all Ticket sales in the prior Monday to Sunday week. Each calendar week, Broker will collect and remit payment for all Tickets sold less commission derived from Ticket sales along with the weekly report by the following Friday to the following:

Accounts Receivable
Attn: Administrative Assistant
The Venetian Resort - Hotel - Casino
3355 Las Vegas Boulevard South
Las Vegas, NV 89109
702-414-4590

The report will detail at a minimum each Ticket sold by total price paid by customer, Ticket Price and Commission.

Broker shall make payment only by check, wire transfer or other commercially reasonable method requested by Venetian, and, if by wire transfer, Broker will be responsible to promptly contact the Venetian accounting point of contact following its execution of the Agreement to obtain wire transfer information and directions. In the event Broker fails to remit funds for Tickets sold, Principal shall refuse to release Tickets to the Patron(s).

9. Financial Assurances. Venetian reserves the right, at any point in time during the term of the Agreement and in addition to any other legal rights and remedies it may have, to require that Broker submit a security deposit or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount satisfactory to Venetian if it is determined in Venetian's sole discretion: (i) Broker's credit worthiness or financial condition has decreased or changed; (ii) Broker has failed to remit any amount(s) when due; (iii) Broker has dishonored any payment(s) due and owing Venetian; or (iv) Broker has filed any voluntary or involuntary petition under insolvency laws or had a receiver appointed for all or any portion of its business.
10. Voucher Policy and Procedures. Broker shall, at a minimum, provide the information set forth in Attachment B on its website and in other printed materials regarding the Show and shall sell the Tickets in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth therein. Broker is not authorized to refund any amounts collected or remitted for Ticket sales.
11. Outstanding Amounts and Refunds. Principal shall have the right to charge interest of one (1%) percent per month on any amounts overdue from Broker. In the event of any disputes between Broker and its customers involving, but not limited to, requests for refunds with respect to Tickets sold by Broker, Broker agrees to be solely liable for the financial responsibility of such refunds. As such, Broker remains liable for all Ticket sales and submission of funds associated therewith for all Performances. Should Broker fail to remit payments for any reason Broker shall remain solely liable to Venetian for its Ticket Handling/Service Fee and will remain solely and directly liable to Producer for the Base Price of the Ticket.

12. Ticket Receipts. All Ticket receipts shall be held in trust for the benefit of Principal pending settlement, regardless of the name or title of any account in which the funds are located or the identity of the account holder, and receipts due to Principal shall be released from trust only upon settlement. Broker agrees that should it become a debtor or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Principal and receipts due Principal shall not become property of the estate, and further agrees that Broker shall hold only legal title to such funds and no equitable interest therein, until the Principal and receipts due to Principal are actually paid to Principal by Broker.
13. Show Modifications. In the event that Principal changes the Tickets Prices or Performances for the Show, Principal shall notify Broker of the new Ticket Prices and/or Performance dates and times and the dates that the new Ticket Prices and/or Performance show times will be in effect. Principal agrees to honor vouchers issued by Broker at the prevailing Ticket Price prior to notice to Broker.
14. Term and Termination. This Agreement will continue until terminated by a Party to this Agreement. Any Party hereto may terminate this Agreement with or without cause (for any reason or no reason) upon twenty-four (24) hours written notice to the other Party(ies). Principal agrees to honor vouchers issued or Ticket sales finalized by Broker prior to notice of termination, provided Broker is able to account for such vouchers or Ticket sales and remits payment in full to Venetian associated therewith in accordance with this Agreement.
15. Ethics. Broker and its agents and representatives shall not solicit or receive from Principal or any person representing Principal, and Principal or any person representing Principal shall not offer to give to Broker or its agents or representatives, any money, gift, gratuity or other thing of value as an inducement to sell tickets. The foregoing provisions of the paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to commissions paid to Broker, as described herein.
16. Notices. Any and all notices and demands by or from any party required or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be validly given or made on the date served personally, on the date sent by confirmed facsimile, on the next business day after delivery to a recognized overnight delivery service or three days after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

17. Indemnification. Broker and Producer each agree to indemnify, defend and hold Venetian, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors and employees, harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liability, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of any nature whatsoever arising out of (a) a breach of this Agreement by Producer or by Broker, or (b) the acts, intentional omissions or negligence of Producer or Broker or either of their respective employees, agents or contractors.
18. Gaming Compliance. Broker acknowledges that Venetian and affiliates of Venetian are businesses that are or may be subject to and exist because of privileged licenses issued by governmental authorities relating to casino gaming ("Gaming Authorities"). Broker shall obtain, at Broker's expense, any license, qualification, clearance or the like which shall be required of Broker by any Gaming Authority or any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian. If Broker fails to satisfy such requirement or if Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian is directed to cease business with Broker by any such Gaming Authority, or if Venetian shall in good faith determine, in Venetian's sole and exclusive judgment, that Broker or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, designees or representatives (a) is or might be engaged in, or is about to be engaged in, any activity or activities, or (b) was or is involved in any relationship, either of which could or does jeopardize Venetian's licenses, or those of its affiliates, or if any such license is threatened to be, or is, denied, curtailed, suspended or revoked, then Broker shall immediately (i) terminate any relationship with the individual or entity which is the source of the problem, or (ii) cease the activity creating the problem. If Broker does not comply with item (i) or (ii) above, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement without liability to either party because of such termination; provided, however, if any matter described herein can be appealed or is reasonably susceptible to cure, Broker shall have a reasonable time within which to make such appeal or effect such cure (but in no event longer than the time available to fully comply with any requirement imposed by any Gaming Authority or any other law, rule or regulation) and Venetian shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement during such appeal or cure period.
19. Independent Contractor. The Parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and nothing herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other business relationship between the Parties except supplier and buyer. Broker shall be solely liable for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and representatives.
20. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned by Broker or Producer without the prior written consent of Principal. Any purported assignment without such consent is void.
21. Choice of Law and Venue. This Agreement and all of the rights and obligations of the Parties hereto and all of the terms and conditions hereof shall be construed in accordance with and governed by and enforced under the laws of Nevada, excluding conflict of law rules. Except for any action seeking equitable relief, Broker, Producer and Venetian agree that all disputes arising from or related to this Agreement shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or to another dispute resolution service agreed upon in writing by the parties, provided that the following special rules shall apply to such arbitration: (a) the place of filing and administration shall be the Las Vegas, Nevada office of the AAA or any such other reputable dispute resolution service and any hearing shall be conducted in Las Vegas, Nevada and (b) there shall be a single arbitrator, appointed in accordance with the AAA's or such other dispute resolution service's procedures.

22. Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of a Party to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of that right, remedy, power or privilege. No waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any particular occurrence, shall be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any other occurrence.
23. Fees – Dispute Resolution. In any action or proceeding arising out of, related to or brought to enforce the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred.
24. Complete Agreement and Confidential Information. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement of the Parties and supersedes all previous negotiations, agreements, understandings or commitments and shall not be released, discharged, changed or modified, except by an instrument in writing signed by both parties. This Agreement is confidential information of Principal and any unauthorized review, use, disclosure or distribution is prohibited. The headings of each paragraph are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of any of the terms related thereto.
25. Compliance.
 - (a) Regulatory Requirements. Venetian and any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and other related companies may from time to time require that Broker complete vendor registration documents, background checks and personal history documents, acknowledgements of policies and other documents in connection with gaming, regulatory and compliance matters. Broker shall complete and otherwise cooperate with such requests promptly but in no event later than the date reasonably requested. If Broker fails to comply fully with the request and does not cure such failure within the time specified in any follow up notice to Broker, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement upon notice to Broker without any liability by Venetian.
 - (b) FCPA. In connection with performing its services under this Agreement, Broker shall comply with all applicable anti-corruption and anti-money laundering laws and regulations, including those governing the providing of incentives, inducements, kickbacks, gratuities or bribes, including without limitation the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (FCPA) (15 U.S.C. §§ 78dd-1, et seq.) which precludes giving, offering or agreeing to give anything of value to foreign government officials or holders of and candidates for public office or political parties, their families and agents, directly or indirectly, in connection with obtaining or maintaining contracts or orders or obtaining other benefits.

(c) Code of Conduct. Broker hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of Venetian's "Code of Business Conduct" by virtue of the Code of Business Conduct being made available to Broker at <http://investor.sands.com/English/ir-home/governance/documents-and-charters/default.aspx>. By signing this Agreement, Broker warrants and certifies that it fully understands Venetian's policy with respect to relations with employees, customers and suppliers as set forth in the Code of Business Conduct and that Broker will do nothing in connection with this Agreement that will be in conflict with or violate such Code of Business Conduct.

The Parties have entered into this Agreement, as of the Effective Date last signed below.

For such copies, as long as you are an authorized user of the DocuSign system you will have the ability to download and print any documents we send to you through your DocuSign user account for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. TICKET BROKER AGREEMENT

This Ticket Broker Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into as of April 14, 2016 (Effective Date”) by and between Brand Vegas, LLC d/b/a Vegas on Demand (“Broker”), and Venetian Casino Resort, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Venetian”) on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Venetian sponsors, hosts, produces, or otherwise provides various entertainment acts (each a “Show”) from time-to-time in the Venetian property showroom (“Showroom”);

WHEREAS, Venetian desires to engage the Broker with respect to the sale of tickets for performances (“Performance”) at the Showroom;

WHEREAS, Broker is in the business of selling tickets for various entertainments shows;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into this Agreement pursuant to the below terms and conditions regarding the Broker’s sale of tickets (“Ticket”) to the Show, with the specifics for each Show to be agreed in writing between the Parties through execution of individual attachments (each an “Addendum”).

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in the above Recitals, with each and every Recital above incorporated into the Agreement in its entirety by this reference, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Venetian Provided Tickets. Venetian agrees to provide Broker with seats for each Performance of the Show and upon Venetian’s receipt of payment in full from Broker will provide those Patrons (“Patrons”) tickets to the Performance and all seats will be designated by Venetian in a specified predetermined block according to price.

Broker will only sell Tickets at the Ticket prices listed and agreed to on any Addendum to this Agreement. Each Addendum to this Agreement shall be substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Attachment “A”, shall reference this Agreement, and contain at minimum the following information:

- a) Show name;
- b) Date and Times of the Show for which Tickets are authorized to be sold;
- c) Location of Show;
- d) Age restrictions;
- e) Ticket prices; and
- f) Broker Commission.

2. Ticket Sales - Financial. Broker will receive a commission (“Commission”) and charge a service fee (“Service Fee”), as provided on any Addendum hereto, for each ticket sold upon the express condition that funds for tickets are received by Broker and remitted, within 10 days of receipt, in full to Venetian as set forth in this Agreement and the funds are not subject to a chargeback by a merchant bank. Broker may not modify the Commission without the express written consent of Venetian. Venetian’s consent to change the Commission may only be provided by an Addendum which, once fully executed by authorized representatives of all parties, will act as an amendment to the Agreement for the limited purpose of modifying Commission and will be subject to all other terms and conditions of the Agreement. Broker must expressly disclose, identify and advise Patrons of any Service Fee imposed by Broker and place Patron on notice that such fee is in addition to the Ticket prices. Further, any advertisement of the Ticket price and the Ticket price on any voucher(s) MUST include the designation that the Ticket prices include the Live Entertainment Tax (LET). The LET shall be calculated as base Ticket price plus Venetian base ticket service fee times 9% (or whatever the then-current percentage is for the LET).
3. Ticket Sales – Dates/Times. Tickets may not be sold more than one hundred twenty (120) days in advance of the Performance date nor less than two (2) hours prior to any Performance. Performance dates and times may be modified and updates to the schedule will be provided to Broker from time to time in an Addendum. Broker may not sell for Performance dates or times that have not been established. Broker will fax (702-414-1252) or email (ticketrequest@sands.com) all show orders at least 2 hours prior to the Performance sold.
4. Venetian Reservation of Rights. Venetian reserves the right to refuse admittance to any Patron who arrives later than one (1) hour prior to Performance time or does not comply with Venetian’s reasonable admittance procedures applied in good faith to all patrons, regardless of where patron acquired a Ticket. Examples of reasonable refusal of admittance are lack of proper identification and drunk and disorderly conduct. Venetian reserves the right to refuse any Patron without proper identification. Broker shall inform Patrons of the foregoing.
5. Show Marketing. Venetian will provide marketing and advertising materials for the Show to Broker. Broker shall not use any other materials to promote the Show and may not make any changes to any materials provided by Venetian without explicit written approval of Venetian. Only logos and images that have been pre-approved by Venetian may be used by Broker. Broker agrees that it will refrain from any advertising with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement which is, in any way, objectionable to Venetian and in all instances advertising requires the express prior written consent of Venetian. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Broker shall not use the “Venetian Casino Resort”, “Palazzo Casino Resort” or “DWIGHT YOAKAM” names or logos, or any other trademarks belonging to Venetian Casino Resort LLC, DWIGHT YOAKAM, or any of their respective parent, affiliates or subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the trademark and/or intellectual property owner.
6. Ticket Sales Restrictions. Broker shall not accept discounts or other promotional offers in connection with Tickets sold by Broker. Broker shall not under any circumstances sell tickets to other third-party ticket brokers, ticket wholesalers or any other ticket resellers.

7. Show Information. Broker specifically agrees that any and all information relating to the Show may be modified or discontinued at any time by Venetian in its sole discretion.
8. Sales Reporting. Broker must send Venetian a daily manifest/sales report for all tickets sold as well as a weekly manifest/sales report by Friday of each week for all ticket sales in the prior Monday to Sunday week. Each calendar week, Broker will collect and remit payment for all tickets sold less Commission derived from ticket sales along with the weekly report by the following Friday to the following:

Accounts Receivable
Attn: Administrative Assistant
The Venetian Resort - Hotel - Casino
3355 Las Vegas Boulevard South
Las Vegas, NV 89109
702-414-4590

The report will detail at a minimum each Ticket sold by total price paid by customer, Ticket price and Commission.

Broker shall make payment only by check, wire transfer or other commercially reasonable method requested by Venetian, and, if by wire transfer, Broker will be responsible to promptly contact the Venetian accounting point of contact following its execution of the Agreement to obtain wire transfer information and directions. In the event Broker fails to remit funds for tickets sold, Venetian shall refuse to release Tickets to the Patron(s).

9. Financial Assurances. Venetian reserves the right, at any point in time during the term of the Agreement and in addition to any other legal rights and remedies it may have, to require that Broker submit a security deposit or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount satisfactory to Venetian if it is determined in Venetian's sole discretion: (i) Broker's credit worthiness or financial condition has decreased or changed; (ii) Broker has failed to remit any amount(s) when due; (iii) Broker has dishonored any payment(s) due and owing Venetian; or (iv) Broker has filed any voluntary or involuntary petition under insolvency laws or had a receiver appointed for all or any portion of its business.
10. Voucher Policy and Procedures. Broker shall, at a minimum, provide the information set forth in the attached Attachment "B" on its website and in other printed materials regarding the Show and shall sell the Tickets in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth therein. Broker is not authorized to refund any amounts collected or remitted for Ticket sales.
11. Outstanding Amounts and Refunds. Venetian shall have the right to charge interest of one (1%) percent per month on any amounts overdue from Broker. In the event of any disputes between Broker and its customers involving, but not limited to, requests for refunds with respect to Tickets sold by Broker, Broker agrees to be solely liable for the financial responsibility of such refunds. Should Broker fail to remit payments to Venetian for any reason Broker shall remain solely liable to Venetian for its Ticket handling/Service Fee and the base price of the Ticket.

12. Ticket Receipts. All ticket receipts shall be held in trust for the benefit of Venetian pending settlement, regardless of the name or title of any account in which the funds are located or the identity of the account holder, and receipts due to Venetian shall be released from trust only upon settlement. Broker agrees that should it become a debtor or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Venetian and receipts due Venetian shall not become property of the estate, and further agrees that Broker shall hold only legal title to such funds and no equitable interest therein, until the Venetian and receipts due to Venetian are actually paid to Venetian by Broker.
13. Show Modifications. In the event that Venetian changes the Ticket prices or Performances for the show, Venetian shall notify Broker of the new Ticket prices and/or Performance dates and times and the dates that the new Ticket prices and/or Performance show times will be in effect. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued by Broker at the prevailing Ticket price prior to notice to Broker.
14. Term and Termination. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by a party to this Agreement. Any party hereto may terminate this Agreement with or without cause (for any reason or no reason) upon twenty-four (24) hours written notice to the other party(ies). Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued or Ticket sales finalized by Broker prior to notice of termination, provided Broker is able to account for such vouchers or Ticket sales and remits payment in full to Venetian associated therewith in accordance with this Agreement.
15. Ethics. Broker and its agents and representatives shall not solicit or receive from Venetian or any person representing Venetian, and Venetian or any person representing Venetian shall not offer to give to Broker or its agents or representatives, any money, gift, gratuity or other thing of value as an inducement to sell Tickets. The foregoing provisions of the paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to Commissions paid to Broker, as described herein.
16. Notices. Any and all notices and demands by or from any party required or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be validly given or made on the date served personally, on the date sent by confirmed facsimile, on the next business day after delivery to a recognized overnight delivery service or three days after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

17. Indemnification. Broker agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Venetian, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors and employees, harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liability, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of any nature whatsoever arising out of (a) a breach of this Agreement by Broker, or (b) the acts, intentional omissions or negligence or Broker or either of their respective employees, agents or contractors.

18. Gaming Compliance. Broker acknowledges that Venetian and affiliates of Venetian are businesses that are or may be subject to and exist because of privileged licenses issued by governmental authorities relating to casino gaming ("Gaming Authorities"). Broker shall obtain, at Broker's expense, any license, qualification, clearance or the like which shall be required of Broker by any Gaming Authority or any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian. If Broker fails to satisfy such requirement or if Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian is directed to cease business with Broker by any such Gaming Authority, or if Venetian shall in good faith determine, in Venetian's sole and exclusive judgment, that Broker or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, designees or representatives (a) is or might be engaged in, or is about to be engaged in, any activity or activities, or (b) was or is involved in any relationship, either of which could or does jeopardize Venetian's licenses, or those of its affiliates, or if any such license is threatened to be, or is, denied, curtailed, suspended or revoked, then Broker shall immediately (i) terminate any relationship with the individual or entity which is the source of the problem, or (ii) cease the activity creating the problem. If Broker does not comply with item (i) or (ii) above, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement without liability to either party because of such termination; provided, however, if any matter described herein can be appealed or is reasonably susceptible to cure, Broker shall have a reasonable time within which to make such appeal or effect such cure (but in no event longer than the time available to fully comply with any requirement imposed by any Gaming Authority or any other law, rule or regulation) and Venetian shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement during such appeal or cure period.
19. Independent Contractor. The parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and nothing herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other business relationship between the parties except supplier and buyer. Broker shall be solely liable for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and representatives.
20. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned by Broker without the prior written consent of Venetian. Any purported assignment without such consent is void.
21. Arbitration, Choice of Law and Venue. This Agreement and all of the rights and obligations of the parties hereto and all of the terms and conditions hereof shall be construed in accordance with and governed by and enforced under the laws of Nevada, excluding conflict of law rules. Except for any action seeking equitable relief, Broker and Venetian agree that all disputes arising from or related to this Agreement shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or to another dispute resolution service agreed upon in writing by the parties, provided that the following special rules shall apply to such arbitration: (a) the place of filing and administration shall be the Las Vegas, Nevada office of the AAA or any such other reputable dispute resolution service and any hearing shall be conducted in Las Vegas, Nevada and (b) there shall be a single arbitrator, appointed in accordance with the AAA's or such other dispute resolution service's procedures. Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred.

22. Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of a party to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of that right, remedy, power or privilege. No waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any particular occurrence, shall be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any other occurrence.
24. Complete Agreement and Confidential Information. If Broker fails to comply fully with the request and does not cure such failure within the time specified in any follow up notice to Broker, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement upon notice to Broker without any liability by Venetian.

Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through your DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) Express user account. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the "I agree" button at the bottom of this document.

Electronic Representation of your signature and initials

Each time that you (or your agent) use the signature and initials that you have selected, it would be the electronic representation of your signature and initials for all purposes including legally binding contracts " just the same as a pen-and-paper signature or initial.

Getting paper copies

For such copies, as long as you are an authorized user of the DocuSign system you will have the ability to download and print any documents we send to you through your DocuSign user account for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign "Withdraw Consent" form on the signing page of your DocuSign account. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use your DocuSign Express user account to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Venetian sponsors, hosts, produces, or otherwise provides various entertainment acts (each a "Show") from time-to-time in the Venetian property showroom ("Showroom");

WHEREAS, Venetian desires to engage the Broker with respect to the sale of tickets for performances ("Performance") at the Showroom;

WHEREAS, Broker is in the business of selling tickets for various entertainments shows;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in the above Recitals, with each and every Recital above incorporated into the Agreement in its entirety by this reference, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Venetian Provided Tickets. Venetian agrees to provide Broker with seats for each Performance of the Show and upon Venetian's receipt of payment in full from Broker will provide those Patrons ("Patrons") tickets to the Performance and all seats will be designated by Venetian in a specified predetermined block according to price.

Broker will only sell Tickets at the Ticket prices listed and agreed to on any Addendum to this Agreement. Each Addendum to this Agreement shall be substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Attachment "A", shall reference this Agreement, and contain at minimum the following information:

- a) Show name;
- b) Date and Times of the Show for which Tickets are authorized to be sold;
- c) Location of Show;
- d) Age restrictions;
- e) Ticket prices; and
- f) Broker Commission.

2. Ticket Sales - Financial. Broker will receive a commission ("Commission") and charge a service fee ("Service Fee"), as provided on any Addendum hereto, for each ticket sold upon the express condition that funds for tickets are received by Broker and remitted, within 10 days of receipt, in full to Venetian as set forth in this Agreement and the funds are not subject to a chargeback by a merchant bank. Broker may not modify the Commission without the express written consent of Venetian. Venetian's consent to change the Commission may only be provided by an Addendum which, once fully executed by authorized representatives of all parties, will act as an amendment to the Agreement for the limited purpose of modifying Commission and will be subject to all other terms and conditions of the Agreement. Broker must expressly disclose, identify and advise Patrons of any Service Fee imposed by Broker and place Patron on notice that such fee is in addition to the Ticket prices. Further, any advertisement of the Ticket price and the Ticket price on any voucher(s) MUST include the designation that the Ticket prices include the Live Entertainment Tax (LET). The LET shall be calculated as base Ticket price plus Venetian base ticket service fee times 9% (or whatever the then-current percentage is for the LET).
3. Ticket Sales – Dates/Times. Tickets may not be sold more than one hundred twenty (120) days in advance of the Performance date nor less than two (2) hours prior to any Performance. Performance dates and times may be modified and updates to the schedule will be provided to Broker from time to time in an Addendum. Broker may not sell for Performance dates or times that have not been established. Broker will fax (702-414-1252) or email (ticketrequest@sands.com) all show orders at least 2 hours prior to the Performance sold.
4. Venetian Reservation of Rights. Venetian reserves the right to refuse admittance to any Patron who arrives later than one (1) hour prior to Performance time or does not comply with Venetian's reasonable admittance procedures applied in good faith to all patrons, regardless of where patron acquired a Ticket. Examples of reasonable refusal of admittance are lack of proper identification and drunk and disorderly conduct. Venetian reserves the right to refuse any Patron without proper identification. Broker shall inform Patrons of the foregoing.
5. Show Marketing. Venetian will provide marketing and advertising materials for the Show to Broker. Broker shall not use any other materials to promote the Show and may not make any changes to any materials provided by Venetian without explicit written approval of Venetian. Only logos and images that have been pre-approved by Venetian may be used by Broker. Broker agrees that it will refrain from any advertising with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement which is, in any way, objectionable to Venetian and in all instances advertising requires the express prior written consent of Venetian. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Broker shall not use the "Venetian Casino Resort", "Palazzo Casino Resort" or "BAZ STAR CROSSED LOVE" names or logos, or any other trademarks belonging to Venetian Casino Resort LLC, BAZ STAR CROSSED LOVE, or any of their respective parent, affiliates or subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the trademark and/or intellectual property owner.

8. Sales Reporting. Broker must send Venetian a daily manifest/sales report for all tickets sold as well as a weekly manifest/sales report by Friday of each week for all ticket sales in the prior Monday to Sunday week. Each calendar week, Broker will collect and remit payment for all tickets sold less Commission derived from ticket sales along with the weekly report by the following Friday to the following:

Broker shall make payment only by check, wire transfer or other commercially reasonable method requested by Venetian, and, if by wire transfer, Broker will be responsible to promptly contact the Venetian accounting point of contact following its execution of the Agreement to obtain wire transfer information and directions. In the event Broker fails to remit funds for tickets sold, Venetian shall refuse to release Tickets to the Patron(s).

9. Financial Assurances. Venetian reserves the right, at any point in time during the term of the Agreement and in addition to any other legal rights and remedies it may have, to require that Broker submit a security deposit or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount satisfactory to Venetian if it is determined in Venetian's sole discretion: (i) Broker's credit worthiness or financial condition has decreased or changed; (ii) Broker has failed to remit any amount(s) when due; (iii) Broker has dishonored any payment(s) due and owing Venetian; or (iv) Broker has filed any voluntary or involuntary petition under insolvency laws or had a receiver appointed for all or any portion of its business.

In the event of any disputes between Broker and its customers involving, but not limited to, requests for refunds with respect to Tickets sold by Broker, Broker agrees to be solely liable for the financial responsibility of such refunds. Should Broker fail to remit payments to Venetian for any reason Broker shall remain solely liable to Venetian for its Ticket handling/Service Fee and the base price of the Ticket.

12. Ticket Receipts. All ticket receipts shall be held in trust for the benefit of Venetian pending settlement, regardless of the name or title of any account in which the funds are located or the identity of the account holder, and receipts due to Venetian shall be released from trust only upon settlement. Broker agrees that should it become a debtor or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Venetian and receipts due Venetian shall not become property of the estate, and further agrees that Broker shall hold only legal title to such funds and no equitable interest therein, until the Venetian and receipts due to Venetian are actually paid to Venetian by Broker.
13. Show Modifications. In the event that Venetian changes the Ticket prices or Performances for the show, Venetian shall notify Broker of the new Ticket prices and/or Performance dates and times and the dates that the new Ticket prices and/or Performance show times will be in effect. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued by Broker at the prevailing Ticket price prior to notice to Broker.
14. Term and Termination. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by a party to this Agreement. Any party hereto may terminate this Agreement with or without cause (for any reason or no reason) upon twenty-four (24) hours written notice to the other party(ies). Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued or Ticket sales finalized by Broker prior to notice of termination, provided Broker is able to account for such vouchers or Ticket sales and remits payment in full to Venetian associated therewith in accordance with this Agreement.
15. Ethics. Broker and its agents and representatives shall not solicit or receive from Venetian or any person representing Venetian, and Venetian or any person representing Venetian shall not offer to give to Broker or its agents or representatives, any money, gift, gratuity or other thing of value as an inducement to sell Tickets. The foregoing provisions of the paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to Commissions paid to Broker, as described herein.

Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure

VEN 226

CONSUMER DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Las Vegas Sands Corp. (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through your DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) Express user account. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the "I agree" button at the bottom of this document.

Electronic Representation of your signature and initials

Each time that you (or your agent) use the signature and initials that you have selected, it would be the electronic representation of your signature and initials for all purposes including legally binding contracts " just the same as a pen-and-paper signature or initial.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. For such copies, as long as you are an authorized user of the DocuSign system you will have the ability to download and print any documents we send to you through your DocuSign user account for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign "Withdraw Consent" form on the signing page of your DocuSign account. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use your DocuSign Express user account to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through your DocuSign user account all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.

TICKET BROKER AGREEMENT

This Ticket Broker Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into as of June 13, 2016 (Effective Date”) by and between Brand Vegas, LLC d/b/a Vegas on Demand/VegasTheApp.com (“Broker”), and Venetian Casino Resort, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Venetian”) on the terms and conditions set forth herein. Broker and Venetian may hereinafter be individually referred to as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Venetian sponsors, hosts, produces, or otherwise provides various entertainment acts (each a “Show”) from time-to-time in the Venetian property showroom (“Showroom”);

WHEREAS, Venetian desires to engage the Broker with respect to the sale of tickets for performances (“Performance”) at the Showroom;

WHEREAS, Broker is in the business of selling tickets for various entertainments shows;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into this Agreement pursuant to the below terms and conditions regarding the Broker’s sale of tickets (“Ticket”) to the Show, with the specifics for each Show to be agreed in writing between the Parties through execution of individual attachments (each an “Addendum”).

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in the above Recitals, with each and every Recital above incorporated into the Agreement in its entirety by this reference, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Venetian Provided Tickets. Venetian agrees to provide Broker with seats for each Performance of the Show and upon Venetian’s receipt of payment in full from Broker will provide those Patrons (“Patrons”) tickets to the Performance and all seats will be designated by Venetian in a specified predetermined block according to price.

Broker will only sell Tickets at the Ticket prices listed and agreed to on any Addendum to this Agreement. Each Addendum to this Agreement shall be substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Attachment “A”, shall reference this Agreement, and contain at minimum the following information:

- a) Show name;
- b) Date and Times of the Show for which Tickets are authorized to be sold;
- c) Location of Show;
- d) Age restrictions;
- e) Ticket prices; and
- f) Broker Commission.

2. Ticket Sales - Financial. Broker will receive a commission (“Commission”) and charge a service fee (“Service Fee”), as provided on any Addendum hereto, for each ticket sold upon the express condition that funds for tickets are received by Broker and remitted, within 10 days of receipt, in full to Venetian as set forth in this Agreement and the funds are not subject to a chargeback by a merchant bank. Broker may not modify the Commission without the express written consent of Venetian. Venetian’s consent to change the Commission may only be provided by an Addendum which, once fully executed by authorized representatives of all parties, will act as an amendment to the Agreement for the limited purpose of modifying Commission and will be subject to all other terms and conditions of the Agreement. Broker must expressly disclose, identify and advise Patrons of any Service Fee imposed by Broker and place Patron on notice that such fee is in addition to the Ticket prices. Further, any advertisement of the Ticket price and the Ticket price on any voucher(s) MUST include the designation that the Ticket prices include the Live Entertainment Tax (LET). The LET shall be calculated as base Ticket price plus Venetian base ticket service fee times 9% (or whatever the then-current percentage is for the LET).
3. Ticket Sales – Dates/Times. Tickets may not be sold more than one hundred twenty (120) days in advance of the Performance date nor less than two (2) hours prior to any Performance. Performance dates and times may be modified and updates to the schedule will be provided to Broker from time to time in an Addendum. Broker may not sell for Performance dates or times that have not been established. Broker will fax (702-414-1252) or email (ticketrequest@sands.com) all show orders at least 2 hours prior to the Performance sold.
4. Venetian Reservation of Rights. Venetian reserves the right to refuse admittance to any Patron who arrives later than one (1) hour prior to Performance time or does not comply with Venetian’s reasonable admittance procedures applied in good faith to all patrons, regardless of where patron acquired a Ticket. Examples of reasonable refusal of admittance are lack of proper identification and drunk and disorderly conduct. Venetian reserves the right to refuse any Patron without proper identification. Broker shall inform Patrons of the foregoing.
5. Show Marketing. Venetian will provide marketing and advertising materials for the Show to Broker. Broker shall not use any other materials to promote the Show and may not make any changes to any materials provided by Venetian without explicit written approval of Venetian. Only logos and images that have been pre-approved by Venetian may be used by Broker. Broker agrees that it will refrain from any advertising with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement which is, in any way, objectionable to Venetian and in all instances advertising requires the express prior written consent of Venetian. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Broker shall not use the “Venetian Casino Resort”, “Palazzo Casino Resort” or any Show’s names or logos, or any other trademarks belonging to Venetian Casino Resort, LLC, or a Show, or any of their respective parent, affiliates or subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the trademark and/or intellectual property owner.

6. Ticket Sales Restrictions. Broker shall not accept discounts or other promotional offers in connection with Tickets sold by Broker. Broker shall not under any circumstances sell tickets to other third-party ticket brokers, ticket wholesalers or any other ticket resellers.
7. Show Information. Broker specifically agrees that any and all information relating to the Show may be modified or discontinued at any time by Venetian in its sole discretion.
8. Sales Reporting. Broker must send Venetian a daily manifest/sales report for all tickets sold as well as a weekly manifest/sales report by Friday of each week for all ticket sales in the prior Monday to Sunday week. Each calendar week, Broker will collect and remit payment for all tickets sold less Commission derived from ticket sales along with the weekly report by the following Friday to the following:

Accounts Receivable
Attn: Administrative Assistant
The Venetian Resort - Hotel - Casino
3355 Las Vegas Boulevard South
Las Vegas, NV 89109
702-414-4590

The report will detail at a minimum each Ticket sold by total price paid by customer, Ticket price and Commission.

Broker shall make payment only by check, wire transfer or other commercially reasonable method requested by Venetian, and, if by wire transfer, Broker will be responsible to promptly contact the Venetian accounting point of contact following its execution of the Agreement to obtain wire transfer information and directions. In the event Broker fails to remit funds for tickets sold, Venetian shall refuse to release Tickets to the Patron(s).

9. Financial Assurances. Venetian reserves the right, at any point in time during the term of the Agreement and in addition to any other legal rights and remedies it may have, to require that Broker submit a security deposit or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount satisfactory to Venetian if it is determined in Venetian's sole discretion: (i) Broker's credit worthiness or financial condition has decreased or changed; (ii) Broker has failed to remit any amount(s) when due; (iii) Broker has dishonored any payment(s) due and owing Venetian; or (iv) Broker has filed any voluntary or involuntary petition under insolvency laws or had a receiver appointed for all or any portion of its business.
10. Voucher Policy and Procedures. Broker shall, at a minimum, provide the information set forth in the attached Attachment "B" on its website and in other printed materials regarding the Show and shall sell the Tickets in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth therein. Broker is not authorized to refund any amounts collected or remitted for Ticket sales.
11. Outstanding Amounts and Refunds. Venetian shall have the right to charge interest of one (1%) percent per month on any amounts overdue from Broker. In the event of any disputes between Broker and its customers involving, but not limited to, requests for refunds with respect to Tickets sold by Broker, Broker agrees to be solely liable for the financial responsibility of such refunds. Should Broker fail to remit payments to Venetian for any reason Broker shall remain solely liable to Venetian for its Ticket handling/Service Fee and the base price of the Ticket.

12. Ticket Receipts. All ticket receipts shall be held in trust for the benefit of Venetian pending settlement, regardless of the name or title of any account in which the funds are located or the identity of the account holder, and receipts due to Venetian shall be released from trust only upon settlement. Broker agrees that should it become a debtor or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Venetian and receipts due Venetian shall not become property of the estate, and further agrees that Broker shall hold only legal title to such funds and no equitable interest therein, until the Venetian and receipts due to Venetian are actually paid to Venetian by Broker.
13. Show Modifications. In the event that Venetian changes the Ticket prices or Performances for the show, Venetian shall notify Broker of the new Ticket prices and/or Performance dates and times and the dates that the new Ticket prices and/or Performance show times will be in effect. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued by Broker at the prevailing Ticket price prior to notice to Broker.
14. Term and Termination. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by a Party to this Agreement. Any Party hereto may terminate this Agreement with or without cause (for any reason or no reason) upon twenty-four (24) hours written notice to the other Party. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued or Ticket sales finalized by Broker prior to notice of termination, provided Broker is able to account for such vouchers or Ticket sales and remits payment in full to Venetian associated therewith in accordance with this Agreement.
15. Ethics. Broker and its agents and representatives shall not solicit or receive from Venetian or any person representing Venetian, and Venetian or any person representing Venetian shall not offer to give to Broker or its agents or representatives, any money, gift, gratuity or other thing of value as an inducement to sell Tickets. The foregoing provisions of the paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to Commissions paid to Broker, as described herein.
16. Notices. Any and all notices and demands by or from any party required or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be validly given or made on the date served personally, on the date sent by confirmed facsimile, on the next business day after delivery by a recognized overnight delivery service, or three days after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

17. Indemnification. Broker agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Venetian, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors and employees, harmless from and against any and all third party claims, demands, liability, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of any nature whatsoever arising out of (a) a breach of this Agreement by Broker, or (b) the acts, omissions or negligence of Broker or its employees, agents or contractors.
18. Gaming Compliance. Broker acknowledges that Venetian and affiliates of Venetian are businesses that are or may be subject to and exist because of privileged licenses issued by governmental authorities relating to casino gaming ("Gaming Authorities"). Broker shall obtain, at Broker's expense, any license, qualification, clearance or the like which shall be required of Broker by any Gaming Authority or any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian. If Broker fails to satisfy such requirement or if Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian is directed to cease business with Broker by any such Gaming Authority, or if Venetian shall in good faith determine, in Venetian's sole and exclusive judgment, that Broker or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, designees or representatives (a) is or might be engaged in, or is about to be engaged in, any activity or activities, or (b) was or is involved in any relationship, either of which could or does jeopardize Venetian's licenses, or those of its affiliates, or if any such license is threatened to be, or is, denied, curtailed, suspended or revoked, then Broker shall immediately (i) terminate any relationship with the individual or entity which is the source of the problem, or (ii) cease the activity creating the problem. If Broker does not comply with item (i) or (ii) above, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement without liability to either party because of such termination; provided, however, if any matter described herein can be appealed or is reasonably susceptible to cure, Broker shall have a reasonable time within which to make such appeal or effect such cure (but in no event longer than the time available to fully comply with any requirement imposed by any Gaming Authority or any other law, rule or regulation) and Venetian shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement during such appeal or cure period.
19. Independent Contractor. The Parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and nothing herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other business relationship between the parties except supplier and buyer. Broker shall be solely liable for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and representatives.
20. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned by Broker without the prior written consent of Venetian. Any purported assignment without such consent is void.
21. Arbitration, Choice of Law and Venue. This Agreement and all of the rights and obligations of the Parties hereto and all of the terms and conditions hereof shall be construed in accordance with and governed by and enforced under the laws of Nevada, excluding conflict of law rules. Except for any action seeking equitable relief, Broker and Venetian agree that all disputes arising from or related to this Agreement shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or to another dispute resolution service agreed upon in writing by the Parties, provided that the following special rules shall apply to such arbitration: (a) the place of filing and administration shall be the Las Vegas, Nevada office of the AAA or any such other reputable dispute resolution service and any hearing shall be conducted in Las Vegas, Nevada and (b) there shall be a single arbitrator, appointed in accordance with the AAA's or such other dispute resolution service's procedures. In any action or proceeding arising out of, related to or brought to enforce the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred.

22. Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of a party to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of that right, remedy, power or privilege. No waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any particular occurrence, shall be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any other occurrence.
24. Complete Agreement and Confidential Information. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement of the Parties and supersedes all previous negotiations, agreements, understandings or commitments with respect to the subject matter hereof, and shall not be released, discharged, changed or modified, except by an instrument in writing signed by both Parties. This Agreement is confidential information of Venetian and any unauthorized review, use, disclosure or distribution is prohibited.
25. Compliance.

(a) Regulatory Requirements. Venetian and any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and other related companies may from time to time require that Broker complete vendor registration documents, background checks and personal history documents, acknowledgements of policies and other documents in connection with gaming, regulatory and compliance matters. Broker shall complete and otherwise cooperate with such requests promptly but in no event later than the date reasonably requested. If Broker fails to comply fully with the request and does not cure such failure within the time specified in any follow up notice to Broker, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement upon notice to Broker without any liability by Venetian.

(b) FCPA. TICKET BROKER AGREEMENT

This Ticket Broker Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into as of July 11, 2016 (“Effective Date”) by and between Brand Vegas, LLC d/b/a Vegas on Demand (“Broker”), and Venetian Casino Resort, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (“Venetian”) on the terms and conditions set forth herein. Broker and Venetian may hereinafter be individually referred to as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Venetian sponsors, hosts, produces, or otherwise provides various entertainment acts (each a “Show”) from time-to-time in the Venetian property showroom (“Showroom”);

WHEREAS, Venetian desires to engage the Broker with respect to the sale of tickets for performances (“Performance”) at the Showroom;

WHEREAS, Broker is in the business of selling tickets for various entertainments shows;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into this Agreement pursuant to the below terms and conditions regarding the Broker’s sale of tickets (“Ticket”) to the Show, with the specifics for each Show to be agreed in writing between the Parties through execution of individual attachments (each an “Addendum”).

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in the above Recitals, with each and every Recital above incorporated into the Agreement in its entirety by this reference, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Venetian Provided Tickets. Venetian agrees to provide Broker with seats for each Performance of the Show and upon Venetian’s receipt of payment in full from Broker will provide those Patrons (“Patrons”) tickets to the Performance and all seats will be designated by Venetian in a specified predetermined block according to price.

Broker will only sell Tickets at the Ticket prices listed and agreed to on any Addendum to this Agreement. Each Addendum to this Agreement shall be substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Attachment “A”, shall reference this Agreement, and contain at minimum the following information:

- a) Show name;
- b) Date and Times of the Show for which Tickets are authorized to be sold;
- c) Location of Show;
- d) Age restrictions;
- e) Ticket prices; and
- f) Broker Commission.

2. Ticket Sales - Financial. Broker will receive a commission (“Commission”) and charge a service fee (“Service Fee”), as provided on any Addendum hereto, for each ticket sold upon the express condition that funds for tickets are received by Broker and remitted, within 10 days of receipt, in full to Venetian as set forth in this Agreement and the funds are not subject to a chargeback by a merchant bank. Broker may not modify the Commission without the express written consent of Venetian. Venetian’s consent to change the Commission may only be provided by an Addendum which, once fully executed by authorized representatives of all parties, will act as an amendment to the Agreement for the limited purpose of modifying Commission and will be subject to all other terms and conditions of the Agreement. Broker must expressly disclose, identify and advise Patrons of any Service Fee imposed by Broker and place Patron on notice that such fee is in addition to the Ticket prices. Further, any advertisement of the Ticket price and the Ticket price on any voucher(s) MUST include the designation that the Ticket prices include the Live Entertainment Tax (LET). The LET shall be calculated as base Ticket price plus Venetian base ticket service fee times 9% (or whatever the then-current percentage is for the LET).
3. Ticket Sales – Dates/Times. Tickets may not be sold more than one hundred twenty (120) days in advance of the Performance date nor less than two (2) hours prior to any Performance. Performance dates and times may be modified and updates to the schedule will be provided to Broker from time to time in an Addendum. Broker may not sell for Performance dates or times that have not been established. Broker will fax (702-414-1252) or email (ticketrequest@sands.com) all show orders at least 2 hours prior to the Performance sold.
4. Venetian Reservation of Rights. Venetian reserves the right to refuse admittance to any Patron who arrives later than one (1) hour prior to Performance time or does not comply with Venetian’s reasonable admittance procedures applied in good faith to all patrons, regardless of where patron acquired a Ticket. Examples of reasonable refusal of admittance are lack of proper identification and drunk and disorderly conduct. Venetian reserves the right to refuse any Patron without proper identification. Broker shall inform Patrons of the foregoing.
5. Show Marketing. Venetian will provide marketing and advertising materials for the Show to Broker. Broker shall not use any other materials to promote the Show and may not make any changes to any materials provided by Venetian without explicit written approval of Venetian. Only logos and images that have been pre-approved by Venetian may be used by Broker. Broker agrees that it will refrain from any advertising with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement which is, in any way, objectionable to Venetian and in all instances advertising requires the express prior written consent of Venetian. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Broker shall not use the “Venetian Casino Resort”, “Palazzo Casino Resort” or any Show’s names or logos, or any other trademarks belonging to Venetian Casino Resort, LLC, or a Show, or any of their respective parent, affiliates or subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the trademark and/or intellectual property owner.

6. Ticket Sales Restrictions. Broker shall not accept discounts or other promotional offers in connection with Tickets sold by Broker. Broker shall not under any circumstances sell tickets to other third-party ticket brokers, ticket wholesalers or any other ticket resellers.
7. Show Information. Broker specifically agrees that any and all information relating to the Show may be modified or discontinued at any time by Venetian in its sole discretion.
8. Sales Reporting. Broker must send Venetian a daily manifest/sales report for all tickets sold as well as a weekly manifest/sales report by Friday of each week for all ticket sales in the prior Monday to Sunday week. Each calendar week, Broker will collect and remit payment for all tickets sold less Commission derived from ticket sales along with the weekly report by the following Friday to the following:

Accounts Receivable
Attn: Administrative Assistant
The Venetian Resort - Hotel - Casino
3355 Las Vegas Boulevard South
Las Vegas, NV 89109
702-414-4590

The report will detail at a minimum each Ticket sold by total price paid by customer, Ticket price and Commission.

Broker shall make payment only by check, wire transfer or other commercially reasonable method requested by Venetian, and, if by wire transfer, Broker will be responsible to promptly contact the Venetian accounting point of contact following its execution of the Agreement to obtain wire transfer information and directions. In the event Broker fails to remit funds for tickets sold, Venetian shall refuse to release Tickets to the Patron(s).

9. Financial Assurances. Venetian reserves the right, at any point in time during the term of the Agreement and in addition to any other legal rights and remedies it may have, to require that Broker submit a security deposit or irrevocable letter of credit in an amount satisfactory to Venetian if it is determined in Venetian's sole discretion: (i) Broker's credit worthiness or financial condition has decreased or changed; (ii) Broker has failed to remit any amount(s) when due; (iii) Broker has dishonored any payment(s) due and owing Venetian; or (iv) Broker has filed any voluntary or involuntary petition under insolvency laws or had a receiver appointed for all or any portion of its business.
10. Voucher Policy and Procedures. Broker shall, at a minimum, provide the information set forth in the attached Attachment "B" on its website and in other printed materials regarding the Show and shall sell the Tickets in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth therein. Broker is not authorized to refund any amounts collected or remitted for Ticket sales.
11. Outstanding Amounts and Refunds. Venetian shall have the right to charge interest of one (1%) percent per month on any amounts overdue from Broker. In the event of any disputes between Broker and its customers involving, but not limited to, requests for refunds with respect to Tickets sold by Broker, Broker agrees to be solely liable for the financial responsibility of such refunds. Should Broker fail to remit payments to Venetian for any reason Broker shall remain solely liable to Venetian for its Ticket handling/Service Fee and the base price of the Ticket.

12. Ticket Receipts. All ticket receipts shall be held in trust for the benefit of Venetian pending settlement, regardless of the name or title of any account in which the funds are located or the identity of the account holder, and receipts due to Venetian shall be released from trust only upon settlement. Broker agrees that should it become a debtor or debtor-in-possession in any bankruptcy proceeding, then the Venetian and receipts due Venetian shall not become property of the estate, and further agrees that Broker shall hold only legal title to such funds and no equitable interest therein, until the Venetian and receipts due to Venetian are actually paid to Venetian by Broker.
13. Show Modifications. In the event that Venetian changes the Ticket prices or Performances for the show, Venetian shall notify Broker of the new Ticket prices and/or Performance dates and times and the dates that the new Ticket prices and/or Performance show times will be in effect. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued by Broker at the prevailing Ticket price prior to notice to Broker.
14. Term and Termination. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by a Party to this Agreement. Any Party hereto may terminate this Agreement with or without cause (for any reason or no reason) upon twenty-four (24) hours written notice to the other Party. Venetian agrees to honor vouchers issued or Ticket sales finalized by Broker prior to notice of termination, provided Broker is able to account for such vouchers or Ticket sales and remits payment in full to Venetian associated therewith in accordance with this Agreement.
15. Ethics. Broker and its agents and representatives shall not solicit or receive from Venetian or any person representing Venetian, and Venetian or any person representing Venetian shall not offer to give to Broker or its agents or representatives, any money, gift, gratuity or other thing of value as an inducement to sell Tickets. The foregoing provisions of the paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to Commissions paid to Broker, as described herein.
16. Notices. Any and all notices and demands by or from any party required or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be validly given or made on the date served personally, on the date sent by confirmed facsimile, on the next business day after delivery by a recognized overnight delivery service, or three days after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

17. Indemnification. Broker agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Venetian, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors and employees, harmless from and against any and all third party claims, demands, liability, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of any nature whatsoever arising out of (a) a breach of this Agreement by Broker, or (b) the acts, omissions or negligence of Broker or its employees, agents or contractors.
18. Gaming Compliance. Broker acknowledges that Venetian and affiliates of Venetian are businesses that are or may be subject to and exist because of privileged licenses issued by governmental authorities relating to casino gaming ("Gaming Authorities"). Broker shall obtain, at Broker's expense, any license, qualification, clearance or the like which shall be required of Broker by any Gaming Authority or any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian. If Broker fails to satisfy such requirement or if Venetian or any affiliate of Venetian is directed to cease business with Broker by any such Gaming Authority, or if Venetian shall in good faith determine, in Venetian's sole and exclusive judgment, that Broker or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, designees or representatives (a) is or might be engaged in, or is about to be engaged in, any activity or activities, or (b) was or is involved in any relationship, either of which could or does jeopardize Venetian's licenses, or those of its affiliates, or if any such license is threatened to be, or is, denied, curtailed, suspended or revoked, then Broker shall immediately (i) terminate any relationship with the individual or entity which is the source of the problem, or (ii) cease the activity creating the problem. If Broker does not comply with item (i) or (ii) above, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement without liability to either party because of such termination; provided, however, if any matter described herein can be appealed or is reasonably susceptible to cure, Broker shall have a reasonable time within which to make such appeal or effect such cure (but in no event longer than the time available to fully comply with any requirement imposed by any Gaming Authority or any other law, rule or regulation) and Venetian shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement during such appeal or cure period.
19. Independent Contractor. The Parties to this Agreement are independent contractors and nothing herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or other business relationship between the parties except supplier and buyer. Broker shall be solely liable for the acts and omissions of its employees, agents and representatives.
20. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned by Broker without the prior written consent of Venetian. Any purported assignment without such consent is void.
21. Arbitration, Choice of Law and Venue. This Agreement and all of the rights and obligations of the Parties hereto and all of the terms and conditions hereof shall be construed in accordance with and governed by and enforced under the laws of Nevada, excluding conflict of law rules. Except for any action seeking equitable relief, Broker and Venetian agree that all disputes arising from or related to this Agreement shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or to another dispute resolution service agreed upon in writing by the Parties, provided that the following special rules shall apply to such arbitration: (a) the place of filing and administration shall be the Las Vegas, Nevada office of the AAA or any such other reputable dispute resolution service and any hearing shall be conducted in Las Vegas, Nevada and (b) there shall be a single arbitrator, appointed in accordance with the AAA's or such other dispute resolution service's procedures. In any action or proceeding arising out of, related to or brought to enforce the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred.

22. Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of a party to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of that right, remedy, power or privilege. No waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any particular occurrence, shall be construed as a waiver of such right, remedy, power or privilege, with respect to any other occurrence.
24. Complete Agreement and Confidential Information. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement of the Parties and supersedes all previous negotiations, agreements, understandings or commitments with respect to the subject matter hereof, and shall not be released, discharged, changed or modified, except by an instrument in writing signed by both Parties. This Agreement is confidential information of Venetian and any unauthorized review, use, disclosure or distribution is prohibited.
25. Compliance.

(a) Regulatory Requirements. Venetian and any of its affiliates, subsidiaries and other related companies may from time to time require that Broker complete vendor registration documents, background checks and personal history documents, acknowledgements of policies and other documents in connection with gaming, regulatory and compliance matters. Broker shall complete and otherwise cooperate with such requests promptly but in no event later than the date reasonably requested. If Broker fails to comply fully with the request and does not cure such failure within the time specified in any follow up notice to Broker, then Venetian may terminate this Agreement upon notice to Broker without any liability by Venetian.

(b) FCPA. In connection with performing its services under this Agreement, Broker shall comply with all applicable anti-corruption and anti-money laundering laws and regulations, including those governing the providing of incentives, inducements, kickbacks, gratuities or bribes, including without limitation the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (FCPA) (15 U.S.C. §§ 78dd-1, et seq.) which precludes giving, offering or agreeing to give anything of value to foreign government officials or holders of and candidates for public office or political parties, their families and agents, directly or indirectly, in connection with obtaining or maintaining contracts or orders or obtaining other benefits.

(c) Code of Conduct. Broker hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of Venetian's "Supplier Code of Conduct" by virtue of the Code of Conduct being made available to Broker at https://www.sands.com/content/dam/corporate/sands/master/main/home/files/lvs_suppliercodeofconduct_jan2013.pdf. CONSUMER DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Las Vegas Sands Corp. (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through your DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) Express user account. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the "I agree" button at the bottom of this document.

Electronic Representation of your signature and initials

Each time that you (or your agent) use the signature and initials that you have selected, it would be the electronic representation of your signature and initials for all purposes including legally binding contracts " just the same as a pen-and-paper signature or initial.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. For such copies, as long as you are an authorized user of the DocuSign system you will have the ability to download and print any documents we send to you through your DocuSign user account for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign "Withdraw Consent" form on the signing page of your DocuSign account. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use your DocuSign Express user account to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through your DocuSign user account all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.

12. When ticket sales for Venetian events under a Ticket Broker Agreement were made by Brand Vegas kiosk employees, the Brand Vegas employees were expected to provide guests with information regarding the specific event, input the guest's information into the Brand Vegas operating system, accept payment for the event and generate a Brand Vegas labeled ticket voucher and transaction receipt. 18. In the course of her employment for Brand Vegas, Joyce Sekera sold tickets to events held at Venetian pursuant to the aforementioned Ticket Broker Agreements, and received commission for each such transaction.

This report does not include all such sales, as there was a system change in late 2016 which caused Brand Vegas to lose some data; however, I have verified that the information provided is true and correct as to the reported sales pursuant to the best information we have at this time.

20. All work performed by Joyce Sekera as a Brand Vegas kiosk employee was in furtherance of broker agreements for various business entities, including all Ticket Broker Agreements the company had with Venetian.

21. Las Vegas Sands Corp. & The Venetian / The Palazzo	Title	Parking
	Relevant Department(s)	All
	Position(s) Applied To	All

CONTENTSParking

The policy of the Company is to provide parking for its Team Members and tenants in designated areas. Therefore, all hourly Team Members, all Grand Canal Shoppes (GCS) and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel must park in the Team Member parking structure (also known as the Shared Garage) on Levels 5 through 16. Traffic through The Venetian Porte Cochere must be minimized to ensure unmatched guest service, and to help us create a positive experience for our guests. Therefore, all Team Members using the Shared Garage or Venetian parking areas must exit the property via Koval Lane and not exit via The Venetian Porte Cochere. All hourly Team Members and tenants will be issued a blue parking placard.

Venetian and Palazzo Team Members who hold the position of Assistant Director, Director, or Executive Director must park inside the gated area of the 9th floor of The Venetian parking garage ("Level 9") and exit the property via Koval or park on P4 in The Palazzo parking garage, based upon office location of the Team Member. These Team Members will receive a red parking placard. Blackout periods, as further defined below, do not apply.

Vice Presidents of the Company are permitted to park on Level 4 of The Venetian parking garage or in the designated area on P1 of The Palazzo parking garage based upon office location provided; however, only one parking spot will be assigned to each Vice President. Vice Presidents will receive a red parking placard. Team Members who hold the position of administrative staff and work for a Senior Vice President and above are permitted to park inside the gated area of Level 9 of The Venetian parking garage and are to exit the property via Koval Lane. These Team Members will receive a red parking placard. Blackout periods do not apply.

All salaried Team Members who hold the position below an Assistant Director level may park on Level P4 in The Palazzo parking garage or the Team Member parking structure (also known as the Shared Garage) based upon office or work location of the Team Member. These Team Members will receive a yellow parking placard. Blackout periods, as further defined below, apply.

Team Members who work directly for a Corporate Executive Officer are permitted to park on the 10th floor of The Venetian parking garage (Level 10) and exit the property via Koval Lane or park on P4 in The Palazzo parking garage based upon office or work location of the Team Member. Corporate Team Members who are eligible to park on Level 10 will receive a yellow parking placard with a special Security decal with the letter "C" affixed. This will allow them to park in the above mentioned areas. Blackout periods, as further defined below, will apply to those who have been issued this special placard. Team Members as identified above, must obtain their assigned parking placard from Parking Compliance and must display their assigned parking garage placard at all times. Any questions regarding Level 10 parking should be directed to the Parking Compliance Officer in the Security Department.

This policy does not pertain to seasonal or temporary workers who may work directly for a Corporate Executive, who will be required to park in the Shared Garage and exit via Koval Lane.

Team Members with children in the on-site day care, can only park inside the gated area on Level 9 of The Venetian parking garage and exit the property via Koval Lane. However, documents indicating acceptance into the on-site day care must be produced to the Parking Compliance Officer. The proper forms must be filled out before a parking placard including a black and white "CC" placard will be issued. Due to safety reasons, Team Members may not park on P4 in The Palazzo to drop off or pick up children in the day care. Team Members using the on-site day care must display both parking placards while parked on site. Again, they must exit the property via Koval Lane and are not to exit via The Venetian Porte Cochere. Team Members will display their appropriate placard with the approved black and white "CC" placard. Blackout periods, as further defined below, do not apply.

Team Members with Nevada ADA placards designated for their use may park in any public parking space in The Venetian or The Palazzo parking garages, subject to availability and all applicable Nevada Revised Statutes. In order to receive special parking accommodations, Team Members must obtain a temporary or permanent ADA placard from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). Team Members using ADA placards must display the ADA placard along with their appropriate Company issued parking placard simultaneously at all times and provide Parking Compliance with a copy of the letter they received from the DMV. Blackout periods, as further defined below, do not apply. When parking in The Venetian garage the Team Member must exit the property via Koval Lane.

Blackout Periods: Throughout the year, blackout periods (dates) will be implemented to accommodate our guests who come to The Venetian and The Palazzo. When blackout periods are implemented, all Team Members who have been issued a yellow placard or a yellow placard with the Security sticker "C" affixed, must park in the Team Member shared garage. Parking on Level 10 of The Venetian guest garage or P4 in The Palazzo parking garage is not permitted during blackout periods.

Exceptions to the Blackout Periods: The following are positions and locations that are exempt from the blackout periods: Assistant Director, Director, Executive Director including administrative staff who work for a Senior Vice President or higher (Level 9 of The Venetian guest garage inside the gated area); Vice Presidents (Level 4 of The Venetian guest garage and in the designated area on P1 of The Palazzo guest garage); Team Members with Nevada ADA placards (unrestricted parking on campus); Team Members with children in the on-site child care (Level 9 of The Venetian guest garage inside the gated area) and Team Members who participate in the Club Ride carpool program.

Procedure

1. The Venetian Team Member Entrance, located near the Security department on the first floor of The Venetian, is the only authorized entrance for GCS personnel, Shoppes at Palazzo personnel and Venetian Team Members. The Palazzo Team Member entrance, located on the service road at the foot of the staircase, is the only authorized entrance for Palazzo Team Members. For Team Members authorized to park in Palazzo on P4, the authorized entrance is through the P4 Heart of House entrance notated on the door as "Team Members Only".
2. Team Members who receive a ride to work must be dropped off and picked up on the service road near The Venetian Security department. Team Members may not be dropped off or picked up in the Sands Expo Convention Center entrance drive located on Sands Avenue. Vehicles that drop off or pick up Team Members must exit the property via Koval Lane.
3. It is a violation of this policy for GCS personnel, Shoppes at Palazzo personnel or for any Venetian or Palazzo Team Member to access the Company premises other than through the approved Team Member Entrances.
4. It is a violation of this policy for any Venetian or Palazzo Team Members, GCS personnel and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel to park at a location other than as described in this policy without prior approval from the Parking Compliance Officer. Vehicles parked in locations other than as described in this policy will be handled as follows: Beginning the effective date of this revised Parking policy; Team Members who violate the Parking policy will receive a Career Decision Day (CDD) for the first violation and placed on Suspension pending investigation for the second violation. This policy will apply to Team Members. Should a Team Member come on property during off-duty hours, such Team Member must contact the Security Dispatch if parking in unassigned areas.
5. Team Members who fail to adhere to the blackout periods or park their vehicles in locations other than as described in this Parking policy will be handled as follows: Beginning the effective date of this revised Parking policy, Team Members who violate the Parking policy will receive a citation and Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) for the first violation and a Career Decision Day (CDD) for the second violation. The third violation of the Parking policy by a Team Member will result in the Team Member being placed on Suspension Pending Investigation (SPI). This policy will apply to Team Members only and not to GCS personnel or Shoppes at Palazzo personnel.

6. Team Members, GCS personnel and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel who drive in the parking structure must, at all times: drive slowly, drive only in the correct direction on ramps (no shortcuts), be respectful to Security officers, and follow physical and verbal directions by Security officers as well as posted signs and placards. Team Members should be prepared to show ID.
7. Staging of vehicles on floors and waiting for parking spaces will not be tolerated.
8. No oversized parking for Team Members is authorized on property. There is oversized parking in Central Park West (CPW) located near the Wynn Team Member Garage.
9. All updates to license plates need to be reported to Security Parking Compliance in a timely manner.
10. At the request of any neighboring property, the Company Security Department will promptly respond to the neighboring property to assist in the identification of any Team Members who may be violating the Parking requirements of this policy. The Company Security Department may periodically contact the Security Department of a neighboring property to monitor the effectiveness of this mandatory policy. The Company will require all Team Members, including GCS personnel and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel, to provide to Parking Compliance the license number of each vehicle, which they will park on property. The Security Department will have a copy of such master list and will use a sorted version of that list to check for unauthorized vehicles. The Security Department will also use the master list to determine whether a vehicle parked on a neighboring property is likely that of a Company Team Member, GCS personnel or Shoppes at Palazzo personnel. If it is determined that a Company Team Member, GCS personnel or Shoppes at Palazzo personnel is parked on a neighboring property, Security will provide the same notice to the Divisional Vice President and the Vice President of Human Resources.
11. The Security Department will post uniformed Team Members for certain fixed peak periods and at other random intervals at access points from neighboring properties to identify Company Team Members, GCS personnel and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel who may be violating the Parking policy. If suspected violators are detected, which may require following the Team Member to the Team Member's work site, the report described above will be distributed as set forth above for the purpose of imposing appropriate discipline.
12. GGP is required to, and has advised the Company that it will commence to implement this Parking policy to GCS personnel and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel under its respective contractual arrangements regarding use of the parking spaces provided. GCS personnel and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel will follow the same procedures as outlined above.
13. Due to safety concerns and traffic patterns, Venetian and Palazzo Team Members, GCS personnel and Shoppes at Palazzo personnel departing from the Team Member Shared Garage and Team Members with ADA Placards or those who park on Levels 9 and 10 of The Venetian Parking Garage must exit via Koval Lane and are not to exit via the Venetian Porte Cochère, unless otherwise directed by Security Officers due to peak traffic periods or exit closures.
14. Any Team Member found guilty of altering or misusing an ADA placard may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Team Members must display their assigned parking garage placard at all times.
