LAAS VEGAS, CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA, JULY 8, 2019, 2:02 P.M.

*     *         *             *                 *

(Outside the presence of the panel of prospective jurors.)
THE COURT: All right. We are on the record in Case No. C-337017, State of Nevada versus Devohn Marks. The record will reflect the presence of Mr. Marks with his counsel, Mr. Matsuda, the chief deputies district attorney prosecuting the case are present, as are all officers of the court.

We're outside the presence of the venire panel at this time. I just wanted to note that on the 5th of July, a motion, filed by the defendant in proper person, was filed to -- a motion. It's styled Motion to Withdraw Counsel. Mr. Marks signed that motion on June 24 th, 2019, so I'm not sure why it didn't get filed until July 5th. But it doesn't -it's a form. It indicates that there's an affidavit attached, but there's no -- that it's based upon an attached affidavit, but there is no affidavit attached.

And so it got set by the clerk's office for the 29th, which obviously would be after we start jury selection. And I believe we already addressed this last week; is that correct, Mr. Marks?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: Okay. And so I'll just advance this and deny it, as we already discussed all the issues that he had concerning this last week when I saw him in court.

JD Reporting, Inc.

And are you all ready? We're lining up the jury. Anything further outside the presence of the venire? MR. MATSUDA: No, not from defense.

MS. MOORS: No, Your Honor.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you. So we'll be at ease until they're -- they file in.
(Panel of prospective jurors enters at 2:05 p.m.) THE COURT: Thank you. Please be seated. And this is case No. C-337017, State of Nevada versus Devohn Marks. The record will reflect the presence of Mr. Marks with his counsel, the deputies district attorney prosecuting the case, all officers of the court, and the record will also reflect that we are now within the presence of the venire panel.

Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. Welcome to Department 5. So you've been summonsed here to determine whether or not you will be qualified to sit as jurors in a criminal case. We are spending part of this week picking the jury for this case. The trial will not commence until -- the schedule you see up there, July 22nd. And so we're using this time, and then we'll have a break of a week, a little more than a week, and then we'll actually commence the trial with the jury.

So I'm hoping that we'll get the jury selected within the next two afternoons. So you should know that I have a JD Reporting, Inc.
schedule, is because I do a criminal docket and the drug court docket. So I'm in court all morning every morning, except on Fridays when I'm available for a trial for the full day. But, otherwise, I'm only available in the afternoons because I have these other dockets that I have to hear. And so that's why you'll see on that schedule -- and I'm putting that up there for you so that you can see the schedule we're anticipated to be following once we get into trial.

Now, everything that happens in this courtroom is recorded. We have an audiovisual recording system. Is there anyone who's having difficulty hearing me that would need -- we have some headsets that anybody that's a little hard of hearing can have. Anybody need one?

All right. I see no hands.
All right. So as I say, everything is audiovisual recorded which means these are microphones you see here with the red lights on them. There's one up here on my bench. There are similar microphones at the counsel tables. There's one at the witness stand. There's one on that little podium right there. There are some on that railing behind the first folks there in that first row, that rail. That's the jury box behind you, and there are those microphones there, but they don't pick up very well. And there are no microphones, well, up here, and there are no microphones in the back. So we use a hand-held microphone if we're called -- if I need you to speak.

If you are called upon to speak, which, you know, all of you will be, or generally all of you will be. At some point in time, you may be called upon to speak. You need to do two things: You need to -- before you speak into the microphone, you need to state your full name and the last three digits of your badge number that's on your badge. And we do that so we know who's speaking, and, later, if we need to transcribe the record, it's clear.

Now, the hand-held microphone that my marshal is demonstrating, or about to demonstrate, how you have to hold it. So you see how he's holding it? Just like a rock star; right? And so that's how you have to hold it. If you hold it way down here, it will not pick up. If you're the kind of person that talks with your hands, that's fine. Just do not gesture with the microphone hand; gesture with the other hand. So -- because if you do this while you're talking, I'll have to stop you, and you'll have to start all over again because it won't pick up when you're doing that.

Okay. All right. So as I say, welcome to Department 5. This process of questioning is known as the voir dire. And the reason we ask you these questions is not to pry into your personal lives just for the fun of it. We want to find out whether you're qualified as jurors. And, I mean, you may have interesting lives, and we will be interested in some things. You know, I've had trapeze artists on my jury, and that's always interesting, to find out about something like that during voir dire. But we're not doing it to pry. We're doing it so that we know that you're qualified to be jurors.

And how are you qualified? You're qualified if you're a fair and impartial juror. And so that's what we're looking for. We're looking for 12 jurors and four alternate jurors to serve as fair and impartial determinators of the facts of this case. So that's what we're looking for.

We do this process of questioning under oath. And so I would ask you all to please stand so that the clerk can administer the oath or affirmation.
(Panel of prospective jurors sworn.)
THE CLERK: Thank you. Please be seated.
THE COURT: All right. So I'd ask a few preliminary questions before we introduce the case because these don't have anything to do with the case.

So is there anyone here who is not a citizen of the United States? Please raise your hand. And the record will reflect a negative response.

Is there anyone here who has been convicted of a felony and has not had their civil rights restored so they're not eligible to serve on a jury? And the record will reflect a negative response.

All right. So I'm going to have the -- one of the prosecutors prosecuting the case introduce to you the case

JD Reporting, Inc.
insofar as what the charges are and introduce themselves, the date alleged that the crime occurred -- the alleged crime occurred and the location so you have an idea, roughly, of where this occurred, and also read to you the names of the witnesses who may be called in this case. It's really important that you pay attention to those names because later we're going to ask you if you know any of those witnesses. So it's important to try and listen to those so you can answer appropriately.

State. Ms. Cannizzaro.
MS. CANNIZZARO: Good afternoon. And I'll stand here as long as you can hear me okay.

All right. So good afternoon. My name is Nicole Cannizzaro. I am a chief deputy district attorney with the Clark County District Attorney's Office, and with me is Lindsey Moors who is a deputy district attorney, also with the Clark County District Attorney's Office.

In this particular case, the defendant, Devohn Marks, has been charged with the following crimes: Conspiracy to commit burglary; burglary while in possession of a deadly weapon; conspiracy to commit robbery; robbery with use after deadly weapon, victim over 60 years of age; robbery with use of a deadly weapon; battery with use of a deadly weapon, victim 60 years of age or older; and battery with use of a deadly weapon.

These crimes are alleged to have occurred on

JD Reporting, Inc.

October 29th of 2018 at the Torrey Pines Pub, which is located at 6374 West Lake Mead Boulevard located in Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada. And it was alleged to have occurred around 5:00 a.m. that morning.

During the course of this trial, the State is going to call a number of witnesses, and so what I'm going to do is read a list of witnesses. We will not -- so before anybody panics, we will not be calling all of these witnesses during the course of the trial, but listen carefully so that if you recognize any of the names or any of the individuals who we list, that you can let the Court know that you do recognize some of these witnesses in the event that we do end up calling them during the course of the trial.

So the State may call during the course this trial Shaylene Bernier, Robert Bonner, Gerald Ferony, Myer Goldstein, Antwaine Johnson, Kathleen Petcoff, Destiny Dixon, Miriam O'Dell, John Bosillo.

We may also be calling the following members from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department: Detective Dave Miller, Detective Jason Hanshew, Detective Will Hubbard, Detective Samuel Smith; Officers Weston Ferguson, Joseph Fernandez, Jezabel Rosales, Janet Sotelo, Johnathan Tomaino, Eugenio Basilotta, Weston Ferguson, Joseph Leporay [phonetic], Joseph Winn, Charles Jivapong, Officer S. Cavon [phonetic], E. Stout, and Detective Jeffrey Swanbeck.

JD Reporting, Inc.

We may also be calling FBI Agent Jason Kennedy, D.A. Investigator Rick Moon, and Crime Scene Analysts Caitlin King and Samantha Halm Bennett.

Thank you.
THE COURT: Thank you. And, Mr. Matsuda, would you like to introduce yourself and your client.

MR. MATSUDA: Thank you, Your Honor.
Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. My name is Jess Matsuda, and I represent Mr. Marks here. Other than cross-examining the State's witnesses, we only anticipate maybe calling possibly one female. Her name is Destiny Dixon.

Thank you.
THE COURT: Thank you. All right. So, ladies and gentlemen, when -- you know, some time back, it used to be that people could get excused from jury duty for -- you know, because of their profession. So, you know, they could call up the jury commissioner and say, "Well, you know, I'm a teacher, I'm a lawyer, I'm a doctor," and just be excused. And the legislature thought, well, that's not a fair thing. And so they eliminated all of the ways to just call up and get excused based upon what you did for a living and only left in place two excuses, if you will, for exemptions from service.

And those are these two: If you are 70 years of age or older and you do not wish to serve on a jury, then you may be excused. And you can either be excused from this case or dropped from the rules completely. And as I look over our group, you all look like a pretty young group of prospective jurors. So anybody that's going to avail themselves of such a claim as to be 70 years of age, you'll need to do a couple things. Show your identification to the marshal so he can vouch that you actually are 70 or older, and then you are also required to let me know your secret for your youthful appearance. And the older I get, the more important that is.

And so is there anyone who would like to avail themselves of that exemption from service, 70 years of age or older and does not wish to serve? I see no hands.

Now the other exemption is this: If you are 65 years of age or older and you live at least 65 miles one way from the courthouse, you may be excused as well. Now, one way, that means you need to live either in Laughlin or Mesquite, Nevada, and still be in the county. Because if you're not -- if you don't live in the county, you're not a qualified juror for this -- this trial. So -- but you also have to be 65 years of age or older. Anybody want to avail themselves of that exemption? And I see no hands.

All right. Very good. All right. So next question: Are there any of you who believe that you may be acquainted with the defendant in this case, Mr. Marks? And the record will reflect a negative response.

Is there anyone who believe that they may be

JD Reporting, Inc.
acquainted with the defendant's lawyer, Mr. Matsuda? And, again, the record will reflect a negative response.

Are there any of you who are acquainted with either of the prosecuting attorneys in the case? And, again, I see a negative response.

Are there any of you who believe you are acquainted with any of the witnesses whose names were called? Okay. I've got two hands.

So we will take those in order. Remember, you need to state your full name and your last three digits of your badge number.

THE MARSHAL: You can remain seated, folks, when you speak.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: Ginia Sherwood. And I don't know if I know him but --

THE MARSHAL: I need your badge number.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: Oh. 018. 018. And Rocheleau. Rocheleau. The Rocheleau, John; I don't know if that is a lawyer married to Stacy Rocheleau, divorce lawyer.

MS. MOORS: No, he is not, actually.
THE COURT: No. Okay. Different Rocheleau.
All right. Anyone else? We had a gentleman in the back.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: Theodore Hinson, 089. I believe I'm acquainted with Destiny Dixon.

THE COURT: Okay. Are you --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: I bartend at a place called Miz Lola's. She -- I -- her and I might have met a few times at the locations that I work at.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: If she's an African American female, usually has her hair in braids, I believe I might know her.

THE COURT: All right. What, approximately, would her age be? Do you know?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: I want to say within 30s or 40s, within -- within that age description.

THE COURT: Okay. Do we think that it could be the same person?

MR. MATSUDA: I don't know. Perhaps.
MS. MOORS: Potentially.
MR. MATSUDA: Possibly.
THE COURT: Okay. How well do you know this person?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: Would just be a regular, visiting the locations that I work at.
THE COURT: I see. Okay. So you've never socialized with her?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: No.
THE COURT: So would -- if -- if it is the same person and she testified as a witness in the case, would you be JD Reporting, Inc.
able to still be fair and impartial, or do you think that would affect your ability to be a fair and impartial juror?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: I believe it would affect my ability to be impartial towards the...

THE COURT: Okay. Because you know her well enough that you would be swayed by that knowledge of her as a regular in your establishment?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: I don't believe so.
THE COURT: Oh, okay. I'm sorry. I thought you said it would affect your ability to be fair. So you're saying it won't? You can be fair, or are you --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 089: I -- I can be fair.
THE COURT: Oh, okay. All right. Thank you. I misunderstood. All right. Thank you very much.

Okay. Anyone else think they know any of those names, any of the witnesses? All right. I see no other hands.

Okay. So are there any of you who believe that you might have read about or heard about this case from any source before you came here to court today? Okay. I see one hand in the back.

THE MARSHAL: Is this the only hand? Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 023: Yadira Thunderwolf and it's 023.

THE COURT: Okay. Without telling me what you think you may have heard about, what source do you think you heard?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 023: The news.
THE COURT: Okay. And do you remember anything about what you heard?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 023: Yes, if it's the same thing.
THE COURT: Don't tell me what it was. Just -- okay. And as a result of hearing what you heard, have you formed an opinion about this case already?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 023: Yeah.
THE COURT: Okay. So you can't be fair and impartial, then, if you've already formed an opinion and you haven't heard any evidence?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 023: If it's the same case, then, no.

THE COURT: Oh, okay. Counsel, do you -- do we know if there was any media coverage in this case?

MS. MOORS: There -- I mean, there very well could have been, Your Honor. I don't know. It wasn't instrumental in the case, but it wouldn't surprise me if there was.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. I'm going to go ahead and excuse you just in case there -- it is the same matter. Thank you. If you'll just give the marshal your badge -- take out the paper inside it before you hand it in, and then you can go. Thank you.

Okay. All right. So as you can see, this is the schedule that we're looking at. I'm going to be asking you JD Reporting, Inc.
if -- you-all if any of you feel that you absolutely cannot serve during this time frame on the schedule that I've outlined for you. But before I pose that question to you, I want to tell you there are certain things that I want to know about and hear about from you that I need to know, and other things -you can tell me anything you want to, but there are certain things I'll be persuaded by and other things I will not be persuaded by.

And so let me just tell you some of the things that I do need to know. So if anyone is going to have a baby between now and the end of this trial, July 26th, I need to know about that. If there are any of you who are going on a fabulous vacation, prepaid vacation -- made your reservations, you know, you've booked flights and hotels and you're not going to be here, you know, I and the lawyers understand that. And we'll be jealous that you'll be on a fabulous vacation, but we need to know about that as well.

If you're having surgery, like this week, during the trial, we obviously need to know about that. Say you're not having surgery until Monday, the day following the end of the trial, but you need to go in sometime that week and have your preop workups, then I need to know about that. If you had any serious health conditions we need to know about that could affect your ability to serve, I need to know about that. What things am I not so concerned about? Well, I'm JD Reporting, Inc.
not necessarily concerned that you are valuable employees and your bosses will not be able to survive without you. I know that that -- that you are all, those of you who are still working, are valuable employees and your bosses will miss you. That they cannot do without you, that they will not survive without you is not true because, sadly, we are all replaceable. And I know that if I had, you know, gotten mowed down in the crosswalk this morning, they would have had somebody to cover my calendar today.

And so while certainly you're going to be missed by your employer, that alone is not sufficient -- or if your employer told you that, you know, "You're -- get out of jury duty." You know, "You need to say what you need to say to get out of jury duty." Keep in mind you are under oath, that you cannot be fired for serving on a jury. That would be an actionable offense. So you don't need to worry about that.

Also, don't tell me that you're not going to be paid for your service by your employer if you don't know that that is the case. There are many employers, large employers, in particular, who do pay their employees when they're serving on jury duty. So, for example, all of the government employers; so the state, the county, all of the city. So Henderson, City of Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, all pay their employees their wages or salaries while they're serving. Also, the Clark County school district, the electric company, the gas company, some of the employees of Republic Services, most of the large gaming employers, so MGM resorts and all of their operating companies, which are many, they pay, as does, you know, like Caesars, Harrah's. So if you didn't check before you got here today, well, you only need to go place a phone call. And then if -- just because your employer doesn't pay, you would need to demonstrate to me that it would be a financial hardship for you to serve, as this is a civic duty and you will be paid, not a huge amount of money, but you will be paid a daily amount for your service as jurors.

So, as I say, you can tell me anything you wish. Transportation issues; you don't tell me that you can't get here because we have bus service and we have Uber and Lift now that's even better than bus service, so you could get here. But this is the way I do it. Anybody that wants to tell me that they can't serve on this schedule -- and keep in mind, these are basically half days. So Monday we're going to start at 1:00, go till 5:00. If we are in the middle of a witness and I think that we can get done with that witness, you know, in -- before 5:30, we might stay as late as 5:30. But that would only be in order to finish up a witness or put a very short witness on that's been waiting in the hallway for five hours or something like that.

But, otherwise, we try and get you out of here as close to 5:00 as possible. Sometimes we might even, you know, JD Reporting, Inc.
get done a few minutes before 5:00, if that seems to be a logical stopping point. But you'll see the only day we go full time is on Friday, and we'll start at 9:00 and go until 5:00.

We always have a morning break and an afternoon break. This is not a forced march. If any of you, while we're going through this process, need to take a break, please flag the marshal down, you know, wave; we'll take a break. I'm like a camel up here. I get very involved in what I'm doing, and so I may -- I just kind of go straight through and forget the time. So please don't be shy, if you need a break, to let us know, and we'll take a break.

But this is the basic schedule. We'll take a morning break, an afternoon break. And if we're going all day, we take a lunch break, an hour-long lunch break. That will be on Friday, assuming that we're still taking testimony and you're not deliberating. If you're deliberating, then, you know, we'll order lunch for you in -- to be delivered to the jury deliberation room.

Okay. So now I'm going to take all of -- anybody that raises their hand, I'll write down notes. I may ask you some follow-up questions. Then after I've taken everybody's -that wants to tell me why they can't be here, then we'll take a break, and the lawyers and I will decide who will be excused and who will not be excused. So after that --

Oh. The other thing is, it's speak now or forever JD Reporting, Inc.
hold your peace. So if I pass you by -- we're taking everybody that -- in order. You're all seated in order with your badge numbers. And I pass you up, you're done. You don't come back and ask me. You don't confront the marshal in the hallway after and say, "Oh, I forgot to tell them -- I forgot to tell the judge this." No, this is the time.

So, please, if you have something to tell me, do not be shy. Okay.

MS. MOORS: Your Honor, could we approach --
THE COURT: And don't let the blood run out of your hands -- just a minute. Hold on.

Yes?
MS. MOORS: I didn't know if -- we had talked about the schedule. Did we decide actually at 10:30 for Monday? So I didn't know if we needed to mention that.

THE COURT: Oh, thank you. Yes. Thank you for that reminder.

So on Monday -- don't raise your hand while I'm talking for a second here.

Monday, 10:30 will be the start day because I have a very light calendar on Monday. So we'll be able to start a little earlier, which is good. We'll get a little extra time. So instead of a 1:00 o'clock start, we'll be able to start at 10:30 on Monday. Thank you for reminding me about that.

Now, is there anyone -- again, I'm going to pose this question: Who needs to have a hearing -- a headset to hear? Okay. All right. We have somebody that needs a headset? This gentleman, do you want to give him a headset.

Can you hear me, sir? Because I've been noticing you've been cupping your hand next to your ear. Just -- can you hear? Just nod your head if you can hear. Okay, good. Because you raised your hand when I asked about anybody needs a headset, so that's why I asked.

Okay. Now, the question is posed: If you want to be excused because you can't be here, please raise your hand. We'll take you in order.

So first row, raise your hands. The back row.
THE MARSHAL: Folks, we're going to go this row, this row, this row, this row, then over here, then over here. So keep your hands down. We'll get to you.

THE COURT: Right.
THE MARSHAL: And we're going to go in order. There you go. Please pass it down after you're done.

THE COURT: All right.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: Genia Sherwood, 018. I'm in the process of a move. I had to pay rent at one place the whole month of July, then I had to pay rent and deposit and everything for the second place. I'm in the process right now of moving, and my -- my job does not pay while I'm off. And $$ 40$ a day is not manageable for me. I am a single mother with JD Reporting, Inc.
two kids living at home.
THE COURT: All right. And where do you work? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: I work at the Rio. It is a Caesars property, but I work for BEST Agency. They pay me $$ 9.35$ an hour, and I work for tips.

THE COURT: Okay. So you work for BEST Agency? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: BEST Agency at the Rio. THE COURT: And what do you do for them, BEST Agency? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: I do cocktails and sing. THE COURT: Is that a temp agency or... PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: It's a modeling and talent agency.

THE COURT: Okay. So is this part time or full time? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: I'm full time. I -- I'm head of household. I have twin girls that live with me. They're 16.

THE COURT: Okay. And it would be a financial hardship? You don't have any -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: Yes, I --
THE COURT: -- savings or -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: It's financial. And like I said, I have two houses right now. So I put in my notice -because my rent went up, so I put in my notice and I'm trying to get out as soon as I can so she can rent the first house so I can get my -- because it's costing me $$ 50$ a day to live -- to JD Reporting, Inc.
not live there. And then the second house, I'm in the process of moving, so I -- I don't even have any furniture. Everything's all over the place. And so I'm trying to just hurry up the process so I can get my deposit back from my first place so I can pay my next rent. So -- I had to pay first month, plus $$ 1,800$ deposit, plus the pet fee. So I really can't take time off.

THE COURT: So you're not taking off any time to move?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: No. Nope.
THE COURT: So you've been moving --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: I work -- I work -- I worked 4:00 to midnight. I was back and forth all day yesterday.
THE COURT: Okay. So you work swing shift, basically?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: I do. I work swing shift and I work Friday day shift. So I've just been, you know, just moving all day and then just running off to work.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 018: Thank you.
THE COURT: Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: My name is Gilbert Cera, Badge Number 0152. And I don't think I could do it because I'm self-employed and I do air-conditioning and this is the business season and I don't have no workers.

JD Reporting, Inc.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

THE COURT: So you do air-conditioning. What's the name of your company?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Oahu Air.
THE COURT: You don't have any other workers? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: No.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you ever take any vacations? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: No. When it's slow.

THE COURT: Do you do heating?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Heating too.
THE COURT: So, what, there's like two weeks in the spring and two weeks in the fall --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah.
THE COURT: -- when the weather's nice?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yep.
THE COURT: You could take a vacation, maybe.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah.
THE COURT: All right. Is there anyone else in your household who works?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: In mine?
THE COURT: Yeah.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yes.
THE COURT: Who is that?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: The wife.
THE COURT: Where does she work?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: St. Rose Hospital.

JD Reporting, Inc.

THE COURT: What does she do there?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Phlebotomist.
THE COURT: And she's still working?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yes.
THE COURT: So given the fact that your wife works and we have this somewhat limited schedule, is it going to be a financial hardship for you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah, because I'm the one that pays the majority of the stuff.

THE COURT: Well, you don't have any savings or anything like that? So when I say it's a financial hardship, I'm asking: Are you going to go under? You won't be able to pay your rent or your mortgage or put food on the table?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yes, because I'm going to be losing business because I can't do nothing now for the company.

THE COURT: Okay.
Okay. Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: Steven Sligar, 613.
THE COURT: Yes, sir.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: I do lighting for concerts and specially events, and I've been booked on a two-part gig already the 12th, 13th, and 14th of July, and also the 24th, 25th, and 26th of July. Flights have been booked. Hotels are in the process of being booked, if they haven't been already.

THE COURT: Okay. So -- I'm sorry. You do -- what do you do for this gig?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: Lighting.
THE COURT: Lighting.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: All right. And where are you going?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: The first one is some small town in Washington. And then the second one, we fly into Denver. And the gig is an hour outside of Denver, so I've been told.

THE COURT: Okay. So the first thing in the small town, somewhere in Washington, is what dates?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: Yeah, the 12th, 13th, and 14th of July.

THE COURT: Okay. And what about the Denver?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: That is 24th, 25th, and 26th.
I fly home on the 26th. There's also flight dates previous to those dates, as well, to get me there and fly dates home after those dates.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, obviously, the first one is not at issue, not going to have trouble.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: No, correct. That's a two-part thing I've already signed up for. It's the same band, both shows.

THE COURT: What's the band?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: Post Malone.

THE COURT: Post Malone.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: That's what I said. I don't pick who I work for. I just get -- go where they send me.

THE COURT: Okay. And so do you have your own business? Do you do anything else besides these occasional -PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: I'm freelance. I work as often as possible. I'm doing the Residency right now in town. That ends, and then a few days later, I go to do this next one. THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: I get a week off.
THE COURT: And do you have your tickets for this flight to Denver on your phone?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: I do.
THE COURT: All right. Well, when we take a break, you can show those to the marshal.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 613: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: All right. Who's next?
THE MARSHAL: Bring it down and then all the way down to this end, please. Raise your hand in this row. Anybody? Down to this gentleman, please.

THE COURT: Oh, wait. Don't we have another person? THE MARSHAL: Folks, raise your hands if you need to talk. Okay. It will be this gentleman right here. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: Hello. I'm James Bruce. I'm Badge Number 911, actually.

THE COURT: Go ahead.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: So it was about a couple of months ago, my -- my living situation changed. My mom announced she moved back to town, and I said -- I had family issues. I couldn't do it. So I moved out on my own. And for the last two months now, I've been struggling financially. And I didn't know how to submit any paperwork online before I even got here for an excusal. But I have student loans and car insurance and I've taken over health insurance and so much. And, lately, I've been looking for a second job at night, with no luck. I'm trying to take on another job. Excuse me; I'm shaking because I have high anxiety.

So I didn't -- I didn't know how to prove any of that, but I'm paycheck to paycheck right now. And, in fact, today I have the day off, of course. My employer -- I work for Starbucks. Of course, they gave me the day off. But how it works is, I get my regular days off on the schedule, and then they add the days off that I need. So I'm actually off three days this week, which, even that's burdening me. So I --

THE COURT: Does Starbucks pay their employees for jury service?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: So I work for Albertsons inside -- a Starbucks inside of an Albertsons, so it's actually Albertsons that I work for.

THE COURT: An Albertsons?

JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: Uh-huh.
THE COURT: Doesn't pay?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: I don't know if they do or not, so I would have to --

THE COURT: Oh. So you've got to call.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: Okay.
THE COURT: Because that's a very large company. It used to be owned by Mr. Albertson, but I think a larger grocery chain bought them.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: Yeah. Now it's, like, Kroger and Pavilion's and it's several.

THE COURT: Right. So you need to find out about that.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: Okay.
THE COURT: Because maybe they'll pay you for jury service. That's usually the good corporate citizen's -- to pay for jury -- because it's important. You know, it's really important. It's an essential part of our justice system. So you'll check on that when we have our break.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 911: Okay.
THE COURT: All right. Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: My name's Laurence Smith. My badge number is 921.
THE COURT: Yes.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: I'm supposed to go to an IRS JD Reporting, Inc.
tax convention in Chicago from the 23rd, and I won't be back until late Thursday night around midnight. And I already have the -- I already have the registration and the airline tickets paid for.

THE COURT: All right. And that -- is that through -- something your employer is asking you to attend or what?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: It's -- well, it's a -- you know, I have an enrolled agent license. It's something that I do on the side. My -- my primary profession is -- well, I'm just finishing, you know, the teaching program. And, you know, honestly, I'm -- I'm in the, you know, first-year -- you know, first-year teacher, I was disabled to apply for -- for my provisional teaching license today. And I believe first-year teachers start two weeks earlier than the regular teachers, and I believe that would coincide with the trial schedule.

THE COURT: Okay. So you have a contract with the Clark County school district as a first-year teacher?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: I've -- I've been working as a substitute teacher since 2017, but I hope to have a -- a contract this -- this coming school year.

THE COURT: Okay. When might that be forthcoming? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: I'm sorry. I don't understand.

THE COURT: When might you get such a contract? I mean, it's July already.

JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: From what I understand, I can -- I can apply for, you know, positions starting right now. It's just -- it's just using the Nevada Department of Education receipt. You know, I may have a -- I may have a contract within the next week or two.

THE COURT: Okay. And this conference, then, is just for -- for you to do tax -- prepare tax returns for people on the side at tax season?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: Yes, Your Honor, that's correct.

THE COURT: And so you bought these -- this is a -you bought your airline tickets already?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: Yes, ma'am. Yes, I did.
THE COURT: Okay. And are they refundable tickets?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: No, Your Honor, they're not.
THE COURT: Okay. All right. So you'll show those to the marshal when we take a break, okay, on your phone; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 921: Okay, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Good. Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: Reyes, Alberto. Badge Number 927. I may or may not have a conflict with the schedule because I have to take a state licensing exam by the 26th. THE COURT: Okay. For what license?

JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: For property and casualty adjustors.

THE COURT: So are those given where you can go in anytime and take it on the computer?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: No. It has to be at a testing center --
THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: -- at Pearson Vue. But I'm still in the process of finishing up the qualifying class because I do it after work. You have to take a qualifying class and pass an exam before you get approval to take the state exam.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: So I'm about three-quarters of the way through it.

THE COURT: All right. But you said --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: But I have to finish it -- I have to get the exam done by the 26 th.

THE COURT: So is it possible that you could get the exam done in this week-and-a-day interval?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: It depends. The classes are pretty lengthy.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you do those -- I mean, do you attend a classroom setting with other people?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: No. It's an online course JD Reporting, Inc.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1
```

that's logged.
THE COURT: Sure.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: They log, you know, what time you start and what time you finish. And then when you finish that chapter, then they allow you to go into the next one.

THE COURT: Okay. So first you have to pass the exam for the class?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: No. You have to finish the course.

THE COURT: Oh, okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: They call it a prequalifying exam.

THE COURT: Right.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: So when you get that -- when you get past that, then they'll let you take the state exam.

THE COURT: Right. But they make you take a prequalifying --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: Right.
THE COURT: -- exam?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: Yes.
THE COURT: And so if you don't pass that, you don't get to take the other exam?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: No.
THE COURT: Okay. So when are you planning on taking that exam?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: I'm trying to finish it, but it all depends on my work schedule. But, again, I have until the 26 th to take care of everything.

THE COURT: What happens on the 26th?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: What happens the -- the two-month window closes on me.

THE COURT: So you have to...
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: Start again from scratch.
THE COURT: I see. So when will you know? You won't know; right? You won't know in the next couple days. How far -- how much -- how many more classes -- how many more hours of your online classes do you have to do?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: I estimate about seven. And that's averaging an hour a day.

THE COURT: You're cutting it pretty close. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: I am, unfortunately.

THE COURT: Okay. Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 928: Dennis Busk, Number 928. THE COURT: Yes, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 928: I'm the caregiver for my wife. She -- for the last two years, she's been having one or two doctor visits a week for -- to see the cancer doctor, the chemo doctor, the primary care doctor, CT scans. And right now, she's in the middle of kidney stone surgery, and they left a device inside, too, for -- to complete it. And it's just nonstop doctoring visits.
THE COURT: Okay. So she had the surgery. And, what, they left the stents in to pass the stones? Is that what it was?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 928: Exactly, yeah.
THE COURT: Oh, okay. And then -- and so she has doctors' appointments that are scheduled for this time period, this week?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 928: Like I say, I -- I didn't bring the schedule, but it's one or two appointments every week for the last two years. It's just been nonstop.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.
Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: I'm Kathryn Hupp, 0938. I work for Carbon Block Technology, and they do not pay for any time off for jury duty. And I am the primary breadwinner in our family, so I bring home more money than my husband does. And without my income, we would definitely be suffering.

THE COURT: I'm sorry. Where did you say you worked?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: Carbon Block Technology.
THE COURT: What do you do for them?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: I'm a microbiologist.
THE COURT: Okay. And you said -- did you say your husband worked?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: He -- he actually works for JD Reporting, Inc.

the same company. He's in facilities and maintenance. THE COURT: And are you on salary with them? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: I am not. THE COURT: Okay. So you work on an hourly wage? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. And so you would not -- would you be able to work half days for the days that we're -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: I would be able to work half days. It would be a little less than a half day based on the hour schedule that is there to take into account the transportation time that I would need.

THE COURT: Okay. And so would this be -- I know you say you're the primary breadwinner and that you make more money than your husband does, but would this be a financial hardship? In other words, you wouldn't be able to pay your rent or mortgage or put food on the table for -- if you -PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: We would -- we would definitely struggle. We just recently used our savings for medical bills, so...

THE COURT: Okay. What does that company make?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 938: Carbon -- drinking filters, drinking water filters. THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Who's next? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: My name is George Romero, and JD Reporting, Inc.
my badge number is 950.
THE COURT: All right. Yes, sir.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: I -- I work part time and my parents are separated, so I help my mom -- my mother with the bills. And the schedule for the trial is directly in the middle of my part-time shifts, and I wouldn't be able to work. My employer is a locally owned business, Hanabi Sushi & Rolls, and they do not pay me for being here.

THE COURT: I'm sorry. I couldn't hear you when you said your employer.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Hanabi Sushi & Rolls.
THE COURT: I still am not getting that. Anybody hear that?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Hanabi.
THE COURT: What do they do?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: It's a sushi restaurant.
THE COURT: Oh, okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: They are locally owned, and they do not pay me for being here. I'm actually taking time off right now to be here.

THE COURT: Oh, okay. And what do they pay you per hour?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: I get paid minimum wage. THE COURT: Minimum wage. What is that now? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: 8.25.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

THE COURT: And how many hours a week do you work? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: I'd say about 35 to 40. THE COURT: 35 to 40? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Yeah. THE COURT: Forty is full time. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Well, I work about six hours a day, five hours a day.

THE COURT: So -- and how many days per week? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Five to six.

THE COURT: Okay. And your mom works too? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Yeah, my mom works. THE COURT: What does she do?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: She is a secretary. THE COURT: For who?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: For a -- a lawyer office. THE COURT: Do you know what lawyer?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: I don't remember the name. THE COURT: And your mom, you said, and your dad are --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Yeah, they're separated.
THE COURT: -- divorced or separated. So who else is in your house besides your mom?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: My sister and my brother, but they're too young to work.

THE COURT: Okay. And does your dad work?

JD Reporting, Inc.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Yes, but he's not there.
THE COURT: He's what?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: He works but he doesn't, like, live with us.

THE COURT: Right. But he supports his children; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 950: Yeah.
THE COURT: Okay. Who else? Anyone in that row?
Anybody else?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 965: Cynthia Allen, 965.
THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 965: Will -- is this the set trial date, or does it extend or could it possibly extend into the next week?

THE COURT: We're not anticipating that it would. I don't ever like to say nothing's impossible because, really, once the jury starts deliberating, it's in the jury's hands as to how long they deliberate, and I never want a jury to be rushed. But the lawyers indicate to me that they believe that they can conclude the trial within that time.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 965: Okay.
THE COURT: What's your question?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 965: Well, because the following week, I have vacation planned.

THE COURT: Okay. Why don't you tell me what those are.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 965: A cruise to the Bahamas.
THE COURT: Okay. And when do you leave?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 965: On the 1st.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
THE MARSHAL: Anybody in this front row? First row. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 003: My name is Gisell Fernandez.

Badge number is 003. I might have a conflict --
THE COURT: Wait, wait. Wait a minute. I've got -PROSPECTIVE JUROR 003: -- on Thursday. THE COURT: Wait. I've got to find your badge number.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 003: 003.
THE COURT: Where is it? I don't --
THE CLERK: It's on the second page, almost halfway down, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Oh, I see her. Okay.
All right. I'm sorry to interrupt you. Go ahead. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 003: Oh, that's okay. So on Thursday, I might have a conflict because I'm going through a divorce, so I have a court date at the family court office at 10:00 o'clock. Last time I was there, three weeks ago, I was there for three hours. So I just want to make sure I'm going to get out of there and come here on time if I get picked. THE COURT: Okay. And that's Thursday, the -JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 003: The 25th.
THE COURT: -- 25th. Do you know what's going to happen at that court hearing?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 003: It's going to be -- it's a motion, I think, because we didn't have everything together or -- my ex, last time, so this is like a second motion. THE COURT: Okay. So do you have lawyers, each side? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 003: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
THE MARSHAL: Nobody in the front row? If not, please pass it back to the second row. Thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: I'm Zahra Pyle. My number is
030. My husband also is disabled. He had back surgery in April, so it's kind of hard leaving him alone.

THE COURT: Okay. So you don't work?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: Oh, you do.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: Yeah, part time at Golden Entertainment.
THE COURT: So when you work, do you take your husband with you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: He's -- he's like -- can, like, get up and go to the restroom on his self, but not -like, I cook and everything is ready for him, you know. He doesn't have to do heavy-duty anything. But most -- I take care of everything else.
THE COURT: Okay. So could he -- couldn't you do that, but instead of going to work, you come here?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: It's going to be hard.
THE COURT: Why?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: Because usually I do everything before I go to work and...
THE COURT: What time do you work?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: I work from 3:00 p.m. to 10:00.

THE COURT: Okay. But you'll have half days. In the morning, you'll have all that time to do the things that you would do. Right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 030: Yeah. I really cannot see the board too clearly, actually, so...

THE COURT: Okay. So we're going to start at 10:30 on Monday and go till 5:00. But then Tuesday, we're not going to start until 1:30, and we'll go to 5:00. And then Wednesday, 1:00 to 5:00; Thursday, 1:30 to 5:00; and Friday is the only, really, full day. We'll start at 9:00 and go until 5:00. So you have the evenings to, you know, cook for your husband and get everything ready for him, just like you would if you were -- before you went to work. And then you'll have the whole evening because you wouldn't be going to work.

Okay. Who's next?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 037: Hi. My name's Anthony Gariano, Number 037.
THE COURT: Okay. Yes, sir.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 037: I'm a disabled veteran. I struggle with PTSD, depression, and chronic pain, all service-connected. My problem is with the medication. If I take it, I'm sedated. If I don't take it, I'm struggling with pain, so, like, concentration, trying to follow along.

THE COURT: Have you been having -- did you take your medication today?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 037: Yeah. I'm really tired.
THE COURT: Okay. Have you been having trouble following what's going on?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 037: Yeah. I have no idea what we're doing, other than this.

THE COURT: All right. Who else?
THE MARSHAL: Nobody in the back row. I think we're going backwards, Judge.

THE COURT: No, we're not going backwards.
THE MARSHAL: Can you hand it back to the gentleman in the corner, please. Thank you, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Hello. My name is Parmjit Kaur and my ID is 059.

THE COURT: I'm sorry. 059?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Yes, ma'am.

JD Reporting, Inc.

THE COURT: Thank you. You need to speak up, though. We can barely hear you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Okay. Sometime I have hard time to understand the -- you know, so...

THE COURT: Okay. What's your first language?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: My first language is Hindi and I be from India.
THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: So I think maybe I have a hard time, so...

THE COURT: All right. How long have you lived here?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: A long time.
THE COURT: How long?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Over 20 year.
THE COURT: Here in Clark County, in Las Vegas?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Clark County, maybe, like, 15 year.
THE COURT: Okay. Where did you live before here?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: New York City.
THE COURT: How long did you live in New York City?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Eight year.
THE COURT: I'm sorry. I couldn't -- I can't --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Eight year.
THE COURT: Oh, okay. And do you work here?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Yes. I work in Winn

JD Reporting, Inc.

Las Vegas, housekeeping.
THE COURT: And do you speak English on the job or do you speak your native --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Yes.
THE COURT: You speak English?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Yes.
THE COURT: Okay. All right. So what I'd like you to do is I'm going to -- we need to wait and see how you're doing with your language. All right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: Okay.
THE COURT: There's no other problem with your serving for the time; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 059: No.
THE COURT: The Winn, I know, pays their employees too. Okay. So we'll circle back to you later to see how you're doing.

Okay. Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: My name is Rex Spenner, Badge Number 068.

THE COURT: Yes, sir.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Recently, there was an issue at my grandmother's house. She's our neighbor. Someone broke and entered into her house and stole some things from her house. And so my entire family is on vacation in California currently, looking at, like, prospective investment properties JD Reporting, Inc.
and such. And it's kind of difficult with money currently just because school is about to start again, and so depending on when the cameras come in, I'm supposed to do installations on both our house and my grandmother's house because this could -these time frames could technically conflict with our home security potentially, depending when the deliveries happen and what the schedule is when I can actually satisfy the installations.

THE COURT: Okay. When are they scheduled? When are you scheduled for those?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Well, the deliveries, they said that they could come anytime between the 15 th and the 19th, because it's, like, special flood light cameras and such, and -- and then I'll have, I mean, realistically, like, worst case, three days to install 12 cameras, so...

THE COURT: So the delivery is going to be for sure between the 15th and the 19th?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: That's the window. And so the delivery, they're going to get here before we're in trial; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Yes, ma'am. They'll get here within that time, but we can't afford to pay someone to install them in our house, so I'm trying to install them to...

THE COURT: Oh, you're the installation person.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Yes, ma'am. I do IT on the

JD Reporting, Inc.

THE COURT: So you can install them anytime you want?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Yeah, but 12 cameras in three days is pretty tough to do, especially -- I have other prior commitments that weekend. But depending on the installation time, there's potential that it would not conflict with this. I'm just not entirely sure yet.

THE COURT: And, otherwise, you don't work?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: I do work. I'm full time at Red Rock banquets kitchen. This is our slow season, fortunately, though.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. So is there some reason that you're saying you have to install these cameras within a three-day window?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Well, no one's going to be at either of our houses for the next month or, like, three weeks and some change. And so during these time frames, if, like, no one's home -- like, that's exactly what happened when my grandma's house got broken in and entered, was that nobody was home when everyone was on vacation. And then they stole a bunch of her valuable jewelry and other, like, valuable things from, like, prior -- in her marriages and stuff. And so I -there could potentially be conflict if I don't have cameras up, I'm here, and everyone is in California. Does that make sense?

THE COURT: Sure. Cameras don't necessarily stop

JD Reporting, Inc.

crime. I mean, they may record something, but that's all; right? So...

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Well, I understand. It's just that the issue that happened recently, it's -- everything is still processing and pending because we realistically have no idea who did it and that -- and all of the jewelry and stuff are still missing. And so we're still going through that process. And if I could have some brevity, at least know who committed the crime, maybe that will make the case a little bit quicker. Does that make sense?

THE COURT: No. You're expecting them to come back?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: What?
THE COURT: You're expecting them to come back because you've installed cameras?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: No, but there is potential. Because there have been, like, people in the neighborhood that kind of drive through and lurk, and I suspect that that's what happened. People were driving through, noticed that nobody was home, and then broke in through one of her side doors.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: I'm not sure -- like, I'm obviously all for the idea of serving on the jury. It's just -- if it would create conflict inside of the home security, I would definitely have to prioritize home security. But there shouldn't be any conflict, that I know of so far, but. . .

THE COURT: And what hours do you work at Red Rock? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Usually day shift, 8:00 to 4:00. And it's 40 hours a week when we actually have work.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. So you can -- could install the cameras in the morning when we're not in court or in the evening.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: But on -- yeah, on Monday, we come in at 10:30; correct?

THE COURT: Yes.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: I'll -- I'll see what I can do, ma'am. I apologize, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Thank you.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Yeah.
THE COURT: Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: Kimberly Henderson, 098. I'm a stay-at-home mom to my two daughters. They're ten and six. Sorry. I have, like, crazy anxiety. And, also, we have a vacation planned from the 26th through the 30th to California. THE COURT: Okay. So who is watching the kids now? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: I rescheduled. I was scheduled for June but my mom wasn't in town, and so she came so she could watch the kids. So she's watching the kids today. THE COURT: Okay. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: But she also has a conflict JD Reporting, Inc. that week because she has family coming into town, so she wouldn't be able to. But we're going out of town on Friday through Tuesday.

THE COURT: On the twenty...
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: The 26th through the 30th.
THE COURT: ...sixth.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: Yeah. We're going to California.
THE COURT: When are you leaving?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: When -- my husband's a chiropractor. So as soon as he can get out, we're going to leave on the 26th through Tuesday.

THE COURT: And are you flying? Are you driving? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: We're driving. THE COURT: Do you have hotel reservations? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: We do.

THE COURT: Where?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: At the -- it's at the Camarillo Residence Inn, I believe. It could be a Fairfield Inn, but I think it's the Residence.

THE COURT: All right. Do you have something that confirms that reservation on your phone? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: Yeah. THE COURT: Okay. You'll show that to the marshal PROSPECTIVE JUROR 098: Of course.

THE COURT: -- on the break.
Okay. Who's next?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 099: My name is Perla Garibay. My badge number is 099. I'm currently 34 weeks pregnant with my first child, and I'm not sure if, like, I'd be due around that time or if it would have anything to do with the schedule. I mean, I -- I could come in, but I don't know if I'll be missing one of those days.

THE COURT: Okay. Let me see. I'm just trying to find here -- there you are. So you're 34 weeks pregnant in the summer in Las Vegas.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 099: Yes.
THE COURT: I'm sorry.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 099: It's okay.
THE COURT: That's just a misery. And so I'm sure you're hoping for an early delivery --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 099: Yes, exactly.
THE COURT: -- but your first baby, probably not, but. . .

Okay. How about doctor's appointments? Aren't you going to the doctor pretty frequently right now?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 099: Yes. I -- they're scheduled -- well, I currently work from 8:30 to 5:30. I actually work in UNLV Medicine just, like, a couple streets JD Reporting, Inc. down. And I have an appointment on the 25th in the morning, so I'm already missing the morning for work. That's the only appointment in the morning I have.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 099: But just in case I'm not -like, in the hospital that day or something.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.
THE MARSHAL: Anyone in the second row? Anyone in the back row?

Okay. Thanks.
THE COURT: So, ladies and gentlemen, we're going to be taking a recess now. Those of you who need to make phone calls, make sure you do that while we're on this break and -so you can provide the information to the marshal.

So there's a couple things I need to talk to you about before we take a break. I've got to read to you an admonition every time we take a break, so you'll become familiar with it.

But, also, you need to realize you can't talk to any of the lawyers or any of the court officers, except for the marshal. The marshal is your contact and -- you know, if you need to communicate with the Court in any way. So if you happen to see any of the lawyers out on a break or, you know, if you're returning to court on another day and you encounter them in the elevator, please don't try and engage them in conversation, as you normally would, being courteous, friendly people because they're not allowed to talk to you. And so what would happen if you try and greet them and speak to them; they'll ignore you. And then they'll feel really bad about it because they're all lovely people that would normally greet you warmly if they saw you and after spending hours in a courtroom with you and -- so please don't make them feel bad by trying to engage them.

The other thing they would do would be they'd have to report back to me that one of the prospective jurors tried to talk to them. We'd have to have a hearing, and it would delay this process more, and I'm sure that's not what you want because it's a slow process as it is. So please don't do that.

Also, don't do any research into the case while you're out in the hallway on your smart phones, you know, trying to look up and find out about the case. Also, don't be posting on Facebook that you're, you know, in jury selection, anything like that, because then people might try and talk to you about the process, and we really need you to remain clean slates, all right.

So, ladies and gentlemen, we are going to take a recess, which will probably be 15, 20 minutes. And during this recess, it is your duty not to converse among yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with the trial; or to read, watch, or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial by any person connected with the trial, or by any medium of information, including, without limitation, newspaper, television, radio, or Internet. And you are not to form or express an opinion on any subject connected with this case until it is finally submitted to you, if you are selected to be on the jury.

So we'll be in recess.
(Panel of prospective jurors recessed at 3:24 p.m.)
THE COURT: All right. The venire panel has departed the courtroom. We're off the record, so we can discuss these -- I'm just going to go in order that...
(Proceedings recessed at 3:25 p.m., until 4:09 p.m.)
(In the presence of Badge Number 152.)
THE COURT: All right. The record will reflect we are back within the presence of one of our venire. That's Gilbert Cera, Badge Number 152. The rest of the venire panel is still out in the hall. The defendant is present with his counsel, and the prosecutors are present, as are all officers of the court.

Mr. Cera, I asked you back in so I could ask you a couple more questions --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yes.
THE COURT: -- about your work schedule. So as you are self-employed and you can manage your own schedule, would you be able to see your customers around the schedule that we've got here? So you could see your customers in the mornings when we're not having court and in the evenings, after?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Well, it's actually -- it's all day long. That's why, I mean, I'm busy from morning until night, usually.

THE COURT: Okay. So, like, for example, how do you get your -- how do you get your calls? How -- if you're the only employee --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Well, they call or they send it -- you know, e-mail it to me. But, yeah, I'm busy. Like right now, I actually had to push -- I had calls scheduled, but I had to wait. I just -- I mean, I couldn't do nothing.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: I was supposed to be here at 8:00, actually, this morning, but then I had emergency calls that I had to go do. So I -- the lady just said come in at 12:00, so I did.

THE COURT: Oh, okay. Well, yeah, we summonsed this panel for the afternoon. They weren't supposed to bring in anybody -- so you must have been on a summons for a different panel before or maybe a trial that might last three weeks or something. This is a pretty short trial.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah.
THE COURT: So you don't think that you can work JD Reporting, Inc.

around -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: I cannot. I mean, it's -- it's hard, you know. And I had -- I did have workers, but, of course, you know, that don't work out so good either, with the workers, so I don't have nobody at this time.

THE COURT: Okay. And what does your wife -- how much does she earn as a phlebotomist at St. Rose?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: She doesn't work a full 40 hours. She works three 12s, so...
THE COURT: All right. So she works 36 hours a week? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah, so that's about it. THE COURT: Is she paid hourly or salary? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Hourly. THE COURT: How much does she make per hour? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: I think, like, 25. I don't know. I'm not sure exactly.

THE COURT: Okay. And what do you charge? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Me?

THE COURT: Yeah.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: 65. Well, I waive it if they, you know, do the repair or whatever I find.

THE COURT: Oh, you mean you charge $$ 65$ to go out? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah, but if they -- you know, it's -- in other words, if they (indiscernible) their repair, you know, then I waive the service call.

THE COURT: I see.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: The 65, yes.
THE COURT: And then what if they need you to repair their air conditioner, and they hire you to do that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah, then it's only for whatever -- I charge for whatever the repair is going to be. Like, I'll tell them up-front, you know, this is what it is. If this is what's bad and -- you know, it's what you got to change, and this is the cost and so on.

THE COURT: So -- and how is it that you get your calls?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: E-mail or they call. They call my cell, because I got my -- the company phone forwarded to my cell.

THE COURT: I see. And so how many -- have you received calls today, for example?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Yeah, I got --
THE COURT: How many?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 152: Well, I don't know. It's -I'm pretty booked up, the whole day was already. But that's why I didn't even -- you know, I couldn't come in the morning. So that's why, first thing in the morning, I called the lady already. She told me to just come in at 12:00.

Okay. All right. Thank you.
(Pause in the proceedings.)
(Panel of prospective jurors enters at 4:15 p.m.)
THE COURT: Thank you. Please be seated. And the record will reflect that we have now been rejoined by the venire panel, and Mr. Marks is present with his counsel, the prosecutors are present, as are all officers of the court.

And, ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to read the names of the people who have been excused, their name and badge number. If you hear your name called, then you need to depart the courtroom, leaving your plastic badge with the paper removed out from it, and the marshal will collect those. Now, if you don't hear your name, that means you have not been excused, so don't leave if your name isn't called.

So the following people have been excused: Badge Number 018, Genia Sherwood; Badge Number 152, Gilbert Cera; Badge --

THE MARSHAL: Hang on until she's all done.
THE COURT: Yeah, just wait.
Badge Number 613, Steven Sligar; Badge Number 911, James Bruce; Badge Number 921, Laurence Smith; Badge Number 928, Dennis Busk; Badge Number 938, Kathryn Hupp; Badge Number 037, Anthony Gariano; Badge Number 098, Kimberly Henderson; and Badge Number 099, Perla Garibay.

Thank you. Those folks may leave. Thank you very much for coming in.

Okay. And so we're going to fill the empty seats JD Reporting, Inc.
with the folks that are next in order on the list. My clerk will calls the names and tell you where to sit.

THE CLERK: Martha Ferris, Badge 997, please take Seat 2 in the back; Katrese Carino, Badge 998, please take Seat Number 3; Gary Larson, Badge 000, please take Seat 6; Gisell Fernandez, Badge 003, please take Seat 11; Maria Zamora, Badge 004, please take Seat 13; Jennifer Pezario, Badge 016, please take Seat 16; Diego Gonzalez, Badge 017, please take Seat 18.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. So next question. This is to everyone. Are there any of you who feel that you could not be fair and impartial jurors in this case? Please raise your hand and let me know. A couple.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: My name is Susan Tysdal, and my juror number is 956.

THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: And I feel I'll be impartial because my house got robbed when I was maybe a teenager. And then the neighborhood -- in the neighborhood, there was a gentleman, who is an old man, who got robbed and beaten. And I don't know if he survived or not, but it was one of our neighbors. But just, in general, robberies just...

THE COURT: All right. So houses don't get robbed. People get robbed.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Well, our stuff got robbed. Our house got broken into.

THE COURT: Your house was burglarized?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Correct. Sorry.
THE COURT: Things stolen?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Yeah.
THE COURT: Okay. And when you were a teenager, that was a while ago?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Yeah, it was a while ago.
THE COURT: Okay. So do you understand that this is -- you have to make your decision based upon the evidence in this case? So if you -- you haven't heard any evidence. Have you already made up your mind?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: I -- I don't know. It's just a sore subject. I mean, I could probably -- I'm an adult and I could probably figure it out and, you know, I -- I'm just saying I don't know how I'd feel.

THE COURT: Well, the question isn't -- the question is whether or not you believe that the State has proved its case against Mr. Marks beyond a reasonable doubt.

You know, people come to jury trials and say, "Well, I don't like a criminal who does X, Y, Z." Well, okay, but that's -- that's not surprising, but that's not the issue. You're here to determine whether or not the State has proved the case. These are just charges. You haven't heard any evidence of --

The defendant is presumed to be innocent. That's a JD Reporting, Inc.

very important part of our law. And then are you saying that if the State doesn't prove the case, that you still would find the defendant guilty just because you had had your house broken into when you were a teenager?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: I just didn't know how I'd sway, but I'm saying, if I hear the evidence and everything, I would probably -- you know, I would be equal, based on what the evidence is and whatever the lawyers bring.

THE COURT: All right. So the defense doesn't have to bring anything. The State has to do all the proving.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Right.
THE COURT: So the defense could not call any witnesses but merely, say, cross-examine, like Mr. Matsuda said, that maybe they'll just cross-examine the witnesses. They might call a witness, but they don't have to. They don't have to call a single witness. They don't have to present a shred of evidence, and if -- because it's the State's burden to prove the case beyond a reasonable doubt.

So if you get to the end of the case, as a juror, and you feel that they didn't do that, they didn't prove all the elements of the crime, then your duty would be to vote not guilty. Do you understand that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Yes, I understand.
THE COURT: Okay. But -- so it's really important, though, that we know that you can do that and that you're not -- you haven't got some kind of agenda.

JD Reporting, Inc.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: No, I don't have an agenda.
THE COURT: Okay. Are you sure?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Yes.
THE COURT: Thank you.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Thanks.
THE COURT: Anyone else feel that, for some reason, any reason at all, that they can't be fair and impartial?

We have another person.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Dorie Fales, Badge
Number 113.
THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: I just kind of have a bias already just from the fact that -- that that side has so many witnesses and the defendant doesn't.

And I have a problem with people getting robbed at bars because it happened to a roommate of mine, not nicely. So, I don't know, I'm just kind of biased ahead of time. Doesn't mean I will be on the jury. I'm just saying I kind of am.

THE COURT: All right. So you've made up your mind in the case, even though you haven't heard any evidence? You can't wait and -- I mean --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Well, I could.
THE COURT: -- no one --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: I'm just saying I already have a bias, so...

THE COURT: Okay. Well, I --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Only because if the plaintiff has so many witnesses against the defense, it just -- logic.

THE COURT: But what if you don't believe any of those witnesses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: There's always that chance. THE COURT: Okay. But -- so it's not -PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: I just have a biased against people getting rolled in bars when they're drunk.

THE COURT: Okay. So it's not -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Especially older people.
THE COURT: All right. So --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: That's just what I'm saying.
THE COURT: All right. So, as I explained, I don't think anyone here is going to say that they like robbers or murders or violent criminals.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Of course not.
THE COURT: That's not the issue. The issue is this defendant is presumed to be innocent, unless the State proves their case beyond a reasonable doubt. So I need jurors who come and can give the defendant and the State a fair trial. I mean, other -- this goes both ways. If you have bias either for one side or the other, that's not what I want.

JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Well, it would be the same thing if I was biased for the defendant; that's not fair to the State.

THE COURT: Exactly.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: I'm just saying. It's a bias
I have that may or may not work as me being a juror.
THE COURT: Okay. And so you cannot set aside these feelings, so you can't be fair. Is that what you're saying?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Probably not.
THE COURT: All right. You're excused.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 113: Thank you.
THE COURT: All right. Anyone else who cannot be fair?

All right. I see no other hands.
Okay. Are there any folks here who have already served previously on a jury? Take you in order, just like we did before.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Gary Larson, Badge
Number 000.
THE COURT: Yes. Where was it that you served?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Federal court.
THE COURT: Federal court here in Clark County?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: Okay. Was it a civil case?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: It was.

JD Reporting, Inc.

THE COURT: A civil case. Okay. So the civil rules are a bit different.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Correct.
THE COURT: In federal court, unlike state court, the jury does have to come to a unanimous verdict in a civil case. That's a little different than civil cases in state court. So without telling us what the verdict was, did you reach a verdict?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: Were you the foreperson of the jury? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Thank you very much.
Anyone on the second row previously been a juror?
Anyone before her? No. No. Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: Maria Zamora, 004.
THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Where were you a juror?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: It was here in Nevada, but I'm not really sure. It was a couple of years ago.
THE COURT: Okay. And you don't -- was it in this courthouse?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: No, not in this courthouse. I just remember -- I don't know. It wasn't in this courthouse, though.

THE COURT: But it was just a couple of years ago? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: Uh-huh.

THE COURT: So was it a great, huge building with very grand courtrooms?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: I don't even remember. I'm not sure.

THE COURT: But you were actually on the jury?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: Yes.
THE COURT: Okay. Was it downtown?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: I believe so.
THE COURT: Was it a civil case or a criminal case? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: I believe it was civil.

THE COURT: Okay. What was -- what was it about?
Was it about awarding money or finding someone guilty or not guilty?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: I honestly can't remember. It was, like, maybe five years ago, but I honestly don't remember.

THE COURT: All right. Without telling us what the verdict was, did the jury reach a verdict?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: Yes.
THE COURT: And were you the foreperson?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 004: No.
THE COURT: Thank you.
Okay. We're trying to keep things in order, so you should have gone before her. So --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 909: So Hope Coen, Juror

Number 909.
THE COURT: Yes.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 909: It was here and it was a civil case.

THE COURT: Okay. So different rules for -- and there's a difference in the burden of proof in a civil case as well. So it's a preponderance of the evidence, which is a lesser burden than beyond a reasonable doubt, which is the burden of proof. And you'll be instructed on jury instruction on what that is, but I want you to set aside any memory, if you have any, about the law that you were instructed on in that civil case.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 909: Okay.
THE COURT: Okay. Will you be able to do that?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 909: Yes.
THE COURT: Now, without telling us what the verdict was, did the jury reach a verdict?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 909: Yes.
THE COURT: Were you the foreperson?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 909: No.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Anyone else, this row? Pass it all the way down.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: Alberto Reyes, 925 (sic).
I've served on two criminal juries, and we reached verdicts on both of them.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

THE COURT: Were they here in Clark County?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: In Los Angeles.
THE COURT: In Los Angeles. How long ago?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: Five, six years ago.
THE COURT: Okay. And you reached verdicts. Were you the foreperson --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: No.
THE COURT: -- in either of those findings? No.
Okay. Thank you.
THE CLERK: Your Honor, I believe he's Badge 927.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 927: I'm sorry. 927.
THE MARSHAL: Anybody in this row? No. Thank you, ma'am. Anybody in this section?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 019: Guillermo Tafolla, Badge
Number 019. I served on a jury about five years ago in this building.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 019: And it was a civil case.
THE COURT: Civil case?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 019: Yes.
THE COURT: And so will you be able to forget what you were instructed on the law in that case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 019: Yes, because I understand it would be different.

THE COURT: All right. Good. And without telling us

JD Reporting, Inc.

what the verdict was, did the jury reach a verdict?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 019: Yes, we did reach a verdict.
THE COURT: Were you the foreperson?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 019: No.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Anyone else back there? Yes, we have one gentleman in the corner.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Yeah. My name is Gregory
Lawrence, Badge Number 050. It has been a long time, but it was two cases over in California.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: One was civil and one was criminal.

THE COURT: All right.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: And we did reach a decision. Both -- one was actually deadlock. The other one was --

THE COURT: Don't tell me what the verdict was.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Okay. Well, we did reach a decision on both of them.

THE COURT: You did or -- I thought you said -PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Well, one -- one, we didn't. The other one, we did.

THE COURT: All right. And were you the foreperson in either?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: No.

JD Reporting, Inc.

THE COURT: Thank you.
Anybody on this side? Okay. We've got two on the other side.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 093: My name is Gabe -- Gabriel
Gilmore. My badge number is 093. I've served on both a criminal case and a civil case here in Clark County.

THE COURT: Here in Clark County?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 093: Yeah.
THE COURT: And was that a long time ago or recently? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 093: Within the last five -- five years or so.

THE COURT: And without telling us what the verdict was, did the jury reach a verdict in both cases?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 093: They did.
THE COURT: Were you the foreperson?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 093: No.
THE COURT: Thank you.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: Edward Aleman, 101.
THE COURT: Yes, sir.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: And I served on one. It was a long time ago, and I don't even remember if it was in here. Because I moved to California and then moved back, so I forget. I believe it was in California.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you remember whether it was a criminal case or a civil case?

JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: I do not.
THE COURT: Do you remember what it was about at all? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: I do.

THE COURT: Okay. So was it -- were you asked to give somebody money or were you asked to find somebody guilty or not guilty?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: If I remember correctly, I think it was guilty/not guilty, but I just don't remember.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: It was a while back.
THE COURT: All right. Without telling us what the verdict was, did the jury reach a verdict?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: We did.
THE COURT: Were you the foreperson?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 101: No.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
So next question: Are there any of you here who have ever been in law enforcement, so employed as a police officer, a sheriff, corrections officer, a special agent? Not private security, but actually in law enforcement. Anyone?

I see no hands -- oh, yes, I see one hand. I was going to say that's unusual.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Renier Escolin, 0971. I didn't actually get to finish the process, but I was employed by Metro. I was in the October class, 2018. Three weeks into

JD Reporting, Inc.
the academy, I tore my Achilles tendon. I never got to complete the academy and never got the chance to earn the badge, but I was employed by LVNPD.

THE COURT: Okay. And that wasn't something that could heal enough where you could try again?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: I am full -- I am fit for duty now, ma'am. I'm just waiting on a doctor to clear me to go back.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: All right. So we may have some law enforcement officers testify in the trial. If we do, would you be able to consider their testimony as you would any other witnesses who testify; in other words, examining their manner on the stand, listening to what they say, determining whether it makes sense to you when you compare it to other evidence, you know, observing their language, listening to maybe things that they said or did before the trial and comparing that to what they're saying on the stand now?

Or would you, just because it's a law enforcement officer, say, "Well, you know, I don't -- I just see the badge. That's all I need to know. I'm going to believe everything they say. I don't care if they say there's a pink elephant in the back of the courtroom; I'm going with that"?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: No, I'll try to be fair, JD Reporting, Inc.
ma'am.
THE COURT: Okay. I know you'll try to be fair because you already answered that question.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: You know, you said that you could be fair. The question is not that.

The question is: Are you going to be able to weigh the testimony of a police officer, law enforcement officer -there was a possibility of an FBI agent testifying -- in the same way that you would any other witness and listen to what they have to say and -- or are you going to be biased just because they are law enforcement?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Honestly, I'm probably going to honestly be biased and weigh more of the law enforcement officer because, you know, I am an aspiring -- I'm trying to pursue that career. That's just my honest answer.

THE COURT: Okay. Is there any objection to my dismissing him?

MR. MATSUDA: No objection.
THE COURT: State?
MS. MOORS: I think we would like to inquire.
THE COURT: All right. Do you want to approach first?
(Conference at the bench not recorded.)
THE COURT: Okay. Sir, you still have the JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Yes. Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: All right. Good. So let me ask you some more questions, just so I'm clear, because there's some confusion. Because on the one hand, you said you could be fair, and I said but that's not really the question. The question is: Can you weigh the testimony the same? And so -and you indicated that because you're an aspiring police officer, that you would just give more credibility to the police officer just because they're a police officer, without more. Is that -- is that how you feel?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Yes, ma'am, initially,
I'll -- I will feel that way, to be honest.
THE COURT: All right. And this would be just because of the badge? Because you're not going to know -- you already indicated you don't know any of these witnesses; right? Or else you would have raised your hand --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Yes, that's correct.
THE COURT: -- right? So you're making your decision based solely on the fact that they're wearing a badge?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Honestly, yes, ma'am. That's how I feel.

THE COURT: So I'm going to excuse you. Thank you. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 971: Yes, ma'am.

THE CLERK: Guillermo Tafolla, Badge 019, please take

JD Reporting, Inc.

Seat 24.
THE COURT: Okay. Any -- that was the only person that's ever been in law enforcement in any capacity.

How about anyone who has a close family member or close friends that are in law enforcement?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 160: My name is Jasmin Ancheta, Badge Number 611 (sic). So I have two family that works in the correctional office down in Sparks. Actually, three now. She just graduated. And I also do have my uncle. He is in process of becoming a Metro police officer, and I do also have one more police officer that works in downtown Los Angeles.

THE COURT: Okay. So the question is the same I put to the last juror: Will you be able to weigh the testimony of a law enforcement officer in the same way you would any other witness?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 160: Yes, of course.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.
THE CLERK: And, Your Honor, for the record, she's Badge 160.

THE COURT: 160.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 160: So sorry.
THE COURT: That's okay.
All right. Pass it down.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Gary Larson, Badge
Number 000. I have several friends that work for Metro, Henderson, and North Las Vegas.

THE COURT: Okay. And the same question to you:
Will you be able to weigh law enforcement testimony the same as you would other witnesses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 000: Absolutely.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Go ahead, ma'am.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 691: My name is Nancy Burroughs, Badge 8 -- sorry. 867 -- oh, sorry. 991.

THE CLERK: 691.
THE COURT: 691.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 691: Nancy Burroughs, 691.
THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 691: I've got a brother.
Different state, Indiana. Yes, I can be impartial.
THE COURT: Okay. So you can weigh the testimony of a law enforcement officer just as you would any other witness?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 691: Yes, anyone saying --
THE COURT: All right.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 691: -- they did what...
THE COURT: Thank you very much. Next row?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: Victoria Crockett, 918.
THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: My uncle is a corrections officer, and I have a close friend who's a Clark County sheriff

JD Reporting, Inc.
in Washington.
THE COURT: All right. And the corrections officer, is that here?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: California.
THE COURT: California. Okay. So both in California?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: One in California, one in Washington.
THE COURT: Oh, that's right. Washington.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: Sorry. Spoke fast.
THE COURT: All right. Well, same question to you:
Will you be able to weigh the testimony of law enforcement in the same way you would any other witness?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: Yes.
THE COURT: Thank you very much.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: Thank you.
THE COURT: Anyone else on that row? Law enforcement? No.
Next row: Law enforcement, relatives, close friends?
No. I know we have a lady in the front here.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 990: Tonia Best, Badge Number 990. THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 990: My dad's a retired police officer from New Jersey.
THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 990: My best friend is currently a corrections officer in New Jersey. And I worked with federal police officers for 15 years in my previous job in New York.

THE COURT: Okay. What did you do in that job?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 990: I was a concessions management specialist at the National Park, Statute of Liberty, and Ellis Island.

THE COURT: Oh, okay. And so the park. What, law enforcement officers there?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 990: Yes, United States park police.

THE COURT: The park police, okay. So same question to you: Will you be able to weigh the testimony of law enforcement officers that may testify in the case in the way you would -- the same way you would other witnesses? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 990: Yes. THE COURT: Thank you very much.

Anyone back here? Law enforcement? Gentleman in the corner.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Gregory Lawrence, Badge 050. I have a lot of childhood friends that are police officers in San Francisco.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Had one just retire. And I still have a few in -- even got some in the sheriff department.

THE COURT: Okay. All in California?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: All in California.
THE COURT: San Francisco, all right. So would you be able to weigh the testimony of law enforcement officers in the same way you would other witnesses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Sure, I would. Shouldn't be no problem.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: You're welcome.
THE COURT: Anyone on this side? Okay. I see two hands on the other side, Marshal.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 107: Michael Reardon, Badge Number 107. My sister works for the State Parole and Probation Office. I don't know exactly her title, but what I know she does is she reviews case files as they come in from that trail, or surrounding law enforcement, and reviews those for judges.

THE COURT: Okay. Does she do reports?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 107: She does do summary reports.
THE COURT: Okay. But does she wear a uniform and carry handcuffs and --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 107: When she goes to the state prison, she does wear a shirt with the uniform. She's not a uniformed officer.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 107: But I believe she's entitled JD Reporting, Inc.
to carry a firearm when she goes into the state prisons.
THE COURT: Okay. So same question to you as to the others: Will you be able to weigh the testimony of law enforcement witnesses in the same way you would other witnesses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 107: I would treat them equally. THE COURT: All right. Thank you. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 107: You're welcome. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 123: Hi, there. I'm Keegan Davis, Badge Number 123.

THE COURT: Yes.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 123: My maternal uncle is a retired member of the New Jersey State Police.

THE COURT: All right. And same question to you: Will you be able to weigh the testimony of law enforcement witnesses in the same way you would other witnesses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 123: Absolutely, Your Honor. THE COURT: Thank you.

All right. Okay. Next question: Are there any of you who have ever been the victim of a crime?

All right. So nobody but one person has ever had their house broken into, their car broken into, their credit card hacked, their identity hacked? Those are crimes, folks.

All right. So let's see hands raised high. So we've got a lot of people. Now, those of you -- let me -- let's back JD Reporting, Inc.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

down here, and so we'll see if we can narrow it a little bit more.

How many of you have ever been the victim of a violent type of crime? So robbery, assault, attempted murder, battery, domestic violence.

All right. Now we've got a little fewer hands, so let's start with those folks.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 017: Vicki Fields, 017. I was in a domestic violence relationship.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 017: And so I took my ex-boyfriend to court, and he was found guilty for the domestic violence.

THE COURT: All right. So, obviously, you called the police about that --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 017: Yes.
THE COURT: -- and reported the domestic violence. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 017: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you feel that that experience will have any impact on your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 017: No.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.
And anyone else on the top row?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: Sorry. I guess it wasn't violent.

THE CLERK: Who said that?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 918: Victoria Crockett, 918.
THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else, though, on that row, violent crime?

How about next row?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: Susan Tysdal, 956. I was just a victim of a domestic abuse. Never went -- I never charged him. I asked for help, but basically got out of the situation but was physically and mentally abused.

THE COURT: Okay. So did you call the police as a result of -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: No. My stupidity and fear, I just didn't -- I asked for help from my friends, and I stuck around for a while and got out.

THE COURT: All right. And so you -- and that was just your internal fear? You weren't -- there wasn't any other reason you didn't call the police about it?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: I mean, there was -- he threatened to kill my animals, my pets, so -- and he stalked me. I basically moved to Vegas to get away from him, so, yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you feel that that will have any impact on your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 956: I don't think so. I think I'll be fine.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: Cheryl Ewing, 963. I was robbed at gunpoint.
THE COURT: Okay. And was that here in Clark County? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: Yes.

THE COURT: Were you -- where were you when this happened?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: At work.
THE COURT: At work. And where were you working? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: Ewing Bros.

THE COURT: Okay. The towing --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: Yes.
THE COURT: -- company? And someone came into the office or --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: It was after an auction, one of the car auctions.
THE COURT: Okay. How long ago was that?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: I think it was '96.
THE COURT: So a long time ago. But that's a pretty traumatic incident.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: It was.
THE COURT: And were the police called?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: Yes.
THE COURT: Did they ever find the perpetrator? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: No.

THE COURT: So you never had to testify in court? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: There was three of them.

Yeah, they never...
THE COURT: Okay. Did you feel like the police did everything that they could to figure out who had done this robbery?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: Probably so. Between the four girls that were in the office, we all -- we couldn't -well, the -- we didn't see it the same. And when we had to give our -- our pictures to the sketch artist, and then when they came in with the photos, we didn't all pick the same people, so...

THE COURT: Okay. All right. So this is a case where the allegation is a robbery. So is that going to impact your ability to be fair and impartial in this case? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: No. THE COURT: You're sure you can separate the two? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 963: Yes. THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much. Anyone else on that row? No.

Front row.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: Berenice Quintero, Badge 982.
I was in a domestic violence.
THE COURT: All right. Was that here in Clark County?

JD Reporting, Inc.
C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: Yes, it was.
THE COURT: Did you call the police about -PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: Yes.

THE COURT: And did they respond?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: They did.
THE COURT: Did you feel they handled the matter appropriately?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: Yes, they did.
THE COURT: And did you go to court?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: One time, yeah.
THE COURT: So you testified against the perpetrator?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: They never actually called me to testify. Just showed up and then that was it.
THE COURT: Okay. Do you feel the matter was resolved appropriately?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: Yes.
THE COURT: Any reason that that's going to affect your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 982: None.
THE COURT: Thank you.
Anyone over here? Victim of violent crime? No?
Victim of violent crime on that side? Hands. No -yes.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Yeah, this is Gregory
Lawrence again, Badge Number 050. I was on my way to work, me JD Reporting, Inc.
and a coworker. For some reason, they had a gentleman, was on a crime spree. On my way to work, me and him was ran down. Okay, I was hit and flew a hundred feet. If it wasn't for my coworker finding me, I'd be dead right now. I stayed in the hospital for a month. I was out of work for six months. And that's still going to affect me right now, every time I think about it. And the person that did it eventually committed suicide when they surrounded him. That's -- that's what I was told.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I was on my deathbed. I didn't even know if I was going to be here. They told me I wasn't supposed to be here. But I had -- I got a second chance. I think about it every time. Every time I go in that area where I work at, I think about it every time. THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: And it still -- it's affect
-- it's affecting me right now.
THE COURT: All right.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Every time I think about it.
THE COURT: Okay. So --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: It -- it would be real hard for me to be -- be partial. I mean...
THE COURT: Well, we want you to be impartial.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Yeah, impartial. I mean,

JD Reporting, Inc.
every time I think about it. I could be dead.
THE COURT: Okay. So you understand that that person is not Mr. Marks because --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Yeah.
THE COURT: -- as you just told me --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Yeah, I understand, but I just got that feeling that I wouldn't be -- be fair because of that.

THE COURT: Okay. So --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I have family depending on my income. All I was doing is trying to get to work. And somebody come and just run us down like -- like we was trash. Only thing I remember telling my coworker, I said, "Let's go in the -- in the dirt a little bit farther because," I said, "this guy, coming fast." That's the last thing I remember. I woke up; I was in the hospital.

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: So it still affects me today, right now.

THE COURT: How come you didn't tell me this before, when I asked if there was any reason you couldn't be fair?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Well, you know, I -- I didn't know. I didn't really think about it. But like I said, eventually my friend, he ended up passing away, the one that got hit with me, from his injuries.

JD Reporting, Inc.

THE COURT: And that's -- that's not the coworker who found you? That's somebody else?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: That's the guy that was hit with me.

THE COURT: Oh, I see.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: The coworker find me. She happened to be coming up the hill and see a car ran over. She seen the guy that -- that passed, in the streets, laying down. She went to protect him from getting hit, and she -- she told me she said, "I came over to you to see if you know anything, and you was hurt too." And I remember her telling me, "Don't get up."

THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I had to learn how to walk and talk again.

THE COURT: All right. And didn't you tell me you served on a jury since that time?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Yeah, that's -- this is before that. This is way before that.
THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: This is in Oakland,
California. But this happened out here in 2003.
THE COURT: I see.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: See, I drive the RTC transit buses.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1

THE COURT: Oh.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I'm going on 23 years, driving.
THE COURT: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I'm glad to still be alive, though.

THE COURT: Well, we're glad you are. PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: Yeah.

THE COURT: All right. Well, so you're saying that --
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I don't -- I don't know if I can, you know.

THE COURT: Okay. So you're the only person that can tell me whether you can be fair. I need to know an unequivocal answer. Can you be fair or not?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I don't think I can.
THE COURT: All right. You're excused.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 050: I don't think I can. I'm sorry.
THE COURT: That's all right. You're excused.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Rex Spenner, Badge
Number 068. It was actually my senior prom night. I was driving to pick up my girlfriend to go to prom, and someone was inside of an act of grand theft auto. And he broke in through the sunroof of a Range Rover, and he decided to pop the sunroof JD Reporting, Inc.
while driving 80 miles an hour down the highway. It was a windy day. The 30-pound sunroof flew across all the way into traffic. Ended up coming head-on towards my windshield. I had to swerve. It shattered my windshield.

And when I pulled over to confront the person that had done it, he said that if I called anyone -- like he flashed a gun, a 9 millimeter. Then he said if I called anyone that he would shoot me on spot if he saw me touch my phone.

And pretty odd prom night, to say the least. But, no, I don't believe that it will have any effect on my judgment.

THE COURT: Okay. So you can set that aside. Did you call the police?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: I did, ma'am.
THE COURT: Okay. And were you able to -- were they able to figure out who had done this and --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Not that I know of, ma'am. They never contacted me about it again.

THE COURT: Okay. Did you feel the police did a proper job in investigating this matter?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: From my knowledge, in this specific instance, no, ma'am. But I do believe that our law enforcement is definitely capable and good-hearted in that sense.

THE COURT: Okay. What do you think they should have JD Reporting, Inc.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: I feel that they definitely should have informed me about, I don't know, maybe the guy, if they did find him, inside of, like, a reasonable time frame, because I had to bite the cost of repairing my windshield, regardless of letting them know the license plate, all of the characteristics of the individual that was involved. I mean, that was kind of unfortunate, but I understand that some things are more complicated than they may seem, especially from a civilian standpoint.

THE COURT: All right. And so you can set that aside and separate it from this trial and decide this trial based upon the evidence you hear?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 068: Yes, ma'am.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Anyone else on this side? Okay. We've got a couple on this side.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Scott Reynolds, badge number will be 110.

THE COURT: Yes, sir.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: I have been in quite a few violent actions and incidents. Do you want to -- like, what kinds do you want? Do you want the police involved or do you want -- what kind? Physical? Weapon?

THE COURT: All of them.

C-18-337017-2 | State v. Marks.D | 2019-07-08 | JT - Day 1
```

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: All of them? Okay. So let's see. Which one -- where to start? I was walking down the street. A guy drove by. He shot at me. He said sorry because I was the wrong guy.

It was at work. A guy pulls an ice pick on me. Took five minutes to try and keep him from stabbing me. There's been multiple times I've been jumped on my job.

I -- let's see. What else? A razor blade I've had pulled on me --

THE COURT: Where do you work?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Town Square.
THE COURT: I'm sorry?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Town Square, down here on the Strip.
THE COURT: Oh, Town Square.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: I don't work there anymore.
I quit because it was causing rage issues.
THE COURT: For you?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: I was in the middle of a couple of shootings that were there.

THE COURT: Oh, okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Yeah, I -- it goes on forever.

THE COURT: Okay. So who was having the rage?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Me, mainly. What happened was I was falling back. Even when it wasn't me, I was getting pissed off that, like, somebody would do that to somebody because I was in that situation once before and then -- you know, it was just -- I wanted to hurt them for hurting the other people. Does that make sense?

THE COURT: Sure. What was your job at Town Square? PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Security.

THE COURT: And so do you work for -- do security now?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Yes. I just moved far, far away from that place.

THE COURT: Oh, okay. And what other violent acts?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: I've been slammed onto the hood of a car and then beaten. I've been hit by a car multiple times, by accident; those are all accidents. One drove away. Let's see. I think that's about it, from what I can recall, within the last year.

THE COURT: All right. So -- within the last year.
All this happened in a year?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Yeah. That's kind of why I quit and walked away.

THE COURT: Okay. So you said some, you had police involvement.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Ice pick, drive-by. The razor blade, not so much because it got over, then he just

JD Reporting, Inc.
threatened me. That's all.
The shootings, I was in the middle of all that. The attempted to get hit by a car, all that stuff, they came and did reports.

THE COURT: Okay. So -- and all of these situations where you called the police and you made a report, was anyone ever apprehended?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Yes, multiple people.
THE COURT: Did you feel that the police did an adequate job in investigating, looking into it?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Yes. But, you know, at the time, I was just upset because it happened.

THE COURT: I see.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: So at the time, I would have said something different. But, afterwards, yes, they did a good job.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. So all these incidents happening to you, do you feel that you're in a suitable frame of mind where you can be a fair and impartial juror?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Honestly, I don't think so. I mean, part of me thought maybe, but it depends on what this -- the case will be about. You know, like physical violence or robbery or -- depends on what it is.

THE COURT: Well, you've already been told that the charge is a robbery charge. And whether or not you feel that JD Reporting, Inc.
that charge is proved by the State, that's what the jury decides, whether the State proves the charges that are alleged. The defendant initially, of course, sits here as presumed to be innocent. The State has to prove the case beyond a reasonable doubt. You understand that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Yes.
THE COURT: Okay. So sometimes people are involved in traumatic events, such as you have been, and they -- that affects their ability to be clear-headed and decide the case on the evidence. And I need to know whether you're affected by all of this trauma that's occurred in your job in -- in a year's time and whether you can be fair and impartial and set all that aside and make a clear-headed decision.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: Honestly, I don't think I'm the guy for you.

THE COURT: All right. So you don't think that you can be fair and impartial?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: No.
THE COURT: All right. You're excused.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 110: All right.
THE COURT: Yes, sir.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 115: Christian Torres, 115. Been assaulted at work due to the result of trying to apprehend subjects. So I work security at the Strip, so not directly assaulted. But as an action of trying to apprehend subjects, JD Reporting, Inc.

I've been assaulted, so we've tacked on charges for that.
THE COURT: Okay. So given that you've had these experiences, do you believe that you can set those experiences aside?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR 115: Yes, I can.
THE COURT: Be fair and impartial?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR 115: Yes.
THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
Anyone else on that last question? No.
All right. So ladies and gentlemen, the clock on the wall, you can see it is five minutes after 5:00, and I told you that we would go till 5:00 each day. And, obviously, we have not selected a jury yet. It usually takes some time because we've got to get through all these questions, and then we have to have each of you individually, that are sitting up here, examined, tell me about yourself in a little more personal detail.

So we are not there yet. That's why we're selecting a jury this -- this week. So I need everybody that's here to come back tomorrow. I need you to come back tomorrow at 1:30. I have -- tomorrow's Tuesday. I have drug court all morning. And so don't be here any sooner than that. The marshal will tell you when he wants you to be here. But I will endeavor to be done with drug court, so we can start at 1:30 and make more progress.

You know, as we get further whittled down here, obviously, we've -- let's see.
Okay. So I'll see you all tomorrow.
THE MARSHAL: All rise for the venire panel --
THE COURT: Wait, wait --
THE CLERK: Admonish -- sorry.
THE COURT: We have to give them the admonishment.
THE MARSHAL: Oh, the admonishment. That's right.
Have a seat, folks.
THE COURT: The marshal is a little rusty. I haven't had a trial in a couple weeks.

Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to take an overnight recess. During this recess, it is your duty not to converse among yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with the trial; or to read, watch, or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial by any person connected with the trial or by any medium of information, including, without limitation, newspaper, television, radio or Internet. You are not to form or express an opinion on any subject connected with this case until it's finally submitted to you.

I'd ask you also not to talk to people -- everybody, you know, your family, your friends, are going to be really interested that you're -- you've gone to the courthouse and you may be selected for a jury. They may want to talk to you about that. Please don't do that, because we're being really careful to try and get a jury that's not tainted by anybody with an agenda. And somebody that may want to talk to you about it may have an agenda. And don't let them talk to you and, you know, convince you to something that isn't already in your mind. So I'd like you to just be pristine, as you are today.

So also don't do any research, investigate, go by any of these, you know, areas where the events are alleged to have occurred. And I will see you tomorrow at 1:30.
(Panel of prospective jurors recessed at 5:09 p.m.)
THE COURT: All right. The record will reflect that the venire has departed the courtroom.

Any matters outside the presence?
MS. MOORS: None from the State.
MR. MATSUDA: None that from the defense.
THE COURT: We had one -- one bench conference where we approached about the gentleman who was indicating that he was in the academy and felt like he couldn't listen to the testimony of a law enforcement officer in the same way he would other witnesses. He would give greater weight. So, you know, I questioned him initially. The State felt that there needed to be some additional questioning. I thought, after I did the additional questioning, it seemed pretty clear that he was saying, yes, it was kind of the badge, and so I excused him as a result. And Mr. Matsuda had challenged him for cause at the bench for the reason that we discussed, which was that he seemed to be having that bias.

JD Reporting, Inc.
All right. So is that an adequate summary of what occurred at the bench?

MS. MOORS: Yes, Your Honor.
MR. MATSUDA: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Very good. Anything else?
MR. MATSUDA: Just one additional thing. One of the jurors just asked me a question. She was waving her jury form, and I just pointed her in the direction of the marshal.

THE COURT: Right, I saw her do that. Could you even hear what she said? I couldn't understand what she --

MR. MATSUDA: She said something about her paper. It was the Indian juror.

MS. MOORS: Yes. Yeah, I think it was maybe something about a parking violation.

MR. MATSUDA: She said something about "my paper." I -- yeah, that's all I heard. So I just pointed her in the direction to the marshal.

THE COURT: Right. And I saw you do that. Thank you. So maybe she just needed something for her employer or -MR. MATSUDA: I think so.

THE COURT: We'll -- we'll find out from the marshal.
All right. Thank you very much. I'll see you
