III. ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

13. On April 18, 2016, Local 1107 entered into a contract of employment with position held by Plaintiff Clarke was Director of Finance and Human Resources.

15. Both the Gentry Contract and the Clarke Contract contain the same termination clause, which states: "Termination of this employment agreement may be initiated by the SEIU Nevada President for cause and is appealable to the local's Executive Board, which shall conduct a full and fair hearing before reaching a final determination regarding your employment status."

9 16. On April 28, 2017, Defendant SEIU President Mary Kay Henry placed Local

In the interim, the Trustees will largely be managing the Local themselves with input 24 from member leaders. For these reasons, the Trustees have decided to terminate your 26 employment with Local 1107, effective immediately."

27 21. Plaintiff Robert Clarke could not appeal the termination decision to Local 28 1107's Executive Board because the Board had been disbanded by SEIU, and Deputy Trustee

Manteca and Trustee Luisa Blue have exclusive control over Local 1107 since the Trusteeship 1 2 was imposed. 3 22. Plaintiff Dana Gentry could not appeal the termination decision to Local 4 1107's Executive Board because the Board had been disbanded by SEIU, and Deputy Trustee 5 Manteca and Trustee Luisa Blue have exclusive control over Local 1107 since the Trusteeship 6 was imposed. 7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION 8 Breach of Contract – Dana Gentry 9 23. 22	103. That Defendants Manteca and Blue further breached the duty of care by failing

4	FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
5	Defamation – Dana Gentry Against Sharon Kisling
6	106. Plaintiffs restate and reallege all preceding and subsequent allegations as

8	107. That Defendant Sharon Kisling made a false a defamatory statement alleging
9 10	that Plaintiff Dana Gentry was drinking during performance of her employment and using the

12	108. That an unprivileged publication of this statement was made to third persons
13	when Defendant Kisling sent a memo containing the unfounded allegations to the Local 1107
14	Executive Board.

16	109. That the statement included an allegation that Plaintiff Gentry committed a

22	111. That Defendant Kisling was at least negligent in making the statement because
23	Defendant Kisling knew that the statement was false and published it without regard to the
24	damages it caused Plaintiff Gentry in her employment with the Local Union.
25
26	112. That Plaintiff Gentry has sustained actual or presumed damages as a result of
27	the statement because it damaged her reputation as an employee.

1	113. That Plaintiff Gentry has sustained damages in an amount in excess of
2	$15,000.00, and the costs and expenses associated in filing this action, including Plaintiffs'
3	reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
4	IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. STATEMENT OF INDISPUTABLE FACTS.

The facts of this case, for the purposes of this Motion for Partial Summary Judgment are clear, and are indisputable. On April 18, 2016, the Service Employees International Union ("SEIU") Local 1107 entered into an express, valid and binding contract for indefinite employment with Dana Gentry that Local 1107 would only terminate her employment "for cause." See Gentry Employment Contract, attached as Exhibit "1," at 1. Specifically, Local 1107 and Gentry expressly agreed that "Effective April 18, 2016, you will commence employment with Locall107, the annual salary for your position will be $70,000." Id. Local 1107 and Gentry also expressly agreed that:

Termination of this employment agreement may be initiated by the SEIU Nevada President for cause and is appealable to the local's Executive Board, which shall conduct a full and fair hearing before reaching a final determination regarding your employment status.

On behalf of the Officers and staff of Local II 07, I would like to express how very excited we are that you have decided to join us.

Id.

Similarly, on August 23, 2016, Local 1107 entered into an express, valid and binding contract for indefinite employment with Robert Clarke that Local 1107 would only terminate his employment "for cause." See Clark Employment Contract, attached as Exhibit "2," at 1. Specifically, Local 1107 and Clark expressly agreed that "Effective September 6, 2016, you will commence employment with Local1107. The annual salary for your position will be $80,000." Id. Local 1107 and Clarke also expressly agreed that:

Termination of this employment agreement may be initiated by the SEIU Nevada President for cause and is appealable to the local's Executive Board, which shall conduct a full and fair hearing before reaching a final determination regarding your employment status.

to this case. See JCCR, at 6:5-24. One such piece of evidence is a sworn affidavit by former SEIU International Senior Organizer Barry Roberts. See Roberts Affidavit, attached as Exhibit "5," at 1-5.

While this document will primarily be used in support of damages in this case, it clearly demonstrates that Defendants were intentionally seeking to terminate all employees that were connected to former Local 1107 President Cherie Mancini who was removed and suspended from office around the same time the trusteeship was imposed over Local 1107. Specifically, Mr. Roberts swears under penalty of perjury that after imposition of this emergency trusteeship over Local 1107, "SEIU International Local 1107 Deputy Trustee Martin Manteca placed me in charge of Local 11 07's organizing efforts." Id. at 3:26-28. "Shortly after the imposition of the trusteeship, Manteca began holding weekly meetings to discuss Local 1107's operations and staffing issues" and that "[d]uring these meetings, Manteca directed" Mr. Roberts "and the other senior SEIU International staff charged with maintaining the trusteeship to watch the staff closely in order to find an excuse to terminate any staff members connected to Cherie Mancini or otherwise causing problems for him as Deputy Trustee." Id. at 4:1-10.

It cannot be disputed that Ms. Gentry and Mr. Clarke were hired to their management positions with Local 1107 by former Local 1107 President Cherie Mancini. See Ex. 1, at 1; see also Ex. 2, at 2. Ms. Gentry and Ms. Clarke were also management employees that were not covered by the Nevada Service Employees Union Staff Union ("NSEUSU") collective bargaining agreement with Local 1107, which is why they had individual contracts for employment. See Ex. 5, at 4:1-10. Defendants maliciously, and intentionally terminated Plaintiffs' employment with Local 1107 in retaliation for them being hired by Cherie Mancini. Plaintiffs, through the sworn testimony of Mr. Roberts, can demonstrate that Defendants acted with malice, oppression or

I. Introduction

Plaintiffs Dana Gentry and Robert Clarke have brought a misguided motion for partial summary judgment ("Motion"). Despite urging partial summary judgment in their favor, the few undisputed facts currently in the record clearly support summary judgment in favor of defendants Service Employees International Union ("SEIU") and Mary Kay Henry.

Alternatively, SEIU and Henry respectfully request that the Court grant a continuance pursuant to Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 56(f), so that the parties can engage in meaningful discovery. The parties held their early case conference only a few months ago, and Defendants SEIU and Henry have not had sufficient time to conduct discovery into the allegations in the complaint.

II. Statement of Facts

A. SEIU Places Local 1107 Into Trusteeship in April 2017.

Defendant SEIU is an international labor union headquartered in Washington, D.C. It represents about 2.2 million workers. Declaration of Deirdre Fitzpatrick ("Fitzpatrick Decl."), ¶ 3. SEIU is an unincorporated not-for-profit membership association. Id. Defendant Mary Kay Henry is the President of SEIU. Id. SEIU's current Constitution and Bylaws have been in effect since 2016. Id.

Defendant Service Employees International Union, Local 1107 ("Local 1107") is a local union affiliated with SEIU in Nevada, and is headquartered in Las Vegas. Fitzpatrick Decl.,  $\P$  5. Local 1107 is an unincorporated not-for-profit membership association. Id. It represents public sector and private sector workers in Nevada. Id. Until April 2017, it was governed by its own Constitution and Bylaws. Id. SEIU and Local 1107 are separate entities. See id., 3, 5.

On April 28, 2017, SEIU placed Local 1107 into trusteeship.<sup>1</sup> Id. at  $\P$  5. Article VIII, Section 7(a) of the SEIU Constitution authorizes the SEIU president to place a local union into trusteeship:

Whenever the International President has reason to believe that, in order to protect the interests of the membership, it is necessary to appoint a Trustee for the purpose of correcting corruption or financial malpractice, assuring the performance of collective bargaining agreements or other duties of a bargaining representative, restoring democratic procedures, or otherwise carrying out the legitimate objects of this International Union, he or she may appoint such Trustee to take charge and control of the affairs of a Local Union or of an affiliated body and such appointment shall have the effect of removing the officers of the Local Union or affiliated body.

Fitzpatrick Decl., Ex. A (Art. VII, § 7(a)). As a result of the trusteeship, SEIU suspended Local 1107's Constitution and Bylaws. Fitzpatrick Decl., ¶ 5.

<sup>1</sup> Trusteeships of local unions by international unions are authorized by federal law. See 29 U.S.C. § 462. SEIU President Henry's order placing the union into trusteeship order cited, among other things, "an on-going and serious breakdown in internal union governance and democratic procedures;" "[l]eadership conflicts and in-fighting in Local 1107;" "failure to communicate adequately with Local membership;" and a "communication breakdown in the Local [which] impeded staff oversight . . . ." # B. The Trustees Terminate the Employment of Plaintiffs Gentry and Clarke.

According to the Motion, on April 18, 2016, about a year before SEIU placed Local 1107 into trusteeship, former Local 1107 President Cherie Mancini offered, and plaintiff Gentry accepted, employment as Communications Director. Motion, at 3. Similarly, the Motion asserts that on August 23, 2016, former Local 1107 President Mancini offered, and plaintiff Clarke accepted, employment as Director of Finance and Human Relations. Motion, at 3. Each alleged contract provided for termination for cause, and an appeal to the Local 1107 Executive Board.

Motion, Ex. 1 & 2. Plaintiffs' Motion offers no evidence to authenticate the alleged contracts attached as exhibits to the Motion. Equally noteworthy, the alleged Clarke contract is not signed by him. Motion, Ex. 2.

According to the Motion, Deputy Trustee Manteca terminated Plaintiffs on May 4, 2017, shortly after imposition of the trusteeship. Motion, Ex. 4. In his termination letters to Plaintiffs,

Manteca recited as follows:

As you know, Local 1107 has been placed under trusteeship by the Service Employees International Union. The Trustees of Local 1107 have been charged with the restoration of democratic procedures of Local 1107. In connection with formulating a program and implementing policies that will achieve this goal, going forward the Trustees will fill management and other positions at the Local with individuals they are confidant can and will carry out the Local's new program and policies. In the interim, the Trustees will largely be managing the Local themselves with input from member leaders. [¶] For these reasons, the Trustees have decided to terminate your employment with Local 1107, effective immediately. You are hereby directed to immediately return any property of 1107, effective immediately. You are hereby directed to immediately return any property of the Local that you have in your possession, including but not limited to credit cards, phones, keys or key cards, vehicles, computers, files (both electronic and hard copy) and any other property in your possession.

Motion, Ex. 4.

C. Procedural History.

Plaintiffs filed this action on November 20, 2017. They alleged fourteen causes of action for breach of contract and related torts based on the alleged employment contracts. The complaint names as defendants SEIU, SEIU President Mary K. Henry; Local 1107; Local 1107 Trustee Luisa Blue; Local 1107 Deputy Trustee Martin Manteca; and Sharon Kisling.

Local 1107 filed its answer to the complaint on February 2, 2018. SEIU filed its answer to the complaint on March 19, 2018. The parties held their Early Case Conference on July 18, 2018. Declaration of Jonathan Cohen ("Cohen Decl."), ¶ 5. The Court issued its Scheduling Order on October 10, 2018, setting a discovery cutoff of April 15, 2019.

Local 1107 served requests for production of documents on Plaintiffs on August 17, August 29, and August 30, 2018. Cohen Decl.,  $\P$  5. SEIU served requests for production on Plaintiffs on October 11, 2018. Id. at  $\P$  7.

Plaintiffs filed their motion for partial summary judgment on September 26, 2018. Plaintiffs' motion appears to seek partial summary judgment regarding the following allegations: (1) the existence of contracts between Local 1107 and Plaintiffs for indefinite employment; (2) the alleged contracts were expressly or impliedly for indefinite terms and could only be terminated for cause; and (3) Defendants breached the alleged contracts by terminating Plaintiffs without cause. Motion, 7-9.

III. Argument

A. Plaintiffs' Motion is Deficient in Several Basic, and Yet Fundamental, Respects.

Plaintiffs' Motion suffers from several basic flaws.

Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 56(c) permits partial summary judgment: "A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages." Nev. R. Civ. P. 56(c). Plaintiffs' motion, however, fails whatsoever to identify which of the specific fourteen causes of action in their complaint is the subject of their partial summary judgment motion. Surely, Defendants and the Court should not be left to divine such a basic, and yet fundamental, element of their Motion.

Moreover, although Plaintiffs' Motion recites the elements of a wrongful termination claim, Motion, at 7, that hardly cures the above-described insufficiency, since there are four separate causes of action labeled "wrongful termination:" Two causes of action in the complaint are labeled "wrongful termination – breach of continued employment contract" (the ninth and tenth causes of action); and two causes of action in the complaint are labeled "wrongful termination – bad faith discharge" (the eleventh and twelfth causes of action). Even if Plaintiffs' Motion is directed solely at these causes of action – again, something Defendants are left to guess – Plaintiffs are obligated to clearly say so in the Motion. Given the significant stakes for entering partial summary judgment, requiring Plaintiffs to adequately specify which causes of action are at issue in their Motion is more than a mere procedural nicety.

Finally, Plaintiffs' motion fails to include any authenticating affidavit. Instead, the alleged contracts are merely attached to the Motion with no effort to establish their foundation or authenticity. The alleged Clarke contract attached to the Motion is not even signed by him, and Plaintiffs make no effort to explain how an unsigned contract is nevertheless binding on all defendants. See Motion, Ex. 2. Again, at this stage of the action, before SEIU and Henry have conducted any meaningful discovery, Plaintiffs' attempt to characterize the alleged employment contracts as "undisputed facts" is plainly premature.

B. Plaintiffs Fail to Establish that SEIU or Henry Can Be Liable for Local 1107's Actions.

Notwithstanding the procedural flaws in their Motion, Plaintiffs' Motion also suffers from a substantive flaw, one which entitles SEIU and Henry to summary judgment on all claims: Neither SEIU nor Henry is a party to the alleged employment contracts between Plaintiffs and Local 1107. As a result, they cannot be liable for the alleged breach of those contracts or related torts.

Because an international union and its locals are separate entities, an international union is not automatically liable for the obligations of its affiliated locals. See Carbon Fuel Co. v. United Mine Workers, 444 U.S. 212, 217 (1979); Garity v. APWU-AFL-CIO, Case No. 2:11-CV-01110-KJD, 2012 WL 215036, at *3 (D. Nev. Jan. 24, 2012) ("[A]n international union is not vicariously liable for the conduct of a local union simply by virtue of the local union's affiliation with it.").

Despite this well-settled legal principle, Plaintiffs indiscriminately assert that all defendants are liable here: "[T]here is no material fact regarding Defendants['] breach of Plaintiffs['] express contracts for continued employment...." Motion, at 9 (emphasis added). Yet, as is clear from the face of the alleged contracts, neither defendants SEIU nor Henry is a party to the contracts. Motion, Exs. 1 & 2. Plaintiffs offer no factual or legal support whatsoever to explain how, although neither SEIU nor Henry is a party to the alleged breach of those contracts, they are nonetheless vicariously liable for the alleged breach of those contracts by Local 1107, contrary to well-settled labor law principles.

Moreover, the allegation that SEIU placed Local 1107 into trusteeship does not overcome this glaring weakness in Plaintiffs' Motion. For example, in Burnick v. Office and Professional Employees International Union, Case No. 14-C-1173, 2015 WL 1898310 (E.D. Wis. April 27, 2015), the plaintiff, a former employee of a local union, alleged that the local union had promised to provide her with lifetime insurance benefits. Id. at *1. Thereafter, the international union with which it was affiliated placed the local union into trusteeship, and appointed a trustee to manage the affairs of the local. Id. The plaintiff then sued both the local union and international union alleging that both unions breached the agreement to provide her with lifetime insurance benefits. Id. at *2.

In dismissing the international union from the action, the court pointed out that, as is the case here, the alleged obligation arose prior to the trusteeship, and that there was no evidence that the local union signed the underlying agreement with the plaintiff on behalf of the international union. See id. at *3. Additionally, the court rejected the conclusion that because the international union had placed the local into trusteeship at the time of the alleged breach, it had implicitly assumed the obligations of the local union. See id. at *3-4. Burnick directly supports summary judgment in favor of SEIU and Henry. As in Burnick, it is clear from the face of the alleged contracts that neither SEIU nor Henry are parties to the contracts. Likewise, as in Burnick, Plaintiffs offer no evidence whatsoever that Local 1107 entered into the contracts on behalf of SEIU or Henry, or that SEIU or Henry ever assumed the obligations of those contracts. Last, as in Burnick, the fact that SEIU placed Local 1107 into trusteeship and appointed a trustee to manage the affairs of the local union prior to the breach of the alleged contracts fails to support the conclusion that SEIU or Henry is independently liable for the alleged breach.

Moreover, the decision in Burnick is consistent with the well-established principle that an international union is not independently liable for the acts of a trustee it appoints to manage the affairs of a local union under trusteeship. See, e.g., Perez v. Int'l Bhd. of Teamsters, AFL-CIO, Case No. 00-CIV-1983-LAP-JCF, 2002 WL 31027580, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. 2002) (holding that plaintiff failed to establish that international union was liable for alleged employment discrimination "based on the fact that [the international union] appointed a trustee who terminated plaintiff's employment."); Campbell v. Int'l Bhd. of Teamsters, 69 F. Supp. 2d 380, 385-86 (E.D.N.Y. 1999) (holding that international union, which had appointed trustee of local union, was not be liable for trustee's subsequent termination of plaintiffs' employment); Fields v. Teamsters Local Union No. 988, 23 S.W. 3d 517, 524-25 (Tex. Appeals, 1st Dist. 2000) (affirming summary judgment for defendants on plaintiff's discrimination claims and holding that international union). Hence, the mere allegation that SEIU appointed defendants SEIU and Henry – fails to support liability of SEIU or Henry.

Based on the above-cited discussion, it is clear that (1) Plaintiffs are not entitled to partial summary judgment against SEIU and Henry; and (2) SEIU and Henry are entitled to summary judgment because there is no evidence whatsoever that they are bound by, or assumed the obligations of, the alleged employment contracts between Local 1107 and Plaintiffs.

C. The Trustees Were Authorized to Terminate the Alleged Contracts Pursuant to Federal Law and the SEIU Constitution and Bylaws.

Setting aside the argument that SEIU and Henry cannot be liable for contracts to which they are not parties, they are entitled to summary judgment on all of Plaintiffs' claims for another, independent reason: The Trustees had cause as a matter of federal labor law to terminate Plaintiffs' employment contracts. The Plaintiffs' causes of action are therefore invalid as a matter of law, and SEIU and Henry, as with the remaining defendants, are entitled to summary judgment on all claims.

The Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act ("LMRDA"), 29 U.S.C. § 401 et seq., regulates various aspects of the internal affairs of unions, and relevant here, governs the imposition of a trusteeship of a local union by an international union. Under the LMRDA, an international union is statutorily authorized to place a local union into trusteeship for any of several enumerated reasons. See 29 U.S.C. § 462. The SEIU Constitution and Bylaws also authorizes SEIU to impose a trusteeship over affiliated local unions. Fitzpatrick Decl., Ex. B (Art. VII, § 7(a)).

According to the alleged termination letters attached to the Motion, Local 1107 Deputy Trustee Manteca informed the Plaintiffs that "going forward the Trustees will fill management and other positions at the Local with individuals they are confident can and will carry out the Local's new program and policies," and that "[f]or these reasons, the Trustees have decided to terminate your employment with Local 1107, effective immediately." Motion, Ex. 4. Under the SEIU Constitution and Bylaws, the Local 1107 Trustees were explicitly authorized to "remove any of [the Local Union's] employees [and] agents...." Fitzpatrick Decl., Ex. A (Art. VII, § 7(b)) (emphasis added).

Relying on similar provisions of international union constitutions, courts have held that wrongful termination claims by local union officers and employees who were removed from office following imposition of a trusteeship are invalid as a matter of law. For example, in Pape v. Local 390 of Int'l Bhd. of Teamsters, 315 F. Supp. 2d 1297, 1318 (S.D. Fla. 2004), the court held that "[b]ecause the trustee is empowered by the International Constitution to remove officers, Plaintiff could not have been wrongfully removed from office." Id. (citing Dean v. General Teamsters Union, Local No. 406, No. G87–286–CA7, 1989 WL 223013 (W.D. Mich. Sept. 18, 1989)) (emphasis added). The plaintiff, the former president of a local union, was removed from office following imposition of a trusteeship. Id. at 1303. The plaintiff alleged that, by virtue of the local union's constitution and bylaws, she had a right to continued employment with the local union, and that the international union interfered with that right when it removed her from office upon imposition of the trusteeship. See id. at 1318. In granting summary judgment for defendants on the plaintiff's claim for tortious interference, the court noted that the plaintiff's right to continued employment "could not be sustained in conflict with the International Constitution."<sup>2</sup> Id. at 1318 (emphasis added). Indeed, similar to SEIU's Constitution and Bylaws, the international union's constitution provided that "[t]he trustee shall be authorized and empowered . . . to remove any and all officers . . . ." Id. at 1307.

Likewise, in Dean, the court ruled that neither a trustee nor local union was liable for the tort of intentional infliction of emotional distress for terminating plaintiff, a former business agent of the local union, following imposition of a trusteeship. See Dean, 1989 WL 223013, at *8. As here, the plaintiff alleged that he was hired by the local union's former officers, that they promised he would be terminated only for good cause, and that, following imposition of a trusteeship, the trustee terminated him without cause. See id. at *1-3. As in Pape, the court ruled that the trustee "possessed authority to take whatever steps he chose to restore Local 406 to financial stability," and that "[t]he decision as to which business agents he should discharge and which agents he should retain in obtaining this objective was certainly his to make." Id. As here and in Pape, the international union's constitution authorized the trustee to remove officers of the local union upon imposition of the trusteeship. See id. at *6.

Notably, Dean relied on Finnegan v. Leu, 456 U.S. 431 (1982). There, the Supreme Court, construing the language and legislative history of the LMRDA, ruled that "the ability of an elected union president to select his own administrators is an integral part of ensuring a union administration's responsiveness to the mandate of the union election." Id. at 441. As a result, the Supreme Court concluded that the local union did not violate the LMRDA by discharging the plaintiffs, former appointed business agents of the local union, because of their loyalty to the former union president. Id. at 439-42. Citing Finnegan, the court in Dean concluded that the same policy considerations supported the trustee's right to terminate the plaintiff: "The obstruction of union democracy which can occur by leaving an elected president with his hands tied by appointed business agents, whom he could not discharge, is not less capable of occurring here." Id. at *5.

Both Pape and Dean are directly on point and support the conclusion that the Local 1107 Trustees had cause to terminate the Plaintiffs' employment. SEIU's Constitution and Bylaws, just like those in Pape and Dean, clearly authorize a trustee to remove employees of a local union following a trusteeship. According to the Motion, that is exactly what occurred here: Deputy Trustee Manteca informed the Plaintiffs that, in connection with the Local 1107 Trustees' duty to restore democratic procedures at the union, "the Trustees will fill management and other positions at the Local with individuals they are confident can and will carry out the Local's new program and policies."<sup>3</sup> Motion, Ex. 4. Because the SEIU Constitution and Bylaws expressly authorized the Local 1107 Trustees to take that action, Plaintiffs' claims fail as a matter of law.<sup>4</sup> See Pape, 315 F. Supp. 2d 1297; Dean, 1989 WL 223013. Any other result would permit the former union officers of Local 1107 to hamstring the trustees in their selection <sup>3</sup> Plaintiffs attach the Affidavit of Barry Roberts to their Motion. If anything, that affidavit supports Defendants, not Plaintiffs, since it asserts that, following the trusteeship, Deputy Trustee Manteca directed SEIU staff to identify individuals who were loyal to former president Cherie Mancini for possible termination. Roberts Aff., ¶¶ 27, 29-30. As both Pape and Dean make clear, Deputy Trustee Manteca was authorized as a matter of the SEIU Constitution and federal labor law to terminate anyone he believed would undermine the ongoing trusteeship, including those loyal to the former union president.

<sup>4</sup> With the exception of Gentry's defamation claim against Kisling, each of Plaintiffs' claims, including their contract and tort claims, hinge on the alleged absence of cause for their termination. Because there was cause for their termination, all of Plaintiffs' claims fail as a matter of law.

of staff to carry out the programs and policies of the local union under trusteeship, a result that is clearly at odds with the LMRDA, the SEIU Constitution and Bylaws, and applicable caselaw.

D. Plaintiffs' Claims Against SEIU and Henry Are Preempted by the LMRDA.

Regardless of whether SEIU and Henry can be liable for contracts to which they are not parties, or whether the Local 1107 Trustees had cause to terminate Plaintiffs' employment, there is yet a third independent reason that SEIU and Henry are entitled to summary judgment on all claims against them in the complaint: Relying on the LMRDA and the Supreme Court's decision in Finnegan, courts have long concluded that claims by former union employees for wrongful discharge, breach of contract, and related torts are preempted by the LMRDA. That is equally true here, and requires summary judgment for defendants on all claims against them in the complaint.<sup>5</sup>

As noted earlier, the LMRDA regulates the internal affairs of unions. See 29 U.S.C. § 401, et seq.; see also Finnegan, 456 U.S. at 435-36. By virtue of the Supremacy Clause of the U.S. Constitution, the LMRDA thus preempts state law causes of action that conflict with the federal labor policy embodied in the LMRDA. A lead case is Screen Extras Guild, Inc. v. Superior Court, 51 Cal. 3d 1017 (1990), which addressed several claims by a former business agent of the Screen Extras Guild, a labor union. Following the plaintiff's termination for dishonesty and insubordination, she sued the union for wrongful discharge in breach of an employment contract, intentional and negligent infliction of emotional distress, and defamation. <sup>6</sup> 51 Cal. 3d at 1020. On appeal of the denial of the union's summary judgment motion, the California Supreme Court concluded that the plaintiff's claims conflicted with, and were therefore preempted by, the LMRDA, and directed the trial court to enter judgment in favor of the defendants on all causes of action. See id. 1024-33. The court held that "to allow [wrongful discharge] actions to be brought by former confidential or policymaking employees of labor unions would be inconsistent with the objectives of the LMRDA and with the strong federal policy favoring union democracy that it embodies."<sup>7</sup> Id. at 1024.

Citing Finnegan, 456 U.S. 431, the court noted that the "[t]he primary objective of the LMRDA . . . is to ensure that unions are democratically governed and responsive to the will of their memberships." Screen Extras Guild, Inc., 51 Cal. 3d at 1024. The court further observed that "[e]lected union officials must necessarily rely on their appointed representatives to carry out their programs and policies. As a result, courts have recognized that the ability of elected union officials to select their own administrators is an integral part of ensuring that administrations are responsive to the will of union members." Id. at 1024-25.

Relying on these federal policies embodied in the LMRDA, the court concluded that "allowing [wrongful discharge claims] to proceed in the California courts would restrict the exercise of the right to terminate which Finnegan found [to be] an integral part of ensuring a union administration's responsiveness to the mandate of the union election." Id. at 1028 (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). Moreover, the court reached the same result regarding the plaintiffs' claims for infliction of emotional distress and defamation, which it concluded were "simply [the plaintiff's] wrongful termination claim in other garb," noting that the "facts [the plaintiff] alleged to underlie these causes of action are essentially the same as those which underlie her action for wrongful discharge (i.e., the fact and circumstances of her discharge)." Id. at 1032.

Finally, the court rejected the plaintiff's argument that because she was terminated for incompetence and dishonesty, not her disagreement with policy goals of the leadership of the union, her state law claims against the union did not implicate the LMRDA. See id. at 1027-28. As the court concluded, permitting even such "garden variety" wrongful discharge actions against local unions would implicate the union democracy concerns of the LMRDA. Id. at 1027. The court further observed that "[r]eplacement of business agents by an elected labor union official is sanctioned by the [LMRDA] and allowance of a claim under state law would interfere with the effective administration of national labor policy." Id. (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). As the court explained: "The expense of litigating wrongful discharge claims, as well as the risk of liability should a discharge ultimately be deemed 'garden variety,' would surely have a chilling effect on all discharges. But, as we have seen, Congress intends that elected union officials shall be free to discharge management or policymaking personnel." Id. at 1028.

Numerous California cases following Screen Extras Guild have similarly concluded that common law tort and breach of contract claims by discharged union employees are preempted by the LMRDA. See Thurderburk v. United Food & Commercial Workers' Union, Local 3234, 92 Cal. App. 4th 1332 (2001) (LMRDA preempted suit for wrongful discharge by former union secretary); Hansen v. Aerospace Defense Related Indus. District Lodge 725, 90 Cal. App. 4th 977 (2001) (LMRDA preempted claims for wrongful discharge in violation of public policy by former union clerical employee and former business agent); Ramirez v. Butcher, 2006 WL 2337661 (Cal. Ct. App. 2006) (LMRDA preempted claims for breach of contract, implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, defamation and contract interference by former union field representative); Burell v. Cal. Teamsters, Public Professional and Medical Employees Union, Local 911, 2004 WL 2163421 (Cal. Ct. App. 2004) (LMRDA preempted claims for breach of implied contract, breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, intentional infliction of emotional distress, and defamation by former union office manager and bookkeeper); see also Tyra v. Kearney, 153 Cal. App. 3d 921 (1984) (predating Screen Extras Guild; LMRDA preempted wrongful termination claim by former union business agent).

Not surprisingly, federal district court cases have also reached this same result. See, e.g., Hurley v. Teamsters Union Local No. 856, Case No. C-94-3750 MHP, 1995 WL 274349 (N.D Cal. May 1, 1995) (LMRDA preempted claims for breach of implied contract and covenant of good faith and fair dealing by former union business representative); Womack v. United Service  Employees Union Local 616, Case No. No. C-98-0507 MJJ, 1999 WL 219738 (N.D. Cal. 1999) (LMRDA preempted claims for breach of contract and implied contract and covenant of good faith and fair dealing, interference with economic advantage, infliction of emotional distress and defamation by former union executive director).

The above-cited authority clearly supports the conclusion that Plaintiffs' claims against SEIU and Henry, which dispute the lawfulness of Plaintiffs' termination from Local 1107 following the trusteeship, are directly inconsistent with, and thus preempted by, the LMRDA. As is clear from both Finnegan and Screen Extras Guild, the ability of union leaders to select their own staff is an integral component of the LMRDA, and ensures that union administrations are responsive to the will of union members. Moreover, as the court concluded in Dean, supra, the reasoning of Finnegan, upon which these LMRDA preemption cases are based, applies equally to the authority of appointed union trustees to select their own staff. See Dean, 1989 WL 223013, at *4. Indeed, as described earlier, the Local 1107 Trustees were expressly authorized by the SEIU Constitution and Bylaws to remove Plaintiffs from their positions following imposition of the trusteeship. Thus, just as in Screen Extras Guild and its progeny, Plaintiffs' claims for breach of contract and related torts against SEIU and Henry, all of which arise out of their termination from Local 1107, are fully preempted by the LMRDA and must be dismissed.<sup>8</sup> See Screen Extras Guild, 51 Cal. 3d 1017; Thurderburk, 92 Cal. App. 4th 1332; Hansen, 90 Cal. App. 4th 977; Ramirez; 2006 WL 2337661; Burell, 2004 WL 2163421; Womack, 1999 WL 219738; Hurley, 1995 WL 274349; Tyra, 153 Cal. App. 3d 921.

In sum, Plaintiffs' claims are preempted by the LMRDA as a matter of law, and Defendants SEIU and Henry are entitled to summary judgment on all the claims against them in the complaint.

&lt;sup>8</sup> The final cause of action in Plaintiffs' complaint is for defamation by Plaintiff Gentry against Defendant Sharon Kisling. SEIU and Henry are not named as defendants in that cause of action, and thus do not address the applicability of LMRDA preemption to that cause of action.

E. In the Alternative, Defendants Should Be Afforded a Meaningful Opportunity to Engage in Discovery Prior to Resolution of Plaintiffs' Motion.

If the Court agrees that Plaintiffs' claims against SEIU and Henry fail as a matter of law, no further discovery is necessary because SEIU and Henry would be entitled to summary judgment on all claims against them in the complaint. However, if the Court does not grant summary judgment to SEIU and Henry on the basis of the arguments herein, they should be entitled to conduct adequate discovery related to Plaintiffs' claims.

The Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure permit a plaintiff to bring a motion for summary judgment any time following the twentieth day after the commencement of the action. See Nev. R. Civ. P. 56(a); see also Cnty of Clark v. Roosevelt Title Ins. Co., 80 Nev. 303 (1964). Yet even if a motion is timely filed under Rule 56(a), Rule 56(f) allows the court to refuse to consider a motion for summary judgment when discovery has not yet been completed and the party opposing summary judgment demonstrates that it cannot supply "facts essential to justify the party's opposition." Nev. R. Civ. P. 56(f); see also Aviation Ventures, Inc. v. Joan Morris, Inc., 121 Nev. 113, 117-19 (2005) (reversing summary judgment where party opposing summary judgment was not afforded opportunity to proceed with discovery).

A party's diligence in pursuing discovery and the length of time since the complaint was filed are relevant to whether a Rule 56(f) continuance should be granted. See, e.g., Summerfield v. Coca Cola Bottling Co., 113 Nev. 1291, 1294 (1997); Ameritrade, Inc. v. First Interstate Bank, 105 Nev. 696, 700 (1989). Where a summary judgment motion is brought early in the litigation, federal courts have held that a Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(f) motion for additional time should be granted as a matter of course. See, e.g., Burlington Northern Santa Fe Ry. Co. v. The Assiniboine, 323 F.3d 767, 774 (9th Cir. 2003). In Burlington Northern, the Ninth Circuit reversed the trial court's granting of a motion for summary judgment filed by plaintiff less than one month after the plaintiff filed suit. Id. On the issue of timing, the Ninth Circuit counseled, "[w]here . . . a summary judgment motion is filed so early in the litigation, before a party has had any realistic opportunity to pursue discovery relating to its theory of the case, district courts should grant any Rule 56(f) motion fairly freely." Id. at 773 (emphasis added).

Nevada courts agree with the Ninth Circuit's approach, finding that it is an abuse of discretion to refuse a party discovery to oppose a summary judgment motion where the case is at an early stage of the proceedings. See, e.g., Halimi. v. H.R. Blacketor, 105 Nev. 105, 106 (1989) (less than a year between the filing of the complaint and the motion for summary judgment); Harrison v. Falcon Products, Inc., 103 Nev. 558, 560 (1987) ("not even two years had passed since the filing of the complaint until the time summary judgment was granted"); Aviation Ventures, 121 Nev. at 117-18 (seven months between the filing of the complaint and the motion for summary judgment).

To justify such a continuance, the party opposing the motion for summary judgment must provide an affidavit that identifies the facts that may be obtained through discovery that would lead to a dispute regarding a genuine issue of material fact. See Bakerink v. Orthopaedic Associates, Ltd., 94 Nev. 428, 431 (1978) (denying request for continuance under NRCP 56(f) where moving party failed to identify any additional facts that would be obtained through additional discovery). Where neither party has completed any discovery, courts will hold the party seeking the Rule 56(f) continuance to a lesser standard of specificity in identifying facts that could be obtained through discovery. See Burlington Northern, 323 F.3d at 774 ("where... no discovery whatsoever has taken place, the party making a Rule 56(f) motion cannot be expected to frame its motion with great specificity as to the kind of discovery likely to turn up useful information, as the ground for such specificity has not yet been laid").

Defendants SEIU and Henry satisfy the requirements for a Rule 56(f) continuance. Defendants have submitted the Declaration of Jonathan Cohen, filed herewith, describing the procedural posture of the litigation and the facts likely to be produced during discovery.

The timing of Plaintiffs' motion and the diligence with which SEIU and Henry have pursued discovery weigh in favor of granting the request. To begin, this case was filed approximately eleven months ago, on November 20, 2017. Cohen Decl. ¶ 3. The parties did not hold their early case conference until July 18, 2018. Cohen Decl. ¶ 5. Local 1107 served requests for production of documents to plaintiff Gentry on August 17, 2018 and August 29, 2018. Cohen Decl. ¶ 6. Local 1107 served requests for production of documents to plaintiff Clarke on August 30, 3018. Id. SEIU and Henry served their first written discovery to Plaintiffs on October 11, 2018. Cohen Decl. ¶ 7. The Court issued its Scheduling Order on October 10, 2018, setting a discovery cutoff of April 15, 2019.

Although Plaintiffs' Motion fails to specifically identify which among their fourteen causes of action is the subject of their motion, the breach of contract causes of action are the gravamen of Plaintiffs' claims.<sup>9</sup> Because no discovery has been conducted, SEIU and Henry are unable to establish certain facts critical to oppose the Motion. Through discovery, SEIU and Henry intend to produce the following facts regarding the breach of contract and related tort causes of action:

(a) the basis for Plaintiffs' assertion that SEIU and Henry are liable for breach of contract and related torts stemming from alleged employment agreements to which they are not parties and did not adopt; Cohen Decl.,  $\P$  10;

(b) facts related to the formation of the alleged employment agreement between Plaintiffs and Local 1107, including the employment offers made to Plaintiffs by Local 1107, the negotiations of the alleged employment agreements, Plaintiffs' understanding of the terms in the contracts, and Local 1107's agreement to the terms of the contracts; Cohen Decl., ¶ 10.

(c) facts related to Plaintiffs' work performance at Local 1107, including facts regarding misconduct or poor performance by either plaintiff; Cohen Decl., ¶ 10;

(d) communications between Plaintiffs and Local 1107 or other individuals, including SEIU and/or Henry, regarding the alleged employment contracts; Cohen Decl., ¶ 9;

(e) documents exchanged between Plaintiffs and Local 1107 or other individuals, including SEIU and/or Henry, regarding the alleged employment contracts, including any

addendums or amendments or any other facts affecting contract formation; Cohen Decl., ¶ 10;

(f) communications between Plaintiffs and Local 1107 or other individuals regarding Plaintiffs' termination; Cohen Decl., ¶ 10; and

(g) documents exchanged between plaintiffs and Local 1107 regarding Plaintiffs' termination; Cohen Decl.,  $\P$  10.

Development of these facts are essential to SEIU's and Henry's ability to oppose Plaintiffs' Motion. See Family Home & Finance Ctr., Inc. v. Fed. Home Loan Mortgage Corp., 525 F.3d 822, 827 (9th Cir. 2008). The facts sought above are essential to the elements of breach of contract; if SEIU and Henry can demonstrate that there was a failure of formation of the underlying contracts, or a failure of performance by either plaintiff, or demonstrate that neither SEIU nor Henry were parties to, and thus liable under, the alleged contracts, the causes of action for breach of contract and related torts fail.

IV. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, SEIU and Henry respectfully request that Plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment be denied, and that summary judgment be granted in favor of SEIU and Henry. In the alternative, SEIU and Henry request a continuance to provide a sufficient opportunity to conduct discovery related to the claims in the complaint.

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

As almost every improvement in the condition of working people has been accomplished by the efforts of organized labor and as the welfare of wage, salary, and professional workers can best be protected and advanced by their united action in one International Union, we have organized the Service Employees International Union and have adopted the following Constitution:

SEIU MISSION STATEMENT

We are the Service Employees International Union, an organization of more than 2.1 million members united by the belief in the dignity and worth of workers and the services they provide and dedicated to improving the lives of workers and their families and creating a more just and humane society.

We are public workers, health care workers, building service workers, office workers, professional workers, and industrial and allied workers.

We seek a stronger union to build power for ourselves and to protect the people we serve.

As a leading advocacy organization for working people, it is our responsibility to pursue justice for all. We believe in and will fight for a just society where all workers are valued and people respected, where all families and communities thrive, and where we leave a better and more equal world for generations to come.

People of every race, ethnicity, religion, age, physical ability, gender, gender expression, and sexual orientation, we are the standard-bearers in the struggle for social and economic justice begun nearly a century ago by janitors who dared to dream beyond their daily hardships and to organize for economic security, dignity, and respect.

Our vision is of a union and a society:

Where all workers and their families live and work in dignity.

Where work is fulfilling and fairly rewarded.

Where workers have a meaningful voice in decisions that affect them and have the opportunity to develop their talents and skills.

Where the collective voice and power of workers is realized in democratic, equitable and progressive unions.

Where union solidarity stands firm against the forces of discrimination and hate, against structural racism, and against the unfair employment practices of exploitative employers.

Where working people can live in safe and healthy communities.

Where government plays an active role in improving the lives of working people.

6 CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

To achieve this vision:

We must organize unorganized service workers, extending to them the gains of unionism, while securing control over our industries and labor markets.

We must build political power to ensure that workers' voices are heard at every level of government to create economic opportunity and foster social justice.

We must provide meaningful paths for member involvement and participation in strong, democratic unions.

We must develop highly trained, motivated and inclusive leaders at every level of the union who reflect the diversity of the membership and the communities where we organize.

We must bargain contracts that improve wages and working conditions, expand the role of workers in workplace decision-making, build a stronger union, and build stronger and healthier communities.

We must build coalitions and act in solidarity with other organizations who share our concern for social, environmental, racial, and economic justice.

We must engage in direct action that demonstrates our power and our determination to win.

We must hold corporations and capital accountable for the common good.

We must commit to dismantling structural racism which holds us back from achieving the unity and strength we need.

We must pave the way for immigrant justice.

We must always be open to change that enables us to adapt and be more effective in an ever changing world.

To accomplish these goals we must be unified—inspired by a set of beliefs and principles that transcends our social and occupational diversity and guides our work.

We believe we can accomplish little as separate individuals, but that together we have the power to create a just society.

We believe unions are the means by which working people build power—by which ordinary people accomplish extraordinary things.

We believe our strength comes from our unity, and that we must not be divided by forces of discrimination based on gender, race, ethnicity, religion, age, physical ability, sexual orientation, or immigration status.

We believe our power and effectiveness depend upon the active participation and commitment of our members, the development of inclusive SEIU leaders, and solidarity with each other and our allies.

We believe we have a special mission to bring economic and social justice to those most exploited in our community—especially to women and workers of color —and to dismantle structural racism against Black Americans.

We believe our future cannot be separated from that of workers in other parts of the world who struggle for economic justice, a decent life for their families, peace, dignity and democracy.

We believe unions are necessary for a democratic society to prevail, and that unions must participate in the political life of our society.

We believe we have a moral responsibility to leave the world a more just, healthy and safe place for our children—and everyone's children.

Article III JURISDICTION AND MEMBERSHIP

Jurisdiction

Section 1. The International Union shall be composed of and have jurisdiction over its affiliated bodies and all Local Unions composed of working men and women who are employed or engaged in any phase of private, nonprofit or public employment, including without limitation employees of colleges, schools or universities, public employers (including cities, counties, states, provinces, territories, commonwealths, governmental districts, federal agencies, and multiple agencies or authorities and any subdivisions thereof), institutions or agencies, hospitals, nursing homes or other health facilities, and private and public utilities, department stores, industrial plants, law enforcement agencies, insurance companies and all employees thereof, including clericals, technicians, professionals, paraprofessionals and paramedicals, or those who are engaged in maintenance, sales, servicing, protection or operation of all types of institutions, buildings or structures, commercial, mercantile or other establishments, edifices and grounds, and their environs, whether private, public or nonprofit, and all categories of employees therein and thereabout, including places of assembly, amusement, recreation, entertainment, and the presentation of sporting events.

The International President is empowered to construe the jurisdiction above defined to embrace all classifications of workers within any establishment anywhere in the world.

Section 2(a). The International Union shall have jurisdiction over the Local Unions and their members and over all affiliated bodies.

(b). The term "affiliated bodies" shall include State and Provincial Councils, Joint Councils, Service Councils, area, regional, or industry Conferences and Divisions, organizing committees, and provisional locals, and such other bodies on the local, national or international level as the International Union shall from time to time establish, but shall not include Local Unions. The term "Local Union" shall not include any other affiliated body.

Section 3(a). Any person employed in any employment over which this International Union claims or exercises jurisdiction shall be eligible to be considered for membership in the International Union, a Local Union, organizing committee, provisional local, or other authorized body of this organization. A Local Union may adopt additional membership requirements in the Local Union's Constitution and Bylaws. Jurisdiction may also be construed as including service within a Local Union or affiliated body of the International Union but each Local Union shall have the option to determine whether a person with such service may be eligible for membership in the Local Union. The International Executive Board may set eligibility requirements and other criteria (including rates of dues) for associate members, retired members (who do not have a Local Union retired member program), and other special categories of membership in the International or in affiliated bodies established in accordance with this Constitution.

(b). Self-employed individuals doing work within the jurisdiction of this International Union may be eligible for membership in Local Unions, subject to any additional requirements provided for in a Local Union's Constitution and Bylaws. The International President shall have the right to make all necessary rules and regulations respecting self-employed workers, under the jurisdiction of this International Union.

(c). With the approval of the International Union, Local Unions may establish different categories of membership and rates of dues for persons represented and not represented by the Local Union for collective bargaining purposes including, but not limited to, life members, retired members, and associate members.

(d). Any dispute respecting membership or eligibility for membership shall be decided by the International President, with the Local Union or the applicant having a right to appeal his or her decision to the Power to construe jurisdiction

Article IV CONVENTION-REPRESENTATION THEREIN

International conventions Section 1. The Convention of this International Union shall meet every four years and shall convene at such time and place as the International Executive Board may determine upon the recommendation of the International President.

Special conventions

Section 2. Special Conventions may be called upon order of the International Executive Board to convene at such time and place as the Board may determine, and any and all business, including appeals from suspensions and decisions of the International Executive Board, may come before such Special Convention unless specifically limited by the call. Notice of such call shall be given to each Local Union at least 60 days prior to the date of the Special Convention along with the number of delegates to which said Local Union is entitled. All other provisions of this Article shall control all Special Conventions.

Eligibility of delegates

Additional delegates

Section 3. The International Convention shall consist of duly elected delegates from their Local Unions, and none but delegates duly elected in accordance with all applicable statutes and the provisions of this Constitution and Bylaws shall be eligible to represent any Local Union at the International Convention or be entitled to vote except that all full-time International Officers shall by virtue of their office be delegates with a voice but no vote to any Convention which is held during their term of office. All officers of a Local Union elected in conformity with all applicable statutes shall by virtue of such election be considered to be eligible delegates to any International Convention which may take place during their term of office. If at the time of the receipt of the Convention Call it shall appear that such number of elected officers is less than the number of delegates to which the Local Union will be entitled at an International Convention, then arrangements may be made at the option of the Local Executive Board for nomination and secret ballot election, if required, of an additional number of eligible members as Convention delegates. Nominees for such position, if unopposed, shall be deemed elected without necessity for further procedures. The Local Union must designate in its Constitution and Bylaws the order in which the officers would be designated as delegates and alternates if less than all the officers are entitled to go to the Convention as delegates, provided that the chief executive officer of the Local Union shall, if otherwise eligible, be deemed entitled even in the event the Local Union fails to so designate. Any Local Union may by provision in its Local Constitution and Bylaws dispense with the foregoing provision that officers of the

SEIU 2016 11

Local Union be ex officio delegates to the International Convention and may provide for nomination and, if required, secret ballot election of such delegates. Further, subject to applicable statutes, the International Executive Board may establish representation rules for delegates from groups of associate members or other special categories of membership or locals, which shall be set forth in the notice of Convention Call for the International or Special Convention. In no event shall the basis of representation for such groups be greater in numbers than the formula set forth in Section 4 below. Any voting rights extended to such delegates must comply with applicable law.

Section 4. The basis of representation shall be one delegate for 500 members or less, and one additional delegate for every additional 500 members or major fraction thereof up to 5,000 members, and then one additional delegate for every additional 1,000 members or major fraction thereof. A determination to be represented by less than a full complement of delegates shall not affect the Local Union's eligible votes. The Executive Board of a Local Union shall determine the number of delegates which shall represent it at the Convention. For the purpose of voting, the computation of membership for a Local Union shall not include life members, retired members paying less than the full dues required for working members of their Local Union, associate members, or agency fee payers.

Section 5. In addition to the representation in Section 4, each Local Union with a retired members group of more than 500 members shall be entitled to one retired member delegate who shall serve with a voice and a vote at the Convention. Only retired members who have been members in good standing for 60 days prior to the Convention as either members, retired members, or life members of the Local Union shall serve as a retired member delegate. The retired member delegate shall be selected by the procedures provided for in the Local Union's Constitution and Bylaws for selecting such a retired member delegate or by the Local Union's Executive Board where no procedures are provided for in the Local Union's Constitution and Bylaws. The retired member delegate shall not be permitted to vote on dues or to nominate or vote for officers at the Convention.

Section 6. No delegate shall be permitted to represent more than one Local Union.

Section 7(a). No Local Union that has not been chartered, affiliated, and in good standing for at least one month prior to the opening of the Convention shall be entitled to representation in the Convention, and each Local Union to be entitled to said representation must have paid into the International treasury at least one month's per capita tax prior to the opening of the Convention.

(b). For a Local Union to be entitled to representation at the Convention, all moneys (i) due the International Union, whether by per capita tax or otherwise, (ii) due to any affiliated bodies, whether by per Convention representation and voting rights Forwarding of credentials Section 8. The International Secretary-Treasurer shall issue a Call for the Convention and notify each Local Union at least 100 days prior to the date of the Convention of the number of delegates to which said Local Union is entitled, and shall furnish to the Local Union a certification of delegation form containing the names of registered delegates to the Local Union and spaces for the signatures of the President and Secretary of the Local Union.

Section 9. #### Article XIII REVENUE

Per capita taxes Section 1(a). The revenue of this International Union shall be derived from per capita tax, initiation fees, charter fees, assessments or from any other source that the International Executive Board may determine.

The per capita tax from Local Unions shall continue to be $7.65 per member per month on all dues received by the Local Union.

Special membership categories For a retired member, associate member, or organizing committee member paying less than the full dues required for working members of his or her Local Union, the per capita shall be $1.00 per month.

The International Union shall not set aside any segregated funds from per capita tax payments received from Local Unions on behalf of retired, associate or organizing committee members.

Authority to adjust tax Upon the recommendation of the International President, the International Executive Board shall have the authority to adjust the per capita tax required from Local Unions (i) for nonworking members, including retired members and associate members; provided, however, that not withstanding the provisions of Article XV, Life Members granted such status pursuant to this Constitution on or before May 1, 2000, shall have no continuing dues obligations, but they shall nonetheless be eligible to enjoy all the benefits and privileges of retired members in the International Union, including continued participation in the International Union's Death Gratuity Program if otherwise eligible; and (ii) that are affiliated with another international union.

Political fund

(b). An amount of money which shall be determined annually by the International Executive Board shall be set aside from the per capita tax and shall be expended by the International Union directly or indirectly for political education and political action purposes, but solely in accordance with the provisions of applicable law.

Strike and defense fund

(c). For 2012, the International Union shall continue to set aside out of the per capita tax, the sum of 40 cents per member per month on all monthly dues received by the Local Union as a Strike and Defense Fund to aid Local Unions engaged in authorized strikes, in defending against lockouts, and in defending the integrity and welfare of the Local Union, as defined under criteria established by the International Secretary-Treasurer, and shall credit each Local Union with the amount which such Local Union has paid into the Strike and Defense Fund. 25 cents of the 40 cents shall be used by the International Union to maintain current programs and support the implementation of the 2012 Convention program.

Beginning January 1, 2013, the International Union shall use from the per capita tax the sum of 40 cents per member per month on all monthly dues received by the Local Union in the Strike and Defense Fund for the purpose of maintaining a fund to support the International Union's program to elect and hold accountable national public officials for a pro-working family agenda.

Such moneys shall not be used from or set aside out of per capita tax payments received from Local Unions on behalf of retired, associate, or organizing committee members.

Prior to January 1, 2013, a local union may request approval from the International Secretary-Treasurer to substitute an alternative payment plan for the 25 cents. This plan may include the option for the International Union to retain funds that would otherwise be paid back to the local union under Article XV, Section 18.

For any amounts accumulated in the Fund prior to January 1, 2013, subject to the criteria established by the International Secretary-Treasurer, a Local Union may after no less than one year of contributions draw on the Strike and Defense Fund, or from such other funds of the International Union as shall be determined by the International Executive Board, to the extent of the total unexpended funds remaining to its credit, plus an additional sum equal to the amount set aside out of its required payments in the preceding 12 months. Once such an additional payment has been drawn by the Local Union, no further payment shall be made to the Local Union pursuant to this Section. The International Executive Board is authorized to direct that a Local Union's 2012 contributions to the Strike and Defense Fund be used to satisfy the Local Union's outstanding financial liability to the International Union or, pursuant to a decision of the International Executive Board after appropriate proceedings, to another affiliated body or Local Union if such liability is at least 90 days past due. In such circumstances, the Local Union will receive 15 days notice before such action is initiated.

Questions concerning the application or interpretation of this subsection shall be resolved by decision of the International Secretary-Treasurer, subject to appeal to the International Executive Board.

(d). In addition to the per capita tax set forth in Section 1(a), each Local Union, except those based in Canada, shall pay to the International Union a per capita tax to finance the Unity Fund. Through the Unity Fund, all local unions will pool resources in order to have the new strength to win improved pay, benefits and security for members in the 21st century. This additional per capita tax per member per month shall be $5.00.

Notwithstanding the above, this additional per capita tax for the Unity Fund shall not be paid on dues from any member who is paid gross wages of less than $433 per month. The additional per capita tax for the Unity Fund shall also not be payable on dues from members who have not achieved a first collective bargaining agreement.

(e). Based on the recommendation of the Canadian Council, the International Executive Board may require each Local Union based in Canada to pay to the International Union a per capita tax in addition to the per capita tax set forth in Section 1(a) to finance a Canadian Unity Fund. Through this Unity Fund, all Canadian local unions will pool resources in order to have the new strength to win improved pay, benefits and security for members in the 21st century. Payment of dues Section 2. Dues of members are due and payable on or before the last day of the current month and in order for a member to be in good standing his or her dues must be paid on or before the last day of each month. Section 3. For a Local Union to be considered in good standing, per capita tax and all other fees and payments must be paid by each Local Union to the International Union before the end of the month following the month in which the Local Union received dues or other payments on account of which per capita tax or fees are payable to the International Union. If the monthly per capita tax, or any part thereof, is not submitted by the end of the month following that in which it is due, the Local Union shall be deemed delinquent in its payment and shall be charged a late payment fee, at an interest rate to be determined periodically by the International Executive Board, on that portion of the per capita tax which has not been paid by the due date, except that the International President may waive this penalty charge for good cause shown. If a Local Union fails to make the payments herein required within 30 days of the date due, the International Secretary-Treasurer shall notify the Local Union that it is no longer in good standing and shall within 30 days thereafter refer the matter to the International President for such action as the International President shall deem appropriate, including without limitation, suspension of the Local Union, revocation of its charter, or the appointment of a Trustee as provided in Article VIII, Section 7 of this Constitution and Bylaws. The International President, and in the event of an appeal from his or her decision, the International Executive Board, may lift any suspension or stay revocation of the charter upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

Section 4. No Local Union shall have any right to pay any bills before it pays its full obligation to the International Union each month.

Section 5(a). The Local Union by its Secretary-Treasurer shall forward to the International Secretary-Treasurer the correct names and addresses (including email address and phone number, if available) of all its members, and other membership information as specified by the International Executive Board. Each month it shall submit all changes of addresses; the names and addresses of all members initiated or readmitted, of all other persons from whom revenue is derived, and of those suspended for nonpayment of dues or for any other cause; and a correct list of those who take transfer or withdrawal cards. In addition, the International Union must be notified of the names and addresses of all officers elected to office within 15 days of such action. The proper ZIP code shall be included for each address. Each Local Union must provide the same membership list to the State Council with which it is affiliated. Based on the recommendation of the International Secretary-Treasurer, the International Executive Board may approve a modification to this section which limits the frequency and/or content of this requirement.

(b). Upon request, each local shall forward to the International Secretary-Treasurer, by April 1 of each year, information and supporting documentation showing the average gross wage rate of its membership for the previous calendar year. The Secretary-Treasurer may issue specific guidance on the nature of the supporting documentation required.

Section 6(a). Local Union officers or the officers of any other affiliated body shall furnish to any person designated by the International President to examine its books and records, all of its books, records, accounts, receipts, vouchers and financial data whenever requested. All Local Unions and other affiliated bodies shall promptly forward to the International Secretary-Treasurer copies of all annual audit reports and copies of all financial reports setting forth a statement of assets and liabilities and a statement of receipts and disbursements which are required by law.

(b). All records of a Local Union or other affiliated body pertaining to income, disbursements and financial transactions of any kind whatsoever must be kept for a period of at least six years or longer if required by applicable law.

Section 7. When the charter of a Local Union or other affiliated body is revoked, the Local Union or other affiliated body and its officers shall return all books, documents, property and funds to the International Union.

Section 8. The revenue from per capita taxes paid by Canadian Local Unions shall be spent by International Union for activities that support Canadian Local Unions.

Article XIV ISSUANCE OF CHARTERS

Section 1. Twenty-five or more persons within the jurisdiction of this International Union may apply to the International Secretary-Treasurer for the issuance of a charter. In any event, the International President or the International Executive Board may issue a charter whenever it is deemed advisable. The application for a charter shall be accompanied by the required initiation fees and charter fee.

Section 2. The International Executive Board shall establish the policy and procedures governing the issuance of charters and shall determine all questions of jurisdiction between Local Unions. Local Unions in existence at the time of the formation of the International Union shall retain the jurisdiction which they held at that time. Consolidation and meraer Section 3. The International Executive Board may consolidate or merge existing Local Unions under such terms and conditions as the International Executive Board may determine when in the opinion of the International Executive Board the interests and welfare of the International Union and the membership thereof will be better served by such action.

Merger hearings Section 4. Such merger or consolidation of existing Local Unions shall be conditioned upon the consent of the Local Unions or shall be effectuated after a hearing upon reasonable notice before the International Executive Board or a hearing officer or officers (who need not be a member or members of this organization) designated by the International Executive Board.

Provisional organization Section 5. The International President may designate such coordinators and establish such organizing committees or provisional Local Unions for the purpose of organizing workers, and may establish other bodies for other purposes he or she deems appropriate, with or without requiring the payment of dues, initiation fees or per capita tax, as he or she may deem advisable, and the International President shall be authorized and empowered to name provisional officers for and to expend and control the finances of such organizing committees or provisional Local Unions or other bodies. The International President shall thereafter report such matters to the International Executive Board.

Article XV DUTIES OF LOCAL UNIONS

Bonding of locals

Eligibility

requirements

for local officers

Section 1. All Local Unions and affiliated bodies shall secure and maintain surety bonds in the amounts and the form required by applicable statutes. The International Secretary-Treasurer may direct an increase in the amount of any bond whenever he or she deems it necessary and advisable and may direct bonding by any Local Union not required by statute to secure a bond.

Section 2. No person shall be eligible for nomination as an officer, member of the Executive Board, delegate, or any other office in a Local Union who has not been a member in continuous good standing in the Local Union for at least two years immediately preceding the nomination and has, during all of that time, paid the full dues required for working members of the Local Union within each month when due. Notwithstanding the above, a Local Union may adopt a local union bylaw that reduces this continuous good standing requirement from two years to no less than six months. No person who has been convicted of a felony as defined in Section 504 of the Landrum-Griffin Act (or indictable offense in Canada) shall in accordance with the provisions of applicable law be eligible for nomination under the terms of this Section. If the Local Union has been chartered less than two years, the required period of continuous good standing shall be the entire time that the Local Union has been chartered. The International President may waive the foregoing requirements for good cause shown. Any Local Union may provide in its Constitution and Bylaws for further limitations upon eligibility for nomination, provided such provisions are approved by the International Union. Upon the request of a Local Union Executive Board, the International President may waive Local Union eligibility requirements for good cause shown. Associate members, life members, and those retired members paying less than the full dues required for working members of the Local Union shall not be eligible for nomination as an officer, member of the Executive Board, delegate, or any other office in the Local Union. Proxy voting shall not be permitted in any election for an officer, member of the Executive Board, delegate or any other office in the Local Union. Write-in candidates shall not be permitted in any election for an officer, member of the Executive Board, delegate or any other office in the Local Union, except if expressly approved by the International President upon request of the Local Union Executive Board.

Section 3. The Constitution and Bylaws of all Local Unions and affiliated bodies and amendments thereto must be submitted to the International Union and be approved before they become valid; provided, however, that notwithstanding such approval, the Constitution and Bylaws of all Local Unions and affiliated bodies shall at all times be subordinate to the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union as it may be amended from time to time. If a Local Union or an affiliated body shall not have secured the approval of a valid Constitution and Bylaws, the provisions contained in the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union as it may be amended from time to time shall govern said Local Union and affiliated body insofar as applicable. Regardless of approval, if any conflict should arise between the Constitution and Bylaws of a Local Union and affiliated bodies or any amendments thereto, and the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union as it may be amended from time to time, the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union shall govern.

Section 4. Each Local Union shall provide its members upon request with a copy of the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union and the Local Union. Copies of the International Constitution and Bylaws will be provided by the International Union to the Local Unions at cost.

Section 5. All Local Unions must provide for meetings of the membership on a general, division, chapter or work site basis at least once every two months, except during the months of July and August. The Executive Board of each Local Union shall in any case meet at least once a month. However, if approved by the Local Union membership, the requirements of this section may be modified in the Local Union's Constitution and Bylaws. Waiver

Minimum dues

Section 6(a). Effective January 1, 2016, for all members with annual earnings of $16,000 or more, the minimum dues shall be equal to $36.00 per month. Effective January 1, 2016, for all members with annual earnings between $5,500 and $16,000, the minimum dues shall be equal to $31.00 per month.

Annual increase

Effective January 1, 2017, through January 1, 2020, the minimum monthly dues for all members with annual earnings of $5,500 or above shall be increased by $1.00 annually, effective January 1 of each year.

Special membership categories

Notwithstanding the above, by action of the Local Union the minimum dues may be reduced for retired members, organizing committee members, and associate members. The Local Union may establish minimum dues for members with annual earnings which are less than $5,500.

Upon request, these requirements may be waived by the International President, as provided in subsection 6(d)below.

Maximum dues cap

(b). A Local Union's dues system shall not contain a maximum limitation on the dues amount per member otherwise applicable under the Local Union's dues formula. Upon request, this requirement may be waived by the International President, as provided in subsection 6(d) below provided that any maximum limitation permitted by the International President is indexed for inflation.

Dues increases

(c). Local Unions in which the Constitution and Bylaws provide for a dues system other than a flat rate system (e.g., a scale, hourly or percentage formula system) shall maintain the formula necessary to generate a dues minimum equal to the flat rates specified in this section.

Percentage dues system

Every Local Union shall strive to have a membership dues system based on a percentage of monthly gross earnings.

The percentage rate minimum required in converting to a percentage dues system shall be the rate that provides the Local Union with revenue equal to what it otherwise would have received under its prior dues system as of that date. The calculation of revenue otherwise receivable under the prior dues system shall be based on the Local Union's average monthly membership for the six month period ending one month prior to the date of conversion.

Application and interpretation

Questions concerning the application or interpretation of this subsection shall be resolved by decision of the International Secretary-Treasurer, subject to appeal to the Executive Board. (d). The International President, with ratification by the International

Executive Board, may waive the requirements of this section for such period as he or she deems advisable upon a showing of good cause as set forth below so long as such waiver does not impair the ability of the Local Union to properly represent its members.

Full or partial waivers of any of the requirements of this section may be granted taking into consideration the resources of the Local Union, the Local Union's dues rate, whether the Local Union has recently implemented a dues increase, the percentage of workers represented by the Local Union covered by a union security clause and the wage rate of the Local Union's members. A waiver also may be granted to Local Unions in right to work states that are engaged in active and strategic organizing efforts in accordance with approved industry division plans.

(e). Nothing in this Section shall apply to Local Unions based in Canada.

Section 7(a). The minimum dues of all members of any Canadian Local Union shall be $10.00 per month except that by action of a Local Union they may be reduced to not less than $2.50 per month for retired members and organizing committee members and $2.00 per month for associate members.

For Canadian Local Unions employing a percentage dues system, the minimum dues of all members of any Local Union shall be 1 percent of gross monthly salary per month or $10.00 per month, whichever is greater, except that by action of a Local Union they may be reduced for retired members, organizing committee members and associate members.

The International President, with the approval of the International Executive Board, may waive these requirements for such period as he or she deems advisable as long as such waiver does not, in his or her judgment, impair the ability of the Local Union to properly represent its members.

(b). All dues in Canadian Local Unions may be increased by an amount to be set by the International Executive Board based on the recommendation of the Canadian Council.

Section 8. In order to be considered in good standing and to be eligible to participate in all of the gratuities and benefits of the Local Union and the International Union, members must pay on time the full dues and other payments prescribed by the Constitution of the Local Union.

Section 9. When a member is laid-off from employment or is absent from work due to employer lockout or union-authorized strike for more than 20 days in any calendar month, such member may be entitled, if so provided in the Local Union's Constitution and Bylaws, to credit for membership dues for the period of unemployment but not to exceed six months in any calendar year.

(b). Every Local Union shall establish a separate account or accounting for the money that comprises its annual organizing budget.

(c). In the event that the applicable industry division of the International Union believes that a Local Union has failed, without good cause, to implement this 20 percent organizing budget commitment or to spend the Local Union's organizing budget consistent with the union wide strategic unity plan and/or division plan, it may refer the matter to the International Secretary-Treasurer for a review of the Local Union's organizing account and expenditures. If view reveals that the Local Union is not implementing its organizing budget as obligated under this provision, the Secretary-Treasurer may direct that only certain planned expenditures may continue to be made by the Local Union from its organizing account until the division and Local Union mutually agree upon a broader resolution of the matter pursuant to an expedited procedure established by the International Secretary-Treasurer.

(d). If no agreement is reached, the applicable division may refer the matter to the International President who may designate the matter for hearing before a hearing officer appointed by the International Executive Board. Based on the hearing officer's report, the International Executive Board may order the Local Union to pay all or a portion of the organizing account and the local union's next annual organizing budget to an organizing campaign(s) identified in the national plan for that particular division.

Charges against a Local Union or an officer of the International Union shall be filed in duplicate with the International Secretary-Treasurer, who shall serve a copy thereof upon the accused either personally or by registered or certified mail, directed to the last known address of the accused, at least 10 days before the hearing upon the charges. The International Executive Board may hold a hearing on the charges either itself or before a hearing officer or officers designated by it or it may determine to dismiss the charges without the need for a hearing to be conducted. If the hearing is conducted by a hearing officer or officers, the International Executive Board shall make its decision upon the record taken at the hearing and the report of the hearing officer or officers.

Section 4. In all hearings or trials provided for herein, if the member filing charges is a member of the trial body, he or she may appear and be heard in support of the charges, but shall be ineligible to participate in the consideration of or the decision on such charges. If the accused is unable or unwilling to be present at any hearing provided for herein, a defense may be presented in writing. In default of appearance or defense, the trial body shall proceed with the hearing regardless of the absence of the accused.

Section 5. The trial body, after requisite due process has been afforded, may impose such penalty as it deems appropriate and as the case requires.

Section 6. An appeal to the International Executive Board may be taken by either the accused or the member filing the charges from any decision of a Local Union with respect to such charges, provided such decision is a final decision under the terms of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Local Union; or from a decision of the International President. Any such appeal shall be filed in writing with the International Secretary-Treasurer, by registered or certified mail, within 15 days after the decision. No specific form or formality shall be required, except that such appeal shall clearly set forth the decision being appealed and the grounds for the appeal. During the pendency of any appeal, the decision appealed from shall remain in full force, unless it is stayed by the International Executive Board. The International Executive Board may decide the appeal on the record made by the trial body or may in its discretion, upon at least 10 days notice, hear argument or hold a rehearing either itself or before a hearing officer or officers designated by it. The International Executive Board may affirm, reverse or modify the decision appealed from.

Section 7. Appeals from any decision of the International Executive Board with respect to charges may be taken to the next Convention. Any such appeal shall be filed in the same manner and within the same time as appeals to the International Executive Board. During the pendency of such appeal, the decision appealed from shall remain in full force. The appellant shall have the right to appear before an appeals committee of the Convention and, if the appellant is a Local Union or a member appealing an expulsion from membership, shall have the right to appear before the Convention itself under such conditions and for the period of time fixed by the Convention. An individual appellant, other than one appealing an expulsion from membership, shall have the right to appear before the Convention itself only with the consent of the Convention. The action of the Convention on all appeals shall be final and binding.

Section 8. Subject to the provisions of applicable statutes, every Local Union or member or officer thereof or officer of the International Union against whom charges have been preferred and disciplinary action taken as a result thereof or who claims to be aggrieved as a result of adverse rulings or decisions rendered, agrees, as a condition of membership or affiliation and the continuation of membership or affiliation, to exhaust all remedies provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union and the Local Union and further agrees not to file or prosecute any action in any court, tribunal or other agency until those remedies have been exhausted.

Article XVIII AFFILIATIONS WITH INTERMEDIATE BODIES

Obligation to affiliate

Establishment

bodies

of intermediate

Section 1. Local Unions shall affiliate with local, regional, national or international bodies, where such exist, under rules to be established by the International Executive Board. The International President may in his or her discretion waive this requirement for individual Locals for good cause.

Section 2. The International Executive Board shall from time to time establish intermediate bodies including, but not limited to, State and Provincial Councils, and Canadian Regional Conferences as well as other bodies, when in its judgment such bodies are necessary to further the aims of the International Union and the interests of Local Unions. The International Executive Board shall establish the jurisdiction of such bodies, and shall issue rules prescribing the activities and financing of such bodies. For administrative purposes of collection and distribution, the International Executive Board may require Local Unions to forward to the International Union per capita tax payments or other financial obligations owed by the Local Union to affiliated bodies or entities. Upon receipt, the International Union shall forward such payments to the applicable affiliated body or entity.

Local affiliation and per capita requirements

Conformance to International Constitution Section 3. All Local Unions determined by the International Union to be within the jurisdiction of any intermediate body shall affiliate with such bodies and comply with their bylaws, including provisions in such bylaws requiring the payment of per capita taxes to the intermediate body, together with interest on late payment if so authorized by the intermediate body. The International Executive Board may in its discretion modify these requirements. Any proposal to set or change an intermediate body's per capita tax obligation or assessment shall be submitted to the International President for his/ her approval prior to its submission for approval by the intermediate body. In the case of State Councils, a Local Union shall affiliate with each State Council having jurisdiction over the primary worksite(s) of its members, and shall pay each such State Council per capita tax on those members whose primary work site is within that State Council's jurisdiction.

Section 4. The bylaws of such intermediate bodies shall not conflict with the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union. Such bylaws shall provide that the number of votes a Local has in such bodies shall be proportionate to its numerical strength as determined by the payment of per capita tax, excluding associate members, life members and agency fee payers, to the intermediate body. This requirement may be waived by the International President, subject to his/her approval of an alternative voting procedure. Such bylaws and any amendments must be submitted to and approved by the International President before becoming valid. Notwithstanding such approval, each intermediate body shall resubmit its bylaws to the International President for consideration and approval within 120 days following the conclusion of each regular International Convention.

Section 5. The bylaws of the Regional Conferences and Joint and State Councils shall provide that all officers of a Local Union elected in conformity with all applicable statutes shall by virtue of such election be considered to be eligible delegates to any Convention of such body which may take place during their term of office. If under the rules of the particular intermediate body a Local Union is entitled to additional delegates at said Convention, then arrangements may be made at the option of the Local Union Executive Board for nomination and secret ballot election, if required, of an additional number of Convention delegates. The Local Union must designate in its own bylaws the order in which the officers would be designated as delegates if fewer than all the officers are entitled to go to the Convention as delegates, provided that the chief executive officer of the Local Union shall, if otherwise eligible, be deemed entitled even in the event the Local Union fails to so designate. Any Local Union may by provision in its Local Constitution and Bylaws dispense with the foregoing provision that officers of the Local Union be ex officio delegates to the Convention of such intermediate bodies and may provide for nomination and, if required, secret ballot election of such delegates.

Section 6. No officer of an intermediate body may receive compensation of any kind from the intermediate body, except for a minimal stipend or expenses as appropriate. This limitation shall not apply to intermediate bodies in Canada.

APPENDIX C: SEIU CODE OF ETHICS AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Approved by the SEIU International Executive Board, June 13, 2009 Approved by the SEIU International Executive Board as revised, January 21, 2016

PART A: PREAMBLE

The Service Employees International Union (SEIU) believes in the dignity and worth of all workers. We have dedicated ourselves to improving the lives of workers and their families and to creating a more just and humane society. We are committed to pursuing justice for all, and in particular to bringing economic and social justice to those most exploited in our community. To achieve our mission, we must develop highly trained and motivated leaders at every level of the Union who reflect the membership in all of its diversity.

Union members place tremendous trust in their leaders. SEIU elected officers and managers owe not just fiduciary obligations to union members; given the moral purpose of our mission, SEIU leaders owe members the highest level of ethical behavior in the exercise of all leadership decisions and financial dealings on members' behalf. Members have a right to proper stewardship over union funds and transparency in the expenditure of union dues. Misuse and inappropriate use of resources or leadership authority undermine the confidence members have in the Union and weaken it. Corruption in all forms will not be tolerated in SEIU. This Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest Policy (the "Code" or "SEIU Code") strengthens the Union's ethics rules of conduct, organizational practices and enforcement standards and thus enhances the Union's ability to accomplish its important mission.

We recognize that no code of ethics can prevent some individuals from violating ethical standards of behavior. We also know that the SEIU Code is not sufficient in itself to sustain an ethical culture throughout the Union. To accomplish the goals for which this Code has been created, we must establish systems of accountability for all elected leaders and staff. These systems must include appropriate checks and balances and internal operating procedures that minimize the opportunity for misuse or abuse, as well as the perception of either, in spending union funds and exercising decision-making authority. The systems also must include adequate provision for training on understanding and implementing this Code. More broadly, we emphasize the importance of the range of standards, practices, and values described in "A Strong Ethical Culture," Section A of the SEIU Policies on Ethics and Standards that were enacted with the Code in 2009.

In particular, SEIU is committed to providing meaningful paths for member involvement and participation in our Union. The SEIU Member Bill of Rights and Responsibilities in the Union is a significant source of SEIU members' rights and obligations. Its exclusive enforcement Preamble

Duty to members

Accountability

Member protections, responsibilities

through the procedures set forth in Article XVII of the SEIU Constitution and Bylaws reflects a commitment to the democratic principles that have always governed SEIU. Article XVII's numerous protections against arbitrary or unlawful discipline of members also form an essential ingredient of the democratic life of the Union. Similarly, the requirement that Affiliates provide for regular meetings of the membership, set forth in Article XV, Section 5 of the Constitution, is another important element in the democratic functioning of SEIU. Finally, the provisions against discrimination and harassment on the basis of race, creed, color, religion, sex, gender expression, sexual orientation, national origin, citizenship status, marital status, ancestry, age and disability contained in Article III, Section 4 of the SEIU Constitution and in the Constitutions and Bylaws of Affiliates, the SEIU Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy and Procedure, and similar policies of Affiliates forbid conduct in violation of SEIU's historic belief that our strength comes from our unity and diversity and that we must not be divided by forces of discrimination.

Other sources of authority Individuals subject to this Code are expected to comply with State and Federal laws, the Constitution and Bylaws of SEIU and Affiliates, and the anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policies of SEIU and Affiliates as part and parcel of our commitment to sustaining an ethical culture and the highest standards of conduct throughout the Union. Violations of these laws and policies are ethical breaches; however, these violations should be addressed through avenues provided by the applicable laws and policies and not through the Code unless they also allege violations of this Code. In particular, the sole enforcement mechanism for matters covered by the SEIU or Affiliate Constitutions and Bylaws is that which is set forth in those documents, unless violations of this Code are also alleged. Finally, grievances that arise under collective bargaining agreements are excluded from enforcement under this Code unless they also allege violations of this Code.

The scope and standards of this Code are set forth in the following Sections.

Section 1. Applicability to International Union. The SEIU Code is henceforth applicable in its entirety to all officers, executive board

PREAMBLE

As almost every improvement in the condition of working people has been accomplished by the efforts of organized Labor and as the welfare of wage, salary, and professional workers can best be protected and advanced by their united action in one International Union, we have organized this Local Union and are affiliated with the Service Employees International Union and have adopted the following Constitution and Bylaws:

ARTICLE 1

NAME

The name of this Local Union shall be the Nevada Service Employees Union (NSEU), SEIU Local 1107, affiliated with the Service Employees International Union, CTW, CLC (also referred to herein as the "International" or the "International Union"), and shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Local Union" or the "Union".

The name of the Local Union shall not be used publicly by any person or organization, including any member, other than by members for use on their membership cards for identification purpose, without express written permission of the Executive Board. This shall not restrict the Officers, appointees or agents of the Local Union in the use of the name to carry out the purpose and business of the Local Union.

ARTICLE 2

MISSION STATEMENT

We are public and private sector and healthcare employees in Nevada. We are taxpayers, parents property owners and renters, community activists and leaders. We believe workers are the most valuable resource of any organization and we are committed to excellence in the services we provide and in improving our communities.

We are affiliated with the Service Employees International Union, united by the belief in the dignity and their families and creating a more just and humane society.

We are the public workers, healthcare workers, building service workers, office workers, professional workers, and industrial and allied workers. We seek a stronger Union to build power for ourselves and to protect the people we serve.

Women and men of every race, ethnicity, religion, age, physical ability and sexual orientation, we are the standard-bearers in the struggle for social and economic justice begun nearly a century ago by janitors who dared to dream beyond their daily hardships and to organize for economic security, dignity and respect.

On vision is of a society:

Where all workers and their families live and work in dignity.

Where work is fulfilling and fairly rewarded.

Where workers have a meaningful voice in decisions that affect them.

Where workers have the opportunity to develop their talents and skills.

Where the collective voice and power of workers is realized in democratic and progressive unions.

Where Union solidarity stands firm against the forces of discrimination and hate and the unfair employment practices of exploitative employers.

Where government plays an active role in improving the lives of working people.

To achieve this vision:

We must organized workers, extending to them the gains of unionism while securing control over our industries and labor markets.

We must build political power to ensure that workers' voices are heard at every level of government to create economic opportunity and foster social justice.

We must provide meaningful paths for member involvement and participation in strong, democratic unions.

We must develop highly trained and motivated leaders at every level of the Union who reflect the membership in all its diversity.

We must bargain contracts that improve wages and working conditions, expand the role of workers in workplace decision-making, and build a stronger Union.

We must build coalitions and act in solidarity with other organizations who share our concern for social and economic justice.

We must engage in direct action that demonstrates our power and our determination to win.

To accomplish these goals we must be unified – inspired by a set of beliefs and principles that transcends our social and occupational diversity and guides our work.

We believe we can accomplish little as separate individuals, but that together we have the power to create a just society.

We believe unions are the means by which working people build power – by which ordinary people accomplish extraordinary things.

We believe our strength comes from our unity, and that we must not be divided by forces of discrimination based on gender, race, ethnicity, religion, age, physical ability or sexual orientation. We believe our power and effectiveness depend upon the active participation and commitment of our members, the development of our leaders and solidarity with each other and our allies.

We believe we have a special mission to bring economic and social justice to those most exploited in our community – especially to women and workers of color.

We believe our future cannot be separated from that of workers in other parts of the world who struggle for economic justice, a decent life for their families, peace, dignity and democracy.

We believe unions are necessary for a democratic society to prevail, and that unions must participate in the political life of our society.

We believe we have a moral responsibility to leave the world a better place for our children – and everyone's children.

STEWARDS

Stewards are the vital life stream of any Local Union. Stewards have no greater rights than any other member, but many more responsibilities. Not the least of these is to put personal positions aside and work for the greater good of all members.

Section 1. Role

As a Steward of this Local Union, this job involves much, much more than handling grievances.

Grievances are important. They are often the most visible and dramatic aspects of the Union's presence. Sometimes they will take up most of the Steward's time.

But grievances should never be confused with your most important responsibility as a Steward: To build a united, organized and involved membership in the workplace of the Steward.

Without this involvement and solidarity, no Union in the world can protect and serve its members.

As a leader in the workplace, the Steward will have his/her hands full. That is because Stewards are organizers, problem solvers, educators, communicators and work site leaders.

Section 2. Duties

The Steward's duties and obligations are many and shall include the following:

- A. Serve as an organizer and recruit new members for this Local Union at his/her work location;
- B. Assist the Chief Steward in organizing and recruiting new members for this Local Union at the work site;
- C. Get to know all the workers in the work site;
- D. Assist the Chief Steward in keeping all members at the work location informed of Local Union activities through regular meetings, updated bulletin boards, and timely distribution of special information;
- E. Assist in contract action campaigns and keep members informed during contract negotiations;
- F. Participate in and recruit members' participation in activities of this Local Union;
- G. Attend Steward training and mandatory monthly Steward meetings;
- H. Enforce the Collective Bargaining Agreement, however, Stewards shall not have any authority in any matter, either directly or indirectly, to make any change in wages, hours or working condition, or grant any new demands that are contrary or in any way different to the wages, hours or working conditions in existence pursuant to the applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement;
- Receive and, as appropriate, process grievances, and report them immediately and give copies to the Chief Steward. Investigations of every problem or incident must be fair and complete. Each member must be kept informed about each step taken on his/her behalf. Do not lose a grievance because a time limit ran out. Cases must be based on facts and merit, not personalities, nor be arbitrary, capricious or subjective;

- J. Act as the first line of contact with management on the work site; and
- K. Honor your commitments to all meetings and committees.

Section 3. Accountability

Stewards are accountable and shall report to the Chief Steward of his/her respective Chapter.

Section 4. Qualifications For and Terms of Office

A. Qualifications for Office

No person who has been convicted of a felony as defined in Section 504 of the Landrum-Griffen Act (or an indictable offense in Canada) shall, in accordance with applicable law, be eligible to be a Steward in this Local Union.

No person shall be eligible for nomination as a Steward of the Local union who has not been a member in continuous good standing in regard to dues paying requirements, in the Local Union, for at least six (6) months immediately preceding the Nomination. In cases of newly represented jurisdictions (less than six (6) months), the nominee must have been a member for the entire time the jurisdiction has been represented by the Local Union.

B. Terms of Office

All Stewards of this Local Union shall serve three (3) year terms from July 1st of the general election year to June 30th of the next general election year if elected during the general election. If appointed during off election years a steward shall serve until June 30th of the next general election year. Stewards may serve any number of consecutive terms.

Section 5. Nominations, Elections or Appointments

Stewards shall be nominated, elected or appointed to office in accordance with written procedures established by the Executive Board or by Chapters with approval by the Executive Board. The President of the Local Union may, with the advice and consent of either the Vice President of the Bargaining Unit or the Chief Steward or the Chief Steward of the respective Chapter, appoint Stewards if any portion of a term remains, whenever there is a vacancy.

Elections for Stewards shall be in June. Nominations for Stewards shall be received by this Local Union no later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the Stewards/Membership Meeting of the Chapter in the month of April preceding the election.

1	I, Jonathan Cohen, declare as follows:
3	1. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this declaration, except where
4	as indicated otherwise, and would competently testify in a court of law.
5
6	2. I am a partner with Rothner, Segall & Greenstone, which, together with
7	Christensen James & Martin, represents defendants Service Employees International Union
8	("SEIU") and Mary Kay Henry ("Henry"). I provide this declaration in support of SEIU's and
9	Henry's opposition to the motion for partial summary judgment on liability filed by plaintiffs
10	Dana Gentry and Robert Clarke ("Plaintiffs") on September 26, 2018, and SEIU's and Henry's
11	counter-motion for summary judgment.
12
13	Case Background
14	3. Plaintiffs filed this action on November 20, 2017. The complaint names as
15	defendants SEIU, SEIU President Henry; SEIU Local 1107; Local 1107 Trustee Luisa Blue;
16	Local 1107 Deputy Trustee Martin Manteca; and Sharon Kisling.
17	4. Plaintiffs have alleged fourteen separate causes of action in their complaint,
18	nearly all of which are based on the allegations that defendant Local 1107 entered into a contract
19	of employment with Plaintiffs, and that Plaintiffs were terminated without cause.
20	The complaint includes the following fourteen causes of action: (1) Breach of Contract –
21	Dana Gentry; (2) Breach of Contract – Robert Clarke; (3) Breach of Implied Covenant of Good
22	Faith and Fair Dealing – Contractual Breach – Dana Gentry; (4) Breach of Implied Covenant of
23	Good Faith and Fair Dealing – Contractual Breach – Robert Clarke; (5) Breach of Covenant of
24	Good Faith and Fair Dealing – Tortious Breach – Dana Gentry; (6) Breach of Covenant of Good
25	Faith and Fair Dealing – Tortious Breach – Robert Clarke; (7) Civil Conspiracy – All Plaintiffs
26	against all Defendants; (8) Intentional Interference with Contractual Relations – All Plaintiffs
27	against Defendants SEIU, Henry, Blue and Manteca; (9) Wrongful Termination – Breach of
28	Continued Employment Contract – Dana Gentry; (10) Wrongful Termination – Breach of
	2 Case No. A-17-764942-C
1	213

1	Continued Employment Contract – Robert Clarke; (11) Wrongful Termination – Bad Faith
2	Discharge – Dana Gentry; (12) Wrongful Termination – Bad Faith Discharge – Robert Clarke;
3	(13) Tortious Discharge – Dana Gentry; (13) Tortious Discharge – Robert Clarke; (15)
4	Negligence; (16) Defamation – Dana Gentry Against Sharon Kisling.
5	It is not clear from the face of the complaint which causes of action are against Local
6	1107, SEIU, Henry, or all of them. Only the seventh and eighth causes of action expressly state
7	that they are against "Defendants SEIU [and] Henry."
8	5. Local 1107 filed its answer to the complaint on February 2, 2018. SEIU filed its
9	answer to the complaint on March 19, 2018. The parties held their Early Case Conference on
10	July 18, 2018. The Court issued its Scheduling Order on October 10, 2018.
11	6. Local 1107 served its first request for production of documents to plaintiff Gentry
12	on August 17, 2018; its second request for production of documents to plaintiff Gentry on
13	August 29, 2018; and its first request for production of documents to plaintiff Clarke on August
14	30, 3018.
15	7. SEIU served requests for production of documents on Plaintiffs on October 11,
16	2018.
17
18	Plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on Liability
19	8. On September 26, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a motion for partial summary judgment on
20	liability. Plaintiffs' motion appears to seek partial summary judgment regarding the following
21	allegations: (1) the existence of contracts between SEIU Local 1107 and Plaintiffs for indefinite
22	employment; (2) the alleged contracts were expressly or impliedly for indefinite terms and could
23	only be terminated for cause; and (3) Defendants breached the alleged contracts by terminating
24	Plaintiffs without cause.
25
26	SEIU and Henry Require Sufficient Discovery to Oppose Plaintiffs' Motion
27	9. SEIU and Henry intend to conduct written discovery and depositions to elicit, at a
28	minimum, facts that are essential to allow them to adequately oppose Plaintiffs' motion for
	3 Case No. A-17-764942-C 214

1	partial summary judgment in the event the Court does not grant summary judgment to SEIU and
2	Henry.
3	10. The following facts and/or information are essential to allow SEIU and Henry to
4	adequately oppose Plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment:
5	a. The basis for Plaintiffs' apparent assertion that SEIU and Henry are liable
6	for breach of contract and related torts regarding an alleged contract to
7	which they were not a party;
8	b. facts related to the formation of the alleged employment agreement
9	between Plaintiffs and Local 1107, including facts relating to the 10	employment offers made to Plaintiffs by Local 1107, the negotiations of
11	the terms of the alleged employment agreements, Plaintiffs' understanding
12	of the meaning of the terms in the contract, and Local 1107's agreement to
13	the terms of the agreement;
14	c. facts related to Plaintiffs' work performance while employed at Local
15	1107, including facts regarding misconduct or poor performance by either
16	plaintiff;
17	d. All communications between Plaintiffs and SEIU Local 1107 or other
18	individuals regarding the alleged employment contracts.
19	e. All documents exchanged between Plaintiffs and SEIU Local 1107 or
20	other individuals regarding the alleged employment contracts, including
21	any addendums, amendments, etc.
22	f. All communications between Plaintiffs and SEIU Local 1107 or other
23	individuals regarding Plaintiffs' termination.
24	g. All documents exchanged between plaintiffs and SEIU Local 1107
25	regarding Plaintiffs' termination.
26	h. Depositions of Plaintiffs and Barry Roberts regarding the allegations in the
27	complaint and the declaration of Barry Roberts.
28	111
	4 Case No. A-17-764942-C 215

11. The information listed in paragraph 10 above would prevent summary judgment by creating a genuine issue of material fact as to the Plaintiffs' breach of contract and related tort claims. The information sought above is essential to the elements of breach of contract; if SEIU and Henry can demonstrate that there was a failure of formation of the contract, of a failure of performance on behalf of either plaintiff, or demonstrate that neither SEIU nor Henry were liable under the contract, the causes of action premised on contractual breach fail.
I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.
Executed on October 11, 2018, in Pasadena, California.
