POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure 3(f) provides that counsel shall file a Case Appeal Statement with the District Court. This form must contain the following:

“(A) The district court case number and caption showing the names of all parties to the proceedings below, but the use of et al. to denote parties is prohibited; (B) the name of the judge who entered the order or judgment being appealed; (C) the name of each appellant and the name and address of counsel for each appellant; (D) the name of each respondent and the name and address of appellate counsel, if known, for each respondent, but if the name of a respondent’s appellate counsel is not known, then the name and address of that respondent’s trial counsel; (E) whether an attorney identified in response to subparagraph; (D) is not licensed to practice law in Nevada, and if so, whether the district court granted that attorney permission to appear under SCR 42, including a copy of any district court order granting that permission; (F) whether the appellant was represented by appointed counsel in the district court, and whether the appellant is represented by appointed counsel on appeal; (G) whether the district court granted the appellant leave to proceed in forma pauperis, and if so, the date of the district court's order granting that leave; (H) the date that the proceedings commenced in the district court; (I) a brief description of the nature of the action and result in the district court, including the type of judgment or order being appealed and the relief granted by the district court; (J) whether the case has previously been the subject of an appeal to or original writ proceeding in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals and, if so, the caption and docket number of the prior proceeding; (K) whether the appeal involves child custody or visitation; and (L) in civil cases, whether the appeal involves the possibility of settlement."

Here, counsel has filed the requested Case Appeal Statement with District Court department XX for case C-16-316678-1, and offers the attached filed document as proof herein.
