

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

RYAN MATTHEW LIPSITZ, Appellant,
vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 80765

FILED

APR 08 2020

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND SUSPENDING BRIEFING

This is an appeal from an amended judgment of conviction. This court's review of this appeal reveals a potential jurisdictional defect. Specifically, appellant does not appear to be aggrieved by the change made to his sentence in the amended judgment of conviction. See NRS 177.015 (only an aggrieved party may appeal). The amended judgment removed the sentence for count 2, increased the credit for time served, and reduced appellant's sentence.¹ Accordingly, appellant's counsel shall have 21 days from the date of this order to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Respondent shall have 14 days from the filing of any response to file any reply.

The briefing of this appeal is suspended pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.

Pickering, C.J.

¹On direct appeal from the judgment of conviction, this court affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded. See Lipsitz v. State, 135 Nev. 131, 442 P.3d 138 (2019).
