1 1051 (1993). To that end, in construing contracts, every word must be given effect if at all
 2 possible. See, Royal Indemnity Company v. Special Service Supply Company (1966) 82 Nev. 148, 413
 3 P.2d 500 (1966).

4 Additionally, although Nevada law controls, Nevada courts do consider California cases if 5 they assist with the interpretation. To that end, California law provides that terms may be added by 6 inference under Civil Code §§1655 and 1656 only upon consideration of all the surrounding facts.
 7 See e.g. Worthington v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc. (1970) 8 Cal.App.3d 435, 440-441.
 8 Terms which can be inferred from a consideration of the entire instrument or which are implied by 9 law are as much a part of the contract as if expressly set forth. See Forde v. Venbro (1963) 218
 10 Cal.App.2d 405, 408 (“Many a gap in terms can be filled, and should be, with a result that is consistent 11 with what the parties said and that is more just to both than would be a refusal of enforcement”); see 12 also Waters v. Waters (1961) 197 Cal.App.2d 1, 5 (“A series of writings is to be construed together 13 in arriving at the total understanding of the contracting parties”); Denver D. Darling, Inc. v. Controlled
 14 Environments Construction, Inc. (2001) 89 Cal.App.4th 1221, 1237 (“Neither law nor equity requires 15 that every term and condition of an agreement be set forth in the contract.”).

16 Finally, as to CLAP’s interpretation, pursuant to California Code of Civ. Proc. § 1858, a party
 17 may not delete words in a contract and thereby alter the parties’ obligations. As shown below, that is 18 exactly what CLAP is trying to do—delete the entire FMV process after the Offering Member triggers 19 the buy-sell agreement and offers what he thinks is the fair market value to begin the process.

20 C. SECTION 4.2 OF THE OPERATING AGREEMENT.

21 In order to understand the effect of the July 7, 2017, August 3, 2017 and August 5, 2017
 22 correspondence between Bidsal and CLAP, an understanding of Section 4.2 is required.

23 As Exhibits “A” and “B” make clear, Section 4 contains a provision which allows one member
 24 to force the sale of either his or the other member’s membership interest. In other words, it contains 25 a provision which, once triggered, will result in one of the members selling their membership interest 26 to the other member.

27 Section 4 provides four different routes that can be taken by the Remaining Member once the 28 Offering Member makes an initial offer pursuant to Section 4.2①. Attached hereto as Exhibit “A” is

1 a flowchart illustrating each of the Remaining Member's choices/routes. Each of these choices / routes
2 will be discussed.

3 1. Step 1: Initial Offer.

4 If a member desires to trigger the buy-sell language in Section 4, there is one, and only
5 one way that the process can be initiated and that is by one of the members (defined as the "Offering
6 Member"²) making an offer "to purchase" the other member's (defined as the "Remaining
7 Member"²) membership interest "for a price that the Offering Member thinks is the fair market value"
8 (which is referred to as the "offered price"³) (the "Initial Offer"). See Section 4.2④ of Exhibit "A"
9 and pages 10-11 of Exhibit "E".

10 Further, Section 4.2④ sets forth specific parameters that the Initial Offer must comply with.
11 For instance, the offered price is "a price the Offering Member thinks is the fair market value." See 12 Section 4.2④ (emphasis added). Thus, pursuant to the plain terms of the Operating Agreement, the 13 offered price is, by definition, not the fair market value, but instead only the price which the Offering 14 Member thinks is the fair market value. Id.

15 Finally, it is important to note that the Initial Offer is not an offer to sell, but only an offer "to 16 purchase." CLAP will argue that an offer to buy is an offer to sell, but this position runs directly
17 contrary to Section 4.2④ which clearly states that the Initial Offer is only "an offer to purchase." See 18 Section 4.2④ of Exhibit "A" and pages 10-11 of Exhibit "E".

19 2. Step 2: The Remaining Member's Options.

20 As illustrated in Exhibit "A", once Section 4 has been triggered by an Initial Offer, the 21 Remaining Member has four choices: (1) do nothing, (2) accept the offer at the offered price, (3)
22 request an appraisal, or (4) make a counteroffer. See Exhibits "A" and "B".

23 a. Option 1: Do Nothing.

24 The first option the Remaining Member has is to do nothing. If the Remaining
25 Member does nothing, then under Section 4.3, after thirty (30) days the Remaining Member is deemed 26 to have accepted the Offering Member's Initial Offer, and the Offering Member will buy out the 27 Remaining Member's membership interest at the offered price. See Exhibits "A", "B" and "E".

28 ² See Section 4.1④ and 4.2④.

³ See Section 4.2④ and 4.2⑤.

Henderson, NV 89074
O: (702) 318-5033 F: (702) 318-5034

b. Option 2: Accept the Initial Offer.

The second option the Remaining Member has is to accept the Offering Member's Initial Offer. See Section 4.2⑤(i). Under the second option, the Remaining Member will then sell its membership interest to the Offering Member at the offered price set forth in the Initial Offer. See Exhibits "A", "B" and "E".

c. Option 3: Request an Appraisal.

The third option the Remaining Member has is to request an appraisal. See Section 4.2② in Exhibits "A" and "E". Under Section 4.2②: "If the offered price is not acceptable to the Remaining Member(s), within 30 days of receiving the offer, the Remaining Member(s) (or any of them) can request to establish FMV based upon" See Exhibit "A"; See also page 11 of Exhibit "E".

Under Section 4.2③ and 4.2④, once the FMV has been established by appraisal, the Offering Member is deemed to have made an offer to purchase the Remaining Member's membership interest at the FMV. See Section 4.2③ and 4.2④ in Exhibit "A"; See also page 11 of Exhibit "E". At which point, the Remaining Member gets to decide whether to sell its membership interest to the Offering Member at FMV or buy the Offering Member's membership interest at FMV. See Section 4.2⑤.

d. Option 4: Make a Counteroffer.

The fourth and final option the Remaining Member has is to make a counteroffer which is governed by 4.2⑤(ii) and Section 4.2⑥. See Exhibit "A"; See also page 11 of Exhibit "E".

While Section 4.2⑤(i) allows the Remaining Member to accept an offer either at the offered price or at the FMV, Section 4.2⑤(ii) specifically states that any counteroffer must be based upon the "same fair market value (FMV) according to the following formula. $(FMV - COP) \times 0.5 + \text{capital contribution of the Offering Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.}$ " See Exhibit "A"; See also page 11 of Exhibit "E".

The use of the defined term "FMV" is important. As is illustrated in Section 4.2②, whenever the amount identified in the Initial Offer (which is the amount the Offering Member thinks is the fair market value) is referenced, it is referenced as the "offered price". Any time the defined term FMV

SMITH & SHAPIRO, PLLC
 2520 St. Rose Parkway, Suite 220
 Henderson, NV 89074
 O: (702) 318-5033 F: (702) 318-5034

1 is used, it is referencing the definition found in Section 4.1④, which defines FMV as the “fair market
 2 value’ obtained as specified in section 4.2.” Further, the last sentence of Section 4.2② states: “The 3 medium of these 2 appraisals constitutes the fair market value of the property which is called (FMV).”
 4 See Exhibit “A”; See also pages 10-11 of Exhibit “E” (emphasis added).

5 Thus, under Section 4.2⑤(ii), the Remaining Member does not have the option of purchasing
 6 the Offering Member’s membership interest at the “offered price”. Instead, if the Remaining Member
 7 makes a counteroffer, then it must be at the FMV, as that term is defined in Sections 4.1④ and 4.2②.

8 If the Remaining Member did not previously request an appraisal, then by making a 9 counteroffer, the Remaining Member still triggers the appraisal process outlined in Section 4.2②, as 10 that is the only way to establish the FMV, which under Section 4.2⑤(ii), is the price that the Remaining 11 Member must pay⁴ to purchase the Offering Member’s membership interest.

12 D. THE TWO ISSUES.

13 There are two issues to be decided by the Arbitrator. The first issue is whether or not CLAP’s
 14 August 3, 2017 response constitutes a counteroffer (i.e., was it sufficient to trigger Section 4.2⑤(ii)).

15 If CLAP’s August 3, 2017 response did not trigger Section 4.2⑤, then Bidsal is entitled to 16 purchase CLAP’s membership interest using the offered price of $5,000,000.00. If CLAP’s August 3, 17 2017 response was sufficient to trigger Section 4.2⑤(ii), then the next issue is at what price.

18 E. CLAP’S AUGUST 3, 2017 LETTER IS NON-RESPONSIVE AND CONSTITUTES A 19 NON-RESPONSE.

20 Section 4.2⑤(ii) of the Operating Agreement sets for the requirements of a counteroffer.
 21 Specifically, a counteroffer must offer to purchase the Offering Member’s membership interest “based 22 upon the same fair market value (FMV) according to the following formula. $(FMV - COP) \times 0.5 +$
 23 capital contribution of the Offering Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated
 24 liabilities.” See Exhibit “B”; See also page 11 of Exhibit “E”.

25 \ \ \

26 \ \ \

27 \ \ \

28 ⁴ This is confirmed by the language of Section 4.2④, which clearly states that the Initial Offer is only an “offer to purchase” and not an offer to sell. See Section 4.2④ of Exhibit “A” and page 10 of Exhibit “E”.

1 The term "FMV" is a defined term and therefore must be given the meaning as prescribed by
 2 Section 4. Specifically, Section 4.1④ defines FMV as the "'fair market value' obtained as specified
 3 in section 4.2." Thus, anywhere FMV is used in the Operating Agreement, it must be interpreted 4 consistent with the definition contained in Section 4.2.

5 The operative section of Section 4.2 where FMV is defined is found in Section 4.2② as 6 follows:

7 ... The Remaining Member(s) must provide the Offering Member the complete
 8 information of 2 MIA appraisers. The Offering Member must pick one of the 9 appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The Offering 10 Member also must provide the Remaining Members with the complete information of 2 MIA approved appraisers. The Remaining Members must pick one of the appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The medium of these 2 appraisals constitute the fair market value of the property which is called (FMV).

11 See Exhibit "B"; See also page 11 of Exhibit "E" (emphasis added). Thus, Section 4.2② makes clear
 12 that the term "FMV", as defined in Section 4.1④, means "[t]he medium of these 2 appraisals [being 13 the appraisal described earlier in Section 4.2②]." Because the term "FMV" is a defined term, it must 14 be given the meaning prescribed in Section 4.2②.

15 Having established that the term FMV refers exclusively to the result of the appraisal process
 16 outlined in Section 4.2②, we now turn to Sections 4.2⑤ and ⑥, which state:

- 17 ⑤ The Remaining Member(s) shall have 30 days within which to respond in 18 writing to the Offering Member by either
 19 (i) Accepting the Offering Member's purchase offer, or.
 20 (ii) Rejecting the purchase offer and making a counteroffer to purchase the interest of the Offering Member based upon the same fair market value (FMV) according to the following formula.
- 21 ⑥ (FMV - COP) x 0.5 + capital contribution of the Offering Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.

22 See Exhibit "B"; See also page 11 of Exhibit "E" (emphasis added).

23 As the forgoing makes clear, the Remaining Member's only option if it desires to make a
 24 counteroffer is to do so at the FMV as determined through the appraisal process outlined in Section
 25 4.2②. Nowhere in Sections 4.2⑤ or ⑥ does it give the Remaining Member the option of purchasing
 26 the Offering Member's membership interest at the offered price.⁵ That language simply does not

27 ⁵ Section 4.2⑤(i) does not specify offered price or FMV. This is because the Remaining Member can accept the Initial 28 Offer at the offered price, or demand an appraisal to determine FMV, then accept the Offering Member's offer to purchase at FMV. However, Section 4.2⑤(ii) does not give the Remaining Member the option of making a counteroffer at the offered price, but only at the FMV.

1 exist. Thus, the FMV referenced in Section 4.2⑤ is not the offered price contained in Bidsal's Initial 2 Offer, but must be determined through the appraisal process identified in Section 4.2②.

3 However, in CLAP's August 3, 2017 letter, CLAP specifically states that the counteroffer is 4 an offer to purchase Bidsal's membership interest "on the terms set forth in the July 7, 2017 letter
 5 based on your $5,000,00.00 valuation of the Company" or in other words, based upon the offered
 6 price. See Exhibit "J".

7 Because Section 4.2⑤(ii) does not allow CLAP to make a counteroffer for the offered price,
 8 CLAP's August 3, 2017 letter is non-responsive and does not constitute a valid response under the 9 terms of Section 4. As a result, Section 4.3 was triggered, meaning that as of August 7, 2017, CLAP
 10 had accepted Bidsal's Initial Offer and Bidsal is now entitled to purchase CLAP's membership interest 11 for the $5,000,000 offered price.

12 F. IF CLAP'S AUGUST 3, 2017 LETTER CONSTITUTES A VALID COUNTEROFFER,
 13 THE PLAIN LANGUAGE OF THE OPERATING AGREEMENT REQUIRES CLAP
 14 TO PAY THE "FMV" AS THAT TERM IS DEFINED IN THE OPERATING
 15 AGREEMENT.

16 However, even if the Arbitrator determines that CLAP's August 3, 2017 letter constitutes a
 17 valid response, the only response it qualifies for under Section 4 is a counteroffer pursuant to Section
 18 4.2⑤(ii). CLAP's August 3, 2017 letter is clearly not an acceptance of Bidsal's Initial Offer, as 19 provided for in Section 4.2⑤(i), nor is it a request for an appraisal as provided for in Section 4.2②.
 20 As such, the only response it could possibly qualify for is a non-response under Section 4.3 or a 21 counteroffer under Section 4.2⑤(ii).

22 If it is a counteroffer pursuant to Section 4.2⑤(ii), then, as outlined above, the only
 23 counteroffer allowed under the plain language of Section 4 is a counteroffer at FMV, which is defined
 24 in Sections 4.1④ and 4.2② as "The medium of these 2 appraisals." Section 4 simply does not give 25 CLAP the option of purchasing Bidsal's membership interest for the offered price.

26 If the August 3, 2017 letter constitutes a counteroffer, then the Arbitrator should order CLAP
 27 to complete the appraisal process identified in Section 4.2②, as originally requested by Bidsal in his 28 August 5, 2017 letter.

28 \\\

1 G. CLAP'S ARGUMENT RUNS CONTRARY TO THE PLAIN LANGUAGE OF
 2 SECTION 4.

3 CLAP is taking the position that it's August 3, 2017 letter constitutes a counteroffer to 4 purchase Bidsal's membership interest at the $5,000,000 offered price. However, this argument
 5 would require the Court to ignore Section 4.1④ as well as the plain language of Sections 4.2② and 6 4.2⑤.

7 As Sections 4.2⑤ and 4.2⑥ make clear, the formula to be used when the Remaining Offer
 8 makes a counteroffer is: "(FMV – COP) x 0.5 plus capital contribution of the Remaining Member(s)
 9 at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities." See Exhibit "B"; See also page 11
 10 of Exhibit "E". Because Sections 4.2⑤ and 4.2⑥ use the defined term "FMV", and because under 11 Sections Section 4.1④ and 4.2②, the term "FMV" is defined as the medium of two appraisals, any 12 counteroffer made by CLAP can only be based upon the "FMV" as determined by the medium of two 13 appraisals. See Exhibit "B"; See also pages 10-11 of Exhibit "E".

14 Nowhere in Sections 4.2⑤ and 4.2⑥ does the Operating Agreement give CLAP the 15 opportunity or right to purchase Bidsal's membership interest at the offered price. That language 16 simply does not exist.

17 Finally, CLAP will cite to and rely upon Section 4.2⑦ in support of its argument that it can 18 make a counteroffer at the offered price. However, as the opening line of Section 4.2⑦ makes clear,
 19 Section 4.2⑦ is not part of the buy-sell procedure, but is instead, simply a statement of intent and 20 clarifying language. This is confirmed not only from the first five words "The specific intent of this 21 provision is..." but also from the portion of Section 4.2⑦ which references the procedure set forth in 22 Sections 4.2① through 4.2⑥ where it states "according to the procedure set forth in Section 4." See
 23 Exhibit "B"; See also page 11 of Exhibit "E". Thus, while Section 4.2⑦ provides a statement of intent
 24 that helps clarify the intent of the parties, Section 4.2⑦ does not replace any of the procedure set forth
 25 in Sections 4.2① through 4.2⑥, but is instead reliant upon that procedure to effectuate the purpose
 26 and intent outlined therein. Put another way, Section 4.2⑦'s statement "according to the procedure
 27 set forth in Section 4" means that any result must comply with the provisions of Section 4.1, Sections
 28 4.2① through 4.2⑥, as well as Section 4.3, all of which deal with the buy-sell procedure. Thus, Section

1 4.2⑦ cannot be read independent of Sections 4.2① through 4.2⑥, but must be read in conjunction
2 with Sections 4.2① through 4.2⑥.

3 III.

4 CONCLUSION

5 There are two issues to be decided by the Arbitrator. The first issue is whether CLAP's August
6 3, 2017 letter constitutes a valid response under Section 4. If the answer to that question is no, then
7 the Arbitrator should rule that Bidsal is entitled to purchase CLAP's membership interest at the price
8 identified in Bidsal's July 7, 2017 Initial Offer. If the answer is yes, then the Arbitrator should rule
9 that CLAP's August 3, 2017 letter can only constitute a counteroffer as provided for in Section
10 4.2⑤(ii), which means CLAP is entitled to purchase Bidsal's membership interest for FMV, which is 11 defined as the medium of two appraisals, and the Arbitrator should order CLAP and Bidsal to 12 complete the appraisal process identified in Section 4.2②.

DECLARATION OF SHAWN BIDSAL

I, Shawn Bidsal, do hereby declare under penalty of perjury under the law of the State of Nevada in accordance with N.R.S. § 53.045 as follows:

1. I am a resident of the State of California.

2. On or about May 26, 2011, Benjamin Galshani ("Golshani"), acting on behalf of CLA Properties, LLC ("CLAP"), and I formed Green Valley Commerce, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (the "Company" or "Green Valley").

3. Thereafter, Golshani and I began working on the terms of a proposed operating agreement for the Company.

4. Golshani and I agreed to use David LeGrand ("LeGrand") to assist in preparing the operating agreement.

5. The initial draft of the proposed operating agreement did not contain any buy-out language.

6. On August 18, 2011, Golshani spoke with LeGrand to discuss the terms of the proposed operating agreement. See LeGrand's August 18, 2011 email, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "D" and incorporated herein by this reference.

7. Later that day, LeGrand circulated a revised operating agreement which did not include the language at issue. See Exhibit "D".

8. At some point after August 18, 2011, Golshani, on behalf of CLAP, and I signed the current version of the operating agreement (the "Operating Agreement"). A true and correct copy of Green Valley Operating Agreement signed by CLAP and Bidsal is attached hereto as Exhibit "E" and incorporated herein by this reference.

9. Golshani is the one who came up with the language in Section 4 of Article V of the Operating Agreement ("for ease of reference, this will be referred to simply as "Section 4.")

10. This fact is confirmed in an email from LeGrand sent on June 19, 2013, which stated:

Ben and Shawn: attached please find a new OPAG [operating agreement] for Mission Square. Apparently there was a little confusion about which GVC [Green Valley Commerce] OPAG I was to use as a base document. This revised version is based upon the GVC OPAG that has Ben's language on buy sell.

DECLARATION OF SHAWN BIDSAL

1 A true and correct copy of LeGrand's June 19, 2013 email is attached hereto as Exhibit "F" and
2 incorporated herein by this reference.

3 11. Attached to the email was a copy of one of the drafts of the Green Valley operating 4 agreement, as well as a proposed operating agreement for Mission Square. See Exhibit "F".

5 12. However, prior to signing the Mission Square operating agreement, the following
6 sentence was inserted at the front of the 3rd paragraph of Section 4.2: "After the determination of 7 the (FMV),". See page 10 of the Mission Square Operating Agreement, a true and correct copy of 8 which is attached hereto as Exhibit "G" and incorporated herein by this reference.

9 13. While the Mission Square Operating Agreement has many differences when 10 compared to the Green Valley Operating Agreement, outside of the forgoing sentence, Section 4.2
11 of both Operating Agreements are identical. See Exhibits "E" and "G".

12 14. Because of this, the additional language in the Mission Square operating agreement
13 is helpful in clarifying the intent of the parties relating to Section 4.2 of the Green Valley Operating 14 Agreement.

15 15. The present dispute revolves around Section 4 which is the buy-sell language
16 proposed and provided by Ben.

17 16. On July 7, 2017, I propounded a written Offer to purchase CLAP's Membership
18 Interest in the Company pursuant to Section 4 of the Operating Agreement at a price which I thought
19 was the fair market value. I am not an appraiser and I did not commission an appraisal before 20 submitting my offer. A true and correct copy of my Offer is attached hereto as Exhibit "H" and 21 incorporated herein by this reference.

22 17. On August 3, 2017, CLAP provided its response. A true and correct copy of CLAP's
23 Response is attached hereto as Exhibit "I" and incorporated herein by this reference.

24 18. On August 5, 2017, I sent a letter to CLAP. A true and correct copy of my August 25 5, 2017 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "J" and incorporated herein by this reference.

Flowchart of Section 4 of Operating Agreement

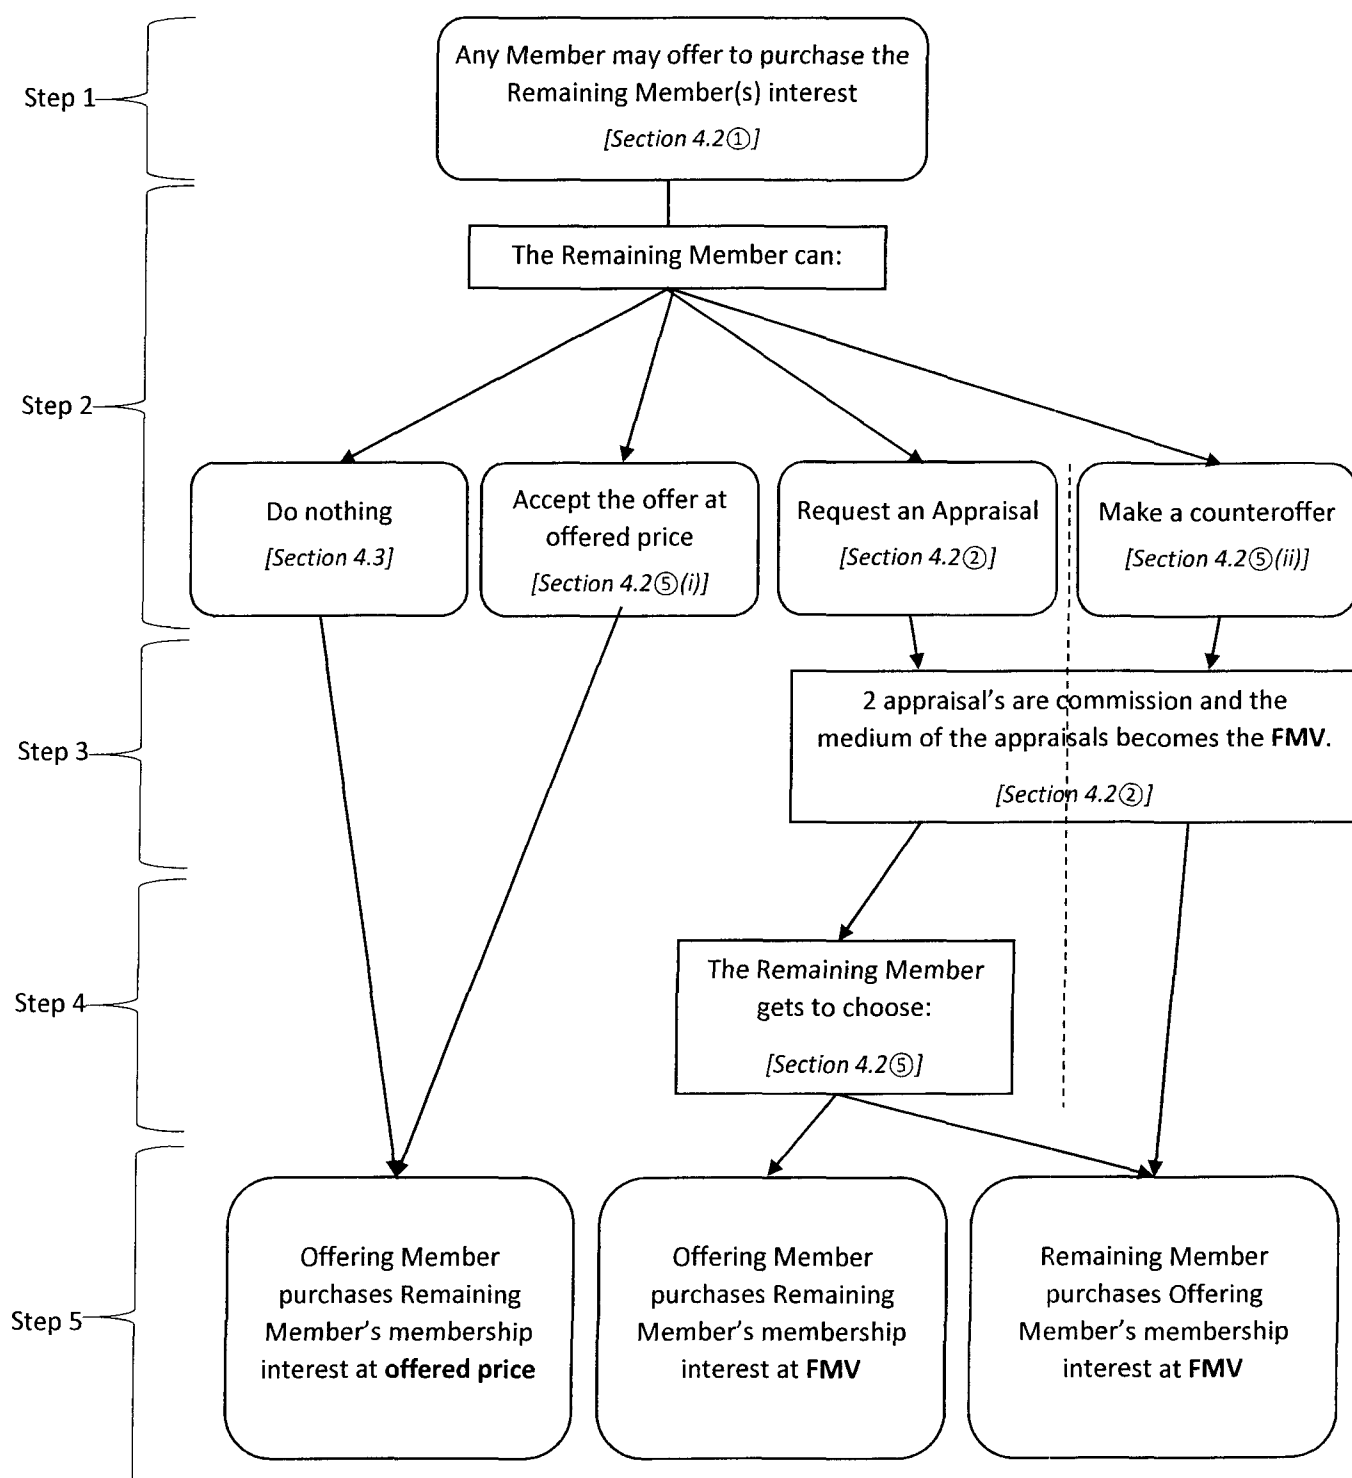

EXHIBIT "B"*(Section 4 of the Operating Agreement)Section 4.1 Definitions

- ① Offering Member means the member who offers to purchase the Membership Interest(s) of the Remaining Member(s). "Remaining Members" means the Members who received an offer (from Offering Member) to sell their shares.
- ② "COP" means "cost of purchase" as it specified in the escrow closing statement at the time of purchase of each property owned by the Company.
- ③ "Seller" means the Member that accepts the offer to sell his or its Membership Interest.
- ④ "FMV" means "fair market value" obtained as specified in section 4.2

Section 4.2 Purchase or Sell Procedure.

- ① Any Member ("Offering Member") may give notice to the Remaining Member(s) that he or it is ready, willing and able to purchase the Remaining Members' Interests for a price the Offering Member thinks is the fair market value. The terms to be all cash and close escrow within 30 days of the acceptance.
- ② If the offered price is not acceptable to the Remaining Member(s), within 30 days of receiving the offer, the Remaining Members (or any of them) can request to establish FMV based on the following procedure. The Remaining Member(s) must provide the Offering Member the complete information of 2 MIA appraisers. The Offering Member must pick one of the appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The Offering Member also must provide the Remaining Members with the complete information of 2 MIA approved appraisers. The Remaining Members must pick one of the appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The medium of these 2 appraisals constitute the fair market value of the property which is called (FMV).
- ③ *[After the determination of the (FMV),]*¹ The Offering Member has the option to offer to purchase the Remaining Member's share at FMV as determined by Section 4.2, based on the following formula.
- ④ $(FMV - COP) \times 0.5$ plus capital contribution of the Remaining Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.
- ⑤ The Remaining Member(s) shall have 30 days within which to respond in writing to the Offering Member by either
 - (i) Accepting the Offering Member's purchase offer, or.
 - (ii) Rejecting the purchase offer and making a counteroffer to purchase the interest of the Offering Member based upon the same fair market value (FMV) according to the following formula.
- ⑥ $(FMV - COP) \times 0.5 +$ capital contribution of the Offering Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.
- ⑦ The specific intent of this provision is that once the Offering Member presented his or its offer to the Remaining Members, then the Remaining Members shall either sell or buy at the same offered price (or FMV if appraisal is invoked) and according to the procedure set forth in Section 4. In the case that the Remaining Member(s) decide to purchase, then Offering Member shall be obligated to sell his or its Member Interests to the remaining Member(s).

Section 4.3 Failure to Respond Constitutes Acceptance

Failure by all or any of the Remaining Members to respond to the Offering Member's notice within the thirty (30 day) [sic] period shall be deemed to constitute an acceptance of the Offering Member.

¹ This language is not in the Green Valley Operating Agreement [Exhibit "G"], but was in the Mission Square operating agreement [Exhibit "H"], which was negotiated and signed at the same time. It's inclusion provides insight into the intent of Section 4.2, which is otherwise identical in both operating agreements.

Ben and Shawn, attached please find revised OPAG based on my conversation with Ben this morning. I modified the books and records provision, modified the ROFR to be for sales to third parties and added a "Dutch Auction" provision. The Dutch Auction only works if there are two members. If you bring in more Members it will be most complex. D

ARTICLE XI INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 1. Indemnification: Proceeding Other than by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification: Proceeding by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described in Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she must be indemnified by the Company against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense.

Section 4. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to Section 5, may be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by a majority of the Members if the person seeking indemnity is not a majority owner of the Member Interests or by independent legal counsel selected by the Manager in a written opinion.

Section 5. Mandatory Advancement of Expenses. The expenses of Managers, Members and officers incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Manager, Member or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The provisions of this Section 5 do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which personnel of the Company other than Managers, Members or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise.

Section 6. Effect and Continuation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Sections 1 – 5, inclusive:

(A) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Organization or any limited liability company agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Managers, if any, or otherwise, for either an action in his or her official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his or her office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Section 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to Section Article XI, may not be made to or on behalf of any Member, Manager or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(B) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(C) Notice of Indemnification and Advancement. Any indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company in accordance with this Article XI, if arising out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Company, shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice of the next Members' meeting.

(D) Repeal or Modification. Any repeal or modification of this Article XI by the Members of the Company shall not adversely affect any right of a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company existing hereunder at the time of such repeal or modification.

Without limiting the representations set forth above, and without limiting Article 12 of this Agreement, such Member will not make any disposition of all or any part of the Interests which will result in the violation by such Member or by the Company of the Securities Act or any other applicable securities laws. Without limiting the foregoing, each Member agrees not to make any disposition of all or any part of the Interests unless and until: (A) there is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition and such disposition is made in accordance with such registration statement and any applicable requirements of state securities laws; or (B) such Member has notified the Company of the proposed disposition and has furnished the Company with a detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the proposed disposition, and if reasonably requested by the Managers, such Member has furnished the Company with a written opinion of legal counsel, reasonably satisfactory to the Company, that such disposition will not require registration of any securities under the Securities Act or the consent of or a permit from appropriate authorities under any applicable state securities law or under the laws of any other jurisdiction.

That it understands that all projections and financial or other materials which it may have been furnished are not based on historical operating results, because no reliable results exist, and are based only upon estimates and assumptions which are subject to future conditions and events which are unpredictable and which may not be relied upon in making an investment decision.

- 4.3 Failure by all or any of the other Members to respond to the Notice within the thirty (30) day period shall be deemed to constitute a notification to the Offering Member of the decision of the non-responding Members not to exercise the first right and option to purchase the Offering Member's Interest under this Section. Upon the decision and notice by the other Members to purchase all the Offering Member's Interest, the parties to such purchase shall close such purchase within thirty (30) days thereafter.

Any Interest acquired by the purchasing Member pursuant to this Section 4 shall be subject to the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement.
- 4.5 Subject always to Article 5, Sections 2, 4.6 and 4.2, if the options specified herein are not exercised with respect to all of the Offering Member's Interest referred to in the Notice, then, within thirty (30) days after written notice is given by the Company that the options have not been exercised, the Offering Member may transfer all or any part of such Interest referred to in the Notice to any person or persons named as transferees, in the manner described; provided, however, that the Offering Member shall not transfer such Interest on terms more favorable to the purchaser than those specified in said Notice; and provided further, that any Interest disposed of and sold to such transferees shall remain subject to the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement. The Offering Member shall obtain an appraisal in writing from a qualified real estate appraiser and provide a copy of such appraisal to the other Member(s) attached to a notice setting forth the proposed offer to sell. The other Member(s) shall have ten (10) business days within which to respond in writing to the Offering Member by either (i) accepting the Offering Member's offer to sell; or, (ii) rejecting the offer to sell and counteroffering to sell his or its Member Interest to the Offering Member based upon the same appraisal and fair market value formula as set forth above. Members to exercise the right to sell in lieu of purchase and therefore constitutes an acceptance of the offer to purchase the Offering Member's Interest pursuant to Section 7.1. I. Tax Provisions.

The provisions of Exhibit A, attached hereto are incorporated by reference as if fully rewritten herein.

ARTICLE XI INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 1. Indemnification: Proceeding Other than by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification: Proceeding by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described in Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she must be indemnified by the Company against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense.

Section 4. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to Section 5, may be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by a majority of the Members if the person seeking indemnity is not a majority owner of the Member Interests or by independent legal counsel selected by the Manager in a written opinion.

Section 5. Mandatory Advancement of Expenses. The expenses of Managers, Members and officers incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Manager, Member or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The provisions of this Section 5 do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which personnel of the Company other than Managers, Members or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise.

Section 6. Effect and Continuation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Sections 1 – 5, inclusive:

(A) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Organization or any limited liability company agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Managers, if any, or otherwise, for either an action in his or her official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his or her office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Section 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to Section Article XI, may not be made to or on behalf of any Member, Manager or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(B) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(C) Notice of Indemnification and Advancement. Any indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company in accordance with this Article XI, if arising out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Company, shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice of the next Members' meeting.

(D) Repeal or Modification. Any repeal or modification of this Article XI by the Members of the Company shall not adversely affect any right of a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company existing hereunder at the time of such repeal or modification.

TAX PROVISIONS

EXHIBIT A

1.1 Capital Accounts.

- 7.1.2 A single Capital Account shall be maintained for each Member (regardless of the class of Interests owned by such Member and regardless of the time or manner in which such Interests were acquired) in accordance with the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code, and the regulations thereunder (including without limitation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv) of the Income Tax Regulations). In general, under such rules, a Member's Capital Account shall be:
- 7.1.2.1 increased by (i) the amount of money contributed by the Member to the Company (including the amount of any Company liabilities that are assumed by such Member other than in connection with distribution of Company property), (ii) the fair market value of property contributed by the Member to the Company (net of liabilities secured by such contributed property that under Section 752 of the Code the Company is considered to assume or take subject to), and (iii) allocations to the Member of Company income and gain (or item thereof), including income and gain exempt from tax; and
- 7.1.2.2 decreased by (i) the amount of money distributed to the Member by the Company (including the amount of such Member's individual liabilities that are assumed by the Company other than in connection with contribution of property to the Company), (ii) the fair market value of property distributed to the Member by the Company (net of liabilities secured by such distributed property that under Section 752 of the Code such Member is considered to assume or take subject to), (iii) allocations to the Member of expenditures of the Company not deductible in computing its taxable income and not properly chargeable to capital account, and (iv) allocations to the Member of Company loss and deduction (or item thereof).
- 7.1.3 Where Section 704(c) of the Code applies to Company property or where Company property is revalued pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(t) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, each Member's Capital Account shall be adjusted in accordance with paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(g) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations as to allocations to the Members of depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss, as computed for book purposes with respect to such property.
- 7.1.4 When Company property is distributed in kind (whether in connection with liquidation and dissolution or otherwise), the Capital Accounts of the Members shall first be adjusted to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss and deduction inherent in such property (that has not been reflected in the Capital Account previously) would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of such property for the fair market value of such property (taking into account Section 7701(g) of the Code) on the date of distribution.

- 7.1.5 The Members shall direct the Company's accountants to make all necessary adjustments in each Member's Capital Account as required by the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

ALLOCATION OF PROFITS AND LOSSES; TAX AND ACCOUNTING MATTERS

- 8.1 Allocations. Each Member's distributive share of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or items thereof) of the Company as shown on the annual federal income tax return prepared by the Company's accountants or as finally determined by the United States Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and as modified by the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code and the Income Tax Regulations thereunder, as implemented by Section 8.5 hereof, as applicable, shall be determined as follows:

- 8.1.2 Allocations. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 1.1:

- 8.1.2.1 items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or items thereof) shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their Percentage Interests as set forth in Exhibit "B", subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B", except that items of loss or deduction allocated to any Member pursuant to this Section 2.1 with respect to any taxable year shall not exceed the maximum amount of such items that can be so allocated without causing such Member to have a deficit balance in his or its Capital Account at the end of such year, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations. Any such items of loss or deduction in excess of the limitation set forth in the preceding sentence shall be allocated as follows and in the following order of priority:

- 8.1.2.1.1 first, to those Members who would not be subject to such limitation, in proportion to their Percentage Interests, subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B"; and

- 8.1.2.1.2 second, any remaining amount to the Members in the manner required by the Code and Income Tax Regulations.

Subject to the provisions of subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.11, inclusive, of this Agreement, the items specified in this Section 1.1 shall be allocated to the

Members as necessary to eliminate any deficit Capital Account balances and thereafter to bring the relationship among the Members' positive Capital Account balances in accord with their pro rata interests.

- 8.1.3 Allocations With Respect to Property Solely for tax purposes, in determining each Member's allocable share of the taxable income or loss of the Company, depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss with respect to any contributed property, or with respect to revalued property where the Company's property is revalued pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(f) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, shall be allocated to the Members in the manner (as to revaluations, in the same manner as) provided in Section 704(c) of the Code. The allocation shall take into account, to the full extent required or permitted by the Code, the difference between the adjusted basis of the property to the Member contributing it (or, with respect to property which has been revalued, the adjusted basis of the property to the Company) and the fair market value of the property determined by the Members at the time of its contribution or revaluation, as the case may be.
- 8.1.4 Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain or Company Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain (as such terms are defined in Sections 1.704-2(b) and 1.704-2(i)(2) of the Income Tax Regulations, but substituting the term "Company" for the term "Partnership" as the context requires) during a Company taxable year, then each Member shall be allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, for subsequent years) in the manner provided in Section 1.704-2 of the Income Tax Regulations. This provision is intended to be a "minimum gain chargeback" within the meaning of Sections 1.704-2(f) and 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 8.1.5 Qualified Income Offset. Subject to the provisions of subsection 2.1.3, but otherwise notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if any Member's Capital Account has a deficit balance in excess of such Member's obligation to restore his or its Capital Account balance, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, then sufficient amounts of income and gain (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income, and gain for such year) shall be allocated to such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate such deficit as quickly as possible. This provision is intended to be a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 8.1.6 Depreciation Recapture. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, gain recognized (or deemed recognized under the provisions hereof) upon the sale or other disposition of Company property, which is subject to depreciation recapture, shall be allocated to the Member who was entitled to deduct such depreciation.

- 8.1.7 Loans If and to the extent any Member is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, any corresponding resulting deduction of the Company shall be allocated to the Member who is charged with the income. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, if and to the extent the Company is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, such income shall be allocated to the Member who is entitled to any corresponding resulting deduction.
- 8.1.8 Tax Credits Tax credits shall generally be allocated according to Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(ii) of the Income Tax Regulations or as otherwise provided by law. Investment tax credits with respect to any property shall be allocated to the Members pro rata in accordance with the manner in which Company profits are allocated to the Members under subsection 2.1.1 hereof, as of the time such property is placed in service. Recapture of any investment tax credit required by Section 47 of the Code shall be allocated to the Members in the same proportion in which such investment tax credit was allocated.
- 8.1.9 Change of Pro Rata Interests. Except as provided in subsections 2.1.6 and 2.1.7 hereof or as otherwise required by law, if the proportionate interests of the Members of the Company are changed during any taxable year, all items to be allocated to the Members for such entire taxable year shall be prorated on the basis of the portion of such taxable year which precedes each such change and the portion of such taxable year on and after each such change according to the number of days in each such portion, and the items so allocated for each such portion shall be allocated to the Members in the manner in which such items are allocated as provided in section 2.1.1 during each such portion of the taxable year in question.
- 8.1.10 Effect of Special Allocations on Subsequent Allocations. Any special allocation of income or gain pursuant to subsections 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof shall be taken into account in computing subsequent allocations of income and gain pursuant to this Section 9.1 so that the net amount of all such allocations to each Member shall, to the extent possible, be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Member pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.1 if such special allocations of income or gain under subsection 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof had not occurred.
- 8.1.11 Nonrecourse and Recourse Debt. Items of deduction and loss attributable to Member nonrecourse debt within the meaning of Section 1.7042(b)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations shall be allocated to the Members bearing the economic risk of loss with respect to such debt in accordance with Section 1704-2(i)(l) of the Income Tax Regulations. Items of deduction and loss attributable to recourse liabilities of the Company, within the meaning of Section 1.752-2 of the Income Tax Regulations, shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with the ratio in which the Members share the economic risk of loss for such liabilities.

- 8.1.12 State and Local Items. Items of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit and tax preference for state and local income tax purposes shall be allocated to and among the Members in a manner consistent with the allocation of such items for federal income tax purposes in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.1.

- 8.2 Accounting Matters. The Managers or, if there be no Managers then in office, the Members shall cause to be maintained complete books and records accurately reflecting the accounts, business and transactions of the Company on a calendar-year basis and using such cash, accrual, or hybrid method of accounting as in the judgment of the Manager, Management Committee or the Members, as the case may be, is most appropriate; provided, however, that books and records with respect to the Company's Capital Accounts and allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or item thereof) shall be kept under U.S. federal income tax accounting principles as applied to partnerships.

8.3 Tax Status, Returns and Books.

- 8.3.2 Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, solely for United States federal income tax purposes, each of the Members hereby recognizes that the Company may be subject to the provisions of Subchapter K of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Code; provided, however, the filing of U.S. Partnership Returns of Income shall not be construed to extend the purposes of the Company or expand the obligations or liabilities of the Members.
- 8.3.3 The Manager(s) shall prepare or cause to be prepared all tax returns and statements, if any, that must be filed on behalf of the Company with any taxing authority, and shall make timely filing thereof. Within one-hundred twenty (120) days after the end of each calendar year, the Manager(s) shall prepare or cause to be prepared and delivered to each Member a report setting forth in reasonable detail the information with respect to the Company during such calendar year reasonably required to enable each Member to prepare his or its federal, state and local income tax returns in accordance with applicable law then prevailing.
- 8.3.4 Unless otherwise provided by the Code or the Income Tax Regulations thereunder, the current Manager(s), or if no Manager(s) shall have been elected, the Member holding the largest Percentage Interest, or if the Percentage Interests be equal, any Member shall be deemed to be the "Tax

Section 1. Indemnification: Proceeding Other than by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification: Proceeding by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals there from, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described in Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she must be indemnified by the Company against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense.

Section 4. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to Section 5, may be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by a majority of the Members if the person seeking indemnity is not a majority owner of the Member Interests or by independent legal counsel selected by the Manager in a written opinion.

Section 5. Mandatory Advancement of Expenses. The expenses of Managers, Members and officers incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Manager, Member or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The provisions of this Section 5 do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which personnel of the Company other than Managers, Members or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise.

Section 6. Effect and Continuation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Sections 1 – 5, inclusive:

(A) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Organization or any limited liability company agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Managers, if any, or otherwise, for either an action in his or her official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his or her office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Section 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to Section Article XI, may not be made to or on behalf of any Member, Manager or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(B) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(C) Notice of Indemnification and Advancement. Any indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company in accordance with this Article XI, if arising out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Company, shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice of the next Members' meeting.

In general, under such rules, a Member's Capital Account shall be:
- 4.1.1.1 increased by (i) the amount of money contributed by the Member to the Company (including the amount of any Company liabilities that are assumed by such Member other than in connection with distribution of Company property), (ii) the fair market value of property contributed by the Member to the Company (net of liabilities secured by such contributed property that under Section 752 of the Code the Company is considered to assume or take subject to), and (iii) allocations to the Member of Company income and gain (or item thereof), including income and gain exempt from tax; and
- 4.1.1.2 decreased by (i) the amount of money distributed to the Member by the Company (including the amount of such Member's individual liabilities that are assumed by the Company other than in connection with contribution of property to the Company), (ii) the fair market value of property distributed to the Member by the Company (net of liabilities secured by such distributed property that under Section 752 of the Code such Member is considered to assume or take subject to), (iii) allocations to the Member of expenditures of the Company not deductible in computing its taxable income and not properly chargeable to capital account, and (iv) allocations to the Member of Company loss and deduction (or item thereof).
- 4.1.2 Where Section 704(c) of the Code applies to Company property or where Company property is revalued pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(t) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, each Member's Capital Account shall be adjusted in accordance with paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(g) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations as to allocations to the Members of depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss, as computed for book purposes with respect to such property.
- 4.1.3 When Company property is distributed in kind (whether in connection with liquidation and dissolution or otherwise), the Capital Accounts of the Members shall first be adjusted to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss and deduction inherent in such property (that has not been reflected in the Capital Account previously) would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of such property for the fair market value of such property (taking into account Section 7701 (g) of the Code) on the date of distribution.

- 4.1.4 The Members shall direct the Company's accountants to make all necessary adjustments in each Member's Capital Account as required by the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code and the regulations there under.

ALLOCATION OF PROFITS AND LOSSES; TAX AND ACCOUNTING MATTERS

- 5.1 Allocations. Each Member's distributive share of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or items thereof) of the Company as shown on the annual federal income tax return prepared by the Company's accountants or as finally determined by the United States Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and as modified by the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code and the Income Tax Regulations there under, as implemented by Section 8.5 hereof, as applicable, shall be determined as follows:

- 5.1.1 Allocations. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 1.1:

- 5.1.1.1 items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or items thereof) shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their Percentage Interests as set forth in Exhibit "B", subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B", except that items of loss or deduction allocated to any Member pursuant to this Section 2.1 with respect to any taxable year shall not exceed the maximum amount of such items that can be so allocated without causing such Member to have a deficit balance in his or its Capital Account at the end of such year, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations. Any such items of loss or deduction in excess of the limitation set forth in the preceding sentence shall be allocated as follows and in the following order of priority:

- 5.1.1.1.1 first, to those Members who would not be subject to such limitation, in proportion to their Percentage Interests, subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B"; and

- 5.1.1.1.2 Second, any remaining amount to the Members in the manner required by the Code and Income Tax Regulations.

Subject to the provisions of subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.11, inclusive, of this Agreement, the items specified in this Section 1.1 shall be allocated to the

B 6, 8

- 5.1.2 Allocations With Respect to Property Solely for tax purposes, in determining each Member's allocable share of the taxable income or loss of the Company, depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss with respect to any contributed property, or with respect to revalued property where the Company's property is revalued pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(f) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, shall be allocated to the Members in the manner (as to revaluations, in the same manner as) provided in Section 704(c) of the Code. The allocation shall take into account, to the full extent required or permitted by the Code, the difference between the adjusted basis of the property to the Member contributing it (or, with respect to property which has been revalued, the adjusted basis of the property to the Company) and the fair market value of the property determined by the Members at the time of its contribution or revaluation, as the case may be.
- 5.1.3 Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain or Company Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain (as such terms are defined in Sections 1.704-2(b) and 1.704-2(i)(2) of the Income Tax Regulations, but substituting the term "Company" for the term "Partnership" as the context requires) during a Company taxable year, then each Member shall be allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, for subsequent years) in the manner provided in Section 1.704-2 of the Income Tax Regulations. This provision is intended to be a "minimum gain chargeback" within the meaning of Sections 1.704-2(f) and 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 5.1.4 Qualified Income Offset. Subject to the provisions of subsection 2.1.3, but otherwise notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if any Member's Capital Account has a deficit balance in excess of such Member's obligation to restore his or its Capital Account balance, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, then sufficient amounts of income and gain (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income, and gain for such year) shall be allocated to such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate such deficit as quickly as possible. This provision is intended to be a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 5.1.5 Depreciation Recapture. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, gain recognized (or deemed recognized under the provisions hereof) upon the sale or other disposition of Company property, which is subject to depreciation recapture, shall be allocated to the Member who was entitled to deduct such depreciation.

- 5.1.6 Loans If and to the extent any Member is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, any corresponding resulting deduction of the Company shall be allocated to the Member who is charged with the income. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, if and to the extent the Company is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, such income shall be allocated to the Member who is entitled to any corresponding resulting deduction.
- 5.1.7 Tax Credits Tax credits shall generally be allocated according to Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(ii) of the Income Tax Regulations or as otherwise provided by law. Investment tax credits with respect to any property shall be allocated to the Members pro rata in accordance with the manner in which Company profits are allocated to the Members under subsection 2.1.1 hereof, as of the time such property is placed in service. Recapture of any investment tax credit required by Section 47 of the Code shall be allocated to the Members in the same proportion in which such investment tax credit was allocated.
- 5.1.8 Change of Pro Rata Interests. Except as provided in subsections 2.1.6 and 2.1.7 hereof or as otherwise required by law, if the proportionate interests of the Members of the Company are changed during any taxable year, all items to be allocated to the Members for such entire taxable year shall be prorated on the basis of the portion of such taxable year which precedes each such change and the portion of such taxable year on and after each such change according to the number of days in each such portion, and the items so allocated for each such portion shall be allocated to the Members in the manner in which such items are allocated as provided in section 2.1.1 during each such portion of the taxable year in question.
- 5.1.9 Effect of Special Allocations on Subsequent Allocations. Any special allocation of income or gain pursuant to subsections 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof shall be taken into account in computing subsequent allocations of income and gain pursuant to this Section 9.1 so that the net amount of all such allocations to each Member shall, to the extent possible, be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Member pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.1 if such special allocations of income or gain under subsection 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof had not occurred.
- 5.1.10 Nonrecourse and Recourse Debt. Items of deduction and loss attributable to Member nonrecourse debt within the meaning of Section 1.7042(b)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations shall be allocated to the Members bearing the economic risk of loss with respect to such debt in accordance with Section 1704-2(i)(1) of the Income Tax Regulations. Items of deduction and loss attributable to recourse liabilities of the Company, within the meaning of Section 1.752-2 of the Income Tax Regulations, shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with the ratio in which the Members share the economic risk of loss for such liabilities.

- 5.1.11 State and Local Items. Items of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit and tax preference for state and local income tax purposes shall be allocated to and among the Members in a manner consistent with the allocation of such items for federal income tax purposes in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.1.

- 5.2 Accounting Matters. The Managers or, if there be no Managers then in office, the Members shall cause to be maintained complete books and records accurately reflecting the accounts, business and transactions of the Company on a calendar-year basis and using such cash, accrual, or hybrid method of accounting as in the judgment of the Manager, Management Committee or the Members, as the case may be, is most appropriate; provided, however, that books and records with respect to the Company's Capital Accounts and allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or item thereof) shall be kept under U.S. federal income tax accounting principles as applied to partnerships.

5.3 Tax Status and Returns.

- 5.3.1 Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, solely for United States federal income tax purposes, each of the Members hereby recognizes that the Company may be subject to the provisions of Subchapter K of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Code; provided, however, the filing of U.S. Partnership Returns of Income shall not be construed to extend the purposes of the Company or expand the obligations or liabilities of the Members.
- 5.3.2 The Manager(s) shall prepare or cause to be prepared all tax returns and statements, if any, that must be filed on behalf of the Company with any taxing authority, and shall make timely filing thereof. Within one-hundred twenty (120) days after the end of each calendar year, the Manager(s) shall prepare or cause to be prepared and delivered to each Member a report setting forth in reasonable detail the information with respect to the Company during such calendar year reasonably required to enable each Member to prepare his or its federal, state and local income tax returns in accordance with applicable law then prevailing.

Ben and Shawn: attached please find a new OPAG for Mission Square. Apparently there was a little confusion about which GVC OPAG I was to use as a base document. This revised version is based on the GVC OPAG that has Ben's language on buy sell.

I am attaching that document as well, just for clarity. Of course, there is no additional fees due to me for this work and I take responsibility for using the form sent by Shawn instead of checking my file.

I regret any inconvenience.

The terms to be all cash and close escrow within 30 days of the acceptance.

If the offered price is not acceptable to the Remaining Member(s), within 30 days of receiving the offer, the Remaining Members (or any of them) can request to establish FMV based on the following procedure. The specific intent of this provision is that once the Offering Member presented his or its offer to the Remaining Members, then the Remaining Members shall either sell or buy at the same offered price (or FMV if appraisal is invoked) and according to the procedure set forth in Section 4.. In the case that the Remaining Member(s) decide to purchase, then Offering Member shall be obligated to sell his or its Member Interests to the remaining Member(s).

Section 1. Indemnification: Proceeding Other than by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification: Proceeding by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described in Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she must be indemnified by the Company against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense.

Section 4. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to Section 5, may be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by a majority of the Members if the person seeking indemnity is not a majority owner of the Member Interests or by independent legal counsel selected by the Manager in a written opinion.

Section 5. Mandatory Advancement of Expenses. The expenses of Managers, Members and officers incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Manager, Member or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The provisions of this Section 5 do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which personnel of the Company other than Managers, Members or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise.

Section 6. Effect and Continuation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Sections 1 – 5, inclusive:

(A) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Organization or any limited liability company agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Managers, if any, or otherwise, for either an action in his or her official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his or her office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Section 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to Section Article XI, may not be made to or on behalf of any Member, Manager or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(B) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(C) Notice of Indemnification and Advancement. Any indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company in accordance with this Article XI, if arising out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Company, shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice of the next Members' meeting.

(D) Repeal or Modification. Any repeal or modification of this Article XI by the Members of the Company shall not adversely affect any right of a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company existing hereunder at the time of such repeal or modification.

5.1.1 Allocations. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 1.1:

5.1.1.1 items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or items thereof) shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their Percentage Interests as set forth in Exhibit "B", subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B", except that items of loss or deduction allocated to any Member pursuant to this Section 2.1 with respect to any taxable year shall not exceed the maximum amount of such items that can be so allocated without causing such Member to have a deficit balance in his or its Capital Account at the end of such year, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations. Any such items of loss or deduction in excess of the limitation set forth in the preceding sentence shall be allocated as follows and in the following order of priority:

5.1.1.1.1 first, to those Members who would not be subject to such limitation, in proportion to their Percentage Interests, subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B"; and

5.1.1.1.2 second, any remaining amount to the Members in the manner required by the Code and Income Tax Regulations.

Subject to the provisions of subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.11, inclusive, of this Agreement, the items specified in this Section 1.1 shall be allocated to the

Members as necessary to eliminate any deficit Capital Account balances and thereafter to bring the relationship among the Members' positive Capital Account balances in accord with their pro rata interests.

The allocation shall take into account, to the full extent required or permitted by the Code, the difference between the adjusted basis of the property to the Member contributing it (or, with respect to property which has been revalued, the adjusted basis of the property to the Company) and the fair market value of the property determined by the Members at the time of its contribution or revaluation, as the case may be.
- 5.1.3 Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain or Company Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain (as such terms are defined in Sections 1.704-2(b) and 1.704-2(i)(2) of the Income Tax Regulations, but substituting the term "Company" for the term "Partnership" as the context requires) during a Company taxable year, then each Member shall be allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, for subsequent years) in the manner provided in Section 1.704-2 of the Income Tax Regulations. This provision is intended to be a "minimum gain chargeback" within the meaning of Sections 1.704-2(f) and 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 5.1.4 Qualified Income Offset. Subject to the provisions of subsection 2.1.3, but otherwise notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if any Member's Capital Account has a deficit balance in excess of such Member's obligation to restore his or its Capital Account balance, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, then sufficient amounts of income and gain (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income, and gain for such year) shall be allocated to such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate such deficit as quickly as possible. This provision is intended to be a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 5.1.5 Depreciation Recapture. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, gain recognized (or deemed recognized under the provisions hereof) upon the sale or other disposition of Company property, which is subject to depreciation recapture, shall be allocated to the Member who was entitled to deduct such depreciation.

- 5.1.6 Loans If and to the extent any Member is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, any corresponding resulting deduction of the Company shall be allocated to the Member who is charged with the income. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, if and to the extent the Company is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, such income shall be allocated to the Member who is entitled to any corresponding resulting deduction.

Investment tax credits with respect to any property shall be allocated to the Members pro rata in accordance with the manner in which Company profits are allocated to the Members under subsection 2.1.1 hereof, as of the time such property is placed in service. Recapture of any investment tax credit required by Section 47 of the Code shall be allocated to the Members in the same proportion in which such investment tax credit was allocated.
- 5.1.8 Change of Pro Rata Interests. Except as provided in subsections 2.1.6 and 2.1.7 hereof or as otherwise required by law, if the proportionate interests of the Members of the Company are changed during any taxable year, all items to be allocated to the Members for such entire taxable year shall be prorated on the basis of the portion of such taxable year which precedes each such change and the portion of such taxable year on and after each such change according to the number of days in each such portion, and the items so allocated for each such portion shall be allocated to the Members in the manner in which such items are allocated as provided in section 2.1.1 during each such portion of the taxable year in question.
- 5.1.9 Effect of Special Allocations on Subsequent Allocations. Any special allocation of income or gain pursuant to subsections 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof shall be taken into account in computing subsequent allocations of income and gain pursuant to this Section 9.1 so that the net amount of all such allocations to each Member shall, to the extent possible, be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Member pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.1 if such special allocations of income or gain under subsection 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof had not occurred.
- 5.1.10 Nonrecourse and Recourse Debt. Items of deduction and loss attributable to Member nonrecourse debt within the meaning of Section 1.7042(b)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations shall be allocated to the Members bearing the economic risk of loss with respect to such debt in accordance with Section 1704-2(i)(1) of the Income Tax Regulations. Items of deduction and loss attributable to recourse liabilities of the Company, within the meaning of Section 1.752-2 of the Income Tax Regulations, shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with the ratio in which the Members share the economic risk of loss for such liabilities.

5.3 Tax Status and Returns.

- 5.3.1 Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, solely for United States federal income tax purposes, each of the Members hereby recognizes that the Company may be subject to the provisions of Subchapter K of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Code; provided, however, the filing of U.S. Partnership Returns of Income shall not be construed to extend the purposes of the Company or expand the obligations or liabilities of the Members.
- 5.3.2 The Manager(s) shall prepare or cause to be prepared all tax returns and statements, if any, that must be filed on behalf of the Company with any taxing authority, and shall make timely filing thereof. Members may be subject to additional contributions to capital as determined by the unanimous approval of Members.

Section 02 Transfer or Assignment of Membership Interest.

A Member's interest in the Limited Liability Company is personal property. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a Member's interest may be transferred or assigned. If the other (non-transferring) Members of the Limited Liability Company other than the Member proposing to dispose of his/her interest do not approve of the proposed transfer or assignment by unanimous written consent, the transferee of the Member's interest has no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Limited Liability Company or to become a member. The transferee is only entitled to receive the share of profits or other compensation by way of income, and the return of contributions, to which that Member would otherwise be entitled.

Section 3. Right of First Refusal for Sales of Interests by Members. Payment of Purchase Price.

The payment of the purchase price shall be in cash or, if non-cash consideration is used, it shall be subject to this Article V, Section 3 and Section 4.

Section 4. Purchase or Sell Right among Members.

In the event that a Member is willing to purchase the Remaining Member's Interest in the Company then the procedures and terms of Section 7.1 shall apply.

Section 4.1 Definitions

Offering Member means the member who offers to purchase the Membership Interest(s) of the Remaining Member(s). "Remaining Members" means the Members who received an offer (from Offering Member) to sell their shares.

"COP" means "cost of purchase" as it specified in the escrow closing statement at the time of purchase of each property owned by the Company.

"Seller" means the Member that accepts the offer to sell his or its Membership Interest.

"FMV" means "fair market value" obtained as specified in section 7.2.

Section 4.2 Purchase or Sell Procedure.

Any Member ("Offering Member") may give notice to the Remaining Member(s) that he or it is ready, willing and able to purchase the Remaining Members' Interests for a price the Offering Member thinks is the fair market value. The terms to be all cash and close escrow within 30 days of the acceptance.

If the offered price is not acceptable to the Remaining Member(s), within 30 days of receiving the offer, the Remaining Members (or any of them) can request to establish FMV based on the following procedure. The Remaining Member(s) must provide the Offering Member the complete information of 2 MIA appraisers. The Offering Member must pick one of the appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The Offering Member also must provide the Remaining Members with the complete information of 2 MIA approved appraisers. The Remaining Members must pick one of the appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The medium of these 2 appraisals constitute the fair market value of the property which is called (FMV).

The Offering Member has the option to offer to purchase the Remaining Member's share at FMV as determined by Section 4.2., based on the following formula.

$(FMV - COP) \times 0.5$ plus capital contribution of the Remaining Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.

The Remaining Member(s) shall have 30 days within which to respond in writing to the Offering Member by either

- (i) accepting the Offering Member's purchase offer, or,
- (ii) rejecting the purchase offer and making a counteroffer to purchase the interest of the Offering Member based upon the same fair market value (FMV) according to the following formula.

$(FMV - COP) \times 0.5 +$ capital contribution of the Offering Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.

The specific intent of this provision is that once the Offering Member presented his or its offer to the Remaining Members, then the Remaining Members shall either sell or buy at the same offered price (or FMV if appraisal is invoked) and according to the procedure set forth in Section 4.. In the case that the Remaining Member(s) decide to purchase, then Offering Member shall be obligated to sell his or its Member Interests to the remaining Member(s).

Section 4.3 Failure To Respond Constitutes Acceptance.

Failure by all or any of the Remaining Members to respond to the Offering Member's notice within the thirty (30 day) period shall be deemed to constitute an acceptance of the Offering Member.

Section 5. Return of Contributions to Capital.

Return to a Member of his/her contribution to capital shall be as determined and permitted by law and this Agreement.

Section 6. Addition of New Members.

Section 1. Indemnification: Proceeding Other than by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification: Proceeding by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described in Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she must be indemnified by the Company against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense.

Section 4. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to Section 5, may be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by a majority of the Members if the person seeking indemnity is not a majority owner of the Member Interests or by independent legal counsel selected by the Manager in a written opinion.

Section 5. Mandatory Advancement of Expenses. The expenses of Managers, Members and officers incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Manager, Member or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The provisions of this Section 5 do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which personnel of the Company other than Managers, Members or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise.

Section 6. Effect and Continuation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Sections 1 – 5, inclusive:

(A) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Organization or any limited liability company agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Managers, if any, or otherwise, for either an action in his or her official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his or her office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Section 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to Section Article XI, may not be made to or on behalf of any Member, Manager or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(B) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(C) Notice of Indemnification and Advancement. Any indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company in accordance with this Article XI, if arising out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Company, shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice of the next Members' meeting.

(D) Repeal or Modification. Any repeal or modification of this Article XI by the Members of the Company shall not adversely affect any right of a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company existing hereunder at the time of such repeal or modification.

Any such items of loss or deduction in excess of the limitation set forth in the preceding sentence shall be allocated as follows and in the following order of priority:

ARTICLE XI
INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 1. Indemnification: Proceeding Other than by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification: Proceeding by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described in Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she must be indemnified by the Company against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense.

Section 4. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to Section 5, may be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by a majority of the Members if the person seeking indemnity is not a majority owner of the Member Interests or by independent legal counsel selected by the Manager in a written opinion.

Section 5. Mandatory Advancement of Expenses. The expenses of Managers, Members and officers incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Manager, Member or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The provisions of this Section 5 do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which personnel of the Company other than Managers, Members or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise.

Section 6. Effect and Continuation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Sections 1 – 5, inclusive:

(A) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Organization or any limited liability company agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Managers, if any, or otherwise, for either an action in his or her official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his or her office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Section 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to Section Article XI, may not be made to or on behalf of any Member, Manager or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(B) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(C) Notice of Indemnification and Advancement. Any indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company in accordance with this Article XI, if arising out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Company, shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice of the next Members' meeting.

(D) Repeal or Modification. Any repeal or modification of this Article XI by the Members of the Company shall not adversely affect any right of a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company existing hereunder at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XII INVESTMENT REPRESENTATIONS; PRIVATE OFFERING EXEMPTION

Each Member, by his or its execution of this Agreement, hereby represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Managers, the other Members and the Company as follows:

Section 1. Pre-existing Relationship or Experience. (i) Such Member has a preexisting personal or business relationship with the Company or one or more of its officers or control persons or (ii) by reason of his or its business or financial experience, or by reason of the business or financial experience of his or its financial advisor who is unaffiliated with and who is not compensated, directly or indirectly, by the Company or any affiliate or selling agent of the Company, such Member is capable of evaluating the risks and merits of an investment in the Company and of protecting his or its own interests in connection with this investment.

Section 2. No Advertising. Such Member has not seen, received, been presented with or been solicited by any leaflet, public promotional meeting, newspaper or magazine article or advertisement, radio or television advertisement, or any other form of advertising or general solicitation with respect to the offer or sale of Interests in the Company.

Section 3. Investment Intent. Such Member is acquiring the Interest for investment purposes for his or its own account only and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of all or any part of the Interest.

Section 4. Economic Risk. Such Member is financially able to bear the economic risk of his or its investment in the Company, including the total loss thereof.

Section 5. No Registration of Units. Such Member acknowledges that the Interests have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or qualified under any state securities law or under the laws of any other jurisdiction, in reliance, in part, on such Member's representations, warranties and agreements herein.

Section 6. No Obligation to Register. Such Member represents, warrants and agrees that the Company and the Managers are under no obligation to register or qualify the Interests under the Securities Act or under any state securities law or under the laws of any other jurisdiction, or to assist such Member in complying with any exemption from registration and qualification.

Section 7. No Disposition in Violation of Law. Without limiting the representations set forth above, and without limiting Article 12 of this Agreement, such Member will not make any disposition of all or any part of the Interests which will result in the violation by such Member or by the Company of the Securities Act or any other applicable securities laws. Without limiting the foregoing, each Member agrees not to make any disposition of all or any part of the Interests unless and until: (A) there is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition and such disposition is made in accordance with such registration statement and any applicable requirements of state securities laws; or (B) such Member has notified the Company of the proposed disposition and has furnished the Company with a detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the proposed disposition, and if reasonably requested by the Managers, such Member has furnished the Company with a written opinion of legal counsel, reasonably satisfactory to the Company, that such disposition will not require registration of any securities under the Securities Act or the consent of or a permit from appropriate authorities under any applicable state securities law or under the laws of any other jurisdiction.

Section 8. Financial Estimate and Projections. That it understands that all projections and financial or other materials which it may have been furnished are not based on historical operating results, because no reliable results exist, and are based only upon estimates and assumptions which are subject to future conditions and events which are unpredictable and which may not be relied upon in making an investment decision.

TAX PROVISIONS

EXHIBIT A

1.1 Capital Accounts.

- 4.1.1 A single Capital Account shall be maintained for each Member (regardless of the class of Interests owned by such Member and regardless of the time or manner in which such Interests were acquired) in accordance with the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code, and the regulations thereunder (including without limitation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv) of the Income Tax Regulations). In general, under such rules, a Member's Capital Account shall be:
- 4.1.1.1 increased by (i) the amount of money contributed by the Member to the Company (including the amount of any Company liabilities that are assumed by such Member other than in connection with distribution of Company property), (ii) the fair market value of property contributed by the Member to the Company (net of liabilities secured by such contributed property that under Section 752 of the Code the Company is considered to assume or take subject to), and (iii) allocations to the Member of Company income and gain (or item thereof), including income and gain exempt from tax; and
- 4.1.1.2 decreased by (i) the amount of money distributed to the Member by the Company (including the amount of such Member's individual liabilities that are assumed by the Company other than in connection with contribution of property to the Company), (ii) the fair market value of property distributed to the Member by the Company (net of liabilities secured by such distributed property that under Section 752 of the Code such Member is considered to assume or take subject to), (iii) allocations to the Member of expenditures of the Company not deductible in computing its taxable income and not properly chargeable to capital account, and (iv) allocations to the Member of Company loss and deduction (or item thereof).
- 4.1.2 Where Section 704(c) of the Code applies to Company property or where Company property is revalued pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(t) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, each Member's Capital Account shall be adjusted in accordance with paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(g) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations as to allocations to the Members of depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss, as computed for book purposes with respect to such property.
- 4.1.3 When Company property is distributed in kind (whether in connection with liquidation and dissolution or otherwise), the Capital Accounts of the Members shall first be adjusted to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss and deduction inherent in such property (that has not been reflected in the Capital Account previously) would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of such property for the fair market value of such property (taking into account Section 7701 (g) of the Code) on the date of distribution.

- 4.1.4 The Members shall direct the Company's accountants to make all necessary adjustments in each Member's Capital Account as required by the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

ALLOCATION OF PROFITS AND LOSSES; TAX AND ACCOUNTING MATTERS

5.1 Allocations. Each Member's distributive share of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or items thereof) of the Company as shown on the annual federal income tax return prepared by the Company's accountants or as finally determined by the United States Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and as modified by the capital accounting rules of Section 704(b) of the Code and the Income Tax Regulations thereunder, as implemented by Section 8.5 hereof, as applicable, shall be determined as follows:

5.1.1 Allocations. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 1.1:

5.1.1.1 items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or items thereof) shall be allocated among the members in proportion to their Percentage Interests as set forth in Exhibit "B", subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B", except that items of loss or deduction allocated to any Member pursuant to this Section 2.1 with respect to any taxable year shall not exceed the maximum amount of such items that can be so allocated without causing such Member to have a deficit balance in his or its Capital Account at the end of such year, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations. Any such items of loss or deduction in excess of the limitation set forth in the preceding sentence shall be allocated as follows and in the following order of priority:

5.1.1.1.1 first, to those Members who would not be subject to such limitation, in proportion to their Percentage Interests, subject to the Preferred Allocation schedule contained in Exhibit "B"; and

5.1.1.1.2 second, any remaining amount to the Members in the manner required by the Code and Income Tax Regulations.

Subject to the provisions of subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.11, inclusive, of this Agreement, the items specified in this Section 1.1 shall be allocated to the

Members as necessary to eliminate any deficit Capital Account balances and thereafter to bring the relationship among the Members' positive Capital Account balances in accord with their pro rata interests.

- 5.1.2 Allocations With Respect to Property Solely for tax purposes, in determining each Member's allocable share of the taxable income or loss of the Company, depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss with respect to any contributed property, or with respect to revalued property where the Company's property is revalued pursuant to paragraph (b)(2)(iv)(f) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, shall be allocated to the Members in the manner (as to revaluations, in the same manner as) provided in Section 704(c) of the Code. The allocation shall take into account, to the full extent required or permitted by the Code, the difference between the adjusted basis of the property to the Member contributing it (or, with respect to property which has been revalued, the adjusted basis of the property to the Company) and the fair market value of the property determined by the Members at the time of its contribution or revaluation, as the case may be.
- 5.1.3 Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain or Company Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain (as such terms are defined in Sections 1.704-2(b) and 1.704-2(i)(2) of the Income Tax Regulations, but substituting the term "Company" for the term "Partnership" as the context requires) during a Company taxable year, then each Member shall be allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, for subsequent years) in the manner provided in Section 1.704-2 of the Income Tax Regulations. This provision is intended to be a "minimum gain chargeback" within the meaning of Sections 1.704-2(f) and 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 5.1.4 Qualified Income Offset. Subject to the provisions of subsection 2.1.3, but otherwise notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1, if any Member's Capital Account has a deficit balance in excess of such Member's obligation to restore his or its Capital Account balance, computed in accordance with the rules of paragraph (b)(2)(ii)(d) of Section 1.704-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, then sufficient amounts of income and gain (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income, and gain for such year) shall be allocated to such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate such deficit as quickly as possible. This provision is intended to be a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Income Tax Regulations and shall be interpreted and implemented as therein provided.
- 5.1.5 Depreciation Recapture. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, gain recognized (or deemed recognized under the provisions hereof) upon the sale or other disposition of Company property, which is subject to depreciation recapture, shall be allocated to the Member who was entitled to deduct such depreciation.

- 5.1.6 Loans If and to the extent any Member is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, any corresponding resulting deduction of the Company shall be allocated to the Member who is charged with the income. Subject to the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and subsections 2.1.2 – 2.1.4, inclusive, of this Agreement, if and to the extent the Company is deemed to recognize income as a result of any loans pursuant to the rules of Sections 1272, 1273, 1274, 7872 or 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, such income shall be allocated to the Member who is entitled to any corresponding resulting deduction.
- 5.1.7 Tax Credits Tax credits shall generally be allocated according to Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(ii) of the Income Tax Regulations or as otherwise provided by law. Investment tax credits with respect to any property shall be allocated to the Members pro rata in accordance with the manner in which Company profits are allocated to the Members under subsection 2.1.1 hereof, as of the time such property is placed in service. Recapture of any investment tax credit required by Section 47 of the Code shall be allocated to the Members in the same proportion in which such investment tax credit was allocated.
- 5.1.8 Change of Pro Rata Interests. Except as provided in subsections 2.1.6 and 2.1.7 hereof or as otherwise required by law, if the proportionate interests of the Members of the Company are changed during any taxable year, all items to be allocated to the Members for such entire taxable year shall be prorated on the basis of the portion of such taxable year which precedes each such change and the portion of such taxable year on and after each such change according to the number of days in each such portion, and the items so allocated for each such portion shall be allocated to the Members in the manner in which such items are allocated as provided in section 2.1.1 during each such portion of the taxable year in question.
- 5.1.9 Effect of Special Allocations on Subsequent Allocations. Any special allocation of income or gain pursuant to subsections 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof shall be taken into account in computing subsequent allocations of income and gain pursuant to this Section 9.1 so that the net amount of all such allocations to each Member shall, to the extent possible, be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Member pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.1 if such special allocations of income or gain under subsection 2.1.3 or 2.1.4 hereof had not occurred.
- 5.1.10 Nonrecourse and Recourse Debt. Items of deduction and loss attributable to Member nonrecourse debt within the meaning of Section 1.7042(b)(4) of the Income Tax Regulations shall be allocated to the Members bearing the economic risk of loss with respect to such debt in accordance with Section 1704-2(i)(1) of the Income Tax Regulations. Items of deduction and loss attributable to recourse liabilities of the Company, within the meaning of Section 1.752-2 of the Income Tax Regulations, shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with the ratio in which the Members share the economic risk of loss for such liabilities.

- 5.1.11 State and Local Items. Items of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit and tax preference for state and local income tax purposes shall be allocated to and among the Members in a manner consistent with the allocation of such items for federal income tax purposes in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.1.

- 5.2 Accounting Matters. The Managers or, if there be no Managers then in office, the Members shall cause to be maintained complete books and records accurately reflecting the accounts, business and transactions of the Company on a calendar-year basis and using such cash, accrual, or hybrid method of accounting as in the judgment of the Manager, Management Committee or the Members, as the case may be, is most appropriate; provided, however, that books and records with respect to the Company's Capital Accounts and allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit (or item thereof) shall be kept under U.S. federal income tax accounting principles as applied to partnerships.

5.3 Tax Status and Returns.

- 5.3.1 Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, solely for United States federal income tax purposes, each of the Members hereby recognizes that the Company may be subject to the provisions of Subchapter K of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Code; provided, however, the filing of U.S. Partnership Returns of Income shall not be construed to extend the purposes of the Company or expand the obligations or liabilities of the Members.
- 5.3.2 The Manager(s) shall prepare or cause to be prepared all tax returns and statements, if any, that must be filed on behalf of the Company with any taxing authority, and shall make timely filing thereof. Within one-hundred twenty (120) days after the end of each calendar year, the Manager(s) shall prepare or cause to be prepared and delivered to each Member a report setting forth in reasonable detail the information with respect to the Company during such calendar year reasonably required to enable each Member to prepare his or its federal, state and local income tax returns in accordance with applicable law then prevailing.
- 5.3.3 Unless otherwise provided by the Code or the Income Tax Regulations thereunder, the current Manager(s), or if no Manager(s) shall have been elected, the Member holding the largest Percentage Interest, or if the Percentage Interests be equal, any Member shall be deemed to be the "Tax Matters Member." The Tax Matters Member shall be the "Tax Matters Partner" for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Cash Distributions from capital transactions shall be distributed per the following method between the members of the LLC. Upon any refinancing event, and upon the sale of Company asset, cash is distributed according to a "Step-down Allocation." Step-down means that, step-by-step, cash is allocated and distributed in the following descending order of priority, until no more cash remains to be allocated. The Step-down Allocation is:

First Step, payment of all current expenses and/or liabilities of the Company;

Second Step, to pay in full any outstanding loans (unless distribution is the result of a refinance) held with financial institutions or any company loans made from Manager(s) or Member(s).

Third Step, to pay each Member an amount sufficient to bring their capital accounts to zero, pro rata based upon capital contributions.

Final Step, After the Third Step above, any remaining net profits or excess cash from sale or refinance shall be distributed to the Members fifty percent (50%) to Shawn Bidsal and fifty percent (50%) to Benjamin golshani.

Losses shall be allocated according to Capital Accounts.

Cash Distributions of Profits from operations shall be allocated and distributed fifty percent (50%) to Shawn Bidsal and fifty percent (50%) to Benjamin golshani

It is the express intent of the parties that "Cash Distributions of Profits" refers to distributions generated from operations resulting in ordinary income in contrast to Cash Distributions arising from capital transactions or non-recurring events such as a sale of all or a substantial portion of the Company's assets or a cash out financing.

 20 Claimant, CLA Properties, LLC ("CLA"), moves for summary disposition that it is 21 entitled to buy out the interest of Respondent Shawn Bidsal ("Bidsal") in Green Valley
 22 Commerce, LLC ("Green Valley") based on the "same offered price" offered by Bidsal in 23 his July 7, 2017 offer without the need for any appraisal which CLA did not request.

24 25 1. BACKGROUND

26 Bidsal and Benjamin Golshani acting on behalf of CLA decided to go into 27 business together to acquire a property and agreed to do so in the form of a limited
 28 liability company, Green Valley. They set out their agreement with respect to this joint

1 venture in the Operating Agreement for Green Valley (See Operating Agreement, Exhibit
2 "A"). Although CLA put up 70% of the capital, CLA and Bidsal each owned 50% of 3 Green Valley.

4 While consummating their commercial partnership, they looked ahead to the 5 possibility that someday one of them might no longer wanted to remain "partners" and 6 made what amounts to a pre-nuptial agreement to say how Green Valley would be 7 distributed upon their "divorce". This they did in Section 4 of the Operating Agreement¹.
8 The Operating Agreement uses what could be rightly called a "put-call" option where the 9 party deciding to end the relationship, who is under no time restraints and can conduct all 10 the investigation he needs to determine a fair price, makes an offer to buy out the other.
11 To encourage the offeror making a fair offer, the offeree then is given the right to either
12 buy or sell at that price, but within a set time period (in this case 30 days), far different 13 from the unlimited time the offeror has to decide what to do. If the offeree (here called 14 "Remaining Member") was dissatisfied with the price, the Remaining Member was also 15 given the option to demand a "procedure" to have an appraisal to determine fair market
16 value ("FMV") to be used instead of the fair market value used by the offeror (here called 17 "Offering Member").

18 There can be little doubt that this was a negotiated portion of the Operating 19 Agreement. Section 4 appears in a totally different font and indentation from the balance 20 of the Operating Agreement and the pages on which it appears are attached hereto as 21 Exhibit "B" for the Arbitrator's convenience.

22 Section 4 establishes the formula for the price for any buyout by one member or 23 the other².

24 In this case the Offering Member was Bidsal and CLA was the Remaining 25 Member. On July 7, 2017 Bidsal (through his lawyer) offered to buy out CLA per 26

27 ¹ Unless otherwise stated all section references are to those within the Operating Agreement .
28

² While the words used are "Remaining Members" in anticipation that there could be more than two members of Green Valley, in fact there are only two.

1 Section 4 setting out his valuation of fair market value at $5,000,000.00. (See Exhibit
2 "C") In part it read:

3 "The Offering Member's best estimate of the current fair market value
4 of the Company is $5,000,000.00 (the "FMV"). Unless contested in
5 accordance with the provisions of Section 4.2 of Article V of the 6 Operating Agreement, the foregoing FMV shall be used to calculate
7 the purchase price of the Membership Interest to be sold."

9 "Upon receipt of this notice, the Remaining Member has certain rights and 10 obligations, as set forth in Section 4.2 of Article V of the Operating 11 Agreement. This notice shall trigger the time periods and procedures set 12 forth therein."

14 On August 3, 2017 CLA responded that it "elects and exercises its option to 15 purchase your 50% membership interest in the Company on the terms set forth in the July 16 7, 2017 letter based on your $5,000,000.00 valuation of the Company." (See Exhibit
17 "D") Specifically, CLA did not invoke the appraisal procedure which it, but not Bidsal, 18 had the right to do. But on August 5, 2017, Bidsal refused to go forward with sale of his 19 interest, claiming he had a right to initiate the appraisal procedure. (See Exhibit "E").

20 On August 28, 2017 CLA provided proof of funds to close escrow and again
21 demanded Bidsal perform (See Exhibit "F"). Bidsal has continued to refused to sell 22 without an appraisal; and thus this arbitration.

23 So then, what does their "pre-nuptial" agreement say. In summary here is what it 24 provides: After defining "FMV" as fair market value, Section 4.2 provides that: "Any 25 Member ('Offering Member') may give notice to the Remaining Member(s) that he or it
26 is ready, willing and able to purchase the Remaining Members' Interests for a price the 27 Offering Member thinks is the fair market value. . . If the offered price is not acceptable
28 to the Remaining Member(s), within 30 days of receiving the offer, the Remaining members (or any of them) can request to establish FMV based upon following procedure

1 [for appraisals] . . . Remaining Member(s) shall have 30 days within which to respond in 2 writing to the Offering Member by either (i) Accepting the Offering member's purchase
3 offer, or, (ii) Rejecting the purchase offer and making a counteroffer to purchase the 4 interest based upon the same fair market value (FMV) According to the following 5 formula ... "

6 To avoid any possible confusion, the Operating Agreement goes on to specifically
7 describe what the rights of the Remaining Member are: "The specific intent of this
8 provision is that once the Offering Member presented his or its offer to the Remaining
9 Members, then the Remaining Members shall either sell or buy at the same offered
10 price (or FMV if appraisal is invoked). . . ." [Emphasis added, especially of conjunction 11 "or" and conditional application of appraisal, "if".]

12 The issue presented is (i) after an offer to buy is made, (ii) and the Remaining 13 Member does not contest the proposed buy out price and elects to purchase the Offering 14 Member interest for the same price offered, (iii) does the Offering Member (here Bidsal),
15 rather than selling at the offered price, have the right to initiate the appraisal process to set
16 a new price. The answer is "no."

17 Something else not in dispute, however, is that the answer to this question must be 18 made from within the four corners of the Operating Agreement. During a conference call 19 with the Arbitrator, there was a discussion of CLA's desire to take the deposition of the 20 draftsman, David LeGrande, Esq., Bidsal objected on the grounds that the parol evidence
21 rule precluded consulting any extrinsic evidence, obviously something that would be true
22 only if the critical portion of the Operating Agreement were unambiguous. CLA agrees;
23 the portions of Section 4.2 applicable to the question of whether an appraisal was here
24 required is not ambiguous and the issue must be decided based on what the Operating 25 Agreement alone says.

26 27 2. LAW

28 The purpose of contract interpretation under Nevada law "is to discern the intent of the contracting parties." Am. First Fed. Credit Union v. Soro, 131 Nev. Op. 73, 359 P.3d

1 at 105, 106 (2015). If the language is clear and unambiguous, the contract will be
2 enforced as written. Am. First Credit Union, 131 Nev. adv. Op. 73 359 P.3d at 106.

3 4 3. ARGUMENT

5 On the sole issue of whether when Remaining Partner elects to buy and does not 6 does not request appraisal an appraisal is nonetheless required Section 4.2 of the 7 Operating Agreement is not ambiguous. It clearly sets forth the buy out procedure: after 8 the offer is made the Remaining Member (CLA) is given two alternatives labeled "(i)"
9 and "(ii)." Under (i) it can sell its interest based on what Offering Member (Bidsal)
10 "thinks is the fair market value" or under (ii) he can instead buy out the Offering Member 11 "based upon the same fair market value (FMV)." The word "same" can refer only to 12 the fair market value used by the Offering Member (Bidsal) offered, or what Bidsal 13 "thought was the fair market value" not to an appraised amount.

14 In addition to being the only natural meaning of the word "same," other portions
15 make clear that "same" cannot refer to an appraised amount. First, the portion reciting 16 the Remaining Member's options under (i) and (ii) above, begins "The Remaining
17 Member(s) shall have 30 days within which to respond in writing to the Offering 18 Member." But that is the same 30 days that the Remaining Partner has to decide whether 19 to seek an appraisal: "If the offered price is not acceptable to the Remaining Member(s), 20 within 30 days of receiving the offer, the Remaining Members (or any of them) can 21 request to establish FMV based on" the following procedure... (See Exhibit "B", p. 11, 22 first full paragraph). So when the Remaining Member decides whether to sell or buy,
23 there would not yet be an appraisal since his time to request it would not have run, and 24 thus the only meaning to "same" would have to be to that which the Offering Member 25 used.

26 Second, if there was any doubt, the last paragraph of Section 4.2 sets forth the 27 intent of the parties and the meaning of the buy out provisions. It begins "The specific 28 intent of this provision is that once the Offering Member presented his or its offer to the Remaining Members, then the Remaining Members shall either sell or buy at the same

1 offered price (or FMV if appraisal is invoked).” So the “same” amount is distinguished
 2 and different from an appraised amount. The “same” is an alternative to appraisal. And 3 the fact that appraisal is not required unless requested by Remaining Member is made
 4 clear by the qualification that something other than the same price occur only if appraisal
 5 is invoked. And just so that it is not lost sight of, the only reference to an appraisal
 6 procedure is if the Remaining Member, not the Offering Member requests it.

7 Thus the “same” amount can mean only that which Bidsal thought was the fair
 8 market value and so used in his offer. (We repeat that CLA never requested an 9 appraisal.)

10 We suspect that Bidsal will nonetheless argue that the “same” market value means 11 what is determined by an appraisal. But the only prior mention of “appraisal” for FMV is 12 in the first full paragraph on page 11 of the Operating Agreement, and makes it certain 13 that the option to request an appraisal is only with the Remaining Member. It says, “If the 14 offered price is not acceptable to the Remaining Member(s), within 30 days of receiving 15 the offer, the Remaining members (or any of them) can request to establish FMV based 16 upon the following procedure...” That procedure is one for choosing appraisers to 17 appraise the property, but it is to be followed only if “the Remaining member(s) . .
 18 .request” it. Nowhere does Section 4.2 give the Offering Member the right to request or 19 demand an appraisal.

20 The fact is that Bidsal’s claim that he is entitled to an appraisal only came after 21 CLA exercised its option. In his July 7, 2017 offer (Exhibit “C”), Bidsal specifically set 22 forth how purchase price of the membership interest was to be calculated:

23 “The Offering Member’s best estimate of the current fair market value
 24 of the Company is $5,000,000.00 (the “FMV”). Unless contested in 25 accordance with the provisions of Section 4.2 of Article V of the 26 Operating Agreement, the foregoing FMV shall be used to calculate
 27 the purchase price of the Membership Interest to be sold.” (Emphasis 28 added)

Bidsal defined the FMV as $5,000,000.00 and said that that amount would apply

1 unless it was contested. But CLA never contested it.

2 So what is obvious is that Bidsal's claim that he is entitled to an appraisal is an
3 idea that only arose after CLA exercised its purchase option. What is likewise obvious is 4 that Bidsal assumed CLA did not have the desire or cash to buy him out so he set a 5 lowball figure. When he set the price, he is bound to it.

6 And the opposite would have made no practical sense. According to the first 7 sentence of Section 4.2 the Offering Member's offer is supposed to be based on what "the 8 Offering Member thinks is the fair market value" after having the full opportunity to 9 research and determine what price to offer. Why would he have the right to challenge
10 what he already said was "fair" by demanding an appraisal?

3. CONCLUSION

13 Concluding then. The only mention of appraisal is where the Remaining Member
14 requests it and CLA did not request it. Twice it is made clear that if CLA wanted to buy 15 out Bidsal instead of vice versa, the FMV would be that used in Bidsal's offer. First,
16 under (ii) CLA had 30 days to decide whether to reject the offer and instead make "a 17 counteroffer to purchase the interest of [Bidsal] based on the same fair market value," 18 and it did so, and the right to request an appraisal would not have expired before then.
19 And second, the final paragraph says that "The specific intent of this provision is that 20 once the Offering Member presented his or its offer to the Remaining Members, then the 21 Remaining Members shall either sell or buy at the same offered price (or FMV if 22 appraisal is invoked)." The only conclusion is that CLA had the right to buy out Bidsal
23 based on the same FMV that Bidsal used in his offer.

24 And there is logic to the deal they struck. If one member wanted to end the 25 marriage, in calculating the price to do so, he had to use what he thought was "the fair
26 market value." To avoid his choosing too low a figure, his "partner" was given the right
27 to buy him out at his low ball figure. That was the protection against one member setting 28 too low a value. But Bidsal guessed that CLA would either lack the will or cash to buy him out so he set that low ball figure. Having been hoisted by his own petard, he now

1 wants an appraisal, to which he has no right.

2 Claimant's motion should be granted.

DECLARATION OF BENJAMIN GOLSHANI

IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SUMMARY DISPOSITION

I, Benjamin Golshani, hereby declare the following:

1. I am the manager of CLA Properties, LLC ("CLA"), the Claimant in this arbitration. I have reviewed the Motion and Exhibits to which this Declaration is attached. The facts stated herein are based upon my personal knowledge and if called to testify, I could do so.

2. On or about June 15, 2011, on behalf of CLA, I signed the Operating Agreement for Green Valley Commerce, LLC ("Green Valley") along with the other member, Shawn Bidsal ("Bidsal"). A true and correct copy of this Agreement is attached to the moving papers as Exhibit "A".

3. On or about July 7, 2017, I received a letter from James Shapiro, Mr. Bidsal's attorney, offering to buy out CLA's interest in Green Valley for $5,000,000. In part it read: "Upon receipt of this notice, the Remaining Member has certain rights and obligations, as set forth in Section 4.2 of Article V of the Operating Agreement. This notice shall trigger the time periods and procedures set forth therein." A true and correct copy thereof is marked as Exhibit "C" and attached to the moving papers.

4. On August 3, 2017 CLA responded that it "elects and exercises its option to purchase your 50% membership interest in the Company on the terms set forth in the July 7, 2017 letter based on your $5,000,000.00 valuation of the Company." Specifically, CLA did not invoke the appraisal procedure which it, but not Bidsal, had the right to do. A true and correct copy of that response is marked Exhibit "D" and attached to the moving papers.

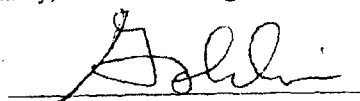

5. Bidsal refused to go forward with sale of his interest, claiming there had to be an appraisal. A true and correct copy of the letter in which he made that claim through his attorney is marked Exhibit "E" and attached to the moving papers.

6. On August 28, 2017, my lawyer sent Mr. Shapiro a letter by email and fax providing proof of funds required to close the escrow for the purchase of Mr. Bidsal's Membership Interest and again demanding that Mr. Bidsal perform as required by the

1 Operating Agreement. A true and correct copy of this August 28, 2017 letter is attached
2 as Exhibit "F" to the moving papers.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of Nevada that the foregoing is 4 true and correct.

Section 4. Purchase or Sell Right among Members.

In the event that a Member is willing to purchase the Remaining Member's Interest in the Company then the procedures and terms of Section 4.2 shall apply.

Section 4.1 Definitions

Offering Member means the member who offers to purchase the Membership Interest(s) of the Remaining Member(s). "Remaining Members" means the Members who received an offer (from Offering Member) to sell their shares.

"COP" means "cost of purchase" as it specified in the escrow closing statement at the time of purchase of each property owned by the Company.

"Seller" means the Member that accepts the offer to sell his or its Membership Interest.

"FMV" means "fair market value" obtained as specified in section 4.2

Section 4.2 Purchase or Sell Procedure.

Any Member ("Offering Member") may give notice to the Remaining Member(s) that he or it is ready, willing and able to purchase the Remaining Members' Interests for a price the Offering

Member thinks is the fair market value. The terms to be all cash and close escrow within 30 days of the acceptance.

If the offered price is not acceptable to the Remaining Member(s), within 30 days of receiving the offer, the Remaining Members (or any of them) can request to establish FMV based on the following procedure. The Remaining Member(s) must provide the Offering Member the complete information of 2 MIA appraisers. The Offering Member must pick one of the appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The Offering Member also must provide the Remaining Members with the complete information of 2 MIA approved appraisers. The Remaining Members must pick one of the appraisers to appraise the property and furnish a copy to all Members. The medium of these 2 appraisals constitute the fair market value of the property which is called (FMV).

The Offering Member has the option to offer to purchase the Remaining Member's share at FMV as determined by Section 4.2., based on the following formula.

$(FMV - COP) \times 0.5$ plus capital contribution of the Remaining Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.

The Remaining Member(s) shall have 30 days within which to respond in writing to the Offering Member by either

- (i) Accepting the Offering Member's purchase offer, or,
- (ii) Rejecting the purchase offer and making a counteroffer to purchase the interest of the Offering Member based upon the same fair market value (FMV) according to the following formula.

$(FMV - COP) \times 0.5 +$ capital contribution of the Offering Member(s) at the time of purchasing the property minus prorated liabilities.

The specific intent of this provision is that once the Offering Member presented his or its offer to the Remaining Members, then the Remaining Members shall either sell or buy at the same offered price (or FMV if appraisal is invoked) and according to the procedure set forth in Section 4.. In the case that the Remaining Member(s) decide to purchase, then Offering Member shall be obligated to sell his or its Member interests to the remaining Member(s).

Section 4.3 Failure To Respond Constitutes Acceptance.

Failure by all or any of the Remaining Members to respond to the Offering Member's notice within the thirty (30 day) period shall be deemed to constitute an acceptance of the Offering Member.

Section 5. Return of Contributions to Capital.

Return to a Member of his/her contribution to capital shall be as determined and permitted by law and this Agreement.

Section 6. Addition of New Members.

A new Member may be admitted into the Company only upon consent of at least ninety percent in Interest of the Members. The amount of Capital Contribution which must be made by a new Member shall be determined by the vote of all existing Members.

I. Tax Provisions.

The provisions of Exhibit A, attached hereto are incorporated by reference as if fully rewritten herein.

ARTICLE XI INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 1. Indemnification: Proceeding Other than by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification: Proceeding by Company. The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, member, shareholder, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of any other Person, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals there from, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

B E 20

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described in Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she must be indemnified by the Company against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense.

Section 4. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Article XI, Sections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to Section 5, may be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made by a majority of the Members if the person seeking indemnity is not a majority owner of the Member Interests or by independent legal counsel selected by the Manager in a written opinion.

Section 5. Mandatory Advancement of Expenses. The expenses of Managers, Members and officers incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Manager, Member or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. The provisions of this Section 5 do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which personnel of the Company other than Managers, Members or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise.

Section 6. Effect and Continuation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Sections 1 – 5, inclusive:

(A) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Organization or any limited liability company agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Managers, if any, or otherwise, for either an action in his or her official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his or her office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Article XI, Section 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to Section Article XI, may not be made to or on behalf of any Member, Manager or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(B) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(C) Notice of Indemnification and Advancement. Any indemnification of, or advancement of expenses to, a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company in accordance with this Article XI, if arising out of a proceeding by or on behalf of the Company, shall be reported in writing to the Members with or before the notice of the next Members' meeting.

(D) Repeal or Modification. Any repeal or modification of this Article XI by the Members of the Company shall not adversely affect any right of a Manager, Member, officer, employee or agent of the Company existing hereunder at the time of such repeal or modification.
