DEPUTY CLERK

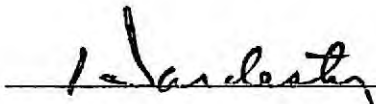

ORDER GRANTING MOTION AND REGARDING ANSWERING BRIEF

Respondent Georgina Stuart and respondent Clark County's motion for an extension of time to file their answering brief is granted. NRAP 31(b)(3). The answering brief was filed on January 8, 2021.

The certificate of service attached to appellant's opening brief indicates that he served respondents Lisa Callahan and Brian Callahan with the opening brief via mail on October 26, 2020. Accordingly, the Callahans' answering brief was due to be filed by November 30, 2020. NRAP 26(c); NRAP 31(a)(1)(B). To date, the Callahans have not filed their answering brief or otherwise communicated with this court. Lisa and Brian Callahan shall have 21 days from the date of this order to file and serve their answering brief. If no answering brief is timely filed, this appeal will be decided without an answering brief from these respondents.

Appellant shall have 30 days from service of the Callahans' answering brief to file and serve his reply brief. If the Callahans do not file an answering brief, a due date for the reply brief will be established in a future order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
