Worksheet B - Joint Physical Custody Child Support Calculation Worksheet

You must fill out this worksheet and attach it the document you are filing which asks for a joint physical custody arrangement. A joint physical custody arrangement exists when each parent has physical custody of the child at least 40% (146 days) of the time calculated over a one year period.

①: Determine Each	Parent's Gross	Monthly Income	(GMI).

2 : Determine Each Parent's Child Support Obligation.

3: Subtract the higher amount of monthly child support in 2 from the lower amount.

Apply the presumptive maximum if necessary.

This amount changes every year on July 1st. Make sure you are using the most current chart.

FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

DISTRICT COURT

JUN 07 2018

Nye County Clerk

Deputy

Dennis V. Stanton,

Plaintiff,

CASE NO: CV34304 DEPT. NO: 2)

VS.

Twyla M. Stanton,

Defendant.

QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDER

- 1. This order creates and recognizes the existence of an Alternate Payee's right to receive a portion of the Participant's Total Account Balance accumulated under an employer-sponsored defined contribution plan which is qualified under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). It is intended to constitute a Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") under Section 414(p) of the Code and Section 206(d)(3) of ERISA.
- 2. The name, address, birth date and social security number of the plan "Participant" are:

Participant:

Dennis Vincent Stanton

Address:

7088 Los Banderos Av.

Las Vegas, NV 89179-1207

Social Security Number:

XXX-XX-9910

Birth Date:

0,7

05/07/1978

3. The name, address, birth date and social security number of the "Alternate Payee" are:

Alternate Payee:

Twyla Marie Stanton

Address:

7088 Los Banderos Av.

Las Vegas, NV 89179-1207

Social Security Number:

XXX-XX-2448

Birth Date:

08/06/1985

- 4. The name of the Plan to which this order applies is the I.B.E.W. Local Union 357
  Pension Trust-Plan B (hereafter referred to as "Plan"). Further, any successor plan to the Plan shall also be subject to the terms of this Order.
- 5. This Order is entered pursuant to the authority granted in NRS 125 of the applicable domestic relations laws of the State of Nevada.
- 6. This Order relates to the provisions of marital property rights to the Alternate Payee as a result of the marriage that commenced on 07/11/2004.
- 7. Amount of Alternate Payee's Benefit:
  - This Order assigns to Alternate Payee an amount equal to 100% of the Participant's Total Account Balance accumulated under the Plan as of 05/09/2018. Such account balance shall include the amounts that have accumulated under all of the various accounts and/or subaccounts established and maintained under the Plan on behalf of the Participant. Administrative expenses attributable to Alternate Payee's benefits between the effective date and the date of distribution shall be applied to Alternate Payee's benefits. The award to the Alternate Payee cannot be greater than the total account balance at the time of distribution to the Alternate Payee.
- 8. The Alternate Payee shall be paid her benefits as soon as administratively feasible following the date this Order is approved as a QDRO by the Plan Administrator, or at the earliest date permitted under the Plan, if later. Benefits will be payable to the Alternate Payee in the form of a one-time, lump-sum cash payment, if such form of payment is a permissible option under the terms of the Plan. If a lump-sum option is not available to the Alternate Payee, then she shall be permitted to choose among the available Plan options.

- 9. Between the time that the Alternate Payee's account hereunder is segregated and the time it is distributed to the Alternate Payee, the Alternate Payee's account shall remain invested, pro rata, in the same manner as Participant's account as of the segregation date unless and until Alternate Payee redirects it into other investment choices.
- 10. Any outstanding loans shall not be included with the total account balance for the purpose of determining the amount to be awarded to the Alternate Payee. The Plaintiff/Participant will repay 100% of the defaulted loan of the account balance.
- 11. This Order is not intended, and shall not be construed on such a manner as to require the Plan: (a) to provide any type of form of benefit option not otherwise provided under the terms of the Plan; (b) to require the Plan to provide increased benefits determined on the basis of actuarial value; or (c) to require the payment of any benefits to the Alternate Payee that are required to be paid to another Alternate Payee under another Order previously deemed to be a QDRO.
- 12. It is the intention of the parties that this QDRO continue to qualify as a QDRO under Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it may be amended from time to time, and the Plan Administrator shall reserve the right to reconfirm the qualified status of Order at the time benefits become payable hereunder.
- 13. For purposes of Sections 401(a)(1) and 72 of the Internal Revenue Code, any Alternate Payee who is the spouse of the Participant shall be treated as the distributee of any distribution or payments made to the Alternate Payee under the terms of this Order, and as such, will be required to pay the appropriate federal income taxes on such distribution.
- 14. Except as set forth herein, all rights in and to Participant's benefits under the Plan are awarded to the Participant.

15. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to this Order to the extent required to maintain the original intent of the parties as stipulated herein.

ORDER

Pursuant to the Stipulation of the parties, it is so ordered

  - ☐ The wife never changed her name.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each party shall submit the information required in NRS 125B.055, NRS 125.130 and NRS 125.230 on a separate form to the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days from the date this Decree is filed. Such information shall be maintained by the Clerk in a confidential manner and not part of the public record. The parties shall update the information filed with the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days should any of that information become inaccurate.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS 125.510(6): PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice of the following provisions in NRS 125.510(8):

If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

- (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.
- (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS 125C.200:

If custody has been established and the custodial parent intends to move his residence to a place outside of this state and to take the child with him, he must, as soon as possible and before the planned move, attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent to move the child from this state. If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, the custodial parent shall, before he leaves this state with the child, petition the court for permission to move the child. The failure of a parent to comply with the provisions of this section may be considered as a factor if a change of custody is requested by the noncustodial parent.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that they are subject to the provisions of NRS 31A and 125.450 regarding the collection of delinquent child support payments.

ORDER APPOINTING TEMPORARY CO-GUARDIANS OF THE PERSON AND ESTATE

Now on this day, came on for hearing Petitioners' Verified Petition for Appointment of Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate, and the Court being well and otherwise sufficiently advised, THE COURT DOTH FIND:

- 1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter. Venue is proper.
- 2. The Court finds that the incapacitated person, Twyla Marie McCurdy, is in need of a guardian of the person and estate to care for her and it would be in her best interest to have a guardian appointed. The Court finds that the incapacitated person has a minimal estate consisting clothing and personal effects with an approximate value of less than $500.00.
- 3. That Petitioners, Robert Crawford and Carmen Crawford, 129 Mill Creek Drive, Greenbrier, AR 72058, should be and are hereby appointed Temporary Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate of Twyla Marie McCurdy, DOB: 8/6/85 and are to serve without bond.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Court record in this case was sealed following the conclusion of divorce proceedings. Plaintiff now seeks to file in this sealed case a motion pursuant to Rule 60(b) regarding the underlying Joint Petition for Divorce and resulting Decree of Divorce ("Motion"). However, Plaintiff has been advised (even though she does not seek to inspect any part of the Court record, but seeks only to file the Motion) that she must first request that the Court record be unsealed in order for the Court to consider the Motion.

II.

THE LAW GOVERNING INSPECTION OF SEALED CASES

Plaintiff hereby applies to the Court, through counsel, that to unseal the Court record. This request is made pursuant to NRS 125.110(2), which provides:

All other papers, records, proceedings and evidence, including exhibits and 2. transcript of the testimony, shall, upon the written request of either party to the action, filed with the clerk, be sealed and shall not be open to inspection except to the parties or their attorneys, or when required as evidence in another action or proceeding.

Plaintiff does not seek to inspect the Court record. Rather, Plaintiff's request to unseal the Court record is made as Plaintiff wishes to file her Motion.

Inasmuch as the undersigned has, by virtue of submitting this Application, now entered his appearance in this case as counsel for Plaintiff, and, further, is not seeking to inspect the Court record per NRS 125.110, the case should be unsealed so that Plaintiff may file her Motion.

Respectfully submitted.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

INTRODUCTION

In this case, the "parties" have engaged in multiple filings to obtain a divorce. The filing litany begins on October 12, 2016, when the Defendant, DENNIS VINCENT STANTON ("Defendant" or "Dennis") filed a Complaint for Divorce (See Complaint for Divorce, Case No. D-16-540966-D ("the First Divorce Action", attached hereto as Exhibit 2).<sup>3</sup>

On September 13, 2017, Dennis filed a Complaint for Separate Maintenance in which Dennis sought maintenance from Twyla, who was (then and remains) unemployed. See Complaint for Separate &lt;sup>2</sup> As the Court can see from the Psychological Evaluation dated October 19, 2018, which has been submitted to the Court for its in camera inspection, Twyla has a tested IQ of 69. She has reading and comprehension levels of (at best) a 3rd grader, and she is now under the co-guardianship of her parents. Throughout this Motion, the term "the parties" is used for the sake of convenience to refer to both Dennis and Twyla. However, Dennis is the sole actor here, and Twyla is his pawn -- a straw-person. The term as used herein is not meant to imply, as it normally does (particularly in the context of joint filings), that both "parties" agree on the content of a pleading. Thus, even on "joint" documents signed by Twyla, her signature does not connote understanding or agreement. When Dennis tells Twyla to say, do, or sign something, she obeys. Having the capacity of a grade-school child, Twyla signed whatever Dennis told her to sign.

Maintenance, Case No. D-17-558626-S (hereafter "the Second Divorce Action"), attached hereto as Exhibit 3. Shortly thereafter, the Court (Judge Rena Hughes) sua sponte stated in a minute order that, "the Court is aware that [Twyla] has a diminished mental capacity and lacks the ability to comprehend legal documents or make judgments as to legal matters. In good conscience, and for purposes of due process, the Court cannot approve the [Twyla's] alleged agreements with [Dennis] until [Twyla] receives independent legal counsel." See Minute Order dated February 01, 2018, attached hereto as Exhibit 4 (emphasis added). Judge Hughes then asked to appoint the undersigned as Twyla's counsel, likely because he had represented Twyla in the First Divorce Action, and the undersigned agreed. As soon as the undersigned was appointed, however, Dennis caused a Stipulation and Order for Voluntary Dismissal of Case to be filed as to the Second Divorce Action.

Approximately 2 months later, on March 29, 2018, Dennis caused "the parties" to file a Joint Petition for Divorce in Clark County (See Joint Petition, Case No. D-18-568604-Z (hereafter, "the Third Divorce Action", attached hereto as Exhibit 5). The Third Divorce Action was assigned back to Judge Hughes and, again, using Twyla as a straw-person, Dennis filed a Peremptory Challenge (Exhibit 6 hereto) and the case was reassigned to Judge Bryce Duckworth. Judge Duckworth, however, determined that the challenge was improper and untimely, and returned the case to Judge Hughes. See Minute Order dated April 18, 2018, attached hereto as Exhibit 7.

Dennis, apparently recognizing the futility of continuing to file in Clark County, immediately caused this Third Divorce Action to be "voluntarily" dismissed. With his efforts frustrated in Clark County, Dennis forum-shopped the case to Nye County, Nearly two years after the filing of the First Divorce Action, the "parties", i.e., Dennis, filed the Amended Joint Petition for Divorce<sup>4</sup> giving rise to this case (Nye County Case No. CV 39304, hereafter "the Fourth Divorce Action"). See Amended Joint Petition attached hereto as Exhibit 8. At no time did Dennis disclose to this Court either the history of filings in the Eighth Judicial District or the fact that Twyla suffered from a "diminished mental capacity" that prevented her from exercising proper judgment on important legal decisions on issues critical to custody and divorce.

Unaware of Dennis's procedural gamesmanship, this Court, on June 7, 2018 granted a Decree of Divorce. See Decree of Divorce attached hereto as Exhibit 9. The Decree was obtained solely by Dennis taking unfair advantage of, in the words of Judge Hughes, Twyla's diminished mental capacity" and inability "to comprehend legal documents or make judgments as to legal matters." As previously noted,

As of the filing of this motion, the undersigned only has a copy of the Amended Joint Petition. The undersigned was unable to obtain of the original Joint Petition as the case has been sealed.

Twyla has the reading comprehension of a 2nd grader and the reading skills of a beginning 3rd grader.<sup>5</sup> She is cognitively slow and is easily taken advantage of. Having been thwarted in his pursuit of a Decree of Divorce in the Eighth Judicial District Court, Dennis forum-shopped the case to the Fifth Judicial District – knowing full well that this new venue would allow him to obtain the Decree without the Court ever having to know of his serial filings in Clark County.

For these reasons, and as explained more fully below, Twyla hereby moves this Court Pursuant to Rule 60(b) of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure to set aside decree of divorce as fraudulently obtained, to dismiss the joint petition for divorce, and to sanction Dennis for forum-shopping and perpetrating a fraud upon the court in the full amount of the attorney's fees and costs Twyla has been forced to incur in bringing this Motion.

П.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The parties hereto were married July 11, 2004. They have six children, to wit:

- 1. Brianna Stanton, born April 19, 2005;
- 2. Tristan Stanton, born August 16, 2006;
- 3. Tyler Stanton, born July 17, 2007;
- 4. Tanner Stanton, born September 22, 2008;
- 5. Arianna Stanton, born February 25, 2010; and
- 6. Trent Stanton, born March 15, 2011.

As explained hereinabove, prior to filing the Joint Petition giving rise to this case, Dennis tried three separate times in Clark County to get this divorce.

On October 12, 2016, he filed his First Divorce Action, a Complaint for Divorce and the case was assigned to Judge Rena Hughes. See Exhibit 2. Subsequently, unaware of Dennis's filing, Twyla filed her own Complaint for Divorce (Case No. D-16-541006-D). Both cases were consolidated under the earlier case number. After long and contentious proceedings, the parties reconciled, and the case was voluntarily dismissed on or about March 30, 2017. It is the undersigned's belief that Dennis reconciled primarily to avoid having the court remove the children from his custody and having an award of attorney's fees leveled against him.

On September 13, 2017, Dennis Stanton filed a Complaint for Separate Maintenance, which was also assigned to Judge Hughes. See Exhibit 3. On October 23, 2017, Mr. Stanton requested a summary disposition of the Separate Maintenance Case, representing to the Court that the "parties" had reached an agreement on all material issues pertinent to custody and support of the children, spousal support, and the division of marital assets and debts. However, on February 1, 2018, Judge Hughes of the Eight Judicial District issued a Minute Order in the Separate Maintenance Case, stating:

Pursuant to EDCR 2.23(c) and 5.501(b), this Court can consider a motion and issue a decision on the papers at any time without a hearing. The Court has researched its duties with respect to ensuring due process to the Defendant [Twyla Stanton]. Through the previous case involving the parties (lead case - D-16-540966-D consolidated with D-16-541006-D), the Court is aware that Defendant has a diminished mental capacity and lacks the ability to comprehend legal documents or make judgments as to legal matters. In good conscience, and for purposes of due process, the Court cannot approve the Defendant's alleged agreements with Plaintiff until Defendant receives independent legal counsel.

Therefore, the Court is appointing Defendant independent legal counsel to represent the Defendant in this matter, to ensure she is advised of her rights, and that she is truly making an informed judgment as to the legal matters at hand. (Emphasis added).

See Exhibit 4.

On February 8, 2018, the Court appointed the undersigned as counsel for Twyla in the Separate Maintenance Case (the Second Action). Within weeks of the appointment, Dennis shut the case down, filing a Stipulation and Order to Dismiss the Separate Maintenance case on February 27, 2018.

On March 29, 2018, the "parties" filed the Third Divorce Action. See Joint Petition for Divorce filed March 29, 2018, attached hereto as Exhibit 5. This Third Action was initially assigned to Judge Hughes per EDCR 5.103.6 Upon discovering that the case had been assigned to Judge Hughes (who was well aware of Twyla's "diminished mental capacity"), Dennis filed a Peremptory Challenge, Exhibit 6, using Twyla as a straw-person to file it,<sup>7</sup> and the case was randomly reassigned to Judge Bryce Duckworth.

Judge Duckworth, however, considered the Peremptory Challenge and determined first that the Third Action must be returned to Judge Hughes (again, per EDCR 5.103(c)(2)) (see note 7 herein), but also that the Peremptory Challenge was untimely. See Judge Duckworth's Minute Order, attached hereto as Exhibit 7.

- Upon the filing of any action, the clerk's office shall utilize the information provided on the Mandatory Family Court Cover Sheet to...determine whether prior cases involving the same parties exist and assign cases pursuant to this rule.
- Pursuant to the mandates of NRS 3.025(3), any and all new cases involving the same parties shall be assigned to the same judicial department in the following manner:
  - If one or more prior cases involving the same parties has previously been filed, the new (2) case shall be assigned to the judicial department assigned to the earlier-filed case.

&lt;sup>7</sup> A copy of the Peremptory Challenge is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. The Court will notice that, on its face, it looks as if it was Twyla who sought to move the case away from Judge Hughes. However, Twyla could not have understood what was happening and simply followed the dictates of Dennis in completing this form. Using Twyla to file the Challenge is just further evidence of Dennis's devious character.

Parties to litigation are not permitted to file a peremptory challenge against a district judge who has previously made rulings on contested issues. This prohibition applies in any subsequent cases between the same parties, which are assigned to that same district judge pursuant to a local case assignment rule. "Allowing a plaintiff to file a peremptory challenge after the filing of any counterclaim would give a plaintiff the opportunity to disqualify the district judge simply because he has made previous unfavorable rulings." Carr-Bricken v. First Interstate Bank, 105 Nev. 570, 573, 779 P.2d 967, 969 (1989). In Carr Bricken, the appellant argued that she should be allowed to file a peremptory challenge after a third-party filed a counterclaim. In that case, the trial court struck the Plaintiff's peremptory challenge and the Supreme Court held that "[since appellant filed her peremptory challenge long after hearings of several contested pretrial matters in th[e] case, her right to a peremptory challenge had been waived as a matter of law." Id.

Judge Duckworth concluded:

The peremptory challenge in this case is comparable to the peremptory challenge filed in Carr-Bricken because it challenges a district judge who previously made substantive pretrial rulings on the merits of a divorce and separate maintenance action between the Parties. The cause of action and issues in this case are identical to those in cases D-16-541006-D and D-16-540966-D because they are both actions for divorce. Had either of these earlier cases resulted in a decree of divorce, the instant case would have been barred under the principle of res judicata. Id.

Given the "parties" multiple filings, the revelation and scope of Dennis' procedural gamesmanship, and the local rule (EDCR 5.103(c)(2)) mandating the return of the case to "to the judicial department assigned to the earlier-filed case", Judge Duckworth transferred the Third Action back to Judge Hughes. And Dennis, not surprisingly, immediately caused the Third Action to be dismissed.

Now fully aware that whatever he filed in Clark County would eventually end up with Judge Hughes, Dennis turned his eye to Nye County, where his past filings need not ever see the light of day. On or about May 30, 2018,8 Dennis caused "the parties" to file a Joint Petition for Divorce before this Court (the "Fourth Divorce Action"). Exhibit 8. Shortly thereafter, "the parties" filed an Amended Joint Petition for Summary Decree of Divorce, wherein Twyla (who lacks the ability to comprehend legal documents or make judgments as to legal matters) somehow miraculously agreed to pay Dennis over $1,500.00 per month in child support – based upon a stated annual income of over $52,000.00. Twyla has not held a job since July 8, 2016.

Dennis's hubris is incomprehensible and unconscionable. Not only does Twyla not have a job, she had difficulties in the past holding even a minimum wage job (she was let go from her last job as a housekeeper because she was too slow to get her work done, and constantly had to rely on the assistance of other housekeepers). Also, notably, the earnings "the parties" attribute to Twyla for purposes of the child support calculation change with each of Dennis's serial filings. For example, in the Complaint for Separate

However, when "the parties" filed the first Joint Petition for Divorce on March 29, 2018, Exhibit 5 hereto, it was claimed that Twyla's monthly child support obligation should be $1,300.00 per month, based upon Twyla's imaginary gross monthly income of $3,052.00 per month (or $36,624.00 per year). See Worksheet A attached to Exhibit 5 hereto. Dennis also claimed that at the time of filing this Joint Petition, Twyla owed him $3,900.00 in arrears.

Finally, when "the parties" filed their Amended Joint Petition for Summary Decree of Divorce with this Court, a mere two months later, it was claimed that Twyla was earning $4,333.33 per month (or $52,000.00 per year), that she should therefore pay Dennis $1,517.00 per month for child support, and that Twyla owed Dennis arrears of $4,551.00. See Worksheet A attached to Amended Joint Petition, Exhibit 8 hereto.

Claiming that Twyla went from earning zero in September 2017 to earning $52,000.00 per year in May 2018, all the while when she is unemployed, shows the falsity Dennis crafted into the various filings. Moreover, the Joint Petition and Decree that Dennis caused to be filed with this Court also contain numerous materially false statements, as follows:

- 1. The filing of the Amended Joint Petition, in and of itself, is a false representation that Twyla even understood what she was signing. The recently performed Psychological Evaluation makes clear that Twyla could not have understood what she was signing (or sacrificing). Indeed, given Twyla's cognitive deficits, it is telling that, other than Twyla's name in the caption and her signature, the entire Joint Petition, Exhibit 3 hereto, is in Dennis's handwriting;
- Given Dennis's three (3) frustrated attempts to secure a divorce in Clark County, it is obvious that Dennis forum-shopped and initiated this action in Nye County to avoid Judge Hughes and obtain an unfair advantage that he could not get in Clark County because of the local rule requiring assignment of new cases involving the same parties back to the original department. Well aware that Judge Hughes would not allow the trampling of Twyla's "due process" rights, Dennis moved the game;
- 3. The Joint Petition in this case requires that Twyla should be the party responsible for maintaining medical and dental insurance for the six (6) children, even though Twyla is not employed, has not held a job since July 8, 2016, and could not have understood to what she was agreeing;
- 4. The Joint Petition filed with this Court claims at paragraph 14 that Twyla should pay Dennis monthly child support of $1,517.00, based upon an annual income of $52,000.00 (and calculations set forth at Worksheet A). Again, this is totally false. Twyla would never have knowingly agreed to Dennis having primary physical custody of the parties' children or to paying child support of

- 5. The Joint Petition falsely represents at paragraph 17 that Twyla agrees she owes Dennis child support arrears of $4,551.00, when both "parties" clearly know Twyla has no job, no income, and no ability to pay child support now or at any other time;
- The Joint Petition states further at paragraph 18 that Twyla would receive 100% of Dennis's I.B.E.W. 357 Pension Trust Plan B (and that, in exchange, Dennis would receive Plan A and the N.E.B.F. Pension Benefit). However, the evidence will show that Twyla received a check from I.B.E.W Local Union 357 in the amount of $36,176.00 and, on August 9, 2018, deposited this check to her savings account at Bank of America. Four days later, on August 13, 2018, it is believed that Dennis drove Twyla to the bank, ordered her to go in and withdraw all of the funds in the account in cash and close the account. See Bank of America Statement dated September 5, 2018, Exhibit 10 hereto. Twyla did as he commanded, just as she always does. She withdrew the $36,176.00 in cash (plus the balance of $10.06 that had been in the account prior to the deposit) and closed the account. When she got back in the car, Dennis took the cash from her. Twyla has no idea what happened to the cash after Dennis ordered her to give it to him and Dennis must be held to account for his actions and explain where the money went;10
- 7. The Decree arising out of the Joint Petition (Exhibit 9) awards Dennis 100% of the parties' marital residence located at 7088 Los Banderos Ave., Las Vegas, Nevada. It is believed there is equity of approximately $60,000.00 to $100,000.00 in the residence (the actual equity amount is difficult to ascertain as Dennis has failed to pay the mortgage and has allowed arrears of nearly $50,000.00 to accrue (see Joint Petition, paragraph 19, Husband's debts);
- 8. Finally, to the extent the Joint Petition claims that the "parties" have entered into an equitable agreement settling all issues regarding assets, debts, and spousal support, this is completely false. The Decree ultimately filed in this case does not require any payment of spousal support even though the parties have been married 14 years and Twyla was, for almost the entirety of the marriage, a stay-at-home wife and mother to their six children. The Decree further claims, at paragraph 23, that it is "understood" that the Petitioners have given up various rights. With reading and comprehension levels of an elementary school child, there is no way Twyla could have understood what "rights" she was giving up. Dennis drafted the entire marital settlement agreement and Twyla would have no understanding of what she was signing, what she was "agreeing to", and what she was giving up.

See Psychological Evaluation which has been submitted to the Court for its in camera inspection.

Notably on August 31, 2018, within days of stealing her money, Dennis gave Twyla $50.00 and put her on a bus to Arkansas. Twyla arrived in Arkansas a few days later, on September 2, 2018, and still had the same $50.00 Dennis had given her. See Declaration of Monette DuMond, attached hereto as Exhibit 11. For whatever reason, whether sympathy, compassion, or pity, all of Twyla's meals were bought by others on the bus. If Twyla still had the money she withdrew from the bank on August 13, 2018, there is no doubt she would have with arrived in Arkansas with all of that money in tact and in her possession, just like the $50.00 Dennis gave her when he put her on the bus.

The multiple filings by these "parties", all orchestrated by Dennis, warrant that the Decree filed by this Court be set aside and the Joint Petition dismissed. Dennis may not be allowed to "game" the system by forum-shopping, finding a court that would be unaware of "the parties" filing history, make multiple false representations regarding Twyla's income for the sake of claiming that she pay child support, falsely claim that the parties have agreed upon an equitable distribution of assets and debts, and award Twyla the benefit of his I.B.E.W. Plan B pension only to steal that money away from her. Twyla does not possess the ability to comprehend these statements or what she was signing, and Dennis knowingly used her mental disability against her, exploiting Twyla, who clearly is a vulnerable person.

NRS ¶200.5091 et seq. makes it a crime to exploit a vulnerable person. Subsection 8 of NRS ¶200.5092 defines a vulnerable person as a person 18 years of age or older who:

- Suffers from a condition of physical or mental incapacitation because of a developmental (a) disability, organic brain damage or mental illness; or
- Has one or more physical or mental limitations that restrict the ability of the person to (b) perform the normal activities of daily living.

Twyla has a tested IQ score of 69. She has the reading ability and comprehension of a second or third grader. Persons have an IQ score below 70 are considered feeble-minded or even mildly retarded.

Exploitation of a vulnerable person carries significant criminal penalties. A first offense is either a category C felony (punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 5 years, and the possibility of a fine of not more than $10,000.00), or a gross misdemeanor (punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 364 days, or by a fine of not more than $2,000, or both).

In light of Dennis's serial filings, his serial attempts to exploit Twyla, knowing full well that she lacks the ability to comprehend (as Judge Hughes made clear in her minute order, Exhibit 5 hereto), and taking from her in cash that I.B.E.W. benefit that was "awarded" to her in the Divorce, there can be no doubt as to his guilt under NRS 200.5091. Similarly, there can be no doubt as to whether this Court should set aside the Decree, dismiss the Joint Petition with prejudice, and award Twyla $3,200.00, the full amount of her fees and costs in bringing this action.

RULE 60(b) GRANTS THIS COURT THE AUTHORITY TO SET THE DECREE ASIDE

Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) provides relief from a judgment or order arising from or containing mistakes, inadvertence, excusable neglect, newly discovered evidence, or fraud, and states as follows:

On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or a party's legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; or, (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that an injunction should have prospective application. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than 6 months after the proceeding was taken or the date that written notice of entry of the judgment or order was served. A motion under this subdivision (b) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review, are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action.

This Motion is brought pursuant to NRCP 60(b)(3), to set aside the Decree of Divorce as fraudulently obtained. This subsection of the Rule provides that the motion be brought not more than 6 months after the proceeding was taken or the date that written notice of entry was served. This Motion is being filed within the six months after the proceeding was taken, which was June 7, 2018.

IV.

THERE IS SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE OF A FRAUD UPON THE COURT TO WARRANT SETTING ASIDE THE DECREE AND DISMISSAL OF THE JOINT PETITION WITH PREJUDICE

There is substantial evidence of Dennis's attempts to get this divorce, but only on his fraudulent terms. In the First Action, the parties settled on the eve of Defendant having the children removed from his custody due to his failure to properly supervise those six children. In the Second Action, Judge Hughes stated in a minute order, the Court is aware that Defendant has a diminished mental capacity and lacks the ability to comprehend legal documents or make judgments as to legal matters. In good conscience, and for purposes of due process, the Court cannot approve the Defendant's alleged agreements with Plaintiff until Defendant receives independent legal counsel.

Thus, upon the undersigned being appointed as independent legal counsel for Twyla, Dennis immediately caused to be filed a Stipulation and Order for Voluntary Dismissal of Case. In the Third Action, Dennis filed another Stipulation and Order for Voluntary Dismissal once Judge Duckworth denied the Peremptory Challenge as impermissible and untimely, and referred the case back to Judge Hughes, who was clearly familiar with Dennis's machinations.

Dennis has tried repeatedly to seek a divorce on his (and only) his terms, rather than provide his wife and the mother of his children with proper support and an equitable division of assets. He finally succeeded by filing in another County, where knowledge of his past filings could be completely concealed.

THE JOINT PETITION SHOULD BE DISMISSED FOR FRAUD AND BECAUSE TWYLA DOES NOT POSSESS THE REQUISITE CAPACITY TO COMPREHEND ANY OF THE PLEADINGS OR PAPERS FILED IN THIS ACTION

According to the Psychological Evaluation, Twyla's full-Scale IQ score of 69 is significantly below average. The evaluation also finds that Twyla has a reading comprehension score of beginning 2nd grade and a basic reading skill level of beginning 3rd grade. Because of that, the examiner expressed "doubt" that that Twyla was able to read and comprehend the divorce documents that Dennis drafted and had her sign. In other words, it does not appear possible that Twyla could have read the divorce paperwork and understood that she was, for example, (1) agreeing to sign over the house to Dennis; (2) agreeing to pay Dennis over $1,500 per month in child support; or (3) giving Dennis full custody of the children; or (4) forgoing any spousal support.

VI.

PLAINTIFF IS ENTITLED TO AN AWARD OF ATTORNEYS FEES AND COSTS

Dennis has behaved in a secretive, unethical, and likely illegal manner in his attempt to secure a decree of divorce through false and fraudulent measures including, without limitation, filing in Nye County after three failed attempts in Clark Count and by representing to the Court (more than once) that the "parties" were filing a Joint Petition when they clearly were not. Dennis's efforts to secure a divorce in Clark Count failed because there is a local rule requiring that an action by the same parties must go back to the original department. There being no comparable rule in the Fifth Judicial District, Dennis was free to tell this Court whatever he wanted, without the bother of full and honest disclosure to this tribunal. This cannot be allowed.

NRS ¶18.010 reads in relevant part:

Award of attorney's fees.

- In addition to the cases where an allowance is authorized by specific statute, the (1)court may make an allowance of attorney's fees to a prevailing party:
  - without regard to the recovery sought, when the court finds that the claim, (b) counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party complaint or defense of the opposing party was brought or maintained without reasonable ground or to harass the prevailing party. The court shall liberally construe the provisions of this paragraph in favor of awarding attorney's fee in all appropriate situations. It is the intent of the Legislature that the court award attorney's fees pursuant to this paragraph and impose sanctions pursuant to Rule 11 of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure in all appropriate situations to punish for and deter frivolous or vexatious claims and defenses because such claims and defenses overburden limited judicial resources, hinder the timely resolution of meritorious claims and increase the costs of engaging in business and providing professional services to the public. (Emphasis added)

N.R.C.P. 11(b) provides, in relevant party, that

By presenting to the court (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) a pleading, written motion, or other paper, an attorney or unrepresented party is certifying that to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances,—

- (1) it is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation;
- (2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law;
- (3) the allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and
- (4) the denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence or, if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.

In this case, Dennis, in signing the Joint Petition filed with this Court, violated Rule 11(b)(1) and (3). The Joint Petition contains numerous false representations which are more fully described herein at pages 8 and 9. The filing of the Joint Petition in Nye County, and the false statements contained therein, have been presented for the "improper purpose" of avoiding Judge Hughes, not having to disclose the prior filings in the Eight Judicial District Court, and, through the various false representation, to exploit and take unfair advantage of Twyla's mental disability. Accordingly, under NRS ¶18.010 and Rule 11, Dennis should be ordered to pay all of the fees and costs Twyla has been required to expend in bringing this Motion.

Under Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat'l Bank, 85 Nev. 345 (1969), when courts determine the appropriate legal fees to award in civil cases, they must consider the following factors:

1. The Qualities of the Advocate:

Plaintiff's attorney, Christopher F. Owen, Esq., has been a Nevada licensed attorney since 2012 and has actively practiced in various courts in Southern Nevada since that time. He has been counsel on various family law cases and has generally prevailed. He has a good professional standing in the community and is a strong advocate for his clients.

2. The Character and Difficulty of the Work Performed:

There was significant time and skill devoted to the handling of the matter presently before this Court, including but not limited to, preparing the pleadings, hours spent in preparation and analysis of said pleadings, to prosecute this matter at hearing and drafting of the subsequent order.

The Work Actually Performed: 3.

The Court can clearly see that the work required in this matter will have earned Counsel every hour billed. Counsel charges $275/hour, which is very reasonable considering most attorneys in the Las Vegas area charge between $275-$600/hour.

The Results Obtained:

Twyla's fundamental marital, property, and jurisdictional rights are at issue here. Dennis has attempted to conduct an end run around failed proceedings in Clark County by forum shopping and filing in Nye County, where he could have Twyla sign the paperwork without her comprehending what she was signing and knew he would fly clear of the radar of the judicial authorities in Clark County, who would know nothing of his filing in another County.

The Court must not tolerate such actions. The Court needs to set aside the decree of divorce as fraudulently obtained, to dismiss the joint petition for divorce with prejudice, and to sanction Dennis for forum shopping and perpetrating a fraud upon the court with such sanctions including, without limitation, an order that Dennis pay the full amount of Twyla's attorney's fees and costs in bringing this Motion.

VII.

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, the First Joint Petitioner/Plaintiff hereby requests, based on the foregoing, that this Court:

- Set Aside Decree of Divorce as Fraudulently Obtained Pursuant to Rule 60(b); 1.
- Dismiss the Joint Petition for Divorce with prejudice; and 2.
- Order that the Second Joint Petitioner/Defendant, DENNIS STANTON, pay the full 3. amount of Plaintiff's fees and costs in having to bring this motion to set aside a decree and dismiss a divorce action that was obtained by Defendant by perpetrating a fraud upon the court.

Dated this 15th day of November, 2018.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAULKNER COUNTY, ARKANSAS PROBATE DIVISION 5th DIVISION

IN THE MATTER OF TWYLA MARIE MCCURDY, An incapacitated person

23PR-18-640

ORDER APPOINTING TEMPORARY CO-GUARDIANS OF THE PERSON AND ESTATE

Now on this day, came on for hearing Petitioners' Verified Petition for Appointment of Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate, and the Court being well and otherwise sufficiently advised, THE COURT DOTH FIND:

- 1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter. Venue is proper.
- 2. The Court finds that the incapacitated person, Twyla Marie McCurdy, is in need of a guardian of the person and estate to care for her and it would be in her best interest to have a guardian appointed. The Court finds that the incapacitated person has a minimal estate consisting clothing and personal effects with an approximate value of less than $500.00.
- 3. That Petitioners, Robert Crawford and Carmen Crawford, 129 Mill Creek Drive, Greenbrier, AR 72058, should be and are hereby appointed Temporary Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate of Twyla Marie McCurdy, DOB: 8/6/85 and are to serve without bond.

  IT IS SO ORDERED.

- MINUTE ORDER: NO HEARING HELD and NO APPEARANCES

NRCP 1 and EDCR 1.10 state that the procedure in district courts shall be administered to secure efficient, speedy, and inexpensive determinations in every action. Pursuant to EDCR 2.23(c) and 5.501(b), this Court can consider a motion and issue a decision on the papers at any time without a hearing. Further, pursuant to EDCR 2.20(c), this Court can grant the requested relief if there is no opposition timely filed.

The Court has researched its duties with respect to ensuring due process to the Defendant. Through the previous case involving the parties (lead case - D-16-540966-D) consolidated with D-16-541006-D), the Court is aware that Defendant has a diminished mental capacity and lacks the ability to comprehend legal documents or make judgments as to legal matters. In good conscience, and for purposes of due process, the Court cannot approve the Defendant's alleged agreements with Plaintiff until Defendant receives independent legal counsel.

Therefore, the Court is appointing Defendant independent legal counsel to represent the Defendant in this matter, to ensure she is advised of her rights, and that she is truly making an informed judgment as to the legal matters at hand. See, Rules of the Code of Judicial Conduct 2.6 ensuring every person has a right to be heard according to law, and the judge's duty to promote settlements that do not coerce any party into settlement.

Prior counsel for Defendant, Christopher Owens, Esq., has accepted the appointment as counsel for Defendant in this matter.

Counsel shall submit an Order of appointment.

Clerk's note, a copy, of today's minute order, was mailed, to the Parties, at the addresses, on file and placed, in counsel's folder, at Family Court.

- 21. Petitioners certify that they have disclosed all community assets and debts and that there are no other community assets or debts for this Court to divide.
- 22. Petitioners hereby request that this Court enter a Decree of Divorce, incorporating into that Decree the provisions made in this Joint Petition.
- 23. It is understood by the Petitioners that entry of a Decree of Divorce constitutes a final adjudication of the rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the status of the marriage. Petitioners each expressly give up their respective rights to receive written notice of entry of any judgment or decree of divorce, and Petitioners give up their right to request formal findings of fact and conclusions of law. Petitioners waive their right to appeal the Decree of Divorce, and the right to move for a new trial.
- 24. It is further understood by the Petitioners that a final Decree of Divorce entered by this summary procedure does not prejudice or prevent the rights of either Petitioner to bring an action to set aside the final decree for fraud, duress, accident, mistake, or the grounds recognized at law or in equity.

Petitioners request:

- 1. That they be granted a Decree of Divorce and that each of the Petitioners be restored to the status of a single, unmarried person;
- 2. That the terms agreed upon in this Joint Petition be included in the Decree.

IOURNAL ENTRIES

- The Parties to this action have submitted an uncontested Decree of Divorce before this Court. Upon review of the filings in this case, and the related proceedings in cases D-16-540966-D, D-16-541006-D and D-17-558626-S, and good cause being found, this Court hereby makes the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Orders:

Findings of Fact

On October 12, 2016, Dennis Stanton filed a Complaint for Divorce against his wife Twyla Stanton. That case was assigned case number D-16-540966-D. This case was assigned to Judge Rena Hughes.

Also on October 12, 2016, Twyla Stanton filed a Complaint for Divorce against her husband Dennis

PRINT DATE:	04/18/2018	Page 1 of 4	Minutes Date:	April 18, 2018

Stanton. That case was assigned case number D-16-541006-D. Pursuant to Eighth Judicial District Court Rule 5.42, this case was also assigned to Judge Hughes. (The Court notes that EDCR 5.42 was replaced by EDCR 5.103 effective January 27, 2017. For the purpose of this analysis, any difference between the two rules is immaterial.)

Case D-16-541006-D was later consolidated with case D-16-540966-D.

Over the next several months, Judge Hughes presided over multiple motion hearings and made substantive rulings on contested matters in the case. Judge Hughes held hearings on November 9, 2016, February 2, 2017, February 9, 2017 and March 16, 2017.

Pursuant to a Stipulation, Judge Hughes entered an Order on March 30, 2017 and dismissed cases D-16-541006-D and D-16-540966-D.

On September 13, 2017, Dennis Stanton filed a Complaint for Separate Maintenance against his wife Twyla Stanton. That case was assigned case number D-16-558626-S. Pursuant to Eighth Judicial District Court Rule 5.103, this case was assigned to Judge Hughes.

On January 31, 2018, Dennis Stanton filed a Notice of Voluntary Dismissal.

On February 1, 2018, Judge Hughes issued a Minute Order stating her intent to appoint counsel for Twyla Stanton.

Judge Hughes entered her Order appointing counsel for Twyla Stanton on February 12, 2018.

Pursuant to a Stipulation, Judge Hughes entered an Order on February 26, 2018 dismissing case D-17-558626-S.

On March 29, 2018, the Parties commenced this action by filing a Joint Petition for Divorce. Again, pursuant to EDCR 5.103, the case was assigned to Judge Hughes.

The same day that the Joint Petition was filed, Twyla Stanton filed a Peremptory Challenge of Judge Hughes pursuant to Nevada Supreme Court Rule 48.1.

Upon filing of the Peremptory Challenge, the Clerk's Office randomly reassigned the case to this Court and filed a Notice of Department Reassignment on March 29, 2018.

Additionally, pursuant to the requirements of EDCR 5.103, the Clerk's Office reassigned each of the cases identified above and several related Temporary Protective Order cases to this Court.

Conclusions of Law

Pursuant to Nevada Supreme Court Rule 48.1 and State, Dept. of Motor Vehicles & Pub. Safety v. Eighth Judicial District Court, 113 Nev. 1338, 948 P.2d 261 (1997), the judge to whom a case is reassigned after a peremptory challenge has authority to determine the timeliness of the peremptory challenge.

Supreme Court Rule 48.1(3)(b) prohibits a party from filing a peremptory challenge "less than 3 days before the date set for the hearing of any contested pretrial matter,..."

Supreme Court Rule 48.1(5) prohibits a party from filing a peremptory challenge against "any judge who has made any ruling on a contested matter in the action."

The failure to file a timely peremptory challenge results in a waiver of the right to file the challenge. Jeaness v. Second Judicial District Court, 97 Nev. 218, 626 P.2d 272 (1981).

The restrictions on peremptory challenges contained in Sections 3 and 5 of Rule 48.1 work to prohibit a party from forum shopping between district judges. See generally Nevada Pay TV v. Eighth Judicial District Court, 102 Nev. 203, 719 P.2d 797 (1986).

Parties to litigation are not permitted to file a peremptory challenge against a district judge who has previously made rulings on contested issues. This prohibition applies in any subsequent cases between the same parties, which are assigned to that same district judge pursuant to a local case assignment rule. "Allowing a plaintiff to file a peremptory challenge after the filing of any counterclaim would give a plaintiff the opportunity to disqualify the district judge simply because he has made previous unfavorable rulings." Carr-Bricken v. First Interstate Bank, 105 Nev. 570, 573, 779 P.2d 967, 969 (1989). In Carr Bricken, the appellant argued that she should be allowed to file a peremptory challenge after a third-party filed a counterclaim. In that case, the trial court struck the Plaintiff's peremptory challenge and the Supreme Court held that "[s]ince appellant filed her peremptory challenge long after hearings of several contested pretrial matters in th[e] case, her right to a peremptory challenge had been waived as a matter of law." Id.

The peremptory challenge in this case is comparable to the peremptory challenge filed in Carr-Bricken because it challenges a district judge who previously made substantive pre-trial rulings on the merits of a divorce and separate maintenance action between the Parties.

The cause of action and issues in this case are identical to those in cases D-16-541006-D and D-16-540966-D because they are both actions for divorce. Had either of these earlier cases resulted in a decree of divorce, the instant case would have been barred under the principle of res judicata.

PRINT DATE:	04/18/2018	Page 3 of 4	Minutes Date:	April 18, 2018

The cause of action and issues in this case are substantively indistinguishable from those in case D-16-558626-S because of the natural overlap between divorce and separate maintenance cases. Should that case have resulted in a decree of separate maintenance, the instant case would not have been barred under res judicata; however, the principle of collateral estoppel would have been dispositive for all issues in the divorce action except whether the parties are incompatible.

The general prohibition against forum shopping between district judges prohibits a party from filing a peremptory challenge under the circumstances detailed above.

Therefore, under these circumstances, the Court concludes that the peremptory challenge filed by Twyla Stanton on March 29, 2018 is untimely under Nevada Supreme Court Rule 48.1(3) because it was not filed 3 days prior to a contested hearing. Additionally, the Court concludes that the peremptory challenge is prohibited by SCR 48.1(5) because it was filed against a district judge that has made rulings on contested issues between the parties.

Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that this action be reassigned to Department J, District Judge Hughes for handling.

It is further ORDERED that the Decree of Divorce submitted to this Court be delivered to Judge Hughes for handling.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS 125.510(6): PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER; THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN MRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193 130. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private hitematical Life apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice of the following provisions in NRS 125.510(8): 13 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has alguificant commitments in a foreign country: (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual pesidence of the child for the purposes of applying the 15 terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7: (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the 17 18 court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

26 27 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS, 125C 200;

If custody has been established and the custodial parent intends to move his residence to a place outside of this state and to take the child with him, he must, as soon as possible and before the planned move, attemnt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent to move the child from this state. If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, the custodial parent shall, before he leaves this state with the child, petition the court for permission to move the child. The failure of a parent to comply with the provisions of this section may be considered as a factor if a change of custody is requested by the noncustodial parent.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that they are subject to the provisions of NRS 31A and 125.450 regarding the collection of delinquent child support payments.

DECLARATION OF MONETTE DUMOND IN SUPPORT OF FIRST JOINT PETITIONER/PLAINTIFF'S INSTANT MOTION

I, MONETTE DuMOND, residing at 6 Charles Street, Conway, Arkansas, do hereby declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

- 1. I am the maternal grandmother of the First Joint Petitioner/Plaintiff, TWYLA STANTON ("Twyla"), and do hereby make this declaration based upon my personal knowledge and, for those matters not based upon personal knowledge, I make these statements upon information and belief;
- 2. It is my understanding and belief that on August 31, 2018, the Second Joint Petitioner/Defendant, DENNIS STANTON ("Dennis"), put Twyla on a bus headed to Conway, Arkansas, where I reside;
- 3. On information and belief, Dennis also gave Twyla a plane ticket for her return trip to Las Vegas;
- 4. It is also my understanding and belief that, at the time of this trip, Twyla had a prescription for Zyprexa, but that Dennis took this medication out of Twyla's purse before putting her on the bus, telling her, "You won't be needing this.";
- 5. Upon Twyla's arrival in Conway on or about September 2, 2018, it is my understanding that Twyla took an Uber from the bus station to my house;
- 6. When Twyla arrived, I was very surprised to see her because I did not even know she was coming;
- 7. When Twyla arrived at my house, I had an opportunity to personally observe what she had with her;
- 8. Her possessions upon arrival were limited to the clothes on her back, and clothes and other miscellaneous belongings in a suit case;
- 9. Twyla told me that Dennis had given her $50.00 when he put her on the bus;
- 10. When Twyla arrived at my house, she still had the same $50.00 that Dennis had given her; she had not spent a penny of that money:
- 11. Shortly thereafter, it is my understanding that Twyla called Dennis and was told by him that he had cancelled her plane ticket and that he and Twyla were now "officially divorced," which appeared to be the first time Twyla realized she was divorced.

I declare, under penalty of perjury under the law of the State of Nevada, that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED this 13 day of November 2018.

IN THE MATTER OF TWYLA MARIE MCCURDY, An incapacitated person

23PR-18-640

ORDER APPOINTING TEMPORARY CO-GUARDIANS OF THE PERSON AND ESTATE

Now on this day, came on for hearing Petitioners' Verified Petition for Appointment of Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate, and the Court being well and otherwise sufficiently advised, THE COURT DOTH FIND:

- 1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter. Venue is proper.
- 2. The Court finds that the incapacitated person, Twyla Marie McCurdy, is in need of a guardian of the person and estate to care for her and it would be in her best interest to have a guardian appointed. The Court finds that the incapacitated person has a minimal estate consisting clothing and personal effects with an approximate value of less than $500.00.
- 3. That Petitioners, Robert Crawford and Carmen Crawford, 129 Mill Creek Drive, Greenbrier, AR 72058, should be and are hereby appointed Temporary Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate of Twyla Marie McCurdy, DOB: 8/6/85 and are to serve without bond.

Mr. Owens.

I was wondering and hoping if you would agree to a stipulation and order to extend the time for me to reply to your motion and also for a request to continue the hearing. I'm going to need more time to prepare as there were a lot of inaccuracies and inconsistencies in your court pleadings that I'm going to have to correct for the record. If you can get that to me as soon as possible, I would greatly appreciate it. I also called your office yesterday evening to discuss this, however, there was no answer so I left a message and I did not receive a callback. Thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

Dennis V. Stanton Direct - (702) 764-4690 dennisvstanton30@gmail.com

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAULKNER COUNTY, ARRAONSAS Pages PROBATE DIVISION

IN THE MATTER OF TWYLA MARIE MCCURDY An incapacitated person

RESPONSE TO PETITIONERS' PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT AS CO-GUARDIANS

Comes Twyla Marie McCurdy, by and through her attorney, Ron Goodman, and for her Response to Petitioners' Petition for Appointment as Co-Guardians of her person and estate states as follows:

- 1. Twyla McCurdy, Respondent, disputes the allegations of incapacity raised in the Petitioners' Petition:
- Respondent states that she does not reside at 129 Mill Creek Drive in Greenbrier, Arkansas as the Petitioners have alleged;
- Respondent states that she is an adult person who has never had a guardian or need of a guardian. She was married for 14 years, kept house, raised six (6) children and cared for them and was gainfully employed.
- 4. Robert Crawford, Petitioner is not Respondent's natural father as claimed in the Petition;
- Respondent had never met or been examined by Dr. Ann Prather before the Petitioners instituted this action and I dispute her findings;
- Respondent would like to be examined by a physician of her choosing or in the alternative have the records of her long standing physician Dr. Pamela Greenspun presented to the Court;

- 7. Until approximately four (4) months ago Respondent was a resident of Las Vegas, Nevada. All of her friends, her children, her ex-husband and any persons she would call as witnesses on her behalf to refute the Petitioners' allegations reside in Las Vegas, Nevada.
- 8. The Petitioners are attempting to gain control of Respondent to obtain funds on her behalf to convert for their use and benefit. Petitioners loaned Respondent a large sum of money to pay for a divorce and are using the Guardianship process to obtain re-payment of that money. This is the true motivation of the Petitioners.
- 9. Respondent requests the Court to deny Petitioners' Petition for Guardianship, to continue the Court's hearing of December 10, 2018 so as to allow Respondent the time to secure witness testimony and to secure and present documentation refuting Petitioners' allegations.
- 10. Respondent requests the Court to caution the Petitioners to allow Respondent to have communication with anyone she wishes especially her attorney in the preparation and presentation of her defense.
