ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO STRIKE

Appellants have filed a motion to strike certain documents from respondents' appendix as well as the parts of the answering brief that rely on those documents. Respondents oppose the motion and appellants have replied.

Respondents' appendix contains district court minutes and a transcript of proceedings that relate to proceedings that occurred after entry of the order challenged in this appeal. The minutes and transcript are not properly part of the record in this appeal because they reflect proceedings that occurred after entry of the appealed-from order. The remainder of the documents in respondents' appendix consist of documents filed in the district court after entry of the district court order challenged in this appeal. Such documents are not properly part of the record in this appeal because they were not considered by the district court in reaching its decision on the order challenged on appeal. Accordingly, the motion is granted to the following extent. The clerk shall strike respondents' appendix, filed on September 21, 2021. This court will disregard any argument in the answering brief that relies on the documents in respondents' appendix.

It is so ORDERED.
