Decision: Defendant's Pro Per Motion to Dismiss Insufficient Information

Continued;

Continued; Defendant's Pro Per Motion to Dismiss Insufficient Information

Denied;

Journal Entry Details:

This Court, having reviewed Defendant s Motion To Dismiss For Insufficient Information, the State s Opposition, the Defendant s Reply to State s Opposition to Defendant s Motion To Dismiss Insufficient Information, and having considered oral argument, FINDS that Defendant s Motion To Dismiss For Insufficient Evidence is without merit and is therefore DENIED. Defendant, in propria persona, is charged by way of Information with the following counts: (1) Sex Trafficking of a Child Under 18 Years of Age, (2) First Degree Kidnapping, (3) Living From the Earnings of a Prostitute, and (4) Child Abuse, Neglect, or Endangerment. These charges stem from the allegation that between February 8, 2015 to February 15, 2015, Defendant took the victim, G.K. from her home in Clark County Nevada, to engage in acts of prostitution. The sufficiency of an Information is determined by whether the indictment adequately alleges the elements of the offense and fairly informs the defendant of the charge, not whether the government can prove its case. United States v. Blinder, 10 F.3d 1468, 1471 (9th Cir. 1993) (quoting United States v. Buckley, 689 F.2d 893, 897 (9th Cir. 1982)). An Indictment, is sufficient if the offense is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. Brimmage v. State, 93 Nev. 434, 440, 567 P.2d 54, 58 (1977). In Sheriff, Clark County v. Levinson, the Court stated that, [i]n the Information, the prosecution is required to make a definite statement of facts constituting the offense in order to adequately notify the accused of the charges and to prevent the prosecution from circumventing the notice requirement by changing theories of the case. Sheriff, Clark County v. Levinson, 95 Nev. 436, 437 (1979) citing Simpson v. District Court, 88 Nev. 654, 503 P. 2d 1225 (1972). The Court in Levinson found that the accused was given adequate notice when the Information contained a specific date, location, and type of offense. Id. The question before the Levinson court was not whether the Information was artfully drafted, but instead, whether the Information provided adequate notice to the accused. This is the same question before the Court in the instance case. The Information at issue is charging Defendant with four separate offenses. The State is alleging that all four offenses took place in Clark County Nevada, on or between February 8, 2015 and February 13, 2015. In applying the above standards to the current Information, this Court FINDS that the Information adequately informs Defendant of the offenses charged. Additionally this Court FINDS that the Information in this case is adequate to put Defendant on notice of where the alleged offenses took place, because the State has alleged that the offenses took place in Clark County Nevada. The Court FINDS that the six day time period (February 8, 2015 to February 13, 2015), in which the State is alleging the offenses took place, is adequate to put Defendant on notice of when the alleged offenses occurred. This six day time period alleged by the State is specific enough to allow Defendant to prepare any defenses, alibis, or to seek witnesses in his favor, or other theories he may have as a result of the specific time frame the State is alleging the offenses occurred during. The Court FINDS that the each alleged count contains enough facts to put Defendant on notice of the types of offenses Defendant is being alleged to have committed. Defendant's argument that the Information lacks essential facts regarding the offenses charged, as well as Defendant's argument that the Information is inadequate because it fails to inform the Defendant of the various theories of prosecution, is without merit. As stated in Blinder, the question is not whether the State can prove its case against Defendant, instead it is whether the State alleged enough facts so that Defendant has been put on notice of the charges against him. The Court also FINDS that Defendant's argument that the Information is insufficient because it only contains conclusory language is misplaced. At the Information stage of the proceedings, the State is under no obligation to present their entire case to the Defendant via the Information, nor are they under any obligation to present all evidence they plan to use against Defendant at trial via the Information. Moreover, it is clear from Defendant's motions that were filed in response to the charges, that Defendant is well aware of the charges against him and has been proceeding with his Defense accordingly. For the aforementioned reasons, this Court FINDS that the Information adequate because it puts Defendant on notice of where the alleged crimes were committed, when the alleged crimes took place, and what the alleged crimes are, and for those reasons Defendant's Motion to Dismiss For Insufficient Information is DENIED. CLERK'S NOTE: A copy of this minute order has been e-mailed to Sam Martinez, Deputy District Attorney, Robert Beckett, Esq., and mailed to: Christian Miles, #2888634 CCDC 330 South Casino Center Las Vegas, NV 89101 ; Continued;

CASE SUMMARY

Court noted it would continue that matter until Tuesday, September 10, 2019. Deft. inquired about Motions, which the Court noted it signed the Order denying all of the Deft.'s Motions; which had been filed. Deft. was given a copy of the Order in OPEN COURT. Colloquy between parties regarding Motion in Limine and Motion to Suppress Facebook evidence. Court noted if Deft. was missing something he would have to submit that in writing indicating the date of hearing that the specific Motion was argued. Statements by Deft. regarding Motions he filed. Following colloquy, Court inquired if Mr. Christensen sent anyone to be appointed as counsel for Deft.'s appeal. Court noted there was previously a concern due to the victim in the instant case being on juvenile probation and the Court didn't know if there was a conflict due to that. Ms. Walkenshaw advised the Court it seemed as though the Public Defender's office couldn't represent the Deft. Court advised parties it would contact Mr. Christensen's office to have someone present on Tuesday, September 10, 2019. Deft. indicated the Motion the Court was referring to was filed on February 18, 2018. Colloquy between parties. Mr. Martinez indicated his staff went through everything to make sure it was all filed and it was. Following colloquy, COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED. - Mr. Colucci advised he will be in trial today and they are dark tomorrow, Thursday and Friday but he will be in trial the following week and he has a trial in March and April. Side bar. Court advised Mr. Martinez will move another trial he has with Judge Delaney in March or have someone else cover it. COURT ORDERED, Trial date VACATED and RESET.

Deft advised he has not received discovery on the alleged victim's records which was six months ago and he sent a motion to Dismiss to Mr. Colucci. Court advised Deft that he can represent himself but he doesn't tell his lawyer to file motions and District Court Judges do not make determinations of creditability. Court advised Deft the law is one witness worthy of belief is sufficient for the proof of any fact, then you go to trial. Court advised the motion to Dismiss has zero chance of getting granted and maybe that's why he hasn't filed it. Deft requested Discovery. Mr. Colucci stated he has possibly done it twice but if he hasn't received it then he will make it a third time. Deft stated there was from Craig's list advertising messages, facebook, text now messages, any phone information from the victim's phone, LVMPD reports and 911 calls by Becky York on February 8th. Court advised the one thing you may not have that moment is the 911 call because you don't have the ability to play it so you don't get it in your property but we will deal with that issue in two weeks. Court asked Mr. Colucci to bring the 911 call and it can be played at the end of calendar but Deft is not allowed to take the disk with him because it is not allowed in his property. Deft asked if he could get the background check of the victim or the arrest reports of the alleged victim in that time frame. Mr. Colucci advised he has an investigator that will provided him with any information. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Martinez advised she is a child and was 17 years old at the time. Court advised Deft is asking for juvenile criminal history and counsel can submit an ex-parte application. Court advised she will conduct an in camera review and production. Court requested an order for juvenile records of Gabrielle King with date of birth for in camera production not to be distributed to the parties, just to the Court. COURT ORDERED, matter set in two weeks for a status check on Deft's discovery exchange but not the 911 call and Trial date RESET. Court asked Mr. Colucci to bring a packet with no staples.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- This Court, having reviewed Defendant s Motion To Dismiss For Insufficient Information, the State s Opposition, the Defendant s Reply to State s Opposition to Defendant s Motion To Dismiss Insufficient Information, and having considered oral argument, FINDS that Defendant s Motion To Dismiss For Insufficient Evidence is without merit and is therefore DENIED.

Defendant, in propria persona, is charged by way of Information with the following counts: (1) Sex Trafficking of a Child Under 18 Years of Age, (2) First Degree Kidnapping, (3) Living From the Earnings of a Prostitute, and (4) Child Abuse, Neglect, or Endangerment. These charges stem from the allegation that between February 8, 2015 to February 15, 2015, Defendant took the victim, G.K. from her home in Clark County Nevada, to engage in acts of prostitution.

The sufficiency of an Information is determined by whether the indictment adequately alleges the elements of the offense and fairly informs the defendant of the charge, not whether the government can prove its case. United States v. Blinder, 10 F.3d 1468, 1471 (9th Cir. 1993) (quoting United States v. Buckley, 689 F.2d 893, 897 (9th Cir. 1982)). An Indictment, is sufficient if the offense is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. Brimmage v. State, 93 Nev. 434, 440, 567 P.2d 54, 58 (1977).

In Sheriff, Clark County v. Levinson, the Court stated that, [i]n the Information, the prosecution is required to make a definite statement of facts constituting the offense in order to adequately notify the accused of the charges and to prevent the prosecution from circumventing the notice requirement by changing theories of the case. Sheriff, Clark County v. Levinson, 95 Nev. 436, 437 (1979) citing Simpson v. District Court, 88 Nev. 654, 503 P. 2d 1225 (1972). The Court in Levinson found that the accused was given adequate notice when the Information contained a specific date, location, and type of offense. Id. The question before the Levinson court was not whether the Information was artfully drafted, but instead, whether the Information provided adequate notice to the accused. This is the same question before the Court in the instance case.

The Information at issue is charging Defendant with four separate offenses. The State is alleging that all four offenses took place in Clark County Nevada, on or between February 8, 2015 and February 13, 2015. In applying the above standards to the current Information, this Court FINDS that the Information adequately informs Defendant of the offenses charged.

Additionally this Court FINDS that the Information in this case is adequate to put Defendant on notice of where the alleged offenses took place, because the State has alleged that the offenses took place in Clark County Nevada.

The Court FINDS that the six day time period (February 8, 2015 to February 13, 2015), in which the State is alleging the offenses took place, is adequate to put Defendant on notice of when the alleged offenses occurred. This six day time period alleged by the State is specific enough to allow Defendant to prepare any defenses, alibis, or to seek witnesses in his favor, or other theories he may have as a result of the specific time frame the State is alleging the offenses occurred during.

The Court FINDS that the each alleged count contains enough facts to put Defendant on notice of the types of offenses Defendant is being alleged to have committed. Defendant's argument that the Information lacks essential facts regarding the offenses charged, as well as Defendant's argument that the Information is inadequate because it fails to inform the Defendant of the various theories of prosecution, is without merit. As stated in Blinder, the question is not whether the State can prove its case against Defendant, instead it is whether the State alleged enough facts so that Defendant has been put on notice of the charges against him.

The Court also FINDS that Defendant's argument that the Information is insufficient because it only contains conclusory language is misplaced. At the Information stage of the proceedings, the State is under no obligation to present their entire case to the Defendant via the Information, nor are they under any obligation to present all evidence they plan to use against Defendant at trial via the Information. Moreover, it is clear from Defendant's motions that were filed in response to the charges, that Defendant is well aware of the charges against him and has been proceeding with his Defense accordingly.

For the aforementioned reasons, this Court FINDS that the Information adequate because it puts Defendant on notice of where the alleged crimes were committed, when the alleged crimes took place, and what the alleged crimes are, and for those reasons Defendant's Motion to Dismiss For Insufficient Information is DENIED.

- This Court, having considered the arguments of counsel and the written pleadings, FINDS Defendant's Pro Per Supplemental Motion to Dismiss for Destruction of Evidence (FILED o/a 09/25/18) and Defendant's Pro Per Motion to Dismiss for Destruction of Evidence to be without merit and is therefore DENIED. Stand-by counsel Robert Beckett, Esq., not present. Deft. stated Mr. Beckett is not coming, he does not need him here, and he filed a reply to State's Opposition for the Court. Court asked Deft. whether he wanted to pass the matter, for the Court to read his reply. Deft. stated the Court can pass it, he can submit on the motion, everything is detailed in his motion, and the State has not opposed the supplemental motion to suppress cellular evidence. Court reminded Deft. if he files any more motions, he will not get to trial. Mr. Martinez stated he thought the State filed their oppositions, and will submit on the opposition to the Motion to suppress, further noting Deft. was given leeway by the Court to file supplemental pleadings, and State's opposition addressed the issues. Deft. disagreed that State disputed his motion; and told the Court there were four other arguments he made in the motion, and he had said there was no sufficient basis for probable cause. Discussion as to prior rulings made by Judge Togliatti. Court directed State to submit a one page document incorporating what was presented and ruled on. Deft. stated the issues he raised were not determined by Judge Togliatti. Court explained to Deft. about purposes of jury trials; and also told Deft. it will read his reply, however, the pleadings before the Court that he had submitted gave no basis under these facts. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED for Court to review the reply.

Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Martinez indicated he contacted Parole and Probation (P&P) to strike the portion of the pre-sentence investigation (PSI) report; however, they haven't sent it back and they will probably send a supplemental PSI. Court noted it would continue that matter until Tuesday, September 10, 2019. Deft. inquired about Motions, which the Court noted it signed the Order denying all of the Deft.'s Motions; which had been filed. Deft. was given a copy of the Order in OPEN COURT. Colloquy between parties regarding Motion in Limine and Motion to Suppress Facebook evidence. Court noted if Deft. was missing something he would have to submit that in writing indicating the date of hearing that the specific Motion was argued. Statements by Deft. regarding Motions he filed. Following colloquy, Court inquired if Mr. Christensen sent anyone to be appointed as counsel for Deft.'s appeal. Court noted there was previously a concern due to the victim in the instant case being on juvenile probation and the Court didn't know if there was a conflict due to that. Ms. Walkenshaw advised the Court it seemed as though the Public Defender's office couldn't represent the Deft. Court advised parties it would contact Mr. Christensen's office to have someone present on Tuesday, September 10, 2019. Deft. indicated the Motion the Court was referring to was filed on February 18, 2018. Colloquy between parties. Mr. Martinez indicated his staff went through everything to make sure it was all filed and it was. Following colloquy, COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED. COURT DIRECTED Mr. Martinez to follow up with P&P.
