I.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This is a workers' compensation case. On January 26, 2015, Respondent BRIAN WOLFGRAM's (hereinafter "Respondent") workers' compensation claim closed without a permanent partial disability ("PPD") rating or any lost time benefits. On February 6, 2017, Respondent requested that his claim be reopened for further care. Petitioner CCMSI (hereinafter "Administrator") denied his request under NRS 616C.390(5) as Respondent had never been incapacitated from earning his full wages over the course of his claim and because he did not receive a permanent partial disability ("PPD") award. Respondent appealed.

On September 12, 2018, the Appeals Officer reversed the Administrator, holding as follows:

Claimant has met the statutory requirement of minimum duration of incapacity because he was placed on light duty work restrictions from October 20, 2014 to November 3, 2014, due to an industrial injury for a period of more than 5 days in 2014 and was unable to earn "full wages" during the light duty time period. Claimant earned only base salary for the period of October 20, 2014 to November 3, 2014 and was therefore incapacitated pursuant to NRS 616C.400.

However, the Appeals Officer also concluded that Respondent had not submitted sufficient evidence to support reopening. Therefore, the Appeals Officer ordered that the claim remain closed, but that Respondent should be afforded

1 lifetime reopening rights given that the Appeals Officer concluded that Respondent
2 had proven the minimum duration of incapacity for entitlement to the same.

4 Petitioners filed a Petition for Judicial Review with the District Court based 5 on the Appeals Officer's arbitrary interpretation of statutory terms ("full wages"
6 and "incapacitated") which constituted legal error. The District Court denied
8 Petitioners' Petition for Judicial Review. Petitioners filed the instant appeal to this
9 Court challenging the same.

10 II.

11 SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

13 The inquiry in this case is whether Respondent is entitled to request
14 reopening of his workers' compensation claim. Under NRS 616C.390(5), if 15 Respondent did not receive a permanent partial disability ("PPD") award and did
16 not meet the "minimum duration of incapacity as set forth in NRS 616C.400"
17 while his claim was open, he was required to request reopening of his claim within 18 one (1) year of closure or else he would forfeit any and all reopening rights under 19 the statute.

22 The parties do not dispute that the request for reopening came more than one
23 (1) year after claim closure. Further, the parties do not dispute that Respondent did 24 not receive a PPD award. The question in this case is whether Respondent met the 25
26
27

1 “minimum duration of incapacity as set forth in NRS 616C.400” while his claim
2 was open. Appellants posit that he did not.

4 The evidence in this case establishes that Respondent was given work
5 restrictions from October 20, 2014 to November 3, 2014. Appellant Employer
6 CITY OF HENDERSON (“Employer”) was able to accommodate those 7 restrictions and Respondent was able to earn his full base wages for the entire
8 period. Indeed, the evidence shows that Respondent did not request any lost time
9 benefits or otherwise allege while his claim was open that this industrial injury
10 impacted his ability to earn a wage. However, as a condition of his 11 accommodations, Respondent did not work any overtime. The evidence reflects
12 overtime work/pay was voluntary on the part of the employee and was in no way a 13 condition of Respondent’s employment.
14
16

17 When more than one (1) year after the closure of his claim had passed,
18 Respondent requested reopening. Appellant Third-Party Administrator CCMSI
19 (hereinafter “Administrator”) denied the request under NRS 616C.390(5) as 20 Respondent had not received a PPD rating and had no lost time while the claim 21 was open. The Appeals Officer reversed that determination, holding that the 22 preclusion of overtime work was sufficient to establish that Respondent was 23 incapacitated from earning his “full wages” for at least five (5) days in a twenty 24 (20) day period under NRS 616C.400. However, the Appeals Officer’s definitions
25
26
27

1 of "full wages" and "incapacitated" were arbitrary as there was no showing that
2 Respondent actually lost wages.

4 Indeed, although it is uncontested that Respondent was precluded from 5 working overtime for the subject period, it is also uncontested that overtime work
6 was strictly voluntary and there was no evidence to show that Respondent actually 7 lost wages for the period. It is Administrator's position that for Respondent to 8 prove that he did not earn his "full wages" as defined by NRS 616C.400, there
9 must be some allegation that wages were actually lost, that the wage Respondent
10 received for the subject period was something less than "full." Indeed, Respondent 11 did not request any wage replacement benefits for the subject period nor is he 12 alleging that he should have even been entitled to them. Without a contest from the 13 claimant while the claim is open that he did not otherwise receive his full wages as 14 a consequence of his industrial injury, Respondent should be precluded from 15 requesting reopening of his claim by operation of NRS 616C.390(5). The Appeals
16 Officer erred in holding otherwise and Appellants respectfully request that this
17 Court reverse the Appeals Officer and hold that NRS 616C.390(5) precludes
18 Respondent from requesting reopening of this claim.

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES FOR REVIEW

1. WHETHER RESPONDENT WAS PREVENTED FROM EARNING “FULL WAGES” WHILE ON LIGHT DUTY WHEN CLAIMANT DID NOT CLAIM ANY LOST WAGES FOR THE SAME PERIOD?

IV.

FACTS NECESSARY TO UNDERSTAND ISSUE PRESENTED

On October 18, 2014, Respondent alleged an injury to both arms/hands due to assisting with loading approximately 1000 feet of hose while training. The physician on the C-4 Form diagnosed bilateral wrist tenosynovitis, cervical strain r/o radiculopathy and bilateral elbow tenosynovitis. (Appellants’ Appendix p. 68)(hereinafter “APP”)

Employer completed a C-3 Form. (APP p. 69)

An Incident Report was completed by Respondent. (APP p. 70)

A Witness Report was completed by Brandon Bowyer. He noted that on two occasions he witnessed Respondent grimace in pain. (APP p. 71)

Respondent presented to Concentra on October 20, 2014. The history noted repetitive use of the hand and lifting fire hoses. The assessment noted sprains and strains of elbow and forearm, wrist tenosynovitis, and cervical strain r/o radiculopathy. Wrist braces were given. Restrictions were also given of no lifting/pushing/pulling over 15 lbs. (APP pp. 72-74)

1 On October 21, 2014, Employer advised of Respondent's modified duties.
2 (APP p. 75)

4 On October 21, 2014, Respondent accepted a modified duty position. (APP
5 p. 76)

7 On October 22, 2014, Respondent returned to Concentra. The assessment
8 remained the same. Restrictions continued. (APP pp. 77-78)

10 Respondent completed a medical release and prior history noting no prior
11 conditions. (APP pp. 79-82)

13 On October 29, 2014, Respondent returned to Concentra reporting upper 14 back pain. Respondent was referred to a hand specialist. (APP pp. 83-85) Same
15 was approved. (APP pp. 86-89)
16

17 On November 3, 2014, Respondent presented for physical therapy. (APP
18 pp. 90-91) Physical therapy continued. (APP pp. 92-98)

20 Of particular import to this case, Respondent's pay period for October 20, 21 2014 through November 3, 2014 is relevant. (See APP pp. 45-46 and key at pp. 51-
22 52) During this pay period, Respondent was designated as light duty (time code
23 "WC") and worked a modified schedule but earned his full base salary.

24 On November 10, 2014, Respondent presented to Dr. Young.
25 Electrodiagnostic studies were recommended. (APP pp. 99-100)
26
27

1 On November 17, 2014, Respondent presented to Dr. Germin for
2 EMG/nerve conduction studies. The results were negative. (APP pp. 101-107)

4 On November 19, 2014, Respondent was advised that his claim had been
5 accepted for a cervical strain. (APP p. 108)

7 On November 20, 2014, Respondent returned to Dr. Young. Respondent
8 reported that his symptoms had dissipated somewhat. Full duty was recommended.
9 (APP pp. 109-112)

11 On November 25, 2014, Administrator advised Respondent that his claim
12 was amended to include bilateral elbows and hands cubital tunnel syndrome. (APP
13 p. 113)

15 On December 18, 2014, Respondent returned to Dr. Young. A strengthening 16 program was recommended. (APP pp. 114-118)
17

18 On December 23, 2014, Respondent returned to Dr. Young indicating he 19 overdid it the prior day putting the top on his jeep. The assessment noted
20 decreased muscle tightness along the forearm extension. (APP p. 119)
21

23

24 On January 15, 2015, Respondent reported 100% improvement in the right
25 upper extremity and 95% in the contralateral left. Tingling had resolved.
26 Respondent was found to have reached maximum medical improvement, stable, 27 not ratable. (APP pp. 123-125)
28

1 On January 26, 2015, Respondent was advised that his claim would close
2 without a rating. (APP p. 126)

4 On January 30, 2017, Respondent returned to Dr. Young. A recurrence of 5 previous symptoms was noted. A request for repeat EMG/NCV studies was made.
6 Reopening was recommended. (APP pp. 127-128)

8 On February 6, 2017, Respondent requested reopening of his industrial
9 claim. (APP p. 129)

11 On February 15, 2017, Respondent was advised that the request for 12 reopening was denied, as same needed to be requested within one year of closing,
13 as he did not miss any time from work, nor receive benefits for a permanent partial
14 disability (PPD). (APP p. 130)
15

16 On March 9, 2017, Respondent's counsel sent notice of representation.
17 (APP pp. 131-135)

19 On March 10, 2017, Respondent appealed the February 15, 2017 denial of 20 reopening. (APP p. 136)
21

22 On April 10, 2017, Respondent was advised of his average monthly wage
23 (AMW). (APP pp. 137-142)
24

25 A hearing was held on May 9, 2017 regarding reopening. In a written 26 Decision and Order dated May 19, 2017, the Hearing Officer reversed the denial of 27 reopening. (APP pp. 143-144) Employer filed a timely appeal. (APP p. 145) In

1 addition, the Employer filed a Motion for a Stay of the Hearing Officer's decision,
2 which was granted. (APP p. 146)

4 Employer has filed a copy of the Respondent's time card from January 1,
5 2014 through January 29, 2015. (APP pp. 45-50)

6 On September 12, 2018, after receiving written closing arguments from both 7 parties, the Appeals Officer held that:

9 Claimant has met the statutory requirement of minimum
10 duration of incapacity because he was placed on light
11 duty work restrictions from October 20, 2014 to 12 November 3, 2014, due to an industrial injury for a 13 period of more than 5 days in 20 and was unable to earn
"full wages" during the light duty time period. Claimant earned only base salary for the period of October 20, 2014 to November 3, 2014 and was therefore incapacitated pursuant to NRS 616C.400.

14 However, the Appeals Officer also concluded that Respondent had not 15 submitted sufficient evidence to support reopening. Therefore, the Appeals Officer
16 ordered that the claim remain closed, but that Respondent should be afforded
17 lifetime reopening rights given that the Appeals Officer concluded that Respondent
18 had proven the minimum duration of incapacity for entitlement to the same. (APP
19 pp. 3-7)

22 On October 12, 2018, Petitioners timely filed the instant Petition for Judicial 23 Review to contest the Appeals Officer's September 12, 2018 Decision regarding 24 Respondent's alleged incapacity from earning "full wages." (APP pp. 299-307)
25
26
27

1 On March 11, 2020, after receiving written briefs from the parties, the 2 District Court affirmed the Appeals Officer and denied this Petition for Judicial
3 Review. (APP pp. 380-386) Notice of Entry was filed on March 11, 2020. (APP
4 pp. 387-396)

6 On April 3, 2020, Appellants filed the subject appeal with this Honorable
7 Court. (APP pp. 397-419)

10 JURISDICTION
11

12 Appellants have timely and properly appealed this Petition for Judicial 13 Review of the Appeals Officer's Decision dated October 12, 2018. NRS 233B.130.
14 Said Petition was timely filed with the District Court on October 12, 2018. On 15 March 11, 2020, the Notice of Entry of Order of the District Court's Decision and 16 Order affirming the Appeals Officer's Decision was filed. Appellants timely and 17 properly filed an appeal of that Decision and Order with this Honorable Court on 18 April 3, 2020. See NRS 233B.150; NRAP Rule 3; NRAP Rule 4. This Court has 19 jurisdiction over the instant appeal.
20

21 A. ROUTING STATEMENT
22

23 Under NRAP 17(b)(10), this case would be presumptively assigned to the 24 Court of Appeals as it concerns a Petition for Judicial Review of an administrative 25 agency's final decision.
26
27

1 B. STANDARD OF REVIEW

2 Judicial review of a final decision of an agency is governed by NRS
3 233B.135.

5 NRS 233B.135 Judicial review: Manner of 6 conducting; burden of; standard for review.

7 1. Judicial review of a final decision of an agency must 8 be:

- 9 (a) Conducted by the court without a jury; and 10 (b) Confined to the record.

11 In cases concerning alleged irregularities in procedure
12 before an agency that are not shown in the record, the 13 court may receive evidence concerning the irregularities.

14 2. The final decision of the agency shall be deemed 15 reasonable and lawful until reversed or set aside in whole
16 or in part by the court. The burden of proof is on the 17 party attacking or resisting the decision to show that the 18 final decision is invalid pursuant to subsection 3.

19 3. The court shall not substitute its judgment for that of 20 the agency as to the weight of evidence on a question of 21 fact. The court may remand or affirm the final decision or 22 set it aside in whole or in part if substantial rights of the 23 petitioner have been prejudiced because the final decision
24 of the agency is:

25 (a) In violation of constitutional or statutory 26 provisions;

27 (b) In excess of the statutory authority of the 28 agency;

(c) Made upon unlawful procedure;

(d) Affected by other error of law;

(e) Clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative and substantial evidence on the whole record; or

(f) Arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion.

1 The standard of review is whether there is substantial evidence to support
2 the underlying decision. The reviewing court should limit its review of 3 administrative decisions to determine if they are based upon substantial evidence.
4 North Las Vegas v. Public Service Comm'n., 83 Nev. 278, 291, 429 P.2d 66
5 (1967); McCracken v. Fancy, 98 Nev. 30, 639 P.2d 552 (1982). Substantial 6 evidence is that quantity and quality of evidence which a reasonable man would 7 accept as adequate to support a conclusion. See, Maxwell v. SIIS, 109 Nev. 327,
8 331, 849 P.2d 267, 270 (1993); and Horne v. SIIS, 113 Nev. 532, 537, 936 P.2d
9 839 (1997).

13 When reviewing administrative court decisions, this Court has held that, on 14 factual determinations, the findings and ultimate decisions of an appeals officer are 15 not to be disturbed unless they are clearly erroneous or otherwise amount to an 16 abuse of discretion. Nevada Industrial Comm'n. v. Reese, 93 Nev. 115, 560 P.2d
17 1352 (1977). An administrative determination regarding a question of fact will not 18 be set aside unless it is against the manifest weight of the evidence. Nevada Indus.
19 Comm'n. v. Hildebrand, 100 Nev. 47, 51, 675 P.2d 401 (1984).

22 C. THIS COURT CAN SET ASIDE A CLEARLY ERRONEOUS
23 DECISION THAT CONSTITUTES AN ERROR OF LAW OR IS NOT
24 SUPPORTED BY SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.

25 This Court may set aside, in whole or in part, a final decision of an 26 administrative agency where substantial rights of the Appellants have been 27

1 prejudiced because the final decision is in violation of statutory provisions,
2 affected by other error of law, clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative
3 and substantial evidence on the whole record, or arbitrary, capricious or 4 characterized by abuse of discretion. NRS 233B.135(3).

7 1. This Court Can Set Aside a Decision That is Based on 8 Incorrect Conclusions of Law and is Free to Address Purely 9 Legal Questions Without Deference to the Appeals Officer's
10 Decision.

11 This Court has acknowledged and applied these statutory principles holding,
12 for example, that a reviewing court may set aside an agency decision if the 13 decision was based upon an incorrect conclusion of law or otherwise affected by an 14 error of law. State Indus. Ins. Sys. v. Giles, 110 Nev. 216, 871 P.2d 920 (1994);
15 Jessop v. State Indus. Ins. Sys., 107 Nev. 888, 822 P.2d 116 (1991); see, also, NRS
16 233B.135(3)(d). Further, this Court has stated that appellate review on questions
17 of law is de novo, and that the reviewing court is free to address purely legal 18 questions without deference to the agency's decision. Giles, supra; Mirage v.
19 State, Dep't of Admin., 110 Nev. 257, 871 P.2d 317 (1994); American Int'l
20 Vacations v. MacBride, 99 Nev. 324, 326, 661 P.2d 1301, 1302 (1983); see, also,
21 State Dep't of Motor Vehicles v. Torres, 105 Nev. 558, 560, 799 P.2d 959, 960-

1 2. This Court Can Set Aside a Decision That is Not Supported
2 by Substantial Evidence.

3 In determining whether an administrative decision is supported by 4 substantial evidence, the methodology for this Court is also well-defined. First, for 5 each issue appealed, the pertinent rule of law is identified. Thereafter, the 6 evidence on appeal is reviewed to determine whether the agency's decision on 7 each issue is supported by substantial factual evidence. Torres, id. If the decision
8 of the administrative agency on the appealed issue is supported by substantial
9 factual evidence, this Court must affirm the decision of the agency as to that issue.
10 On the other hand, a decision by an administrative agency that lacks support in the 11 form of substantial evidence is arbitrary or capricious and, thus, an abuse of 12 discretion that warrants reversal. NRS 233B.135(3); Titanium Metals Corp. v.
13 Clark County, 99 Nev. 397, 399, 663 P.2d 355, 357 (1983).
14
15
16
17

18 Substantial evidence has been defined as that quantity and quality of 19 evidence which a reasonable man could accept as adequate to support a conclusion.
20 State Emp't Sec. Dep't v. Hilton Hotels Corp., 102 Nev. 606, 608 at n.1, 729 P.2d
21 497 (1986). Additionally, substantial evidence is not to be considered in isolation
22 from opposing evidence, but evidence that survives whatever in the record fairly 23 detracts from its weight. Universal Camera Corp. v. NLRB, 340 U.S. 474, 477,
24 488 (1951); Container Stevedoring Co. v. Director, OWCP, 935 F.2d 1544, 1546
25 (9th Cir. 1991). This latter point is clearly the significance of the requirement in 26
27

1 NRS 233B.135(3)(e) which states that the reviewing court consider the whole
2 record.

4 Furthermore, a decision that is affected by error of law cannot be found to be 5 supported by substantial evidence. A decision that lacks support in the form of 6 substantial evidence is arbitrary or capricious and, thus, an abuse of discretion that
7 warrants reversal. Titanium Metals, id.

9 NRS 616A.010(2) and (4) are clear that Nevada no longer has liberal 10 construction. Issues must be decided on their merits, and not according to the 11 common law principle that requires statutes governing workers' compensation to 12 be liberally construed. That means workers' compensation statutes must not be 13 interpreted or construed broadly or liberally in favor of any party.
14

16 In this case, the Appeals Officer's decision is not supported by substantial 17 evidence. Further, as District Court affirmed the Appeals Officer's Decision, the 18 errors of the Appeals Officer are also the errors of the District Court. This 19 Honorable Court retains review of the instant Petition for Judicial Review.
20

21 VI.

22 LEGAL ARGUMENT

23 24 A. THE APPEALS OFFICER AND THEREFORE THE DISTRICT 25 COURT ERRED AS A MATTER OF LAW

26 It was the Respondent, not Appellants, who had the burden of proving 27 entitlement to any benefits under any accepted industrial insurance claim by a

1 preponderance of all the evidence. State Industrial Insurance System v. Hicks, 100
2 Nev. 567, 688 P.2d 324 (1984); Johnson v. State ex rel. Wyoming Worker's
3 Compensation Div., 798 P.2d 323 (1990); Hagler v. Micron Technology, Inc., 118
4 Idaho 596, 798 P.2d 55 (1990).

6 In attempting to prove his or her case, the Respondent has the burden of 7 going beyond speculation and conjecture. That means that the Respondent must 8 establish all facets of the claim by a preponderance of all the evidence. To prevail, 9 a Respondent must present and prove more evidence than an amount which would 10 make his case and his opponent's "evenly balanced." Maxwell v. SIIS, Id.; SIIS v.
11 Khweiss, 108 Nev. 123, 825 P.2d 218 (1992); SIIS v. Kelly, 99 Nev. 774, 671 P.2d
12 29 (1983); 3, A. Larson, the Law of Workmen's Compensation, § 80.33(a).

15 NRS 616A.010(2) makes it clear that:

17 A claim for compensation filed pursuant to the provisions
18 of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of 19 NRS must be decided on its merit and not according to 20 the principle of common law that requires statutes
21 governing workers' compensation to be liberally
22 construed because they are remedial in nature.

23 B. THE APPEALS OFFICER COMMITTED LEGAL ERROR IN HIS
24 INTERPRETATION OF "FULL WAGES"

25 The issue in this case is whether the Respondent is entitled to lifetime
26 reopening rights on his workers' compensation claim. In general, workers'
27 compensation claimants in the state of Nevada are entitled to lifetime reopening

1 rights after their claim closes, if they meet certain criteria. The practical effect of 2 this right, if the claimant can prove entitlement to the same, is that after a
3 claimant's workers' compensation claim closes, they keep that claim for the rest of 4 their lives and can request that the claim be reopened for medical treatment or 5 other benefits if they meet certain criteria.

8 The standard governing claimant's rights relative to claim reopening is 9 codified at NRS 616C.390, which states in relevant part as follows:

10 Reopening claim: General requirements and 11 procedure; limitations; applicability.

12 Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616C.392:

13 1. If an application to reopen a claim to increase or 14 rearrange compensation is made in writing more than 1
15 year after the date on which the claim was closed, the 16 insurer shall reopen the claim if:

17 (a) A change of circumstances warrants an increase or 18 rearrangement of compensation during the life of the 19 claimant;

20 (b) The primary cause of the change of circumstances is 21 the injury for which the claim was originally made; and

22 (c) The application is accompanied by the certificate of a
23 physician or a chiropractor showing a change of 24 circumstances which would warrant an increase or 25 rearrangement of compensation.

26 ...

27 5. An application to reopen a claim must be made in 28 writing within 1 year after the date on which the claim was closed if:

(a) The claimant did not meet the minimum duration of incapacity as set forth in NRS 616C.400 as a result of the injury; and

(b) The claimant did not receive benefits for a permanent partial disability.

1 If an application to reopen a claim to increase or
2 rearrange compensation is made pursuant to this 3 subsection, the insurer shall reopen the claim if the 4 requirements set forth in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection 1 are met....

5 Further, NRS 616C.400 states as follows:

6 Minimum duration of incapacity.

7 1. Temporary compensation benefits must not be paid
8 under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS for an 9 injury which does not incapacitate the employee for at 10 least 5 consecutive days, or 5 cumulative days within a 11 20-day period, from earning full wages, but if the 12 incapacity extends for 5 or more consecutive days, or 5 cumulative days within a 20-day period, compensation must then be computed from the date of the injury.

13 2. The period prescribed in this section does not apply to:

14 (a) Accident benefits, whether they are furnished
15 pursuant to NRS 616C.255 or 616C.265, if the injured 16 employee is otherwise covered by the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS and entitled to those benefits.

17 (b) Compensation paid to the injured employee pursuant 18 to subsection 1 of NRS 616C.477.

19 The issue faced by the Appeals Officer in the present case was whether this 20 claim fell within NRS 616C.390(1) or NRS 616C.390(5). As noted above in NRS
21 616C.390(5), if a claimant does “not meet the minimum duration of incapacity as 22 set forth in NRS 616C.400 as a result of the injury” and does not receive a
23 permanent partial disability (“PPD”) award, the claimant must request reopening
24 within one (1) year of claim closure. If a claimant who falls under NRS
25
26
27

1 616C.390(5) does not request reopening within one (1) year of claim closure, that
2 claimant's claim is closed forever, i.e. they do not have lifetime reopening rights.

4 All parties agree that Respondent did not receive a PPD award. Therefore,
5 the sole legal question in this case was whether Respondent met the minimum
6 duration of incapacity under NRS 616C.400. As noted above, to satisfy the 7 minimum duration of incapacity, the claimant must prove that he/she was 8 prevented from earning "full wages" for at least five (5) consecutive days or five 9 (5) cumulative days within a twenty (20) day period.
10

11 The pay period in question is October 20, 2014 through November 3, 2014.¹
12 (See APP pp. 45-46 and key at pp. 51-52) During this pay period, Respondent was 13 designated as light duty (time code "WC") and worked a modified schedule.
14 However, he was paid full wages just as he would if he were full duty. Respondent
15 has admitted the same. This case should have been decided right here without any 16 further inquiry. Respondent earned his full wages for the period. There was no
17 reduction in wages which were occasioned by the industrial incident. Indeed, at no
18 time during the pendency of this claim has Respondent alleged that he actually lost
19 wages as a result of his industrial injury.
20

21 Based on the same, Respondent failed to meet the minimum duration of 22 incapacity under NRS 616C.400. Because Respondent does not meet the minimum
23

25
26
27 ¹ Note that the pay periods are offset by seven (7) days, (i.e. the pay period for October 20, 2014 is listed as October 27, 2014).

1 duration of incapacity and because he did not receive a PPD award, he is precluded
2 from requesting reopening as he did not request the same within one year after his 3 claim closed. The Appeals Officer and District Court committed legal error in 4 concluding otherwise.

6 C. THIS COURT RETAINS DE NOVO REVIEW

8 This is an issue of statutory interpretation: can a claimant earn his full base
9 salary, concede that he did not lose income as a result of the industrial injury by 10 virtue of the fact that he did not contest the same while his claim was open, and 11 still claim that he did not earn his “full wages” as a result of an industrial injury.
12 Thus the root question of this case revolves around the legal definition of “full 13 wages.” Because this case involves a question of statutory interpretation, this Court 14 has de novo review. (“a reviewing court may undertake independent review of the 15 administrative construction of a statute.” Am. Int’l Vacations v. MacBride, 99 Nev.
16 324, 326, 661 P.2d 1301, 1302 (1983))
17
18
19

20 The Appeals Officer acknowledged that Respondent earned his full base
21 wages but concluded that Respondent was precluded from earning his “full wages”
22 because he did not work overtime for the period in question. This conclusion is 23 arbitrary and runs counter to a plain reading of the statute. Indeed, the Appeals
24 Officer committed legal error by failing to interpret the statute according to its 25 plain meaning. See NRS 616A.010(2), id. “Historically, this court liberally
26
27

1 construed workers' compensation laws to grant benefits rather than deny them.
2 However, in 1993, the Legislature adopted a new legislative declaration for the
3 industrial insurance statutes that repudiates the application of common law
4 principles and requires statutes governing workers' compensation to be interpreted 5 according to their plain meaning." Banegas v SIIS, 117 Nev. 222 (2001). The 6 Nevada Supreme Court has "long held that statutes should be given their plain
7 meaning." Alsenz v. Clark Co. School Dist., 109 Nev. 1062, 1065, 864 P.2d 285, 8 286 (1993). Further, "this court has consistently upheld the plain meaning of the 9 statutory scheme in workers' compensation laws." SIIS v. Prewitt, 113 Nev. 616,
10 619, 939 P.2d 1053, 1055 (1997). (See also Charlie Brown Constr. Co. v. Boulder
11 City, 106 Nev. 497, 502, 797 P.2d 946, 949 (1990) "It is elementary that statutes . .
12 . must be construed as a whole and not be read in a way that would render words or 13 phrases superfluous or make a provision nugatory," overruled on other grounds by 14 Calloway v. City of Reno, 116 Nev. 250, 993 P.2d 1259 (2000)).

15
16
17
18
19 20 D. RESPONDENT HAS CONCEDED THAT HE DID NOT
21 ACTUALLY LOSE ANY WAGES FOR THE PERIOD

22 Overtime pay in this context should not be used in a "full wages"
23 determination as it is voluntary and Respondent did not even allege that he lost
24 wages as a result of said preclusion. If he did wish to allege that he actually lost
25 wages, the time to do so was when his claim was open. However, he did not do so
26 because overtime pay is voluntary and not part of his full wages.
27

1 Petitioners would submit that something as voluntary and speculative as 2 overtime should never be considered in within the definition of “full wages” unless 3 that time is something that is guaranteed to the employee as a condition of their 4 employment and they can prove that they actually lost remuneration by failing to 5 work overtime. And indeed, claimants should be required to prove, when their 6 claim is open, that they actually lost wages. Otherwise, it is indeed speculative.
8 (See Reno Sparks Convention Visitors Auth. v. Jackson 112 Nev. 62, 67, 910 P.2d 9 267, 270 (1996) “the time period for perfecting an appeal is generally considered
10 to be mandatory, not procedural. Based on this language, we conclude that [the 11 claimant] failed properly to request a hearing within the specified time frame and 12 therefore lost his appeal rights.”)

13
15
16 Here, if he were not injured and had no restrictions, maybe Respondent
17 would have taken overtime during the time he was light duty, maybe he would not 18 have. It is impossible to say. Without having some definite showing that 19 Respondent actually lost wages, there is no way to prove that he did not earn his 20 “full wage.” (See United Exposition Service Co. v. SIIS, 109 Nev. 421 (1993) 21 “[a]n award of compensation cannot be based solely upon possibilities and 22 speculative testimony.”)

24
25 Indeed, notwithstanding the fact that there is no support for the conclusion
26 that Respondent’s overtime is in any way guaranteed to Respondent as part of his 27

1 full wages or that he actually lost wages at all, the Appeals Officer engaged in
2 complete speculation by concluding that Respondent was “incapacitated” from 3 earning his full wages because there was the possibility that Respondent could
4 have worked overtime hours if he felt like it but was precluded by his work
5 restrictions. This is the very definition of speculative as Respondent’s overtime pay
6 was strictly voluntary and Respondent did not even allege that he lost wages while 7 his claim was open. Absent some definite showing that Respondent actually 8 missed time from work and actually earned less because of his work restrictions,
9 Respondent was not incapacitated from earning his full wages at any point while
10 his claim was open. As such, in conjunction with the fact that there was no PPD
11 award, NRS 616C.390(5) operates to disallow reopening of this claim as 12 Respondent waited more than one year to request the same.

14 The Appeals Officer committed legal error by arbitrarily concluding that this 15 case is exempted from NRS 616C.390(5). The portion of the subject Decision and 16 Order which holds the same should be reversed.

17 ...

18 ...

VII.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing, Appellants request that this Court reverse the Appeals Officer and find that the Respondent has failed to prove that he is entitled to request claim reopening given that NRS 616C.390(5) should have controlled this case.

Dated this 12 day of April 2021.
