Case NO. 81011

The State of Nevada
Respondent.

Motion to appoint Alternate Counsel

The Defendant now comes forth to file the entitled motion to request Counsel to assist with Post conviction Habeas Corpus filing and motion to correct illegal sentence/modify sentence within the Supreme Court of Nevada.

A previous violation of Administrative order 20-06 filed March 18th, 2020 titled in the administrative matter of court operation of Criminal matters in response to COVID-19 has been cited, but has failed to be addressed by either County or State court officials. Denius vs. Donlap, 209 F.3d 944, 954 (7th Cir 2000) states, "Because the maintenance of Confidentiality in attorney-client communications is vital to the ability of an attorney to effectively counsel his/her client, interference with this confidentiality impedes the clients first amendment [sic] right to obtain legal advice."

The violation of attorney-client communications has been noted in court transcripts from April 201-46862

1st, 2020 sentencing hearing and the Supplemental pre sentence investigation report dated March 24th, 2020. It shall be brought to the Courts attention that "page Seven" of the report discloses the failure to communicate with defendant in custody or appointed Attorney Carl Arnold. Attorney Arnold was not present at sentencing and has failed to respond to any further communications by Defendant Crawley.

The adjudication resulted in a decision that was based on unreasonable determination of the facts in light of the evidence presented by defendant prior to April 1st, 2020 sentencing. Violating NRS 176.145, NRS 213.10988 Blankenship VS. State; and NRS 202.350 in regards to Bradvica VS. State.

Defendant has cited previous conflict of interest between the CEGA Law Group and attorney(s) Roger Bailey, Carl Arnold ESQ. A new appointment of counsel is necessary to proceed with post-conviction Court proceedings. Please consider the request herein, and appoint adequate counsel for Mr. Crawley. #1167477

Respectively,

Daine Anton Crawley
