ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This is an appeal from a district court judgment awarding sanctions after finding appellant in contempt during enforcement proceedings on a domesticated judgment. Appellant has filed an emergency motion to stay the judgment pending our decision in this appeal.

On April 21, 2020, however, respondent moved to dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction, asserting that, as a nonparty to the action below, appellant lacks standing to appeal. See NRAP 3A(a); Valley Bank of Nev. v. Ginsburg, 110 Nev. 440, 446, 874 P.2d 729, 734 (1994) (this court has jurisdiction to consider an appeal only when it is brought by an aggrieved party). Moreover, our initial review of this appeal has revealed an additional jurisdictional concern. Specifically, contempt judgments are not substantively appealable under Pengilly v. Rancho Santa Fe Homeowners Association, 116 Nev. 646, 649, 5 P.3d 569, 571 (2000). Accordingly, appellant shall have until Thursday, April 30, 2020, to file and serve any opposition to the motion to dismiss for lack of standing that also shows cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction over a contempt judgment, thus addressing both jurisdictional concerns. Appellant is cautioned that failure to demonstrate jurisdiction may result in the dismissal of this appeal. We defer ruling on the motion for stay pending resolution of these jurisdictional concerns.

It is so ORDERED.
