Case No. 81034

NOTICE OF AMICUS CURIAE NATIONAL SHOOTING SPORTS FOUNDATION INTENTION TO NOT FILE SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF

Amicus curiae National Shooting Sports Foundation (“NSSF”) would like to inform the Court of NSSF’s intent not to file a supplemental brief, and to rest on its existing amicus curiae brief, following the Court’s grant of permission to file a supplemental brief during oral argument in the above-captioned case.

NSSF co-counsel Victor E. Schwartz wishes to convey his sincere apologies for any inconvenience to the Court as a result of the technical issues that prevented him from participating in oral argument and discussing the fundamental tort law principles implicated in this case and the potential ripple effects of permitting tort liability against the manufacturers and sellers of a firearm used by a criminal to perpetrate a mass shooting. Mr. Schwartz would also like to thank the Court for its patience in handling a frustrating technology-related situation (for all involved), and for its kindness in granting the option of filing a supplemental brief.
