CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

I James H. Hayes, Supreme Court Case Number 81706 at this time would like to withdraw/dismiss my appeal pending before this court for the denied motion to correct an illegal sentence in the Eighth Judicial District Court. Whereby, the pending appeal has been the reason for the Eighth Judicial District Court Judge William Kephart to continue to deny me a ruling on the merits of my writ of habeas corpus that has been filed since April 15, 2019 that has greatly prejudice me and hindered my pursuit of justice as I am actually innocent not more legal insufficiently but factual innocence of the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny through clear and convincing evidence shown at preliminary examination upon all sworn testimony presented and the Justice Court magistrate dismissed the charge for lack of admissible evidence, no corpus delicti, no mens rea and no slight nor marginal evidence. Leaving Mr. Hayes a victim of a fundamental miscarriage of Justice trying to overcome a fundamentally unjust incarceration and redress this miscarriage of Justice as Justice so requires
