POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

NRAP 36(f) Motion to Reissue an Order as an Opinion states in pertinent part:

A motion to reissue an unpublished disposition or order as an opinion to be published in the Nevada Reports may be made under the provisions of this subsection by any interest person.

NRAP 36(f)(3) indicates that such a motion must be based on one or more of the criteria for publication set forth in Rule 36(c)(1)(A)-(C). The criteria as listed within NRAP 36(c)(1)(A)-(C) are as follows:

- A published disposition is an opinion designated for publication in the Nevada Reports. The Supreme Court or Court of Appeals will decide a case by published opinion if it: (1)
 - Presents an issue of first impression;
 - (A) (B) Alters, modifies, or significantly clarifies a rule of law previously announced by either the Supreme Court
 - or the Court of Appeals; or Involves an issue of public importance that has application beyond the parties. C)

In this case, the Order issued on December 4, 2020, should be designated as an opinion for publication as it involves an issue of public importance that has application beyond the parties and has application to the many pending murder trials within the State. Specifically, the instant Order is an elaboration on this Court recent opinion concerning bail in Valdez-Jimenez v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 136 Nev. Adv. Op. 20, 460 P.3d 976, 983–84 (2020), specifically focusing on the quantum of proof necessary for denying bail in a first degree murder case. Furthermore, the Order reiterates important concepts concerning evidence standards for denial of bail from many years prior, providing a more recent and specific example of what the Court has found to be insufficient to defeat the right to reasonable bail, finding inference or conjecture insufficient.
