ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR STAY

This is an appeal from a post-divorce decree district court order. Appellant has filed a motion to stay the financial portions of the district court's order and to correct or reconsider the portion of the order awarding child support. Having considered the motion, opposition, and reply, as well as the relevant factors, this court is not convinced that a stay under NRAP 8 is warranted. Further, appellant's request to correct or modify child support is not properly made in the context of a motion made to this court. Accordingly, the motion is denied. This denial is without prejudice to appellant's ability to obtain a stay under NRCP 62(d) by filing a supersedeas bond in the district court and/or moving the district court to reduce or waive the bond amount or to provide alternate security. See Nelson v. Heer, 121 Nev. 832, 836, 122 P.3d 1252, 1254 (2005). Respondent's countermotion is denied as moot.

It is so ORDERED.
