Appellant,
vs.
WILLIAM A. Gittere, warden
Respondent

MOTION FOR EXTENSION
Time Limit on the Court's
MOTION ORDERING/DIRECTING
ANSWERING BRIEF

Pursuant to: Fed. R. App. P.
Rule 26(b)

~~Date~~ Date NO:
51402

Comes now, Appellant MR. HONABACH, Pro Se, requesting this Court, in Motion, for an Extension of time limit on the Court's motion: 'ORDER Directing Answering Brief'. Appellant, MR. Honabach, is a pro se prisoner that is currently seeking counsel in this matter. MR. Honabach is a prose prisoner with very limited access to prison law materials. Mr. Honabach cannot even go directly to the prison's law library - due to covid restrictions - Mr. Honabach has to wait up to 3 months just to receive the materials he requests. These time frames are outside the appellant's hands. Appellant hereby requests the court to give him 90 days to answer the court's motion 'ORDER Directing Answering Brief'. Appellant is proceeding Pro Se & should be given more leniency to answer motions.

Appellant hereby requests an Extension of time limit from 30 days to 90 days on the motion 'ORDER Directing Answering Brief'.
