

IN the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada

EDWARD JOSEPH HONABACH, Appellant,
vs.
William A. Bittner, Warden
Respondent

Motion: Requesting Appointment of Counsel
Docket No. 8/402

FILED

OCT 19 2021

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY: CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

Comes Now, Appellant Edward Joseph Honabach, respectfully requesting this Court to Appoint Counsel to MR. Honabach. MR. Honabach was granted to proceed in forma pauperis and filing fees waived on 6/30/20.

Mr. Honabach is requesting Appointment of Counsel by the Court due to the fact that he lives in a living unit that doesn't allow him to go to the law library. Due to covid - some paper requests still take up to 3 months to receive! The covid restrictions are still in effect at this prison as of this date. Mr. Honabach doesn't understand the rules of Appellate procedure or how to file Appeal Briefs. Furthermore, this case is very complex and Mr. Honabach risks a life term of imprisonment - if he gets this wrong. MR. Honabach doesn't understand the Rules of Evidence, and he cannot investigate the cases evidence, or figure out what kind of experts are needed to help.

Appellant, Edward Joseph Honabach, hereby requests this Court to grant this motion and Appoint him

Counsel for this appeal. Requested this 11th Day, October, 2021. Signed Edward Joseph Honabach
