Good afternoon, Brian,

Just checking in on the status of May Street. How was your trip over to Chicago? And what was the report of the second contractor?

I'm looking forward to hearing seeing the video as well as any other reports.

thank you,

Jay

As for the itemized report, I will request one as well.

Good evening, Brian,

Thank you for the response, truly.

I'm glad to hear that you're seeking confirmation of the work that Derek's claimed to have done as well as acknowledged the possibility that legal action may be necessary against him, if it comes to it; I think that verification is prudent. I also think that the second contractor is a good idea, yet I would like to add to the plan in a couple ways that I believe are reasonable, and I have to insist on the first at a minimum:

We very much need video confirmation of the status of the property and work supposedly done thus far. Such a video should be continuous without interruption, cutting, nor momentary obscuration and should originate from the curb of the property, clearly capturing not only the address of the property but also those of the adjacent houses as well. We all, and especially Brad and I as investors, should be able to call for and see this. The second contractor that you've asked to visit the property ought to be able to provide this; however, if he can't, or for any other reason, I can easily arrange to have another third-party attend the walk-through and take such a video. Worst case, I myself, would like to walk through the property and would make the necessary arrangements to do so. Again, though, a video as described ought to be acceptable and sufficient.

 Derek should be asked to produce an itemized list of what still needs to be done as well as a timeline for completing each remaining item.

Please let me know about the above plan additions, and I look forward to hearing from you.

I hope that all was well in Portland—many fires, many pokers.

kindly,

Jay

Thank you for the kind words Jay and to you as well!

I appreciate your response and thoughts on the matter. While as of date I wouldn't say the project has been a smashing success, I also wouldn't call it a failure. In real estate, projects more often than not, don't go according to "plan" and as of yet we haven't lost anything. If you do not want to assume the property, then I would say we are in this together and will see it to its end.

I am having another contractor visit the site when Derek is supposed to be there this week and will get a report first hand and then we can make an educated decision to continue or pursue legal action against Derek from there. If it comes to that or I don't like the report I will fly back there myself next week. I was going to go this week but other unforeseen events have drawn me to Portland as of Tuesday morning.

As always I will keep you apprised of any new information.

Good morning, Brian,

Thanks for the reply; much appreciated.

I did see the link that you included, yet it was to the previous listing of the property and the photo taken before we acquired it; taken back in December of 2015 ... Did you mean to upload a different photo perhaps?

More importantly than the exterior in my mind is the interior. I strongly believe that Derek ought to provide photos of the entire interior of the property; we haven't seen anything since May or so. Really, I can't imagine that not having already been ongoing over the course of the entire project, but regardless, he should be able to do that promptly and without excuse. It couldn't possibly take more than an hour on site to photo-document the work that he claims to have done, so there really shouldn't be any reason for delay in his providing those today, by tomorrow, or, at the latest, Saturday.

thanks,

Jay

Good morning Team.

As you can see the windows and roof are brand new and they boarded up the inside windows like I explained. The back porch is not to code and is going to be removed at the end of the project because right now they are using it to cut material out of the snow/rain. All is well with me just been focusing on the bigger fish(Tahoe) as I have more control on that and I can't control the weather/city in Chicago. None the less it will be wrapped shortly, I can order Derek to remove the back porch for example regardless of what they are using it for and the boards from the windows if we would like. I promise I am okay with handing it over to you and Brad if you both feel more comfortable with complete control of that project and since you both of the majority of the capital in it its only fair. I will continue to ride Derek until I hear otherwise from either of you.

additional insight into the state of the property. I found someone who was able and willing to snap some photos of the exterior of the house. Despite Derek's latest assurances though, the property does not look good. To me, it looks clearly nowhere near being list-ready. The same appears to be the case for the little room at the back of the house and the stairs into it.

I'm very glad that you've requested photos of the entire project from Derek; that's a good call. Nevertheless, judging from the photos that I've seen, the state of the property does not appear good. Based on them, I can only conclude that he has grossly exaggerated his progress.

Good morning Gentleman,

Hope everyone had a Merry Christmas. Good thinking Brad, I spoke with Derek about what your friend found and he said the place isn't condemned, he said it has new windows and a new room and everything is basically complete. He said they did take the appliances and a few items out of the house while they waited to ensure they didn't get stolen and they placed sheets and boards over the inside of some of the windows to stop people from peeking in as well. None the less i have requested updated photos and i have asked Harley (my attorney) to draft a letter in regards to Derek's continued delay.

I understand both of your frustrations, I am frustrated as well. No one has lost any capital yet nor will they. I understand the frustration of having capital tied up longer than planned, believe me. If you both would like I can sign the property over to you two since you have the majority of the capital in May Street and you can go with a new contractor for the final items and then split the profit between the two of you.

Hey guys,

I realized I have quite a few contacts left in Chicago so I had an old college buddy drive by and take a peek at the S. May St. house. He didn't grab any pics for me as it was close to dusk when he drove by, but he said it's not looking good. Pretty bad actually. He described it as kind of "condemned looking". Perhaps we should have some actual photos of the property produced at this stage?

On Dec 17, 2017 12:49 PM, "Bradley T." <wisted@gmail.com> wrote:

Do we know anyone in Chicago other than Derek right now who could supply us with actual photo evidence? That might be a good idea, as I have no faith whatsoever in Derek either. I know I only have $20,000 tied up over there, but I intend to get every cent of it back, and I'm quite concerned at this moment too. I definitely agree with Jay on this one.

On Dec 17, 2017 9:34 AM, "Jay Kvam" <kvam.jay@gmail.com> wrote:

Good morning, Brian,

I'm writing this morning with regard to May Street. As we haven't had any updates for a few weeks now, I can only assume that Derek has, yet again, failed to perform and deliver on time. To be perfectly honest, at this point, I'm quite concerned that Derek is and has been just leading us on with this project. He wouldn't be the first contractor to do so. And, to be frank, I, for one, had lost most of my confidence in him a number of months ago, after he completely abandoned the project to visit an "ailing grandfather", or so the story went, and then supposedly suffered a heart attack.

Until now, I've deferred to your judgment in retaining him for the work on May Street, but at this point, I fear that he's defrauded us. The project is now many months past the original, estimated flip plan of about 5-6 months, and Derek seems to continue to fail to perform. Has he been providing you photos of the work at May that demonstrate progress to your satisfaction? Even though you're the lead for the project, it sure would be good to see those photos ourselves, so that we can all be reassured of the progress and the present state of the property.

If, however, Derek hasn't been providing photo evidence of his work but instead just providing you verbal updates, then I really think that it's time for you to firmly insist on photos of the entire project. And, then, if the photos do not reflect his description of the project, to hold him accountable. Holding him accountable could take the form of insisting that he return the funds that he received but for work not done, or, if necessary, even filing a claim against his contractor's insurance to recover them.

sincerely,

Jay

Good evening everyone,

I was waiting to speak with Derek after he met with the subs that have to fix the remaining items on Friday. We spoke this morning and he said they will be done in 14-17 days from tomorrow, they outlined everything and figured out the changes that need to be made it is going to cost an additional 2k however Derek is going to eat that cost because of the delay caused from him getting sick and not appointing someone to cover down. I told him that I plan on having an agent come to the property to list no later than the 8th of December and he said it would be done.

I am not going to use either of the last two agents I used on any of my other properties because they have all had issues with Derek and I think it would be wise to bring in an outside male agent to handle the listing of this property. I will send out weekly emails until we get on the market.

Thank you for everyone's patience's and we are almost out of Chicago and their

MICHELLE L. SALAZAR - 12/30/2019

Page 47 1 THE REPORTER: I'm fine. 2 THE WITNESS: No, thanks. 3 BY MR. MATTISKA: 4 0 Ms. Salazar, do you have a Terms of Agreement that we 5 just marked as Exhibit Number 8? 6 Α Yes. 7 And I know you've already testified about this to me, Q 8 but it comes up again. You will agree with me, I think, that 9 what it says is all parties are entitled to 33.33 percent of the net profit, after all expenses are accounted for, and to 10 include interest due on funds dispersed, and that initial 11 funder will be due 7 percent annual return on any funds 12 13 provided; is that all correct? 14 Α Yes. 15 Okav. So doesn't there need to be an accounting of all of the capital investment, meaning funding provided and 16 then expenses and interest paid in order to determine net 17 18 profits? 19 A The -- you would have to -- there has been an accounting of the funding of the project by Mr. Steele. 20 would also be an accounting of the funds provided to the 21 22 contractor TNT, and then how TNT spends those monies is a 23 burden of TNT's. 24 But there's more to that, accounting of expenses and interest. Don't we need an accounting before profits can be 25

1	divided	here? Page 48
2	А	You would need to understand the net profits from the
3	project,	, if there are any, in order to split them 33.33
4	percent.
5	Q	How would you determine, and what records would you
6	need to	determine the net profits?
7	A	You would need the records from TNT, the contractor,
8	you woul	d need the records for the capital contributions, which
9	Mr. Stee	ele has outlined, and then you would need the records of
10	the orig	ginal purchase, and then also the sale.
11	Q	What about expenses?
12	A	That would be the records of TNT, the contractor.
13	Q	Would those be the only expenses?
14	A	It looks like there's minimal expenses that are
15	reported	on those balance statements, but I would expect that
16	the expe	nses are paid by TNT, yes.
17	Q	Insurance costs would be paid by TNT?
18	A	There were
19	Q	Real property taxes and such?
20	A	Those expenses are set forth in the balance statement
21	that Mr.	Steele relied upon.
22	Q	Did he rely on the balance statements?
23	A	He talks about the balance statements
24	Q	What does he actually say about the balance
25	statement	s?

MICHELLE L. SALAZAR - 12/30/2019

1	not.	Page 50
2	Q	Why are these balance statements important?
3	A	The balance statements show the allegedly support
4	the amou	nt of expenses paid by Legion Investments.
5	Q	Do you know if those balance statements were just
6	prepared	as part of the litigation in this case?
7	A	I don't know.
8	Q	Do you know if Jay Kvam ever got a report on expenses
9	before t	his litigation started?
10	А	I do not know.
11	Q	But would you agree that he needs some sort of report
12	on expen	ses in order to know how the proceeds are supposed to
13	be distr	ibuted?
14	A	I think that the understanding of the expenses is
15	something	g that a business owner would want to know.
16	Q	Yeah. As you sit here today, do you have any way to
17	confirm t	that Brian Mineau invested 20,000 dollars in this
18	project?
19	A	I have the representation I have the e-mail that I
20	represent	ed to you, and then I read somewhere else that it was
21	contribut	ed on behalf of Brian Mineau, but I'm not that's
22	outside c	f the scope of what I've been asked to testify to.
23	Q	But you did testify twice that Brian Mineau was
24	supposed	to provide funding, correct?
25	A	He was, yes.

      think it's a boilerplate that they -- that they used.

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL L. MATUSKA, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

I, MICHAEL L. MATUSKA, am the attorney of record for the Plaintiff, JAY KVAM, in the present case, and do hereby declare as follows:

- Mineau's assertion at page 9-10 and again at page 18 of his Motion for Summary Judgment that he sold the Property in its unfinished state "in reliance" on demands from Mr. Kvam or me is false. The letters he points to (Mineau's Exs. "25"-"27") (were part of a longer set of negotiations beginning in December, 2017 that were identified as settlement offers that were intended to salvage Mr. Kvam's investment.
- Even Mineau's Exhibit "27", which is a heavily redacted version of a letter that I 2. sent on September 19, 2018, explains that it is a response to an offer from Mineau's attorney. The letter states inter alia that "Mr. Mineau is encouraged to sell the May Street property, the other

To the extent this court feels that any of these letters are relevant, it should have an unredacted copy of the letter, attached hereto as Ex. "44."

- 3. Furthermore, based on documents received from Citywide Title, Mineau was attempting to sell the Property prior to my settlement letter of September 19, 2018. On May 22, 2018, Mineau entered into contract with "Scotch and Soda Goldmine Company, Inc." to sell the property. (Ex. "46"). On July 3, 2018, Mineau entered into a new contract with "Mutual Happiness LLC" to sell the property (Ex. "47").
- 4. Attached hereto as Exs. "44" and "45" are true and correct copies of my letters to and from Austin Sweet.
- 5. The Exhibits attached to the concurrently filed Opposition to Motion for Summary Judgment are true and correct copies of such documents.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

AFFIRMATION

The undersigned does hereby affirm that the preceding document does not contain the social security number of any person.

- I, Benjamin Charles Steele, do hereby declare as follows:
- 1. That my initial report dated September 24, 2019, together with biographical information, is provided herewith as Exhibit "41" and my Amended Report dated January 15, 2020 is provided herewith as Exhibit "42". The Amended Report is provided to correct a mathematical error and to explain that my investigation in this case is more accurately described as an examination rather than an audit. My initial report and the Amended Report are hereby referred to as my "Report."
- 2. That the information, opinions and conclusions expressed in my Report were formed after the review and investigation identified therein, and are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

3. That the information available to me in this case does not include information about the other projects that Brain Mineau was working at the same time as the 7747 S. May Street Project. As stated in my Report, I therefore reserve the right to amend my Report as more information becomes available.
4. I have reviewed Brian Mineau's January 6, 2020 declaration that was provided as Exhibit "1" to the Motion for Summary Judgment, wherein he testifies at Par. 25 that he borrowed $20,000 from Bradley Tammen to fund his share of the construction draws, and repaid $28,000.
He did not identify the date of the repayment, and the records provided do not include evidence of this loan or the repayment. Lacking documentation for this loan and repayment, the only other evidence would be Legion Investments, LLC's tax return or Mr. Mineau tax return. The tax returns are necessary to determine how Mr. Mineau reported the transaction with Mr. Tammen related to the investment contribution and expenses paid toward the May Street Property. The returns should report the loan of $20,000 from Mr. Bradley Tammen and the repayment of the loan in the amount of $28,000.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

Mr. Kvam entered into an agreement with Brian Mineau and Michael J. Spinola, to purchase and renovate real property located at 7747 S. May St., Chicago Illinois. The property will be listed for sale after completion of the renovations.

The agreement listed Mr. Kvam as the funding member, and he was to provide the following funds.

- A. Real property purchase.
- B. Draw 1'
- C. Draws 2 and 3 are silent as to who will contribute.

The agreement provided Mr. Kvam will be paid 7% annual interest on the initial funds.

The agreement also allocated 50% of the 1/3 profit of Michael Spinola for both initial funding to Jay Kvam.

The agreement is silent as to the return of capital after the sale of the property.

The business structure was not specified, and to my understanding the transactions have not been reported to the Internal Revenue Service. The entity does not have a federal identification number. However, it appears that legion investments, LLC took title to the property and received the proceeds of sale for the benefit of the named project investors, including Jay Kvam, Michael Spinola and Brian Mineau.

Draw #3 5/26/17 Criterion NV LLC	20,000.00
Total Funds	$113,784,31

The so-called Balance Statement provided by Brian/Legion Investment claim credit for this last draw of $20,000 on May 26, 2017. The payment was made by a wire transfer by Michael Spinola under the name of Criterion NV LLC on May 26, 2017. I am unable to confirm how much of Kvam's funding was used on the 7747 May Street project, and whether the funding from Mineau/Criterion NV LLC was used on the project. Based on a text from Brian Mineau to Jay Kvam on February 7, 2017, TNT Complete Care Facility "was getting wiring info for a separate account so he could keep May Street funds separate from other projects." This did not happen, and the May Street project funds wound up in TNT's account 1855 along funds designated for other projects, including 8744 Bishop, 8754 S. Michigan, 9919 Forest and 1404, 1408 Wyoming.

OPERATION OF THE PROJECT:

- A. The property was purchased by Legion Investments LLC on 2/13/17. Legion Investments, LLC. The LLC is owned by Brian Mineau and he is listed as the sole member.
- B. Legion Investments LLC signed a contractor's agreement on 3/22/17 with TNT Complete Facility Care, Inc. to renovate the real property. The contractor agreement listed the completion date 6/1/17. Brian Mineau signed the contract.
- C. The contract provided for a "turn key market ready property" for the price of $80,000. (See Contractor Agreement, Addendum "A" also specified the payment terms, including "Final payment of $8,000 due upon punch list completion and key turn over." In other words, the project should have been $3,000 from punch list completion based on the above listed draws in the amount of $69,000.
- D. Paragraph 51 listed Colleen Burke as the project manager and Brian Mineau as contacts concerning this project.
- E. I contacted Ms. Burke on July 16, 2019 to request records and discuss her duties as a project manager. Ms. Burke stated she had no record because her duties were very limited and for a short time. Ms. Burke visited the jobsite a couple of times and took pictures of the renovation progress, with no other responsibilities. Brian Mineau terminated her services.
- F. Correspondence implied Brian Mineau acted as the manager of the project. He communicated with the contractor and the investors. The investors only transferred funds when Brian requested, and he gave them wiring instructions. He also gave the investors updates and pictures as to progress.
- G. Legion Investments LLC sold the property on 11/16/18 for $41,000 and the net funds of $24,473.77 are being held in trust until the legal issues are settled.

RECORDS OF THE PROJECT:

A. The records supporting the project costs are limited or nonexistent. The recap of financial transactions furnished to Jay Kvam is a brief recap of draws sent to the contractor and expenses paid directly by Legon Investments, LLC. The reports were labeled Balance Statement, but it is actually a recap of checks written.

- B. Paragraph 50 of the construction contract requires the contractor maintain a project checklist and the contractor was to update the list as construction progress. If there is an issue with the work, the contractor was to alert the developer. This checklist was unavailable at my review.
- C. Paragraph 4 of the contract required the contractor and subcontractors to provide invoices furnish documents and pictures of the completed work. It appears Brian Mineau directed Kvam to make payments to TNT without requesting or receiving the required documents to verify the amount of work completed. To support the work completed, Mineau relied on the contractor's statements and request for additional funds. I did not locate any records to support the completed work as stated by the contractor.
- D. The project did not maintain a formal set of accounting records.
 - 1. General Ledger
 - 2. Business checking account statements, cancelled checks etc.
 - 3. Reconciliation of capital contributions and equity accounts.
 - 4. Supporting documentation justifying the level of completed construction.
 - 5. Agreements as to terminating the business entity and distribution of assets or paying excess liabilities

Conclusion:

Brian Mineau managed the project and made all the decisions for the project without the input from the investors. It appears he relied on statements from the contractor as to the level of completion and never asked for additional documents to support the percentage. The investors relied on the communications from Brian to keep informed of the project. The accounting records are inadequate for proper control of the project finances.

Despite an exhaustive review of the TNT Complete Facility Care, inc. bank statements and cancelled checks to trace the 7747 May St. transactions. I could not determine the expenses paid for the 7747 May Street Project. The funds were deposited in the general accounts that was used for TNT' multiple projects and checks issued. A separate checking account was not maintained for this project.

The accounting records are incomplete and cannot support the level of work completed.

I did not determine the type of business form this project operated as.

I reserve the right to supplement this report as more information becomes available.

My fee for investigating this matter and preparing this report was $205 per hour. My fee for testifying in depositions or trial is $275 per hour.

The earlier completion of the project and profitable sale of the Property. Documentation of this lost prospective economic relationship has been produced and identified as LEG0023 – LEG0036.

INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

Describe all acts of coercion, duress and intimidation identified in your Fifth claim for Relief (Deceptive Trade Practices). Include the date, time and manner of the alleged acts and any identify any [sic] witness thereto.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

Jay Kvam repeatedly demanded to be "reimbursed" for all funds he invested into the Property, despite the fact that the project was incomplete, no disbursements were yet due to anyone under the "Terms of Agreement," and the project had been severely set back by Mr. Kvam's own actions. Brian Mineau and Legion Investments, LLC nonetheless affirmed that they intended to complete the project and perform their obligations under the "Terms of Agreement." However, Mr. Kvam demanded that the "Terms of Agreement" be renegotiated to his benefit and threatened Mr. Mineau and Legion Investments, LLC with frivolous legal action if they refused to acquiesce to those demands. Mr. Kvam also wrongfully and fraudulently accessed Atlas Investors Southside LLC ("Atlas")'s bank accounts and fraudulently, and without authorization, used Atlas's operating funds to pay off an interest-free debt held by Atlas which would not come due for several more years, causing Atlas's operating account to be overdrawn and forcing Mr. Mineau and Legion Investments, LLC to liquidate other assets to provide Atlas with adequate operating funds and avoid drastic financial and business consequences. Mr. Kvam also demanded Legion Investments' historic financial records, without any legal or factual right to such information, again under threat of frivolous litigation. Mr. Kvam also demanded that Mr. Mineau and/or Legion Investments, LLC personally guaranty Mr. Kvam's return on his investment and provide separate collateral to protect his investment, again under threat of frivolous litigation. When Brian Mineau and Legion Investments, LLC refused, Mr. Kvam's agents harassed, threatened, and intimidated Mr. Mineau's family. Each of these acts constitutes acts of coercion, duress, and intimidation designed to compel Mr. Mineau and/or Legion Investments, LLC to buy Mr. Kvam out of the "Terms of Agreement," pay him more than he is entitled under the "Terms of Agreement." The date, time, and manner of these acts is documented in correspondence between the parties' counsel and the pleadings of this action.

Re:

Kvam v. Mineau, et al.

Second Judicial District Court Case No. CV18-00764

Dear Mr. Sweet:

Thank you for your letter of September 18, 2018 and the offer contained therein. Although the offer now involves a second unidentified property located in Chicago, I do not see that changes Mr. Kvam's prior considerations. Mr. Mineau is encouraged to sell the May Street property, the other unidentified property, and any other property he needs to sell in order to satisfy Mr. Kvam's claims. Mr. Mineau can also borrow money or sell other assets. I see no benefit to first transferring those properties to Mr. Kvam in order to have him sell the properties.

I informed you on April 18, 2018 that the opportunity remains for Mr. Mineau to settle this case with a secured promissory note. That has not changed. This will give Mr. Mineau time to sell the Chicago properties. However, the promissory note will have to be secured by good and adequate security in Nevada, will bear interest at the rate of 7% from the date(s) of the advance(s) as per the Terms of Agreement and the previous offer, and will have to have a firm maturity date. Court costs and attorney fees will also have to be added to the principal amount. The total amount to date is approximately $122,000. Mr. Mineau would be responsible for the lenders policy of title insurance, recording fees, and other costs incurred in connection with the deed of trust. This offer will expire on September 28, 2018.

Sincerely,

Re: 7747 South May Street, Chicago, Illinois

Dear Mr. Matuska:

We are in receipt of your letter dated March 14, 2018.

On March 15, 2018, we delivered to you a written settlement offer which expired at 5:00 p.m. on March 23, 2018. Having received no timely response to our settlement offer, we must assume your client is not interested in resolving this dispute. We therefore offer this response to your March 14, 2018 letter.

Mr. Kvam is not entitled to any "disclosures" or "an accounting" from Brian Mineau or Legion Investments and your letter offers no citation to the Agreement or Nevada law supporting this request. Your client's extensive request for documents is therefore denied.

As we have repeatedly stated, my clients have complied with the terms of the Agreement. Although we understand that you disagree, you have yet to explain why. Thus, my clients will continue to comply with the Agreement and, once the project is completed and the Property is sold, the proceeds will be disbursed in accordance with the Agreement.

Very truly yours,

Title when conveyed will be good and merchantable, subject only to: covenants, conditions and restrictions of record and building lines and easements, if any, provided they do not interfere with the current use and enjoyment of the Real Estate; and general real estate taxes not due and payable at the time of Closing.

17. MUNICIPAL ORDINANCE, TRANSFER TAX, AND GOVERNMENTAL COMPLIANCE:

- 194 a) The Parties are cautioned that the Real Estate may be situated in a municipality that has adopted a pre-195 closing inspection requirement, municipal Transfer Tax or other similar ordinances. Transfer taxes required 196 by municipal ordinance shall be paid by the Party designated in such ordinance.
- 197 b) The Parties agree to comply with the reporting requirements of the applicable sections of the Internal 198 Revenue Code and the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974, as amended.
 - 18. TITLE: At Seller's expense, Seller will deliver or cause to be delivered to Buyer or Buyer's attorney within customary time limitations and sufficiently in advance of Closing, as evidence of title in Seller or Grantor, a title commitment for an ALTA title insurance policy in the amount of the Purchase Price with extended coverage by a title company licensed to operate in the State of Illinois, issued on or subsequent to the Date of Acceptance, subject only to items listed in Paragraph 16. The requirement to provide extended coverage shall not apply if the Real Estate is vacant land. The commitment for title insurance furnished by Seller will be presumptive evidence of good and merchantable title as therein shown, subject only to the exceptions therein stated. If the title commitment discloses any unpermitted exceptions or if the Plat of Survey shows any encroachments or other survey matters that are not acceptable to Buyer, then Seller shall have said exceptions, survey matters or encroachments removed, or have the title insurer commit to either insure against loss or damage that may result from such exceptions or survey matters or insure against any court-ordered removal of the encroachments. If Seller fails to have such exceptions waived or insured over prior to Closing, Buyer may elect to take title as it then is with the right to deduct from the Purchase Price prior encumbrances of a definite or ascertainable amount. Seller shall furnish Buyer at Closing an Affidavit of Title covering the date of Closing, and shall sign any other customary forms required for issuance of an ALTA Insurance Policy.
- 19. PLAT OF SURVEY: Not less than one (1) Business Day prior to Closing, except where the Real Estate is a condominium (see Paragraph 15) Seller shall, at Seller's expense, furnish to Buyer or Buyer's attorney a Plat of

- 216 Survey that conforms to the current Minimum Standard of Practice for boundary surveys, is dated not more
- 217 than six (6) months prior to the date of Closing, and is prepared by a professional land surveyor licensed to
- 218 practice land surveying under the laws of the State of Illinois. The Plat of Survey shall show visible evidence of
- 219 improvements, rights of way, easements, use and measurements of all parcel lines. The land surveyor shall set
- 220 monuments or witness corners at all accessible corners of the land. All such corners shall also be visibly staked
- or flagged. The Plat of Survey shall include the following statement placed near the professional land surveyor's
- 222 seal and signature: "This professional service conforms to the current Illinois Minimum Standards for a
- 223 boundary survey." A Mortgage Inspection, as defined, is not a boundary survey and is not acceptable.
- 224 20. DAMAGE TO REAL ESTATE OR CONDEMNATION PRIOR TO CLOSING: If prior to delivery of the deed the
- Real Estate shall be destroyed or materially damaged by fire or other casualty, or the Real Estate is taken by
- 226 condemnation, then Buyer shall have the option of either terminating this Contract (and receiving a refund of
- 227 earnest money) or accepting the Real Estate as damaged or destroyed, together with the proceeds of the
- 228 condemnation award or any insurance payable as a result of the destruction or damage, which gross proceeds
- 229 Seller agrees to assign to Buyer and deliver to Buyer at Closing. Seller shall not be obligated to repair or replace
- 230 damaged improvements. The provisions of the Uniform Vendor and Purchaser Risk Act of the State of Illinois
- 231 shall be applicable to this Contract, except as modified by this paragraph.
- 232 21. CONDITION OF REAL ESTATE AND INSPECTION: Seller agrees to leave the Real Estate in broom clean
- 233 condition. All refuse and personal property that is not to be conveyed to Buyer shall be removed from the Real
- 234 Estate at Seller's expense prior to delivery of Possession. Buyer shall have the right to inspect the Real Estate,
- 235 fixtures and included Personal Property prior to Possession to verify that the Real Estate, improvements and
- 236 included Personal Property are in substantially the same condition as of the Date of Acceptance, normal wear
- 237 and tear excepted.
- 238 22. REAL ESTATE TAX ESCROW: In the event the Real Estate is improved, but has not been previously taxed for
- 239 the entire year as currently improved, the sum of three percent (3%) of the Purchase Price shall be deposited in
- escrow with the title company with the cost of the escrow to be divided equally by Buyer and Seller and paid at
- Closing. When the exact amount of the taxes to be prorated under this Contract can be ascertained, the taxes
- 242 shall be prorated by Seller's attorney at the request of either Party and Seller's share of such tax liability after
- 243 proration shall be paid to Buyer from the escrow funds and the balance, if any, shall be paid to Seller. If Seller's
- 244 obligation after such proration exceeds the amount of the escrow funds, Seller agrees to pay such excess
- 245 promptly upon demand.
- 23. SELLER REPRESENTATIONS: Seller's representations contained in this paragraph shall survive the Closing.
- 247 Seller represents that with respect to the Real Estate Seller has no knowledge of nor has Seller received any
- 248 written notice from any association or governmental entity regarding:
- 249 a) zoning, building, fire or health code violations that have not been corrected;

- 254 f) any hazardous waste on the Real Estate;
- 255 g) any improvements to the Real Estate for which the required initial and final permits were not obtained;
- 256 h) any improvements to the Real Estate which are not included in full in the determination of the most recent tax assessment; or
- 257 i) any improvements to the Real Estate which are eligible for the home improvement tax exemption.

- 284 a) Escrowee shall give written Notice to the Parties as provided for in this Contract at least fourteen (14) days 285 prior to the date of intended disbursement of Earnest Money indicating the manner in which Escrowee 286 intends to disburse in the absence of any written objection. If no written objection is received by the date 287 indicated in the Notice then Escrowee shall distribute the Earnest Money as indicated in the written Notice 288 to the Parties. If any Party objects in writing to the intended disbursement of Earnest Money then Earnest 289 Money shall be held until receipt of joint written direction from all Parties or until receipt of an order of a 290 court of competent jurisdiction.
- b) Escrowee may file a Suit for Interpleader and deposit any funds held into the Court for distribution after resolution of the dispute between Seller and Buyer by the Court. Escrowee may retain from the funds deposited with the Court the amount necessary to reimburse Escrowee for court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred due to the filing of the Interpleader. If the amount held in escrow is inadequate to reimburse Escrowee for the costs and attorney's fees, Buyer and Seller shall jointly and severally indemnify Escrowee for additional costs and fees incurred in filing the Interpleader action.

The requirement to provide extended coverage shall not apply if the Real Estate is vacant land. The commitment for title insurance furnished by Seller will be presumptive evidence of good and merchantable title as therein shown, subject only to the exceptions therein stated. § 158. Relief Including Restitution

- (1) In any case governed by the rules stated in this Chapter, either party may have a claim for relief including restitution under the rules stated in §§ 240 and 376.
- (2) In any case governed by the rules stated in this Chapter, if those rules together with the rules stated in Chapter 16 will not avoid injustice, the court may grant relief on such terms as justice requires including protection of the parties' reliance interests.

Comment:

- a. Scope. A court may use several techniques to adjust the rights of the parties after discovery of a mistake. Subsection (1) speaks to claims for relief such as that provided by the rule on part performances as agreed equivalents stated in § 240 and those on restitution and other relief stated in Chapter 16. Subsection (2) speaks to supplying a term to avoid injustice. See the analogous rule stated in § 272.
- b. Relief including restitution. Avoidance of a contract ideally involves a reversal of any steps that the parties may have taken by way of performance, so that each party returns such benefit as he may have received. This is not, however, possible in all cases. Occasionally a party who has performed may be entitled to recover on the contract for the part that he has performed under the rule on part performances as agreed equivalents (§ 240). Even where this is not so, it may be appropriate to permit avoidance coupled with a money claim for restitution to the extent that one party's performance has benefited the other. Such claims are governed by the rules stated in §§ 370–77. A party may also have a claim that goes beyond mere restitution and includes elements of reliance by the claimant. See, e.g., Illustration 8 to § 153.
- c. Supplying a term to avoid injustice. Under the rule stated in § 204, when the parties have not agreed with respect to a term that is essential to a determination of their rights and duties, the court will supply a term that is reasonable in the circumstances. Ordinarily the rules stated in this Chapter, coupled with those stated in Chapter 16, will be adequate to allow the court to arrive at a just result. See Subsection (1). If, however, these rules will not suffice to avoid injustice, the court may supply a term just as it may in cases of impracticability of performance and frustration of purpose. See § 272(2) and Comment c to that section. Here, as there, a particularly significant application occurs when the just solution is to "sever" the agreement and require that some unexecuted part of it be performed on both sides, rather than to relieve both parties of all their duties. The situation differs from that envisioned in § 240, under which the court merely allows recovery at the contract rate for performance that has already been rendered. The question under this Section is whether the court can salvage a part of the agreement that is still executory on both sides. See Illustration 1.

Sometimes the party who is not adversely affected by a mistake can, by assenting to a modification of the contract, eliminate the effect of the mistake on the agreed exchange. He should generally be allowed to do so and thereby to preclude avoidance by the party who would otherwise be adversely affected. A court may, under Subsection (2), grant the party who has not been adversely affected what is, in effect, an option to enforce the contract on new terms. See Illustration 2.

The Court may also exercise its discretion under Subsection (2) where both parties have been responsible for the mistake. It may do so, for example, where a mistake of one party resulted both from his failure to act in good faith and in accordance with reasonable standards of fair dealing (\S 157) and from the fault of the other party (\S 153(b)). See Comment f to § 153. Furthermore, for the sake of simplicity, the rules stated in this Chapter have been formulated in terms of the typical contract based on an exchange of consideration by two parties, and it does not, therefore, deal exhaustively with problems of mistake involving several parties (§ 9) including intended beneficiaries (§ 302), promises enforceable because of reliance (§ 90), promises enforceable because under seal (§ 95), and other less typical situations. In such cases, the court will apply rules analogous to those stated in this Chapter. See Comments b, d, and e to § 155. The situations dealt with in Subsection (2) are to be distinguished from those envisioned by § 155, where a writing is reformed to carry out the intentions of the parties.

Illustrations:

1. A contracts to sell and B to buy a tract of land, described in the contract as containing 100 acres, at a price of $100,000, calculated from the acreage at $1,000 an acre. In fact the tract contains only 90 acres. Under the rule stated in § 152, the contract would be voidable by B. If, however, the court decides that this rule will not avoid injustice, it is within the discretion of the court to grant relief on such terms as justice requires. The contract is not then voidable by B. See Illustration 11 to § 152.

- 2. The facts being otherwise as stated in Illustration 1, the tract in fact contains 110 acres. Under the rule stated in § 152, the contract would be voidable by A. If, however, the court decides that this rule will not avoid injustice, it is within the discretion of the court to grant relief on such terms as justice requires. Compare Illustration 2 to § 152.
- 3. A sends B two different offers of a contract, one with an option for renewal by A and one without such an option. B signs the one with an option, believing that it is the other one. Under the rule stated in § 153, if the court found that enforcement of the contract would be unconscionable, the contract would be voidable by B. If, however, the court decides that this rule will not avoid injustice, it may supply a term, if reasonable, under which B is entitled to avoid the contract only if he accepts the other offer.

REPORTER'S NOTE

This Section is new. It is similar in form and in purpose to § 272. The statement of substantive rules governing claims under Subsection (1) is deferred to Chapter 16. Subsection (2) is a specific application of the more general rule stated in § 204. See 3 Corbin, Contracts § 604 (1960 & Supp. 1980); 13 Williston, Contracts § 1571 (3d ed. 1970).

Comment b. Examples of courts allowing money judgments in mistake cases include Brecht v. Schramm, 266 N.W.2d 514 (Minn. 1978) (contract to care for aging aunt rescinded; niece given restitutionary award for services already performed); Meyer v. Benko, 55 Cal. App.3d 937, 127 Cal. Rptr. 846 (1976) (sellers' defense rejected because of mistake; proper remedy is specific performance plus damages to buyers equal to rental value less interest on purchase price during period of delay); Atchison v. City of Englewood, 193 Colo. 367, 568 P.2d 13 (1977) (former owners of land found to have a right of first refusal despite mistaken inclusion of provision violating rule against perpetuities; contract reformed to strike offending provision; because specific performance would be impracticable, former owners entitled to difference between market price and option price).

Comment c. For a discussion of the court's power to shape the remedy according to the circumstances of the case, see National Presto Indus. v. United States, 167 Ct. REPORTER'S NOTE

This Section is based on former § 236, but former Subsections (a) and (b) are transferred to § 202 and former Subsections (d) and (f) to §§ 206 and 207. The other Subsections are rearranged. Subsection (b) is new; it conforms to Uniform Commercial Code §§ 1-205, 2-208. See 4 Williston, Contracts §§ 615-26 (3d ed. 1961); 3 Corbin, Contracts §§ 546-52, 559 (1960 & Supp. 1980); Patterson, The Interpretation and Construction of Contracts, 64 Colum. L. Rev. 833 (1964).

Comment b. See Intertherm, Inc. v. Coronet Imperial Corp., 558 S.W.2d 344, 351-52 (Mo. Ct. App. 1977).

Comment c. Many courts have said that the construction process should seek a reading that leads to a reasonable result. See, e.g., Crestview Bowl, Inc. v. Womer Constr. Co., 225 Kan. 335, 592 P.2d 74 (1979); Goddard v. South Bay Union High School Dist., 79 Cal. App.3d 98, 144 Cal. Rptr. 701 (1978); Intertherm, Inc. v. Coronet Imperial Corp., supra. Nonetheless, the real question is one of the intentions of the parties. See Perry and Wallis, Inc. v. United States, 192 Ct. Cl. 310, 427 F.2d 722 (1970); Ludwig Honold Mfg. Co. v. Fletcher, 405 F.2d 1123 (3d Cir. 1969); compare the majority and dissenting opinions in Pokorny v.

Pecsok, 50 Ohio St.2d 260, 364 N.E.2d 241 (1977) (dissent citing this Section in Tentative Draft). Illustration 1 is based on Illustration 1 to former § 236.

Comment d. For an example of express terms prevailing over custom of the trade, see Citizens Nat'l Bank v. L. L. Glascock, Inc., 243 So.2d 67 (Miss. 1971).

Comment e. On the general standard that specific clauses should prevail over general ones, see Western Oil Fields, Inc. v. Pennzoil United, Inc., 421 F.2d 387 (5th Cir. 1970). That this standard must yield when inappropriate under the particular circumstances, see Elliott Leases Cars, Inc. v. Quigley, 118 R.I. 321, 373 A.2d 810 (1977); contrast the reading of the dissenting opinion in that case, which cites § 202 and this Section in Tentative Draft.

Comment f. See Roylex, Inc. v. Avco Commun. Devs., Inc., 559 S.W.2d 833 (Tex. Civ. App. 1977), which finds the general rule that handwriting prevails over typewriting inapplicable under the circumstances shown by testimony. Illustrations 2 and 3 were Illustrations 4 and 5 to former § 236. Illustration 4 is based on United States Fidelity & Guar. Co. v. First Nat'l Bank, 244 S.C. 436, 137 S.E.2d 582 (1964).

§ 204. Supplying an Omitted Essential Term

When the parties to a bargain sufficiently defined to be a contract have not agreed with respect to a term which is essential to a determination of their rights and duties, a term which is reasonable in the circumstances is supplied by the court.

Comment:

- a. Scope; relation to other rules. This Section states a principle governing the legal effect of a binding agreement. The supplying of an omitted term is not technically interpretation, but the two are closely related; courts often speak of an "implied" term. In many common situations the principle has been elaborated in more detailed rules, applicable unless otherwise agreed. See the rules on the effect of failure of performance stated in §§ 231–49 and the rules on impossibility and frustration stated in Chapter 11, and compare §§ 158 and 272, regarding the supplying of terms in cases of mistake and impracticability or frustration. A similar principle is often applicable in determining whether the terms of an agreement are sufficiently certain to constitute a contract. See §§ 33, 34. In both situations the supplying of an omitted term may resemble or overlap interpretation (see § 200) or the effect given to usage (see §§ 219–23).
- b. How omission occurs. The parties to an agreement may entirely fail to foresee the situation which later arises and gives rise to a dispute; they then have no expectations with respect to that situation, and a search for their meaning with respect to it is fruitless. Or they may have expectations but fail to manifest them, either because the expectation rests on an assumption which is unconscious or only partly conscious, or because the situation seems to be unimportant or unlikely, or because discussion of it might be unpleasant or might produce delay or impasse.
- c. Interpretation and omission. Interpretation may be necessary to determine that the parties have not agreed with respect to a particular term, but the supplying of an omitted term is not within the definition of interpretation in § 200. Where there is tacit agreement or a common tacit assumption or where a term can be supplied by logical deduction from agreed terms and the circumstances, interpretation may be enough. But interpretation may result in the conclusion that there was in fact no agreement on a particular point, and that conclusion should be accepted even though the omitted term could be supplied by giving agreed language a meaning different from the meaning or meanings given it by the parties.
- d. Supplying a term. The process of supplying an omitted term has sometimes been disguised as a literal or a purposive reading of contract language directed to a situation other than the situation that arises. Sometimes it is said that the search is for the term the parties would have agreed to if the question had been brought to their attention. Both the meaning of the words used and the probability that a particular term would have been used if the question had been raised may be factors in determining what term is reasonable in the circumstances. But where there is in fact no agreement, the court should supply a term which comports with community standards of fairness and policy rather than analyze a hypothetical model of the bargaining process. Thus where a contract calls for a single performance such as the rendering of a service or the delivery of goods, the parties are most unlikely to agree explicitly that performance will be rendered within a "reasonable time;" but if no time is specified, a term calling for performance within a reasonable time is supplied. See Uniform Commercial Code §§ 1-204, 2-309(1). Similarly, where there is a contract for the sale of goods but nothing is said as to price the price is a reasonable price at the time for delivery. See Uniform Commercial Code § 2 - 305.

e. Effect of the parol evidence rule. The fact that an essential term is omitted may indicate that the agreement is not integrated or that there is partial rather than complete integration. In such cases the omitted term may be supplied by prior negotiations or a prior agreement. See § 216. But omission of a term does not show conclusively that integration was not complete and a completely integrated agreement, if binding, discharges prior agreements within its scope. See § 213. Where there is complete integration and interpretation of the writing discloses a failure to agree on an essential term, evidence of prior negotiations or agreements is not admissible to supply the omitted term, but such evidence may be admissible, if relevant, on the question of what is reasonable in the circumstances.

Illustration:

1. A and his wife convey their ranch to A's sister and her husband, reserving an option to repurchase. The parties agree orally that the property will be kept in the family, but the deed says nothing as to assignment of the option. If the deed is found to be a partial integration, the oral agreement is effective to show that the option is not assignable. If the deed is found to be a complete integration, the oral agreement is discharged and the option is assignable.

REPORTER'S NOTE

This Section is new. See 3 Corbin, Contracts §§ 561-72A (1960 & Supp. 1980); 4 Williston, Contracts §§ 600-610B, 614-15, 640 (3d ed. 1961); Farnsworth, Disputes Over Omissions in Contracts, 68 Colum. L. Rev. 860 (1968).

Comment a. For a discussion of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, see § 205. For its relation to the court's power to supply omitted terms, and application of these concepts to different parts of a contract with differing results, see Snyder v. Howard Johnson's Motor Lodges, Inc., 412 F. Supp. 724 (S.D. Ill. 1976). In Chemetron Corp. v. McLouth Steel Corp., 522 F.2d 469 (7th Cir. 1975), the court, from the ungrammatical language of a provision, concluded that the draftsman had inadvertently omitted either "and" or "or." Compare § 158.

Comment d. Examples of courts adding a reasonable time requirement to contracts silent on the point include Haines v. City of New York, 41 N.Y.2d 769, 396 N.Y.S.2d 155, 364 N.E.2d 820 (1977) (long-term maintenance of a sewer system; cites this Section in Tentative Draft); and Houston County v. Leo L. Landauer & Assoc., 424 S.W.2d 458 (Tex. Civ. App. 1968), ref. n.r.e. (time for performance under a contract). In Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Florida E. Coast Ry. Co., 399 F.2d 854 (5th Cir. 1968), 47 N.C. L. Rev. 710

(1969), a power to place telephone and telegraph lines over and under railroad tracks, duration of which was unspecified, was held subject to termination upon reasonable notice. The power had already been in existence for more than fifty years. As to a court's power to find an omitted term limiting restrictive employment agreements to a reasonable time or area, compare Toch v. Eric Schuster Corp., 490 S.W.2d 618 (Tex. Civ. App. 1972), ref. n.r.e., with Haines v. City of New York, supra (dictum). In Snyder v. Howard Johnson's Motor Lodges, Inc., supra, the court refused to find an implied covenant not to compete, but found an implied covenant that a restaurant would be operated in a manner consistent with others operated by the defendants. For an example of a court refusing to supply an allegedly omitted term, see Hinckley v. Bechtel Corp., 41 Cal. App.3d 206, 116 Cal. Rptr. 33 (1974).

Comment e. On the interplay with the parol evidence rule see Snyder v. Howard Johnson's Motor Lodges, Inc., supra. Illustration 1 is based on Masterson v. Sine, 68 Cal.2d 222, 65 Cal. Rptr. 545, 436 P.2d 561 (1968).
