TODD B. JAKSICK'S OPPOSITION TO WENDY JAKSICK'S SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION IN SUPPORT OF AWARD OF
ATTORNEY'S FEES TO WENDY
JAKSICK'S ATTORNEYS

Petitioners and Counter-Respondents.

1 Todd B. Jaksick (“Todd”), as an individual and as a beneficiary of the Samuel S. Jaksick,
2 Jr. Family Trust (“Family Trust”) opposes Wendy Jaksick’s (“Wendy”) Supplemental Motion in 3 Support of Award of Attorney’s Fees to Wendy Jaksick’s Attorneys (“Supplemental Motion”).

4 A. TODD’S STANDING.

5 The Court has ruled that the Family Trust pay Wendy’s lawyers $300,000. If paid, a
6 substantial depletion of trust assets will occur, something Sam Jaksick would never have
7 condoned. If Sam Jaksick witnessed the way Wendy’s lawyers attacked Todd and Stanley Jaksick
8 (“Stan”), Sam would have found a way to make those lawyers pay the Family Trust. All involved
9 know well that Sam would be shocked if not appalled to see his estate have to pay lawyers to 10 attack his sons.

11 Todd is a beneficiary of the Family Trust. The two years of contentious litigation
12 instigated and pursued by Wendy and her lawyers have already substantially depleted assets of the 13 Family Trust. But, another $300,000 depletion unfairly and unjustly punishes the beneficiaries of 14 the Family Trust, including Todd. As a result, Todd, individually and as a beneficiary of the 15 Family Trust, respectfully submits this Opposition to Wendy’s Supplemental Motion.

16 B. UNNECESSARY AND UNREASONABLE.

17 It was neither reasonable nor necessary for Wendy’s lawyers to utilize 14 different lawyers
18 and/or paralegals to litigate for approximately 25 months.¹

19 It was neither reasonable nor necessary for Wendy’s lawyers to utilize seven days to 20 depose Todd.

21 It was neither reasonable nor necessary for Wendy’s lawyers to hire three very expensive
22 experts when only one was called as a witness. Indeed, one such expert agreed that the 23 accountings complied with Nevada law in all respects.

24 It was neither reasonable nor necessary to submit nearly 900 Requests for Production, the 25 most the Discovery Commissioner has ever seen.

26 It was neither reasonable nor necessary for Wendy’s lawyers to make a request just five 27

¹ The billing records submitted as exhibits to Wendy’s Supplemental Motion show at least 14 different persons billed.
The time for those charges is from late June 2017 to August 2019.

1 weeks before the trial was to start to join an additional 42 parties.

2 It was neither reasonable nor necessary that Wendy's lawyers did not engage a handwriting
3 expert who would have, like Todd's expert did, verify that the signatures on the questioned
4 documents were indeed those of Sam Jaksick.

5 It was completely unreasonable and unnecessary to devote 3,222 hours of lawyer/paralegal
6 time to receive a verdict in the total amount of $15,000.

7 And, as the Court ruled, it was unreasonable and unnecessary to name Todd, Stan, Mr.
8 Riley and Mr. Kimmel as individuals without ever having presented evidence that anyone of them
9 was liable as an individual.

10 Respectfully, the Court is rewarding bad behavior and has essentially stated as much in its 11 Order After Equitable Trial ("Order") in which the Court ruled:

- 12 1. Wendy's litigation position was influenced by animus and avarice. (Order, 6:1-2).
- 13 2. Wendy's allegations were vexatious. (Id., 5:11).
- 14 3. Wendy was personal in her accusations. (Id.).
- 15 4. Wendy's allegations were without factual basis. (Id.).
- 16 5. Wendy's lawyers overreached. (Id., 6:3).
- 17 6. Wendy chose litigation over settlement "and now must accept the consequences of 18 her choice." (Id., 5:22-23).

19 It is more than difficult to reconcile vexatious and harassing litigation tactics with a reward
20 of $300,000, especially where in the same case their client has been ordered to pay Todd over 21 $500,000 in fees and costs.

22 C. THE "SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION" IS IRREGULAR AND FUGITIVE.

23 The Court's Judgment was entered in these matters on April 1, 2020. It incorporates the 24 March 12, 2020 Order After Equitable Trial. Without specific or particular findings, it eludes to 25 five events that influenced its decision on fees:

- 26 1. The jury's verdict;

2. Stan's pleadings and deposition testimony;
3. The indemnification agreements and ACPAs;
4. Notarial misconduct; and
5. The timing and content of the accountings.

Apparently, one or more of those events convinced the Court to reward Wendy's lawyers with $300,000 payment from the Family Trust. Yet, the Court also ruled:

1. The jury considered all evidence when deliberating its verdict and the verdict is a rejection of Wendy's complaints about the accountings, which means that the jury constructively approved the accountings. (Order, 14:2-3).

2. The jury heard all evidence concerning the ACPAs and indemnification agreements and constructively approved them. (Id., 15:2-4).

3. The jury considered Stan's testimony and was made aware of his pleadings challenging Todd's conduct, yet the jury found in favor of Todd despite Stan's testimony on 21 of 22 of Wendy's claims for relief.

The jury's approval of the accountings, indemnification agreements and ACPAs confirms that Wendy's lawyers should not be paid for their aggressive overreaching resulting in them "swinging for the fence".

However, the Trust objected. In their Motion to Amend Judgment, the Trustees contest the $300,000 award. Wendy filed her opposition to the Trust's Motion to Amend Judgment on May 12, 2020. Then, realizing that the record was completely devoid of any specific justification for the $300,000 award and realizing that the Court failed to cite authority for the award, Wendy's lawyers filed their "Supplemental Motion" to simply pad the record.

The Supplemental Motion is not a motion. It seeks no relief. It simply tries to add unsolicited information to support a judgment that fails to say why the $300,000 fee award is warranted and the Order does not include appropriate findings that show specific wrongdoing.

D. THERE IS NO AUTHORITY TO JUSTIFY THE $300,000 AWARD.

Fees can be awarded through contract, statute or rule. Wendy did not prevail on a contract claim. Fees cannot be awarded pursuant to contract. Wendy did not make or serve a NRCP 68

1 Offer of Judgment. She has never made a claim for fees under NRS 18.010, because she was not
2 sued, she sued.

3 The Court has generally referred to several statutes on which it apparently relies as 4 authority for awarding Wendy's lawyers $300,000 for prosecuting a vexatious, completely
5 unsuccessful, lawsuit.

6 NRS 165.148 allows the Court to hold a trustee personally liable for failing to provide an 7 accounting. Accountings were provided. Stan, Mr. Kimmel, Mr. Riley and Todd did provide 8 Wendy with accountings.

9 NRS 165.190 allows the Court to order a trustee to perform an accounting. No such order 10 exists.

11 NRS 165.200 allows the Court to order a trustee's compensation be reduced or forfeited. It
12 also allows "other civil penalty" when a trustee fails to perform his duties. However, the Trust 13 cannot be penalized with a $300,000 fee assessment under this statute.

14 NRS 153.070 can be used to adjust a trustee's compensation, but it does not allow an 15 assessment against the Trust.

16 NRS 153.031(3)(b) allows the Court to order a "trustee" to pay a petitioner reasonable
17 attorneys' fees. Yet, the Court assesses the fees against the Family Trust. NRS 153.031(3) is 18 intended to "redress or avoid an injustice". There is no injustice that has been sustained by Wendy
19 or her lawyers. The injustice is that Wendy's lawyers are being rewarded for pursuing a
20 "vexatious" lawsuit in which they lost 111 of 112 claims for relief. Reliance on NRS 153.031(3) 21 to reward unsuccessful lawyers with nearly one-third of a million dollars is an injustice and 22 unfairly punishes Sam's beneficiaries for Wendy's harassment and vexatious activities.

23 NRS 153.031(3)(b) does not support this Court's order requiring Todd to reimburse the 24 Trusts for 25% of the fees. NRS 153.031(3)(b) allows this Court to "[o]rder the trustee to pay to 25 the petitioner or any other party all reasonable costs incurred by the party to adjudicate the affairs
26 of the trust pursuant to [NRS 153.031], including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees."

27 In order for this Court to rely upon this provision to support the 25% of attorney fees, the 28 Family Trust must be a "party" to the litigation. It is not. "The trustee, rather than the trust, is the

1 real party in interest in litigation involving trust property.” Nicholson v. Fazeli, 6 Cal. Rptr. 3d
2 991, 891 (Ct. App. 2003) (internal quotations omitted). This is because “a trust is not a person but
3 rather a fiduciary relationship with respect to property.” Moeller v. Sup. Ct., 947 P.2d 279, 283
4 n.3 (Cal. 1997). Thus, “[a] trust itself cannot sue or be sued.” Portico Mgmt. Grp., LLC v.
5 Harrison, 136 Cal. Rptr. 3d 151, 157 (Ct. App. 2011). Thus, the Family Trust is not a “party.”

6 Nor can this Court order that Todd repay the attorney fees on a theory of surcharge because
7 the jury found that he breached his fiduciary duty. Again, the jury verdict does not allow this
8 Court to speculate as to the basis of the breach of fiduciary duty. Whatever breach occurred, it
9 was insignificant. This Court must first find that payment of attorney fees for Todd somehow
10 harmed the Family Trust. Restatement (Third) of Trust, § 95 cmt. b-c (2012). There is no
11 evidence that Todd’s conduct harmed the Family Trust. There is no finding that Todd’s conduct
12 harmed the trusts. The jury approved the very conduct that the Court is “influenced” by. While 13 this Court may not approve of the 2012 transactions, those were Sam’s decisions, not Todd’s.
14 And while this Court may disagree with Todd’s defense of this case, Todd’s defense was caused 15 by Wendy’s initiation of this lawsuit and that lawsuit named multiple parties, not just Todd.
16 Wendy, through her vexatious and frivolous litigation is the one who has caused the harm to the 17 Family Trust.

18 E. WENDY LOST . . . ALL CLAIMS.

19 Wendy filed a massive lawsuit.

20 She filed 11 claims against Kevin Riley as an individual. She lost them all.

21 She filed 11 claims against Kevin Riley as a Co-Trustee. She lost them all.

22 She filed claims against Kevin Riley as Trustee of the BHC Trust. She lost them all.

23 She filed 11 claims against Mike Kimmel. She lost them all.

24 She filed 11 claims against Mike Kimmel as a Co-Trustee. She lost them all.

25 She filed 11 claims against Stan as an individual. She lost them all.

26 She filed 11 claims against Stan as a Co-Trustee. She lost them all.

27 She filed 11 claims against Todd as an individual. She lost them all.

28 She filed 11 claims against Todd as a Trustee and Co-Trustee. She lost 10 of those claims.

1 Of her approximate 112 claims, she lost 111. Even the one claim she claims to have won,
2 resulted in an overwhelming and embarrassing loss. A verdict for $15,000 of damages compared
3 to her lawyers' request for $80,000,000, plus punitive damages, is all but laughable.

4 F. CONCLUSION.

5 Todd prevailed. He prevailed on 10 of 11 claims Wendy's lawyers pursued against him as 6 a Trustee and as a Co-Trustee. He prevailed on 11 of 11 claims Wendy's lawyers pursued against 7 him as an individual. Messrs. Kimmel, Riley and Stan Jaksick prevailed on all claims. Yet,
8 Sam's estate is being unfairly and inequitably punished by having to pay lawyers who were
9 thoroughly unsuccessful and labeled by this Court of fostering, permitting and pursuing vexatious
10 litigation.

OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO STRIKE WENDY'S SUPPLEMENTAL
MOTION IN SUPPORT OF AWARD
OF ATTORNEY'S FEES TO WENDY
JAKSICK'S ATTORNEYS

1 Wendy A. Jaksick (“Wendy”), by and through her undersigned counsel, files this
2 Opposition to Motion to Strike Wendy’s Supplemental Motion in Support of Award of Attorney’s
3 Fees to Wendy Jaksick’s Attorneys (the “Opposition”). As set forth below, the Court should 4 deny the Trustees’ Motion to Strike Wendy’s Supplemental Motion in Support of Award of 5 Attorney’s Fees to Wendy Jaksick’s Attorneys (“Motion to Strike”).

6 I. ARGUMENT

7 1. Court Ruled After Considering Appropriate Brunzell Factors. Trustees argue
8 that Wendy “failed to provide the Court with an analysis of the Brunzell factors prior to the 9 Court awarding her fees.” Motion to Strike, page 2, lines 20-21 & page 3, line 4. There is no
10 authority that requires Wendy provide a specific and detailed Brunzell factor analysis to the 11 Court to be entitled to an award of fees. Instead, the authority simply requires the Court
12 consider the Brunzell factors in making an award of fees. Shuette v. Beazer Homes Holdings
13 Corp., 121 Nev. 837, 864, 124 P.3d 530, 548–49 (2005).

14 2. As argued in detail in her Opposition to Motion to Alter or Amend the Judgment
15 – Award of Attorney’s Fees to Wendy Jaksick (“Opposition to Motion to Alter Judgment”), the 16 Court properly considered the Brunzell factors in making its award of attorney’s fees to 17 Wendy. Opposition to Motion to Alter Judgment, page 3, line 9 – page 6, line 23. The Court
18 is not required to make express findings as to the Brunzell factors as long as the record shows
19 the Court considered the factors. Opposition to Motion to Alter Judgment, page 2, lines 20-28
20 & page 6, lines 1-20; 145 E. Harmon II Tr. v. Residences at MGM Grand - Tower A Owners’
21 Ass’n, 136 Nev. Adv. Op. 14, 460 P.3d 455, 460 (2020) (confirming award of attorney’s fees
22 where “the district court did not make express findings as to the Brunzell factors, but the record 23 clearly shows that the district court considered each factor.”)

1 3. Wendy's Opening and Closing Briefs, the Order After Equitable Trial, the 2 Final Judgment and the Court's confirmation that it considered "all facts of record and 3 influenced by the entirety of the pre-trial, legal and equitable proceedings (including the 4 settlement agreement between Todd and Stan) and uncertainties created by notarial
5 malfeasance" in reaching its conclusions in awarding attorney's fees confirm the Court
6 considered the Burnzell factors in making its award of attorney's fees to Wendy. Order After 7 Equitable Trial, page 17, line 7-10.

8
9 4. Supplemental Motion Consistent with Court's Award. Based on the above, in 10 making its award of fees to Wendy, the Court was well aware of: (1) the qualities and skill of 11 Wendy's counsel and (2) the work actually performed by Wendy's counsel as well as the skill,
12 time and attention given the work. Opposition to Motion to Alter Judgment, page 3, line 9 –
13 page 5, line 2. It was not necessary for the Court to have the curricula vitae and billing invoices 14 of Wendy's counsel to conduct its analysis. Wendy's Supplemental Motion in Support of 15 Award simply adds declarations from Wendy's counsel concerning the information in their 16 curricula vitae and the billing invoices for their work in the litigation. Supplemental Motion
17 in Support of Award, page 6, lines 4-10 & page 6, lines 27 – page 7, line 5. All of this 18 information is consistent with the Court's understanding and analysis upon which it based its 19 award.
20

21 5. Based on the authority cited herein and in Wendy's Opposition to Motion to 22 Alter Judgment, the award of attorney's fees to Wendy's counsel was amply supported by the 23 consideration of the Brunzell factors. Wendy's Supplemental Motion in Support of Award
24 simply provides additional support consistent with the analysis of the Court as confirmed in 25 the Order After Equitable Trial and the Final Judgment. Such information further confirms 26
27
28

1 Wendy incurred multiples more than the fee award, so the Court's award of $300,000 was,
2 certainly, reasonable and justified.

3 6. Trustees cite no authority prohibiting Wendy's Supplemental Motion in 4 Support of Award or confirming that such filing is not authorized, nor do they argue they are
5 prejudiced by the Motion. The rules allow parties to file motions and applications for awards
6 of fees following the entry of a judgment. Several parties submitted motions seeking awards
7 of attorney's fees with supporting documents following the entry of the Final Judgment.
8 Several of these motions are still pending before this Court.
9

10 7. Wendy's attorneys were specifically awarded fees in the Order After Equitable
11 Trial and the Final Judgment, which were supported by the Court's analysis included therein.
12 Additionally, the Order After Equitable Trial states, "[t]he attorneys' fees provisions in this 13 order reflect the entirety of this Court's intentions regarding fees." Order After Equitable Trial, 14 page 25, lines 12-13. Therefore, it did not appear necessary for Wendy to file a motion for an
15 award of fees. If the Court were to determine now that the information included in Wendy's
16 Supplemental Motion in Support of Award was necessary for its award of fees, Wendy would 17 be unfairly prejudiced if the Court were to strike Wendy's Supplemental Motion.
18

20 For the reasons set forth above, Wendy respectfully requests the court deny Trustees'
21 Motion to Strike.

30 Trust, and Trustee of the Wendy A. Jaksick 2012 BHC Family Trust (hereafter "Petitioners", 31 "Trustees", or "Co-Trustees"), hereby file their Reply in Support of their Motion to Strike

1 “Wendy’s Supplemental Motion in Support of Award of Attorney’s Fees to Wendy Jaksick’s
2 Attorneys” (hereafter referred to herein as the “Supplemental Motion”).

3
4 I.
ARGUMENT

- 5 1. The Court did not state that it considered the Brunzell factors in its award of fees to 6 Wendy.

7 Wendy continues to make conclusory statements that the Court considered the Brunzell
8 factors in its Order After Equitable Trial prior to awarding fees to her attorneys. This statement,
9 however, is not support by the record. Specifically, the Court expressly analyzed the Brunzell
10 factors when it considered the award of fees to Todd, individually, but it did not do so with its 11 award to Wendy. There is no statement by the Court which says it considered the Brunzell factors
12 prior to awarding fees to Wendy. Wendy merely attempts to cherry pick statements from the 13 Court’s Order After Equitable Trial to support her award of fees. In doing so, she ignores the 14 numerous other statements that do not support her position.
15

16 The Court’s Order After Equitable Trial contains numerous statements which are issues for 17 Wendy regarding her fees, and weigh against the reasonableness of her fees. First, Wendy cannot 18 explain why the Court provided a Brunzell analysis for Todd’s award of fees, yet ignored Brunzell
19 when making Wendy’s award. Additionally, the result obtained by Wendy’s counsel at trial and 20 in the Order After Equitable Trial is not consistent with her position that her attorneys were 21 successful in prevailing against Todd. The result of trial was a Fifteen Thousand Dollar ($15,000)
22 verdict in response to an Eighty Million Dollar ($80,000,000) demand for verdict. In addition, the 23 jury found Wendy had not proven her claims for civil conspiracy and aiding and abetting, aiding
24 and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, or fraud against Todd; nor did the jury find that Wendy
25

1 proved any of her claims against any of the other defendants. Indeed, the Court's description of
2 Wendy's litigation tactics, included that she initiated "scorched-earth litigation grounded in
3 entitlement and limited self-awareness." This statement could be ascribed to either the "qualities,
4 abilities and skill of Wendy's attorneys," or to the "skill, time and attention Wendy's attorneys
5 gave the work in preparing for and trying Wendy's claims," neither of which translates into
6 reasonableness of fees. With respect to Wendy's claim against Todd for violation of the no-contest
7 provision of the trusts, the Court found Wendy's claim to be "retaliatory and made with little legal
8 basis or support from the trust instruments." This too weighs against reasonableness of Wendy's
9 fees.
10

11 The Court, when making the award of fees did not have the benefit of specific information
12 regarding the number of attorneys working on Wendy's behalf or the rates at which they charged
13 their fees to Wendy, neither of which was reasonable. First, the firm of Fox, Rothschild LLP
14 utilized a total of eleven (11) lawyers and staff on this case: two (2) partners, four (4) associate 15 attorneys, one (1) "counsel", two (2) paralegals, one (1) "staff", and one (1) "e-discovery".
16 Notably, this is in addition to the lawyers and staff in Texas working on this case, all on behalf of 17 Wendy. Second, the billing rates of these attorneys and staff are beyond the pale and well in excess
18 of what is considered reasonable in the Reno legal market. The two (2) partners were billing at a 19 rate of $640 and $520 per hour. There is no attorney in Reno billing at $640 per hour, and the 20 number of attorneys billing at that rate in Las Vegas, if any, would be few. This rate is higher than 21 either of the lead attorneys working on behalf of Todd Jaksick, individually, and the Co-Trustees.
22 The two (2) paralegals billing at a rate of $295 and $340 per hour for "preparing and receiving 23 discovery" is unconscionable. These rates are not only higher than some attorney rates in Reno,
24
26

1 but also higher than some of the associate rates for Fox Rothschild LLP. These rates are not
2 reasonable paralegal rates by Nevada standards much less Reno standards. Wendy's post hoc
3 analysis of the Brunzell factors thus defines why the law requires such an analysis prior to any
4 award of fees. The Court did not have the benefit of any of the information contained in Wendy's
5 Supplemental Motion prior to making its award, which is what is required under Nevada law.
6 There is no authority which allows Wendy to supplement the record after the fact with information
7 consistent with the Brunzell factors in an attempt to save her attorneys' fees award. The Nevada
8 Supreme Court has consistently stated that an award of fees made without consideration of the 9 Brunzell factors must be vacated. See, e.g. Gunderson v. D.R. Horton, Inc., 130 Nev. 67,82, 319
10 P.3d 606, 616 (2014); Albios v. Horizon Communities, Inc., 122 Nev. 409, 428, 132 p.3d 1022, 11 1034 (2006). Accordingly, Wendy's Supplemental Motion should be stricken from the record and 12 the judgment should be altered or amended to remove her award for fees.
13

15 2. Wendy cannot make a motion for fees after she has been awarded fees.

16 Nevada law is replete with cases requiring that the district court vacate its award of fees if 17 it failed to consider the Brunzell factors. There is, however, no authority which allows Wendy to 18 provide an analysis of the Brunzell factors after an award has already been made. Wendy is correct
19 that motions for fees are made after entry of the judgment; however, her award of fees was already 20 made based on her motion for fees filed before entry of the judgment – which did not include an 21 analysis of the Brunzell factors. All of the parties that submitted motions for fees after award of 22 the judgment did not have fees awarded as part of the judgment. Wendy's attempt to compare her
23 situation with the motions for fees currently pending before the Court makes no sense. There is 24 no support for Wendy's Supplemental Motion and it should be stricken.

3. Conclusion

Based on the arguments above and in the original Motion to Strike, the Court should strike Wendy's Supplemental Motion.
