Respondent.

No. 81635

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING STAY

Appellant has filed a second motion for a stay of the divorce decree and of any sale of the marital property pending resolution of this appeal. The district court denied appellant's motion for stay on November 6, 2020. No opposition has been filed. It appears that the object of the appeal may be defeated and that appellant may suffer irreparable harm if the marital home is sold. NRAP 8(c); see e.g., Dixon v. Thatcher, 103 Nev. 414, 416, 742 P.2d 1029, 1030 (1987) (real property and its attributes are considered unique and loss of real property rights generally results in irreparable harm). Accordingly, the motion is granted. See NRAP 8(c); see also Fritz Hansen A/ S u. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 116 Nev. 650, 6 P.3d 982 (2000). The district court shall stay enforcement of the divorce decree pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.¹

¹Appellant's emergency motion to recuse respondent's counsel Grayson Moulton and emergency petition for writ of mandamus are denied. To the extent appellant seeks a stay in those documents, the request is moot in light of this order, and to the extent those documents seek relief directed to persons and entities not before this court or argue the merits of this appeal, they are improperly sought by motion.
