DISTRICT COURT

FAMILY DIVISION

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

ERICH M. MARTIN,
Plaintiff,

v.

RAINA L. MARTIN,
Defendant.

CASE NO.: D- 15- 509045- D

DEPT. NO.: C

COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE

COMES NOW Plaintiff Erich M. Martin, by and through his counsel of record, Jason Naimi, Esq., of the Standish Naimi Law Group, as and for a Complaint for Divorce against Defendant, and alleges as follows:

1. That Defendant, for a period of more than six (6) weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been and now is an actual, bona fide resident and domiciliary of the State of Nevada, County of Clark, has been actually physically and corporeally present and domiciled in Nevada for more than six (6) weeks immediately prior to the commencement of this action, and has had and still has the intent to make the State of Nevada her home, residence and domicile for an indefinite period of time.

2. That Plaintiff and Defendant were duly and legally married on or about the 1st day of April, 2002 in the County of Cumberland, State of North Carolina and have been and still are husband and wife.

3. That there is one (1) minor child who is the issue of this marriage, to wit: Nathan L. Martin, born August 24th, 2010. To the best of Plaintiff's knowledge, Defendant is not pregnant at this time. No children were adopted during this marriage by Plaintiff and/or Defendant.

4. That the State of Nevada is the home state of the subject minor child.

5. That Plaintiff and Defendant are fit and proper persons to be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child.

6. That Defendant is a fit and proper person to be designated as primary physical custodian of the minor child: Nathan L. Martin, born August 24th, 2010, subject to Plaintiff's reasonable right to visitation. This schedule is in the best interest of the child.

7. That the parties should be referred to FMC to formulate a visitation plan, including holidays.

8. That Plaintiff is able bodied and capable of paying child support for the minor child born as issue of this marriage, in an amount commensurate with NRS 125B.070 and NRS 125B.080, which sets forth that support for one minor child shall equal eighteen percent (18%) of Defendant's gross monthly income, which is a reasonable amount of support and maintenance of said minor child.

9. That Plaintiff shall maintain medical, optical and dental insurance for the minor child until said child reaches the age of majority, marries, or becomes otherwise emancipated, with any premium being paid equally by both parties.

1 10. The parties shall share equally all uninsured medical expenses of the minor child.
2 Medical expenses shall include, but are not limited to, counseling, eye exams, eye glasses and medical
3 and/or dental treatment. Reimbursement shall be made pursuant to the 30/30 rule for expenses. The 4 parent who paid for the expenses shall provide the other parent a copy of the receipt of payment
5 within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent shall reimburse one-half of the expenses with 6 thirty (30) days of receiving notice.

8 11. That there are community assets of the parties, the exact amounts and descriptions of
9 which are unknown to Plaintiff at this time, and Plaintiff prays leave of Court to amend this Complaint
10 to insert the same when they have become know to him or at the time of trial in this matter; that this
11 Court should make a fair and equitable division of all community assets of the parties.

13 12. That there are community debts of the parties, the exact amounts and descriptions of
14 which are unknown to Plaintiff at this time, and Plaintiff prays leave of Court to amend this Complaint
15 to insert the same when they have become know to him or at the time of trial in this matter; that this
16 Court should make a fair and equitable division of all community debts of the parties.
17

18 13. That in the event the Defendant has taken sole control of the community assets, 19 community bank accounts, community business and other community funds in order to conceal or 20 hide these funds to avoid an equitable distribution of the community assets, the Defendant should 21 provide a full and complete accounting of all community assets, investments and funds along with 22 bank account statements to compensate Plaintiff for any loss of these community funds.
23

24 14. That in the event the Defendant has or will engage in acts individually or together with 25 others that may constitute material waste of community assets, the Defendant should provide a full 26 and complete accounting of all community assets, investments and funds along with bank account
27 statements to compensate Plaintiff for any loss of these community funds.
28

1 15. That, should any claim, action and/or proceeding be brought seeking to hold the other
2 party liable on account of any debt, obligation, liability, act, or omission assumed by that party, he or
3 she will, at his or her sole expense, defend the other against any such claim or demand and that he or 4 she will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other party.

5 16. That Defendant be admonished and enjoined from breaching the Joint Preliminary
6 Injunction on file in this matter and be prevented from depleting the community assets.

7 17. That neither party should be awarded spousal support.

8 18. That Defendant should maintain her current name of Raina L. Martin or return to her
9 former name as her full legal name upon entering a Decree of Divorce.

10 19. That Plaintiff has been required to retain the services of the Standish Naimi Law Group
11 to prosecute this action and should be awarded his reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees
12 incurred herein.

13 20. That during the course of said marriage, the tastes, mental disposition, views, likes
14 and dislikes of Plaintiff and Defendant have become so widely divergent that the parties have become
15 incompatible in marriage to such an extent that it is impossible for them to live together as husband
16 and wife and the incompatibility between Plaintiff and Defendant is so great that there is no possibility
17 of reconciliation between them.

18 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a Judgment as follows:

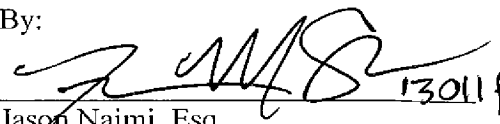

19 1. That the marriage existing between Plaintiff and Defendant be dissolved and that 20 Plaintiff be granted an absolute Decree of Divorce and that each of the parties be restored to the status
21 of a single, unmarried person;

22 2. That the Court grant the relief requested in this Complaint; and 23
24 ...
25 ...
26
27
28

1 3. For such other relief as the Court finds to be just and proper.

21 Defendant/Counterclaimant.

Case No.: D-15-509045-D
Dept No.: C

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE AND COUNTERCLAIM

21 Defendant, RAINA L. MARTIN, by and through her attorneys, Gregg A. Hubley, Esq.,
22 and Ramir M. Hernandez, Esq., of Brooks Hubley, LLP, for her answer to the Complaint on file
23 herein, admits, denies, and alleges as follows:

24 I.

25 Answering Paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, 18, and 20 of Plaintiff's Complaint on file
26 herein, Defendant admits each and every allegation contained therein.
27
28

II.

Answering Paragraphs 13, 14, and 16 of Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, Defendant admits to the extent that Plaintiff be subject to the same provisions, otherwise Defendant denies each and every allegation contained therein.

III.

Answering Paragraphs 8, 9, 15, 17, and 19 of Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, Defendant denies each and every allegation contained therein.

IV.

Answering Paragraphs 11, and 12 of Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, Defendant is without knowledge and therefore denies each and every allegation contained therein.

WHEREFORE, Defendant prays that Plaintiff take nothing by way of his Complaint on file herein.

COUNTERCLAIM FOR DIVORCE

The Defendant/Counterclaimant, RAINA L. MARTIN, for a cause of action against Plaintiff/Counterdefendant, ERICH M. MARTIN, alleges as follows:

I.

That Defendant/Counterclaimant is now and for a period of more than six (6) weeks prior to the commencement of this action, has been an actual bona fide resident and domiciliary of the County of Clark, State of Nevada, actually, physically, corporally domiciled herein during all said periods of time, and also has the intent to indefinitely reside therein, and is a domiciliary thereof.

II.

That Plaintiff/Counterdefendant and Defendant/Counterclaimant were duly and lawfully married on 1st day of April 2002 in the County of Cumberland, State of North Carolina, and ever since said date, have been and now are husband and wife.

III.

The tastes, mental dispositions, views and likes and dislikes of Defendant/Counterclaimant and Plaintiff/Counterdefendant have become so widely separated and divergent that the parties are incompatible to such an extent that it is impossible for them to live together as husband and wife. The incompatibility between Defendant/Counterclaimant and Plaintiff/Counterdefendant is so great that there is no possibility of reconciliation between them.

IV.

There is one (1) minor child born the issue of this marriage, to wit: Nathan L. Martin, born August 24, 2010. There are no adopted children and Defendant/Counterclaimant is not pregnant.

V.

That Defendant/Counterclaimant be confirmed as primary physical custodian of the minor child, Nathan L. Martin, subject to Plaintiff/Counterdefendant's reasonable right to visitation.

VI.

That Plaintiff/Counterdefendant is able-bodied and capable of paying child support for the minor child born as issue of this marriage, in an amount commensurate with the parties' separation agreement or NRS 125B.070 and NRS 125B.080, which sets forth that support for one minor child shall equal 18% of Plaintiff/Counterdefendant's gross monthly income, which is a reasonable amount of support and maintenance of the minor child. Defendant/Counterclaimant also is requesting child support arrears in an amount to be determined by the Court. Good cause exists not to issue a wage withholding order at this time.

VII.

That Plaintiff/Counterdefendant shall maintain medical, optical, and dental insurance for the minor child until said child reaches the age of majority, marries, or becomes otherwise emancipated, with any premiums being paid 100% solely by Plaintiff/Counterdefendant.

VIII.

That Plaintiff/Counterdefendant is able-bodied and capable of paying a reasonable sum as and for the support and maintenance of the Defendant/Counterclaimant for an amount and period of time that the Court deems to be just and equitable;

IX.

There are community debts and obligations of the parties to be adjudicated by this Honorable Court, the exact extent of which is unknown to Defendant/Counterclaimant at this time, and Defendant/Counterclaimant prays leave to amend her Counterclaim to insert the same when they have become known to her or at the time of trial in this matter.

X.

There is community and jointly owned property of the parties to be adjudicated by this Honorable Court. The full extent of the parties' property is unknown to the Defendant/Counterclaimant at this time, and Defendant/Counterclaimant prays leave to amend her Counterclaim to insert the same once it has become known to her or at the time of trial in this matter.

XI.

That it has been necessary for the Defendant/Counterclaimant to engage the services of an attorney to prosecute this action. The Defendant/Counterclaimant is without sufficient funds to pay the cost, expenses and attorney's fees to enable her to defend this action, while the Plaintiff/Counterdefendant has resources which render him well able to pay attorney's fees and costs.

2 WHEREFORE, Defendant/Counterclaimant prays for judgment against the
3 Plaintiff/Counterdefendant as follows:

4 1. The marriage existing between Defendant/Counterclaimant and
5 Plaintiff/Counterdefendant be dissolved and the Defendant/Counterclaimant be granted an 6 absolute Decree of Divorce with each of the parties being restored to the status of a single,
7 unmarried person;

8 2. That Defendant/Counterclaimant be confirmed as primary physical custodian of 9 the minor child, Nathan L. Martin, subject to Plaintiff/Counterdefendant's reasonable right to 10 visitation;

11 3. That this Court set Plaintiff/Counterdefendant's child support for the minor child
12 born at issue of this marriage, in an amount commensurate with the parties' separation agreement
13 or NRS 125B.070 and NRS 125B.080, which sets forth that support for one minor child shall 14 equal 18% of Plaintiff/Counterdefendant's gross monthly income, which is a reasonable amount
15 of support and maintenance of the minor child; and the Court award child support arrears to
16 Defendant/Counterclaimant;

17 4. That this Court order Plaintiff/Counterdefendant to maintain medical, optical, and 18 dental insurance for the minor child until said child reaches the age of majority, marries, or 19 becomes otherwise emancipated, with any premiums being paid 100% solely by 20 Plaintiff/Counterdefendant;

21 5. That the Court award Defendant/Counterclaimant spousal support for a period and

CASE NO: D-15-509045-D
DEPT. NO: C

DATE OF HEARING: N/A
TIME OF HEARING: N/A

ORDER INCIDENT TO DECREE OF DIVORCE

This Order is intended to set out terms dividing the military retirement benefits, in sufficient detail to allow the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) and the parties to correctly allocate Raina's percentage in accordance with the parties' Decree of Divorce. This Court has continuing jurisdiction in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State of Nevada, and the State of Nevada has both personal and subject matter jurisdiction over the parties, and enters this Order Incident to Decree of Divorce for the purpose of completing and clarifying the division of benefits contemplated by the Decree of Divorce.

THE COURT FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

1. It has continuing jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action.
2. All applicable portions of the Servicemember's Civil Relief Act (SCRA), 50 U.S.C. 3901 et seq. (Dec. 1, 2015), have been complied with by waiver or otherwise.

- 1 3. This Court has determined that Raina is entitled to her time-rule
2 percentage of Erich's military retirement benefits.
- 3 4. The Decree of Divorce entered on November 5, 2015, does not make an 4 adequate distribution of Raina's interest in Erich's military retirement
5 benefits or Cost of Living Adjustments. This Order is intended to 6 clarify this Court's intention.
- 7 5. This Order is intended to be, and shall constitute an Order Incident to 8 Decree of Divorce in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1408(a)(2), and is 9 intended to clarify the Decree of Divorce.
- 10 6. The parties were married on April 1, 2002, and divorced as of November 11 5, 2015.
- 12 7. Erich entered military service on July 13, 1999, and remains on active 13 duty.
- 14 8. The share that each party is entitled should be determined pursuant to 15 the "time-rule" formula which designates the number of months of 16 marriage overlapping military service and dividing it by the total number
17 of months of active military service. This fraction and equivalent
18 percentage establishes the community share of the total benefit. The 19 resulting community share is then divided equally between the parties, 20 and multiplied by the benefit payable.

22
$$\frac{\text{Number of Months of Marriage Overlapping}}{\text{Creditable Military Service (163.154)}} = \frac{\text{ }}{\text{ }} \% \text{ The Marital}$$

23
$$\frac{\text{Number of Total Months of Active}}{\text{Service (unknown at this time)}} = \frac{\text{ }}{\text{ }} \% \text{ The Marital}$$

24
$$\text{Percentage}$$

25
$$\text{Marital Percentage divided by 2} = \frac{\text{ }}{\text{ }} \% \text{ The Spousal Percentage}$$

26

27

1 9. Raina is entitled to receive any cost of living adjustments (COLAs) that 2 are awarded from time to time for military retired pay, based upon the 3 same percentage outlined above.

4 10. Raina has the right to obtain information relating to Erich's date of first 5 eligibility to retire, date of first eligibility to receive retirement benefits,
6 date of retirement, final rank, grade, and pay, present or past retired pay,
7 or other such information as may be required to enforce the award made
8 herein, or required to revise this order so as to make it enforceable, per 9 65 Fed. Reg. 43298 (July 13, 2000).

10
11 THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS:

12 1. This Court has complete jurisdiction in the premises, both as to subject
13 matter and the parties, under NRS 125 and 10 U.S.C. § 1408 et. seq., 14 and the Court has jurisdiction over Erich by reason of his residence at 15 the time of the filing of the Petition for Divorce and by way of consent
16 to the jurisdiction of the Court, and all applicable portions of the Service
17 Members Civil Relief Act of 2003 have been complied with by waiver
18 or otherwise.

19 2. Raina is awarded her time-rule interest in the military retirement for 20 which Erich is eligible, plus a like percentage of all cost of living
21 adjustment increases that accrue to said military retirement hereafter,
22 computed from the gross sum thereof, as her sole and separate property
23 share thereof, and the obligation shall not be dischargeable in 24 bankruptcy or otherwise.

1 3. For the purpose of interpreting this Court's intention in making the
2 division set out in this Order, "military retirement" includes retired pay
3 paid or to which Erich would be entitled for longevity of active duty
4 and/or reserve component military service and all payments paid or 5 payable under the provisions of Title 38 or Chapter 61 of Title 10 of the 6 United States Code, before any statutory, regulatory, or elective
7 deductions are applied. It also includes all amounts of retired pay Erich
8 actually or constructively waives or forfeits in any manner and for any 9 reason or purpose, including but not limited to any post-divorce waiver
10 made in order to qualify for Veterans Administration benefits, or 11 reduction in pay or benefits because of other federal employment, and 12 any waiver arising from Erich electing not to retire despite being 13 qualified to retire. It also includes any sum taken by Erich in addition
14 to or in lieu of retirement benefits, including, but not limited to, REDUX
15 lump sum payments, exit bonuses, voluntary separation incentive pay,
16 special separation benefit, or any other form of compensation
17 attributable to separation from military service instead of or in addition
18 to payment of the military retirement benefits normally payable to a
19 retired member. All sums payable to Raina as a portion of military
20 retirement shall be payable from Erich's disposable retired or retainer pay
21 to the extent that it is so restricted by law.

22 4. The appropriate military pay center shall pay the sums called for above
23 directly to Raina, to the extent permitted by law, at the same times as 24 Erich receives his retired or retainer pay, and that this Order is intended
25 to qualify under the Uniformed Services Former Spouses Protection Act, 26 10 U.S.C. § 1408 et seq., with all provisions to be interpreted to make 27
28

1 the Order qualify.

2 5. The amount called for herein shall not be modifiable by the direct or 3 indirect action of either party hereto, either by way of increase or 4 decrease, except as expressly set forth herein. It is contemplated that
5 future cost of living adjustments will be granted by the United States
6 government, by means of which the gross military retirement benefits
7 specified above will increase, thus raising the amount being paid to 8 Raina.

9 6. If Erich takes any steps to merge his military retirement benefits with 10 another retirement program of any kind, that retirement system,
11 program, or plan is directed to honor this court Order to the extent of 12 Raina's interest as set out above, to the extent that the military
13 retirement is used as a basis of payments or benefits under such other 14 retirement system, program, or plan.

15 7. If Erich takes any action that prevents, decreases, or limits the collection
16 by Raina of the sums to be paid hereunder (by application for or award
17 of disability compensation, combination of benefits with any other 18 retired pay, waiver for any reason, including as a result of other federal 19 service, or in any other way), he shall make payments to Raina directly 20 in an amount sufficient to neutralize, as to Raina, the effects of the 21 action taken by Erich. Any sums paid to Erich that this court Order
22 provides are to be paid to Raina shall be held by Erich in constructive
23 trust until actual payment to Raina.

24 8. If the amount paid by the military pay center to Raina is less than the 25 amount specified above, Erich shall initiate an allotment to Raina in the 26 amount of any such difference, to be paid from any federal entitlement
27

1 due Erich, with said allotment to be initiated by Erich immediately upon
2 notice of such difference, and making up any arrearages in installments
3 not less in amount or longer in term than the arrearages accrued.

4 9. The appropriate military pay center shall pay the sums called for herein
5 directly to Raina, by voluntary allotment, involuntary allotment, wage
6 withholding, or garnishment of Erich's military retired pay.

7 10. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enter such further orders as are 8 necessary to enforce the award to Raina of the military retirement
9 benefits awarded herein, including the recharacterization thereof as a
10 division of Civil Service or other retirement benefits, or to make an 11 award of alimony (in the sum of benefits payable plus future cost of 12 living adjustments) in the event that Erich fails to comply with the 13 provisions contained above requiring said payments to Raina, or if 14 military or government regulations or other restrictions interfere with 15 payments to Raina as set forth herein.

Attorney for Defendant

DISTRICT COURT

ERICH MARTIN,
Plaintiff,

vs.

RAINA MARTIN,
Defendant.

CASE NO: D-15-509045-D
DEPT. NO: C

DATE OF HEARING: 11/3/2020
TIME OF HEARING: 9:00 am

ORDER FROM THE NOVEMBER 3, 2020, HEARING

This matter came on for a hearing at the above date and time before the Honorable Rebecca Burton, District Court Judge, Family Division. Defendant, Raina Martin, was present by video and was represented by and through her attorney, Richard L. Crane, Esq., of the WILICK LAW GROUP, and Plaintiff, Erich Martin, was present by video and represented by and through his attorney, Kathleen A. Wilde of MARQUIS AURBACH COFFING.

The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and papers and filed herein and entertaining argument from both sides, made the following findings and orders as follows:

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS:

1. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this case, personal jurisdiction over the parties and child custody subject matter jurisdiction.¹
2. If a Stay is to preserve the Status Quo then it would be not needed because Erich would still be making the monthly payments to Raina. That is the Status Quo, that is the Order of the Court.²
3. The Decree of Divorce is the Status Quo that Erich is trying to change. The Court enforced the Decree of Divorce and Erich has appealed the Court's enforcement.³
4. The Court has reviewed NRAP 8(c) and went through the factors and the object of the appeal. The Court finds that ^{if a stay is not granted -(RLB)} the object of the appeal for a few months might be defeated, but, the Court is not persuaded that the value of the appeal would be significantly reduced if Erich continued to make a few months of payments. In the big picture what we're looking at is the possibility of forty years or more of these payments.⁴
5. That real object of this appeal is that these payments will go on for many years.⁵
6. Neither party is going to suffer irreparable or serious injury if the stay is denied or the stay is granted.⁶

⁶Time Stamp 9:05:12 - 9:05:31

- 1 7. $20,000 is not an unreasonable estimate as to the benefits payable during the 2 pendency of the appeal.⁷ She will -(RLB)
- 3 8. The consequences to Raina are greater because her income is smaller. ~~They~~ll
4 have to pay out funds to maintain her position while paying attorney's fees.
5 She'll have to pay out funds to obtain her judgment.⁸
- 6 9. Erich can better afford to pay out funds to obtain his judgment after the fact,
7 if we're looking to collect monies after the fact.⁹
- 8 10. Covid has really made everybody's income uncertain. There is a lot less
9 predictability. Erich recently lost his job in March of 2020, I know Raina's
10 income has been reduced because of her ~~production~~ reduction -(RLB) of hours caused by Covid 11 so, there are some collection issues there, in that regard.¹⁰
- 12 11. Concerning whether Erich will likely prevail, the Court would like to think it's 13 reasoning is sound, of course, recognizing that the issue is unresolved. Again,
14 the Court did expect that this appeal would occur.¹¹
- 15 12. The Court didn't make the decision it did off the top of it's head. It spent a 16 considerable amount of time doing legal research and reviewing the law. The 17 last cases that the Court cited were from a couple of months ago or less.¹²
- 18 13. NRCP 62(d)(2) states a party is entitled to a stay by providing a bond.¹³

14. The Court is inclined to grant the stay, but require Erich to pay however he wishes to do that.¹⁴
15. The Court likes Raina's idea of Erich continuing to pay the monthly payments into an attorney's trust account. That is a good reasonable approach.¹⁵
16. ~~I think that really is a good approach to it.~~ Because then we won't have any over payments or under payments and we're not going to have collection issues at the end of the day and the funds are there.¹⁶
17. The Court would like confirmation going from Ms. Wilde to Mr. Crane that those monthly payments are being made.¹⁷
18. The Court did go through the factors about a bond and will put its thoughts about the matter on the record.¹⁸
19. The Collection Process is not complex but it would be easier for Erich than it would be for Raina, ~~but the Court does take note of that issue, as it was the Court involved when there was the spousal support issue.~~¹⁹
20. The time to obtain collection is going to depend on how cooperative everybody is. If it would be enforced, then of course there will be a motion and there's going to be a hearing and there's going to be a potential trial and arguments about how much the money is going to be, although that's probably not likely and there's not likely to be an appeal from that but that's always possible.²⁰

²⁰Time Stamp 9:18:07 - 9:18:28

21. Again, collections might be difficult on both sides just because of Covid.²¹
22. We have two professionals here. A dental hygienist and a retired military member who is in a management position now. We have two professionals who make very nice incomes and neither party is destitute by any means. They are fortunate to have the jobs that they do and to make the incomes that they are in light of Covid right now when a lot of people are hurting.²²
23. The Court is going to require the monthly payment be made. That will avoid any additional costs. The monthly payment makes sense and will be sitting there, then there will be no collection issues at the end of the day.²³
24. Erich needs to go ahead and pay the arrearages already reduced to judgment.²⁴
25. The Court really wants Erich to begin making payments toward that judgment. Counsel is to talk about that and come up with a reasonable payment in addition to the regular monthly payment to start paying on that judgment. The Court would like it paid in no less than a year. You can use that as a kind of rule of thumb there but I want counsel to talk about it.²⁵
26. If he wants to pay for a bond he can but it will be the $20,000 that's been requested because that is a reasonable amount.²⁶
27. In considering the Motion for attorney's fees, the Court takes into consideration both parties financial circumstances. Even though Nevada follows the American rule which means everyone pays their own legal fees, the Court recognizes that Erich's income currently is about three times as high as

- 1 Raina's income but Raina's expenses are reduced by her domestic partner and 2 his very large income.²⁷
- 3 28. When you balance out the household incomes, they are fairly equivalent.
4 They are not wildly apart. The Court realizes that Raina's domestic partner is 5 not obligated to pay anything for these proceeding.²⁸
- 6 29. The Court is granting the stay and it would be appropriate because of the very 7 large disparity of incomes between the two parties who are part of this process
8 to have Erich contribute something toward Raina's attorney's fees because this 9 is all, at the end of the day, going to effect her greater financially, who makes
10 less money then Erich does. She has been effected by Covid more than Erich
11 who is still making his full time income. Raina has reduced income.²⁹
- 12 30. The Court is not inclined to grant all of the attorney fees.³⁰ The Court does not 13 want anybody being destitute by this, but Erich should pay something so he 14 will contribute $5,000 to her attorney's fees.³¹
- 15 31. The Court does want him to pay the $5,000. He has 30 days to get that done.³²

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The Stay is granted as long as Erich either makes the ordered monthly payments of $845.43, plus any applicable cost of living adjustment, during the pendency of the appellate proceedings to an Attorney's Trust Fund or if he purchases a supersedeas bond of $20,000.
2. Erich's attorney is to provide the monthly account statement to Raina's attorney within five days of the payment where the monies were deposited.
3. If Erich decides to make the monthly payments as described above, the $5,918.01 in arrears already reduced to judgment shall also be deposited into the same account as the monthly payments. This amount will continue to accumulate statutory interest until deposited.
4. If Erich purchases a supersedeas bond of $20,000, the $5,918.01 in arrears already reduced to judgment is still due and will continue to accumulate statutory interest.
5. Raina's request for attorney's fees is granted. Erich is to contribute $5,000 to her attorney's fees.

6. The $5,000 is due within 30 days from the date of the hearing.
