Elizabeth A. Brown
Clerk of Supreme Court
82517
D-15-509045-D

vs.

RAINA MARTIN,

Respondent.

NOTICE

Raina Martin, by and through her attorneys of record, the Willick Law Group, hereby provides notice that we have been notified that the National American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers intends to request leave to file an Amicus Curiae Brief in this matter.

The National AAML is entirely neutral as to the merits of the dispute between the parties to the case, but has been tracking the issues involved in multiple states and is concerned about the impact of the decision to be reached on the practice of family law nationally. The AAML has asked that this Court be informed of its interest in the issue and its desire to participate as Amicus Curiae; their formal motion will be filed in accordance with NRAP 29 presuming this Court directs briefing on the pending Petition for Review.

As indicated in the Petition for Review, the law and policies involved in this appeal include res judicata, federal pre-emption, and the continued validity of this Court's prior holdings in this area. The decision will have broad implications – reaching beyond the borders of Nevada – and determine the rights and futures of a large number of people.

DATED this 7th day of December, 2021.

Respectfully Submitted By:
