ERICH M. MARTIN,
Appellant,

vs.

RAINA L. MARTIN,
Respondent.

No. 81810

FILED

FEB 14 2022

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

No. 82517

BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING PETITION FOR REVIEW, DIRECTING SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING AND INVITING AMICUS CURIAE

Having considered the petition for review and answer to the petition, we have determined that our review is warranted. Accordingly, we grant the petition for review. NRAP 40B(f). Further, we conclude that supplemental briefing is warranted and therefore direct the parties to file and serve supplemental briefs addressing the issues raised in this appeal.

Additionally, it appears that this court's resolution of this matter may be assisted by the participation of amicus curiae. Therefore, the court invites the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Nevada and any other amicus to participate in this matter as amicus curiae by filing a brief addressing the issues raised in this appeal.

Accordingly, appellant shall have 21 days from the date of this order to file and serve a supplemental opening brief. NRAP 40B(g). Respondent shall file and serve a supplemental answering brief within 21 days after service of appellant's brief. Appellant shall then have 14 days after service of respondent's supplemental answering brief to file and serve any supplemental reply brief. Briefing shall comply with the relevant provisions of NRAP 28 to 32, and the parties may cite to appendices submitted with the original briefs. In addition to serving the briefs on the opposing party, both parties shall serve their briefs on the State Bar's Family Law Section. Should the Family Law Section or any other amicus consent to participate as amicus curiae, its amicus brief must be filed within 7 days of the date of brief of the party whose position they are supporting is filed and comply with the requirements of NRAP 29.

It is so ORDERED.
