Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Adjudication of Issues

Matter Continued; Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Adjudication of Issues

Deferred Ruling; Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Adjudication of Issues

Journal Entry Details:

Mr. Liebrader is appearing telephonically. This is the time set for hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Adjudication of Issues. Plaintiff is an investor in a promissory note issued by Defendant, Virtual Communication Corporation (VCC); he invested $75,000 into the note and in exchange for his investment, he was to receive 9 percent interest until the note was paid off. Mr. Liebrader advised that the investment purchased by the Plaintiff is a security; VCC themselves referred to the investment as a security. A security is simply defined as a "note" and this was a promissory note. Judge Williams recently tried a case on the same promissory note and Plaintiff was given summary adjudication on this same issue; that the promissory note is a security and was not exempt from registration. Additionally, the security was neither registered nor exempt from registration. VCC needed to register the note prior to offering it for sale or file a request for exemption, they did neither. Under NRS 90.690, Defendants have the burden of claiming which exemptions apply and to prove that they apply; they have not done that. Since there are no genuine issues of material fact, the Motion should be granted. Mr. Gewerter advised that the VCC's promissory note was not a security and since it was not a security, it was exempt from registration for the reasons stated on the record. Mr. Gewerter discussed Exhibit 1 to his Opposition. The holder of the Promissory Note is Provident Trust Group, LLC, not the Plaintiff. This is a trust account and under a trust account you must have the trustee bring the action; therefore, the Plaintiff has no standing to allege anything in this case. Mr. Palazzo advised that last time the parties were present, the Court indicated its inclination; i.e., the Court did not find this to be a security and Mr. Palazzo believes that is an appropriate impression for the reasons stated on the record. COURT ORDERED, decision DEFERRED; the Court would like to review this matter further before making a decision. ;

CASE SUMMARY

CASE NO. A-17-762264-C

MATTER RECALLED: All present as before. Court noted that since Mr. Gewerter is still not present, the Court can do one of two things, it can rule from the pleadings or pass it a week. Neither the Court nor Mr. Palazzo know anything about Mr. Gewerter's whereabouts. Mr. Liebrader advised that he does not have anything to add, there are only two issues and they are appropriately discussed in this Motion and Reply; he submitted on the pleadings. Mr. Palazzo CONCURRED and submitted the matter also. Court advised that if it were to rule on the pleadings, it appears that the security note in question is not subject to NRS 90.295; Mr. Gewerter would need to prepare the Order. Colloquy as to whether the Court's ruling was tentative; Mr. Liebrader would like to argue this matter. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED; Mr. Liebrader requested to appear telephonically again. CALENDAR CALL . . . DEFENDANTS RETIRE HAPPY, LLC, AND JOSH STOLL'S MOTION FOR DETERMINATION OF GOOD FAITH SETTLEMENT ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME This is the time set for Calendar Call; Mr. Palazzo has filed a Motion for Determination of Good Faith Settlement on Order Shortening Time. Court noted there is no opposition to the Motion and, therefore, ORDERED, the Motion is GRANTED. Mr. Palazzo to submit an Order. Colloquy as to what parties remain in the case; Mr. Gewerter advised that Viral Communication went into bankruptcy; Wintech was their subsidiary so they are not part of this case anymore. Mr. Gewerter represents, Defendants Ronald J. Robinson, Vern Rodriguez, and Alisa Davis and Mr. Liebrader represents the Plaintiff, Steven Hotchkiss. Upon Court's inquiry as to whether counsel were ready for trial; Mr. Liebrader advised there are two issues in the case; one is the action to recover money under a promissory note and the other has to do with securities' law issues. Mr. Gewerter advised that there is a pending motion; he filed a Partial Motion to Dismiss but Master Calendar calendared it after the trial start date. Both counsel requested that this matter be placed on the September stack. COURT ORDERED, trial date VACATED and RESET. 08/27/19 8:00 AM CALENDAR CALL 09/09/19 9:30 AM JURY TRIAL ;

Motion to Dismiss (9:00 AM) (Judicial Officer: Cherry, Michael A.)

Defendants' Partial Motion to Dismiss

Denied; Defendants' Partial Motion to Dismiss

Journal Entry Details:

This is the time set for hearing on Defendants Motion to Dismiss. Mr. Gewerter advised that Defendants are seeking to dismiss all of Plaintiff's security related claims. This Court previously ruled that the notes or the investments in this particular case were not a security so the securities remedies pursuant to NRS 90.460 cannot be pursued. Therefore, Mr. Gewerter would request that Causes of Action Nos. 1, 2, and 3 be dismissed. Mr. Liebrader believes that Mr. Gewerter has misstated Judge Smith's ruling. Plaintiff filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on the issue of whether or not the note was a security and Judge Smith found that a reasonable trier of fact could make the determination as to whether it was a security or not so Summary Judgment was not granted. Mr. Gewerter advised the Court of the Order Denying Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Adjudicated which was heard on January 29, 2019; the Order says, "The remaining issue upon which Plaintiff seeks summary adjudication (whether the VCC note was sold in violation of NRS 90.460) is moot, as it relies on this Court's granting of summary adjudication on the issue of whether the VCC note was a security." Therefore, Mr. Gewerter believes that the Court found that the note was not a security so there can be no securities remedy. The other Causes of Action may go forward but the securities actions are gone. COURT ORDERED, the Motion is DENIED. ;

Plaintiff's Motion for Damages and Attorney's Fees

Granted; Plaintiff's Motion for Damages and Attorney's Fees

Journal Entry Details:

Plaintiff's Motion for Damages and Attorney's Fees came before the Court on its June 8, 2020, Chamber Calendar. Having considered the moving papers, and for the reasons set forth in Plaintiff's Motion, the Court hereby GRANTS the Motion. In its opposition to the motion, Defendants argue that they intend to raise the issue of the affirmative defense for failure to join a necessary party on appeal. While Defendants did elicit some testimony about Provident Trust and its role in this litigation, Defendants did not argue this affirmative defense during the trial, nor did they move for a directed verdict. The Court notes that a party that has not moved for a directed verdict below generally may not later challenge the sufficiency of the evidence on appeal, but an appellate court may review for plain error or manifest injustice. JUDGMENT

JUDGMENT

22 This matter was submitted for a bench trial before the Hon. Cristina Silva on 23 February June 24-25, 2020.

24 The Court found Defendant Ronald J. Robinson liable as a guarantor of the

1 Virtual Communications Corporation promissory note, and also found Mr. Robinson
2 and Defendant Vernon Rodriguez liable for violations of NRS §90.660 (civil liability
3 under the Nevada Securities Laws) as control persons for Virtual Communications
4 Corporation.

5 The Court finds that Plaintiffs are entitled to compensatory damages against
6 Mr. Robinson for breach of contract, as well as under NRS §90.660. Plaintiffs are
7 also entitled to damages under NRS §90.660 against Mr. Rodriguez.

8 Wherefore, it is hereby ordered that Plaintiffs shall have judgment against

JUDGMENT

22 This matter was submitted for a bench trial before the Hon. Cristina Silva on 23 February June 24-25, 2020.

24 The Court found Defendant Ronald J. Robinson liable as a guarantor of the 25

1 Virtual Communications Corporation promissory note, and also found Mr. Robinson
2 and Defendant Vernon Rodriguez liable for violations of NRS §90.660 (civil liability

5 The Court finds that Plaintiffs are entitled to compensatory damages against
6 Mr. Robinson for breach of contract, as well as under NRS §90.660. Plaintiffs are
7 also entitled to damages under NRS §90.660 against Mr. Rodriguez.

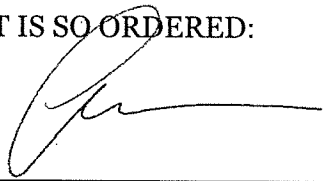

8 Wherefore, it is hereby ordered that Plaintiffs shall have judgment against 9 Defendant Robinson in the amount of $1,098,782 comprised of principal in the

- This is the time set for hearing on Plaintiff s Motion for Summary Adjudication of Issues. Court called case; Mr. Liebrader is present telephonically and Mr. Palazzo is present in person; counsel is waiting on Harold Gewerter, Esq., to appear. Court trailed matter.

MATTER RECALLED: All present as before. Court noted that since Mr. Gewerter is still not present, the Court can do one of two things, it can rule from the pleadings or pass it a week. Neither the Court nor Mr. Palazzo know anything about Mr. Gewerter's whereabouts.

Mr. Liebrader advised that he does not have anything to add, there are only two issues and they are appropriately discussed in this Motion and Reply; he submitted on the pleadings. Mr. Palazzo CONCURRED and submitted the matter also. Court advised that if it were to rule on the pleadings, it appears that the security note in question is not subject to NRS 90.295; Mr. Gewerter would need to prepare the Order. Colloquy as to whether the Court's ruling was tentative; Mr. Liebrader would like to argue this matter. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED; Mr. Liebrader requested to appear

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Liebrader is appearing telephonically.

This is the time set for hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Adjudication of Issues. Plaintiff is an investor in a promissory note issued by Defendant, Virtual Communication Corporation (VCC); he invested $75,000 into the note and in exchange for his investment, he was to receive 9 percent interest until the note was paid off.

Mr. Liebrader advised that the investment purchased by the Plaintiff is a security; VCC themselves referred to the investment as a security. A security is simply defined as a "note" and this was a promissory note. Judge Williams recently tried a case on the same promissory note and Plaintiff was given summary adjudication on this same issue; that the promissory note is a security and was not exempt from registration. Additionally, the security was neither registered nor exempt from registration. VCC needed to register the note prior to offering it for sale or file a request for exemption, they did neither. Under NRS 90.690, Defendants have the burden of claiming which exemptions apply and to prove that they apply; they have not done that. Since there are no genuine issues of material fact, the Motion should be granted.

Mr. Gewerter advised that the VCC's promissory note was not a security and since it was not a security, it was exempt from registration for the reasons stated on the record. Mr. Gewerter discussed Exhibit 1 to his Opposition. The holder of the Promissory Note is Provident Trust Group, LLC, not the Plaintiff. This is a trust account and under a trust account you must have the trustee bring the action; therefore, the Plaintiff has no standing to allege anything in this case.

Mr. Palazzo advised that last time the parties were present, the Court indicated its inclination; i.e., the Court did not find this to be a security and Mr. Palazzo believes that is an appropriate impression for the reasons stated on the record. COURT ORDERED, decision DEFERRED; the Court would like to review this matter further before making a decision.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Plaintiff's Motion for Damages and Attorney s Fees came before the Court on its June 8, 2020, Chamber Calendar. Having considered the moving papers, and for the reasons set forth in Plaintiff's Motion, the Court hereby GRANTS the Motion.

In its opposition to the motion, Defendants argue that they intend to raise the issue of the affirmative defense for failure to join a necessary party on appeal. While Defendants did elicit some testimony about Provident Trust and its role in this litigation, Defendants did not argue this affirmative defense during the trial, nor did they move for a directed verdict. The Court notes that a party that has not moved for a directed verdict below generally may not later challenge the sufficiency of the evidence on appeal, but an appellate court may review for plain error or manifest injustice. Price v. Sinnott, 85 Nev. 600, 607, 460 P.2d 837, 841 (1969).

In reaching its decision on Attorney's Fees, the Court evaluated the factors set forth in Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat l Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 455 P.2d 31 (1969), including:(1) the qualities of the attorney, the attorney's ability, his training, education, experience, professional standing and skill; (2) the difficulty and character of the work to be done, including the time necessary to complete the task; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer; and (4) the result of the work performed. The Plaintiff's Motion sets forth how these factors are met, and therefore Attorney's Fees are appropriate.

The parties shall meet and confer and submit for review a draft of Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law to DC9Inbox@clarkcountycourts.us, which includes electronic signatures and is consistent with this Order.

- Pending before the Court is Defendant Vernon Rodriguez s Motion for Reconsideration. A district court may reconsider a previously decided issue if substantially different evidence is subsequently introduced or the decision is clearly erroneous. Masonry & Tile Contractors Ass'n. of Southern Nevada v. Jolley, Urga & Wirth, Ltd., 113 Nev. 737, 741, 941 P.2d 486, 489 (1997). Reconsiderations are reserved for very rare instances in which new issues of fact or law are raised supporting a ruling contrary to the ruling already reached. Moore v. City of Las Vegas, 92 Nev. 402, 405 (1976). Having reviewed the motion and the opposition thereto, the Court finds Defendant Rodriguez has not met the standard for reconsideration. As a result, the Motion is DENIED.
