ORDER GRANTING MOTION IN PART

Counsel for appellant has filed an unopposed motion that appears to ask that the briefs in this matter be filed under seal and for an extension of time to file the opening brief. Appellant does not demonstrate that redacting the briefs, rather than sealing, will not adequately protect any confidential information in this matter. See SRCR 3(5)(b). Accordingly, the motion to file the briefs under seal is denied without prejudice. The motion for an extension of time is granted. NRAP 31(b)(3). Appellant shall have until July 6, 2021, to file and serve the opening brief. Given the length of this initial extension request, no further extensions shall be permitted absent extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Counsel's caseload normally will not be deemed such a circumstance. Cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974). Failure to timely file the opening brief and appendix may result in the imposition of sanctions

It is so ORDERED.
