NOTICE OF SERVICE

COMES NOW Nicholas Shook, Esq., with the following Notice of Service of their Motion to Withdraw. The undersigned counsel used the address that Appellant provided on all of his pleadings in the District Court. This address, 1027 S RAINBOW BLVD #337, LAS VEGAS, NV 89145, is a UPS Store and not a residence address.

The undersigned counsel then emailed the Appellant explaining what had happened and attached the Order Granting Motion to Withdraw along with the same Motion to Withdraw as an attorney that was previously sent. Appellant responded with an ask to send the Motions to his UPS Store box which the undersigned counsel did. The undersigned then called the Clerk of this Court to see if the Appellant can be listed as a service contact in the instant case. Unfortunately, that is not possible. Instead, the undersigned presents this motion along with the accompanying documentation that the motions have been sent by email. The undersigned counsel can attest the Motion to Withdraw and the Order from this Court have been mailed to the Appellant. Dated this 5th day of August.

Respectfully submitted,

 $\mathcal{N}$

Nicholas Shook, Esq. Nevada Bar No. 13400 Attorney for Appellant

The Court requests that I serve you with this motion. Can you please confirm your address? Is it 7001 W Charleston Blvd. Las Vegas, 89117? That looks like an apartment number, if you live there can you please provide that? Or would you prefer being served at work if you don't want to disclose where you live? Like I said in my previous email, I'm still happy to help you find an attorney if you overturn your 2018 DV Conviction. Thank you, Nick Shook, Esq.
