RESPONSE TO APPELLANT’S MOTION FOR ORDER GRANTING EXPANSION OF PAGES FOR FAST TRACK BRIEF (COMBINED APPEALS)

Respondent KIZZY BURROW (“Ms. Burrow”) by and through her attorney of record, YVONNE RUIZ, ESQ., MARZOLA & RUIZ LAW GROUP PLLC, hereby submits her Response to Appellant’s Motion for Order Granting Expansion of Pages for Fast Track Brief (combined appeals). This Response is made and based upon the papers and pleadings on file herein and the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. STATEMENT OF FACTS

This matter stems from a paternity/custody action. After years of litigation, the Honorable Judge Matthew Harter held a three-day trial from September 21, 2020 through September 23, 2020. On September 21, 2020, the court issued its Decision and Order Re: Finding of Domestic Violence, and on October 12, 2020, the court issued its Final Decision and Order Re: Custody/Relocation. Subsequently, on October 14, 2020, Appellant filed an Amended Notice of Appeal with the Eighth Judicial District Court for the aforementioned final orders. On October 22, 2020, the Nevada Supreme Court processed the first appeal under Supreme Court No. 81978 (determination of child custody). The second appeal was processed on December 20, 2020 under Supreme Court No. 82245 (post-judgment award of attorney fees). Thereafter, Appellant filed numerous motions and request for judicial notice under both cases rather than filing his brief.

On February 18, 2021, the Nevada Supreme Court issued its Order Consolidating Cases, Denying Motion for Leave to File Stay Motion with Excess Pages, and Granting Motions to File Transcripts Under Seal. The Nevada Supreme Court ordered that Appellant file and serve a single opening brief or informal brief form addressing the issues in both consolidated cases no later than April 8, 2021.

On March 31, 2021, the Nevada Supreme Court issued its Order Granting Extension Per Telephonic Request. As such, Appellant's opening brief and appendix were due no later than April 22, 2021.

On April 22, 2021, Appellant filed his Motion to Extend Time to File Opening Brief. Although the motion is still pending before this Honorable Court, Appellant only requested a one-week extension to file his opening brief. This would have made his opening brief due no later than April 29, 2021. However, Appellant never filed his opening brief by said requested deadline.

On May 10, 2021, Appellant improperly served Respondent with a 93-Page Fast Track Brief via the Eighth Judicial District Court's filing system. On May 11, 2021, Appellant filed his Motion for Order Granting Expansion of Pages for Fast Track Brief (combined appeals). In his Motion, he argues that he needs 62 additional pages because his custody/paternity case has a record of approximately 4,000 pages, his prior attorney was allowed to file a 60-page Writ of Mandamus, he is not an attorney, he was tried for crimes in civil proceedings, his rights were violated pursuant to NRS Chapter 128, and that he has tried to conform with the Nevada Supreme Court's requirements. However, these alleged reasons do not justify the filing of a 93-Page Fast Track Brief nor is the motion timely/proper.

For the following reasons the Motion should be denied.

II. STATEMENT OF AUTHORITIES

Nevada Rule of Appellate Procedure 3E(e)(2) provides that a "fast track statement is acceptable if it contains no more than 7,267 words or 693 lines of text.” NARP 3E(e)(2). “A party may seek leave of the court to expand the length of the fast track statement or response. . . [a] request for expansion must be filed at least 14 days before the fast track statement or response is otherwise due . . .” NARP 3E(d)(3).

Moreover, Nevada Rule of Appellate Procedure 32(a)(7)(A) provides that “opening or answering brief shall not exceed 30 pages, and a reply brief shall not exceed 15 pages.” NARP 32(a)(7)(A)(i). “A motion seeking an enlargement of the page limit or type-volume limitation for a brief shall be filed on or before the brief’s due date.” NARP 32(a)(7)(D)(ii). “The motion shall also be accompanied by a single copy of the brief the applicant proposes to file.” NARP 32(a)(7)(D)(iii).

In this instant case, Appellant’s Motion is untimely and procedurally defective pursuant to NRAP 32 and NRAP 3. Although the Nevada Supreme Court ordered that Appellant file an opening brief, he wishes to submit a Fast Track Brief, which is governed by NRAP 3. Consequently, his motion to expand pages for a Fast Track Brief was due either no later than April 8, 2021 for the opening brief deadline of April 22, 2021 or in the alternative, no later than April 15, 2021 for the opening brief deadline of April 29, 2021, as he requested in his motion to extend. Since Appellant never filed an additional motion to extend the time to file his brief, the only possible deadlines for the brief are either April 8, 2021 or April 22, 2021.

Additionally, Appellant's motion is untimely and procedurally defective pursuant NRAP 32 because the motion had to be filed before the brief deadline and had to be accompanied with a single copy of the brief. Appellant did not attach a single copy of the proposed brief to the motion. Also, since no new deadline to file the opening brief has been issued, Appellant's motion is untimely. Moreover, on its face the Brief does not appear to comport with NRAP 32(a)(4), (i.e. double/single space); as such, this Brief appears to be longer than 93 pages.

Lastly, in his 93-Page Fast Track Brief, Appellant is re-litigating the entire case, which is improper. Appellant cannot re-litigate and appeal all prior orders issued in the underlying case. The only orders that have been appealed are the final custody/relocation and post-judgment attorney's fees orders. Additionally, Appellant is litigating inapplicable law, such as, NRS Chapter 128 (termination of parental rights). This is a custody/relocation matter. Respondent cannot adequately respond to a 93-Page Fast Track Brief that is re-litigating all issues including those issues that are not on appeal.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, this Honorable Court should deny the Motion for Order Granting Expansion of Pages for Fast Track Brief.
