No. 82245

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY Dee-Dee
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

Appellant has filed a pro se motion for a second extension of time to file the opening brief,¹ a motion to seal the opening brief, a motion for leave to file a brief in excess of the page limitation, and a motion for judicial notice. The proposed brief contains 92 pages. Respondent opposes the motion for leave to file a brief in excess of the page limitation, and appellant has filed a reply.

While this court appreciates the lengthy procedural history of this case, it is not convinced that a 92-page brief is warranted. See NRAP 32(a)(7)(D)(i) ("This court looks with disfavor on motions to exceed the applicable page limit or type-volume limitation, and therefore, permission to exceed the page limit or type-volume limitation will not be routinely granted.”). Accordingly, the motion to file a brief in excess of the page limitation is denied. The clerk shall return the pro se brief received on May 11, 2021, unfiled. Appellant’s motion for leave to file the opening brief under seal is denied. It is noted, however, that the district court record transmitted to this court on December 21, 2020, is filed under seal.

Appellant shall have 30 days from the date of this order to file and serve an informal brief on the form provided by the clerk of this court or an opening brief that complies with NRAP 28(a) and NRAP 32. The clerk shall provide appellant with a blank “Informal Brief Form for Pro Se Parties.”

Appellant’s pro se motion for judicial notice is granted to the following extent. This court shall take judicial notice of the existence and text of Nev. Const. art 1, §8. All other relief requested in the motion is denied. Appellant is advised that argument relating to the merits of this appeal should not be included in motions for judicial notice. Any such argument should be included in the opening brief.

Appellant has also filed a motion to disqualify certain attorneys and a supplement to the motion. The 18-page motion and 5-page supplement far exceed the page limitation for motions. See NRAP 27(d)(2) (“A motion or a response to a motion shall not exceed 10 pages, unless the court permits or directs otherwise.”). Accordingly, the clerk shall strike the motion filed on May 12, 2021, and the supplement filed on May 19, 2021.

It is so ORDERED.
