No. 82245

ORDER DENYING MOTION

This is a pro se appeal from (1) a district court order granting respondent sole legal and primary physical custody of the parties' minor child, allowing respondent to relocate with the child, and determining child support obligations; and (2) a district court order awarding attorney fees. Appellant has filed a motion for a stay pending appeal.¹ Having considered the motion, appellant fails to demonstrate that the NRAP 8(d) factors need not be considered or that those factors weigh in favor of a stay pending appeal. Accordingly, the motion for a stay is denied. Appellant's request that the district judge be disqualified or prevented from continuing to preside over the case below is denied at this time. Appellant's request that ¹Appellant has also filed an "emergency" motion to reconsider the purported denial of his motion for stay on May 24, 2021, and a supplement to that motion. This court's May 24, 2021, order did not address appellant's motion to stay. Accordingly, we take no action with respect to the motion for reconsideration or the supplement.

this matter be immediately remanded for a new trial is not appropriately made in the context of a motion. Any other requests for relief are denied.

It is so ORDERED.
