State of Nevada, Department of Taxation and Cannabis Compliance Board

Respondents State of Nevada ex rel. Department of Taxation and Cannabis Compliance Board (collectively, the “Department”) move this Court, pursuant to NRAP 26(b)(1)(A) and NRAP 31(b)(3), for a 7-day extension, from the current due date of March 22, 2022 to March 29, 2022 to file its Answering Briefs. This is the Department’s second request. The Department brings this motion in good faith and not for the purpose of delay due to an illness affecting a vital member of the Department’s legal team.

The Department reached out to counsel for the Appellants who indicated they have no objection to a 7-day extension.

I. ARGUMENT

A. Good cause exists for a 7-day extension

The Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure permit this Court to extend the time to file an answering brief upon a showing of good cause. NRAP 26(b)(1)(A); NRAP 31(b)(3). Good cause exists to grant a 7-day extension.

The basis for this request is an illness that has affected a vital member of the Department’s legal team. Counsel for the Department, Akke Levin, has fallen ill with the flu. Ms. Levin held primary responsibility for drafting the Department's answering brief. The illness affecting Ms. Levin has resulted in the necessity of this request.

Undersigned counsel has conferred with counsel for all Appellants. There is no opposition to this request.

B. The 7-day extension should apply to all respondents

Several parties were allowed to intervene below, participated in the proceedings, and were named by various appellants as party defendants in their complaints. Although the opening briefs do not formally name the intervenors/defendants as respondents and they are not identified in the caption, the Department assumes, and hereby requests, that any extension granted by this Court equally applies to them.

II. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, respondents respectfully request a 7-day extension.

Dated this 18th day of March, 2022.
