Community Leader/ Partner:

My creative leadership style inspired me to design, implement, and coach an at-risk youth basketball league called Late Night Hoops. With a partnership with the Southern Nevada Housing Authority, were successful in bringing rival gangs and neighborhoods together with fun, yet competitive, basketball games.

In 1992, The Clark County School District implemented a community partnership program called PAYBAC (Professional and Youth Building a commitment) in an effort to gain control of the rising dropout rate. I have served as an active volunteer since its inception speaking to students about the importance of staying in school and pursuing higher education.

The Story Of THC Nevada

With diverse backgrounds and skillsets, Allen Puliz, Danny Thomas, Steve Rosen, attorneys Amy Sugden and David Thomas led the formation THC Nevada. Being 100% locally owned with decades' long ties to Nevada, we would take the chance and the financial risk, hopefully being awarded three coveted licenses, cultivation, dispensary and production.

We were well capitalized and believed our state agencies would award these coveted licenses based on fairness and locals willing to invest.

As we participated in the application process, the guidelines kept changing as to how licenses would be awarded. It was decided that a point system be utilized, with a blind rating for each applicant.

If the consultants the State utilized liked one of the proposals, and it was repeated for multiple locations, then it would be reasonable to assume that the application that was duplicated for another location would be well received. That is what seemed to happen as some companies got 4 licenses, as others got multiple licenses because they were rated higher on the blind application process. If one consultant found one application they liked, and they were consistent, then the other applications that the same applicants submitted for multiple locations would also be liked. As THC Nevada reviewed the scoring results, we were denied for a dispensary by 2 numerical positions.

We had comfort from the State that all awarded licenses had to be opened by a certain date or the applicants would lose their provisional licenses. With that in mind, THC Nevada began construction and completed the 30,000 sq. ft. buildout pursuant to State timelines. We learned early on that growing cannabis was not an easy process and it required the right skill set and experience. With the regulations for testing of the plants, our crops were not initially passing as Nevada initiated the most stringent lab testing standards in the country.

As we began to fail the lab tests, it was obvious that a substantial capital infusion would be necessary to redesign and rethink our process and environment. As we started to re-engineer our facility and bring in new industry experts, we realized that the medicinal marijuana market in Nevada was small and was not growing enough to support the existing grows and dispensaries. Without owning a dispensary (vertical integration), we had to rely on existing dispensaries to purchase our products. With business sales not meeting any expectations, dispensaries became king, with dispensaries dictating prices from wholesalers since there was too much product but didn't necessarily reflect the lower pricing to their patrons. Compounding the problem, was the fact that dispensaries were well financed, had their own voice through a dispensary association, and began to open their own cultivation facilities (vertical integration). It became apparent that our initial capital budget of $4 million was woefully inadequate and the costs soared to over $7 million. We decided to stay the course as we were in good stead with the regulatory bodies; financially able move with market conditions; and all we needed was a dispensary license so we could price our own product to the consumer, fairly, and become a successful business in Nevada.

DOT-THCNV000791

As time went on, recreational marijuana passed and it looked like most companies that were suffering financially, would rebound. What we didn't expect was all of the unopened provisional licenses owned by companies, which should have lapsed were still mostly in place and they were now going to reap their rewards for waiting and not building on time or agreed to dates with the State. Making matters worse, licenses were sold for many millions of dollars to non-local entities without even being open or being at financial risk.

Presently we have a cash flow positive cultivation business, although constantly subject to pricing considerations from vertically integrated companies. What we need to be successful is vertical integration, to control our destiny. Being one of the largest cultivators in Nevada and still 100% locally owned, we desperately need multiple dispensaries. We need to be able to market, sell and interact with our customers and we need to be able to sell to the public. The situation now is that approximately 95% of dispensaries also have a cultivation license to supply their own dispensaries as well as other vertical operators. It will remain an unfair competitive situation if we are not awarded dispensary licenses, our business model is not sustainable in the long run. A plan or path for vertical Integration of some sort must be implemented.

Danny Thomas

Danny Thomas moved to Nevada in 1963 and graduated from St. Anne's elementary school, Bishop Gorman High School, and UNLV with a degree in education. He started his career as a high school teacher and coach, He then went on to develop numerous small businesses and is currently managing Metropolitan Laun4ry and Linen Service, a commercial laundry with 35 employees, He has earned a very high level of knowledge regarding water conservation and treatment and works closely with the Southern Nevada Water Authority and Clark County Water Reclamation Department. He has donated his time to various local schools and other local charitable organizations.

As a young man he spent summers working on his family's farm in Kansas where he learned how to plant, grow, fertilize, and reduce water consumption on a 10,000 acre farm. Thomas 'family went from dry land crops to flood irrigation. The family has since relocated to Texas and uses sprinkler systems on their crop circles. Each system employs breakthroughs in technology using as little water as possible while producing the best yielding crops.

In 2007, Metropolitan Laundry and Linen Service became one of the first to participate in the Southern Nevada Water Authority's Water Efficient Technologies program. Thomas' facility was the first to have a water reclamation system on site in his plant. In 2010, they were recognized by the Water Conservation Coalition and presented with the Water Hero Award for their efforts and participation.

The water reclamation system consists of lead shaker systems with pre-filters followed by an ozone generator tunnel. The system then leads to the black light disinfectant chamber and on to the final carbon water holding tanks. With the filtering process completed, the reclaimed water is pure enough to clean any type of linen and to satisfy the Southern Nevada Health District's codes and regulations.

Before the water reclamation system was online the plant was using about 65,000 gallons of water a day. After installing the reclamation system, the plant was able to reduce its usage to an average of 22,000 gallons of water daily. This innovation saved approximately 5 million gallons of water in its first year. The overrun water is returned to the sewer system pretreated by the reclamation system.

Danny Thomas applied that water technology to THC Nevada's cultivation facility. He was able to save hundreds of thousands of gallons of water over the past 2.5 years.

Giving back to the community has been a very important part of Danny Thomas' life. He has been a UNL V lifetime association member and UNL V scholarship donor. He has partnered with Opportunity Village (formerly Southern Nevada Association of the Handicap) to provide employment and job training to associate members, this includes career placement and the donation of two commercial sewing machines. He has also donated vending machines where all proceeds went to supporting United Way of Nevada, Las Vegas JC's, Bishop Gorman High School, and St Jude's Ranch.

David Thomas' past community involvement includes volunteering for Little League, youth basketball, and youth soccer as a coach and scorekeeper and occasional referee when his now-adult children were younger.

Mr. Thomas' prior business experience includes being a partner in an insurance defense law firm from approximately 1995 until 2005. This firm had several different names, but was most commonly referred to as Barker, Gillock; or Barker, Brown. As a partner, Mr. Thomas had to both practice law and manage this firm. He learned how to juggle the requirements of managing a law firm alongside being the hands-on attorney that his insurance company-clients required him to be. Since he was the only partner with a business management degree, he also learned that business management is a larger part of any organization than most professionals realize and that no matter how talented a professional may be their field, managing the profession is an integral part of any organization's success.

Mr. Thomas has been admitted to practice before every State and Federal Court in Nevada; the United States Ninth Circuit; and the United States Supreme Court. He has almost daily dealings with the Clark County District Court; an average of a case or two per year in the United States Nevada District Court in Las Vegas. He has taken approximately 25 trials to bench trial or jury verdict. He has participated in hundreds of arbitrations and mediations. He has made approximately 5 arguments before the Nevada Supreme Court, including 3 that resulted in published opinions. He is a Martindale Hubbell AV rated attorney; and is listed among Vegas Inc.'s Top Lawyers. He has also appeared once before the Nevada Gaming Commission.

Barker, Brown was successful enough to attract the attention of and eventually merge with the national insurance defense firm Lewis, Brisbois, Bisgaard & Smith in 2005. Lewis, Brisbois is one of the nation's largest insurance defense firms. Mr. Thomas worked at this firm from 2005 unti12007. At Lewis, Brisbois, he learned how a large law firm manages hundreds of attorneys and tens of thousands of files in several different states. He also learned the significance of the chain of command in such a large organization; as well as the use of technology to ensure communications and security from the top of the organization to the bottom.

In 2007, Mr. Thomas left Lewis, Brisbois, and joined his current firm, G. Dallas Horton, & Associates. Most of his experience with the compassionate use of marijuana to treat medical conditions came in his current employment. G. Dallas Horton, & Associates is a personal injury firm, meaning that they deal with clients who are in pain on a constant basis. Mr. Thomas has had multiple clients who have told him that marijuana is their best, most cost effective, and least addictive pain reliever. However, until marijuana became legal for medicinal purposes, these clients struggled with the stigma that marijuana had before insurers and potential juries because it was illegal for any purpose. He is excited and relieved that medical marijuana is now an option that will actually benefit not only his clients, but also require defendants and their insurers who are legally obligated to pay to relieve his client's pain and suffering to recognize that in many cases medical marijuana is the best option for pain relief.

Finally, Mr. Thomas has been on the YMCA's Board of Directors since 2007 and is currently the Secretary. One of the YMCA'S main goals is to provide a reasonably-priced option for families to maintain a healthy lifestyle. His involvement with the YMCA has taught him how not only an organization as large as the YMCA manages to thrive; but how other organizations operate. That is, the YMCA's board is made up of numerous individuals from various backgrounds whom all bring their experience to that organization and help that organization succeed even during the tough times Nevada experienced not so long ago. From investments advisers to bankers to insurance company representatives, the YMCA board members have provided him insight into how organizations other than law firms operate and are otherwise managed.

Personal Statement

Greg Puliz

Greg Puliz is the Vice-President/General Manager of Puliz Moving and Storage. Puliz and his wife, Mara Buckley Puliz, were high school sweethearts and first met when they were 10. Together they have four children, twins aged eight, a five-year-old, and a one-year-old. His family are all active parishioners at their parish, Saint Elizabeth Anne Seaton, where the twins attend school.

Puliz is one of the third-generation family members participating in our business. Forty years ago his grandfather started a small moving company in Reno with his two sons and three other employees. He wanted to open a family business that he could operate with honesty and integrity. His founding principles helped Puliz Moving & Storage grow into the largest moving company in the state. As part of the long-term succession plan Greg Puliz started working for the family business during summers in middle school and continued throughout college. During this time, he steadily worked my way up from trash boy, to class-A driver, and finally to dispatcher. After graduating college, Puliz worked for another moving company in the San Francisco bay area. This provided him the opportunity to see the industry from a different perspective. While working for that company Puliz received a promotion and valuable experience in a much larger market. When he returned to the family business it was decided he should work out of the Reno office for about five years. This allowed Puliz to gradually grow into upper management while primarily learning about the business from his uncle who lives in Reno, instead of his father who lives in Las Vegas. After earning the position of Vice President, Puliz assumed control of the four moving companies in both Reno and Las Vegas. This company operates with over 120 employees. 11 divisions, 385,000 square feet of warehouse space, while maintaining a solid reputation in both communities.

Puliz Moving & Storage was one of 100 shareholding agencies that own Unigroup, which is the parent company of United Van Lines and Mayflower Transit. The chairman of the board nominated Puliz to be on the Unigroup digital media group. This committee met four times over the course of 18 months. Their goal was to develop new strategies for the enterprise utilizing the latest technology and social media. They met with groups from Google, Yahoo, and Yelp as well as toured their main campuses. That group's recommendations are being implemented and have updated some of the enterprises long term strategic plans. It also allowed Puliz to become an expert in digital marketing.

In 2010 Puliz had the opportunity to participate in a mini MBA program offered by the University of St Thomas. This program was put together by United Van Lines specifically for the younger generations of family owned moving companies, and was set up as a cohort. This group was made up of people from all over the country. They met six times over the course of two years. This program taught some valuable skills but the real value was the relationships formed by getting a group of peers together in the same classroom consistently.

In 2014 he and his family made the decision for Puliz to return to school to earn his MBA. For two years he attended a school at UNLV earning his MBA in 2015. The program was challenging but provided great benefits to how he operated the companies.

Outside of work, Puliz has been a member of the Las Vegas Rotary club for over seven years. As a Rotarian he worked on countless fundraisers to help many causes, both locally and internationally. He has been a member of LVEA for some number of years. He is proud of how much their company gives back to the community. Puliz oversees all of their service donations. MICHAEL I. POURA

While studying at National University School of Business, Michael created his own retail establishment at age 19. He has remained in the retail sales industry for twenty-five (25) years, owning and operating highend retail locations strategically placed throughout Southern California, Nevada and Washington State, selling leather clothing, various other leather goods, and designer fashion accessories.

For eleven (11) of those twenty-five (25) years Michael also manufactured leather garments globally, to serve as the primary source of the highest quality merchandise, for his own stores, situated in eleven (11) Shopping Malls in the Western U.S.

As a result of the success of this manufacturing venture, Michael moved forward heavily into a virtual integration model, by founding a wholesale sales company located in the world-famous wholesale hub - the California Market Center - in downtown Los Angeles. This brilliant business strategy allowed Michael's vast experience to now include the management of the purchase of responsibly sourced raw goods, through the design, manufacturing and production processes of haute couture leather garments, and ultimately to the final point-of-sale end user.

From age 19 and throughout the ensuing fifteen (15) years Michael's fledgling first small business essentially served as the incubator for a quarter century of immersion, growth and experience in all-things-retail: the creating of accounting and inventory control systems; implementing and perfecting the efficiency of point-of-sale systems and manuals; designing and operating detailed security systems and safety manuals; interviewing, training, engaging and managing human resources, sales, mid-management personnel, as well as technical and support staff.

In year sixteen (16) (2009) of Michael's retail career, at the outset of the recently passed recession, Michael's business acumen and entrepreneurial foresight kicked into high-gear and shifted his focus to a recession proof, retail market... purchasing distressed residential and commercial properties for the purpose of rehabilitating and preparing them for retail rental and/or sale. Because his rental inventory experienced extremely rapid growth, he established a separate, and on-going, property management company in 2013, where he could park select rehabilitated properties not being sold, inventory them, rent/lease them, and maintain them. Michael's rental inventory is currently well in excess of five hundred (500) properties.

An expert in retail sales and in the design and manufacture of product, Michael Poura is also a successful manager with vast experience in Point-of- Sale software and inventory tracking, security and controls software platforms. Michael is obsessive about inventory control. He enjoys and employs meticulous attention to detail He has always been focused on quality control throughout his career and has always enjoyed success – to Michael quality control means well trained sales personnel and support staff as well the maintenance of a functionally well-designed facilities. Michael, with his intense professional retail experience and expertise, garnered and honed over these many years, is perfectly poised to expertly own and operate a Cannabis Dispensary, with great success.

For almost ten years, she watched her mother battle breast cancer that metastasized to her bones and eventually other organs, face debilitating treatments, and die a lengthy and incredibly painful death. Had medical marijuana been available during her mother's illness from 1978 to 1988, whether or not her mother would have taken advantage of the option to use marijuana is unknown, but at least she would have had the option to try.

After graduating from Loyola Marymount, he moved back to Las Vegas and pursued a career in commercial lending at 2 banks. An opportunity arose for Nicholas to pursue his dream of becoming an entrepreneur in 2011 when he was 26 years old. Nicholas founded and is part owner of GVAN, LLC which is a Nothing Bundt Cakes retail Franchise in Northern California. He started the business, was the project manager of the buildout of the bakery and performed all tasks associated with creating a start-up business. Nicholas successfully ran this business profitably for 5 years. Nicholas learned all aspects of retail from this endeavor including managing personnel, accounting, inventory, security of a heavy cash business, vendors and maintaining par levels for ordering, managing customers and their expectations, remaining in compliance with the health department through many inspections to name a few. This bakery was open 7 days a week and Nicholas worked seven days a week the first 2 years of the business to ensure it was managed correctly.

In 2014 Nicholas moved back to Las Vegas to complete the first medical marijuana application for THC Nevada, LLC. After being awarded licenses for both Cultivation and Production, Nicholas managed the large-scale buildout of the cultivation facility in North Las Vegas throughout 2015. THC Nevada fought through every obstacle to get both their cultivation and production licenses fully active and operational prior to the original required open day of May 31, 2016.

Nicholas has personally accompanied state auditors through the cultivation facility more than 30 times and worked with the state on compliance with all regulations. Nicholas managed the challenges of opening a cultivation facility in 2015, including hiring and firing consultants and hiring the final consultants with the knowledge and experience to grow product that will pass the strict lab standards in Nevada. THC Nevada downsized the cultivation in 2016 by 50% due to the lack of demand and then rebuilt up to 100% capacity in mid-2017 to account for the new recreational market demand. This was challenging to hire the proper staff and maintain the proper Integrated Pest Management to continue to pass lab testing while doubling the amount of flower grown. Mr. Puliz successfully managed the garden with the strict and changing regulations to keep the business in compliance with the state and create a profitable business.

Nicholas Puliz has more than 3 years of experience managing a marijuana facility in Nevada, maintaining compliance with all state and city regulations, maintaining accurate accounting with an all cash business. Over that 3-year period, Nicholas has had zero incidents of theft with cash. From 2015 through early 2017 with Medical Marijuana only, Nicholas personally performed most of the order deliveries to the dispensaries. In doing so, he was able to build a close relationship with and learn how more than 30 dispensaries were run, managed security, personnel, inventory tracking software, product intake, cash management, compliance and efficiently dealt with vendors. Nicholas does not have a dispensary so he does not compete with the existing dispensaries. This allowed him to be able to maintain close relationships with numerous dispensaries. Therefore, the dispnesary owners were willing to offer insight as to how each dispensary is run, as well as challenges encountered and how to overcome those challenges.

Nicholas is also an expert with three different seed to sale tracking software programs. He has approximately 1 year of experience using each of the following, MJ Freeway, Biotrack THC and METRC software. Nicholas and THC Nevada are also members of the Las Vegas Medical Marijuana Association and the Nevada Growers and Producers Association.

For charitable work, Nicholas coached a little league T-Ball team in 2017 and is now coaching a 5-6 year old Flag Football team through National Youth Sports Nevada.

With the more than 5 years of experience starting and running a retail Bakery coupled with the more than 3 years running a Marijuana cultivation facility here in Nevada, Nicholas is well poised to assist in the running of a Recreational Marijuana retail Dispensary.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please consider this letter as my unqualified endorsement for the application of THC Nevada, LLC. for the awarding of a recreational dispensary license for the City of North Las Vegas.

The Managing Member of THC Nevada, Allen Puliz, has been a tremendous corporate citizen for the City of North Las Vegas, Nevada through his many businesses and personal commitment to our city. He tirelessly works to aid and assist the City with its business needs in moving and storage and document destruction. From a charitable perspective, Mr.Puliz and his family have always generously answered the call for donation, both in dollars and in-kind services.

As a corporate citizen of North Las Vegas, Nevada for literally decades, and with THC's cultivation grow facility located at 3840 E. Craig Road, their performance has been exemplary. Not only are they contributing to the coiffures with tax dollars in excess of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars per annum, but THC and his various businesses employs approximately 120 people, all contributing to our local businesses.

I have known Allen Puliz approximately 10 years and I am proud and honored to call him my friend.

Should you desire to discuss this matter in further detail, my direct number at City Hall is 702-633-1007.

Very truly yours 0 John J. Kee Mayor
