10 AMENDED DECISION AND ORDER

12 Tariq Manson was referred to competency proceedings in October of 2019. Mr. Manson was 13 found to be competent after treatment at Stein Forensic Facility, but the finding was challenged by 14 defense counsel. The matter came before the Court for a challenge hearing on July 24 and was 15 continued to August 28, 2020. After review of the medical evaluations, expert testimony, and oral 16 arguments, the Court finds that Mr. Manson is incompetent without the possibility of restoration.
17 This decision will amend the Findings of Incompetency and Order for Civil Commitment or Release
18 filed in this case on September 22, 2020.

19 Pursuant to NRS 178.460(4)(d), Mr. Manson shall remain in the custody of the Administrator
20 of the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services or
21 his or her designee for a period of not more than ten days, or until such time as a petition is filed
22 within that ten day period to commit Mr. Manson pursuant to NRS 433A.200. If, within ten days, a
23 petition is not filed to commit Mr. Manson pursuant to NRS 433A.200, then Mr. Manson shall be 24 released from custody. Pursuant to NRS 178.425(5), the criminal proceedings against Mr. Manson 25 in the above-entitled matter which have been previously suspended by the Court, are hereby 26 dismissed without prejudice.

I. Factual and Procedural Background

Tariq Manson is charged with Sexual Assault with a Minor under Fourteen Years of Age and three counts of Lewdness with a Child Under the Age of Fourteen for alleged incidents occurring in February and March of 2018. Defense counsel requested that Mr. Manson undergo a competency evaluation in October 2018. Drs. Colosimo and Collins conducted competency evaluations of Mr. Manson in November and December 2018 and opined that he was not competent to stand trial. Based on the doctors' opinions, Mr. Manson was referred to Stein Forensic Facility for outpatient treatment and possible restoration of competency.

Following additional competency evaluations, Drs. Khan, Bradley and Bennet concluded that Mr. Manson was not competent to proceed with adjudication but may be able to gain competence in the future with continued treatment. Mr. Manson was recommitted to outpatient restoration treatment in September 2019. His psychiatric providers employed the Slater method, role play, and hypothetical situations to explain the adjudicative process. Dr. Jones-Forrester completed neuropsychological and competency evaluations of Mr. Manson in September 2019 which revealed that he suffers from multiple neurocognitive deficits that render him incompetent to stand trial. Drs. Bossi, Damas, and Sussman all diagnosed Mr. Manson with borderline intellectual functioning but declared him competent to proceed with adjudication in March 2020. The doctors' determination was challenged by defense counsel. Prior to the challenge hearing, Dr. Jones-Forrester conducted a second evaluation of Mr. Manson on April 23, 2020. At the second evaluation, Dr. Jones-Forrester observed Mr. Manson's interaction with defense counsel. The challenge hearing was held on July 24 and continued to August 28, 2020. The Court heard testimony from Drs. Jones-Forrester, Bossi, Damas, and Sussman as well as argument from counsel.

The Court finds that that Mr. Manson is incompetent without the possibility of restoration.

II. Discussion

A. Legal Standard

The US Supreme Court has held that a defendant is competent to stand trial when the defendant "has sufficient present ability to consult with his lawyer with a reasonable degree of rational understanding" and the defendant "has a rational as well as factual understanding of the proceedings against him.” Dusky v. U.S., 362 U.S. 402, 402 (1960). Moreover, “a person whose mental condition is such that he lacks the capacity to understand the nature and object of the proceedings against him, to consult with counsel, and to assist in preparing his defense may not be subjected to trial.” Drope v. Missouri, 420 U.S. 162, 171 (1975). Under Nevada Revised Statute 178.400, an incompetent defendant “may not be tried or adjudged to punishment for a public offense.” NRS 178.400(1). A defendant is incompetent when they do not have the ability to

(a) Understand the nature of the criminal charges against the person;

(b) Understand the nature and purpose of the court proceedings; or

(c) Aid and assist the person’s counsel in the defense at any time during the proceedings with a reasonable degree of rational understanding.

NRS 178.400(2).

The Nevada Supreme Court has held that Nevada’s standard for competency complies with the Dusky standard. Calvin v. State, 147 P.3d 1097, 1098 (Nev. 2006).

B. Mr. Manson does not understand the nature of the criminal charges against him, the purpose of the court proceedings, nor is Mr. Manson able to assist counsel during the proceedings with a reasonable degree of rational understanding.

Dr. Jones-Forrester’s findings raise doubt about Mr. Manson’s ability to understand the nature of the charges against him as well as his role in and the purpose of the proceedings. Mr. Manson has a documented learning disability that required special education classes and an Individualized Education Program until he ultimately withdrew from school in the eleventh grade. Dr. Jones-Forrester testified that Mr. Manson’s full-scale IQ is 70 while all of the Stein doctors’ reports state that her evaluation revealed a score of 67. An IQ score of 67 would place him in the bottom first percentile and a score of 70 would place him in the bottom second percentile. Mr. Manson’s academic skills were generally at the third grade level. These low academic skills render Mr. Manson functionally illiterate and impair his ability to comprehend information. Dr. Jones-Forrester also found significant difficulties in Mr. Manson’s attention, mental tracking, processing speed, and executive functioning skills. Difficulties in these and other neurocognitive areas make Mr. Manson vulnerable to distraction and misunderstanding information during crucial legal

1 proceedings. Intellectual disability does not necessarily render someone incompetent, but Dr. Jones-
2 Forrester's evaluation demonstrated that Mr. Manson does not understand the nature of the charges
3 against him nor his role or the purpose of the proceedings.

4 At the challenge hearing, all three Stein doctors acknowledged that Mr. Manson suffered
5 from intellectual disabilities. The Stein doctors did not perform testing on the extent of Mr.
6 Manson's intellectual disability; however, the Stein doctors disputed the degree to which Mr.
7 Manson was affected by his intellectual deficits. The doctors testified regarding the improvement of 8 Mr. Manson's ability to understand court proceedings while at Stein but acknowledged that Mr.
9 Manson's understandings of court proceedings may diminish over time. Drs. Damas and Bossi
10 recommended that defense counsel explain terms simply while Dr. Sussman noted that Mr. Manson
11 could benefit from "further brief procedural competency training." None of the Stein doctors
12 observed Mr. Manson interact with his attorney.

13 Dr. Jones-Forrester spent ninety minutes observing Mr. Manson interact with defense
14 counsel in April 2020. At that evaluation, Dr. Jones- Forrester observed Mr. Manson's diminished 15 understanding of his charges and court proceedings. Mr. Manson was unable to articulate the 16 concept of consent, particularly how age affects a person's ability to consent to sexual contact. At 17 one point, Mr. Manson insisted that charges against him could not be proven unless the State
18 presented video or photo evidence of the alleged crime. Despite defense counsel's consistent use of 19 simple language and repetitive questioning throughout the interaction, Mr. Manson struggled to 20 identify how facts of the case could be used for or against him or what the risks were of going to 21 trial as opposed to accepting a plea bargain. The April 2020 evaluation demonstrated that Mr.
22 Manson cannot assist his counsel during the proceedings with a reasonable degree of rational
23 understanding.

24 C. Mr. Manson's intellectual and neurocognitive deficits render Mr. Manson incompetent
25 without the possibility of restoration.

26 At the challenge hearing, Dr. Jones-Forrester testified that Mr. Manson's low IQ and 27 neurocognitive deficits would be lifelong disabilities. Mr. Manson's educational shortcomings may 28 be improved upon with literacy, numeracy, and writing training, but Mr. Manson's intellectual and

1 neurocognitive deficits would significantly limit the range of any improvement. Based on Mr.
2 Manson's lifelong intellectual and neurocognitive deficits, the Court finds that Mr. Manson is 3 incompetent without the possibility of restoration.

4 III. Conclusion

5 Mr. Manson's intellectual and neurocognitive deficits impair his ability to understand the 6 nature of the charges and the object of the court proceedings against him. Mr. Manson's deficits
7 also prevent Mr. Manson from aiding and assisting counsel in his defense with a reasonable degree
8 of rational understanding. Mr. Manson's intellectual and neurocognitive deficits are lifelong 9 disabilities, and the disabilities would significantly limit the range of possible improvement.
10 Therefore, the Court finds that Mr. Manson is incompetent without the possibility of restoration.

11 Pursuant to NRS 178.460(4)(d), Mr. Manson shall remain in the custody of the Administrator
12 of the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services or
13 his or her designee for a period of not more than ten days, or until such time as a petition is filed
14 within that ten day period to commit Mr. Manson pursuant to NRS 433A.200.

15 If, within ten days, a petition is not filed to commit Mr. Manson pursuant to NRS 433A.200,
16 then Mr. Manson shall be released from custody.

17 Finally, pursuant to NRS 178.425(5), the criminal proceedings against Mr. Manson in the 18 above-entitled matter which have been previously suspended by the Court, are hereby dismissed 19 without prejudice.
