Dear Mom,

I NEED YOUR HELP, PLEASE! The Courts conveniently lost my first request for appeal. Since then, I've put in an official NOTICE OF APPEAL, but am scared they will conveniently lose that too, if they at all can - which they can! I am fighting for my life against the clock! I have a very limited time to get the NOTICE OF APPEAL in.

What I want you to do is:

- make sure it gets in this week
- bring it down to the Old Court House's Filing Office on the first floor and get ~~it~~ it file stamped.
- IF the filing clerk says it's already been filed, ask for a file stamped copy
- make sure it's case number CR17-0690A and was dated November 2020.

This will save my life! They are playing dirty, trying to make it impossible for me to appeal, because they know I will win the appeal!

PLEASE HELP

Love, Kathy <sup>Katherine Fletcher</sup> Katherine Fletcher

2:02 p.m. – Court convened.

Chief Deputy District Attorney Derek Dreiling was present on behalf of the State.

COURT reviewed the procedural history of the cases, noting that this hearing was set to address the Defendant's Motion to Recuse, filed in all three cases on July 30, 2018.

State's counsel advised the Court that the reason for CR17-0690 being split into an A/B case is because Judge Flanagan granted the Defendant's Motion to Sever Offenses (Order was filed on July 20, 2017), and therefore Count I is being handled in CR17-0690A, and Counts II & III are being handled in CR17-0690B. State's counsel further advised the Court that Judge Walker is available should the Court have any factual questions for him.

COURT further reviewed the history of the cases, and applicable case law.

Defense counsel presented argument in support of the Motion to Recuse.

State's counsel responded.

Defense counsel replied; and he further argued in support of the Motion to Recuse.

Discussion ensued between the Court and Defense counsel regarding Project One.

Defense counsel indicated that he could supplement the record with an affidavit from his Family Court Chief Deputy Alternate Public Defender, Cindi Smith.

COURT advised respective counsel that he will be taking this matter under advisement, and he will notify them if he needs any supplemental briefing.

Discussion ensued between the Court and respective counsel regarding the upcoming jury trials, set for October 22, 2018, and October 29, 2018.

Defense counsel indicated that he is willing to vacate the upcoming trial dates, knowing that they may be bumping up against this decision.

COURT advised respective counsel that he is making no preliminary findings, and the parties shall continue to operate as if they are going to trial in October.

Counsel Picker provided a historical perspective of representation of parties at Protective Custody hearings in 2014, to include counsel were present at the request of the Court. Further, counsel Picker advised that counsel Hart was the sole Family Court attorney at that time, and that victim Trask's name never appeared during a conflict check as counsel Hart was never formally "appointed" as victim. Further, counsel Picker advised his office is under an ethical obligation to withdraw as counsel of record in this case to avoid the potential for a post-conviction case. Additionally, counsel advised if his office is relieved as counsel, he will contact Conflict Attorney Administrator Krista Meier for assignment to another attorney.

The Court inquired of counsel for the State, who in turn addressed the Court and responded that the age of this case has no bearing, and he has no reason to traverse the findings of the Court.

PRE-TRIAL MOTIONS

Deputy District Attorney Amos Stege was present in Court, representing the State. Defendant was present, in custody, in Court, with Court Appointed Counsel Scott Edwards.

Prior to the commencement of Court, the Juror Criminal Histories were provided to defense counsel.

The Court first addressed the State's Motion Regarding Defendant Statements made to Dr. Melissa Piasecki.

Counsel for the State addressed the Court and responded Dr. Piasecki is present in Court today, and has brought her file.

Counsel for the Defendant addressed the Court and responded he filed an Opposition to the State's Motion, to include when the Defendant made the statements to Dr. Piasecki, the insanity defense was in play, but that has changed. Further, counsel argued that defense decisions were made prior to his involvement in this case, to which the Court responded the Defendant knew anything she might have said could ultimately be used against her.

Counsel for the Defendant responded it appears the Court's decision has been made, and therefore, counsel inquired as to how much the Court will allow.

COURT ORDERED: If the State examines Dr. Piasecki as to the statements made by the Defendant, the State will more than likely have the full scope, if relevant, however, the Court's final ruling will be reserved until Dr. Piasecki testifies.

Counsel for the Defendant responded only he knows what is contained within the file as the Defendant was evaluated by the defense with regard to the insanity plea.

COURT ORDERED: With no legal authority having been provided with regard to the plea change, the Court will assess the testimony as it arises, however, the State's Motion is GRANTED at this time to include the files are discoverable, and will be made available to counsel for the State, who will prepare and submit a proposed order. Dr. Piasecki addressed the Court and sought clarification as to what exactly she should produce to the State.

COURT ORDERED: Counsel for the State will be provided with Dr. Piasecki's not guilty by reason of insanity findings and notes.

Dr. Piasecki responded she previously testified at the competency hearing and those evaluation(s) were previously disseminated to counsel.

COURT ORDERED: The Court finds Dr. Piasecki previously testified as to the competency evaluation, her report was disseminated, and therefore, her notes and competency evaluation are to be disclosed.

Dr. Piasecki responded she has all the materials on a thumb drive.

COURT ORDERED: Dr. Piasecki is ordered to e-mail both counsel the documentation as instructed by the Court.

Counsel for the State responded there may be a scheduling conflict next week for Dr. Piasecki but he will resolve that issue.

COURT ORDERED: The Court has no issue with calling witnesses out-of-order.

Dr. Piasecki was excused by the Court.

The Court next addressed counsel for the State's request to utilize a thumb drive of all admitted exhibits.

Counsel for the Defendant responded and had no objection.

COURT ORDERED: Counsel will be allowed to utilize a thumb drive of admitted duplicate original exhibits.

Counsel for the State moved to exclude his Investigator from the rule of exclusion.

Counsel for the Defendant responded and has no objection, providing his Investigator is exempted from the rule of exclusion as well.

COURT ORDERED: The State's Investigator and the defense Investigator are exempt from the rule of exclusion.

The Court next addressed the State's issue as to the presentation of motive evidence.

Discussion ensued between the Court and counsel, to include counsel for the Defendant responding he believed this issue was worked out some time ago, to include he has no objection to the social worker discussing general procedures relating to child custody. Further, counsel advised he has no intention of retrying the 432B case.

COURT ORDERED: The Court appreciates counsel working together, and will provide a limiting instruction, if necessary.

The Court next addressed the State's issue as to a gun show and target shooting by the Defendant.

Counsel for the State responded that after a pre-trial meeting with the Defendant's parents, he, counsel for the State, was advised by the Defendant's father that the Defendant worked at a gun show, and may have purchased a gun a month before the murder. Further, counsel advised that the timing is an issue for him, and he is uncertain as to what the parents will say when testifying. Further, counsel advised the gun is missing, and that the Defendant's father's guns have been determined not to be the murder weapon.

Counsel for the Defendant responded this information is not relevant as there is no record of a gun purchase by the Defendant.

Counsel for the State replied that the Defendant's father said it was a nine-millimeter gun, which matches the murder weapon used in this case.

COURT ORDERED: The Court finds this information to be relevant and probative, however, before the State intends to elicit this testimony, a Hearing outside the presence of the Jury will be conducted.

Counsel for the State addressed the Defendant's target shooting, Jesse Henslee and the Defendant's mother to which the Court responded a Hearing would be conducted prior to any testimony of this nature.

The Court next addressed the State's issue as to victim characterization, and jail phone calls between the Defendant and her mother.

Counsel for the State responded he does not want to address the 432B case, sexual abuse of the minor child, drugs or physical abuse of the Defendant. Further, counsel stated that while he is not seeking sanctions at this time, the Defendant appears to have had an inappropriate telephone conversation with her mother wherein she, the Defendant, said that her mother can discuss those issues anyway. Additionally, counsel moved to have a hearing outside the presence of the Jury before any of these issues are discussed.

Counsel for the Defendant responded he hasn't listened to the jail phone call of January 22nd yet, but he does not want to make the CPS case or abuse allegations part of this case.

COURT ORDERED: Counsel are expected to talk to their witnesses as to a non-responsive nature, and hearings outside the presence of the Jury will occur, if necessary.

Counsel for the State responded as to the potential for "opening the door" testimony, and appreciated the Court's handling of this matter in advance.

Respective counsel had nothing further to address.

The Court outlined next week's trial schedule, to which no objections were stated.

Counsel for the State moved to meet with Court Clerk Kim Oates after this Hearing as to trial exhibits; SO ORDERED.

2:39 p.m. – Court stood in recess.

Defendant was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

COURT ORDERED: The Court finds it appears the Defendant worked at a gun show, purchased a gun, was target shooting and cleared a gun jam from a nine millimeter handgun, and therefore, the Court finds this information to be relevant, more probative

JURY TRIAL – Day Three

Deputy District Attorney Amos Stege was present in Court, representing the State. Defendant was present in Court, in custody, with Court Appointed Counsel Scott Edwards.

10:08 a.m. – Court convened with Court, counsel and Defendant present.

Outside the presence of the Jury, the Court addressed Exhibit 51. Counsel for the State addressed the Court and advised he and opposing counsel will need time to discuss the proposed redactions, and he, counsel for the State, will need time to meet with Dr. Melissa Piasecki.

Counsel for the Defendant addressed the Court and responded he will not have many redactions, however, he will be seeking to redact any hearsay statements, and any reference to custody status.

The Court and counsel discussed hearsay.

COURT ORDERED: Court will be in recess to allow counsel to work together as to the redactions to the Defendant's version of events of the incident provided to Dr. Piasecki.

10:16 a.m. – Recess.

10:38 a.m. – Court reconvened with Court, counsel and Defendant present.

Outside the presence of the Jury, redactions of the Defendant's version of events provided to Dr. Piasecki were discussed between the Court and counsel. Further, counsel for the Defendant stated his objection to certain portions being redacted as they relate to the Defendant's state-of-mind.

Counsel for the State responded and argued the reference to voices was made before the incident and is therefore relevant.

Counsel for the Defendant replied and argued that all of the statements were made after the incident.

COURT ORDERED: The Court has previously found the Defendant to be competent, and therefore, her competency as this time is not relevant. Further, the Defendant willingly and knowingly changed her plea to Not Guilty, and therefore, her statements after-the-fact as to "visions" are not relevant. Additionally, the Court is unaware at this time if the Defendant will testify, a Carter canvass will be necessary, however, the Court finds the Jury will misuse this information against the Defendant if allowed.

Counsel for the Defendant had nothing further.

Counsel for the State responded as to resuming redactions.

The Court next addressed a "kite" submitted by the Defendant on January 18, 2020.

COURT ORDERED: The Court considers the kite submitted by the Defendant to be a fugitive document, as she is presently represented by counsel, however, it appears to the Court an issue exists between the Defendant and her attorney which will be addressed.

10:46 a.m. – Recess.

10:51 a.m. – Court convened with Court, counsel and Defendant present.

Outside the presence of the Jury, counsel for the State advised the parties again need the Court's guidance as to redactions, to include the last paragraph on Page 26.

Counsel for the Defendant responded and concurred, to include Jesse Henslee is listed throughout the document.

Counsel for the State replied.

The Court again reviewed Exhibit 51 and clarified redactions.

The Court inquired if Jesse Henslee has been located, to which counsel for the State responded he has not.

COURT ORDERED: Anything after "even after I do my time, I have to worry about the repercussions" is marginally relevant, prejudicial, and will only confuse the Jury.

Counsel for the Defendant responded and had no objection to redacting that portion.

Further, counsel for the Defendant advised that the Defendant wants the last two words of the paragraph "I'm sorry" to remain, however, counsel had no objection to redacting the entire paragraph.

COURT ORDERED: Counsel for the State is excused from the Courtroom to make the discussed redactions, and further, everyone aside from the Defendant, defense counsel, and Court staff will leave the Courtroom to allow for a Young Hearing to be conducted. Court resumed with Court, defense counsel and Defendant present.

12:58 p.m. – Court reconvened with Court, counsel and Defendant present.

The Court canvassed the Defendant as to willingness to sign, knowledge and understanding of the Stipulation and Waiver of Jury Penalty Hearing.

The Defendant addressed the Court on her own behalf and responded she knowingly and willingly signed the Stipulation, she has spoken with her attorney about the Stipulation, which she understands, and had enough time to confer with attorney.

Counsel for the State advised the Court that Max T. will be with members of BACA organization for morale support.

COURT ORDERED: Defense counsel and the Court should have been advised in advance as to the request to have Paws for Love present in Court, to include a dog and its handler being present with Max T., and therefore, the request is DENIED.
