CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Yaceny
DEPUTY CLERK

NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY DISCLOSURE

This matter is currently before this court on an appeal from the denial of an anti-SLAPP special motion to dismiss filed in Eighth Judicial District Court case A-19-807433.

The parties to the instant matter were also involved in a related Eighth Judicial District Court case, A-16-738444. That case was originally presided over by Judge Tierra Jones. In 2018, an appeal was filed in that case challenging several rulings issued by Judge Jones. On or about September 8, 2020, case A-16-738444 was administratively reassigned from Judge Jones to myself as part of a caseload reassignment. I presided over A-16-738444 until I departed the Eighth Judicial District Court on December 31, 2020. There appears to have been no activity in case A-16-738444 during the time I presided over it as it was still on appeal in this court until, on December 30, 2020, this court issued its decision on the appeal, affirming in part, vacating in part and remanding the case back to the district court.

As the matter never appeared on calendar in front of me in the district court, I have no knowledge about the matter other than what I have read and learned as a member of this court. I have no bias or prejudices as to any of the parties or issues in the litigation and do not believe that my impartiality could reasonably be questioned. However, I make this disclosure so that any person who wishes to request my disqualification may do so by filing a motion pursuant to NRAP 35. Any such motion shall be filed no later than February 8, 2022.
