Eighth Judicial District

District Court Case No.: A-20-813230-C

Hon. David M. Jones, presiding

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME FOR HIS BRIEF IN REPLY TO RESPONDENTS BRIEF IN OPPOSITION (First Request)

Appellant hereby moves for a 30-day extension of time for filing the BRIEF IN REPLY TO RESPONDENTS BRIEF IN OPPOSITION. The brief is presently due for filing on September 20, 2021. Appellant requests an extension until October 20, 2021.

This appeal regards whether it was error for the district court to dismiss Appellant's suit in the district court when the proper standard was not applied in dismissing the matter and whether its doing so deprives Appellant of his right to due process.

Undersigned as counsel of record researched, drafted and filed two briefs in the Supreme Court this month, one on September 2 (# 81385), and another on September 7 (#'s 81592 and 81793) and was on a scheduled vacation for two weeks since then. Additionally, the attorney associated with undersigned counsel has tested positive for COVID-19 and has to remain in quarantine until the end of this week(9-18-2021) The undersigned counsel and associated attorney have been working to draft the BRIEF IN RESPONSE, but Appellant's attorneys will be unable to complete it by the current deadline and request a 30 day extension for filing the brief.

The Respondents reply Brief raised issues which require additional research beyond that done in the initial briefing or district court which will require additional time.

Accordingly, Appellant requests an additional 30 days to file the BRIEF IN RESPONSE. If granted, the new due date would be October 20, 2021.
