Respondent.

Supreme Court Case No.: 82106

First Judicial District Court Case No. 18 RP
00018 1B

RESPONDENT'S REQUEST FOR ORDER EXTENDING TIME TO FILE RESPONDENT'S
ANSWERING BRIEF

Respondent Neil E. Schultz, by and through his attorney John S. Bartlett, hereby submits his request, pursuant to NRAP 26(b)(1)(B) for a short extension of time with which to file Respondent's Answering Brief. This motion is based on the pleadings and papers on file herein, and the following points and authorities.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Appellant filed his opening brief on July 16, 2021. Respondent's Answering Brief was then due on August 16, 2021. Respondent's counsel telephoned a request for an additional 14 days to file the brief, which extended the time to August 30, 2021 to file brief.

Respondent's counsel has been diligently working on meeting this deadline. However, time he set aside to work on this brief on Sunday, August 29, 2021 was cut short by the need to help a friend evacuate from Meyers, California due to the Caldore fire threatening that area.

While the brief is nearly complete, the time lost has made completing and filing the brief,

1 together with preparing a Respondent's Appendix consisting of the exhibits admitted into
2 evidence at the trial (which Appellant has not included in the Record on Appeal), necessitates
3 this request for a short extension of time. Seven days should be more than sufficient, as the 4 expectation is the brief and appendix will be filed before the end of this week.

5 Based on the foregoing, it is respectfully requested that an Order issue allowing
6 respondent an additional seven days to file Respondent's Answering Brief in this case. No
7 further requests for an extension are anticipated.

8 Dated this 30th day of August, 2021
