glaring omissions regarding the incident.

The hearing officer consistently discussed the testimony of Employee in his decision but completely ignored the testimony of Moore, Wachter, Adams, Russell and Howell. In his Decision, the hearing officer finds that Employee was credible but makes no determination regarding the substantial evidence in the record supporting Employee's misconduct.

Agencies must provide the "essential facts upon which the administrative decision was based." United States v. Dierckman, 201 F.3d 915, 926 (7th Cir. 2000). Agencies must explain what justifies their determinations with actual evidence beyond a "conclusory statement." Allied-Signal, Inc. v. Nuclear Reg. Comm'n, 988 F.2d 146, 152 (D.C. Cir. 1993). An Administrative Law Judge "must specifically identify the testimony she or he finds not to be credible and must explain what evidence undermines the testimony." Holohan v. Massanari, 246 F.3d 1195, 1208 (9th Cir. 2001).

Here, the hearing officer failed to explain how he reached the conclusion that Employee did not engage in any wrongdoing when the testimony of at least five other people supported that Employee should not have left the inmate on the wall for an additional 10 minutes following the search. Additionally, the testimony of these same witnesses supported Employee made false statements and glaring omissions in his report. The hearing officer disregarded the investigative file which, included interviews of several inmates that were placed on the wall, including Norelus, and their opinion that Employee and Valdez were singling out Norelus. The hearing officer's failure to analyze the other evidence in the record renders his findings and conclusions arbitrary and capricious as a matter of law.

1. Violation of NAC 284.650 (1)

NDOC charged Employee with violating NAC 284.650(1), activity which is incompatible with an employee's conditions of employment established by law or which violates a provision of NAC 284.653 or NAC 284.738 to 284.771. These conditions of employment include Employee's compliance, as a correctional officer, with the 8th Amendment as well as NDOC administrative regulations including AR 405, Use of Force and its corresponding operational policies and procedures.

NRS chapter 209 gives the NDOC Director and the Board of State Prison Commissioners the authority to create and implement regulations with respect to the management of the prison and prisoners including Use of Force, Restraints and Operational Procedures. See NRS 209.111(3); NRS 209.131(6).

Those rules, mandated by the legislature and adopted in accordance with statutory procedures, have the force and effect of law. Turk v. Nevada State Prison, 94 Nev. 101, 104, 575 P.2d 599, 601 (1978).

Employee's actions of singling out inmate Norelus, patting him down but not releasing him, keeping him on the wall for an excessive amount of time with his hands raised and allowing a situation to escalate resulting in Valdez using unnecessary force, was incompatible with his conditions of employment. A chokehold is not authorized and unlawful. ROA 490. Russell testified that what occurred with Norelus was an assault. ROA 562-563.

The evidence showed AR 405.03 states staff may use force to protect himself or any other individual from physical harm by an inmate and will be proportionate to the threat exhibited by the inmate. ROA 910. AR 405.03 further states any staff witnessing use of force that is either excessive or unnecessary is required to immediately report their observations to the shift supervisor both verbally and in a written report. ROA 910 (emphasis added). Employee was familiar with AR 405 and understood force must be proportionate to the threat. ROA 189. Furthermore, Employee understood he was required to follow operational procedures and post orders. ROA 189, 191. Employee also understood he was to avoid turning minor problems into major confrontations. Id. The post order required Employee to restrict use of force to the minimum degree necessary to regain control or to repel an attack. ROA 192. The post order further required Employee to notify a shift supervisor and obtain appropriate back up if an inmate refuses to comply. ROA 191 (emphasis added). The post order provides that Search and Escort officers will enforce all rules, regulations, and procedures and counsel inmates in a discreet and timely manner. ROA 649-650.

Employee searched Norelus but kept him on the wall because he was allegedly "non-compliant." Yet, Employee's decision to keep Norelus on the wall for an extended period time was contrary to the policies governing his post. Employee was required to notify a shift supervisor and obtain appropriate back up for non-compliance. Instead, Employee kept Norelus on the wall, allowing Valdez to get riled up and letting the situation escalate to the point where Valdez used excessive force. Wachter testified that Valdez often had to get the last word in with inmates. Certainly, Employee, who had worked with Valdez for one year, recognized Valdez liked to escalate situations. This was incompatible with Employee's conditions of employment and a violation of NAC 284.650(1).

2. Violation of NAC 284.650(10)

NDOC charged Employee with violating NAC 284.650(10), dishonesty. As a peace officer, Employee is expected to adhere to a high level of honesty. The evidence in the record demonstrated that Employee's incident report included false and misleading statements as well as omissions. Employee's report never explained why the inmate was on the wall or that the inmate was non-compliant. With respect to the use of force, Employee reported, "At approximately 06:45 hours inmate Norelus #1104257 came off the Culinary wall while C/O Valdez was attempting to restrain him resulting in a spontaneous use of force." ROA 872.

The hearing officer found the inmate's hands remained on the wall and that there was no evidence that Valdez was restraining the inmate. ROA 585 (emphasis added). However, despite these findings, the hearing officer did not find that Employee's statement to be false or misleading. Instead after "much soul searching," the hearing officer found the report accurate. ROA 590.

The hearing officer did not need to search his soul because the evidence made Employee's dishonesty clear:

- Russell testified "at no time did I see [Norelus] resist and according to the-the report, he was resisting when he was trying to be restrained and I didn't see any of that in the report [sic], which spoke to the integrity of both officers." ROA 561.
- Russell testified that omission is deception. The report should have included the fact that inmate was on the wall for 10-15 minutes, Valdez pushed the inmate, there was no resistance, he grabbed him around the neck and threw him to the ground. ROA 562-563.
- Both Wachter and Moore testified that based on the video, Norelus did not come off the wall and Valdez was not attempting to restrain because Valdez did not have his restraints out and did not use the approved technique to restrain. ROA 430, 477, 448-450.
- Adams testified when completing a report, an officer is required to include as much detail as possible, particularly when reporting use of force. ROA 541.
- Howell testified NDOC has to be able to believe an officer's report and if an officer loses credibility it decreases the effectiveness of the institution because they have to take the report on its face as true and believe the officers are truthful. Having an untruthful officer affects the whole workforce. ROA 29-31.
- Russell testified as a senior officer, Employee had an obligation to be honest, submit a a correct report and alert supervisory staff of what occurred. ROA 562.

The substantial evidence in the whole record supported that Employee was dishonest and a violation of NAC 284.650(10).

3. Violation of NAC 284.650(21)

NDOC charged Employee with violating NAC 284.650(21) - any act of violence, which arises out of or in the course of the performance of the employee's duties, including, without limitation, stalking, conduct that is threatening or intimidating, assault, or battery. While NDOC was not charging Employee with actually placing hands on Norelus, NDOC was charging him for allowing/permitting the situation to escalate and allowing Valdez, a subordinate officer, to use excessive force.

The hearing officer found that there was no set time to keep an inmate on the wall. But the evidence supported that Employee kept the inmate on the wall for an excessive amount of time:

- Wachter testified it was excessive to keep Norelus on the wall for an additional eight minutes. An officer does not have time to counsel for ten minutes when there are other duties to attend to, including maintaining safety and security of the prison. ROA 464.
- Moore testified keeping an inmate on a wall for seven minutes was not customary. ROA 452.
- The video shows the actual search of Norelus took only about 30 seconds. ROA 838.

The hearing officer found that Employee could not have prevented the excessive use of force. But the evidence contradicted this finding and showed that, as the supervisor, Employee should have released the inmate and intervened when the incident escalated:

- Wachter testified as a senior officer, Employee could have intervened and taken over if he observed that Valdez was keeping the inmate on the wall for too long. ROA 448-449.
- Adams testified Employee as the senior officer should intervene and tell the other officer to take a break and take the inmate to the sergeant's office. ROA 501.
- Moore testified it was Employee's job to deescalate and contain the situation. ROA 363, 418.
- Adams as the associate warden and with over thirty years' experience at NDOC testified that his opinion was Employee permitted the unnecessary force to occur. ROA 540
- Russell testified Employee as the senior had a responsibility and obligation to do something different during the 10 minutes to prevent a use of force. ROA 561.

Furthermore, Russell testified the actions were an assault and Adams testified the choke hold was unlawful, which further supports the violation under NAC 284.650(21).

The hearing officer did not determine whether Norelus was targeted; however, the evidence supported Norelus was singled out and harassed:

- Norelus told investigators he was routinely singled out by Employee and Valdez. ROA 811
- White told investigators Employee and Valdez were routinely going at it. ROA 811
- Jackson said staff was singling out black inmates. ROA 811
- Wachter testified Valdez always had to get the last word. ROA 813
- Moore testified by keeping an inmate on the wall for an excessive period of time when all other inmates have been released, it is singling out the inmate in front of other inmates. ROA 3636-364.
- The video shows despite Employee and Valdez's job to search inmates, over 120 inmates left culinary without being searched despite the "order to crack down on contraband."

The substantial evidence established Employee violated NAC 284.650(21) when he engaged in act of violence against Norelus, including harassing him, singling him out, and allowing excessive force.

G. It was clear error and an abuse of discretion for the Hearing Officer to rely on his "soul searching" in determining whether Employee was dishonest NRS 284.390(6) provides, after the hearing and consideration of the evidence, the hearing officer shall render a decision in writing, setting forth the reasons therefor. The hearing officer is not to consider his own personal feelings or soul searching. The hearing officer concluded, "My conclusion, after much soul searching and many reviews of the video and the statement is that Mr. Navarrete's report is brief and essentially, factually accurate given what he reasonably could have been expected to perceive at the time." ROA 590. It was clear error for the hearing officer to search his soul for his findings and conclusions rather than the reliable, probative and substantial evidence in the record that revealed Employee was dishonest in his report.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- After a review and consideration of the record, the points and authorities on file herein, and oral argument of counsel, the Court determined as follows:

NRS 233B.135 sets forth the rules of judicial review district courts must follow. Along with NRS 233B.135, the Court finds that O'Keefe v. Dept. of Motor Veh., 134 Nev. 752 (2018), and Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) provide guidance that aids district courts in reaching a decision. Under the review process found in O'keefe, a hearing officer must first determine whether the employee in fact committed the alleged violation. O'Keefe, 134 Nev. at 759. Since the hearing officer reviews the facts, the applicable standard for this review is the preponderance-of-the-evidence standard. See Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) (holding that in absence of a specific governing statute, the preponderance-of-the-evidence standard should be applied, as it is the minimum standard to guarantee due process).

In the instant action, the hearing officer concluded that Navaratte did not commit the alleged violations. The Court finds that the hearing officer's factual determinations are supported by substantial evidence. See Nassiri, 130 Nev. at 249-50. Consequently, the Court AFFIRMS the

A. Findings of Fact

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that the hearing officer's factual conclusions are supported by substantial evidence. See Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 249-50 (2014).

Respondent Jose Navarrete ("Navarrete") was terminated for an incident involving another correction officer, Paul Valdez ("Valdez"), and inmate Rickie Norelus ("Norelus") at Southern Desert Correctional Center ("SDCC"). (ROA 583.)

On October 9, 2016, during the breakfast service, Navarrete and Valdez "were randomly searching inmates leaving culinary for contraband." (ROA 583-84.) This search, as well as other searches, are "a common occurrence" at SDCC. (ROA 583.) A surveillance video recorded the incident from a single perspective with no audio. (ROA 583.)

During the hearing at issue, Hearing Officer Mark Gentile ("Gentile") was provided an enhanced and slow motion video of the crucial moments of this incident. (ROA 584, 709-11 & 1150-51.) Navarrete also provided comprehensive testimony regarding what occurred during each stage of the encounter. (ROA 584.) Gentile found Navarrete credible. (ROA 584.)

that Mr. Norelus was acting differently than the other inmates when placed on the wall for a pat down. He was clearly agitated and his hands were not in the proper position. He appears to be continually looking around anxiously. There is, unfortunately, no audio and one cannot determine what is being said by the officers or the inmates - yet, the head and body movements of all reflect, without a doubt, that there was continual chatter by inmate Norelus. The testimony by Mr. Navarrete was that Mr Norelus was being uncooperative and verbally abusive throughout the encounter.

(ROA584.) These findings support Navarrete's testimony that Norelus was noncompliant.

With regard to this incident, Gentile found:

As Officer Valdez abruptly approaches the inmate from behind, the inmate does move backward slightly off the wall and looks over his left shoulder. You can see the inmate's left arm and shoulders slightly moving backwards, but the hands remain on the wall. Officer Valdez then pushes the inmate into the wall, grabs the inmate's neck with his right arm, and wrestles him to the ground.

(ROA 585.)

28 ////

This all "occurred in a matter of a few seconds." (ROA 585.) Valdez immediately cuffed Norelus once on the ground, and Navarrete came over to assist. (ROA 585.) Gentile found that even with the enhanced video, Valdez' conduct was unjustified. (ROA 585.)

With regard to the post-incident video, that includes audio, Gentile found that while Norelus is leaving the area he is "laughing at the officers and claiming they will 'put his kids through college." (ROA 586.) He also "does not appear injured and his conduct makes it seem as if he may have been baiting the officers to some extent, which according to the testimony is a common occurrence" at SDCC. (ROA 586.)

Navarrete later submitted an informational report, which states:

On October 9, 2016 I, Senior Correctional Officer Navarrete was assigned to Search and Escort Southern Desert Correctional Center. At approximately 06:45 hours inmate Norelus #1104257 came off the Culinary wall while C/O Valdez was attempting to restrain him resulting in the spontaneous use of force. When inmate Norelus came off the wall he was resisting and both he and C/O Valdez went to the ground. I then assisted in holding the inmates upper body down so that C/O Valdez could restrain him. I notified supervisors and called medical so that they could respond to the scene. Medical responded and inmate Norelus was escorted to the infirmary to be further evaluated.

With regard to Navarrete's involvement in this incident, Gentile specifically found that NDOC failed to establish "factually by a preponderance of the evidence, that [] Navarrete willfully employed or permitted the use of unauthorized or excessive force" and that "there is absolutely no evidence to reflect that he personally utilized excessive force." (ROA 588.) This is because Valdez' use of force "was quite sudden and was over in a matter of a few seconds." (ROA 589.) Gentile specifically found Navarrete could not have anticipated, nor prevented, Valdez's spontaneous use of force. (ROA 589.)

With regard to the charge of dishonesty in relation to Navarrete's use of force report, Gentile found, as follows:

Navarrete wrote the report without the benefit of reviewing any video - he was trying to assimilate and explain this unexpected event he saw occur literally in a a matter of second. The reality is Mr. Navarrete saw this event (the physical use of force by Officer Valdez) take place in a matter of 2-3 seconds, from a side perspective. He saw it only one time.

(ROA 590.) He then concluded:

Navarrete's report is brief and, essentially, factually accurate given what he reasonably could be expected to have perceived at the time. From his testimony, and even in his pre-hearing interviews, it is clear that he believed, initially, Officer Valdez was intending to restrain the inmate. While this was happening, a spontaneous use of force situation occurred. Norelus did come off the wall as Officer Valdez was either properly or improperly attempting to restrain him, but I do not think Mr. Navarrete could be fairly called up to conclude from his 2-3 second perception whether Officer Valdez' actions were appropriate or not, or whether the take down was initiated by the wrongful conduct of the inmate or of Officer Valdez. The inmate did rock backwards just prior to physical contact. I do not believe that Mr. Navarrete was in the position to know what Officer Valdez perceived or why this ended as it did. Mr. Navarrete's report is a bland statement of events which are, essentially, true. "When he came off the wall he was resisting." They did end up about 15 feet away - inmate Norelus didn't just flop to the ground. Both officers, ultimately, had to restrain the inmate. Once again, this appears, to me, to be a plain statement that appears, essentially true.

Based on these factual findings, and NDOC's failure to prove otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence, Gentile concluded that Navarrete's dismissal from NDOC be reversed with restoration to his prior position with back pay and benefits. (ROA 591.)

B. Conclusions of Law

NRS 233B.135 sets forth the rules of judicial review district courts must follow. Along with NRS 233B.135, the Court finds that O'Keefe v. Dept. of Motor Veh., 134 Nev. 752 (2018), and Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) provide guidance that aids the district court's review on the instant petition. Under the review process found in O'Keefe, a hearing officer must first determine whether the employee in fact committed the alleged violation. O'Keefe, 134 Nev. at 759. When a hearing officer's conclusions of law are closely related to the findings of fact, those legal conclusions must also be afforded deference and may not be disturbed if supported by substantial evidence. Jones v. Rosner, 102 Nev. 215, 719 P.2d 805 (1986).

Since the hearing officer reviews the facts, the applicable standard for this review is the preponderance-of-the-evidence standard. See Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) (holding that in absence of a specific governing statute, the preponderance of the evidence standard should be applied, as it is the minimum standard to guarantee due process).

The hearing officer ultimately concluded, under step one of O'Keefe and the preponderance of 1 the evidence standard, that Navarrete did not commit the alleged violations. 2 Petitioner failed to prove the hearing officer's decision violated Petitioner's substantial 3 rights under NRS 233B.135(2). To meet this burden, the petitioner must prove the agency's 4 decision (1) violates the constitution or other statutory provisions, (2) exceeds the agency's 5 statutory authority, (3) is based on an unlawful procedure, (4) constitutes legal error, (5) clearly 6 erroneous based on "reliable probative and substantial evidence on the whole record," or (6) 7 "arbitrary and capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion." NRS 233B.135(2). Petitioner 8 failed to prove any of these bases to reverse the hearing officer's decision. 9 Order C. 10 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the hearing officer's 11 ruling is hereby AFFIRMED. 12 DATED this 9th day of October, 2020. 13 14 15 16 17 Respectfully submitted: 18 DATED this ^{2nd} day of October, 2020. 19 LAW OFFICE OF DANIEL MARKS 20 /s/ Nicole M. THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that the hearing officer's factual conclusions are supported by substantial evidence. See Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 249-50 (2014).

Respondent Jose Navarrete ("Navarrete") was terminated for an incident involving another correction officer, Paul Valdez ("Valdez"), and inmate Rickie Norelus ("Norelus") at Southern Desert Correctional Center ("SDCC"). (ROA 583.)

On October 9, 2016, during the breakfast service, Navarrete and Valdez "were randomly searching inmates leaving culinary for contraband." (ROA 583-84.) This search, as well as other searches, are "a common occurrence" at SDCC. (ROA 583.) A surveillance video recorded the incident from a single perspective with no audio. (ROA 583.)

During the hearing at issue, Hearing Officer Mark Gentile ("Gentile") was provided an enhanced and slow motion video of the crucial moments of this incident. (ROA 584, 709-11 & 1150-51.) Navarrete also provided comprehensive testimony regarding what occurred during each stage of the encounter. (ROA 584.) Gentile found Navarrete credible. (ROA 584.)

Gentile also found, "without question":

that Mr. Norelus was acting differently than the other inmates when placed on the wall for a pat down. He was clearly agitated and his hands were not in the proper position. He appears to be continually looking around anxiously. There is, unfortunately, no audio and one cannot determine what is being said by the officers or the inmates - yet, the head and body movements of all reflect, without a doubt, that there was continual chatter by inmate Norelus. The testimony by Mr. Navarrete was that Mr Norelus was being uncooperative and verbally abusive throughout the encounter.

(ROA584.) These findings support Navarrete's testimony that Norelus was noncompliant.

With regard to this incident, Gentile found:

As Officer Valdez abruptly approaches the inmate from behind, the inmate does move backward slightly off the wall and looks over his left shoulder. You can see the inmate's left arm and shoulders slightly moving backwards, but the hands remain on the wall. Officer Valdez then pushes the inmate into the wall, grabs the inmate's neck with his right arm, and wrestles him to the ground.

(ROA 585.)

//// 28

This all "occurred in a matter of a few seconds." (ROA 585.) Valdez immediately cuffed Norelus once on the ground, and Navarrete came over to assist. (ROA 585.) Gentile found that even with the enhanced video, Valdez' conduct was unjustified. (ROA 585.)

With regard to the post-incident video, that includes audio, Gentile found that while Norelus is leaving the area he is "laughing at the officers and claiming they will 'put his kids through college.'" (ROA 586.) He also "does not appear injured and his conduct makes it seem as if he may have been baiting the officers to some extent, which according to the testimony is a common occurrence" at SDCC. (ROA 586.)

Navarrete later submitted an informational report, which states:

On October 9, 2016 I, Senior Correctional Officer Navarrete was assigned to Search and Escort Southern Desert Correctional Center. At approximately 06:45 hours inmate Norelus #1104257 came off the Culinary wall while C/O Valdez was attempting to restrain him resulting in the spontaneous use of force. When inmate Norelus came off the wall he was resisting and both he and C/O Valdez went to the ground. I then assisted in holding the inmates upper body down so that C/O Valdez could restrain him. I notified supervisors and called medical so that they could respond to the scene. Medical responded and inmate Norelus was escorted to the infirmary to be further evaluated.

With regard to Navarrete's involvement in this incident, Gentile specifically found that NDOC failed to establish "factually by a preponderance of the evidence, that [] Navarrete willfully employed or permitted the use of unauthorized or excessive force" and that "there is absolutely no evidence to reflect that he personally utilized excessive force." (ROA 588.) This is because Valdez' use of force "was quite sudden and was over in a matter of a few seconds." (ROA 589.) Gentile specifically found Navarrete could not have anticipated, nor prevented, Valdez's spontaneous use of force. (ROA 589.)

With regard to the charge of dishonesty in relation to Navarrete's use of force report, Gentile found, as follows:

Navarrete wrote the report without the benefit of reviewing any video - he was trying to assimilate and explain this unexpected event he saw occur literally in a a matter of second. The reality is Mr. Navarrete saw this event (the physical use of force by Officer Valdez) take place in a matter of 2-3 seconds, from a side perspective. He saw it only one time.

(ROA 590.) He then concluded:

Navarrete's report is brief and, essentially, factually accurate given what he reasonably could be expected to have perceived at the time. From his testimony, and even in his pre-hearing interviews, it is clear that he believed, initially, Officer Valdez was intending to restrain the inmate. While this was happening, a spontaneous use of force situation occurred. Norelus did come off the wall as Officer Valdez was either properly or improperly attempting to restrain him, but I do not think Mr. Navarrete could be fairly called up to conclude from his 2-3 second perception whether Officer Valdez' actions were appropriate or not, or whether the take down was initiated by the wrongful conduct of the inmate or of Officer Valdez. The inmate did rock backwards just prior to physical contact. I do not believe that Mr. Navarrete was in the position to know what Officer Valdez perceived or why this ended as it did. Mr. Navarrete's report is a bland statement of events which are, essentially, true. "When he came off the wall he was resisting." They did end up about 15 feet away - inmate Norelus didn't just flop to the ground. Both officers, ultimately, had to restrain the inmate. Once again, this appears, to me, to be a plain statement that appears, essentially true.

Based on these factual findings, and NDOC's failure to prove otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence, Gentile concluded that Navarrete's dismissal from NDOC be reversed with restoration to his prior position with back pay and benefits. (ROA 591.)

B. Conclusions of Law

NRS 233B.135 sets forth the rules of judicial review district courts must follow. Along with NRS 233B.135, the Court finds that O'Keefe v. Dept. of Motor Veh., 134 Nev. 752 (2018), and Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) provide guidance that aids the district court's review on the instant petition. Under the review process found in O'Keefe, a hearing officer must first determine whether the employee in fact committed the alleged violation. O'Keefe, 134 Nev. at 759. When a hearing officer's conclusions of law are closely related to the findings of fact, those legal conclusions must also be afforded deference and may not be disturbed if supported by substantial evidence. Jones v. Rosner, 102 Nev. 215, 719 P.2d 805 (1986).

Since the hearing officer reviews the facts, the applicable standard for this review is the preponderance-of-the-evidence standard. See Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) (holding that in absence of a specific governing statute, the preponderance of the evidence standard should be applied, as it is the minimum standard to guarantee due process).

The hearing officer ultimately concluded, under step one of O'Keefe and the preponderance of 1 the evidence standard, that Navarrete did not commit the alleged violations. 2 Petitioner failed to prove the hearing officer's decision violated Petitioner's substantial 3 rights under NRS 233B.135(2). To meet this burden, the petitioner must prove the agency's 4 decision (1) violates the constitution or other statutory provisions, (2) exceeds the agency's 5 statutory authority, (3) is based on an unlawful procedure, (4) constitutes legal error, (5) clearly 6 erroneous based on "reliable probative and substantial evidence on the whole record," or (6) 7 "arbitrary and capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion." A. Findings of Fact

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that the hearing officer's factual conclusions are supported by substantial evidence. See Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 249-50 (2014).

Respondent Jose Navarrete ("Navarrete") was terminated for an incident involving another correction officer, Paul Valdez ("Valdez"), and inmate Rickie Norelus ("Norelus") at Southern Desert Correctional Center ("SDCC"). (ROA 583.)

On October 9, 2016, during the breakfast service, Navarrete and Valdez "were randomly searching inmates leaving culinary for contraband." (ROA 583-84.) This search, as well as other searches, are "a common occurrence" at SDCC. (ROA 583.) A surveillance video recorded the incident from a single perspective with no audio. (ROA 583.)

During the hearing at issue, Hearing Officer Mark Gentile ("Gentile") was provided an enhanced and slow motion video of the crucial moments of this incident. (ROA 584, 709-11 & 1150-51.) Navarrete also provided comprehensive testimony regarding what occurred during each stage of the encounter. (ROA 584.) Gentile found Navarrete credible. (ROA 584.)

Gentile also found, "without question":

that Mr. Norelus was acting differently than the other inmates when placed on the wall for a pat down. He was clearly agitated and his hands were not in the proper position. He appears to be continually looking around anxiously. There is, unfortunately, no audio and one cannot determine what is being said by the officers or the inmates - yet, the head and body movements of all reflect, without a doubt, that there was continual chatter by inmate Norelus. The testimony by Mr. Navarrete was that Mr Norelus was being uncooperative and verbally abusive throughout the encounter.

(ROA584.) These findings support Navarrete's testimony that Norelus was noncompliant.

With regard to this incident, Gentile found:

As Officer Valdez abruptly approaches the inmate from behind, the inmate does move backward slightly off the wall and looks over his left shoulder. You can see the inmate's left arm and shoulders slightly moving backwards, but the hands remain on the wall. Officer Valdez then pushes the inmate into the wall, grabs the inmate's neck with his right arm, and wrestles him to the ground.

This all "occurred in a matter of a few seconds." (ROA 585.) Valdez immediately cuffed Norelus once on the ground, and Navarrete came over to assist. (ROA 585.) Gentile found that even with the enhanced video, Valdez' conduct was unjustified. (ROA 585.)

With regard to the post-incident video, that includes audio, Gentile found that while Norelus is leaving the area he is "laughing at the officers and claiming they will 'put his kids through college.'" (ROA 586.) He also "does not appear injured and his conduct makes it seem as if he may have been baiting the officers to some extent, which according to the testimony is a common occurrence" at SDCC. (ROA 586.)

Navarrete later submitted an informational report, which states:

On October 9, 2016 I, Senior Correctional Officer Navarrete was assigned to Search and Escort Southern Desert Correctional Center. At approximately 06:45 hours inmate Norelus #1104257 came off the Culinary wall while C/O Valdez was attempting to restrain him resulting in the spontaneous use of force. When inmate Norelus came off the wall he was resisting and both he and C/O Valdez went to the ground. I then assisted in holding the inmates upper body down so that C/O Valdez could restrain him. I notified supervisors and called medical so that they could respond to the scene. Medical responded and inmate Norelus was escorted to the infirmary to be further evaluated.

With regard to Navarrete's involvement in this incident, Gentile specifically found that NDOC failed to establish "factually by a preponderance of the evidence, that [] Navarrete willfully employed or permitted the use of unauthorized or excessive force" and that "there is absolutely no evidence to reflect that he personally utilized excessive force." (ROA 588.) This is because Valdez' use of force "was quite sudden and was over in a matter of a few seconds." (ROA 589.) Gentile specifically found Navarrete could not have anticipated, nor prevented, Valdez's spontaneous use of force. (ROA 589.)

With regard to the charge of dishonesty in relation to Navarrete's use of force report, Gentile found, as follows:

Navarrete wrote the report without the benefit of reviewing any video - he was trying to assimilate and explain this unexpected event he saw occur literally in a a matter of second. The reality is Mr. Navarrete saw this event (the physical use of force by Officer Valdez) take place in a matter of 2-3 seconds, from a side perspective. He saw it only one time.

(ROA 590.) He then concluded:

Navarrete's report is brief and, essentially, factually accurate given what he reasonably could be expected to have perceived at the time. From his testimony, and even in his pre-hearing interviews, it is clear that he believed, initially, Officer Valdez was intending to restrain the inmate. While this was happening, a spontaneous use of force situation occurred. Norelus did come off the wall as Officer Valdez was either properly or improperly attempting to restrain him, but I do not think Mr. Navarrete could be fairly called up to conclude from his 2-3 second perception whether Officer Valdez' actions were appropriate or not, or whether the take down was initiated by the wrongful conduct of the inmate or of Officer Valdez. The inmate did rock backwards just prior to physical contact. I do not believe that Mr. Navarrete was in the position to know what Officer Valdez perceived or why this ended as it did. Mr. Navarrete's report is a bland statement of events which are, essentially, true. "When he came off the wall he was resisting." They did end up about 15 feet away - inmate Norelus didn't just flop to the ground. Both officers, ultimately, had to restrain the inmate. Once again, this appears, to me, to be a plain statement that appears, essentially true.

Based on these factual findings, and NDOC's failure to prove otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence, Gentile concluded that Navarrete's dismissal from NDOC be reversed with restoration to his prior position with back pay and benefits. (ROA 591.)

B. Conclusions of Law

NRS 233B.135 sets forth the rules of judicial review district courts must follow. Along with NRS 233B.135, the Court finds that O'Keefe v. Dept. of Motor Veh., 134 Nev. 752 (2018), and Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) provide guidance that aids the district court's review on the instant petition. Under the review process found in O'Keefe, a hearing officer must first determine whether the employee in fact committed the alleged violation. O'Keefe, 134 Nev. at 759. When a hearing officer's conclusions of law are closely related to the findings of fact, those legal conclusions must also be afforded deference and may not be disturbed if supported by substantial evidence. Jones v. Rosner, 102 Nev. 215, 719 P.2d 805 (1986).

Since the hearing officer reviews the facts, the applicable standard for this review is the preponderance-of-the-evidence standard. See Nassiri v. Chiropractic Phys. Bd., 130 Nev. 245, 251(2014) (holding that in absence of a specific governing statute, the preponderance of the evidence standard should be applied, as it is the minimum standard to guarantee due process).

The hearing officer ultimately concluded, under step one of O'Keefe and the preponderance of 1 the evidence standard, that Navarrete did not commit the alleged violations. 2 Petitioner failed to prove the hearing officer's decision violated Petitioner's substantial 3 rights under NRS 233B.135(2). To meet this burden, the petitioner must prove the agency's 4 decision (1) violates the constitution or other statutory provisions, (2) exceeds the agency's 5 statutory authority, (3) is based on an unlawful procedure, (4) constitutes legal error, (5) clearly 6 erroneous based on "reliable probative and substantial evidence on the whole record," or (6) 7 "arbitrary and capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion." NRS 233B.135(2). Petitioner 8 failed to prove any of these bases to reverse the hearing officer's decision. 9 Order C. 10 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the hearing officer's 11 ruling is hereby AFFIRMED. 12 DATED this 9th day of October, 2020. 13 14 15 16 17 Respectfully submitted: 18 DATED this ^{2nd} day of October, 2020. 19 LAW OFFICE OF DANIEL MARKS 20 /s/ Nicole M. I guess, I have a copy of the -- and I've read and reviewed the 6 7 petitioner's opening brief, respondent's answering brief, and the reply. And, I guess, we'll go ahead and 9 hand the floor to the petitioner. 02:36:39 10 Ma'am. 11 MS. ALANIS: Yes. Thank you, your Honor. 12 you're aware, we're here on the petition for judicial 13 review of a hearing officer's decision which reversed the dismissal of Mr. Navarrete and reinstated him to 14 his employment. He was dismissed April 21 of 2017. 02:36:55 15 And it was the result of an incident with Correctional 16 17 Officer Valdez, Mr. Navarrete, and Inmate Ricky 18 Norelus. 19 A very brief description of what has occurred, which I'm sure you're already familiar. On October 9 02:37:12 20 21 of 2016, Mr. Navarrete -- or Inmate Norelus was 22 allegedly randomly selected for a search, and then was kept on the wall for approximately 11 minute. 24 At about 10 minutes 47 seconds into the video

Officer Valdez approaches the inmate from behind with

1 both hands, pushes him into the wall, places his arm 02:37:36 around Norelus's neck and brings him to the ground. 3 The video shows there were no restraints out. wasn't -- the testimony supported this wasn't a technique typically used to restrain. 02:37:50 Mr. Navarrete, as the senior officer, was present 6 7 during the entire 11 minutes. And it was NDOC's position that he allowed the incident to occur, didn't intervene. And then following the incident wrote a 9 02:38:09 10 dishonest report. There were five violations that Mr. Navarrete 11 12 was served with in his specificity of charges, or SOC. 13 Three of those violation were under the Nevada Administrative Code Section 284.650, subsection (1), 14 02:38:25 15 Activity incompatible with the employee's conditions of 16 employment. Subsection (10), Dishonesty. 17 Section (21), Any act of violence which arises out of 18 or in the course of his performance of his duties, 19 including stalking, threatening conduct, intimidation, 02:38:44 20 assault, or battery. 21 He was also charged with two other violations 22 under AR 339 for false and misleading statements and unauthorized use of force. However, after the hearing, 23 24 the administrative hearing in this case AR 339 was 02:38:59 25 determined to be invalid. So I won't focus so much on 02:39:03 1 those two administrative regulations unless needed for 2 my argument.

At this point we're asking this Court to set aside the hearing officer's decision because it substantially violated the rights of NDOC for several reasons. And I'll go into each one of those.

First, we feel that there was clear error to rely on AR 339. As I mentioned after the administrative hearing in this case, the Supreme Court, the Nevada Supreme Court issued its decision in NDOC vs. Ludwick, holding that AR 339 was invalid and of no legal effect as discipline. And to rely on it would be clear error of law warranting remand to the hearing officer.

Here, the decision very specifically relies on AR 339. The hearing officer made his factual finding and quotes the specific language found in AR 339.07.9 and AR 339.07.17.

We did get supplemental briefing to the hearing officer telling him that he couldn't rely on this AR, and that it was clear error to do so. Yet, that is specifically which is still found in his decision.

And so on that basis alone NDOC's position is that this matter must be remanded back to the hearing officer because that was clear error.

The second reason is the hearing officer violated the statutory provisions and also engaged in clear error by not making findings regarding the violations under the Nevada Administrative Code. As I mentioned, there were three specific violations that Navarette was charged with.

And NRS 284.794 Section (1) says that a hearing officer shall determine the evidence on the charges and specifications set forth by the appointing authority in the appropriate documents. Which here would be the SOC, the specificity of charges.

Ludwick further held that the hearing officer must address whether the employee's actions constitute violations of NAC 284.650 as listed in the SOC.

Here, the SOC listed those three violations under Sections (1), (10) and (21) of NAC 284.650, yet the hearing officer did not make any findings with respect to those violations. He didn't -- aside from the (indiscernible) in his decision where he was listing the facts of the case and acknowledging the fact that the employee was served with the SOC, he never again addresses the NAC violations.

Again, in the opposing brief Mr. Navarrete doesn't dispute this. He argued that the charges are o2:42:03 1 redundant. But they're not redundant. These are separate charges under the Nevada Administrative Code.

And, in fact, they're the only valid charges in this discipline because the Supreme Court invalidated o2:42:16 5 AR 339.

So in order to determine what the -- whether the dismissal was with just cause has to make findings and rule on the NAC violation. But because the hearing officer failed to do this, again, this is clear error and the second reason why this decision should be set aside in its entirety.

The third reason is that we believe the hearing officer clearly erred when he used the preponderance of the evidence standard. The hearing officer in a few different areas in his decision said that he is making his findings and conclusions relying on the preponderance of the evidence and as stated in the Nisteri (phonetic) case.

The Nisteri case is a licensed revocation hearing. And the correct standard for these disciplinary matters under Chapter 284 is substantial evidence. NRS 284.390 Section (7) requires the hearing officer to determine if the dismissal is supported by just cause.

Just cause has been defined or is synonymous

22

23

24

with legal cause. And as defined in Southwest Gas 02:43:23 1 2 Corp. v. Vargas, a discharge for just or good cause is 3 one which is not for any arbitrary, capricious, or illegal reason, and which is one based on facts supported by substantial evidence and reasonably 02:43:39 believed by an employer to be true. 6 7 All the cases that have followed in the recent times, the O'Keefe case, Adams case, the Ludwick case, 8 all of these cases are administrative hearings under NRS 284.390. 02:43:57 10 11 None of those cases suggest or pulled that 12 preponderance of the evidence is the standard for these 13 administrative hearings. The facts are to be determined whether or not 14 02:44:12 15 they're substantial evidence to support whether or not 16 the incident occurred or whether or not the employee 17 engaged in misconduct.

So the issue for the hearing officer was to determine did substantial evidence support the violations under NAC 284.650 (1) (10) and (21). Was there substantial evidence that he violated the conditions of his employment? Was there substantial evidence that he was dishonest? And was there substantial evidence that he engaged in an act of violence including intimidating, harassment, or 02:44:46 1 assault? And we believe that here the substantial evidence did support the dismissal.

There was a video. While it did not have audio, the video depicted the incident involving these two officers and the inmate.

We have reports that the officers wrote. We have the administrative investigation as well as the criminal investigation which was included. The criminal investigation report and all that evidence was included within the administrative documents, and included interviews from other inmates.

We have substantial evidence that supported that this inmate was singled out, was kept on the wall or an excessive amount of time. That Mr. Navarrete could have intervened. He could have de-escalated the situation. Instead, he patted down the inmate at about -- early on in the video, and then allowed -- didn't release him. But then allowed him to stay on the wall and allowed the situation with Officer Valdez to basically escalate. He allowed the situation to occur while Valdez engaged in excessive or unauthorized force.

He then, the substantial evidence supported that he wrote a dishonest report. It included false statements, misleading statements, omissions. And that

02:46:07 1 was all supported by the substantial evidence of all the testimony and documentary evidence in this case.

So the third reason, again, NDOC believes that the hearing officer erred by using the preponderance of the evidence standard in this administrative hearing which is a higher standard than the substantial evidence.

Fourth, we believe the hearing officer's decision was arbitrary, capricious, and clearly erroneous in view of the reliable probative and substantial evidence in the whole record.

And so here's where we get into more of the, you know, the factual issues of this case.

And, your Honor, I hope you had the opportunity. I believe you did receive a copy of the video when the hearing division submitted the entire record to the Court. I hope that's been available for your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

MS. ALANIS: We believe that the decision is arbitrary, capricious, and undisputed because it's just not supported by the substantial evidence in the record.

The hearing officer has to state the facts upon which his decision is based. And if he doesn't

22

23

think testimony is credible, he needs to explain that. 02:47:13 1 2 And this decision just very summarily talked about the 3 evidence that NDOC presented where we have five witnesses ranging from, you know, a regular line correctional officer, Officer David Wachter. We had a 02:47:28 supervisory investigator, Mr. Rod Moore. 6 associate warden Minor Adams. And at the time of the 7 hearing it was two different wardens that testified 9 Warden Perry Russell and Warden Jerry Howell. 02:47:48 10 So the wide range of testimony we had at different levels of the correctional officer level or 11 12 the command staff there all testified in support that 13 these officers engaged in misconduct, and what was 14 depicted in the video was improper, a violation of the 02:48:05 15 rules, and that the report was also improper and in violation of the rules. 16 17 The hearing officer found that the employee

The hearing officer found that the employee did not willfully employ or permit the use of force and that CAP search is typically completed in a minute or so, but that, you know, Mr. Navarrete wasn't complying.

Yet the substantial evidence just doesn't support the findings that the hearing officer made.

The video doesn't support it. The testimony of Moore, Wachter, Adams, Russell and Howell, they all testified that while the inmate was being fidgety or, you know, was -- appeared anxious, he didn't pose a threat. And he if wasn't complying, there was still no need to keep him on the wall. There were other steps that could have been taken. They could have reported him to the sergeant and taken him down to the sergeant's desk to get a notice of charges.

The substantial evidence showed that if he was, in fact, noncompliant or a physical threat, these officers wouldn't have walked away numerous times with their back toward the inmate, as can be seen in the video. The POST orders and operating procedures for the prison state that inmates are to be counseled in a discrete and timely fashion. That didn't occur here.

As I said, the testimony was that if the inmate wasn't complying, you could restrain him and take him to the sergeant. There is just no evidence in the video or from the testimony that Officer Valdez was going to restrain this inmate. Instead, he just pushed him up against the wall and took him down.

Mr. Navarrete was quiet the entire time, was the senior officer in this case and held to a higher standard. That's what the substantial evidence at this hearing supported. And the decision just seems to completely fail or address -- (telephonic audio glitch) -- what this is in evidence.

02:51:21 25

02:50:02 I'm sorry. Did somebody say something? 1 2 kind of stopped on my end. 3 THE COURT: No, ma'am. You're fine. MS. ALANIS: Okay. Okay. Sorry. The substantial evidence also shows that 02:50:10 Mr. Navarrete was dishonest. The hearing officer found 6 7 that he didn't knowingly and intentionally submit a report, but the hearing officer also then contradicts 9 and says that there were no signs that Valdez had restraints in his hands and that Valdez approached 02:50:28 10 11 Norelus. As he approached him, the inmate's hands 12 remained on the wall. 13 Well, in Mr. Navarette's report he said at approximately 0645 hours Inmate Norelus, No. 1104257 14 02:50:48 15 came off the culinary wall while CO Valdez was 16 attempting to restrain him resulting in spontaneous use 17 of force. That is completely contradictory to what the 18 hearing officer sightings were and a misrepresentation 19 of what had occurred. 02:51:06 20 The testimony also supported that his report 21 lacked details, and that in reporting a use of force 22 there should have been more detail regarding the 11 minutes that this inmate stood on the wall. 23 24 The hearing officer also incorrectly found that Mr. Navarette's perception of the force when he

1 reported it in his incident report was based on two to three seconds. That was complete error. Mr. Navarrete was present for the entire 11 minutes. He stood there.

4 He watched. He engaged with the inmate.

So for him to find that this was perceived off of two or three seconds was complete error. He didn't just walk up suddenly when the use of force occurred. He was there throughout the incident.

I knew there were statements by the hearing officer that the supervisor that was on duty that night, I guess, thought the report was okay. That was Officer Willett, or, Sergeant Willett.

The testimony said that Sergeant Willett only reviewed a report for grammar, for flow. It wasn't his job to determine the facts or to rewrite the report for the employee. He just has to make sure that they filled out the report, it flows, makes sense, and they can submit it. He was not part of the investigative process.

The hearing officer's reliance on his soul searching was also error. Again, the substantial evidence, you know, supported that the employee engaged in misconduct. He did not need to soul search to make those findings.

And the substantial evidence also supported that this inmate was singled out. Officer Wachter 02:52:47 1 testified at the hearing that Valdez -- that he said 2 3 Valdez always had to get in the last word. He had had to counsel him in the past. There were investigations with inmates in the criminal investigation. All of 02:53:02 those inmates stated that Inmate Norelus had been 6 7 singled out. That they were picking on him. one inmate said that the officers were actually 9 singling out African Americans inmates at the prison 02:53:23 10 during that time. The substantial evidence also showed that 11 12 while Mr. Navarrete testified they were cracking down 13 on contraband, the video shows that no other inmates were pulled out of this line. The last inmate is taken 14 to be searched at about eight seconds in. The culinary 02:53:39 15 door closes at about six minutes 20 seconds or 19 16 17 seconds. 18 During that six-minute period 120 inmates 19 leave the culinary. So if they were truly supposed to be checking for contraband, what was happening during 02:53:54 20 21 that time? Mr. Navarrete wasn't searching and doing 22 his search and escort function of his duty. So that 23 further supports the other inmates' statements in the criminal investigation that this particular inmate 02:54:11 25 Mr. Norelus was being singled out.

02:54:14 So the substantial evidence supports the three 1 2 NAC violations. The first being that the conditions of 3 his employment with violated. Mr. Navarrete was supposed to comply with civil rights, administrative regulations, operating procedures, POST orders for his 02:54:28 position. He is not supposed to be singling out, you 6 7 know, patting down, but not releasing the inmates, keeping the inmates on the wall for an excessive amount of time. All of the administrative rules and operating 02:54:47 10 procedures for his job he was in violation of. 11 though he didn't put hands on the inmate, he still 12 allowed that to occur. 13 And, again, as I already mentioned with the dishonesty the substantial evidence supported that 14 NAC 280.650 Section (10) violation. We have several 02:55:03 15 16 people testifying at the hearing, again, from the 17 officer level all the way up to a warden, that the 18 statements made in that report were false, were 19 misleading. 02:55:21 20 They all said that it did appear that the inmate was resisting. And we have testimony from 21 22 Warden Russell the omission is a deception. only were there false statements in the report, but the 23 complete lack of detail and the facts leading up to this use of excessive force were omissions. 02:55:37 25

Lastly, the NRS 284.650 Section (21). Again, as a senior officer, he could have prevented the force. The substantial evidence and testimony from Officer Wachter said that as the senior officer he should have intervened. Associate Warden Adams says he should have intervened. Investigator Moore said it was part of his job. As senior officer those -- the Assistant Warden Adams and Russell said that he should have prevented this use of force.

Again, the decision just completely -- the hearing officer's decision completely fails to address all of the evidence in the record. And not only does it fail to address it, but the substantial evidence supports that Mr. Navarrete engaged in misconduct.

The last issue isn't a reason for this Court to reverse the hearing officer's decision. But the employee did raise in their answering brief an issue that's not appropriately before the Court. And that was whether NDOC had a proper extension of time to pursue this discipline. We believe that argument is without merit and improperly raised. It could have been addressed in a cross petition for judicial review.

The hearing officer didn't base his decision

02:58:11 1 that we were involved in. This isn't a criminal case.

2 This is the sealable hearing officer case in front of

3 Mark Gentile.

There were no inmates called. There was no evidence of any racial profiling, racial bias, or anything racial at all. And you have the video just as Mark Gentile did. So when counsel talks about warden this and warden that, the hearing officer could review the video and see what happened and what didn't happen.

And this isn't like what's on the news. This isn't an Eric Gardner, a Floyd, a Michael Brown. This is a situation where you had a convicted felon, he actually had gone and tried to ax a woman. He was in prison for a felony. The prisoner has not the same rights, obviously, as someone on the street. And they can be stopped and patted down and searched any time. That's not considered harassment in the prison.

There was -- there was a problem of -- to us it sounds minor -- stealing food from the cafeteria and bringing it out. And my client testified the reason that's a problem, it's not like you're in high school doing it because that's traded for contraband, for drugs, and for other things in the prison.

Unlike the officers on the street, the correction officer has no gun, has no weapon.

Essentially he's got his hands, a baton, and pepper 03:00:00 1 spray. So when they keep talking about use of force, 3 this isn't force like we're seeing people hurt, maimed, killed on the street. 03:00:15 This was a bungled attempt to cop the inmate, not by my client but by the other Officer Valdez. 6 7 There were two officers. One was a CO1. My client was the CO2. The evidence, contrary to what my friend the 9 attorney general is saying, my client was not a supervisor in the classic sense. He did not supervise. 03:00:35 10 11 He had more experience, but he was never the supervisor of the other inmate. That's by their own organization 12 13 chart. The other correction officer tried to cuff the 14 03:00:53 15 inmate and a scuffle ensued. My client did nothing. 16 Did not use force or even touch the inmate until they 17 were on the ground. And he used a reasonable use of 18 force necessary to cuff the inmate off. And then the 19 inmate was taken to the sergeant and then the 03:01:15 20 infirmary. 21 You kept looking for what I heard use of 22 I keep looking on the video. Did he hit his head to the ground? Did he kick him? Did he punch 24 him? No. My client used no force. 03:01:29 25 Here, unlike the stuff on TV, these 8 minutes and 10 minutes, the hearing officer found the force was 03:01:33 1 spontaneous. It was a split second when Valdez tried 2 3 to cuff up the inmate. And from where my client was standing, you could see on the video there is 03:01:48 absolutely no way he could stop or do anything. That's why the hearing officer ruled against Valdez in a 7 separate hearing and ruled for my client. Because he took into account the unique circumstances of each 9 case.

We actually, after the Valdez case, filed a motion to recuse the hearing officer. And he already made up his mind. He declined and said, no, I can be fair and open minded.

We actually had other evidence that they didn't have at the first hearing. During the criminal case, we got the second tape which you should have, your Honor. And in that tape, the inmate is laughing after the incident. He's not -- not -- he's not hurt. He's laughing. And he says, you should better train your correction officer. You are going to pay for my kid's college. He's laughing and joking. And we attached the medical reports which showed he was unharmed.

So this is two guys on the ground in a tussle, and then one is restrained. Nobody is hurt. There's officers. So that's the macro picture.

In terms of the law, I think my opponent has

In terms of the law, I think my opponent has the law backwards. If there's substantial evidence to support Hearing Officer Gentile, the district court judge, meaning your Honor, is supposed to affirm even if you have -- and I don't think you needed to watch the video -- a different opinion. Because the facts are supposed to be deferred if there is substantial evidence, which there is, to the hearing officer.

The hearing officer heard the wardens. Then he called a number of correction officers that also included the lieutenant. The hearing officer had the videos and could make his own decision from the videos. The hearing officer had, obviously, my client. They never called the inmate. And they never called Valdez.

The hearing officer had the video and he had our client. And we called a number of other correction officers to testify what they would do in that -- in this situation. And we called our client's sergeant who was promoted to lieutenant who testified he saw nothing wrong with what happened and believed the report was true.

Not just that it was grammatically correct.

Peggy Isom, CCR 541, RMR

1 He believed it was true. But nobody can prove anybody 03:04:26 here because Hearing Officer Gentile, I'm sure you 3 know, is a very experienced defense attorney. He tries jury trials. He's been around a really long time. Hе knows how to analyze evidence. He watched the tape 03:04:40 numerous, numerous times. The stay was also -- there's 6 7 a slow motion version of the tape. The Supreme Court actually has said in the 8 Cotter Graham case that officers have to make 9 split-second decisions. And it's not improper for 03:05:00 10 11 judges to second guess based on in the comfort of their 12 chambers. Yeah, we did that. We second guessed 13 Navarette relative to (indiscernible) because we watched that video probably 12 times. And every time I 14 said I think this all supports my client. That it 03:05:17 15 16 actually goes against what the US Supreme Court said. 17 Because unlike judges and lawyers, often law 18 enforcement has to make a split-second decision and 19 it's -- you can't get into a slow motion Monday morning quarterback. But we did it anyway. We watched it 12 03:05:35 20 21 different times. 22 So we think if you watch both videos and read the hearing officer's decision, which is very 23 comprehensive, he took a lot of time and effort to do 03:05:52 25 it, and he distinguished between the two correction officers, which is what he's supposed to do, individual justice, not just blanket, all law enforcement is never right or wrong. It depends on the circumstances in the case, that the substantial evidence to affirm the decision.

Now I want to talk briefly about some legal points. Because, again, I think my friend the deputy attorney general is making this a lot harder than it has to be.

The Nevada Supreme Court has a case, O'Keefe.

That is the leading case on employee discipline in the state of Nevada for public employees. The Court knows regardless, Southwest Gas is a private employer. It has nothing to do with this. It has absolutely nothing to do with the public sector employment.

Under O'Keefe, there's a three-part test that we all agreed at the hearing part one is the only part that applied. This is really much simpler than my opponent is making it.

Under part one, the sole inquiry is did the conduct happen or not. So my client would -- whether you call it an AR or an NAC was charged essentially with two major violations. One was excessive use of force or letting excessive use of force take place, and the other was dishonesty.

03:07:55 10

03:08:49 25

We never got to O'Keefe two and three because we conceded if he did what they said he did, it would be right to look at O'Keefe two or three which talks about lesser penalties. This was straight was the light red? Was the light green? It's a straight up, a factual analysis.

But under that factual analysis, you can't then have substantial evidence. Because O'Keefe is then have substantial evidence. Because O'Keefe is telling the hearing officer and the district court judges did it happen. And under our law, did it happen or not is preponderance. It needs a lesser than preponderance standard. You'd be violating O'Keefe because you'd be saying if something's substantial evidence that means it's less than 50 percent true that it happened. And that's not compatible with O'Keefe.

So you have to use the other administrative law case that the Supreme Court has called out, and that's Lucero. And that's very compatible because the inquiry for O'Keefe part one is not really the substantial evidence that he did it. It's did he do it or not? What's more likely than not? He's entitled to a de novo hearing under the state personnel system under 14th Amendment property interest in his job. Did he or did he not commit excessive force?

The hearing officer based on all the witnesses, all the evidence, our client was on the 03:08:52 1 stand extensively, he was not only cross examined by 3 the attorney generals office, but Hearing Officer Gentile read the transcript, asked him numerous questions, and made him show, you know, various things. 03:09:08 5 There's an issue, did Valdez use a chokehold 6 or not. Chokeholds are not allowed. 7 Officer Navarrete, our client, on me, showed this is a chokehold. This is what Valdez did. Which was 9 03:09:25 10 basically a bungled attempt to cuff him up and maybe 11 put him in like a force collar or something. 12 Definitely was not a chokehold. 13 But he was essentially cross examined by the hearing officer. There is nothing hidden here. 14 is nothing. There is no place for Navarette to hide. 03:09:41 15 There was an extensive video, two videos. He was on 16 17 the stand. He was subject to cross-examine by the AG 18 and by Officer -- by Hearing Officer Gentile. 19 And the hearing officer found he was credible, 03:09:59 20 that he did not use excessive force, that he could not 21 have stopped Valdez from cuffing the inmate because 22 that was spontaneous. He didn't -- the inmate was 23 never hurt. The only time Navarette touched the inmate was to help Valdez cuff him when they were on the ground. 03:10:18 25 Here the inmate was heard laughing and joking 03:10:22 1 about what happened.

2 He did find

He did find contraband. The video did show the inmate making rude gestures and taking his hand off the wall.

Navarette had a clean, no-discipline record.

There were no complaints. There was no evidence that he did anything or there was any racial, or other bias. So the hearing officer under O'Keefe One rules in his favor.

The whole AR issue gets the state nowhere.

The AR issue in Ludwick says essentially you can't fire someone who is using AR. Meaning if the hearing officer had ruled against us using an AR that has not been properly processed.

Whether it would have to be remand, but essentially the Hearing Officer Gentile said whether he used (indiscernible).

Under O'Keefe, everyone agrees he had to figure out whether there is excessive force. Whether it was an AR or NAC. So you can't (indiscernible) somebody for an argument that if the Supreme Court has ruled is invalid. So that's a nonstarter.

But we tried the case on the merits essentially. We didn't try it on a procedural

3 innocent man falsely accused. He went through a
4 criminal trial in front of a jury on that same theory
03:12:01 5 and prevailed.

And in our case we went to the hearing officer and prevailed that we did not use excessive force.

And under our system, the winning isn't the last word. You can appeal and go to your hearing (indiscernible) you can prove you didn't do what they said you did and prevail, and that's what officer Navarette did.

So, your Honor, it's really as simple as that.

You don't have to reinvent the wheel. At this stage all you have to determine is, there's substantial evidence in the record that Navarette did not use excessive force. He did not lie or was not dishonest on his report, based on his own lieutenant and the hearing officer's conclusion. And based on that, this should be affirmed.

I would point out the decision came down a year ago. It's now taken over a year to get where we are. You had previously ordered Navarette back to work, and he is back to work. Thankfully. The state has still never paid the back pay or the attorney's lien that you had previously ruled in our favor. 03:13:15 1 2 They claim there's problems with the state --3 Whatever they call it -- state payroll. And this is pre-pandemic. There is just no excuse that the state 03:13:32 5 can just hold this money. This has gone on now probably over six months. 6 7 So I know you're really busy, but if we could get an expedited decision so we can finally put this to 8 9 bed, get him -- get us our money, him his money, and 03:13:50 10 his PERS that he's entitled to, I would appreciate it. 11 And I don't know if you have any other 12 questions. I know it's been a long day. I don't want 13 to beat a dead horse. I think this is really a simple 14 and relatively easy decision based on the record that the hearing officer Gentile made. 03:14:07 15 16 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Marks, thank you, sir. 17 And, ma'am, you get the last word. 18 Thank you, your Honor. MS. ALANIS: 19 points here. Mr. Marks noted that no inmates were called at 03:14:24 20 21 the hearing. And I just want to point out, even though 22 I know it's in the record, the criminal investigation was admitted into evidence. And that evidence included 23 the inmates, the four inmates, Mr. Norelus and the 03:14:46 25 three other inmates Williams, White, and Jackson 03:14:51 1 included a summary of the investigation with those 2 inmates.

And so while they weren't called at the hearing, we do have that information from the investigation which was admitted into evidence.

Further, Supervisory Investigator Rod Moore did testify at the hearing at this hearing, Inmate Norelus was singled out. And he was singled out in this instance. So there was evidence of that at the hearing. And when you look at this video, it becomes abundantly clear that once the last inmate is selected, and once we have Inmate Norelus on the wall, no other inmates are searched.

And Inmate Norelus is the only one to have been kept on this wall. We don't need the other inmates to testify. You can see very clearly in this video that he's the only one still standing there after 11 minutes. And while he fidgeted or, you know, maybe he didn't have his hands in the right spot, the white inmate next to him also had to have his hands moved, and, yet, he was patted down and released.

Secondly, we have Mr. Marks talked about this isn't what's depicted in the news and so forth. We understand this is a prison. You know, I deal with this all the time as part of my job here.

03:16:12 I'm not saying that Officer Navarrete cannot 1 2 select an inmate for a pat down or random search. 3 not saying he can't be placed on the wall. But you still have to do those things according to the proper 03:16:30 policies and procedures without violating an 6 individual's rights. Even if that person is an inmate. 7 And what we have here is these two officers placed this inmate on the wall. The testimony 8 9 supported that the length of time he was kept on the 03:16:46 10 wall with his hands above his head was excessive. There was no reason for him to be on the wall. 11 12 If he was fidgety, if he was not compliant, there were 13 other steps that could have been taken. They could have restrained him properly, not the way that they're 14 claiming that they tried to restrain him. They could 03:17:04 15 16 have restrained him. Brought him to the sergeant. 17 They could have -- the fact that they found contraband by having extra food in his sack lunch, if that's 18 19 found, the testimony was you give the inmate a notice 03:17:19 20 of charges. 21 Basically, they're in violation of their 22 discipline there at the prison. And to send them along 23 their way, or you bring them down to the sergeant to 24 issue the notice of charges. Don't keep him on the 03:17:31 25 wall ten minutes because there are other duties that

03:17:34 1 need to be done including searching other inmates, like
2 they should have been doing.

So while I'm not saying that this is what's on the news, we have to acknowledge that officers still have to abide by rules and laws. Just because the inmate is in prison doesn't mean you can push him up against the wall for no reason, keep him on the wall for no reason, and take him down for no reason. And certainly it doesn't encourage officers to write false reports.

You know, that was the testimony we had. Is that the associate warden and the warden have to be able to rely on these reports. It's upon the officers to be truthful and to properly report things. And Officer Navarrete did not do that.

He made false statements, omissions. He didn't properly report to the supervisor or to the sergeant about what was occurring. He just did not follow the administrative regulation, the operational procedures, civil rights, he just did not follow the rules that were in place for him.

Mr. Marks said that when Valdez was trying to cuff him, you know, there was a scuffle. That's just the point. He was not trying to cuff him. Even the hearing officer found that he did not cuff him. There

03:18:52 1 was no sign of restraints. There was no sign that he
2 was actually trying to cuff him.

This was about a 11-minute occurrence, these two officers keeping the inmate on the wall and harassing him. Nowhere in the substantial evidence in the testimony does it support what occurred on this video.

As far as, you know, he couldn't do anything to stop the force, he could. That was what the evidence and testimony supported as well.

Administrative -- the administrative regulations of the prison and the operational procedures support that as a senior officer, it's required to supervise the other officers. He trains them. Sometimes he has to act as a sergeant if there isn't another one available that day. He has a higher responsibility. That was the testimony at the hearing.

And he allowed -- could have intervened. The testimony supported he could have intervened. He could have de-escalated the situation. More importantly, he was the one would patted down Inmate Norelus. So it was within his control to release him. But instead, he decided, Mr. Navarette, to keep Norelus on the wall and allow this situation to continuously escalate with Officer Valdez, where we can see waiting it off to the 03:20:12 1 point where finally he pushes the inmate into the wall.

2 The substantial evidence supported that he could have

3 done something.

Again, it wasn't a split second decision.

This went on for 11 minutes. This wasn't two or three seconds of him observing what occurred. This was something that escalated over about 11 minutes.

And, you know, with all due respect I'm not trying to make this harder than its supposed to be.

But O'Keefe, I acknowledge, has three steps. And we -the hearing officer did make the determination under step one. We never reached step two or three. That is very clear from the hearing officer's decision.

However, step one of whether or not the conduct occurred is based on substantial evidence.

O'Keefe never mentions preponderance of the evidence. The statute that governs administrative decisions for disciplinary matters do not state that the stand is preponderance of the evidence. It is just cause.

And while Southwest Gas is not a state dismissal, it is an employment matter and talks about just cause and the substantial evidence to support the facts.

O'Keefe also references the substantial of the evidence is nowhere in play in the governing statutes and case law on these administrative cases.

The Nisteri case, again, is not a disciplinary matter. It is a license revocation hearing.

And, you know, again, the substantial evidence we believe showed that, you know, the choke -- it was a chokehold. He took his arm and put it around his neck and took him down. We have that testimony from probably at least three different people: Investigator Moore, Assistant Warden Adams, and, I believe, it was Warden Russell.

This decision is filled with error. Again, the soul searching. We did not need the hearing officer to soul search on whether or not this was a false report. He had to make the decision based on the substantial evidence. And the substantial evidence supported not only was it a violation under NAC 284.650(1) and -- 21 -- but also under number (10) with the dishonesty.

His reliance on AR 339, again, the hearing officer did specifically use the AR 339 language. And while Mr. Marks says that it's only if we relied on discipline for that issue, that's not what Ludwick says. Ludwick says if the hearing officer relies on 03:22:56 1 AR 339 for any purpose, it is clear error. And the

2 hearing officer did that. We told him not to rely on 3 AR 339, but he cited the specific language of those 4 regulations.

He was required to make a ruling on the NAC violations. And he was required to look at the substantial evidence in making that ruling.

The criminal trial is completely irrelevant in this case. The substantial evidence supports that Mr. Navarette engaged in the misconduct. And while we're not here on the attorneys lien and all that jazz, you know, that's not what we're here for. We're only here for the merits on the petition for judicial review. NDOC has complied and done their part.

And central payroll -- the central payroll, I don't know what's happening there. So I just wanted to address to your Honor, you know, my client is doing what they have to do. And I don't know what's happening with the other state agencies. I have followed up for Mr. Marks on that issue.

So with that, we will, again, ask that your Honor set aside the hearing officer's decision and either cancel the dismissal or remand to the hearing officer for reasons that we've already stated.

THE COURT: All right. Ma'am, thank you.
