19 ON BEHALF OF DEFENDANT CLEMON HUDSON

20 COMES NOW, the Defendant, CLEMON HUDSON, by and through his attorney of 21 record, ALEXIS A. PLUNKETT, ESQ. of the LAW OFFICE OF ALEXIS PLUNKETT, and 22 hereby submits the following Sentencing Memorandum for the Court's consideration.

23 DATED this 20 day of June, 2018.

24 LAW OFFICE OF ALEXIS PLUNKETT

25 ALEXIS PLUNKETT, ESQ.
26 Nevada Bar No. 11245
27 2657 Windmill Parkway #613

Attorney for Defendant

1 SENTENCING MEMORANDUM

2 I. Introduction.

3 This matter comes before the Court upon a guilty verdict following jury trial. This office
4 was brought on after the jury verdict and did not represent Mr. Hudson at trial. Mr. Hudson's
5 family has retained an attorney separate from this office to pursue any type of appellate or post-
6 conviction review opportunities.

8 II. We are respectfully requesting that this Court consider the attached exhibits and 9 counsel's oral argument at sentencing before making a decision.

10 This office was brought on for sentencing alone and was considering a continuance to 11 complete a full sentencing memorandum and obtain Mr. Hudson's relevant medical records,
12 which were recently ordered. This Court will not have a criminal calendar as of July 2018, and it
13 is our understanding that a continuance would result in a different judge sentencing Mr. Hudson
14 and his co-defendant, as opposed to this trial Court. Therefore, we have decided to move forward
15 with a shorter sentencing memorandum and are requesting the Court's consideration for our oral 16 argument regarding a possible sentence.

18 i. Complete Lack of Criminal History

19 As evidenced by the PSI, Clemon Hudson has absolutely no criminal history
20 whatsoever—no felony convictions, no misdemeanor convictions, no prior prison terms, no
21 probation, no parole, and no arrests at all prior to the instant matter. Mr. Hudson is not affiliated 22 with a gang and does not have an illicit drug problem.

24 ii. Family support

25 Clemon Hudson has an incredible amount of family support, and this is evidenced by the 26 attached support letters and those who plan to be in attendance at sentencing. See Exhibit A;
27 support letters. Mr. Hudson was raised in a two-parent home and grew up playing sports and 28 going to church. See Exhibit B; church certificate. See Exhibit C; photos. Mr. Hudson has a

1 two-year-old daughter who lives locally with her mother.

2 Mr. Hudson was diagnosed with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder as a child and is
3 not currently seeking treatment, but we believe this issue could have affected Mr. Hudson's
4 thinking and thought process in general. We ordered Mr. Hudson's relevant medical records on 5 an emergency basis but did not receive them prior to the sentencing date.

7 III. Conclusion

8 We respectfully request that this Court consider Mr. Hudson's extensive family support
9 and complete lack of criminal history in making a sentencing decision. Further, this office 10 represents inmates at parole release hearings and handles ancillary inmate issues and occasional 11 civil rights cases—plain and simple, this is not the type of the case where the Board will grant 12 parole (based on the underlying facts alone).

14 In our extensive experience, Mr. Hudson could be a model inmate for his entire prison
15 term and his likelihood of being granted parole is still incredibly, incredibly small. We ask that 16 this Court consider the back number in deciding a sentence as opposed to the front number,
17 because we genuinely believe that Mr. Hudson is likely to expire whatever sentence imposed. We 18 believe in light of all circumstances, an appropriate sentence in this matter would include thirty 19 (30) years at the back end with Mr. Hudson expected to expire rather than parole. Thank you for 20 your consideration.

Parents of Clemon Hudson

Mr. & Mrs. Clemon Hudson

5713 Eugene Ave

Las Vegas, Nv. 89108

Honorable Judge Bailus

C-15-309578-2

Dear Judge Mark Bailus,

First we would like to address the court with a sincere and honest apology on behalf of our son Clemon Hudson.

We want to let everyone know how Godly sorrowful we are especially to Officer Roberts for the injury he encountered.

We would like to give some insight of the type of parents Clemon was raised by. We have been a sounding pillar of the community for over 20 plus years here in our home. I, Karen(mom) have been serving in the ministry for many years as a Sunday School Teacher even before Clemon was born. we taught Clemon values of great morals, respect and kindness toward all people. Clemon (dad) have always been there help guiding him in the right direction, and most of all taught Clemon the importance of working to make a living for himself. We would have never imagine anything of this magnitude to happen to our family of this sort. We truly don't know how he got so far off track from what he was taught, but we do feel that this incident has shaken Clemon to his very core and feel he realized how quick things can happen and spend out of control.

We are grateful to God that Clemon did not shoot anyone, we realized that Clemon made an irresponsible decision being involved in dealing with a gun and going to someone home with it.

It is our pray that Officer Roberts find it in his heart to forgive our son for his careless action.

Your Honor please consider this letter on behalf of our son Clemon Hudson.

Sincerely,

Clemon & Karen Hudson

FROM: (Angela Merritt)

My name is Angela Merritt, and I am a cousin to Clemon Lamar Hudson. I am the daughter of Edward and JoAnn Merritt. I have known Lamar ever since he was born. I have seen how he interacts with family members and at family functions such as church events and family reunions. Clemon Lamar Hudson is an intelligent young man, who has shown the family he can overcome and succeed through many of life's obstacles. He is still a young man full of life, with spontaneity, peace, and love for his family.

I am a teacher in Fort Myers, Florida. I have been teaching for the past 17 years at Dunbar High School as an English Teacher. After teaching for the past 17 years in the educational system and seeing what I see with our youth, I understand the tragedy that occurs to many of our youth today. I know that our children are our future and they need saving. Also, I have never heard of, or witnessed Lamar act out of character or become disrespectful in any capacity.

The information contained in this statement is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge, belief and recollection. I submit this statement of my own free will, and no one has persuaded or coerced me to submit it.

Re: Clemon Hudson

To: The Honorable Judge Mark Bailus

My name is Tyler Hudson sibling of Clemon Hudson

Clemon and I have been raised by two loving and respectful parents in the same family unit, for whatever length of time that I can recall, we have been brought up in the fear and reverence of the Lord.

our whole family was shocked of the news of my sibling being involved in such seriousness of this kind, he has never been stuck in an unfortunate situation and never been the sort to do anything that would cause our folks any huge dissatisfaction. as Clemon's only youthful sibling, I lived intimately with him growing up and I can state that he has dependably driven an exceptionally positive way of life; showing me all that I know originating from skateboarding to baseball, to driving and notwithstanding helping me with my math homework. he is likewise an exceptionally given sibling who adored his music so much he would have yielded all that he have to me.

Clemon has never been included with ransacking and unquestionably doing as such with weapons, did not have any criminal record. he has clarified to me amid our discussions that what he did was a major objection to where we originate from, he is my big brother, my spine. I counsel with him about things in life generally, he gives advice to me when I really need someone to talk to. Furthermore, now he isn't with me, I miss him in particular!!!

it is my earnest expectation the court takes this letter notwithstanding the present case, despite everything, I trust Clemon Hudson to be a respectable individual and a better person due to being away from his family.

Sincerely,
Tyler Hudson

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is JoAnn Merritt one of ten aunts to Clemon Lamar Hudson, on his father's side, who is Clemon Hudson jr. I retired from Gale Research as an Associate Editor for 15 years. I truly love this young man. He is the only young man who has demonstrated at a young age his desire to take care of me. That was truly amazing since he was only ten years old at that time, for a young man to make a vow of that magnitude to me his aunt. I am now 70 plus years young, and I believed that he would, if he could, in his own loving way.

We were pleased and honored when asked to write a character reference for Lamar. We are aware of the serious infractions he is faced with. Yet, we feel compelled to offer our opinion and observation of Clemon Lamar Hudson. My Husband Edward Merritt now retired from Ford Motor Co in 2007 as a Service Engineer for 30 years and I have known him every since he was born to Karen and Clemon Hudson jr. Both of Lamar's parents were raised to teach children to honor and respect to others and their property. I know because of his up-bringing that he is truly remorseful of his actions.

Overall and in conclusion, we respectfully request that this character reference be considered in your decision regarding an appropriate sentence in this chase.

Sincerely yours,
Edward and JoAnn Merritt

The honorable Judge Mark Bailus
RE: Sentencing of Clemen Hudson
C-15-309578-2

I am Adrian Elias, Mr. Hudson's older cousin. I'm 28 years old, moved here from California in 2003. I attended Valley High School where I graduated in June of 2008. I proceeded my education as I attended College Of Southern Nevada while studying Criminal Justice. After a few semesters I placed my dreams on hold to start a family with my fiancé of 5 years. I'm well aware of the charges Mr. Hudson is facing. However, I'm more than happy to offer an endorsement of Mr. Hudson's good character.

I've been around around Mr. Hudson for all of his life. Even though we are cousins we grew up much more like siblings. Our parents raised us in church where we attended every Sunday. We're a very close family. Mr. Hudson have always been a positive and generous person. I remember one summer weekend I spent with his family, Mr. Hudson and his brothers had all got new toys and he got a new basketball and court. Me being a female I wasn't basketball savvy. However, Mr. Hudson would invite me outside to play basketball with him and friends. He would be eager to teach me how to do tricks and make different shots. Even when I become flustered and wanting to give up, he wouldn't let me. He would encourage me to keep trying! Told me it's ok to not make the basket but to keep trying. He's such an positive and light energy to be around! I can go on and on about the person Mr. Hudson is but this is just an small instance, along with many others giving an example of Mr. Hudson's reputation of love and generosity in our family.

Thank you for you're time your honor.

To whom it may concern.

I am one of Clemon Lamar Hudson's older cousin and pleased to have the opportunity to let you know of my personal experience with my cousin Lamar.

I am currently residing in Omaha Nebraska, and a few years ago I had the pleasure of living with my Uncle Clemon in Las Vegas Nevada. This encounter was the first time I was able to visit with my younger cousins for longer periods of time and was able to truly get to know my cousins heart and spirit.

Our parent raised us to do right, be honorable, decent and in order. This is not restricted to just inside the house but in this world as well. My Uncle Clemon Hudson raised his sons to walk in this exact light. I witnessed Lamar attending Sunday school every Sunday as well as working on the Church property Saturday mornings putting together "go" bags and handing them out to the homeless. He also displayed this kind of enthusiasm at home, I know this because I was his baby sitter sometimes.

This is Lamar, a kind, mindful, polite, young man

Greetings addressing the court respectfully,

I'm writing this letter in regards to Clemon Lamar Hudson. I've known this young man and his family for many years since he was a child. He comes from a very blessed beautiful family, salt of the earth. He has always been a respectful young man with a good heart. I'm sure you see letters of this sort alot. Truly this is not a hard hearted young man. He is a young man who always was close to family and doing honorable things. It saddens my heart that he has found himself in this predicament. He comes from a very solid foundation and loving wonderful family. Truly I love this young man dearly and am praying God's best for him. I love him dearly and his family. He has never been anything but a kind respectful young man. My prayers and heart are definitely with him. Thank you for taking time to read this letter. Very Sincerely, Renee Hazziez

Dear Judge Bailus:

My name is Juanita Watson, and I am writing a letter on behalf of my cousin, Clemon Lamar Hudson. I am the mother of one daughter and a son-in-law, grandmother of seven and great-grandmother of three. I am a Contracts Administrator for a commercial real estate company based in Santa Monica, CA.

Lamar, as he is affectionately called by his family, is my first cousin, my uncle's son. I have known him his entire life. This young man grew up in a two-parent Christian home, and has been sheltered, shielded and protected by his loving family who have surrounded and supported him his entire life.

Lamar is a very kind, gentle young man and it is always a pleasure visiting his home in Las Vegas, NV. The whole family is very loving, warm and welcoming and we always have a wonderful time together whether during holidays or summer vacations, since Lamar was born. I miss him very much and I pray he comes home soon.

Thank you.

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Evelyn Williams and I am the younger sister of Karen Hudson and the youngest of Clemon Jr's aunts. The purpose of this letter is to bare witness to the positive character of Clemon Lamar Hudson Jr. I have a son very close in age to Clemon, who we affectionately refer to by his middle name "Lamar", and my son and the rest of his cousins grew up together in Vegas like brothers. Ever since Lamar was a kid he has always been a mild mannered, calm and even-tempered individual. I can honestly not remember a time when I saw him angry. Lamar grew up in a devout Christian household with two loving entrepreneurial parents and a very intelligent older brother who set a great example for both of his younger brothers. Prior to this incident Lamar never had any problems with the law or any other area.

From as far back as I can remember Lamar has always been a smart brave young man and a leader of his younger cousins. As a child he taught himself and the rest of the boys how to skateboard, mastering many difficult tricks. He also taught himself how to do all types of flips on and off the trampoline. I always admired that he had such a bright and determined mind. Lamar was obedient, never disrespectful, and very helpful around the house. Our family has always been very close; growing up Lamar never missed a family gathering. He was always there to make us smile.

Lamar is an important part of this family and we miss him terribly. While I can't explain this situation, I know Lamar is remorseful for the decisions he made.

Since he's been away, he's been blessed with a beautiful daughter who will suffer without a father as she grows older. I know Lamar would do anything to care and be a good example for her and if given the opportunity I truly do not believe he would make the same mistakes ever again. If given the opportunity I know Lamar would be an outstanding citizen positively to society and taking care of his beautiful baby girl. Please consider this letter from someone who has been able to watch Lamar grow from an infant as you make any further decisions about his life.

Respectfully,

Evelyn Williams

Judge Mark Bailus,

Regarding: Clemon Hudson-C-15-309578

He is a well-mannered and very respectful young man. He was brought up in a home with love, sound teaching, and strong morals. He also attended Sunday school and church services every Sunday.

At the mercy of the court, I'm asking that Clemon be given the lightest sentence possible, because he has no criminal record beside this, and I personally believe that he would do better if he is given the opportunity. I've known him for almost twenty years, and I have known him to be a mild-mannered person. I feel this was an awakening moment for him.

Please consider this character letter on his behalf.

To Whom This May Concern,

This letter is a character reference of Clemon Lamar Hudson. Clemon Lamar has been a shy young man. He was always willing to learn and very attentive in attending Believers in Christ Ministries. Lamar has always been positive in working with others, but has a reserve attitude of being often to himself, not normally being with a crowd or group. He mostly stay close to home, strength, always fair, honest, kind appreciation for family and caring for others. He has respect for the authority and reference for faith in God.

I am Pastor Tapplin, whom which has served him and his family while being a part of Believers in Christ Ministries. He has helped feed the Homeless, Cleaned the church and participated in helping with the Children's Ministry. I think his character, respect, attitude and behavior was always good and well to be around. His family has always taught and showed Lamar the best way to handle himself in crisis and difficult situations. I believe he has the right upbringing and manners to make positive decisions. I would rule in favor of Clemon Lamar being a positive child and adult in his community. I believe his fear and respect for authority have a heart as a believer to conduct himself in a community to be positive and honorable. His behavior and judgement receive favorable results in what he say or do.

Sincerely

Re: Sentencing of Clemon Lamar Hudson, III, Case No. C-15-309578-2

Dear Judge Mark Bailus,

My name is Contessa Handy, a dearest and close aunt of Clemon Lamar Hudson, III. I have been in his life all his earthly beings. I know Clemon to be a young man of strong moral character who treats others with courtesy and respect. I admire that in him! He joined church and was baptized at an early age. His upbringing involved his Christian parents, relatives, and family friends. The parents, being very protective and close-knit to their children, instilled Christian and Family values at a very early age, taking them to Church; Sunday school; Bible study; hosting weekly Prayer meetings in their home where other families and neighbors were invited to attend; family gatherings; feeding and clothing the homeless; and, by parents interpretation, a part of God's plan of action ("A family that pray together, stay together"). We will never want him to think that the family will stop loving him and God want forgive him because that will be ludicrous!

Clemon attended Western high school in Las Vegas, Nevada. Some of his greatest high school sports attributes were playing varsity football and baseball. He really excelled in those two varsity levels. In his pastime, he enjoys playing video games, champion of "All."

Just seeing Clemon in jail attire, the battered look on his face, scared and confused, brought tears to our eyes, especially his parents. He's trying to be strong for the family but found it very hard to look our way. We believe he realizes that he made a grave mistake and being incarcerated is a reality. We love him and will always be there for him.

I would like to thank you for your time in reading family and friends character reference letters about my nephew. I hope they have provided helpful context for understanding the type of person Clemon truly is.

Your Honor, please take under consideration this is his first offence. He has never been in trouble before.

Thanking you in advance!

Sincerely,

Contessa Handy

THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 2018, AT 9:49 A.M.

THE COURT: Case number C309578, State versus Steven Turner and Clemon Hudson. Counsel, state your appearances, please.

MR. GIORDANI: Good morning, Your Honor, John Giordani on behalf of the State.

MS. PLUNKETT: Good morning, Judge, Alexis Plunkett for Clemon Hudson.

MS. MACHNICH: Tegan Machnich and Ashley Sisolak for Mr. Turner.

MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And we're going to do this in order as they appear on the calendar. And so Mr. Turner is first on calendar. Now, counsel, I've been notified that we're going to have victim impact statements.

MR. GIORDANI: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I called the cases together so the -- will the parties stipulate that the statements that are made today by the victims are to be applied to both Defendants; is that correct?

MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Do the parties stipulate to that?

MS. PLUNKETT: Yes, Your Honor.

MS. SISOLAK: Yes, Your Honor.

MS. MACHNICH: That's absolutely fine, Your Honor. We actually would be fine with the State making -- and I don't know if the

1 State's argument is substantially different for both co-defendants. We
2 would have no opposition to them just -- us going State, Defense,
3 Defense.

4 THE COURT: I don't want to do that because they're co-
5 defendants and they're going to have separate issues for appellate
6 review, so I want to keep the record as clean as I can.

7 MS. SISOLAK: Understood, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: That's why I'm asking parties to stipulate. And 9 at the end of each victim impact statement I'll give the Defense an 10 opportunity to ask questions of that victim as they make their statement;
11 okay?

12 MR. GIORDANI: Yes. And our only request would be that the 13 victims be able to speak last.

14 THE COURT: That's correct. Well, it's going to be last as to 15 Mr. Turner. Oh, I see what you're saying.

16 MR. GIORDANI: No, just once at the end of the whole thing is
17 what we would ask.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So, you want me -- I think what the
19 State is requesting -- as long as the Defense doesn't have a problem I'm 20 going to do the preliminary matters together. Then you want both the 21 Defense counsel to make their argument at the same time?

22 MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, that's how we would do it on a --

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. GIORDANI: -- typical co-defendant --

25 THE COURT: So, both Defense counsel will then make your

1 argument at the same time, and then we'll do the victim statements.

2 Is that satisfactory with everyone?

3 MR. GIORDANI: Yes.

4 MS. MACHNICH: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MS. PLUNKETT: Yes, Judge.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. This is the time set for
7 entry of judgement and imposition of sentence. Is there any legal cause
8 or reason why judgement should not be pronounced at this time?

9 MS. MACHNICH: No, Your Honor.

10 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

11 THE COURT: State?

12 MR. GIORDANI: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: No, no. Is there any reason we shouldn't go
14 forward --

15 MR. GIORDANI: No.

16 THE COURT: -- at this time?

17 MR. GIORDANI: No.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Mr. Turner, by verdict of the jury, I hereby adjudge you guilty
20 of the offenses of Count 1 conspiracy to commit burglary, Count 2
21 attempt burglary while in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon,
22 Counts 3 and 4 attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon, and Count
23 5 battery with use of a deadly weapon resulting in substantial bodily 24 harm.

25 Mr. Hudson, by verdict of the jury, I hereby adjudge you guilty

1 of Count 1 conspiracy to commit burglary, Count 2 attempt burglary while
2 in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon, Counts 3 and 4 attempt
3 murder with use of a deadly weapon, and Count 5 battery with use of a
4 deadly weapon resulting in substantial bodily harm.

5 State, what's your position on sentencing?

6 MR. GIORDANI: Thank you, Your Honor. I won't rehash the
7 entirety of the facts; you sat through a lengthy trial in this case, but what I
8 will do is remind the Court of a couple of things that came out during the 9 trial.

10 First off, there were two confessions given, one by each
11 Defendant, that were heavily redacted in order to be presented to the 12 jury, but I want to remind the Court that those statements are not invalid
13 for any reason or suppressed for any reason, and in those statements
14 both of these Defendants confessed that they were going over to this 15 home of Eric Clarkson and Willoughby Grimaldi in order to commit a
16 dope rip or a robbery.

17 As Your Honor's fully aware, they went over there heavily
18 armed. They went -- Mr. Turner went with an SKS rifle or what was 19 referred to a couple times as an AK-47. Mr. Hudson went with a 20 shotgun.

21 When they got to that home they repeatedly tried to get in
22 through the front door, the side door -- or -- side window and the back
23 door. Police are called, then you have that ten-minute -- ten or so minute
24 9-1-1 call in which the victims, who are present here in court today, were 25 absolutely terrified that there were armed men outside their home trying

1 to get in.

2           Officers Robertson and Grego-Smith respond to the call, get
3 to that home. They do what they're trained to do, they approach
4 tactically, they get to the back door, and without warning as soon as that
5 door is opened Mr. Turner fires his SKS rifle striking Mr. -- or -- Officer
6 Robertson, dropping him to the ground. Mr. Hudson then fires his
7 shotgun and because Officer Robertson went to the ground, he missed
8 entirely. It went over, narrowly missing the victims as well.

9           There were two other rounds fired from that SKS rifle. There
10 were no other rounds fired by the shotgun and that's because Officer
11 Grego-Smith put himself between his downed partner and the assailants,
12 and returned fire. And you'll recall one of those rounds struck the 13 shotgun, rendering it inoperable. So, you know, I can speculate as to 14 whether he would have kept firing. I won't do that. He fired at least one
15 round, and that round was intended to kill.

16           When you shoot a shotgun -- I don't know if Your Honor's shot
17 a shotgun before, but when you do you would understand you shoot that 18 at a human being, your intent is one thing and one thing only and that's 19 to kill.

20           The return fire from Officer Grego-Smith caused Mr. Turner to 21 drop his gun like a coward and flee. And then Mr. Hudson was struck in
22 his gun, went down, and was apprehended on the scene by the K-9
23 units. It was shortly thereafter, three hours later that Mr. Turner was 24 caught on the perimeter. He had that frag in his leg. He then was taken
25 into custody and ultimately gave those statements that I discussed

1 earlier.

2           What I'm asking this Court to do is sentence each Defendant
3 generally to the same sentence. As to Mr. Turner, because he actually
4 struck Officer Robertson changing his life forever, I'm asking for 16 to 40
5 years. That is eight to 20 on one count of attempt murder with use of a
6 deadly weapon, and a consecutive eight to 20 on the other count of 7 attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon. I believe that is an 8 appropriate sentence. It's in the midrange for each count.

9           I do believe that these victims should be treated separately
10 because one of the issues that you'll recall that the Defense raised and 11 the Defendants actually said in their statements generally was they didn't 12 know who they were shooting at. And my -- first I think that's a joke and 13 frankly just inaccurate, but even if you accept that as true, they're either
14 shooting at Clarkson and Willoughby or they're shooting at Officer
15 Grego-Smith and Officer Robertson.

16           So, in any event, whatever you accept as their mindset at the 17 time, there are two victims at least, and those two victims should be 18 treated separately. They're separate crimes. That's why I'm asking for 19 consecutive terms on the attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon.

20           I'll end with this, Your Honor. This crime changed Officer
21 Robertson's life forever. It changed Metro's approach to things. And I
22 can just say there are a number of officers in the courtroom in support.
23 This crime had a major impact on the law enforcement community.

24           If -- anyone who's here on this case in support of the officers
25 would you please stand briefly?

1 As you can see, Your Honor, this crime didn't just impact
2 Officer Robertson. It didn't just impact Officer Grego-Smith. It didn't just
3 impact Eric Clarkson and Willoughby Grimaldi, but it impacted the law
4 enforcement community.

5 You guys can have a seat.

6 This -- whatever their mindset was at the time, this was
7 egregious, egregious conduct. Had that bullet that came out of that SKS
8 rifle gone two centimeters to the right, we would be sitting here on a first
9 degree murder felony murder case. And during a felony murder, of 10 course, if someone dies it doesn't matter whether it's intentional,
11 unintentional or accidental. By the grace of God he didn't die. I
12 understand that, and that's why I'm not asking for the minimum of 20;
13 what it would be on a first of, course.

14 I think 16 to 40 years is appropriate as to Mr. Turner because 15 he's the one who actually struck Officer Robertson. As to Mr. Hudson,
16 while I believe he had the same exact intent and the only reason he
17 didn't strike anyone is because his firearm was hit by Officer Grego-
18 Smith's return fire, I do believe that there should be a little less on the 19 bottom for him. So, as to him I'm asking for 14 to 40, and that's two 20 years off the bottom on his sentence.

21 With that, I will submit it to the Court and just remind the Court
22 that we have five victim speakers and ask them to speak at the very end
23 once everyone else has. Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 Mr. Turner, before your attorney speaks is there anything

1 you'd like to tell the Court on your own behalf before I pronounce
2 sentence?

3 MS. SISOLAK: Your Honor, I have a letter I'd like to read for
4 Mr. Turner. He's incredibly nervous, and based upon the fact that this
5 was a trial case and there is a mandatory appeal, I would ask that I be
6 able to read the statement.

7 THE COURT: That's fine.

8 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 First and foremost I would like to apologize to everyone
10 involved in this case, to the officers, the homeowners. I'm deeply sorry.
11 None of this was supposed to happen. There is no excuse. I allowed my 12 judgement to be clouded and I put myself and others in a position none
13 of us should ever be in. I also want to apologize to my family. I was 14 raised better than this, and I feel I let you all down.

15 To the Court, I ask you to show leniency as to -- as you see fit.
16 I have no prior convictions. I was a functioning member of society, and I
17 made a bad decision. I have to deal with the consequences for the rest
18 of my life.

19 I've thought about this day for the last 1,022 days to be able to 20 tell you all how deeply sorry I am, and I hope one day you will all forgive
21 me. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Mr. Hudson, before your attorney speaks is there anything
24 you'd like to tell the Court on your own behalf before I pronounce
25 sentence?

1 MS. PLUNKETT: Judge, I've advised him to not make a
2 statement.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 Who is going to be making the argument on behalf of Mr.
5 Turner?

6 MS. MACHNICH: I --

7 MS. SISOLAK: Ms. Machnich will be, Your Honor.

8 MS. MACHNICH: Yes. May I proceed?

9 THE COURT: You may.

10 MS. MACHNICH: Your Honor, this case is a tragedy all
11 around, and at no point during the process, during the trial, during the 12 sentencing will we be trying to say that lives were not changed and 13 affected for the rest of their lives.

14 We know that the homeowners will likely never feel safe in 15 their homes and have bad memory. We know that the officers who were 16 present on scene -- and from the witness notice that turned out to be 17 several hundred officers -- but specifically the officers directly affected in 18 this case will be scarred forever.

19 Officer Grego-Smith had to fire his service weapon and be 20 present when his fellow officer went down, not knowing if he would get
21 back up. And Officer Robertson sustained a very, very serious injury that
22 he made clear during trial, and made just clear from the documentation,

24 And none of us are trying to downplay what happened here.
25 Mr. Turner has wanted to take responsibility for this. Your Honor recalls

1 pretrial and the fact that there was a contingent offer. Mr. Turner did not
2 want to put anyone through this process and he was ready to take
3 responsibility at that time and he is ready to take responsibility today.

4           So, without downplaying any of the suffering by any of the 5 victims, their families, their futures -- and this will stay with each and
6 every one of them for the rest of their lives. This will also stay with Mr.
7 Turner for the rest of his and his family for the rest of theirs. He has
8 some family members present, including his mom who's been involved
9 throughout this entire case. Mr. Turner's life will never be the same. He
10 made a very bad decision; possibly the worst decision in -- I would say
11 what would be the worst decision of his life.

12           He came from a situation where he was working. He had 13 family, a fiancé, a loving mother; he had people in his life; a loving father,
14 cousins. Everyone was there for him, and he made this choice. And he 15 has never shied away from this choice and the fact that it was a decision
16 that he made.

17           Now, that being said, Mr. Turner is someone who did not have
18 a criminal history. He was not someone -- I believe there was a submittal
19 on a DUI that would have been dismissed. He had nothing else in his 20 history. He was not someone who toted around guns or knew anything
21 about them, dealt with them on a normal basis. He is not someone who 22 went out and robbed people on a normal basis. He is not someone who 23 was terrorizing the community. This was completely out of character for 24 him.

25           And because of his complete lack of criminal history -- who

1 he -- I -- you've observed him through the entire trial, Your Honor, before
2 trial, all of his demeanor in court, the fact that he has taken responsibility.
3 We are going to ask for something substantially less than the State is.
4 And we believe that an adequate sentence in this case -- because I don't
5 think there's a good sentence.

6 This is someone who's never been to jail substantially before,
7 much less prison. A year in prison is going to feel like ten years in prison
8 to him because he's not acclimated to that; he doesn't know. And as 9 much as we don't want to say that it's easier for people who have been
10 there before, it is easier for people who have been there before.

11 We're asking for an eight to 20-year sentence on this. We
12 have no problem with Your Honor dispersing that amongst the counts
13 how you deem fit, no problem punishing him for each of the counts so 14 that he feels the specific impact of what he has done to each of the 15 victims. But eight to 20 years, that is the maximum on a small habitual
16 criminal treatment; someone who gets maxed out on having committed
17 three or more felonies when they come before a District Court judge in 18 sentencing. Mr. Turner is not a habitual criminal.

19 So, when we're looking at the reasons for sentencing and 20 we're looking at recidivism, Mr. Turner has learned his lesson. And any 21 amount of time -- the time he spent already, he has already learned that 22 lesson to never ever, ever make a decision anything like what he did this
23 night again.

24 Then there's retribution and the fact that these officers and
25 homeowners went through a lot and will continue to go for a -- go through

1 a lot forever.

2 But eight to 20 years is a long time. And for an officer-
3 involved shooting there is a very good chance that he's not going to
4 parole anywhere near the bottom number. So, with eight to 20 years he
5 would do almost certainly more than eight years, substantially more than 6 eight years.

7 I would also note that my reading of the PSI -- and I know that
8 some of that comes off a little bit convoluted in the concurrent and
9 consecutive. My reading is that P and P recommends a ten to 40-year
10 sentence, and while I do believe that that is a little high based on his
11 criminal history, we are also -- it's substantially lower than what the State
12 is asking for here.

13 I will also note, on the scoresheet for P and P he came back
14 borderline; that's borderline for probation, obviously nowhere near what 15 we're asking for in this case, but that's how well he did prior to what
16 happened here because obviously the gravity of this offense is huge.

17 So, Your Honor, I'll wrap it up, but I know that you had a
18 chance to review the letters that we submitted this week from his family.
19 It was between 14 and 16 letters from family, friends. And just point out
20 that he is also a son. He is a cousin. He is a friend. He is someone who 21 will eventually return to his life, and we would ask that that not be after 22 some of his older family members pass away.

23 Your Honor, we are not downplaying the seriousness of this
24 and the impact on these victims. And I know they're going to get up here
25 and they're going to have compelling stories. Your Honor has heard

1 many of those compelling stories because Your Honor sat through this
2 trial. And I'm sure that they'll be very honest with what they say and how
3 it's affected them, but I ask Your Honor to look at what is fair and just,
4 given Mr. Turner's criminal history and his taking responsibility from the
5 beginning. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 Counsel, you'd be -- wish to be heard on mitigation on behalf
8 of Mr. Hudson?

9 MS. PLUNKETT: Yes, Judge, and as I stated, I advised him,
10 due to the mandatory appeal, to not give a statement today. But on 11 behalf of Mr. Hudson and myself I want to say how horribly sorry I am to 12 the officers who were directly involved, to the entire Metro police force, to 13 the homeowners.

14 This is -- as Ms. Machnich said this is a horrible case that 15 ended in a guilty verdict, a jury trial. And I'm so sorry that everyone even 16 has to be here today. And I believe we are here today -- and I was not 17 the attorney that represented him at trial. I believe we are here because 18 Mr. Hudson got some very bad advice, and I don't believe that we should 19 be here at a sentencing following a jury verdict, but hopefully that will be 20 addressed on appeal. I want to point out I submitted a Sentencing
21 Memorandum to Your Honor where --

22 THE COURT: I reviewed all the matters submitted to the 23 Court.

24 MS. PLUNKETT: Thank you, Judge. And Mr. Hudson is
25 someone who has a lot of family support as evidenced by the letters.

1 This is someone who grew up in a good home, a church going home, a
2 two-parent home. How we got here is shocking.

3 This is someone with no criminal history whatsoever; no
4 felonies, no misdemeanors, no gross misdemeanors, no prior arrests for
5 any offense, juvenile or adult, until this instance. This is not someone
6 who has any history with drug abuse, illicit drug abuse. This is someone
7 with no gang affiliation. This is someone who is a good person who has
8 been convicted of a hideous offense.

9 And this is not someone who is committing recurring sex
10 offenses where the likelihood of committing that offense again is so high.
11 This is not someone that was committing offenses to support a drug
12 habit. This is not someone who, as Mr. Turner's lawyer pointed out, was 13 terrorizing the community repeatedly. This is someone who made a
14 terrible, terrible mistake.

15 And this is someone that I genuinely believe that if he is 16 released today, if he is released at the end of 40 on the back end, that 17 regardless of that he will never do anything even close to this ever again
18 in his life. He has a two-year-old daughter.

19 And what I am looking at is slightly different than what Mr.
20 Turner's lawyer is arguing for. I am in the unique position where I
21 frequently represent inmates at parole revocation and release hearings.
22 I appear in front of the commissioners on a regular basis. I know that 23 this is not something where either of these gentlemen will get a first
24 parole. This is not something where they will get a mandatory parole. I
25 honestly, genuinely believe that whatever sentence Your Honor hands

1 down today, that these two gentlemen will expire that sentence and do
2 the full amount of time.

3 And so what I believe is appropriate here is something more
4 along the lines of 30 years on the back end. I'm asking Your Honor to
5 not consider the front end. Don't consider whether it's eight, ten, 12
6 because as a parole attorney, that is simply not going to happen. If he
7 expires on a 30-year sentence his two-year-old will be an adult when he
8 is released from prison. That is a very, very serious amount of prison
9 time, and I believe it is appropriate here.

10 I've tried cases in front of Your Honor. I'm not asking for 11 leniency. I'm genuinely trying to be reasonable considering the factors
12 involved with who Mr. Hudson is and how he got to this place and his 13 complete lack of criminal history. And I would submit it on that, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Do we have the victims available?

15 MR. GIORDANI: Yes, there are five. I'm going to start with 16 Eric Clarkson.

17 MS. SISOLAK: And, Your Honor, do you prefer that we 18 remain here or would you like to give the victims the entire floor? Court's 19 discretion.

20 THE COURT: Typically, what I do is I have them come to the 21 podium to speak and to be sworn in unless the parties have some other
22 preference.

23 MS. SISOLAK: No, Court's preference. Some judges prefer
24 that we have a seat and allow them the floor. I just wanted to make sure
25 we're not --

1 THE COURT: If you want to have a seat -- you don't have to
2 stand through the entire proceedings.

3 MS. SISOLAK: Oh.

4 THE COURT: I mean, if you -- because there are going to be
5 five speakers; it's my understanding.

6 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 ERIC CLARKSON

8 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
9 testified as follows:]

10 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
11 the record.

12 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Eric Clarkson, E-R-I-C
13 C-L-A-R-K-S-O-N.

14 THE COURT: Sir, you may proceed.

15 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: I want to start by thanking
16 Your Honor and the jury for finding these two men guilty on all charges. I
17 want to thank the Deputy District Attorney's Office and its staff for 18 working tirelessly for the last almost three years to bring these two men
19 to justice. Your Honor, I also want to thank all the first responders to the 20 event, but most of all a tremendous thank you to Officers Grego-Smith
21 and Robertson.

22 Your Honor, my roommate and I are survivors, not victims.
23 With that being said, I know now that surviving and actually living one's 24 life are very different things.

25 My personal and professional lives were destroyed that night,

1 Your Honor. I'm afraid to date or have sex with anyone in fear that they
2 too will try to murder me. I am no longer comfortable being out in the 3 GLBT community since this happened, as my fears are now greater than
4 the desire to perform. This is my livelihood I'm speaking of.

5 Your Honor, before this happened I was living and working as
6 a transgender female impersonator and stand-up comedian. Both of 7 those dreams, dreams I was living have ended now until somehow,
8 sometime I feel safe living and working as my true self again.

9 Your Honor, I am no longer comfortable inviting friends or
10 acquaintances over to my home. I am no longer comfortable showering
11 in my own home because of a window that faces out. I am no longer
12 comfortable sleeping in my bedroom because of a window that faces my 13 patio. It's the window in which I first saw a shadow of a man that night.
14 Every night since this happened while lying in bed I hear noises on my 15 patio and I open my eyes. I look towards that same window up to 100
16 times per night. My eyes just open and focus like that night is happening
17 all over again.

18 Your Honor, I have lost -- I -- we, my roommate and I have
19 lost dozens of friends and even family members. They are simply too
20 freaked out or afraid of being around us or in our home anymore, even
21 jokingly saying things like just in case they come back to finish the job I
22 don't want to be there.

23 Your Honor, my roommate and I are not lovers; we're just best
24 friends, but we chose to sleep in the same bed for three months after this
25 happened because we were both afraid to sleep alone.

1           Your Honor, I've always been proud of my abilities to bounce
2 back in life, but the health of my best friend has spiraled out of control
3 due to the graphic things he saw that night. It's killing him slowly, and I
4 simply cannot help him. He suffers from severe PTSD, as do I, and has
5 flashbacks from that night.

6           Your Honor, every time I walk by my back door or back
7 window or back kitchen window I am compelled to look in the backyard,
8 and I never had this fear before. Every time there's a loud noise I get
9 nervous and sometimes even cry. Even hearing gunshots on TV is too
10 much. New Year's Eve and the Fourth of July were my two favorite
11 holidays prior to this happening; now they are my least favorite because 12 of the PTSD.

13           Your Honor, I wonder sometimes if I will have to change my 14 name and move out of state that I don't have -- so that I don't have to 15 worry about this happening to us again.

16           Mr. Clemon did not know me or us prior to this happening. He
17 had never met me, but was willing -- or coerced into these crimes by Mr.
18 Turner. And if Mr. Turner has that kind of mind power to coerce people
19 into such heinous situations and crimes, I feel I have absolute reason to 20 worry about a smaller sentence and early release or even revenge after 21 release.

22           They tried to harm us, Your Honor, but instead they physically
23 harmed a Metro officer; someone who came to our home when we
24 needed and called for help.

25           Sometimes I think about hurting them, Your Honor, and I've

1 never wanted to harm another living soul ever in my life until now, and
2 feeling this way is terrible.

3 Please, Your Honor, consider imposing the longest possible
4 sentences onto these two men. And please allow my roommate,
5 Willough [phonetic], and I to try and slowly rebuild our lives free from
6 worry or fear. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Any questions?

9 MS. MACHNICH: Not on behalf of Mr. Turner.

10 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 MR. GIORDANI: Willoughby Grimaldi.

13 THE COURT: Counsel, before the next speaker can you
14 approach?

15 [Bench conference -- not transcribed]

16 WILLOUGHBY GRIMALDI

17 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
18 testified as follows:]

19 THE COURT CLERK: Would you please state and spell your
20 name for the record?

21 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: My full name is Willoughby
22 Potter de Grimaldi, but W-I-L-L-O-U-G-H-B-Y, last name Grimaldi, 23 G-R-I-M-A-L-D-I.

24 THE COURT: And you may proceed, sir.

25 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Thank you. To begin I

1 would like to start by thanking the Court and Your Honor for passing a
2 guilty verdict on all accounts against these two criminals.

3           These past 33 months have been some of the darkest days of 4 my life. I have lived in fear not only day-to-day, but minute-to-minute; the
5 horror of the events of that night haunting every corner of my mind. My 6 best friend cannot even console me due to the fact that she too has 7 flashbacks and tons of guilt when we did nothing to deserve this.

8           Unable to move or run away into hiding, I continue to endure
9 living in the same place where so much violence occurred, and all for
10 nothing. While constantly visiting therapists, I replay that night -- I don't
11 look out -- I'm sorry -- I replay that night unable to let it go. There are no
12 windows in our home that I don't look out wondering if someone is 13 outside waiting to kill us.

14           I should be happy to be alive, yet somehow I feel like I did die
15 that night. I'm just a ghost wandering in pain for all eternity. This is not
16 living. I'm just going through the motions.

17           In the last many months I have learned the difference between 18 justice and hate. I understand that a crime of passion, even if committed 19 based in hate, does not equal a federally recognized hate crime.
20 Nevertheless, I cannot continue to live as a victim and replay the events
21 of that night.

22           It may be true that my heart is struggling to recover. The rage
23 and fear -- I'm sorry -- the rage and fear in my heart are like an 24 everlasting tug of war leaving me feeling empty. I know there is some 25 questions that will never be answered, yet the questions still haunt me.

1 Why? What hate would cause someone to act this way? I guess we'll
2 never know.

3 Our lives were shattered that morning, and since then my
4 health and physical abilities have plummeted leaving me disabled,
5 hopeless, and at a loss for -- feeling fully stressed. Our lives have been
6 completely altered forever. And although the PTSD and memories affect 7 us both differently, we will somehow leave this courtroom today as
8 survivors instead of just victims.

9 I believe in our justice system, and I beg Your Honor to please
10 pass the longest available sentence on these two in order to keep this
11 kind of ignorance and hate off of our streets. I feel anything less than 50
12 years is still not enough time to learn how bad this action actually was.

13 I would like to take one final moment to greatly thank the first
14 responding officers as well, who took on gunfire and everlasting trauma
15 that ultimately saved our lives and brought these two criminals to justice.
16 We are both eternally grateful to you and to all the police officers who 17 responded, put their lives on the line day in and day out. And to the 18 Deputy District Attorney and the whole team who worked tirelessly in this
19 case, thank you all. Between the jury and yourself, Your Honor, thank 20 you. I trust that justice will be served today, and that we will begin to heal
21 one more time.

22 THE COURT: Any questions?

23 MS. MACHNICH: Not on behalf of Mr. Turner.

24 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

25 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

1 MR. GIORDANI: Barbara Robertson.

2 BARBARA ROBERTSON

3 [Having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
4 testified as follows:]

5 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
6 the record.

7 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Barbara Robertson,
8 B-A-R-B-A-R-A R-O-B-E-R-T-S-O-N.

9 THE COURT: You may proceed.

10 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: First of all, I'd like to thank
11 Your Honor for letting me speak today. Jeremy wanted to be a fireman
12 or a police officer from the time he was a little boy. From the time he 13 applied and graduated from the police academy, the first question I was 14 always asked is aren't you afraid for him to be a police officer? My 15 answer was always no. I trust in all the training he has had. As his 16 mother I completely supported him. I knew he would become an 17 excellent officer. I am proud to call Office Robertson my son and hero.

18 Fast forward to September 4, 2015, a mother's worst
19 nightmare happened. I was awakened by a telephone call from my 20 daughter-in-law telling me Jeremy had been shot in the leg, and asked if I
21 could come over to watch my 18-month-old grandson so she could go to 22 the hospital.

23 I remember as I was driving over their house -- over to their
24 house crying because as much as I wanted to watch my grandson, I also 25 really wanted to be at the hospital with my son. At the time I was not

1 aware of the severity of his injury.

2           After arriving at their house, I then had to call my daughter to
3 tell her about her brother. She lived in Bakersfield, California at the time
4 and was devastated. Not only did I have to worry about Jeremy, I also
5 had to worry about her driving to Las Vegas by herself to be here for all
6 of us.

7           The news was on at the house and there was continuous
8 coverage of the shooting. I was trying to stay strong for my grandson, as 9 he didn't understand anything that was going on. It became apparent
10 that this was a very serious incident, and I worried the other suspect
11 would not be found.

12           I was finally able to go to the hospital, but wasn't prepared to 13 see my son in the condition he was in. The pool of blood on the floor as 14 he -- as they wheeled him to surgery will forever be in my memory. It
15 wasn't until he came out of surgery and the doctor talked to us that I
16 realized how lucky we were that he was alive. The doctor informed us it
17 would be a long road to recovery and that there was a strong possibility
18 that he would have to walk with a cane for the rest of his life.

19           My daughter-in-law was pregnant at the time with my second
20 grandchild. I was now worried that the trauma, physical and emotional,
21 that she was going through could be detrimental to the baby. She is like
22 another daughter to me, so I needed to be there for her along with 23 Jeremy. Trying to balance everything was overwhelming at times.

24           It broke my heart to see Jeremy in so much pain and never
25 complain. A mother is supposed to protect their children, and I felt like a

1 complete failure, as there was nothing I could do but be there for him and
2 the family. The worst part was having to watch him go through the
3 changing of his wound VAC every three days for about four months. The
4 exit wound from the bullet was left to heal from the inside out and was at
5 least four inches deep. I can't even imagine the pain associated with 6 pulling out the packing and replacing it with clean material. He would
7 have so much anxiety on those days. It was hard to watch.

8           Everyday things we do on our own were difficult or impossible
9 for Jeremy to do by himself. Jeremy so enjoys the role of being a
10 husband and father. He was very excited about having another child.
11 He and his son had a great relationship. They loved playing with each
12 other and rolling around on the floor together. Unfortunately, his injury
13 has put limitations on what he can and cannot do with his son and 14 daughter.

15           Jeremy was separated from his son for 11 days while he was 16 in the hospital. This was hard on both of them and the family. When he 17 was able to go home he wasn't even able to pick him up. That was 18 something his son just couldn't understand. Even walking around his 19 dad he had to be extremely careful so he wouldn't unplug the wound
20 VAC machine. His dad wasn't able to put him to bed like he had done
21 every night before September 4th because his room was upstairs.
22 Jeremy stayed downstairs for more than three months. His son went
23 from being a good eater, willing to try anything, to being a very picky
24 eater; that still continues today. He continues to worry that bad guys will 25 hurt his father again.

1           Through his recovery process the family chose to stay positive
2 and do whatever we could for Jeremy. The courage Jeremy displayed
3 through the recovery process amazes me each and every day. The pain
4 continues to this day and will be with him every day of his life. Dealing
5 with a leg that is an inch shorter than the other is not an easy task.
6 Walking with a noticeable limp has put stress on his other leg and hip.
7 He never complains, but I can see he is in pain.

8           I have learned that depression and PTSD are real.
9 Something as simple as the kids making loud noises can be agitating.

10           Jeremy was willing to agree to a plea deal for Mr. Turner and 11 Hudson. He just wanted to move on. They repeatedly turned the offer
12 down and drug this out for almost three years.

13           These young males will be able to walk out of prison as the 14 same person physically. However, Jeremy, along with his family have 15 been forever changed both physically and mentally because of their
16 decision in the early morning of September 4th.

17           They have not been willing to step up and take responsibility
18 for their actions, which is very disappointing. It is hard for me to believe
19 they were at the house only to steal marijuana with the type of firepower
20 they had on them. Shots were fired as soon as they heard the door
21 opening. There were other options that they could have taken, but they 22 made the choice to disregard the life of the person opening the door.

23           I wish no ill will on these two, but feel they need to be held
24 accountable. I am asking the Court to sentence both of them to the 25 maximum sentence allowed by law. I hope that this will be long enough

1 for them to reflect on their actions and come out ready to change and be
2 productive citizens. Again, Your Honor, thank you for letting me have the
3 opportunity to speak.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

5 Are there any questions?

6 MS. MACHNICH: None on behalf of Mr. Turner.

7 Thank you, ma'am.

8 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 MR. GIORDANI: Melissa Robertson.

11 MELISSA ROBERTSON

12 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
13 testified as follows:]

14 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
15 the record.

16 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Melissa Robertson,
17 M-E-L-I-S-S-A R-O-B-E-R-T-S-O-N.

18 THE COURT: Please proceed.

19 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Hello, my name is Melissa
20 Robertson. I am the wife of Officer Jeremy Robertson. I want to thank 21 the Court for allowing me to speak today. On the day my husband was 22 shot I was four months pregnant and had an 18-month-old son. A week
23 and a half earlier my son had undergone emergency surgery and was 24 still recovering. This was my husband's first night back after taking care
25 of our son during his post-surgery recovery.

1           The day my husband was shot was one of the hardest and
2 scariest days of my life. I had to see my husband in pain and anguish
3 with blood on the floor. I had to wait for four hours while they replaced
4 his femur with a metal rod, and I had to wait with him in a hospital for 11
5 days while he tried to recover enough to be able to take a few steps. My 6 family and friends were worried about me because they didn't want to 7 see the stress and emotions of the situation hurt me or the baby.

8           But that's not the only hard days I've had to face since this 9 tragedy. Not only did I have to take care of an 18-month-old son while
10 pregnant, but I had to take care of a husband who was bound to a
11 wheelchair for months. And for a while I was the main caregiver for my 12 son, and I still had to work full-time while trying to save enough days for 13 maternity leave. And I was now taking on all of my husband's daily
14 responsibilities for our household.

15           I did not sleep in the same bed as my husband for months
16 because he couldn't even walk up the stairs and he had to sleep in a
17 hospital bed in our living room. To this day he still has trouble trying to 18 kneel to do bath time or get on the floor to play with our kids like he used
19 to with my son before he was shot.

20           Both of my kids were greatly affected when my husband was 21 shot. It breaks my heart to think that my two-year-old daughter, who is a
22 big daddy's girl and looks just like him, almost never got to meet her
23 daddy. My son though is the one that was affected the most. Kids are 24 very intuitive, so although my son was only 18 months old, he knew
25 something was wrong. During the 11 days my husband was in the

1 hospital my son stopped eating and became fixated on bad guys. To this
2 day he still doesn't eat much when he used to eat or try anything. And
3 sometimes he still randomly brings up bad guys and how they hurt his 4 daddy.

5           While I'm glad that justice was served and I believe they
6 deserve whatever punishment is given to them, I also hope they use this
7 as an opportunity to better themselves.

8           I had a lot of hate in my heart towards them for a couple
9 years, and it's very hard to let go of that. Even now I fight anxiety and
10 depression because of everything that I and my family have had to go
11 through. I still have nightmares about what could have happened and 12 what did happen, and I have had many sleepless nights since. While I
13 still battle with these lasting emotions, I can forgive. It has taken me a
14 very, very long time, but I have finally forgiven.

15           Although my husband has -- still lives with lasting side effects
16 both mentally and physically, I am grateful because his name is not on 17 memorials and on T-shirts along with other fallen officers that we've 18 tragically lost.

19           I will forever have a scar on my heart because of the pain that 20 has been caused, but all those scars are permanent reminders of pain
21 and suffering. They also remind me of the value of life, love, and my 22 family.

23           My hope is that the Court gives the maximum sentence
24 allowed because although this may be their first crime, it only takes one
25 offense to affect someone's lives the way that mine and my family's has

1 | | been affected.

2 I hope they work hard to better themselves and learn from
3 their mistakes. I hope they took a good look inside and truly take
4 responsibility and reflect on what they did and come out with a better
5 understanding of what it means to be a good member of society. They're 6 still going to have a chance at life after this, and I don't want them to
7 waste it and make any more reckless and horrible actions like they did
8 that night.

9 Thank you again for allowing me to speak. Thank you to my
10 family and to my wonderful husband. What he's been through is tragic,
11 and his recovery has been nothing short of a miracle. And without him
12 I'd be falling apart. So, thank you again.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14	Any questions?

15 MS. MACHNICH: No questions on behalf of Mr. Turner.

16	Thank you, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

19 MR. GIORDANI: Officer Robertson.

20 JEREMY ROBERTSON

21 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
22 testified as follows:]

23 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
24 the record.

25 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Jeremy Robertson,

1 J-E-R-E-M-Y R-O-B-E-R-T-S-O-N.

2           Good morning, Your Honor, I thank you for allowing me this
3 opportunity today to address the Court. First I'd like to thank again the
4 Court for allowing me to speak today. I'd also like to thank the State for
5 the great job and time it took to put this case together. I also want to 6 thank everyone here that is here supporting me today.

7           The events that occurred on September 4th, 2015 will always
8 be an impact on my life. That night Turner and Hudson made a choice to 9 go to a house and, from what they say, steal some weed. They chose to 10 go to that house and take with them some hefty firepower with a rifle and 11 a shotgun. They and they alone are the ones that set things in motion
12 that morning. They chose where to go, they chose what firearms to 13 bring, and they chose to have those firearms ready to use.

14           I opened the door and was immediately met with a gunshot
15 that hit me in the right upper thigh shattering my femur causing me to fall
16 to the floor. I will never forget the moment I finally realized what had
17 happened and thinking immediately to my wife who was four months
18 pregnant at the time and my little boy who was 18 months. My mind
19 raced to thinking of them and how I needed to do everything I could to 20 survive so I could see them again.

21           I will never forget the pain of being rolled over by responding
22 officers and then them carrying me out of the house holding my dangling
23 leg. I will never forget laying on the table in trauma with all the doctors
24 and nurses surrounding me, and just praying that I would keep my leg
25 and one day be able to walk again.

1                   One of my fellow officers started calling my wife while I was
2 laying on the trauma table. Not wanting to scare her I asked for the
3 phone so I could talk to her myself. She was woken up around 4:30 a.m.
4 with me on someone else's phone -- dazed trying to figure out why I
5 would call on someone else's phone -- and having to tell her that I had
6 been shot and to call my mom to come watch our son so she could come
7 down to the hospital.

8                   I spent 11 days in the hospital. Some of the days, especially 9 the first few days after the incident and surgery, I was in a daze and not 10 coherent to what was going on around me. I woke with family and 11 friends surrounding me. I also woke to the pain that was in my leg, and 12 seen a tube attached that I later found out to be a wound VAC.

13                  My son was allowed to visit the first day after the event, but
14 then due to him becoming sick he was not allowed to visit for my safety.
15 This was very hard for me and was very emotional, as I want to spend 16 time with him. I have a very great bond with my son.

17                  The wound VAC that was attached to me stayed attached for 18 several months as my injury healed from the inside. The wound VAC
19 was a love-hate relationship, as it helped me heal and protected me from 20 infection, but the dressings had to be changed every three days and was 21 very painful.

22                  I survived a pretty bad gunshot, but then every three days
23 after had to endure the dressing change that consisted of a tech
24 removing the tape to expose the wound and then pulling out foam pieces
25 that were packed inside the wound. The tech then had to spray and

1 clean the inside of the wound and then pack it with new foam and tape.
2 This event would last about an hour.

3           And the reason why I bring it up is to relay that just surviving
4 the gunshot was not the only thing. I had to endure the pain from the
5 wound for months. The pain was so bad I had to be put on anxiety
6 medication because I was -- would start freaking out about the next
7 dressing change.

8           When I finally got released from the hospital I was transported
9 home on a gurney and was taken inside where a hospital bed awaited
10 me inside my dining room. I was not allowed to put any weight on my leg
11 for two months, and had to have someone by me to help me with the 12 simplest of things. I had to have family help me use the restroom,
13 shower, eat and et cetera. I couldn't sleep in the same bed with my wife,
14 and was stuck sleeping in the dining room in a hospital bed for months.

15           My son had a hard time with this, as he could not play with 16 Daddy the way he was used to. Interactions became careful, Daddy's
17 leg, don't pull that tube, don't do this and that. My son became afraid to 18 be around me.

19           I was finally allowed to start physical therapy in November. I
20 still had the wound VAC attached to me, and started the yearlong
21 process of learning how to walk again. I was told by my surgeon to 22 expect to walk with at least a cane for the rest of my life, but I did not like
23 that idea, nor did my physical therapist. My therapist along with myself
24 pushed myself hard to do everything we could to get my leg to do what it
25 used to. I went to therapy three times a week, three hours each visit, and

1 many times left in tears from the pain and stretching and massaging that
2 had to be done.

3 As I was getting better it became apparent that my right leg
4 was shorter than the other leg. The titanium rod the surgeon had placed
5 inside my leg was shorter than my left leg. I now have to wear an insole
6 or have special boots made to counterbalance this.

7 I am very thankful that my therapist did not want to see me
8 using a cane and pushed me hard to be able to walk without assistance.
9 I wish I could say that I could walk every day without pain, but that would
10 be a lie. Every day I wake up sore with leg issues, back issues, and 11 have to stretch things out before I start my day. During the day the 12 muscles tighten up and throughout the day I need to stretch out. This will
13 be an issue for the rest of my life. My body has protected the hurt leg
14 and now caused problems for my good leg due to counterbalancing,
15 putting all the weight on my left leg.

16 I am very thankful to be alive and be here for my family, but it
17 is not, nor will it ever be, the same. I don't have full range of motion in 18 my leg like I used to. I can't sit on the floor and play with my kids like I
19 used to. Even though I get around, I know as I get older I'll have the 20 issues with my leg, and I am sure it will get worse as I get older.

21 As I stated at the beginning, Hudson and Turner both were the
22 ones who made the poor decision to do something that they knew was 23 wrong. My belief is if we had not shown up as officers those 24 homeowners would be dead and this would be a totally different trial --
25 or -- had been a different trial.

1           Today Hudson and Turner will get sentenced and spend the
2 time given to them, which I hope is the max time allowed, but when that
3 time is up they get to walk out and start their life with nothing in their way.
4 I'm not so lucky. I don't get to wait some years and then all the things
5 wrong with me caused from getting shot go away. I will forever have to 6 live with the pain, with the -- live with the emotional and PTS part.

7           My son knows something bad happened, and even though we
8 never told him exactly what happened he still once in a while tells me
9 when I put him to bed at night no bad guys are going to hurt Daddy. My 10 family and I have to live with this for the rest of our lives. We don't get to 11 do the same, get to do some years, and then erase it all.

12           The reason why I bring all these things up, reference the 13 healing process and the forever life-changing effects I have to deal with 14 is just to remind the Court and Turner and Hudson that one mistake can 15 cause a lifetime of pain and suffering.

16           I will continue to get better. This event has not broken me or 17 my family, but has made us stronger and built a stronger bond. This may 18 surprise the families of Turner and Hudson and themselves, but I forgive
19 you. Don't get me wrong, I hated you guys for a long time, but I grew up
20 going to church and know that living with hate will not help me. The 21 offense that occurred on 9/4/15 has happened and there's no going back
22 from that now. The only way is to move forward.

23           I could see from the few times I was at court during the trial
24 that both Turner and Hudson have family and friends that care for them.
25 Please, to you the family of Turner and Hudson continue to love and

1 support them. I know that you will get -- that they will get out one day
2 and they will get the opportunity to start life over and be part of this
3 community.

4 I would like to see Turner and Hudson take the time in prison
5 to better themselves, take classes, learn trade if they offer it. They'll
6 have to pay for the poor decision they made, but I want them to better
7 themselves and come out of this a better person who can function within
8 our community. Stay away from the people in prison that will only bring 9 you down, and surround yourself with positive people not looking for
10 trouble. A quote I've heard -- and I don't remember who said it -- you
11 want to know what your life will look like or live like when you get older,
12 look at your friends. You need to surround yourselves with the people
13 that will care for you and support you, not bring you down.

14 I've had the opportunity since being shot to work with a
15 program called Hope for Prisoners who help people getting out of prison
16 take classes and help them then find a job and get them to be part of the 17 community and not reoffend. This program is several weeks long, and 18 towards the end officers come in and have the opportunity to talk to them
19 and mentor them. I've had the privilege on several occasions to be part
20 of this, and also being part of the graduation at the end of the course --
21 sorry -- at the end of the course. The program has a great success rate
22 with hardly any of the graduates reoffending.

23 I hope this is something that you, Turner and Hudson, will be
24 interested in doing when you are released, as it will help you become a
25 better citizen to yourself, family, and the community. You will have a

1 chance to live life. Please don't screw it up again.

2           Your Honor, I thank you for the opportunity here. Like I said
3 before, one incident, one choice can make -- decide someone's life. My
4 life will never be the same. And I agree with the State with what they
5 have suggested for punishment. Thank you.

6           THE COURT: Thank you.

7           Any questions?

8           MS. MACHNICH: Nothing on behalf of Mr. Turner.

19          THE COURT MARSHAL: All right. I'll see if I can --

20          THE COURT: Are you standing in, counsel?

21          MS. DEMONTE: I can. I don't know where Mr. Giordani
22 went. I mean, we're at the point where it's just taking notes.

23          MS. LUZAICH: He'll be right back, Judge, if you don't mind;
24 two seconds. Thank you.

25                       [Bench conference -- not transcribed]

1 THE COURT: State, do you know where counsel went?

2 MS. DEMONTE: I do not.

3 THE COURT: Did you text him?

4 MS. DEMONTE: Huh? Other people are. I can see everyone
5 on their phone.

6 THE COURT: All right. We'll be in a short recess. As soon
7 as counsel arrives let me know.

22 eligibility of 30 -- I'm sorry -- with minimum parole -- retract. As to Count
23 3, to confinement in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a
24 maximum term of 120 months with a minimum parole eligibility of 48

7 As to Count 5, the maximum, to confinement in the Nevada
8 Department of Corrections for a maximum term of 120 months with a
9 minimum parole eligibility of 36 months concurrent with Count 2.

10 As to Counts 3 and 4, as to the 36 months and maximum of 11 120 months for the use of a deadly weapon, the Court considered the 12 information described in paragraphs A through E in NRS 193.165 in 13 determining the length. The aggregate sentence as to Mr. Turner is a 14 maximum of 480 months with minimum parole eligibility of 168 months.

10 Corrections for a maximum term of 120 months with the minimum parole
11 eligibility of 36 months to run concurrent with Count 4. The aggregate
12 sentence is a maximum term of 480 months with minimum parole
13 eligibility of 168 months.

14 Counsel, if my math is incorrect I need to know at this point.

15 MR. GIORDANI: Court's brief indulgence.

16 MS. MACHNICH: Your Honor, I think it was just -- and it may 17 have been that I just was writing it incorrectly. For Mr. Turner, Count 4 I
18 had --

19 THE COURT: The same as Count 3; a maximum of 120,
20 minimum of 48 with an additional 36 consecutive as regarded by law.

21 MS. MACHNICH: I had 36 to 120 and 36 to 120.

22 MS. PLUNKETT: As did I on Count 4.

23 THE COURT: No, it's supposed to be -- both the sentences
24 should be identical. It should be, as to Count 2, a max of 72, a minimum
25 of 16 concurrent with Count 1. Count 3 a max of 120, a minimum of 48

1 with a consecutive 36. That count's concurrent to Count 2. Count 4 is a
2 max of 120 with a minimum of 48 with a consecutive of 36, and that's to
3 be consecutive to Count 3. And Count 5 is a max of 120 with a minimum
4 of 36 concurrent to Count 4.

5 MR. GIORDANI: That looks accurate, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. GIORDANI: Fourteen to 40 on each.

8 THE COURT: That's correct.

9 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MR. GIORDANI: And as to credit for time served, I believe --

11 THE COURT: Well, wait, we're not there yet, counsel.

12 MR. GIORDANI: Oh, I'm sorry.

13 THE COURT: I further impose $25.00 as an administrative
14 assessment fee, $150.00 for a DNA analysis fee, $3.00 for a DNA
15 administrative assessment fee. This is as to Mr. Turner. The Court does 16 not impose a fine. No restitution.

17 MR. GIORDANI: Oh, as to that, Your Honor, we were
18 requesting $9,000.00 -- I'm sorry -- $9,099.98 to Jeremy Robertson. One
19 of the two defense counsel has the proof. Most of his bills were covered
20 by insurance for the department.

21 THE COURT: Okay. It wasn't in the Presentence
22 Investigation Report.

23 MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, I don't want to speak out of turn, but I
24 believe that sir probably -- well, can I have the Court's brief indulgence?

25 THE COURT: Sure.

1 MR. GIORDANI: Sorry, Your Honor. I spoke to Officer
2 Robertson. He wasn't contacted by P and P. I think that his
3 understanding was he submitted it to our office, my victim/witness
4 advocate and it would get to the Court. So, that's what our request is;
5 $9,099.98.

6 THE COURT: Say it again, please.

7 MR. GIORDANI: $9,099.98.

8 THE COURT: State, are you -- not State. Defense, are you
9 objecting to the amount of restitution?

10 MS. PLUNKETT: Judge, I've seen the bill, and I don't believe
11 I have any objection on behalf of --

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MS. PLUNKETT: -- Mr. Hudson.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 What about -- counsel?

16 [Colloquy between counsel]

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, I can order it. If you have an 18 objection you can file a motion to reduce it if you feel it's inaccurate.

19 MR. GIORDANI: Understood.

20 MS. MACHNICH: It -- that's fine, Your Honor.

21 MS. PLUNKETT: Your Honor, we'd have no objection.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 MR. GIORDANI: And I'd ask -- it's just jointly and severally.

24 THE COURT: I will, counsel.

25 The Court further orders you to pay restitution to Officer

1 Robertson in the amount of $9,099.98 jointly and severally with your
2 co-defendant, Turner.

3 MR. GIORDANI: And credit for time served?

4 THE COURT: Credit for time served in the amount of 1,022
5 days.

6 MR. GIORDANI: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 MS. PLUNKETT: Thank you, Judge.

9 MS. MACHNICH: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Now, I -- pronounced the sentence as to Mr.
11 Hudson yet?

12 MS. MACHNICH: Yes, you did.

13 MR. GIORDANI: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So I just need to do the imposition of 15 fines and restitution, credit for time served?

16 MR. GIORDANI: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So as -- that was as to Mr. Turner. As 18 to Mr. Hudson, $25.00 is the administrative assessment fee, $150.00 for 19 the DNA analysis fee, $3.00 for a DNA administrative assessment fee.
20 The Court orders you to pay restitution to Officer Robertson in the 21 amount of $9,099.98 jointly and severally with your co-defendant, Mr.
22 Turner. Credit for time served in the amount of 1,022 days.

23 Is there anything further? I've pronounced sentence in both
24 Defendants; correct?

25 MR. GIORDANI: You have.

1 THE COURT: Imposed fines, restitution, and credit for time
2 served?

3 MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: As to both Defendants; correct?

5 MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything further, counsel?

7 MR. GIORDANI: Not on behalf of the State.

8 THE COURT: Anything further, counsel?

9 MS. MACHNICH: No, Your Honor, thank you.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MS. PLUNKETT: Thank you, Judge.

1 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

2 Mr. Hudson was charged by way of Indictment on September 23, 2015 as 3 follows: Count 1: Conspiracy to Commit Burglary; Count 2: Attempt Burglary
4 while in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon; Count 3: Attempt Murder with 5 use of a deadly weapon; Count 4: Attempt Murder with use of a deadly weapon;
6 Count 5: Battery with use of a deadly weapon resulting in substantial bodily harm;
7 and Count 6: Discharging firearm at or into occupied structure, vehicle, aircraft, or 8 watercraft. On October 1, 2015, Mr. Hudson was arraigned, pled not guilty and 9 waived the sixty day rule.

10 On August 28, 2017, Mr. Hudson filed a motion to sever his case from co-
11 defendant Steven Turner. Co-defendant Turner joined Mr. Hudson's motion on 12 September 13, 2017. The State filed an opposition on September 18, 2019. The 13 district court denied the motion for severance on October 12, 2017. Mr. Hudson
14 renewed his motion for severance, but was again denied on November 16, 2017.

15 Mr. Hudson's trial began on April 16, 2018. On the first day of trial, the 16 State filed an Amended Indictment dismissing count six. On April 27, 2018, the 17 jury found Mr. Hudson guilty of all charges.

18 Mr. Hudson was sentenced on July 21, 2018, to an aggregate total of a 19 maximum of 480 months with a minimum 168 months. Mr. Hudson received 20 1,022 days credit for time served. The Judgment of Conviction was filed July 2, 21 2018.

22 No direct appeal was filed on Mr. Hudson's behalf. On October 25, 2018, 23 Mr. Hudson filed a timely post-conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus.
24 Thereafter, a supplemental briefing scheduled was set.

25 STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

26 Mr. Eric Clarkson was friends with Mr. Turner (JT Day 3 p. 57-58). Mr.
27 Clarkson did not know Mr. Hudson (JT Day 3 p. 80). Mr. Clarkson resided with 28 his best friend Mr. Willoughby Potter de Grimaldi at a house located at 6729

1 Oveja Circle, Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada (JT Day 3 p. 59-61, 92).

2 On September 4, 2015, around 3:30 a.m., Mr. Clarkson was in his bedroom
3 watching television before going to sleep (JT Day 3 p. 61). Once Mr. Clarkson got 4 into bed, he heard his metal outdoor patio furniture being moved outside (JT Day
5 3 p. 63-64). This caused Mr. Clarkson to look out the window where he saw a 6 young African American man outside on the patio (JT Day 3 p. 65). Then, Mr.
7 Clarkson grabbed his phone, let his roommate know what he saw and contacted
8 911 to report that someone was in his backyard (JT Day 3 p. 65). Moments later, 9 Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi heard someone banging on the front door and Mr.
10 Grimaldi saw a figure outside (JT Day 3 p. 68, 97-98).

11 When Mr. Grimaldi went to the back window, he saw a shirtless African 12 American man with a billed cap on his head, racking a shotgun (JT Day 3 p. 95, 13 119). When Mr. Grimaldi looked out the window, he saw a tall African American 14 man with an afro wearing basketball shorts (JT Day 3 p. 98-99). Mr. Grimaldi then 15 saw a third person out of the corner of his eye, describing the man as African 16 American with a spiky afro (JT Day 3 p. 101-102). Mr. Grimaldi did not recognize 17 any of the three individuals (JT Day 3 p. 104). Mr. Clarkson then relayed this 18 information to the 911 operator (JT Day 3 p. 96-97).

19 When two police officers arrived (Officer Malik Grego-Smith and Officer 20 Jeremy Robertson) Mr. Clarkson let them in the front door (JT Day 3 p. 71). Mr.
21 Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi explained to officers how to open the back door and 22 then Officer Robertson opened the back door (JT Day 3 p. 71-72). Mr. Clarkson
23 and Mr. Grimaldi recalled that immediately after the back door was opened there
24 were gunshots (JT Day 3 p. 74-75, 107-108). Mr. Grimaldi had previously told 25 detectives it was his belief that an officer fired the first gunshot, but testified at 26 trial the first shots came from outside on the patio (JT Day 3 p. 124, 126-127). Mr.
27 Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi both saw different types of bullets enter their home (JT 28 Day 3 p. 75, 107-108). After the shots were fired, Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi

1 hid in a bedroom (JT Day 3 p. 76).

2 Officer Malik Grego-Smith, along with Officer Jeremy Robertson,
3 responded to a dispatch call regarding a prowler at the Oveja circle residence (JT
4 Day 5 p. 62, 65). After requesting dispatch inform the homeowner to open the 5 front door, Officer Grego-Smith and Officer Robertson enter the residence (JT
6 Day 5 p. 70). Once in the residence, the officers developed a plan to “clear the 7 backyard” to see if anyone was out there (JT Day 5 p. 72). Officer Robertson was 8 to open the back door, and as he opened the door, Officer Grego-Smith would go
9 through and Officer Robertson would follow (JT Day 5 p. 73). Officer Grego-
10 Smith drew his weapon and as he stepped outside two shots were fired from 11 outside on the patio, one striking Officer Robertson (JT Day 5 p. 73, 76). Officer 12 Grego-Smith returned fire towards the patio, firing twelve shots (JT Day 5 p. 76; 13 JT Day 7 p. 29-30).

14 Officer Grego-Smith testified he turned his flashlight on right when he 15 started shooting and saw “a light-skinned black male with no shirt and purple 16 basketball shorts” on the patio (JT Day 5 p. 78). The man was approximately three 17 to four feet from him (JT Day 5 p. 90). Officer Grego-Smith recalled yelling, 18 “Don’t move, keep your hands up, don’t move or I’ll fucking shoot you.” (JT Day 19 5 p. 80). Officer Grego-Smith immediately radioed dispatch to inform them that 20 shots had been fired and Officer Robertson had been shot (JT Day 5 p. 80). When 21 back up arrived, Officer Grego-Smith entered the backyard area and witnessed Mr.
22 Hudson being taken into custody (JT Day 5 p. 82). Officer Grego-Smith testified 23 at trial that Mr. Hudson was not the shirtless African American man he had seen in 24 the backyard when he turned on his flashlight (JT Day 5 p. 86).

25 Officer Jeremy Robertson recalled he had just opened the back door to the 26 patio of the residence when he was shot and fell to the ground (JT Day 5 p. 120).
27 Officer Robertson was struck in the upper thigh, fracturing his femur (JT Day 5 p.

Sergeant Joshua Bitsko, a K-9 officer, responded to the Oveja residence (JT Day 4 p. 127, 135). Upon arriving at the residence, Sargeant Bitsko learned from the air unit that the suspect was laying in the backyard with a rifle next to him (JT Day 4 p. 140). A Beretta .25 caliber handgun was also located nearby (JT Day 4 p. 81). Sargeant Bitsko deployed his police dog into the backyard who located and began biting the suspect (JT Day 4 p. 140-143). The suspect complied with all commands, was taken into custody and identified as Clemon Hudson (JT Day 4 p. 32, 143-145).

Police secured a perimeter around the crime scene approximately a mile and a half by a mile wide in order to search for additional suspects (JT Day 4 p. 153). Detective Jeremy Vance spent approximately three and a half hours driving around the perimeter looking for the suspect described by officer Grego-Smith (JT Day 4 p. 153).

After being notified of a call concerning a suspicious person in a backyard, Detective Vance came upon Mr. Turner and began to question him (JT Day 4 p. 154-158). Detective Vance noticed Mr. Turner was injured given the blood on his pants (JT Day 4 p. 158). When questioned about the injury, Mr. Turner indicated his leg was caught on a fence at his friend's house (JT Day 4 p. 158). Detective Vance believed the injury was caused by a gunshot wound (JT Day 4 p. 158-159).<sup>2</sup>

5 p. 6). Twelve Speer .9 millimeter<sup>3</sup> cartridge casings were recovered from the dining room area (JT Day 5 p. 14). There were three 7.62 rifle cartridge casings located on the backyard patio area (JT Day 5 p. 15). Analysts did not locate any expended shotgun shells or .25 caliber casings (JT Day 5 p. 16). Analysts located numerous shotgun pellets in the living room of the residence as well as pieces of a shotfun round located on top of the front window sill (JT Day 5 p. 32-34). Firearms recovered from the scene included a SKS rifle, a Mossberg 12-gauge shotgun and a Beretta .25 caliber handgun (JT Day 4 p. 78, 81).

Ms. Gayle Johnson, a forensic scientist with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, conducted latent print testing on several items (JT Day 6 p. 17-25). With regard to an AK-47 firearm,<sup>4</sup> the analyst was unable to develop any suitable prints for testing (JT Day 6 p. 20). Two latent prints were recovered from a shotgun, both belonging to Mr. Hudson and located in the metal area above the trigger (JT Day 6 p. 23-24). DNA testing was conducted with regard to the firearms (JT Day 6 p. 29-48). No conclusions could be made about the DNA located on the rifle, the Mossberg shotgun or the Beretta handgun (JT Day 6 p. 35, 39-41).

A Toyota Camry located outside the residence was registered to Mr. Hudson's mother (JT Day 7 p. 50-51).

When analysts recovered the shotgun the State alleged Mr. Hudson to be holding, it was inoperable due to damage sustained (JT Day 7 p. 118-122). A fragment was removed from the shotgun, but analysts were unable to determine what weapon the fragment originated (JT Day 7 p. 136).

In September of 2015, Mr. Craig Jex was employed as a Detective with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (JT Day 6 p. 58). Mr. Jex documented

2 hospital, Mr. Jex came into contact with Mr. Hudson and conducted an interview
3 with him (JT Day 6 p. 61).

4 Mr. Jex testified Mr. Hudson relayed to him that he went to the house to 5 obtain marijuana that night and no one was supposed to be home (JT Day 6 p. 65,
6 86). Mr. Hudson told him there was only one other person involved and the plan
7 was to break in the back window of the residence (JT Day 6 p. 66-67, 74). When 8 Mr. Jex questioned Mr. Hudson as to whether he brought and carried the shotgun,
9 he indicated he did (JT Day 6 p. 66-67, 76-78). Mr. Hudson informed Mr. Jex that 10 there was an SKS rifle and a shotgun in the backyard (JT Day 6 p. 76). Mr.
11 Hudson also told Mr. Jex that he had also brought a small firearm in his shoe (JT 12 Day 6 p. 78-80).

13 During the interview, Mr. Hudson told Mr. Jex he was not sure if he fired
14 the shotgun, but if he did, he fired once (JT Day 6 p. 77, 88). Mr. Hudson
15 indicated he shot towards the bottom of the window (JT Day 6 p. 78). It was Mr.
16 Hudson's belief that the officers started shooting first (JT Day 6 p. 90).

17 Detective Eduardo Pazos conducted an interview with Mr. Turner (JT Day 6 18 p. 96-97). Mr. Turner told police that "someone came to pick him up" around 19 midnight and it was just the two of them in the car (JT Day 6 p. 101, 104). When 20 Mr. Turner got in the car, he saw two guns in the back (JT Day 6 p. 103-104). Mr.
21 Turner indicated the SKS rifle belonged to his uncle (JT Day 6 p. 102, 105).

22 Mr. Turner explained to Detective Pazos that when he entered the backyard
23 of the residence, shots were fired (JT Day 6 p. 105). When the shots were fired, he 24 hopped over the wall to the back of the house (JT Day 6 p. 105). Mr. Turner told 25 Detective Pazos that after he hopped over the wall, he sat on a couch he found in 26 the neighborhood for a while and than began walking to a friends house (JT Day 6
27 p. 105). As he was walking to a friends house, he encountered police (JT Day 6 p.
28 105).

Mr. Turner told Detective Pazos he had been in the house before and knew who lived there (JT Day 6 p. 108). Mr. Turner admitted he was there to steal weed and if there was any money in the house, he would have taken that as well (JT Day 6 p. 108-110). Mr. Turner denied having a gun in his hand during the incident or firing a weapon (JT Day 6 p. 116-117). Mr. Turner indicated that when the shooting began, he ran away (JT Day 6 p. 112-113, 116).

ARGUMENT

I. STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR INEFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL.

To state a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel that is sufficient to invalidate a judgment of conviction, petitioner must demonstrate that:

1. counsel's performance fell below an objective standard of reasonableness,
2. counsel's errors were so severe that they rendered the verdict unreliable.<sup>5</sup>

Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 353, 871 P. 2d 944, 946 (1994). (Citing Strickland v. Washington, 466 U. S. 668, 104 S. Ct. 205, (1984)). Once the defendant establishes that counsels performance was deficient, the defendant must next show that, but for counsels error the result of the trial would probably have been different. Strickland, 466 U.S. at. 694, 104 S. Ct. 2068; Davis v. State, 107 Nev. 600, 601,602, 817 P. 2d 1169, 1170 (1991). The defendant must also demonstrate errors were so egregious as to render the result of the trial unreliable or the proceeding fundamentally unfair. State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1145, 865 P.2d 322, 328 (1993), citing Lockhart v. Fretwell, 506 U. S. 364,113 S. Ct. 838 122 2d, 180 (1993); Strickland, 466 U. S. at 687 104 S. Ct. at 2064.

<sup>5</sup> To preclude any argument by the State that Mr. Hudson has not contended counsel violated the Strickland standard, every argument presented below is based upon this standard.

1 The United States Supreme Court in Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668,
2 104 S. Ct. 2052 (1984), established the standards for a court to determine when 3 counsel's assistance is so ineffective that it violates the Sixth Amendment of the 4 U.S. Constitution. Strickland laid out a two-pronged test to determine the merits of 5 a defendant's claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

7 First, the defendant must show that counsel's performance was deficient.
8 This requires a showing that counsel made errors so serious that counsel was not 9 functioning as the counsel guaranteed the defendant by the Sixth Amendment.
10 Second the defendant must show that the deficient performance prejudiced the 11 defense. This requires showing that counsel's errors were so serious as to deprive 12 the defendant of a fair trial whose result is reliable. Unless a defendant makes both 13 showings, it cannot be said that the conviction resulted from a breakdown in the 14 adversary process that renders the result unreliable. The Nevada Supreme Court 15 has held "claims of ineffective assistance of counsel must be reviewed under the 16 "reasonably effective assistance" standard articulated by the United States
17 Supreme Court in Strickland v. Washington, requiring the petitioner to show that 18 counsel's assistance was deficient and that the deficiency prejudiced the defense."
19 Bennett v. State, 111 Nev. 1099, 1108, 901 P.2d 676, 682 (Nev. 1995), and Kirksey
20 v. State, 112 Nev. 980, 987, 923 P.2d 1102, 1107 Nev. 1996).

25 In meeting the prejudice requirement of ineffective assistance of counsel
26 claim, Mr. Hudson must show a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's 27 errors, the result of the trial would have been different. Reasonable probability is 28 probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome. Kirksey v. State,

1 112 Nev. at 980. “Strategy or decisions regarding the conduct of defendant’s case
2 are virtually unchallengeable, absent extraordinary circumstances.” Mazzan v.
3 State, 105 Nev. 745, 783 P.2d 430 Nev. 1989); Olausen v. State, 105 Nev. 110, 771
4 P.2d 583 Nev. 1989).

6 The Nevada Supreme Court has held a defendant has a right to effective
7 assistance of appellate counsel on direct appeal. Kirksey v. Nevada, 112 Nev. 980,
8 923 P.2d 1102 (1996).

10 The constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel extends to a direct 11 appeal. Burke v. State, 110 Nev. 1366, 1368, 887 P.2d 267, 268 (1994). A claim of 12 ineffective assistance of appellate counsel is reviewed under the “reasonably 13 effective assistance” test set forth in Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 80 L.
14 Ed. 2d 674, 104 S. Ct. 2052 (1984). Effective assistance of appellate counsel does 15 not mean that appellate counsel must raise every non-frivolous issue. See Jones v.
16 Barnes, 463 U.S. 745, 751-54, 77 L. Ed. 2d 987, 103 S. Ct. 3308 (1983). An 17 attorney’s decision not to raise meritless issues on appeal is not ineffective
18 assistance of counsel. Daniel v. Overton, 845 F. Supp. 1170, 1176 (E.D. Mich.
19 1994); Leaks v. United States, 841 F. Supp. 536, 541 (S.D.N.Y. 1994), aff’d, 47
20 F.3d 1157 (2d Cir.). To establish prejudice based on the deficient assistance of 21 appellate counsel, the defendant must show that the omitted issue would have a
22 reasonable probability of success on appeal. Duhamel v. Collins, 955 F.2d 962,
23 967 (5th Cir. 1992); Heath, 941 F.2d at 1132. In making this determination, a court
24 must review the merits of the omitted claim. Heath, 941 F. 2d at 1132.

28 In the instant case, Mr. Hudson’s proceedings were fundamentally unfair.

Mr. Hudson received ineffective assistance of counsel.

II. MR. HUDSON WAS WRONGFULLY DEPRIVED OF HIS RIGHT UNDER ESTABLISHED LAW TO A DIRECT APPEAL AND HEREBY REQUESTS RELIEF PURSUANT TO LOZADA V. STATE, 110 NEV. 349, 871 P.2D 944 (1994) AND NRAP 4(c).

In this case, Mr. Hudson was deprived of his right to a direct appeal based upon counsel's rendering of ineffective assistance. As such, Mr. Hudson should be permitted to file an untimely notice of appeal. Here, given the serious nature of the offenses for which he has been convicted and the lengthy sentence received, Mr. Hudson naturally desired to appeal the instant conviction. Due to counsel's failure, Mr. Hudson never received such an opportunity. In circumstances such as this, the Nevada Supreme Court has held the defendant must be granted an untimely direct appeal. This Court should find as such, and file a notice of appeal for him as set forth in NRAP 4(c).

A. STATE AND FEDERAL AUTHORITY PERMITS AN UNTIMELY DIRECT APPEAL UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

In Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 354, 871 P.2d 944 (1994), the Nevada Supreme Court explained, "an attorney has a duty to perfect an appeal when a convicted defendant expresses a desire to appeal or indicates dissatisfaction with a conviction." If counsel fails to file an appeal after a convicted defendant makes a timely request, the defendant was entitled to the Lozada remedy, which consisted of filing a post-conviction petition with assistance of counsel in which the actual appellate claims could be raised. Id. Such a claim did not require any showing of merit as to the issues sought to be raised. As such, it is sufficient to receive the relief contemplated by Lozada if a petition shows that the defendant was deprived of his right to a direct appeal without his consent. Id. at 357.

The remedy contemplated by Lozada has been largely subsumed by revisions to the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure (NRAP), though the basis for obtaining relief remains generally the same. Under NRAP 4(c), an untimely notice of appeal may be filed if:

1 A) A post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus has been
2 timely and properly filed in accordance with the provisions of NRSs
3 34.720 to 34.830, asserting a viable claim that the petitioner was unlawfully deprived of the right to a timely direct appeal from a judgment of conviction and sentence; and

4 B) The district court in which the petition is considered enters a 5 written order containing:

6 i) specific findings of fact and conclusions of law finding that 7 the petitioner has established a valid appeal-deprivation claim and is entitled to a direct appeal with the assistance of appointed or retained appellate counsel;

8 ii) if the petitioner is indigent, directions for the appointment of 9 appellate counsel, other than counsel for the defense in the 10 proceedings leading to the conviction, to represent the petitioner in the direct appeal from the conviction and sentence;
and

11 iii) directions to the district court clerk to prepare and file –
12 within 7 days of the entry of the district court's order – a notice 13 of appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioners behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms.

14 The Nevada Supreme Court has been clear – counsel has a constitutional 15 duty to file a direct appeal in two circumstances: when requested to do so and 16 when the defendant expresses dissatisfaction with his conviction, and that the 17 failure to do so in those circumstances is deficient for purposes of proving 18 ineffective assistance of counsel. Lozada, 110 Nev. at 354–57; Davis v. State, 115
19 Nev. 17, 20, 974 P.2d 658, 660 (1999) (“[I]f the client does express a desire to 20 appeal, counsel is obligated to file the notice of appeal on the client’s behalf.”).

21 To prove ineffective assistance of counsel, a petitioner must demonstrate 22 that counsel’s performance was deficient in that it fell below an objective standard
23 of reasonableness and resulting prejudice such that there is a reasonable 24 probability that, but for counsel’s errors, the outcome of the proceedings would 25 have been different. Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 687, 104 S. Ct. 2052,
26 80 Led.2d 674 (1984); Warden v. Lyons, 100 Nev 430, 432–33, 683 P.2d 504, 505
27 (1984). Generally, both components of the inquiry must be shown, but in some 28 instances, such as when the petitioner has been deprived of the right to appeal due

1 to counsel's deficient performance, the second component – prejudice – may be
2 presumed. See Lozada, 110 Nev. at 356–57. See also Rodriguez v. United States,
3 395 U.S. 327, 328, 23 L. Ed 2d 340, 89 S. T. 1715 (1969) (presuming prejudice
4 when counsel failed to file a notice of appeal against his client's wishes). The 5 petitioner must demonstrate the underlying facts by a preponderance of the 6 evidence. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004). See also 7 Toston v. State, 127 Nev. 971, 976, 267 P.3d 795 (2011).

8 In Toston, the Nevada Supreme Court provided guidance as to the meaning
9 of “when the defendant expresses dissatisfaction with his conviction”. See
10 generally, 127 Nev. at 978–79. The Nevada Supreme Court explained:

11 [T]rial counsel has a duty to file a direct appeal when the client's
12 desire to challenge the conviction or sentence can be reasonably 13 inferred from the totality of the circumstances, focusing on the 14 information that counsel new or should have known at the time. Cf.
15 Flores v. Ortega, 528 U.S. at 480 (discussing circumstances in which 16 counsel must consult with a client regarding an appeal). In 17 determining whether counsel knew or should have known that his client wanted to appeal the conviction, the courts may consider whether the conviction arose from a jury trial or a guilty plea, “both because a guilty plea reduces the scope of potentially appealable issues and because such a plea may indicate that the defendant seeks an end to judicial proceedings.” Toston, 127 Nev. at 979 (footnotes omitted).

18 Thus, when a defendant has been convicted pursuant to a jury verdict,
19 counsel has a constitutional duty to inform the client of the right to appeal. Lozada
20 110 Nev. at 356. Counsel's failure to do so is deficient performance for purposes
21 of proving an ineffective assistance of counsel claim. Roe v. Flores-Ortega, 528
22 U.S. 470, 477–81, 120 S. Ct. 1029 (2000).

23 B. MR. HUDSON WAS DEPRIVED OF HIS RIGHT TO A
24 DIRECT APPEAL AND SHOULD BE PERMITTED AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AN UNTIMELY DIRECT APPEAL.

25 In order to prevail, Mr. Hudson must demonstrate by a preponderance of the 26 evidence that 1) he filed a timely post-conviction Petition, and 2) his attorney had 27 a duty to perfect an appeal because Mr. Hudson either expressed a desire to 28 appeal, indicated dissatisfaction with his conviction, or his desire to challenge the conviction or sentence can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances. See Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. at 354–57; Toston, 127 Nev. at 976–79. Mr. Hudson need not demonstrate prejudice as it is presumed. Lozada, 110 Nev. at 356–57.

First, in this case, there is no question that Mr. Hudson filed a timely post-conviction petition. Mr. Hudson’s Judgment of Conviction was filed on July 2, 2018. On October 25, 2018, Mr. Hudson filed a timely Petition noting he received ineffective assistance of counsel for counsel’s failure to preserve his appellate rights (Petition, p. 3). Supplemental briefing was thereafter permitted. Thus, Mr. Hudson can demonstrate he began a timely post-conviction proceeding.

Next, Mr. Hudson can demonstrate that he was deprived of a direct appeal due to ineffective assistance of counsel not only because he expressed a desire that his direct appeal be perfected, but also because his desire to challenge the conviction can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances. Attached for this Court’s review is a declaration from Mr. Hudson confirming he expressed his desire to counsel that an appeal be filed on his behalf (Exhibit A). Further, the nature and severity of the offenses, including the fact that Mr. Hudson proceeded to trial, demonstrates his desire to continue to challenge the conviction.

Additionally, counsel’s own statements demonstrate not only Mr. Hudson’s desire for an appeal, but counsel’s awareness that an appeal was to be filed. During Mr. Hudson’s sentencing on June 21, 2018, counsel stated:

Yes, Judge, and as I sated, I advised him, due to the mandatory appeal, to not give a statement today. (emphasis added) (Reporter’s Transcript of Sentencing, p. 14) (Exhibit B).

Counsel continued,

I believe we are here because Mr. Hudson got some very bad advice, and I don’t believe that we should be here at a sentencing following a jury verdict, but hopefully that will be addressed on appeal. (Emphasis added) (Reporter’s Transcript of Sentencing, p. 14) (Exhibit B).

Unfortunatelly. for reasons unknown to Mr. Hudson, counsel failed to 1 preserve his direct appeal. Mr. Hudson submits the totality of the circumstances

2 demonstrating his desire for preservation of his direct appeal rights are obvious
3 from a plain review of the record. Even assuming arguendo that is not the case,
4 Mr. Hudson is evidentiary hearing where he can establish counsel failed to 5 preserve his direct appeal rights because he has raised a colorable claim of 6 ineffective assistance. See Smith v. McCormick, 914 F.2d 1153, 1170 (9th Cir.
7 1990).

8 Here, Mr. Hudson received ineffective assistance of counsel concerning his 9 right to file an appeal because he requested an appeal be filed and counsel failed to 10 do so. In such a case, prejudice is presumed. This Court should therefore grant the 11 petition and file a notice of appeal on Mr. Hudson's behalf pursuant to NRAP 4(c).

12 III. MR. HUDSON RECEIVED INEFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE OF TRIAL
13 COUNSEL FOR FAILURE TO OBJECT TO THE DISTRICT
14 COURT'S PRESENTATION OF INSTRUCTION NUMBER 38
REGARDING FLIGHT TO THE JURY.

15 In the instant case, trial counsel failed to object to the district court's giving 16 of instruction number thirty-eight, regarding flight (JT Day 9 p. 22).

17 THE FLIGHT INSTRUCTION

18 INSTRUCTION NO. 32:

19 The flight of a person immediately after the commission of a 20 crime, or after he is accused of a crime, is not sufficient in itself to 21 establish his guilt, but is a fact which, if proved, may be considered 22 by you in light of all other proved facts in deciding the question of his guilt or innocence. Whether or not evidence of flight shows a consciousness of guilt and the significance to be attached to such a circumstance are matters for your deliberation (Jury Instruction No.
32).

23 In the instant case, a review of the record demonstrates the jury should not 24 have been instructed on flight.

25 "[A] district court may properly give a flight instruction if the State presents
26 evidence of flight and the record supports the conclusion that the defendant fled
27 with consciousness of guilt and to evade arrest." See Rosky v. State, 121 Nev. 184, 28 199, 111 P.3d 690, 699–700 (2005). While the Nevada Supreme Court reviews the

1 district court's decision to issue a jury instruction for an abuse of discretion,
2 "[b]ecause of the possibility of undue influence by [a flight] instruction, this court
3 carefully scrutinizes the record to determine if the evidence actually warranted the 4 instruction." See Weber v. State, 121 Nev. 554, 582, 119 P.3d 107, 126 (2005).

5 In Guy v. State, 108 Nev. 770, 839 P.2d 578 (1992), the Nevada Supreme 6 Court noted that district courts should not use a flight instruction where there is 7 not overwhelming evidence that the flight was related to an attempt to avoid arrest
8 because of its inherently prejudicial nature.

9 In Miles v. State, 97 Nev. 82, 624 P.2d 494 (1981), the Nevada Supreme 10 Court reasoned that:

11 However, a flight instruction may give undue influence to one phase
12 of evidence, therefore the appellate court will carefully scrutinize it to 13 be certain that the record supports the conclusion that appellant's
14 going away was not just a mere leaving but was with a consciousness
15 of guilt and for the purpose of avoiding arrest. 97 Nev. 82, 85. See
16 also Potter v. State, 96 Nev. 875, 619 P.2d 1222 (1980) and Theriault
17 v. State, 92 Nev. 185, 547 P.2d 668 (1976).

18 In Miles, this Court determined the flight instruction was proper where after 19 one hour passed, Mr. Miles left the area of the crime and was arrested several 20 months later in a neighboring state. 97 Nev. at 85.

21 In Weber, 121 Nev. at 582, the Nevada Supreme Court explained that a jury 22 may properly receive an instruction regarding flight so long as it is supported by 23 the evidence, but "signifies something more than a mere going away." Id. In 24 Weber, the Nevada Supreme Court found evidence of flight where the defendant
25 left the Las Vegas area on a bus, traveling to California, Oregon, Washington, 26 Idaho and Utah. Id. The defendant in Weber also purchased items for a disguise.
27 Id.

28 In Guy, the Nevada Supreme Court found a flight instruction improper where the defendant engaged in a high speed automobile chase two weeks after the offense was alleged to have been committed. 108 Nev. at 773. In Guy, the Nevada Supreme Court noted that given Guy's criminal proclivities, there were

1 numerous reasons why he would flee from police and assuming consciousness of 2 guilt and fear of arrest arising from the offense for which he was on trial was pure
3 speculation. Id. at 777.

4 A review of the entire record reveals that Mr. Hudson did not flee the scene
5 with consciousness of guilt and to evade arrest. The record does not establish that 6 Mr. Hudson ran away to another jurisdiction, was arrested in a neighboring state
7 or attempted to flee in any way other than necessary to accomplish the crime itself.
8 In fact, Mr. Hudson was located at the scene of the offense and did not move from 9 the time officers told him to stay where he was (JT Day 4 p. 140, JT Day 5 p. 82).
10 The record at trial makes clear that Mr. Hudson complied with all commands and 11 was taken into custody at the scene (JT Day 4 p. 32, 143-145). Whereas, with 12 regard to co-defendant Turner, when he fled the scene, it caused police to secure a 13 perimeter around the crime scene approximately a mile and a half by a mile wide
14 (JT Day 4 p. 153). Yet, the court made no distinguishment that the instruction
15 concerning flight applied to only Mr. Turner and not Mr. Hudson.

16 Clearly, the evidence adduced at trial did not warrant the giving of a flight
17 instruction. As the Nevada Supreme Court noted in Guy, the giving of a flight
18 instruction is inherently prejudicial. Trial counsel should have objected to this 19 improper and highly prejudicial instruction. Based on the foregoing, Mr. Hudson 20 received ineffective assistance of counsel for failure to object to the giving of this 21 instruction.

3 COURT'S GIVING OF INSTRUCTION NUMBERS 40 AND 50 IN
4 VIOLATION OF THE FIFTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT
5 TO THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.<sup>6</sup>

6 Mr. Hudson received ineffective assistance of counsel for failing to object 7 to these jury instructions at trial.

8 A. THE REASONABLE DOUBT INSTRUCTION
9 INSTRUCTION NO. 40

10 The trial court's reasonable doubt instruction given improperly minimized
11 the State's burden of proof. The jury was given the following instruction on 12 reasonable doubt:

13 A reasonable doubt is one based on reason. It is not mere possible
14 doubt but is such a doubt as would govern or control a person in the 15 more weighty affairs of life. If the minds of the jurors, after the entire 16 comparison and consideration of all the evidence, are in such a 17 condition that they can say they feel and abiding conviction of the 18 truth of the charge, there is not a reasonable doubt. Doubt, to be 19 reasonable, must be actual, not mere possibility or speculation
20 (Instruction Number 40).

21 The instruction given to the jury minimized the State's burden of proof by 22 including terms "It is not mere possible doubt, but is such a doubt as would govern
23 or control a person in the more weighty affairs of life" and "Doubt, to be 24 reasonable, must be actual, not mere possibility or speculation." This instruction 25 inflates the constitutional standard of doubt necessary for acquittal, and the giving 26 of this instruction created a reasonable likelihood that the jury would convict and 27 sentence based on a lesser standard of proof than the constitution requires. See 28 Victor v. Nebraska, 511 U.S. 1, 24 (1994) (Ginsburg, J., concurring in part); Cage
v. Louisiana, 498 U.S.39, 41 (1990); Estelle v. McGuire, 502 U.S. 62, 72 (1991).
Mr. Colvin recognizes that the Nevada Supreme Court has found this instruction to be permissible. See e.g. Elvik v. State, 114 Nev. 883, 985 P.2d 784 (1998);

<sup>6</sup> The undersigned has raised this issue to the Nevada Supreme Court numerous times and acknowledges that the Court has always denied the issue. The issue is presented because the Court may reconsider its previous decisions and because this issue must be presented to preserve it for federal review.

1 Bolin v. State, 114 Nev. 503, 960 P.2d 784 (1998).

2 B. EQUAL AND EXACT JUSTICE

3 The trial court's "equal and exact justice" instruction improperly minimized
4 the State's burden of proof. The court provided the following instruction to the 5 jury:

6 INSTRUCTION NO. 50

7 Now you will listen to the arguments of counsel who will endeavor to 8 aid you to reach a proper verdict by refreshing in your minds the 9 evidence and by showing the application thereof to the law, but 10 whatever counsel may say, you will bear in mind that it is your duty 11 to be governed in your deliberation by the evidence as you understand it and remember it to be and by the law as given to you in these instructions with the sole, fixed and steadfast purpose of doing equal and exact justice between the defendant and the State of Nevada (Instruction Number 50).

12 By informing the jury that it must provide equal and exact justice between 13 the defendant and the State, this instruction created a reasonable likelihood that the 14 jury would not apply the presumption of innocence in favor of Mr. Hudson and 15 would thereby convict and sentence based on an lesser standard of proof than the 16 constitution requires. Sullivan v. Louisiana, 508 U.S. 275, 281 (1993).

17 Based on the foregoing, Mr. Hudson would respectfully request this Court 18 reverse his convictions.

19 V. MR. HUDSON IS ENTITLED TO A REVERSAL OF HIS 20 CONVICTIONS BASED UPON CUMULATIVE ERROR.

21 In Dechant v. State, 10 P.3d 108, 116 Nev. 918 (2000), the Nevada
22 Supreme Court reversed the murder conviction of Amy Dechant based upon the 23 cumulative effect of the errors at trial. In Dechant, the Nevada Supreme Court 24 provided, "[W]e have stated that if the cumulative effect of errors committed at 25 trial denies the appellant his right to a fair trial, this Court will reverse the 26 conviction." Id. at 113 citing Big Pond v. State, 101 Nev. 1, 3, 692 P.2d 1288,
27 1289 (1985). The Nevada Supreme Court explained that there are certain factors 28 in deciding whether error is harmless or prejudicial including whether 1) the issue of guilt or innocence is close, 2) the quantity and character of the area and 3) the

1 gravity of the crime charged. Id.

2 Based on the foregoing, Mr. Hudson would respectfully request that this
3 Court reverse his conviction based upon cumulative errors of counsel.

4 VI. MR. HUDSON IS ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING.

5 A petitioner is entitled to an evidentiary hearing where the petitioner raises
6 a colorable claim of ineffective assistance. Smith v. McCormick, 914 F.2d 1153,
7 1170 (9th Cir.1990); Hendricks v. Vasquez, 974 F.2d 1099, 1103, 1109-10 (9th
8 Cir.1992). See also Morris v. California, 966 F.2d 448, 454 (9th Cir.1991)
9 (remand for evidentiary hearing required where allegations in petitioner's affidavit
10 raise inference of deficient performance); Harich v. Wainwright, 813 F.2d 1082, 11 1090 (11th Cir.1987) (“[W]here a petitioner raises a colorable claim of ineffective
12 assistance, and where there has not been a state or federal hearing on this claim, 13 we must remand to the district court for an evidentiary hearing.”); Porter v.
14 Wainwright, 805 F.2d 930 (11th Cir. 1986) (without the aid of an evidentiary
15 hearing, the court cannot conclude whether attorneys properly investigated a case 16 or whether their decisions concerning evidence were made for tactical reasons).

17 In the instant case, an evidentiary hearing is necessary to question trial
18 counsel. Mr. Hudson’s counsel fell below a standard of reasonableness. More
19 importantly, based on the failures of trial counsel, Mr. Hudson was severely
20 prejudiced, pursuant to Strickland v. Washington, 466 U. S. 668, 104 S. Ct. 205, 21 (1984), as he was deprived of his right to file a direct appeal.

22 Under the facts presented here, an evidentiary hearing is mandated to 23 determine whether the performance of trial counsel was effective, to determine the 24 prejudicial impact of the errors and omissions noted in the petition, and to 25 ascertain the truth in this case.

THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 2018, AT 9:49 A.M.

THE COURT: Case number C309578, State versus Steven Turner and Clemon Hudson. Counsel, state your appearances, please.

MR. GIORDANI: Good morning, Your Honor, John Giordani on behalf of the State.

MS. PLUNKETT: Good morning, Judge, Alexis Plunkett for Clemon Hudson.

MS. MACHNICH: Tegan Machnich and Ashley Sisolak for Mr. Turner.

MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And we're going to do this in order as they appear on the calendar. And so Mr. Turner is first on calendar. Now, counsel, I've been notified that we're going to have victim impact statements.

MR. GIORDANI: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I called the cases together so the -- will the parties stipulate that the statements that are made today by the victims are to be applied to both Defendants; is that correct?

MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Do the parties stipulate to that?

MS. PLUNKETT: Yes, Your Honor.

MS. SISOLAK: Yes, Your Honor.

MS. MACHNICH: That's absolutely fine, Your Honor. We actually would be fine with the State making -- and I don't know if the

1 State's argument is substantially different for both co-defendants. We
2 would have no opposition to them just -- us going State, Defense,
3 Defense.

4 THE COURT: I don't want to do that because they're co-
5 defendants and they're going to have separate issues for appellate
6 review, so I want to keep the record as clean as I can.

7 MS. SISOLAK: Understood, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: That's why I'm asking parties to stipulate. And 9 at the end of each victim impact statement I'll give the Defense an 10 opportunity to ask questions of that victim as they make their statement;
11 okay?

12 MR. GIORDANI: Yes. And our only request would be that the 13 victims be able to speak last.

14 THE COURT: That's correct. Well, it's going to be last as to 15 Mr. Turner. Oh, I see what you're saying.

16 MR. GIORDANI: No, just once at the end of the whole thing is
17 what we would ask.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So, you want me -- I think what the
19 State is requesting -- as long as the Defense doesn't have a problem I'm 20 going to do the preliminary matters together. Then you want both the 21 Defense counsel to make their argument at the same time?

22 MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, that's how we would do it on a --

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. GIORDANI: -- typical co-defendant --

25 THE COURT: So, both Defense counsel will then make your

1 argument at the same time, and then we'll do the victim statements.

2 Is that satisfactory with everyone?

3 MR. GIORDANI: Yes.

4 MS. MACHNICH: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MS. PLUNKETT: Yes, Judge.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. This is the time set for
7 entry of judgement and imposition of sentence. Is there any legal cause
8 or reason why judgement should not be pronounced at this time?

9 MS. MACHNICH: No, Your Honor.

10 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

11 THE COURT: State?

12 MR. GIORDANI: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: No, no. Is there any reason we shouldn't go
14 forward --

15 MR. GIORDANI: No.

16 THE COURT: -- at this time?

17 MR. GIORDANI: No.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Mr. Turner, by verdict of the jury, I hereby adjudge you guilty
20 of the offenses of Count 1 conspiracy to commit burglary, Count 2
21 attempt burglary while in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon,
22 Counts 3 and 4 attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon, and Count
23 5 battery with use of a deadly weapon resulting in substantial bodily
24 harm.

25 Mr. Hudson, by verdict of the jury, I hereby adjudge you guilty

1 of Count 1 conspiracy to commit burglary, Count 2 attempt burglary while
2 in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon, Counts 3 and 4 attempt
3 murder with use of a deadly weapon, and Count 5 battery with use of a
4 deadly weapon resulting in substantial bodily harm.

5 State, what's your position on sentencing?

6 MR. GIORDANI: Thank you, Your Honor. I won't rehash the
7 entirety of the facts; you sat through a lengthy trial in this case, but what I
8 will do is remind the Court of a couple of things that came out during the 9 trial.

10 First off, there were two confessions given, one by each
11 Defendant, that were heavily redacted in order to be presented to the 12 jury, but I want to remind the Court that those statements are not invalid
13 for any reason or suppressed for any reason, and in those statements
14 both of these Defendants confessed that they were going over to this
15 home of Eric Clarkson and Willoughby Grimaldi in order to commit a
16 dope rip or a robbery.

17 As Your Honor's fully aware, they went over there heavily
18 armed. They went -- Mr. Turner went with an SKS rifle or what was 19 referred to a couple times as an AK-47. Mr. Hudson went with a
20 shotgun.

21 When they got to that home they repeatedly tried to get in
22 through the front door, the side door -- or -- side window and the back
23 door. Police are called, then you have that ten-minute -- ten or so minute
24 9-1-1 call in which the victims, who are present here in court today, were
25 absolutely terrified that there were armed men outside their home trying

1 to get in.

2           Officers Robertson and Grego-Smith respond to the call, get
3 to that home. They do what they're trained to do, they approach
4 tactically, they get to the back door, and without warning as soon as that
5 door is opened Mr. Turner fires his SKS rifle striking Mr. -- or -- Officer
6 Robertson, dropping him to the ground. Mr. Hudson then fires his
7 shotgun and because Officer Robertson went to the ground, he missed
8 entirely. It went over, narrowly missing the victims as well.

9           There were two other rounds fired from that SKS rifle. There
10 were no other rounds fired by the shotgun and that's because Officer
11 Grego-Smith put himself between his downed partner and the assailants,
12 and returned fire. And you'll recall one of those rounds struck the 13 shotgun, rendering it inoperable. So, you know, I can speculate as to 14 whether he would have kept firing. I won't do that. He fired at least one
15 round, and that round was intended to kill.

16           When you shoot a shotgun -- I don't know if Your Honor's shot
17 a shotgun before, but when you do you would understand you shoot that 18 at a human being, your intent is one thing and one thing only and that's 19 to kill.

20           The return fire from Officer Grego-Smith caused Mr. Turner to 21 drop his gun like a coward and flee. And then Mr. Hudson was struck in
22 his gun, went down, and was apprehended on the scene by the K-9
23 units. It was shortly thereafter, three hours later that Mr. Turner was 24 caught on the perimeter. He had that frag in his leg. He then was taken
25 into custody and ultimately gave those statements that I discussed

1 earlier.

2           What I'm asking this Court to do is sentence each Defendant
3 generally to the same sentence. As to Mr. Turner, because he actually
4 struck Officer Robertson changing his life forever, I'm asking for 16 to 40
5 years. That is eight to 20 on one count of attempt murder with use of a
6 deadly weapon, and a consecutive eight to 20 on the other count of
7 attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon. I believe that is an 8 appropriate sentence. It's in the midrange for each count.

9           I do believe that these victims should be treated separately
10 because one of the issues that you'll recall that the Defense raised and
11 the Defendants actually said in their statements generally was they didn't
12 know who they were shooting at. And my -- first I think that's a joke and
13 frankly just inaccurate, but even if you accept that as true, they're either
14 shooting at Clarkson and Willoughby or they're shooting at Officer
15 Grego-Smith and Officer Robertson.

16           So, in any event, whatever you accept as their mindset at the 17 time, there are two victims at least, and those two victims should be 18 treated separately. They're separate crimes. That's why I'm asking for 19 consecutive terms on the attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon.

20           I'll end with this, Your Honor. This crime changed Officer
21 Robertson's life forever. It changed Metro's approach to things. And I
22 can just say there are a number of officers in the courtroom in support.
23 This crime had a major impact on the law enforcement community.

24           If -- anyone who's here on this case in support of the officers
25 would you please stand briefly?

1           As you can see, Your Honor, this crime didn't just impact
2 Officer Robertson. It didn't just impact Officer Grego-Smith. It didn't just
3 impact Eric Clarkson and Willoughby Grimaldi, but it impacted the law
4 enforcement community.

5           You guys can have a seat.

6           This -- whatever their mindset was at the time, this was
7 egregious, egregious conduct. Had that bullet that came out of that SKS
8 rifle gone two centimeters to the right, we would be sitting here on a first
9 degree murder felony murder case. And during a felony murder, of
10 course, if someone dies it doesn't matter whether it's intentional,
11 unintentional or accidental. By the grace of God he didn't die. I
12 understand that, and that's why I'm not asking for the minimum of 20;
13 what it would be on a first of, course.

14           I think 16 to 40 years is appropriate as to Mr. Turner because 15 he's the one who actually struck Officer Robertson. As to Mr. Hudson,
16 while I believe he had the same exact intent and the only reason he
17 didn't strike anyone is because his firearm was hit by Officer Grego-
18 Smith's return fire, I do believe that there should be a little less on the 19 bottom for him. So, as to him I'm asking for 14 to 40, and that's two 20 years off the bottom on his sentence.

21           With that, I will submit it to the Court and just remind the Court
22 that we have five victim speakers and ask them to speak at the very end
23 once everyone else has. Thank you, Your Honor.

24           THE COURT: Thank you.

25           Mr. Turner, before your attorney speaks is there anything

1 you'd like to tell the Court on your own behalf before I pronounce
2 sentence?

3 MS. SISOLAK: Your Honor, I have a letter I'd like to read for
4 Mr. Turner. He's incredibly nervous, and based upon the fact that this
5 was a trial case and there is a mandatory appeal, I would ask that I be
6 able to read the statement.

7 THE COURT: That's fine.

8 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 First and foremost I would like to apologize to everyone
10 involved in this case, to the officers, the homeowners. I'm deeply sorry.
11 None of this was supposed to happen. There is no excuse. I allowed my 12 judgement to be clouded and I put myself and others in a position none
13 of us should ever be in. I also want to apologize to my family. I was 14 raised better than this, and I feel I let you all down.

15 To the Court, I ask you to show leniency as to -- as you see fit.
16 I have no prior convictions. I was a functioning member of society, and I
17 made a bad decision. I have to deal with the consequences for the rest
18 of my life.

19 I've thought about this day for the last 1,022 days to be able to 20 tell you all how deeply sorry I am, and I hope one day you will all forgive
21 me. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Mr. Hudson, before your attorney speaks is there anything
24 you'd like to tell the Court on your own behalf before I pronounce
25 sentence?

1 MS. PLUNKETT: Judge, I've advised him to not make a
2 statement.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 Who is going to be making the argument on behalf of Mr.
5 Turner?

6 MS. MACHNICH: I --

7 MS. SISOLAK: Ms. Machnich will be, Your Honor.

8 MS. MACHNICH: Yes. May I proceed?

9 THE COURT: You may.

10 MS. MACHNICH: Your Honor, this case is a tragedy all
11 around, and at no point during the process, during the trial, during the 12 sentencing will we be trying to say that lives were not changed and 13 affected for the rest of their lives.

14 We know that the homeowners will likely never feel safe in 15 their homes and have bad memory. We know that the officers who were 16 present on scene -- and from the witness notice that turned out to be 17 several hundred officers -- but specifically the officers directly affected in 18 this case will be scarred forever.

19 Officer Grego-Smith had to fire his service weapon and be 20 present when his fellow officer went down, not knowing if he would get
21 back up. And Officer Robertson sustained a very, very serious injury that
22 he made clear during trial, and made just clear from the documentation,
23 affected his life, affected his family, affected his children, his wife.

24 And none of us are trying to downplay what happened here.
25 Mr. Turner has wanted to take responsibility for this. Your Honor recalls

1 pretrial and the fact that there was a contingent offer. Mr. Turner did not
2 want to put anyone through this process and he was ready to take
3 responsibility at that time and he is ready to take responsibility today.

4           So, without downplaying any of the suffering by any of the 5 victims, their families, their futures -- and this will stay with each and
6 every one of them for the rest of their lives. This will also stay with Mr.
7 Turner for the rest of his and his family for the rest of theirs. He has
8 some family members present, including his mom who's been involved
9 throughout this entire case. Mr. Turner's life will never be the same. He
10 made a very bad decision; possibly the worst decision in -- I would say
11 what would be the worst decision of his life.

12           He came from a situation where he was working. He had 13 family, a fiancé, a loving mother; he had people in his life; a loving father,
14 cousins. Everyone was there for him, and he made this choice. And he
15 has never shied away from this choice and the fact that it was a decision
16 that he made.

17           Now, that being said, Mr. Turner is someone who did not have
18 a criminal history. He was not someone -- I believe there was a submittal
19 on a DUI that would have been dismissed. He had nothing else in his 20 history. He was not someone who toted around guns or knew anything
21 about them, dealt with them on a normal basis. He is not someone who 22 went out and robbed people on a normal basis. He is not someone who 23 was terrorizing the community. This was completely out of character for 24 him.

25           And because of his complete lack of criminal history -- who

1 he -- I -- you've observed him through the entire trial, Your Honor, before
2 trial, all of his demeanor in court, the fact that he has taken responsibility.
3 We are going to ask for something substantially less than the State is.
4 And we believe that an adequate sentence in this case -- because I don't
5 think there's a good sentence.

6 This is someone who's never been to jail substantially before,
7 much less prison. A year in prison is going to feel like ten years in prison
8 to him because he's not acclimated to that; he doesn't know. And as 9 much as we don't want to say that it's easier for people who have been
10 there before, it is easier for people who have been there before.

11 We're asking for an eight to 20-year sentence on this. We
12 have no problem with Your Honor dispersing that amongst the counts
13 how you deem fit, no problem punishing him for each of the counts so 14 that he feels the specific impact of what he has done to each of the 15 victims. But eight to 20 years, that is the maximum on a small habitual
16 criminal treatment; someone who gets maxed out on having committed
17 three or more felonies when they come before a District Court judge in 18 sentencing. Mr. Turner is not a habitual criminal.

19 So, when we're looking at the reasons for sentencing and 20 we're looking at recidivism, Mr. Turner has learned his lesson. And any 21 amount of time -- the time he spent already, he has already learned that
22 lesson to never ever, ever make a decision anything like what he did this
23 night again.

24 Then there's retribution and the fact that these officers and
25 homeowners went through a lot and will continue to go for a -- go through

1 a lot forever.

2 But eight to 20 years is a long time. And for an officer-
3 involved shooting there is a very good chance that he's not going to
4 parole anywhere near the bottom number. So, with eight to 20 years he
5 would do almost certainly more than eight years, substantially more than 6 eight years.

7 I would also note that my reading of the PSI -- and I know that
8 some of that comes off a little bit convoluted in the concurrent and
9 consecutive. My reading is that P and P recommends a ten to 40-year
10 sentence, and while I do believe that that is a little high based on his
11 criminal history, we are also -- it's substantially lower than what the State
12 is asking for here.

13 I will also note, on the scoresheet for P and P he came back
14 borderline; that's borderline for probation, obviously nowhere near what 15 we're asking for in this case, but that's how well he did prior to what
16 happened here because obviously the gravity of this offense is huge.

17 So, Your Honor, I'll wrap it up, but I know that you had a
18 chance to review the letters that we submitted this week from his family.
19 It was between 14 and 16 letters from family, friends. And just point out
20 that he is also a son. He is a cousin. He is a friend. He is someone who 21 will eventually return to his life, and we would ask that that not be after 22 some of his older family members pass away.

23 Your Honor, we are not downplaying the seriousness of this
24 and the impact on these victims. And I know they're going to get up here
25 and they're going to have compelling stories. Your Honor has heard

1 many of those compelling stories because Your Honor sat through this
2 trial. And I'm sure that they'll be very honest with what they say and how
3 it's affected them, but I ask Your Honor to look at what is fair and just,
4 given Mr. Turner's criminal history and his taking responsibility from the
5 beginning. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 Counsel, you'd be -- wish to be heard on mitigation on behalf
8 of Mr. Hudson?

9 MS. PLUNKETT: Yes, Judge, and as I stated, I advised him,
10 due to the mandatory appeal, to not give a statement today. But on 11 behalf of Mr. Hudson and myself I want to say how horribly sorry I am to 12 the officers who were directly involved, to the entire Metro police force, to 13 the homeowners.

14 This is -- as Ms. Machnich said this is a horrible case that 15 ended in a guilty verdict, a jury trial. And I'm so sorry that everyone even 16 has to be here today. And I believe we are here today -- and I was not 17 the attorney that represented him at trial. I believe we are here because 18 Mr. Hudson got some very bad advice, and I don't believe that we should 19 be here at a sentencing following a jury verdict, but hopefully that will be 20 addressed on appeal. I want to point out I submitted a Sentencing
21 Memorandum to Your Honor where --

22 THE COURT: I reviewed all the matters submitted to the 23 Court.

24 MS. PLUNKETT: Thank you, Judge. And Mr. Hudson is
25 someone who has a lot of family support as evidenced by the letters.

1 This is someone who grew up in a good home, a church going home, a
2 two-parent home. How we got here is shocking.

3 This is someone with no criminal history whatsoever; no
4 felonies, no misdemeanors, no gross misdemeanors, no prior arrests for
5 any offense, juvenile or adult, until this instance. This is not someone
6 who has any history with drug abuse, illicit drug abuse. This is someone
7 with no gang affiliation. This is someone who is a good person who has
8 been convicted of a hideous offense.

9 And this is not someone who is committing recurring sex
10 offenses where the likelihood of committing that offense again is so high.
11 This is not someone that was committing offenses to support a drug
12 habit. This is not someone who, as Mr. Turner's lawyer pointed out, was 13 terrorizing the community repeatedly. This is someone who made a
14 terrible, terrible mistake.

15 And this is someone that I genuinely believe that if he is 16 released today, if he is released at the end of 40 on the back end, that 17 regardless of that he will never do anything even close to this ever again
18 in his life. He has a two-year-old daughter.

19 And what I am looking at is slightly different than what Mr.
20 Turner's lawyer is arguing for. I am in the unique position where I
21 frequently represent inmates at parole revocation and release hearings.
22 I appear in front of the commissioners on a regular basis. I know that
23 this is not something where either of these gentlemen will get a first
24 parole. This is not something where they will get a mandatory parole. I
25 honestly, genuinely believe that whatever sentence Your Honor hands

1 down today, that these two gentlemen will expire that sentence and do
2 the full amount of time.

3 And so what I believe is appropriate here is something more
4 along the lines of 30 years on the back end. I'm asking Your Honor to
5 not consider the front end. Don't consider whether it's eight, ten, 12
6 because as a parole attorney, that is simply not going to happen. If he
7 expires on a 30-year sentence his two-year-old will be an adult when he
8 is released from prison. That is a very, very serious amount of prison
9 time, and I believe it is appropriate here.

10 I've tried cases in front of Your Honor. I'm not asking for 11 leniency. I'm genuinely trying to be reasonable considering the factors
12 involved with who Mr. Hudson is and how he got to this place and his 13 complete lack of criminal history. And I would submit it on that, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Do we have the victims available?

15 MR. GIORDANI: Yes, there are five. I'm going to start with 16 Eric Clarkson.

17 MS. SISOLAK: And, Your Honor, do you prefer that we 18 remain here or would you like to give the victims the entire floor? Court's 19 discretion.

20 THE COURT: Typically, what I do is I have them come to the 21 podium to speak and to be sworn in unless the parties have some other
22 preference.

23 MS. SISOLAK: No, Court's preference. Some judges prefer
24 that we have a seat and allow them the floor. I just wanted to make sure
25 we're not --

1 THE COURT: If you want to have a seat -- you don't have to
2 stand through the entire proceedings.

3 MS. SISOLAK: Oh.

4 THE COURT: I mean, if you -- because there are going to be
5 five speakers; it's my understanding.

6 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 ERIC CLARKSON

8 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
9 testified as follows:]

10 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
11 the record.

12 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Eric Clarkson, E-R-I-C
13 C-L-A-R-K-S-O-N.

14 THE COURT: Sir, you may proceed.

15 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: I want to start by thanking
16 Your Honor and the jury for finding these two men guilty on all charges. I
17 want to thank the Deputy District Attorney's Office and its staff for 18 working tirelessly for the last almost three years to bring these two men
19 to justice. Your Honor, I also want to thank all the first responders to the 20 event, but most of all a tremendous thank you to Officers Grego-Smith
21 and Robertson.

22 Your Honor, my roommate and I are survivors, not victims.
23 With that being said, I know now that surviving and actually living one's 24 life are very different things.

25 My personal and professional lives were destroyed that night,

1 Your Honor. I'm afraid to date or have sex with anyone in fear that they
2 too will try to murder me. I am no longer comfortable being out in the
3 GLBT community since this happened, as my fears are now greater than
4 the desire to perform. This is my livelihood I'm speaking of.

5 Your Honor, before this happened I was living and working as
6 a transgender female impersonator and stand-up comedian. Both of
7 those dreams, dreams I was living have ended now until somehow,
8 sometime I feel safe living and working as my true self again.

9 Your Honor, I am no longer comfortable inviting friends or
10 acquaintances over to my home. I am no longer comfortable showering
11 in my own home because of a window that faces out. I am no longer
12 comfortable sleeping in my bedroom because of a window that faces my 13 patio. It's the window in which I first saw a shadow of a man that night.
14 Every night since this happened while lying in bed I hear noises on my 15 patio and I open my eyes. I look towards that same window up to 100
16 times per night. My eyes just open and focus like that night is happening
17 all over again.

18 Your Honor, I have lost -- I -- we, my roommate and I have
19 lost dozens of friends and even family members. They are simply too
20 freaked out or afraid of being around us or in our home anymore, even
21 jokingly saying things like just in case they come back to finish the job I
22 don't want to be there.

23 Your Honor, my roommate and I are not lovers; we're just best
24 friends, but we chose to sleep in the same bed for three months after this
25 happened because we were both afraid to sleep alone.

1           Your Honor, I've always been proud of my abilities to bounce
2 back in life, but the health of my best friend has spiraled out of control
3 due to the graphic things he saw that night. It's killing him slowly, and I
4 simply cannot help him. He suffers from severe PTSD, as do I, and has
5 flashbacks from that night.

6           Your Honor, every time I walk by my back door or back
7 window or back kitchen window I am compelled to look in the backyard,
8 and I never had this fear before. Every time there's a loud noise I get
9 nervous and sometimes even cry. Even hearing gunshots on TV is too
10 much. New Year's Eve and the Fourth of July were my two favorite
11 holidays prior to this happening; now they are my least favorite because
12 of the PTSD.

13           Your Honor, I wonder sometimes if I will have to change my 14 name and move out of state that I don't have -- so that I don't have to 15 worry about this happening to us again.

16           Mr. Clemon did not know me or us prior to this happening. He
17 had never met me, but was willing -- or coerced into these crimes by Mr.
18 Turner. And if Mr. Turner has that kind of mind power to coerce people
19 into such heinous situations and crimes, I feel I have absolute reason to 20 worry about a smaller sentence and early release or even revenge after 21 release.

22           They tried to harm us, Your Honor, but instead they physically
23 harmed a Metro officer; someone who came to our home when we
24 needed and called for help.

25           Sometimes I think about hurting them, Your Honor, and I've

1 never wanted to harm another living soul ever in my life until now, and
2 feeling this way is terrible.

3 Please, Your Honor, consider imposing the longest possible
4 sentences onto these two men. And please allow my roommate,
5 Willough [phonetic], and I to try and slowly rebuild our lives free from
6 worry or fear. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Any questions?

9 MS. MACHNICH: Not on behalf of Mr. Turner.

10 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 MR. GIORDANI: Willoughby Grimaldi.

13 THE COURT: Counsel, before the next speaker can you
14 approach?

15 [Bench conference -- not transcribed]

16 WILLOUGHBY GRIMALDI

17 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
18 testified as follows:]

19 THE COURT CLERK: Would you please state and spell your
20 name for the record?

21 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: My full name is Willoughby
22 Potter de Grimaldi, but W-I-L-L-O-U-G-H-B-Y, last name Grimaldi,
23 G-R-I-M-A-L-D-I.

24 THE COURT: And you may proceed, sir.

25 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Thank you. To begin I.

1 would like to start by thanking the Court and Your Honor for passing a
2 guilty verdict on all accounts against these two criminals.

3           These past 33 months have been some of the darkest days of
4 my life. I have lived in fear not only day-to-day, but minute-to-minute; the
5 horror of the events of that night haunting every corner of my mind. My 6 best friend cannot even console me due to the fact that she too has 7 flashbacks and tons of guilt when we did nothing to deserve this.

8           Unable to move or run away into hiding, I continue to endure
9 living in the same place where so much violence occurred, and all for
10 nothing. While constantly visiting therapists, I replay that night -- I don't
11 look out -- I'm sorry -- I replay that night unable to let it go. There are no
12 windows in our home that I don't look out wondering if someone is 13 outside waiting to kill us.

14           I should be happy to be alive, yet somehow I feel like I did die
15 that night. I'm just a ghost wandering in pain for all eternity. This is not
16 living. I'm just going through the motions.

17           In the last many months I have learned the difference between 18 justice and hate. I understand that a crime of passion, even if committed 19 based in hate, does not equal a federally recognized hate crime.
20 Nevertheless, I cannot continue to live as a victim and replay the events
21 of that night.

22           It may be true that my heart is struggling to recover. The rage
23 and fear -- I'm sorry -- the rage and fear in my heart are like an 24 everlasting tug of war leaving me feeling empty. I know there is some 25 questions that will never be answered, yet the questions still haunt me.

1 Why? What hate would cause someone to act this way? I guess we'll
2 never know.

3 Our lives were shattered that morning, and since then my
4 health and physical abilities have plummeted leaving me disabled,
5 hopeless, and at a loss for -- feeling fully stressed. Our lives have been
6 completely altered forever. And although the PTSD and memories affect
7 us both differently, we will somehow leave this courtroom today as
8 survivors instead of just victims.

9 I believe in our justice system, and I beg Your Honor to please
10 pass the longest available sentence on these two in order to keep this
11 kind of ignorance and hate off of our streets. I feel anything less than 50
12 years is still not enough time to learn how bad this action actually was.

13 I would like to take one final moment to greatly thank the first
14 responding officers as well, who took on gunfire and everlasting trauma
15 that ultimately saved our lives and brought these two criminals to justice.
16 We are both eternally grateful to you and to all the police officers who 17 responded, put their lives on the line day in and day out. And to the 18 Deputy District Attorney and the whole team who worked tirelessly in this
19 case, thank you all. Between the jury and yourself, Your Honor, thank 20 you. I trust that justice will be served today, and that we will begin to heal
21 one more time.

22 THE COURT: Any questions?

23 MS. MACHNICH: Not on behalf of Mr. Turner.

24 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

25 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

1 MR. GIORDANI: Barbara Robertson.

2 BARBARA ROBERTSON

3 [Having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
4 testified as follows:]

5 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
6 the record.

7 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Barbara Robertson,
8 B-A-R-B-A-R-A R-O-B-E-R-T-S-O-N.

9 THE COURT: You may proceed.

10 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: First of all, I'd like to thank
11 Your Honor for letting me speak today. Jeremy wanted to be a fireman
12 or a police officer from the time he was a little boy. From the time he 13 applied and graduated from the police academy, the first question I was 14 always asked is aren't you afraid for him to be a police officer? My 15 answer was always no. I trust in all the training he has had. As his 16 mother I completely supported him. I knew he would become an 17 excellent officer. I am proud to call Officer Robertson my son and hero.

18 Fast forward to September 4, 2015, a mother's worst
19 nightmare happened. I was awakened by a telephone call from my
20 daughter-in-law telling me Jeremy had been shot in the leg, and asked if I
21 could come over to watch my 18-month-old grandson so she could go to 22 the hospital.

23 I remember as I was driving over their house -- over to their
24 house crying because as much as I wanted to watch my grandson, I also
25 really wanted to be at the hospital with my son. At the time I was not

1 aware of the severity of his injury.

2           After arriving at their house, I then had to call my daughter to
3 tell her about her brother. She lived in Bakersfield, California at the time
4 and was devastated. Not only did I have to worry about Jeremy, I also
5 had to worry about her driving to Las Vegas by herself to be here for all
6 of us.

7           The news was on at the house and there was continuous
8 coverage of the shooting. I was trying to stay strong for my grandson, as 9 he didn't understand anything that was going on. It became apparent
10 that this was a very serious incident, and I worried the other suspect
11 would not be found.

12           I was finally able to go to the hospital, but wasn't prepared to 13 see my son in the condition he was in. The pool of blood on the floor as 14 he -- as they wheeled him to surgery will forever be in my memory. It
15 wasn't until he came out of surgery and the doctor talked to us that I
16 realized how lucky we were that he was alive. The doctor informed us it
17 would be a long road to recovery and that there was a strong possibility
18 that he would have to walk with a cane for the rest of his life.

19           My daughter-in-law was pregnant at the time with my second
20 grandchild. I was now worried that the trauma, physical and emotional,
21 that she was going through could be detrimental to the baby. She is like
22 another daughter to me, so I needed to be there for her along with 23 Jeremy. Trying to balance everything was overwhelming at times.

24           It broke my heart to see Jeremy in so much pain and never
25 complain. A mother is supposed to protect their children, and I felt like a

1 complete failure, as there was nothing I could do but be there for him and
2 the family. The worst part was having to watch him go through the
3 changing of his wound VAC every three days for about four months. The
4 exit wound from the bullet was left to heal from the inside out and was at
5 least four inches deep. I can't even imagine the pain associated with
6 pulling out the packing and replacing it with clean material. He would
7 have so much anxiety on those days. It was hard to watch.

8           Everyday things we do on our own were difficult or impossible
9 for Jeremy to do by himself. Jeremy so enjoys the role of being a
10 husband and father. He was very excited about having another child.
11 He and his son had a great relationship. They loved playing with each
12 other and rolling around on the floor together. Unfortunately, his injury
13 has put limitations on what he can and cannot do with his son and 14 daughter.

15           Jeremy was separated from his son for 11 days while he was 16 in the hospital. This was hard on both of them and the family. When he 17 was able to go home he wasn't even able to pick him up. That was 18 something his son just couldn't understand. Even walking around his
19 dad he had to be extremely careful so he wouldn't unplug the wound
20 VAC machine. His dad wasn't able to put him to bed like he had done
21 every night before September 4th because his room was upstairs.
22 Jeremy stayed downstairs for more than three months. His son went
23 from being a good eater, willing to try anything, to being a very picky
24 eater; that still continues today. He continues to worry that bad guys will 25 hurt his father again.

1           Through his recovery process the family chose to stay positive
2 and do whatever we could for Jeremy. The courage Jeremy displayed
3 through the recovery process amazes me each and every day. The pain
4 continues to this day and will be with him every day of his life. Dealing
5 with a leg that is an inch shorter than the other is not an easy task.
6 Walking with a noticeable limp has put stress on his other leg and hip.
7 He never complains, but I can see he is in pain.

8           I have learned that depression and PTSD are real.
9 Something as simple as the kids making loud noises can be agitating.

10           Jeremy was willing to agree to a plea deal for Mr. Turner and 11 Hudson. He just wanted to move on. They repeatedly turned the offer
12 down and drug this out for almost three years.

13           These young males will be able to walk out of prison as the 14 same person physically. However, Jeremy, along with his family have 15 been forever changed both physically and mentally because of their
16 decision in the early morning of September 4th.

17           They have not been willing to step up and take responsibility
18 for their actions, which is very disappointing. It is hard for me to believe
19 they were at the house only to steal marijuana with the type of firepower
20 they had on them. Shots were fired as soon as they heard the door
21 opening. There were other options that they could have taken, but they 22 made the choice to disregard the life of the person opening the door.

23           I wish no ill will on these two, but feel they need to be held
24 accountable. I am asking the Court to sentence both of them to the 25 maximum sentence allowed by law. I hope that this will be long enough

1 for them to reflect on their actions and come out ready to change and be
2 productive citizens. Again, Your Honor, thank you for letting me have the
3 opportunity to speak.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

5 Are there any questions?

6 MS. MACHNICH: None on behalf of Mr. Turner.

7 Thank you, ma'am.

8 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 MR. GIORDANI: Melissa Robertson.

11 MELISSA ROBERTSON

12 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
13 testified as follows:]

14 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
15 the record.

16 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Melissa Robertson,
17 M-E-L-I-S-S-A R-O-B-E-R-T-S-O-N.

18 THE COURT: Please proceed.

19 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Hello, my name is Melissa
20 Robertson. I am the wife of Officer Jeremy Robertson. I want to thank 21 the Court for allowing me to speak today. On the day my husband was
22 shot I was four months pregnant and had an 18-month-old son. A week
23 and a half earlier my son had undergone emergency surgery and was 24 still recovering. This was my husband's first night back after taking care
25 of our son during his post-surgery recovery.

1           The day my husband was shot was one of the hardest and
2 scariest days of my life. I had to see my husband in pain and anguish
3 with blood on the floor. I had to wait for four hours while they replaced
4 his femur with a metal rod, and I had to wait with him in a hospital for 11
5 days while he tried to recover enough to be able to take a few steps. My
6 family and friends were worried about me because they didn't want to
7 see the stress and emotions of the situation hurt me or the baby.

8           But that's not the only hard days I've had to face since this
9 tragedy. Not only did I have to take care of an 18-month-old son while
10 pregnant, but I had to take care of a husband who was bound to a
11 wheelchair for months. And for a while I was the main caregiver for my 12 son, and I still had to work full-time while trying to save enough days for
13 maternity leave. And I was now taking on all of my husband's daily
14 responsibilities for our household.

15           I did not sleep in the same bed as my husband for months
16 because he couldn't even walk up the stairs and he had to sleep in a
17 hospital bed in our living room. To this day he still has trouble trying to
18 kneel to do bath time or get on the floor to play with our kids like he used
19 to with my son before he was shot.

20           Both of my kids were greatly affected when my husband was 21 shot. It breaks my heart to think that my two-year-old daughter, who is a
22 big daddy's girl and looks just like him, almost never got to meet her
23 daddy. My son though is the one that was affected the most. Kids are 24 very intuitive, so although my son was only 18 months old, he knew
25 something was wrong. During the 11 days my husband was in the

1 hospital my son stopped eating and became fixated on bad guys. To this
2 day he still doesn't eat much when he used to eat or try anything. And
3 sometimes he still randomly brings up bad guys and how they hurt his 4 daddy.

5           While I'm glad that justice was served and I believe they
6 deserve whatever punishment is given to them, I also hope they use this
7 as an opportunity to better themselves.

8           I had a lot of hate in my heart towards them for a couple
9 years, and it's very hard to let go of that. Even now I fight anxiety and
10 depression because of everything that I and my family have had to go
11 through. I still have nightmares about what could have happened and 12 what did happen, and I have had many sleepless nights since. While I
13 still battle with these lasting emotions, I can forgive. It has taken me a
14 very, very long time, but I have finally forgiven.

15           Although my husband has -- still lives with lasting side effects
16 both mentally and physically, I am grateful because his name is not on 17 memorials and on T-shirts along with other fallen officers that we've 18 tragically lost.

19           I will forever have a scar on my heart because of the pain that 20 has been caused, but all those scars are permanent reminders of pain
21 and suffering. They also remind me of the value of life, love, and my 22 family.

23           My hope is that the Court gives the maximum sentence
24 allowed because although this may be their first crime, it only takes one
25 offense to affect someone's lives the way that mine and my family's has

1 been affected.

2 I hope they work hard to better themselves and learn from
3 their mistakes. I hope they took a good look inside and truly take
4 responsibility and reflect on what they did and come out with a better
5 understanding of what it means to be a good member of society. They're
6 still going to have a chance at life after this, and I don't want them to
7 waste it and make any more reckless and horrible actions like they did
8 that night.

9 Thank you again for allowing me to speak. Thank you to my
10 family and to my wonderful husband. What he's been through is tragic,
11 and his recovery has been nothing short of a miracle. And without him
12 I'd be falling apart. So, thank you again.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 Any questions?

15 MS. MACHNICH: No questions on behalf of Mr. Turner.

16 Thank you, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

19 MR. GIORDANI: Officer Robertson.

20 JEREMY ROBERTSON

21 [having been called as a victim speaker and being first duly sworn,
22 testified as follows:]

23 THE COURT CLERK: Please state and spell your name for
24 the record.

25 THE VICTIM IMPACT SPEAKER: Jeremy Robertson,

1 J-E-R-E-M-Y R-O-B-E-R-T-S-O-N.

2 Good morning, Your Honor, I thank you for allowing me this
3 opportunity today to address the Court. First I'd like to thank again the
4 Court for allowing me to speak today. I'd also like to thank the State for
5 the great job and time it took to put this case together. I also want to
6 thank everyone here that is here supporting me today.

7 The events that occurred on September 4th, 2015 will always
8 be an impact on my life. That night Turner and Hudson made a choice to 9 go to a house and, from what they say, steal some weed. They chose to 10 go to that house and take with them some hefty firepower with a rifle and
11 a shotgun. They and they alone are the ones that set things in motion
12 that morning. They chose where to go, they chose what firearms to 13 bring, and they chose to have those firearms ready to use.

14 I opened the door and was immediately met with a gunshot
15 that hit me in the right upper thigh shattering my femur causing me to fall
16 to the floor. I will never forget the moment I finally realized what had
17 happened and thinking immediately to my wife who was four months
18 pregnant at the time and my little boy who was 18 months. My mind
19 raced to thinking of them and how I needed to do everything I could to 20 survive so I could see them again.

21 I will never forget the pain of being rolled over by responding
22 officers and then them carrying me out of the house holding my dangling
23 leg. I will never forget laying on the table in trauma with all the doctors
24 and nurses surrounding me, and just praying that I would keep my leg
25 and one day be able to walk again.

1           One of my fellow officers started calling my wife while I was
2 laying on the trauma table. Not wanting to scare her I asked for the
3 phone so I could talk to her myself. She was woken up around 4:30 a.m.
4 with me on someone else's phone -- dazed trying to figure out why I
5 would call on someone else's phone -- and having to tell her that I had
6 been shot and to call my mom to come watch our son so she could come
7 down to the hospital.

8           I spent 11 days in the hospital. Some of the days, especially 9 the first few days after the incident and surgery, I was in a daze and not
10 coherent to what was going on around me. I woke with family and 11 friends surrounding me. I also woke to the pain that was in my leg, and 12 seen a tube attached that I later found out to be a wound VAC.

13           My son was allowed to visit the first day after the event, but
14 then due to him becoming sick he was not allowed to visit for my safety.
15 This was very hard for me and was very emotional, as I want to spend
16 time with him. I have a very great bond with my son.

17           The wound VAC that was attached to me stayed attached for 18 several months as my injury healed from the inside. The wound VAC
19 was a love-hate relationship, as it helped me heal and protected me from 20 infection, but the dressings had to be changed every three days and was 21 very painful.

22           I survived a pretty bad gunshot, but then every three days
23 after had to endure the dressing change that consisted of a tech
24 removing the tape to expose the wound and then pulling out foam pieces
25 that were packed inside the wound. The tech then had to spray and

1 clean the inside of the wound and then pack it with new foam and tape.
2 This event would last about an hour.

3           And the reason why I bring it up is to relay that just surviving
4 the gunshot was not the only thing. I had to endure the pain from the
5 wound for months. The pain was so bad I had to be put on anxiety
6 medication because I was -- would start freaking out about the next
7 dressing change.

8           When I finally got released from the hospital I was transported
9 home on a gurney and was taken inside where a hospital bed awaited
10 me inside my dining room. I was not allowed to put any weight on my leg
11 for two months, and had to have someone by me to help me with the 12 simplest of things. I had to have family help me use the restroom,
13 shower, eat and et cetera. I couldn't sleep in the same bed with my wife,
14 and was stuck sleeping in the dining room in a hospital bed for months.

15           My son had a hard time with this, as he could not play with 16 Daddy the way he was used to. Interactions became careful, Daddy's
17 leg, don't pull that tube, don't do this and that. My son became afraid to 18 be around me.

19           I was finally allowed to start physical therapy in November. I
20 still had the wound VAC attached to me, and started the yearlong
21 process of learning how to walk again. I was told by my surgeon to
22 expect to walk with at least a cane for the rest of my life, but I did not like
23 that idea, nor did my physical therapist. My therapist along with myself
24 pushed myself hard to do everything we could to get my leg to do what it
25 used to. I went to therapy three times a week, three hours each visit, and

1 many times left in tears from the pain and stretching and massaging that
2 had to be done.

3 As I was getting better it became apparent that my right leg
4 was shorter than the other leg. The titanium rod the surgeon had placed
5 inside my leg was shorter than my left leg. I now have to wear an insole
6 or have special boots made to counterbalance this.

7 I am very thankful that my therapist did not want to see me
8 using a cane and pushed me hard to be able to walk without assistance.
9 I wish I could say that I could walk every day without pain, but that would
10 be a lie. Every day I wake up sore with leg issues, back issues, and 11 have to stretch things out before I start my day. During the day the 12 muscles tighten up and throughout the day I need to stretch out. This will
13 be an issue for the rest of my life. My body has protected the hurt leg
14 and now caused problems for my good leg due to counterbalancing,
15 putting all the weight on my left leg.

16 I am very thankful to be alive and be here for my family, but it
17 is not, nor will it ever be, the same. I don't have full range of motion in 18 my leg like I used to. I can't sit on the floor and play with my kids like I
19 used to. Even though I get around, I know as I get older I'll have the 20 issues with my leg, and I am sure it will get worse as I get older.

21 As I stated at the beginning, Hudson and Turner both were the
22 ones who made the poor decision to do something that they knew was 23 wrong. My belief is if we had not shown up as officers those 24 homeowners would be dead and this would be a totally different trial --
25 or -- had been a different trial.

1           Today Hudson and Turner will get sentenced and spend the
2 time given to them, which I hope is the max time allowed, but when that
3 time is up they get to walk out and start their life with nothing in their way.
4 I'm not so lucky. I don't get to wait some years and then all the things
5 wrong with me caused from getting shot go away. I will forever have to 6 live with the pain, with the -- live with the emotional and PTS part.

7           My son knows something bad happened, and even though we
8 never told him exactly what happened he still once in a while tells me
9 when I put him to bed at night no bad guys are going to hurt Daddy. My 10 family and I have to live with this for the rest of our lives. We don't get to 11 do the same, get to do some years, and then erase it all.

12           The reason why I bring all these things up, reference the 13 healing process and the forever life-changing effects I have to deal with 14 is just to remind the Court and Turner and Hudson that one mistake can
15 cause a lifetime of pain and suffering.

16           I will continue to get better. This event has not broken me or 17 my family, but has made us stronger and built a stronger bond. This may 18 surprise the families of Turner and Hudson and themselves, but I forgive
19 you. Don't get me wrong, I hated you guys for a long time, but I grew up
20 going to church and know that living with hate will not help me. The 21 offense that occurred on 9/4/15 has happened and there's no going back
22 from that now. The only way is to move forward.

23           I could see from the few times I was at court during the trial
24 that both Turner and Hudson have family and friends that care for them.
25 Please, to you the family of Turner and Hudson continue to love and

1 support them. I know that you will get -- that they will get out one day
2 and they will get the opportunity to start life over and be part of this
3 community.

4 I would like to see Turner and Hudson take the time in prison
5 to better themselves, take classes, learn trade if they offer it. They'll
6 have to pay for the poor decision they made, but I want them to better
7 themselves and come out of this a better person who can function within
8 our community. Stay away from the people in prison that will only bring 9 you down, and surround yourself with positive people not looking for
10 trouble. A quote I've heard -- and I don't remember who said it -- you
11 want to know what your life will look like or live like when you get older,
12 look at your friends. You need to surround yourselves with the people
13 that will care for you and support you, not bring you down.

14 I've had the opportunity since being shot to work with a
15 program called Hope for Prisoners who help people getting out of prison
16 take classes and help them then find a job and get them to be part of the 17 community and not reoffend. This program is several weeks long, and 18 towards the end officers come in and have the opportunity to talk to them
19 and mentor them. I've had the privilege on several occasions to be part
20 of this, and also being part of the graduation at the end of the course --
21 sorry -- at the end of the course. The program has a great success rate
22 with hardly any of the graduates reoffending.

23 I hope this is something that you, Turner and Hudson, will be
24 interested in doing when you are released, as it will help you become a
25 better citizen to yourself, family, and the community. You will have a

1 chance to live life. Please don't screw it up again.

2 Your Honor, I thank you for the opportunity here. Like I said
3 before, one incident, one choice can make -- decide someone's life. My
4 life will never be the same. And I agree with the State with what they
5 have suggested for punishment. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 Any questions?

8 MS. MACHNICH: Nothing on behalf of Mr. Turner.

9 MS. PLUNKETT: No, Judge.

10 THE COURT: We'll be in a short recess.

11 THE COURT MARSHAL: Court's in recess.

12 [Recess taken at 10:48 a.m.]

13 [Proceedings resumed at 10:55 a.m.]

14 THE COURT MARSHAL: Remain standing. Court's back in 15 session.

16 THE COURT: Please be seated.

17 THE COURT MARSHAL: Judge?

18 MS. DEMONTE: I can take notes, I guess.

19 THE COURT MARSHAL: All right. I'll see if I can --

20 THE COURT: Are you standing in, counsel?

21 MS. DEMONTE: I can. I don't know where Mr. Giordani
22 went. I mean, we're at the point where it's just taking notes.

23 MS. LUZAICH: He'll be right back, Judge, if you don't mind;
24 two seconds. Thank you.

25 [Bench conference -- not transcribed]

1 THE COURT: State, do you know where counsel went?

2 MS. DEMONTE: I do not.

3 THE COURT: Did you text him?

4 MS. DEMONTE: Huh? Other people are. I can see everyone
5 on their phone.

6 THE COURT: All right. We'll be in a short recess. As soon
7 as counsel arrives let me know.

8 [Recess taken at 10:59 a.m.]

9 [Proceedings resumed at 11:00 a.m.]

10 THE COURT MARSHAL: Remain seated. Court's back in 11 session.

12 MR. GIORDANI: Sorry.

13 THE COURT: Please be seated.

14 As to Mr. Turner, in accordance with the laws of the State of 15 Nevada this Court does now sentence you, as to Count 1, to 364 days in 16 the Clark County Detention Center.

17 As to Count 2, to confinement in the Nevada Department of 18 Corrections for a maximum term of 72 months with minimum parole
19 eligibility of 16 months. Count 2 is to run concurrent with Count 1.

20 As to Count 3, to confinement in the Nevada Department of 21 Corrections for a maximum term of 48 months with minimum parole
22 eligibility of 30 -- I'm sorry -- with minimum parole -- retract. As to Count
23 3, to confinement in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a
24 maximum term of 120 months with a minimum parole eligibility of 48
25 months. A consecutive term of 36 months for the use of -- a maximum

1 term -- 120 months for the deadly weapon to run concurrent with Count
2 2.

3 As to Count 4, to confinement in the Nevada Department of
4 Corrections for a maximum term of 120 months with a minimum parole
5 eligibility of 36 months. A consecutive term of 36 months for use of -- a 6 maximum of 120 months for the deadly weapon consecutive to Count 3.

7 As to Count 5, the maximum, to confinement in the Nevada
8 Department of Corrections for a maximum term of 120 months with a
9 minimum parole eligibility of 36 months concurrent with Count 2.

10 As to Counts 3 and 4, as to the 36 months and maximum of 11 120 months for the use of a deadly weapon, the Court considered the 12 information described in paragraphs A through E in NRS 193.165 in 13 determining the length. The aggregate sentence as to Mr. Turner is a 14 maximum of 480 months with minimum parole eligibility of 168 months.

15 As to Mr. Hudson, in accordance with the laws of the State of 16 Nevada this Court does now sentence you, as to Count 1, to 364 days in 17 the Clark County Detention Center.

18 As to Count 2, to confinement in the Nevada Department of 19 Corrections for a maximum term of 72 months with a minimum parole

21 As to Count 3, to confinement in the Nevada Department of 22 Corrections for a maximum term of 120 months with the minimum parole
23 eligibility of 48 months. A consecutive term of 36 months for the use
24 of -- a maximum term of 120 months for the deadly weapon. And Count
25 3 is to run concurrent with Count 2.

1           As to Count 4, to confinement in the Nevada Department of
2 Corrections for a maximum term of 120 months with minimum parole
3 eligibility of 48 months. A consecutive term of 36 months for the use
4 of -- and the minimum term of 120 months for the deadly weapon. And 5 Count 4 is to run consecutive to Count 3.

6           As to the use of a deadly weapon, the Court considered the 7 information described in paragraphs A through E in NRS 193.165 in 8 determining the length.

9           As to Count 5, to confinement in the Nevada Department of 10 Corrections for a maximum term of 120 months with the minimum parole
11 eligibility of 36 months to run concurrent with Count 4. The aggregate
12 sentence is a maximum term of 480 months with minimum parole
13 eligibility of 168 months.

14           Counsel, if my math is incorrect I need to know at this point.

15           MR. GIORDANI: Court's brief indulgence.

16           MS. MACHNICH: Your Honor, I think it was just -- and it may 17 have been that I just was writing it incorrectly. For Mr. Turner, Count 4 I
18 had --

19           THE COURT: The same as Count 3; a maximum of 120,
20 minimum of 48 with an additional 36 consecutive as regarded by law.

21           MS. MACHNICH: I had 36 to 120 and 36 to 120.

22           MS. PLUNKETT: As did I on Count 4.

23           THE COURT: No, it's supposed to be -- both the sentences
24 should be identical. It should be, as to Count 2, a max of 72, a minimum
25 of 16 concurrent with Count 1. Count 3 a max of 120, a minimum of 48

1 with a consecutive 36. That count's concurrent to Count 2. Count 4 is a
2 max of 120 with a minimum of 48 with a consecutive of 36, and that's to
3 be consecutive to Count 3. And Count 5 is a max of 120 with a minimum
4 of 36 concurrent to Count 4.

5 MR. GIORDANI: That looks accurate, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. GIORDANI: Fourteen to 40 on each.

8 THE COURT: That's correct.

9 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MR. GIORDANI: And as to credit for time served, I believe --

11 THE COURT: Well, wait, we're not there yet, counsel.

12 MR. GIORDANI: Oh, I'm sorry.

13 THE COURT: I further impose $25.00 as an administrative
14 assessment fee, $150.00 for a DNA analysis fee, $3.00 for a DNA
15 administrative assessment fee. This is as to Mr. Turner. The Court does
16 not impose a fine. No restitution.

17 MR. GIORDANI: Oh, as to that, Your Honor, we were
18 requesting $9,000.00 -- I'm sorry -- $9,099.98 to Jeremy Robertson. One
19 of the two defense counsel has the proof. Most of his bills were covered
20 by insurance for the department.

21 THE COURT: Okay. It wasn't in the Presentence
22 Investigation Report.

23 MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, I don't want to speak out of turn, but I
24 believe that sir probably -- well, can I have the Court's brief indulgence?

25 THE COURT: Sure.

1 MR. GIORDANI: Sorry, Your Honor. I spoke to Officer
2 Robertson. He wasn't contacted by P and P. I think that his
3 understanding was he submitted it to our office, my victim/witness
4 advocate and it would get to the Court. So, that's what our request is;
5 $9,099.98.

6 THE COURT: Say it again, please.

7 MR. GIORDANI: $9,099.98.

8 THE COURT: State, are you -- not State. Defense, are you
9 objecting to the amount of restitution?

10 MS. PLUNKETT: Judge, I've seen the bill, and I don't believe
11 I have any objection on behalf of --

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MS. PLUNKETT: -- Mr. Hudson.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 What about -- counsel?

16 [Colloquy between counsel]

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, I can order it. If you have an 18 objection you can file a motion to reduce it if you feel it's inaccurate.

19 MR. GIORDANI: Understood.

20 MS. MACHNICH: It -- that's fine, Your Honor.

21 MS. PLUNKETT: Your Honor, we'd have no objection.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 MR. GIORDANI: And I'd ask -- it's just jointly and severally.

24 THE COURT: I will, counsel.

25 The Court further orders you to pay restitution to Officer

1 Robertson in the amount of $9,099.98 jointly and severally with your
2 co-defendant, Turner.

3 MR. GIORDANI: And credit for time served?

4 THE COURT: Credit for time served in the amount of 1,022
5 days.

6 MR. GIORDANI: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 MS. PLUNKETT: Thank you, Judge.

9 MS. MACHNICH: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Now, I -- pronounced the sentence as to Mr.
11 Hudson yet?

12 MS. MACHNICH: Yes, you did.

13 MR. GIORDANI: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So I just need to do the imposition of 15 fines and restitution, credit for time served?

16 MR. GIORDANI: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So as -- that was as to Mr. Turner. As 18 to Mr. Hudson, $25.00 is the administrative assessment fee, $150.00 for 19 the DNA analysis fee, $3.00 for a DNA administrative assessment fee.
20 The Court orders you to pay restitution to Officer Robertson in the 21 amount of $9,099.98 jointly and severally with your co-defendant, Mr.
22 Turner. Credit for time served in the amount of 1,022 days.

23 Is there anything further? I've pronounced sentence in both
24 Defendants; correct?

25 MR. GIORDANI: You have.

1 THE COURT: Imposed fines, restitution, and credit for time
2 served?

3 MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: As to both Defendants; correct?

5 MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything further, counsel?

7 MR. GIORDANI: Not on behalf of the State.

8 THE COURT: Anything further, counsel?

9 MS. MACHNICH: No, Your Honor, thank you.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 MS. SISOLAK: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MS. PLUNKETT: Thank you, Judge.

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 On September 23, 2015, the State of Nevada (“the State”) filed an Indictment charging 4 Defendant Clemon Hudson (“Defendant”) and his Co-Defendant, Steven Turner, with the 5 following: Count 1 – CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT BURGLARY; Count 2 – ATTEMPT 6 BURGLARY WHILE IN POSSESSION OF A FIREARM OR DEADLY WEAPON; Counts
7 3 and 4 – ATTEMPT MURDER WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON; Count 5 – 8 BATTERY WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON RESULTING IN SUBSTANTIAL
9 BODILY HARM; Count 6 – DISCHARGING FIREARM AT OR INTO OCCUPIED
10 STRUCTURE, VEHICLE, AIRCRAFT, OR WATERCRAFT. On October 1, 2015,
11 Defendant was arraigned, pled not guilty, and waived the sixty (60) day rule.

12 On May 12, 2016, Defendant filed a Motion for Bail Reduction. The State filed its 13 Opposition on May 16, 2016. This Court denied Defendant’s Motion without prejudice and 14 invited counsel to refile the motion with more information on May 17, 2016.

15 Subsequently, on May 31, 2016, Defendant filed a second Motion for Bail Reduction.
16 On June 10, 2016, the State filed its Opposition. This Court modified Defendant’s bail on June 17 16, 2016.

18 On January 3, 2017, Defendant filed a third Motion for Bail Reduction. The State filed 19 its Opposition on January 5, 2017. On January 24, 2017, this Court, after examining the 20 applicable NRS factors, denied Defendant’s Motion.

21 On August 28, 2017, Defendant filed a Motion to Sever his case from Co-Defendant.
22 The State filed its Opposition on September 18, 2017. On October 12, 2017, this Court denied
23 Defendant’s Motion. Defendant subsequently renewed his Motion to Sever, but this Court
24 once again denied it without prejudice on November 16, 2017.

25 Defendant’s jury trial commenced on April 16, 2018. The State also filed an Amended
26 Indictment on this day dismissing Count 6 – DISCHARGING FIREARM AT OR INTO 27 OCCUPIED STRUCTURE, VEHICLE, AIRCRAFT OR WATERCRAFT. After ten (10)
28

1 days of trial, the jury returned a verdict finding Defendant guilty of all charges on April 27, 2 2018.

3 On June 21, 2018, Defendant was sentenced to an aggregate total of 168 months to 480
4 months in the Nevada Department of Corrections. Defendant received 1,022 days credit for 5 time served. The Judgment of Conviction was filed on July 2, 2018.

6 Defendant failed to file a direct appeal. On October 25, 2018, Defendant filed a Petition
7 for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). On December 18, 2019, the instant
8 Supplemental Brief was filed on Defendant's behalf.

9 STATEMENT OF FACTS

10 On September 4, 2015, at approximately 3:45AM, Eric Clarkson and Willoughby
11 Grimaldi were asleep in their home when they heard suspicious noises in their backyard. Jury
12 Trial Day 3, pgs. 61–63. Looking out the window, they observed two figures, later identified
13 as Defendant and his Co-Defendant, running across the backyard. Jury Trial Day 3, pgs. 64–
14 65. Grimaldi specifically mentioned that when he looked in the backyard, he saw the silhouette
15 of an African American man with a cap on cocking a shotgun. Jury Trial Day 3, pg. 95. Though
16 the homeowners reported that there was potentially a third person, both Defendant and Co-
17 Defendant indicated in their statements to police that only two people were involved. Jury
18 Trial Day 6, pgs. 73–74, 80–81, 105–106. The would-be burglars were armed; Co-Defendant
19 had a SKS rifle and Defendant had a shotgun. Jury Trial Day 3, pgs. 68, 78; Jury Trial Day 4, 20 pgs. 85, 95; Jury Trial Day 5, pgs. 76–77; Jury Trial Day 6, pgs. 20–22. Investigators later
21 recovered both of these guns, a handgun, and a beanie in Clarkson and Grimaldi's backyard.
22 Jury Trial Day 4, pgs. 78–81. Defendant's DNA was later found on the beanie and his latent 23 prints were found on the shotgun. Jury Trial Day 6, pg. 24–27, 43–44. Defendant's DNA was 24 also found on the East Nunca street sidewalk, Clarkson and Grimaldi's patio table, and 25 Clarkson and Grimaldi's backyard walkway. Jury Trial Day 6, pgs. 46–47. Additionally,
26 investigators found Speer .9mm cartridge cases (consistent with LVMPD's handguns),
27 cartridge cases consistent with rifle rounds, and what appeared to be pellet marks from a 28 shotgun blast. Jury Trial Day 4, pg. 55; Jury Trial Day 5, pgs. 14–15, 33.

1 After observing the figures in their backyard, Clarkson and Grimaldi called 9-11. Jury
2 Trial Day 3, pgs. 65–66. Officers Jeremy Robertson and Malik Greco-Smith arrived to 3 investigate. Jury Trial Day 3, pgs. 71–72, 105; Jury Trial Day 5, pgs. 62–63, 112–114. Officer
4 Greco-Smith could not see anyone before the officers decided to clear the backyard. Jury Trial
5 Day 5, pg. 72. Officer Robertson began to open the back door—when two shots were fired
6 from the backyard. Jury Trial Day 5, pgs. 76–77, 120–21. Grimaldi testified that from what he 7 saw there were two different guns being used to shoot into his home. Jury Trial Day 3, pg.
8 108. One of the rounds hit Officer Robertson in the upper thigh. Jury Trial Day 5, pg. 120.
9 Defendant admitted that he fired at least one round at the officers. Jury Trial Day 6, pgs. 79–
10 80, 87–88. Officer Greco-Smith returned fire. Jury Trial Day 5, pgs. 76–77; Jury Trial Day 6, 11 pgs. 86–88, 105. Officer Robertson testified that he told the other responding officers that there
12 were two suspects. Jury Trial Day 5, pgs. 81, 124, 126.

13 Co-Defendant fled the scene while Defendant hid in the backyard. Jury Trial Day 6, pg.
14 105. K9 units were dispatched to remove Defendant from the backyard, where he was laying 15 on the ground with a shotgun by him. Jury Trial Day 4, pg. 143; Jury Trial Day 5, pg. 82. Co-
16 Defendant was later apprehended by police, within the mile-and-a-half by mile perimeter they 17 had set up to catch the second shooter. Jury Trial Day 4, pgs. 153, 156–57. Co-Defendant was 18 bleeding from the leg, from a wound that looked like a gunshot wound. Jury Trial Day 4, pg.
19 158. His treating physician discovered he had bullet fragments in and stippling around the 20 wound. Jury Trial Day 6, pg. 109; Jury Trial Day 9, pgs. 8–9.

21 Officer Robertson was extracted from the residence and transported to the hospital to 22 be treated for his shattered right femur. Jury Trial Day 5, pg. 128. He was taken to trauma and 23 then shortly into surgery. Jury Trial Day 5, pg. 128. Muscles needed to be reattached and a 24 titanium rod and plates needed to be inserted into his broken femur. Jury Trial Day 5, pgs.
25 128–29. He could not walk for two months, and, as of trial, was still missing the whole upper 26 portion of that bone. Jury Trial Day 5, pgs. 128–130.

27 In his interviews after the shooting altercation, Defendant admitted to being at the house
28 that night and that this was his first heist robbery. Jury Trial Day 6, 72–73. He was told to go

1 through the back of the house to get weed. Jury Trial Day 6, pg. 65. Defendant explained that
2 he and his co-offender tried to see if the doors around the house were unlocked, but then
3 planned to break the back window of the home. Jury Trial Day 6, pg. 66, 69. He admitted to 4 carrying a shotgun into the backyard and he was wearing a beanie. Jury Trial Day 6, pgs. 66–
5 67, 76. Defendant clearly stated in his interviews with police that he and one other individual
6 were the only people there in the backyard and that there was an SK, a shotgun, and a little
7 gun in Defendant’s pocket. Jury Trial Day 6, pgs. 71–72, 74–75, 78–79. Although he later told 8 officers he was not sure if he fired the shotgun, Defendant had originally admitted that after 9 he fired his shotgun he fell straight back. Jury Trial Day 6, pgs. 77–80, 87–88.

10 ARGUMENT

11 I. STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR INEFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL

12 The Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that, “[i]n all criminal 13 prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right . . . to have the Assistance of Counsel for his 14 defense.” The United States Supreme Court has long recognized that “the right to counsel is 15 the right to the effective assistance of counsel.” Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686,
16 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2063 (1984); see also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 865 P.2d 322, 323
17 (1993). To prevail on a claim of ineffective assistance of trial counsel, a defendant must prove 18 he was denied “reasonably effective assistance” of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test of 19 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 686-87, 104 S. Ct. at 2063-64; see also Love, 109 Nev. at 1138, 865
20 P.2d at 323. Under the Strickland test, a defendant must show first that his counsel’s 21 representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness and second, that but for 22 counsel’s errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would have 23 been different. Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada
24 State Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting the Strickland 25 two-part test). “[T]here is no reason for a court deciding an ineffective assistance claim to 26 approach the inquiry in the same order or even to address both components of the inquiry if 27 the defendant makes an insufficient showing on one.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697, 104 S. Ct.
28 at 2069.

1 The court begins with the presumption of effectiveness and then must determine
2 whether the defendant has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that counsel was
3 ineffective. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1011, 103 P.3d 25, 32 (2004). “Effective counsel
4 does not mean errorless counsel, but rather counsel whose assistance is ‘[w]ithin the range of 5 competence demanded of attorneys in criminal cases.’” Jackson v. Warden, 91 Nev. 430, 432,
6 537 P.2d 473, 474 (1975).

7 “There are countless ways to provide effective assistance in any given case. Even the 8 best criminal defense attorneys would not defend a particular client in the same way.”
9 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S. Ct. at 689. In essence, the court must “judge the 10 reasonableness of counsel's challenged conduct on the facts of the particular case, viewed as 11 of the time of counsel's conduct.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066.

12 Strickland does not enact Newton’s third law for the presentation of evidence, requiring 13 for every prosecution expert an equal and opposite expert from the defense. In many instances 14 cross-examination will be sufficient to expose defects in an expert's presentation. When 15 defense counsel does not have a solid case, the best strategy can be to say that there is too
16 much doubt about the State's theory for a jury to convict. Harrington v. Richter, 131 S.Ct. 770, 17 791, 578 F.3d. 944 (2011).

18 Further, a defendant who contends his attorney was ineffective because he did not 19 adequately investigate must show how a better investigation would have rendered a more 20 favorable outcome probable. Molina v. State, 120 Nev. 185, 192, 87 P.3d 533, 538 (2004).

21 “Bare” and “naked” allegations are not sufficient to warrant post-conviction relief, nor 22 are those belied and repelled by the record. Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d
23 222, 225 (1984). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted or proven to be false by the record
24 as it existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 354, 46 P.3d 1228, 25 1230 (2002).

26 In order to satisfy the Strickland standard and establish ineffectiveness for failure to 27 investigate, a defendant must allege in the pleadings what information would have resulted 28 from a better investigation or the substance of the missing witness’ testimony. Molina v. State,

1 120 Nev. 185, 192, 87 P.3d 533, 538 (2004); State v. Haberstroh, 119 Nev. 173, 185, 69 P.3d
2 676, 684 (2003). It must be clear from the “record what it was about the defense case that a
3 more adequate investigation would have uncovered.” Id. A defendant must also show how a 4 better investigation probably would have rendered a more favorable outcome. Id.

5 In the instant matter, Defendant has not proven that counsel’s performance fell below
6 an objective standard of reasonableness and he has failed to show how the outcome of his trial
7 could have been different in light of any possible ineffectiveness. Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-
8 88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068. Thus, Defendant’s claim should be denied.

9 II. DEFENDANT HAS NOT DEMONSTRATED THAT HE WAS DEPRIVED OF 10 HIS RIGHT TO A DIRECT APPEAL

11 A habeas corpus petitioner must prove disputed factual allegations by a preponderance
12 of the evidence. Means, 120 Nev. at 1011, 103 P.3d at 32. The United States Supreme Court 13 requires courts to review three factors when determining whether a defendant was deprived of 14 his right to an appeal: (1) whether the defendant asked counsel to file an appeal, (2) whether 15 the conviction was the result of a trial or a guilty plea, and (3) whether the defendant had any 16 non-frivolous issues to raise on appeal. Roe v. Ortega, 528 U.S. 470, 480, 120 S. Ct. 1029, 17 1036 (2000). The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the court can assess the credibility of 18 witnesses when conducting an evidentiary hearing to determine whether a defendant was 19 deprived of an appeal. Barnhart v. State, 122 Nev. 301, 130 P.3d 650, 652 (2006).

20 In the instant matter, Defendant has not demonstrated that he was deprived of an appeal.
21 However, the State has no objection to an evidentiary hearing limited strictly to Defendant’s
22 Appeal Deprivation claim.

23 III. COUNSEL WAS NOT INEFFECTIVE FOR NOT OBJECTING TO THE 24 COURT PREMITTING THE FLIGHT INSTRUCTION

25 Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or arguments. Ennis
26 v. State, 122 Nev. 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006). To be effective, the constitution
27 “does not require that counsel do what is impossible or unethical. If there is no bona fide 28 defense to the charge, counsel cannot create one and may disserve the interests of his client by attempting a useless charade.” United States v. Cronic, 466 U.S. 648, 657 n.19, 104 S. Ct. 2039, 2046 n.19 (1984).

Further, “[s]trategic choices made by counsel after thoroughly investigating the plausible options are almost unchallengeable.” Dawson v. State, 108 Nev. 112, 117, 825 P.2d 593, 596 (1992); see also Ford v. State, 105 Nev. 850, 853, 784 P.2d 951, 953 (1989). Likewise, the decision not to call witnesses is within the discretion of trial counsel and will not be questioned unless it was a plainly unreasonable decision. Rhyne v. State, 118 Nev. 1, 38 P.3d 163 (2002); Dawson v. State, 108 Nev. 112, 825 P.2d 593 (1992).

Defendant argues that his counsel was ineffective for failing to object to Jury Instruction No. 38, also known as the flight instruction<sup>1</sup>, which stated:

The flight of a person immediately after the commission of the crime, or after he is accused of a crime, is not sufficient in itself to establish guilt, but in fact which, if proved, may be considered by you in light of all other proved facts in deciding the question of his guilt or innocence. The essence of flight embodies the idea of deliberately going away with consciousness of guilt and for the purpose of avoiding apprehension or prosecution. Whether or not evidence of flight shows a consciousness of guilt and the significance to be attached to such a circumstance are matters for your deliberation.

Instructions to the Jury, filed Apr. 27, 2018. Defendant’s argument is meritless as counsel was not required to make a futile objection to a jury instruction that clearly did not apply to Defendant. This instruction was given because Co-Defendant ran. As the facts of this case reveal, Defendant did not flee, but instead was apprehended at the scene of the crime. Further, in closing arguments, the only time flight was mentioned was in reference to Co-Defendant’s escape from the crime scene. Jury Trial Day 9, pgs. 118, 119, 130. Thus, Defendant’s claim should be dismissed.

1 IV. COUNSEL WAS NOT INEFFECTIVE FOR NOT OBJECTING TO THE 2 REASONABLE DOUBT AND EXACT JUSTICE INSTRUCTIONS

3 Defendant takes issue with Jury Instruction Nos. 40 and 50. Specifically, he argues that
4 such instructions impermissibly minimized the State's burden of proof. However, Defendant's
5 claims are meritless as the jury instructs comply with Nevada law.

6 NRS 175.211 provides the exact language district courts must use when giving a
7 reasonable doubt instruction in a jury trial. The Court gave this exact instruction as Jury
8 Instruction No. 40 stated in relevant part:

9 A reasonable doubt is one based on reason. It is not mere possible doubt but 10 is such a doubt as would govern or control a person in the more weighty
11 affairs of life. If the minds of the jurors, after the entire comparison and 12 consideration of all of the evidence, are in such a condition that they can say 13 they feel an abiding conviction of the truth of the charge, there is not a 14 reasonable doubt. Doubt to be reasonable must be actual, not mere possibility 15 or speculation.

16 Likewise, Jury Instruction No. 50, the equal and exact justice instruction, is also a
17 standard instruction. The Nevada Supreme Court has already held that using this instruction
18 does not deny a defendant the presumption of innocence:

19 This instruction does not concern the presumption of innocence or burden of 20 proof. A separate instruction informed the jury that the defendant is 21 presumed innocent until the contrary is proven and that the state has the 22 burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt every material element of the 23 crime and that the defendant is the person who committed the offense.
24 Appellant was not denied the presumption of innocence.

25 Leonard v. State, 114 Nev. 1196, 1209, 969 P.2d 288, 296 (1998). Thus, Defendant's claim 26 should be denied.

27 V. THERE WAS NO CUMULATIVE ERROR

28 The Nevada Supreme Court has not endorsed application of its direct appeal cumulative error standard to the post-conviction Strickland context. McConnell v. State, 125 Nev. 243, 259, 212 P.3d 307, 318 (2009). Nor should cumulative error apply on post-conviction review.

1 Middleton v. Roper, 455 F.3d 838, 851 (8th Cir. 2006), cert. denied, 549 U.S. 1134, 1275 S.
2 Ct. 980 (2007) (“a habeas petitioner cannot build a showing of prejudice on series of errors,
3 none of which would by itself meet the prejudice test.”).

4 Even if applicable, a finding of cumulative error in the context of a Strickland claim is 5 extraordinarily rare and requires an extensive aggregation of errors. See, e.g., Harris By and 6 through Ramseyer v. Wood, 64 F.3d 1432, 1438 (9th Cir. 1995). In fact, logic dictates that 7 there can be no cumulative error where the petitioner fails to demonstrate any single violation
8 of Strickland. Turner v. Quarterman, 481 F.3d 292, 301 (5th Cir. 2007) (“where individual 9 allegations of error are not of constitutional stature or are not errors, there is ‘nothing to 10 cumulate.’”) (quoting Yohey v. Collins, 985 F.2d 222, 229 (5th Cir. 1993)); Hughes v. Epps, 11 694 F.Supp.2d 533, 563 (N.D. Miss. 2010) (citing Leal v. Dretke, 428 F.3d 543, 552-53 (5th 12 Cir. 2005)). Since Petitioner has not demonstrated any claim warranting relief under 13 Strickland, there are no errors to cumulate.

14 Under the doctrine of cumulative error, “although individual errors may be harmless, 15 the cumulative effect of multiple errors may deprive a defendant of the constitutional right to 16 a fair trial.” Pertgen v. State, 110 Nev. 554, 566, 875 P.2d 361, 368 (1994) (citing Sipsas v.
17 State, 102 Nev. 119, 716 P.2d 231 (1986)); see also Big Pond v. State, 101 Nev. 1, 3, 692 P.2d
18 1288, 1289 (1985). The relevant factors to consider in determining “whether error is harmless 19 or prejudicial include whether ‘the issue of innocence or guilt is close, the quantity and 20 character of the error, and the gravity of the crime charged.’” Id., 101 Nev. at 3, 692 P.2d at 21 1289.

22 Defendant failed to show cumulative error because there were no errors to cumulate.
23 Defendant has failed to show how any of the above claims constituted ineffective assistance
24 of counsel. Further, the issue of guilt in this case was not close. Not only was the jury presented
25 with Defendant’s admissions of what transpired on the night of his first heist, but Defendant
26 was actually apprehended at the scene next to the shotgun containing his latent prints. Not to 27 mention, Defendant’s DNA was found in various areas around the scene. As such, Petitioner
28 has failed to establish cumulative error.

1 VI. DEFENDANT IS ONLY ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING FOR 2 HIS APPEAL DEPRIVATION CLAIM

3 NRS 34.770 determines when a defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing. It reads:

- 4
- 5 1. The judge or justice, upon review of the return, answer and all supporting
6 documents which are filed, shall determine whether an evidentiary hearing
7 is required. A petitioner must not be discharged or committed to the custody 8 of a person other than the respondent unless an evidentiary hearing is held.
  - 9 2. If the judge or justice determines that the petitioner is not entitled to relief
10 and an evidentiary hearing is not required, he shall dismiss the petition 11 without a hearing.
  - 12 3. If the judge or justice determines that an evidentiary hearing is required, 13 he shall grant the writ and shall set a date for the hearing.

14 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that if a petition can be resolved without 15 expanding the record, then no evidentiary hearing is necessary. Marshall v. State, 110 Nev.
16 1328, 885 P.2d 603 (1994); Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 356, 46 P.3d 1228, 1231 (2002). A
17 defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing if his petition is supported by specific factual
18 allegations, which, if true, would entitle him to relief unless the factual allegations are repelled
19 by the record. Marshall, 110 Nev. at 1331, 885 P.2d at 605; see also Hargrove v. State, 100
20 Nev. 498, 503, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984) (holding that “[a] defendant seeking post-conviction
21 relief is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing on factual allegations belied or repelled by the 22 record”). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted or proven to be false by the record as it
23 existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann, 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 1230 (2002). It is 24 improper to hold an evidentiary hearing simply to make a complete record. See State v. Eighth
25 Judicial Dist. Court, 121 Nev. 225, 234, 112 P.3d 1070, 1076 (2005) (“The district court
26 considered itself the ‘equivalent of . . . the trial judge’ and consequently wanted ‘to make as 27 complete a record as possible.’ This is an incorrect basis for an evidentiary hearing.”).

28 Further, the United States Supreme Court has held that an evidentiary hearing is not required simply because counsel’s actions are challenged as being unreasonable strategic decisions. Harrington v. Richter, 131 S. Ct. 770, 788 (2011). Although courts may not indulge post hoc rationalization for counsel’s decision making that contradicts the available evidence

1 of counsel's actions, neither may they insist counsel confirm every aspect of the strategic basis
2 for his or her actions. Id. There is a "strong presumption" that counsel's attention to certain
3 issues to the exclusion of others reflects trial tactics rather than "sheer neglect." Id. (citing 4 Yarborough v. Gentry, 540 U.S. 1, 124 S. Ct. 1 (2003)). Strickland calls for an inquiry in the
5 objective reasonableness of counsel's performance, not counsel's subjective state of mind. 466
6 U.S. 668, 688, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2065 (1994).

7 As stated supra, the State does not oppose an evidentiary hearing for the limited purpose
8 of Defendant's appeal deprivation claim. There is no need to expand the record beyond that 9 issue as Defendant has not demonstrated that counsel fell below an objective standard of 10 reasonableness. Strickland, 466 U.S. 668, 688, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2065 (1994). Thus, 11 Defendant's request should be denied.

12 CONCLUSION

13 For the foregoing reasons, Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-14 Conviction) and Defendant's Supplemental Brief in Support of Defendant's Petition for Writ 15 of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction) should be DENIED.

1 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

2 The Statement of the Case stands as enunciated in the Supplemental Brief.

3 STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

4 The Statement of the Facts stands as enunciated in the Supplemental Brief.

5 ARGUMENT

6 I. STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR INEFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE OF 7 COUNSEL.

8 This argument stands as enunciated in the Supplemental Brief.

9 II. MR. HUDSON WAS WRONGFULLY DEPRIVED OF HIS RIGHT
10 UNDER ESTABLISHED LAW TO A DIRECT APPEAL AND 11 HEREBY REQUESTS RELIEF PURSUANT TO LOZADA V. STATE,
12 110 NEV. 349, 871 P.2D 944 (1994) AND NRAP 4(c).

13 Within the Response, the State claims Mr. Hudson cannot demonstrate he 14 was deprived of an appeal (State's Response, p. 7). Mr. Hudson vehemently
15 disagrees. After a jury trial, Mr. Hudson was found guilty of very serious offenses 16 and is facing a lengthy sentence. Mr. Hudson naturally desired to appeal his 17 conviction, and as a result, requested his attorney file an appeal (Supplemental 18 Brief, Exhibit A). The transcripts attached to the Supplemental Brief as Exhibit B 19 further this assertion.

20 Regardless of the State's disagreement on the issue, the State has no
21 objection to this Court holding an evidentiary hearing with regard to this issue
22 (State's Response, p. 7, 12). As such, this Court should grant an evidentiary
23 hearing so Mr. Hudson can demonstrate he was deprived of his right to a direct 24 appeal based upon counsel's rendering of ineffective assistance. See Strickland v.
25 Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 687, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 80 Led.2d 674 (1984); Lozada v.
26 State, 110 Nev. 349, 354, 871 P.2d 944 (1994).

REGARDING FLIGHT TO THE JURY.

This argument stands as enunciated in the Supplemental Brief.

2 COUNSEL FOR FAILURE TO OBJECT TO THE DISTRICT
3 COURT'S GIVING OF INSTRUCTION NUMBERS 40 AND 50 IN

6 This argument stands as enunciated in the Supplemental Brief.

8 CONVICTIONS BASED UPON CUMULATIVE ERROR.

9 This argument stands as enunciated in the Supplemental Brief.

10 VI. MR. HUDSON IS ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING.

11 This argument stands as enunciated in the Supplemental Brief.

12 CONCLUSION

13 Wherefore, Mr. Hudson respectfully requests this Court grant his Petition 14 finding he received ineffective assistance of counsel.

Las Vegas, Nevada, Tuesday, January 28, 2020

[Case called at 8:52 a.m.]

THE COURT: Page 6, A18-783635 the State of Nevada versus Clemon Hudson.

MR. ORAM: Good morning, Your Honor. Christopher Oram on behalf of Clemon Hudson he's not present. He's at Department of Corrections.

THE COURT: Correct.

MR. ORAM: Your Honor, I think I could - - if I could be heard, make this quite quick.

THE COURT: I can tell you exactly, yeah. I've read your motion. I can tell you what I'm going to do. I'm going to call for an evidentiary hearing.

MS. DEMONTE: Yep.

THE COURT: I mean the law is very simplistic in this, according to the Supreme Court under Toston v. State if in fact there is a
- - we had to ascertain whether defendant was in improperly deprived of his direct appeal, if in fact he was, we need to have an evidentiary hearing. So, it's - -

MR. ORAM: I think the State and I both agree we should set that. Do you want to set that out ninety days, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Will it give you enough time to get a hold of counsel and everything else?

MR. ORAM: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Let's set this matter out for an evidentiary
2 hearing on a Friday, ninety days.

3 THE CLERK: May 1st at 8:30.

4 MR. ORAM: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Let's see if - - we have to do it a little later. Is 6 that a Friday? I have my 16 conferences.

7 [Colloquy between the Court and JEA]

8 THE COURT: How many witnesses do you have Counsel?

9 MR. ORAM: I think it will be one and if the State could make 10 sure the defendant is transported here.

11 MS. DEMONTE: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: We need a transport order. Let's do it at eleven
13 o'clock that way because I have morning calendars, 16 conferences 14 usually.

15 MR. ORAM: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2020 AT 11:54 A.M.

THE COURT MARSHAL: The 11 o'clock. A-783635-W.
State of Nevada versus Clemon Hudson.

THE COURT: Counsel, we're just going to take a short recess waiting for counsel for about five minutes and get set up.

[Recess taken at 10:54 a.m.]

[Proceedings resumed at 11:04 a.m.]

THE COURT: Counsel, we're just waiting for the jail to be hooked up.

MS. BEVERLY: Just before we get started, before we actually start the hearing, just as a clarification, it's my understanding that the evidentiary hearing is limited solely to the Defendant's Deprivation of Appeal --

THE COURT: Right.

MS. BEVERLY: -- claim. Okay. Just wanted to make sure that -- okay.

THE COURT: Counsel, who's your first witness? Mr.
Hudson, you can go ahead and sit down. Officer, if we can provide a seat for him that would be fine.

MR. ORAM: Your Honor, the first and only witness is going to be Ms. Alexis Plunkett.

And before we get started, Your Honor, I want to put on the record I have talked to Mr. Hudson about privileged communication between himself and Ms. Plunkett and for purposes of this hearing he

1 would have to waive that so I could question Ms. Plunkett, and he is 2 willing to waive that at this time so we can proceed.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hudson, you understand you're 4 waiving your privileges, rights between the communications between 5 yourself and Ms. Plunkett?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Ms. Plunkett, if you'd 8 raise your right hand and please be sworn in by my clerk.

9 ALEXIS PLUNKETT

10 [having been called as a witness and being first duly sworn,
11 testified as follows:]

12 THE COURT: Ms. Plunkett. unmute, please.

13 THE WITNESS: I am unmuted.

14 THE COURT: There you go. Now we can hear.

15 THE WITNESS: Okay. Perfect.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. Counsel, your witness.

17 MR. ORAM: Thank you.

18 DIRECT EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. ORAM:

20 Q Ms. Plunkett, back in 2018, were you an attorney representing 21 Clemon Hudson at his sentencing?

22 A Yes, I was.

23 Q You were licensed to practice in the state of Nevada at that 24 time and were you hired or were you appointed to represent Mr.
25 Hudson?

1           A     I was retained.

2           Q     And have you had an opportunity, Ms. Plunkett, to read
3 through the filings in this case; in other words, have you read my 4 supplemental brief?

5           A     I did read it last year when it was originally filed.

6           Q     Okay. And -- I'm sorry. I didn't mean to cut you off, Ms.
7 Plunkett. I want to ask you, during the appeal or during the sentencing,
8 do you remember independently the sentencing?

9           A     Yes, I do.

10          Q     Okay. And I'm going to ask you from -- counsel, just so you 11 know where I'm referring to, I'm referring to an exhibit that's attached to 12 our supplement which reflects as the sentencing transcript and it was 13 dated -- the sentencing transcript is Exhibit B and it is dated Thursday, 14 June 21st, 2018.

15                 First of all, Ms. Plunkett, the Defendant was obviously present 16 during the sentencing; correct?

17          A     Yes.

18          Q     And I want to ask you, on page 14 of that transcript, whether 19 you recall making the following statements, and that is that you say --
20 bear with me one second -- that you say, yes, Judge, and as I stated I 21 advised him due to the mandatory appeal to not give a statement today.
22 Do you recall making that statement, Ms. Plunkett?

23          A     Yes, I do.

24          Q     And obviously it's in the transcript. You'd have no reason to 25 dispute that that's an accurate statement of what you said?

1           A     Right.

2           Q     And you also advised the Court that you felt that Mr. Hudson
3 on that same page had received bad advice and you don't believe that 4 he should be there following a jury verdict, but hopefully that would be 5 addressed on appeal; do you remember making a statement like that?

6           A     Yes, I do.

7           Q     Okay. And it's fair to say then the Defendant would be 8 listening to that, he would have heard you talk about a mandatory
9 appeal and how this is going to be a -- it could be changed on appeal;
10 correct?

11                MS. BEVERLY: Objection.

12                THE WITNESS: Yes.

13                MS. BEVELRY: Calls for speculation.

14                THE COURT: Hold on a second. Counsel --

15                MR. ORAM: And you --

16                THE COURT: Counsel, hold on. Are you asking Ms. Plunkett
17 to give this Court an understanding of what her client was thinking or 18 what he heard?

19                MR. ORAM: No. Yes, thinking that he was in the courtroom
20 and that she made that statement.

21                THE COURT: The Court will acknowledge he was physically
22 present. Whether or not the Defendant heard it or took it to heart or 23 listened to it is a different story. Go ahead.

24 BY MR. ORAM:

25           Q     Yes. And so, Ms. Plunkett, you remained the attorney of 1 record after that; correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And no appeal was ever filed?

4 A No appeal was ever filed and I can fully explain why I didn't
5 personally an appeal if that's what --

6 Q Ms. Plunkett, I heard you while you were talking and then the 7 last portion of it I didn't hear what you said; could you repeat it?

8 A Yes. I said I can fully explain why I did not personally file an 9 appeal if that is what you believe the Court would like to hear today.

10 Q Well, you didn't file an appeal and you remained the attorney
11 of record through the 30 days after the Judgment of Conviction; correct?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And so I guess since you brought it up, why didn't you file an 14 appeal?

15 A I was first contacted by Clemon Hudson's family prior to his 16 trial about a week before the trial. They wanted me to come on as the 17 trial counsel, and for reasons one through 10 I declined to do that. Mr.
18 Hudson did go to trial the following week, I believe with Craig Mueller's 19 office as trial counsel, and Clemon's family, Mr. Hudson's family, was 20 very, very unhappy with the performance by Mr. Mueller's office. I
21 believe there was a guilty verdict on every count. They were not happy
22 with the attorney. They wanted to meet with me to discuss representing 23 him at sentencing. I did meet with his family. I discussed with his family 24 Mr. Mueller's obligations under NRA CP3 regarding appeal and they 25 informed me that they wanted Mr. Mueller and his associate to have

1 nothing to do with this case any further. No appeal, no sentencing --

2 MS. BEVERLY: I'm going to -- I'm going to --

3 THE COURT: Hold on a second, just hold on a second,
4 counsel.

5 MS. BEVERLY: I'm going to object at this point as to hearsay
6 as to what his family was telling Ms. Plunkett.

7 THE COURT: Overruled. I'll allow it. I understand the basis,
8 counselor. Go ahead, Ms. Plunkett, continue.

9 THE WITNESS: So, we discussed how I have never filed an 10 appeal before. I've never done PCR. I have -- I'm not an appellate 11 attorney, I'm not a post-conviction attorney. His family and Mr. Hudson
12 understood that and it's written into my retainer that my retainer
13 encompassed sentencing alone and no post-conviction review or appeal 14 of any form.

15 His family and I discussed who they were going to hire for the 16 direct appeal, and I was actually in touch with someone that they 17 informed was a paralegal from an office that was going to handle the 18 appeal. So, I believed that we were all on the same page the entire time 19 that Mr. Mueller's office was done. I would be solely, pursuant to my 20 retainer, the sentencing attorney and a different attorney would come on 21 for any type of direct appeal, appeal post-conviction review.

22 BY MR. ORAM:

23 Q Ms. Plunkett, did you advise the Defendant of his right to 24 appeal?

25 A We discussed about how his family was retaining an attorney

1 for the appeal, and I discussed with them that I am not and was not an
2 appellate attorney and would not be handling the appeal.

3 Q You remained attorney of record after the 30 day deadline
4 was gone; correct?

5 A Correct. I assumed that an attorney was going to come in and 6 no one did.

7 Q And you can -- nobody filed a Notice of Appeal for the man;
8 right:

9 A Correct.

10 Q And you did not prepare a Notice of Appeal. It could have 11 even been done for the Defendant pro per, you could have done that,
12 but you did not do that; correct?

13 A I did not do that because I've never filed an appeal in my 14 entire career, no.

15 Q And you did not withdraw before the deadline; did you?

16 A I did not, no.

17 Q So, as the time passed for the Notice of Appeal you were the 18 attorney of record; correct?

19 A Correct.

20 MR. ORAM: Nothing further, Your Honor.

21 THE WITNESS: And I -- if I do recall, Mr. Mueller's office was 22 completely non-communicative with me and his office never signed a 23 Substitution of Attorney. So, I believe what I had to do in that case was 24 file a Notice of Appearance because Mr. Mueller wouldn't give a 25 substitution.

1 MR. ORAM: I have nothing further, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Cross.

3 MS. BEVERLY: Thank you.

4 CROSS-EXAMINATION

5 BY MS. BEVERLY:

6 Q Ms. Plunkett, can you hear me okay?

7 A Yep.

8 Q Okay. Ms. Plunkett, do you have a copy of that retainer
9 agreement still in your files?

10 A I do.

11 Q Could you please forward a copy of that to the District Court?
12 Do you have that on your email or on your computer or something of 13 that nature?

14 A I do and if you give me one second, would you like me to 15 forward that while we are on the phone.

16 Q Yes, please.

17 THE COURT: Yes, that would be fine. I'm going to have you
18 forward that to my clerk so she has access to it and we can print it here.
19 She'll give you her email address.

20 THE WITNESS: Give me one second here. I'm ready.

21 THE COURT CLERK: It's Tapia, T-A-P-I-A
22 M@clarkcountycourts.us.

23 THE COURT: Were you able to send that, Ms. Plunkett?

24 THE WITNESS: I -- okay. There we go.

25 THE COURT: All righty. Perfect

1 THE WITNESS: That was done.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Next question, counsel.

3 BY MS. BEVERLY:

4 Q Ms. Plunkett, you indicated on direct examination that you had 5 several conversations with Mr. Hudson specifically about the fact that 6 you were not appellate counsel; do you recall that?

7 A I believe it was likely one conversation. I think several might 8 be pushing it, but we had at least one conversation where I said I'm not 9 an appellate attorney.

10 Q Okay. Well, let me ask you this. The sentencing in this case
11 was on June the 21st of 2018; is that correct?

12 A If you tell me that I believe you, but I don't personally
13 remember the date.

14 Q Did you meet with Mr. Hudson prior to the sentencing date?

15 A I did not meet with him in person because I was restricted by 16 the Clark County Detention Center at that time, but we had some 17 conversation.

18 Q Okay. Before the sentencing; right?

19 A Prior to the sentencing.

20 Q Okay. And you meet with his family before the sentencing; is 21 that correct?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q Okay. And before the sentencing, is that when you told his 24 family that you were not an appellate counsel?

25 A That's correct.

1 Q I'm sorry?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q Okay.

4 A Prior to the sentencing.

5 Q Prior to the sentencing. Okay. So, from your understanding
6 and your conversation with his family, you were only going to be 7 retained to do a sentencing; correct?

8 A Correct. My retainer specifically excludes any appeal or PCR.

9 Q After the sentencing on June 21st, 2018, did you have an 10 additional conversation with Mr. Hudson either on phone or in person?

11 A I did not believe I did.

12 Q Okay. Did you have any additional conversations with his 13 family after the sentencing?

14 A Yes, I did.

15 I Q Okay. During those conversations did you again discuss with 16 him that you were not an appellate attorney?

17 A Yes. I actually provided them a couple of my personal referral 18 or --

19 MR. ORAM: Judge, I object to the form of the question simply 20 because I don't know who the family member was. So, it's really 21 foundational for day and time.

22 THE COURT: I understand, counsel. But you were asking
23 the same generalization questions about it and we never identified
24 which member of his family was the individual who had contact with her 25 during direct so I'll allow it. Go ahead, Ms. Plunkett, answer the 1 question.

2 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question, please.

3 BY MS. BEVERLY:

4 Q Sure. After the sentencing, did you meet with Mr. Hudson's
5 family again?

6 A I did and I asked them to provide me with the name of the 7 appellate attorney so I could have a discussion about what I knew with 8 that person and that never happened.

9 Q Do you specifically know which family member you met with?

10 A His mother.

11 Q His mother?

12 A Mother.

13 Q Okay. And you told her to give you the name of the appellate 14 counsel that she was planning on hiring but she never did; right?

15 A Correct.

16 Q When was the last time or let me ask you this, how many 17 times did you meet with his mother after the sentencing?

18 A I don't remember how many contacts I had with her. It was 19 likely over phone or email.

20 Q Okay. And at no point did she tell you that -- who she had 21 hired; is that correct?

22 A At one point she gave me -- this was prior to the sentencing -- 23 she gave me the name and an email address of a paralegal that she had 24 claimed worked with the attorney that they had retained for sentencing --
25 I'm mean, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm reading as I'm talking -- for the appeal.

1 It was, I'm looking at it right now, a paralegal named Jessica Lewis,
2 gave me an email address, JLewis@NationalFreedomProject.com, and 3 that was when I remember suggesting that they hire someone local.
4 They did reach out to this Jessica Lewis person about Mr. Hudson and I
5 never heard back from her.

6 Q Okay. And I'm looking at the retainer agreement that you just 7 forwarded to the Court. It was actually signed by a Karen Hudson; is 8 that correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And it says OBO Clemon Hudson; is that right?

11 A Correct.

12 Q As the people who were the clients; is that right?

13 A Correct.

14 MS. BEVERLY: Okay. I have no further questions, Judge.

15 THE COURT: Redirect, counselor.

16 MR. ORAM: Nothing. Just argument.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Thank you, Ms. Plunkett.

18 Counsel, any other witnesses?

19 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Judge.

20 MR. ORAM: I'm sorry, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Any other witnesses?

22 MR. ORAM: No, just argument.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead and argue.

24 MS. BEVERLY: Oh, Judge, I just have one thing.

25 THE COURT: Oh, wait. Hold on one second, Mr. Oram.

1 MS. BEVERLY: I would ask that the document that Ms.
2 Plunkett sent, the attorney representation agreement, be marked as an
3 exhibit and introduced on behalf of the case.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Oram, do you have any objection to that?

5 MR. ORAM: I don't, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. The retainer agreement, attorney
7 representation agreement between Ms. Plunkett and Karen Hudson is 8 hereby admitted.

9 MS. BEVERLY: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Exhibit 1. Go ahead and argue.

11 MR. ORAM: Okay. To me, Your Honor, this is an easy legal 12 decision; it's simple. It's a -- it comes under Lozada and Dotson.

13 I remember when I used to argue Lozada issues before they 14 actually formalized this where attorneys had missed the opportunity to 15 appeal. Usually we see this with the guilty plea and then the attorney
16 doesn't really know that they're supposed to appeal and the Defendant
17 says they're supposed to appeal.

18 What we have here, Your Honor, is we got a conviction where 19 the guy gets an aggregate sentence of 168 months to 480 months. So,
20 he's convicted by a jury and that's a significant sentence.

21 Well, first of all, the Courts say, Nevada and Federal Court,
22 say we look at -- we have to look at whether this was a guilty plea or 23 whether this was a jury verdict. And then, quite frankly, if we look at 24 Dotson, the Nevada Supreme Court said in Dotson, and this is on page 25 14, Your Honor, of my supplemental brief, and I'm quoting from the

1 Nevada Supreme Court: Trial counsel has the duty to file a direct
2 appeal when the client's desire to challenge the conviction or sentence
3 can be reasonable inferred from the totality of the circumstances
4 focusing on the information that counsel knew or should have known at 5 the time.

6 And then we went on to Lozada and it says when the 7 Defendant has been convicted pursuant to a jury verdict, counsel has a 8 constitutional duty to inform the client of a right to appeal.

9 Well, apparently what Ms. Plunkett has just testified to is she 10 told him of his right to appeal before sentencing. We have heard that 11 she made statements of a mandatory appeal and that maybe this would 12 be -- the result could be changed on appeal. And so from that we know 13 -- we know that Ms. Plunkett was aware of the -- his right to appeal and 14 the 30 days. She's the attorney of record. It cannot be absolved by 15 simply saying there's a retainer agreement. I don't have to do this. It 16 could easily have been solved by her simply preparing a Notice of 17 Appeal pro per for the Defendant or withdrawing and having a public
18 defender appointed. But she cannot defend and the State is making a 19 perilous argument if they say deny this -- deny this and here's why, Your 20 Honor.

21 You still have to hear the Writ of Habeas Corpus, not today
22 obviously, I realize it's not on for that, but we have to hear the Writ of 23 Habeas Corpus. And what he's confined too then is what his trial
24 attorney should have done. Then if, let's say, if I am unsuccessful, we'll 25 appeal, and we're going to be appealing the -- should have had a

1 Lozada issue, we should have been able to raise the issues on appeal.
2 If it's granted, which it would be, we send it back down and then we do
3 the Lozada appeal.

4 And so, to me, for judicial economy, it seems quite simple.
5 Let's get this all done at one, letting her do this record, put all the issues
6 in, and have this done. But I don't even see the State's argument.

7 If the State thinks that somehow a retainer agreement or an 8 attorney's position can somehow eliminate a constitutional right; in other
9 words, I don't have to write an appeal because I told him that I'm not 10 hired to do an appeal. Well, that deadline went, the 30 day deadline, 11 and she should have known its jurisdiction. Once that goes it's gone 12 forever. And what we didn't hear is there were discussions with the 13 mother, well, why aren't you over with the Defendant two or three days
14 beforehand packing the docket saying, hey, you've got to file a Notice of 15 Appeal.

16 So, I don't see how this is not ineffective. I don't really
17 understand what the State can argue, and I think for judicial economy
18 this is an easy decision, and with that I'll just submit it and ask for a reply 19 argue.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Counsel.

21 MS. BEVERLY: Thank you, Judge, just briefly.

22 Essentially, when you tell a -- well, actually, the constitutional
23 issue is she informed him of his rights to have an appeal. She testified
24 to that. And I personally was not present. I did do the trial in this case 25 and my co-counsel actually did the sentencing and he was present that

1 day. So, as we can see from the transcript, she assumed that there
2 would be a appeal filed. It just not be her as she had already told him
3 and it had already been agreed upon not only by Mr. Hudson but by his 4 representative who was obviously Ms. Karen Hudson.

5 The agreement in part two says -- excuse me -- client
6 acknowledges, client being Mr. Hudson, that he had been found guilty
7 following a jury trial and further acknowledges that representation is 8 limited to a bond hearing and sentencing hearing. Client acknowledged 9 that the retainer specifically eliminates attorney representation of client
10 any type of appeal or post-conviction review. Saying that she should 11 have done something where she says she clearly has no knowledge of 12 doing, she's never done one before, which is probably why she put this 13 in her agreement so it what is clear to the client, the person retaining 14 her, that she doesn't have any expertise in this area, she doesn't have 15 any knowledge in this area. We don't even know if she has -- if she 16 even knows about the 30 day, well, because she's never done it before,
17 and that's why she puts this in there to eliminate anyone saying exactly 18 what's happening now that, well, she should have done more than what 19 she did. He knew that he had the right to appeal, his family knew, they 20 met afterwards, and yet they chose not to follow through with getting 21 what they needed to do to file the appeal.

22 So, that's what we're arguing, Judge. And, in fact, he couldn't 23 have been represented by a public defender because the co-Defendant,
24 Mr. Tyler, was represented by the Public Defender. So, that's kind of a
25 side issue. But that is why we have these agreements because we don't

1 want attorneys who don't have any knowledge in what they're doing
2 trying to do things that they're not skilled in.

3 So, with that being said, Judge, she advised him that he had 4 the right to, he didn't follow through with that, and that is -- the onus is 5 on him.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Rebuttal.

7 MR. ORAM: Yes, Your Honor.

8 First of all, because she's attorney of record, no other attorney
9 can come in and file a Notice of Appeal. It's a rogue document. You got 10 to come in and do a Substitution of Attorneys. She could have easily
11 protected against this; file a motion to withdraw, have a track attorney
12 appointed. He did absolutely nothing. This is -- this were -- is this is 13 denied, if this is denied on some retainer agreement, it's just going to get 14 reversed. It's just we'll do the post-conviction, we'll take it up, and then 15 we'll send it back down and this is going to get reversed. I don't really 16 understand why she's the attorney of record and you can't make an 17 argument that I don't understand; I don't know about notices of appeal. I
18 don't know about any of that stuff so I'm not ineffective. You know a 19 Defendant has a right to a jury trial and you're not ineffective. Of course
20 you are. And so you know this one thing. The State isn't relying upon 21 any case law. I'm telling -- I'm showing Dotson and relying upon 22 Lozada. Those are the Nevada Supreme Courts cases that absolutely 23 dictate reversal, and yet what I heard the State say is, hey, here's a 24 retainer agreement and all -- those cases don't apply.

25 So, essentially, the Nevada Supreme Court will have to rule

1 that Lozada applies and Dotson applies, and unless there's a retainer
2 agreement that says you don't have to do this in which case the 3 deadline just goes, you're the attorney of record, and you just,
4 essentially, in a retainer agreement waived out ineffective assistance of 5 counsel. It's unconstitutional --

6 THE COURT: Well, counsel, let me ask you this. We're a
7 little bit more than just the retainer agreement. She had conversations
8 with her client and the client's representative. They knew of that -- of 9 their -- they knew, Mr. Oram, he knew of his right to an appeal. He was 10 informed of that. You, yourself, said he was standing right next to Ms.
11 Plunkett when she made those statements in open Court. So, the client, 12 the Defendant, knew of his right to an appeal. His representative was 13 out getting counsel for that appeal.

14 So, what you're saying is that the attorney of record has to file
15 what could have been an inappropriate Notice of Appeal, she doesn't 16 know what she's doing, could have filed a wrongful Notice of Appeal,
17 jeopardize that person's right to an appeal by filing an inappropriate
18 document. It's not as if Mr. Hudson wasn't aware of his right to appeal.
19 He clearly was aware of his right to appeal. He had his representative 20 out seeking what seemed to be national counsel that handles these 21 types of appeals.

22 So, I think your argument is that Ms. Plunkett has an 23 obligation to file an appeal even though she doesn't know how to do it 24 correctly.

25 MR. ORAM: Yes, that's right.

1 THE COURT: Did Mr. Mueller have -- did Mr. Mueller have an
2 obligation because I didn't see anywhere where he withdrew as attorney
3 of record.

4 MR. ORAM: Your Honor, whoever is the attorney of record, if 5 he's still the attorney of record then, yes, then one of them has. It's sort
6 of a res ipsa loquitur and they do have to do it. And she cannot defend 7 on I don't know how to do this. Yes, that is absolutely required, Your 8 Honor, and they're going to say, the Court's going to say obviously she 9 had to do it. And just because the client --

10 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Oram, if you -- if you can predict what 11 the Nevada Supreme Court is going to say you're one of a kind. Okay.

12 I don't know what the Nevada Supreme Court is going to say
13 on this and that's why I'm asking you questions as to how far does that 14 obligation go on behalf of -- you look at Lozada -- that's an argument
15 when the party in interest here, the real party here, Mr. Hudson, was 16 clearly aware of his right to appeal. That's where the argument is what 17 obligation does an attorney have to notify the client of their rights.
18 Clearly, Mr. Hudson knew his rights. His family was exercising it and 19 trying to retain counsel for it. As you said, Mr. Hudson was in the 20 hearing at the sentence, heard his attorney say he has a right to an 21 appeal; it's going to happen, it's got to happen. His family was working 22 on his behalf to retain counsel to get that appeal. So, what obligation
23 does the Defendant have to make sure that he has an appeal that he's 24 clearly aware of. What obligation does he have as the Defendant to 25 make sure that appeal gets filed? None.

1 MR. ORAM: That's -- the answer's right there in my brief. It
2 tells us that from the totality of the circumstances and -- and so the 3 answer to that question is in determining whether counsel knew or 4 should have known that his client wanted to appeal the conviction, the 5 courts may consider whether the conviction arose from jury trial or guilty
6 verdict, but also goes down -- and it describes, Your Honor, if I can find 7 it, where it says that they should look to the totality of circumstances and 8 if the Defendant had expressed a wish to appeal. Clearly, the family is 9 talking about appealing. Second of all, the Defendant has nothing to do
10 with this. If we're not -- if the families have obligations and can reduce 11 attorney's obligations, if the Court -- that really is not -- it's --

12 THE COURT: Counsel, that's not what I'm making, counsel.

13 MR. ORAM: It's not --

14 THE COURT: Counsel, I'm not arguing that the family has 15 some affirmative duty to become a legal representative. He was aware,
16 Mr. Hudson was aware, I think we can all agree --

17 MR. ORAM: Right.

18 THE COURT: -- he was aware he had a right to appeal.

19 MR. ORAM: Yes.

20 THE COURT: He clearly was trying to facilitate that by 21 utilizing his agent whether it be his family or another attorney. He was 22 facilitating by use of an agent to retain counsel for himself.

23 What happened in this situation --

24 MR. ORAM: Your Honor --

25 THE COURT: -- was the counsel said, look, you need to get

1 someone who can handle an appeal and the family said we're doing it,
2 we're getting it, we're having it done. So --

3 MR. ORAM: Your Honor, in fact Ms. Plunkett said she never 4 talked to him after the sentencing. So, from that point on when she's 5 talking about mandatory appeal and she never talked to him. And so
6 now we have to -- and even if the family was told and he was told, it
7 makes no difference. He's the attorney of record. They have to perfect
8 it. The standard is do you know, you are the attorney, that they want to 9 do it.

10 And, Judge, when you say an inappropriate document,
11 nothing is going to be inappropriate. She could have done a pro forma, 12 a pro forma appeal. It's a one page document. And if she -- if the 13 standard is the attorney just didn't know what she was doing, that's right.
14 That's exactly what happened. The attorneys didn't know. They made a 15 mistake. It's just that clear.

16 And I also think, Your Honor, it is judicial economy. What's 17 the harm in letting him raise issues now of what happened in that trial?
18 It does -- it seems that's the whole point of Lozada. And the totality of 19 circumstances, Your Honor, if you look at the totality, you could see he 20 wanted to appeal. It just didn't get perfected.

21 And so I don't see that she is alleviated in any way. And so
22 with that, Your Honor, if you want to make that ruling and say I don't 23 know what the Nevada Supreme Court is going to do, I really think that a 24 sentence like this -- you know, I've done a few hundred appeals to that 25 Court I, as a betting person, I predict they're going to send this back. I

1 think it's obvious to me. It has to be perfected. This isn't even close. If
2 it was a guilty plea, Your Honor, if this had been a guilty plea, I think I
3 could see what's -- what's been said, you know, was it really clear, did
4 he really express. In fact, he never even called her afterward. Well, he 5 was fine with the guilty plea and what happened. But that's not the 6 case.

7           This is a case where he got somewhere around -- I think my 8 numbers may be a little wrong -- but about 14 years at the bottom end.
9 And it's obvious he'd want to appeal. Nobody wants to get a sentence
10 like that, get convicted of everything, and not want to appeal. It is her 11 obligation, Your Honor, it's her constitutional obligation. And you may 12 be correct, Your Honor, because you point that out that Mr. Mueller, if 13 he's still attorney of record, one [indiscernible] is not the Defendant's
14 requirement, but we're asking, what is the Defendant's requirement?
15 That he's represented by counsel. It's just to show the expression of a 16 desire to appeal and that is proven in the record overwhelmingly that 17 they want -- he wanted to appeal. How he was doing that is irrelevant.
18 She should have protected -- she should have either withdrawn or she 19 should have gotten a pro per Notice of Appeal or she could have gotten 20 a Notice of Appeal and then withdrawn or she could have informed the 21 Court that appellate counsel needed to be appointed.

22           But with that, Your Honor, I think you understand my 23 arguments unless you have any other questions.

24           THE COURT: I understand the argument.

25           My [indiscernible] and questioning comes into the fact that

1 they clearly fired Mr. Mueller and they have a right to fire Mr. Mueller.
2 They fired him. I don't think Mr. Mueller then has an obligation after 3 getting terminated by the Defendant to represent them any further.
4 Once you get terminated that's the end of it. To say that that person has 5 an obligation -- and then Ms. Plunkett was very adamant not only in her 6 statements but in her retainer agreement alone as to the limitations and 7 scope of her representation, and the parties -- the client clearly knew
8 that because they were seeking counsel for the appeal at the same time 9 that Ms. Plunkett was representing him. So, they knew about the 10 limitation.

11 I'm going to go back, and just based upon this Ms. Plunkett's
12 statements, I'm going to go back on the record because there's a couple 13 of questions in regards to the record I had. I think Ms. Plunkett has 14 cleared those up. I'll have a decision to you by Monday.

15 MS. BEVERLY: Thank you, Judge.

16 MR. ORAM: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you, Officers. Thank you
18 Mr. Hudson.

CASE NO: A-18-783635-W

DEPT NO: XXIX

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

DATE OF HEARING: October 15, 2020
TIME OF HEARING: 11:00 a.m.

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable DAVID M. JONES, District Judge, on the 15th day of October, 2020, the Defendant being present, represented by CHRISTOPHER R. ORAM, the Respondent being represented by STEVE WOLFSON, District Attorney, by and through Leah Beverly, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including all briefs, transcripts, arguments of counsel, documents on file herein, and the testimony adduced from the Evidentiary Hearing, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT

Procedural History

Mr. Hudson was charged by way of Indictment on September 23, 2015 as follows: Count 1: Conspiracy to Commit Burglary; Count 2: Attempt Burglary while in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon; Count 3: Attempt Murder with use of a deadly weapon; Count 4: Attempt Murder with use of a deadly weapon; Count 5: Battery with use of a deadly weapon resulting in substantial bodily harm; and Count 6: Discharging firearm at or into occupied structure, vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft. On October 1, 2015, Mr. Hudson was arraigned, pled not guilty and waived the sixty day rule.

On August 28, 2017, Mr. Hudson filed a motion to sever his case from co-defendant Steven Turner. Co-defendant Turner joined Mr. Hudson's motion on September 13, 2017. The State filed an opposition on September 18, 2019. The district court denied the motion for severance on October 12, 2017. Mr. Hudson renewed his motion for severance, but was again denied on November 16, 2017.

Mr. Hudson's trial began on April 16, 2018. On the first day of trial, the State filed an Amended Indictment dismissing count six. On April 27, 2018, the jury found Mr. Hudson guilty of all charges.

Mr. Hudson was sentenced on July 21, 2018, to an aggregate total of a maximum of 480 months with a minimum 168 months. Mr. Hudson received 1,022 days credit for time served. The Judgment of Conviction was filed July 2, 2018.

No direct appeal was filed on Mr. Hudson's behalf. On October 25, 2018, Mr. Hudson filed a timely post-conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Thereafter, supplemental briefing, through counsel, commenced. An Evidentiary Hearing took place on October 15, 2020, and the matter was taken under advisement.

Facts of the offense

Mr. Eric Clarkson was friends with Mr. Turner (JT Day 3 p. 57-58). Mr. Clarkson

did not know Mr. Hudson (JT Day 3 p. 80). Mr. Clarkson resided with his best friend Mr. Willoughby Potter de Grimaldi at a house located at 6729 Oveja Circle, Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada (JT Day 3 p. 59-61, 92).

On September 4, 2015, around 3:30 a.m., Mr. Clarkson was in his bedroom watching television before going to sleep (JT Day 3 p. 61). Once Mr. Clarkson got into bed, he heard his metal outdoor patio furniture being moved outside (JT Day 3 p. 63-64). This caused Mr. Clarkson to look out the window where he saw a young African American man outside on the patio (JT Day 3 p. 65). Then, Mr. Clarkson grabbed his phone, let his roommate know what he saw and contacted 911 to report that someone was in his backyard (JT Day 3 p. 65). Moments later, Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi heard someone banging on the front door and Mr. Grimaldi saw a figure outside (JT Day 3 p. 68, 97-98).

When Mr. Grimaldi went to the back window, he saw a shirtless African American man with a billed cap on his head, racking a shotgun (JT Day 3 p. 95, 119). When Mr. Grimaldi looked out the window, he saw a tall African American man with an afro wearing basketball shorts (JT Day 3 p. 98-99). Mr. Grimaldi then saw a third person out of the corner of his eye, describing the man as African American with a spiky afro (JT Day 3 p. 101-102). Mr. Grimaldi did not recognize any of the three individuals (JT Day 3 p. 104). Mr. Clarkson then relayed this information to the 911 operator (JT Day 3 p. 96-97).

When two police officers arrived (Officer Malik Grego-Smith and Officer Jeremy Robertson) Mr. Clarkson let them in the front door (JT Day 3 p. 71). Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi explained to officers how to open the back door and then Officer Robertson opened the back door (JT Day 3 p. 71-72). Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi recalled that immediately after the back door was opened there were gunshots (JT Day 3 p. 74-75, 107-108). Mr. Grimaldi had previously told detectives it was his belief that an officer fired the first gunshot, but testified at trial the first shots came from outside on the patio (JT Day 3 p. 124, 126-127). Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi both saw different types of bullets enter their home (JT Day 3 p. 75, 107-108). After the shots were fired, Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi hid in a bedroom (JT Day 3 p. 76).

Officer Malik Grego-Smith, along with Officer Jeremy Robertson, responded to a dispatch call regarding a prowler at the Oveja circle residence (JT Day 5 p. 62, 65). After requesting dispatch inform the homeowner to open the front door, Officer Grego-Smith and Officer Robertson enter the residence (JT Day 5 p. 70). Once in the residence, the officers developed a plan to “clear the backyard” to see if anyone was out there (JT Day 5 p. 72). Officer Robertson was to open the back door, and as he opened the door, Officer Grego-Smith would go through and Officer Robertson would follow (JT Day 5 p. 73). Officer Grego-Smith drew his weapon and as he stepped outside two shots were fired from outside on the patio, one striking Officer Robertson (JT Day 5 p. 73, 76). Officer Grego-Smith returned fire towards the patio, firing twelve shots (JT Day 5 p. 76; JT Day 7 p. 29-30).

Officer Grego-Smith testified he turned his flashlight on right when he started shooting and saw “a light-skinned black male with no shirt and purple basketball shorts” on the patio (JT Day 5 p. 78). The man was approximately three to four feet from him (JT Day 5 p. 90). Officer Grego-Smith recalled yelling, “Don’t move, keep your hands up, don’t move or I’ll fucking shoot you.” (JT Day 5 p. 80). Officer Grego-Smith immediately radioed dispatch to inform them that shots had been fired and Officer Robertson had been shot (JT Day 5 p. 80). When back up arrived, Officer Grego-Smith entered the backyard area and witnessed Mr. Hudson being taken into custody (JT Day 5 p. 82). Officer Grego-Smith testified at trial that Mr. Hudson was not the shirtless African American man he had seen in the backyard when he turned on his flashlight (JT Day 5 p. 86).

Officer Jeremy Robertson recalled he had just opened the back door to the patio of the residence when he was shot and fell to the ground (JT Day 5 p. 120). Officer Robertson was struck in the upper thigh, fracturing his femur (JT Day 5 p. 122, 128).

Sergeant Joshua Bitsko, a K-9 officer, responded to the Oveja residence (JT Day 4 p. 127, 135). Upon arriving at the residence, Sergeant Bitsko learned from the air unit that the suspect was laying in the backyard with a rifle next to him (JT Day 4 p. 140). A Beretta .25 caliber handgun was also located nearby (JT Day 4 p. 81). Sergeant Bitsko deployed his police dog into the backyard who located and began biting the suspect (JT Day 4 p. 140-143). The suspect complied with all commands, was taken into custody and identified as Clemon Hudson (JT Day 4 p. 32, 143-145).

Police secured a perimeter around the crime scene approximately a mile and a half by a mile wide in order to search for additional suspects (JT Day 4 p. 153). Detective Jeremy Vance spent approximately three and a half hours driving around the perimeter looking for the suspect described by officer Grego-Smith (JT Day 4 p. 153).

After being notified of a call concerning a suspicious person in a backyard, Detective Vance came upon Mr. Turner and began to question him (JT Day 4 p. 154-158). Detective Vance noticed Mr. Turner was injured given the blood on his pants (JT Day 4 p. 158). When questioned about the injury, Mr. Turner indicated his leg was caught on a fence at his friend's house (JT Day 4 p. 158). Detective Vance believed the injury was caused by a gunshot wound (JT Day 4 p. 158-159).

Ms. Stephanie Fletcher, a senior crime scene analyst with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department responded to the Oveja Circle residence (JT Day 5 p. 6). Twelve Speer .9 millimeter cartridge casings were recovered from the dining room area (JT Day 5 p. 14). There were three 7.62 rifle cartridge casings located on the backyard patio area (JT Day 5 p. 15). Analysts did not locate any expended shotgun shells or .25 caliber casings (JT Day 5 p. 16). Analysts located numerous shotgun pellets in the living room of the residence as well as pieces of a shotgun round located on top of the front window sill (JT Day 5 p. 32-34). Firearms recovered from the scene included a SKS rifle, a Mossberg 12-gauge shotgun and a Beretta .25 caliber handgun (JT Day 4 p. 78, 81).

Ms. Gayle Johnson, a forensic scientist with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, conducted latent print testing on several items (JT Day 6 p. 17-25). With regard to an AK-47 firearm, the analyst was unable to develop any suitable prints for testing (JT Day 6 p. 20). Two latent prints were recovered from a shotgun, both belonging to Mr. Hudson and located in the metal area above the trigger (JT Day 6 p. 23-24). DNA testing was conducted with regard to the firearms (JT Day 6 p. 29-48). No conclusions could be made about the DNA located on the rifle, the Mossberg shotgun or the Beretta handgun (JT Day 6 p. 35, 39-41).

A Toyota Camry located outside the residence was registered to Mr. Hudson's mother (JT Day 7 p. 50-51).

When analysts recovered the shotgun the State alleged Mr. Hudson to be holding, it was inoperable due to damage sustained (JT Day 7 p. 118-122). A fragment was removed from the shotgun, but analysts were unable to determine what weapon the fragment originated (JT Day 7 p. 136).

In September of 2015, Mr. Craig Jex was employed as a Detective with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (JT Day 6 p. 58). Mr. Jex documented Officer Robertson's injuries at the hospital (JT Day 6 p. 60-61). While at the hospital, Mr. Jex came into contact with Mr. Hudson and conducted an interview with him (JT Day 6 p. 61).

Mr. Jex testified Mr. Hudson relayed to him that he went to the house to obtain marijuana that night and no one was supposed to be home (JT Day 6 p. 65, 86). Mr. Hudson told him there was only one other person involved and the plan was to break in the back window of the residence (JT Day 6 p. 66-67, 74). When Mr. Jex questioned Mr. Hudson as to whether he brought and carried the shotgun, he indicated he did (JT Day 6 p. 66-67, 76-78). Mr. Hudson informed Mr. Jex that there was an SKS rifle and a shotgun in the backyard (JT Day 6 p. 76). Mr. Hudson also told Mr. Jex that he had also brought a small firearm in his shoe (JT Day 6 p. 78-80).

During the interview, Mr. Hudson told Mr. Jex he was not sure if he fired the shotgun, but if he did, he fired once (JT Day 6 p. 77, 88). Mr. Hudson indicated he shot towards the bottom of the window (JT Day 6 p. 78). It was Mr. Hudson's belief that the officers started shooting first (JT Day 6 p. 90).

Detective Eduardo Pazos conducted an interview with Mr. Turner (JT Day 6 p. 96-97). Mr. Turner told police that "someone came to pick him up" around midnight and it was just the two of them in the car (JT Day 6 p. 101, 104). When Mr. Turner got in the car, he saw two guns in the back (JT Day 6 p. 103-104). Mr. Turner indicated the SKS rifle belonged to his uncle (JT Day 6 p. 102, 105).

Mr. Turner explained to Detective Pazos that when he entered the backyard of the residence, shots were fired (JT Day 6 p. 105). When the shots were fired, he hopped over the wall to the back of the house (JT Day 6 p. 105). Mr. Turner told Detective Pazos that after he hopped over the wall, he sat on a couch he found in the neighborhood for a while and then began walking to a friend's house (JT Day 6 p. 105). As he was walking to a friend's house, he encountered police (JT Day 6 p. 105).

Mr. Turner told Detective Pazos he had been in the house before and knew who lived there (JT Day 6 p. 108). Mr. Turner admitted he was there to steal weed and if there was any money in the house, he would have taken that as well (JT Day 6 p. 108-110). Mr. Turner denied having a gun in his hand during the incident or firing a weapon (JT Day 6 p. 116-117). Mr. Turner indicated that when the shooting began, he ran away (JT Day 6 p. 112-113, 116).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Mr. Hudson was wrongfully deprived of his right under established law to a direct appeal and is entitled to relief pursuant to Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 871 P.2d 944 (1994) and NRAP 4(c).

In this case, Mr. Hudson was deprived of his right to a direct appeal based upon counsel's rendering of ineffective assistance. As such, Mr. Hudson is permitted to file an untimely notice of appeal. Here, given the serious nature of the offenses for which he has been convicted and the lengthy sentence received, Mr. Hudson naturally desired to appeal the instant conviction. Due to counsel's failure, Mr. Hudson never received such an opportunity. In circumstances such as this, the Nevada Supreme Court has held the defendant must be granted an untimely direct appeal. This Court agrees and hereby directs the district court clerk to prepare and file, within 7 days of the entry of the instant order, a Notice of Appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner's behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms in accordance with NRAP 4(c).

A. STATE AND FEDERAL AUTHORITY PERMITS AN UNTIMELY DIRECT APPEAL UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

In Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 354, 871 P.2d 944 (1994), the Nevada Supreme Court explained, "an attorney has a duty to perfect an appeal when a convicted defendant expresses a desire to appeal or indicates dissatisfaction with a conviction.". If counsel fails to file an appeal after a convicted defendant makes a timely request, the defendant was entitled to the Lozada remedy, which consisted of filing a post-conviction petition with assistance of counsel in which the actual appellate claims could be raised. Id. Such a claim did not require any showing of merit as to the issues sought to be raised. As such, it is sufficient to receive the relief contemplated by Lozada if a petition shows that the defendant was deprived of his right to a direct appeal without his consent. Id. at 357.

The remedy contemplated by Lozada has been largely subsumed by revisions to the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure (NRAP), though the basis for obtaining relief remains generally the same. Under NRAP 4(c), an untimely notice of appeal may be filed if:

A) A post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus has been timely and properly filed in accordance with the provisions of NRSs 34.720 to 34.830, asserting a viable claim that the petitioner was unlawfully deprived of the right to a timely direct appeal from a judgment of conviction and sentence; and

B) The district court in which the petition is considered enters a written order containing:

i) specific findings of fact and conclusions of law finding that the petitioner has established a valid appeal-deprivation claim and is entitled to a direct appeal with the assistance of appointed or retained appellate counsel;

ii) if the petitioner is indigent, directions for the appointment of appellate counsel, other than counsel for the defense in the proceedings leading to the conviction, to represent the petitioner in the direct appeal from the conviction and sentence; and

iii) directions to the district court clerk to prepare and file – within 7 days of the entry of the district court’s order – a notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner’s behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms.

The Nevada Supreme Court has been clear – counsel has a constitutional duty to file a direct appeal in two circumstances: when requested to do so and when the defendant expresses dissatisfaction with his conviction, and that the failure to do so in those circumstances is deficient for purposes of proving ineffective assistance of counsel. Lozada, 110 Nev. at 354–57; Davis v. State, 115 Nev. 17, 20, 974 P.2d 658, 660 (1999) (“[I]f the client does express a desire to appeal, counsel is obligated to file the notice of appeal on the client’s behalf.”)

To prove ineffective assistance of counsel, a petitioner must demonstrate that counsel’s performance was deficient in that it fell below an objective standard of reasonableness and resulting prejudice such that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s errors, the outcome of the proceedings would have been different. Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 687, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 80 Led.2d 674 (1984); Warden v. Lyons, 100 Nev 430, 432–33, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984). Generally, both components of the inquiry must be shown, but in some instances, such as when the petitioner has been deprived of the right to appeal due to counsel’s deficient performance, the second component – prejudice – may be presumed. See Lozada, 110 Nev. at 356–57. See also Rodriguez v. United States, 395 U.S. 327, 328, 23 L. Ed 2d 340, 89 S. T. 1715 (1969) (presuming prejudice when counsel failed to file a notice of appeal against his client’s wishes). The petitioner must demonstrate the underlying facts by a preponderance of the evidence. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004). See also Toston v. State, 127 Nev. 971, 976, 267 P.3d 795 (2011).

In Toston, the Nevada Supreme Court provided guidance as to the meaning of “when the defendant expresses dissatisfaction with his conviction”. See generally, 127 Nev. at 978–79. The Nevada Supreme Court explained:

[T]rial counsel has a duty to file a direct appeal when the client’s desire to challenge the conviction or sentence can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances, focusing on the information that counsel new or should have known at the time. Cf Flores v. Ortega, 528 U.S. at 480 (discussing circumstances in which counsel must consult with a client regarding an appeal). In determining whether counsel knew or should have known that his client wanted to appeal the conviction, the courts may consider whether the conviction arose from a jury trial or a guilty plea, “both because a guilty plea reduces the scope of potentially appealable issues and because such a plea may indicate that the defendant seeks an end to judicial proceedings.” Toston, 127 Nev. at 979 (footnotes omitted).

Thus, when a defendant has been convicted pursuant to a jury verdict, counsel has a constitutional duty to inform the client of the right to appeal. Lozada 110 Nev. at 356. Counsel’s failure to do so is deficient performance for purposes of proving an ineffective assistance of counsel claim. Roe v. Flores-Ortega, 528 U.S. 470, 477–81, 120 S. Ct. 1029 (2000).

B. MR. HUDSON WAS DEPRIVED OF HIS RIGHT TO A DIRECT APPEAL AND IS HEREBY PERMITTED AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AN UNIMELY DIRECT APPEAL.

In order to prevail, Mr. Hudson must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that 1) he filed a timely post-conviction Petition, and 2) his attorney had a duty to perfect an appeal because Mr. Hudson either expressed a desire to appeal, indicated dissatisfaction with his conviction, or his desire to challenge the conviction or sentence can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances. See Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. at 354–57; Toston, 127 Nev. at 976–79. Mr. Hudson need not demonstrate prejudice as it is presumed. Lozada, 110 Nev. at 356–57. Mr. Hudson has demonstrated as such.

First, in this case, there is no question that Mr. Hudson filed a timely post-conviction petition. Mr. Hudson’s Judgment of Conviction was filed on July 2, 2018. On October 25, 2018, Mr. Hudson filed a timely Petition noting he received ineffective assistance of counsel for counsel’s failure to preserve his appellate rights (Petition, p. 3). Supplemental briefing was thereafter permitted. Thus, Mr. Hudson can demonstrate he began a timely post-conviction proceeding.

Next, Mr. Hudson can demonstrate that he was deprived of a direct appeal due to ineffective assistance of counsel not only because he expressed a desire that his direct appeal be perfected, but also because his desire to challenge the conviction can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances. This Court reviewed a declaration from Mr. Hudson confirming he expressed his desire to counsel that an appeal be filed on his behalf (Supplemental Brief, Exhibit A). Further, the nature and severity of the offenses, including the fact that Mr. Hudson proceeded to trial, demonstrated his desire to continue to challenge the conviction.

Additionally, counsel’s own statements demonstrate not only Mr. Hudson’s desire for an appeal, but counsel’s awareness that an appeal was to be filed. During Mr. Hudson’s sentencing on June 21, 2018, counsel stated: “Yes, Judge, and as I stated, I advised him, due to the mandatory appeal, to not give a statement today.” (emphasis added) (Reporter’s Transcript of Sentencing, p. 14) (Supplemental Brief, Exhibit B). Counsel continued, “I believe we are here because Mr. Hudson got some very bad advice, and I don’t believe that we should be here at a sentencing following a jury verdict, but hopefully that will be addressed on appeal.” (Emphasis added) (Reporter’s Transcript of Sentencing, p. 14) (Exhibit B).

Unfortunately, counsel failed to preserve his direct appeal. The totality of the circumstances demonstrates Mr. Hudson's desire for preservation of his direct appeal and such a fact is obvious from a plain review of the record. In this case, Mr. Hudson received ineffective assistance of counsel concerning his right to file an appeal because a review of the record reveals that counsel was required to file the notice of appeal and failed to do so. In such a case, prejudice is presumed. This Court therefore grants the petition with regard to the failure to file a direct appeal.

Having carefully considered the record, pleadings on file herein, and evidence adduced at the Evidentiary Hearing, this Court is convinced that based upon the above Mr. Hudson has demonstrated he was deprived of his right to a direct appeal.

With regard to all other issues raised: alleged failure to object to jury instruction 38 (a flight instruction), alleged failure to object to jury instruction numbers 40 and 50, and alleged cumulative error, they are denied.

ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Post-Conviction Relief shall be, granted in part and denied in part as described within this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the district court clerk is to prepare and file, within 7 days of the entry of the instant order, a Notice of Appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner's behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms in accordance with NRAP 4(c).

LAW AND ORDER

DATE OF HEARING: October 15, 2020
TIME OF HEARING: 11:00 a.m.

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable DAVID M. JONES, District Judge, on the 15th day of October, 2020, the Defendant being present, represented by CHRISTOPHER R. ORAM, the Respondent being represented by STEVE WOLFSON, District Attorney, by and through Leah Beverly, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including all briefs, transcripts, arguments of counsel, documents on file herein, and the testimony adduced from the Evidentiary Hearing, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

Procedural History

Mr. Hudson was charged by way of Indictment on September 23, 2015 as follows: Count 1: Conspiracy to Commit Burglary; Count 2: Attempt Burglary while in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon; Count 3: Attempt Murder with use of a deadly weapon; Count 4: Attempt Murder with use of a deadly weapon; Count 5: Battery with use of a deadly weapon resulting in substantial bodily harm; and Count 6: Discharging firearm at or into occupied structure, vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft. On October 1, 2015, Mr. Hudson was arraigned, pled not guilty and waived the sixty day rule.

On August 28, 2017, Mr. Hudson filed a motion to sever his case from co-defendant Steven Turner. Co-defendant Turner joined Mr. Hudson's motion on September 13, 2017. The State filed an opposition on September 18, 2019. The district court denied the motion for severance on October 12, 2017. Mr. Hudson renewed his motion for severance, but was again denied on November 16, 2017.

Mr. Hudson's trial began on April 16, 2018. On the first day of trial, the State filed an Amended Indictment dismissing count six. On April 27, 2018, the jury found Mr. Hudson guilty of all charges.

Mr. Hudson was sentenced on July 21, 2018, to an aggregate total of a maximum of 480 months with a minimum 168 months. Mr. Hudson received 1,022 days credit for time served. The Judgment of Conviction was filed July 2, 2018.

No direct appeal was filed on Mr. Hudson's behalf. On October 25, 2018, Mr. Hudson filed a timely post-conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Thereafter, supplemental briefing, through counsel, commenced. An Evidentiary Hearing took place on October 15, 2020, and the matter was taken under advisement.

Facts of the offense

Mr. Eric Clarkson was friends with Mr. Turner (JT Day 3 p. 57-58). Mr. Clarkson

did not know Mr. Hudson (JT Day 3 p. 80). Mr. Clarkson resided with his best friend Mr. Willoughby Potter de Grimaldi at a house located at 6729 Oveja Circle, Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada (JT Day 3 p. 59-61, 92).

On September 4, 2015, around 3:30 a.m., Mr. Clarkson was in his bedroom watching television before going to sleep (JT Day 3 p. 61). Once Mr. Clarkson got into bed, he heard his metal outdoor patio furniture being moved outside (JT Day 3 p. 63-64). This caused Mr. Clarkson to look out the window where he saw a young African American man outside on the patio (JT Day 3 p. 65). Then, Mr. Clarkson grabbed his phone, let his roommate know what he saw and contacted 911 to report that someone was in his backyard (JT Day 3 p. 65). Moments later, Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi heard someone banging on the front door and Mr. Grimaldi saw a figure outside (JT Day 3 p. 68, 97-98).

When Mr. Grimaldi went to the back window, he saw a shirtless African American man with a billed cap on his head, racking a shotgun (JT Day 3 p. 95, 119). When Mr. Grimaldi looked out the window, he saw a tall African American man with an afro wearing basketball shorts (JT Day 3 p. 98-99). Mr. Grimaldi then saw a third person out of the corner of his eye, describing the man as African American with a spiky afro (JT Day 3 p. 101-102). Mr. Grimaldi did not recognize any of the three individuals (JT Day 3 p. 104). Mr. Clarkson then relayed this information to the 911 operator (JT Day 3 p. 96-97).

When two police officers arrived (Officer Malik Grego-Smith and Officer Jeremy Robertson) Mr. Clarkson let them in the front door (JT Day 3 p. 71). Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi explained to officers how to open the back door and then Officer Robertson opened the back door (JT Day 3 p. 71-72). Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi recalled that immediately after the back door was opened there were gunshots (JT Day 3 p. 74-75, 107-108). Mr. Grimaldi had previously told detectives it was his belief that an officer fired the first gunshot, but testified at trial the first shots came from outside on the patio (JT Day 3 p. 124, 126-127). Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi both saw different types of bullets enter their home (JT Day 3 p. 75, 107-108). After the shots were fired, Mr. Clarkson and Mr. Grimaldi hid in a bedroom (JT Day 3 p. 76).

Officer Malik Grego-Smith, along with Officer Jeremy Robertson, responded to a dispatch call regarding a prowler at the Oveja circle residence (JT Day 5 p. 62, 65). After requesting dispatch inform the homeowner to open the front door, Officer Grego-Smith and Officer Robertson enter the residence (JT Day 5 p. 70). Once in the residence, the officers developed a plan to “clear the backyard” to see if anyone was out there (JT Day 5 p. 72). Officer Robertson was to open the back door, and as he opened the door, Officer Grego-Smith would go through and Officer Robertson would follow (JT Day 5 p. 73). Officer Grego-Smith drew his weapon and as he stepped outside two shots were fired from outside on the patio, one striking Officer Robertson (JT Day 5 p. 73, 76). Officer Grego-Smith returned fire towards the patio, firing twelve shots (JT Day 5 p. 76; JT Day 7 p. 29-30).

Officer Grego-Smith testified he turned his flashlight on right when he started shooting and saw “a light-skinned black male with no shirt and purple basketball shorts” on the patio (JT Day 5 p. 78). The man was approximately three to four feet from him (JT Day 5 p. 90). Officer Grego-Smith recalled yelling, “Don’t move, keep your hands up, don’t move or I’ll fucking shoot you.” (JT Day 5 p. 80). Officer Grego-Smith immediately radioed dispatch to inform them that shots had been fired and Officer Robertson had been shot (JT Day 5 p. 80). When back up arrived, Officer Grego-Smith entered the backyard area and witnessed Mr. Hudson being taken into custody (JT Day 5 p. 82). Officer Grego-Smith testified at trial that Mr. Hudson was not the shirtless African American man he had seen in the backyard when he turned on his flashlight (JT Day 5 p. 86).

Officer Jeremy Robertson recalled he had just opened the back door to the patio of the residence when he was shot and fell to the ground (JT Day 5 p. 120). Officer Robertson was struck in the upper thigh, fracturing his femur (JT Day 5 p. 122, 128).

Sergeant Joshua Bitsko, a K-9 officer, responded to the Oveja residence (JT Day 4 p. 127, 135). Upon arriving at the residence, Sergeant Bitsko learned from the air unit that the suspect was laying in the backyard with a rifle next to him (JT Day 4 p. 140). A Beretta .25 caliber handgun was also located nearby (JT Day 4 p. 81). Sergeant Bitsko deployed his police dog into the backyard who located and began biting the suspect (JT Day 4 p. 140-143). The suspect complied with all commands, was taken into custody and identified as Clemon Hudson (JT Day 4 p. 32, 143-145).

Police secured a perimeter around the crime scene approximately a mile and a half by a mile wide in order to search for additional suspects (JT Day 4 p. 153). Detective Jeremy Vance spent approximately three and a half hours driving around the perimeter looking for the suspect described by officer Grego-Smith (JT Day 4 p. 153).

After being notified of a call concerning a suspicious person in a backyard, Detective Vance came upon Mr. Turner and began to question him (JT Day 4 p. 154-158). Detective Vance noticed Mr. Turner was injured given the blood on his pants (JT Day 4 p. 158). When questioned about the injury, Mr. Turner indicated his leg was caught on a fence at his friend's house (JT Day 4 p. 158). Detective Vance believed the injury was caused by a gunshot wound (JT Day 4 p. 158-159).

Ms. Stephanie Fletcher, a senior crime scene analyst with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department responded to the Oveja Circle residence (JT Day 5 p. 6). Twelve Speer .9 millimeter cartridge casings were recovered from the dining room area (JT Day 5 p. 14). There were three 7.62 rifle cartridge casings located on the backyard patio area (JT Day 5 p. 15). Analysts did not locate any expended shotgun shells or .25 caliber casings (JT Day 5 p. 16). Analysts located numerous shotgun pellets in the living room of the residence as well as pieces of a shotgun round located on top of the front window sill (JT Day 5 p. 32-34). Firearms recovered from the scene included a SKS rifle, a Mossberg 12-gauge shotgun and a Beretta .25 caliber handgun (JT Day 4 p. 78, 81).

Ms. Gayle Johnson, a forensic scientist with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, conducted latent print testing on several items (JT Day 6 p. 17-25). With regard to an AK-47 firearm, the analyst was unable to develop any suitable prints for testing (JT Day 6 p. 20). Two latent prints were recovered from a shotgun, both belonging to Mr. Hudson and located in the metal area above the trigger (JT Day 6 p. 23-24). DNA testing was conducted with regard to the firearms (JT Day 6 p. 29-48). No conclusions could be made about the DNA located on the rifle, the Mossberg shotgun or the Beretta handgun (JT Day 6 p. 35, 39-41).

A Toyota Camry located outside the residence was registered to Mr. Hudson's mother (JT Day 7 p. 50-51).

When analysts recovered the shotgun the State alleged Mr. Hudson to be holding, it was inoperable due to damage sustained (JT Day 7 p. 118-122). A fragment was removed from the shotgun, but analysts were unable to determine what weapon the fragment originated (JT Day 7 p. 136).

In September of 2015, Mr. Craig Jex was employed as a Detective with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (JT Day 6 p. 58). Mr. Jex documented Officer Robertson's injuries at the hospital (JT Day 6 p. 60-61). While at the hospital, Mr. Jex came into contact with Mr. Hudson and conducted an interview with him (JT Day 6 p. 61).

Mr. Jex testified Mr. Hudson relayed to him that he went to the house to obtain marijuana that night and no one was supposed to be home (JT Day 6 p. 65, 86). Mr. Hudson told him there was only one other person involved and the plan was to break in the back window of the residence (JT Day 6 p. 66-67, 74). When Mr. Jex questioned Mr. Hudson as to whether he brought and carried the shotgun, he indicated he did (JT Day 6 p. 66-67, 76-78). Mr. Hudson informed Mr. Jex that there was an SKS rifle and a shotgun in the backyard (JT Day 6 p. 76). Mr. Hudson also told Mr. Jex that he had also brought a small firearm in his shoe (JT Day 6 p. 78-80).

During the interview, Mr. Hudson told Mr. Jex he was not sure if he fired the shotgun, but if he did, he fired once (JT Day 6 p. 77, 88). Mr. Hudson indicated he shot towards the bottom of the window (JT Day 6 p. 78). It was Mr. Hudson's belief that the officers started shooting first (JT Day 6 p. 90).

Detective Eduardo Pazos conducted an interview with Mr. Turner (JT Day 6 p. 96-97). Mr. Turner told police that "someone came to pick him up" around midnight and it was just the two of them in the car (JT Day 6 p. 101, 104). When Mr. Turner got in the car, he saw two guns in the back (JT Day 6 p. 103-104). Mr. Turner indicated the SKS rifle belonged to his uncle (JT Day 6 p. 102, 105).

Mr. Turner explained to Detective Pazos that when he entered the backyard of the residence, shots were fired (JT Day 6 p. 105). When the shots were fired, he hopped over the wall to the back of the house (JT Day 6 p. 105). Mr. Turner told Detective Pazos that after he hopped over the wall, he sat on a couch he found in the neighborhood for a while and then began walking to a friend's house (JT Day 6 p. 105). As he was walking to a friend's house, he encountered police (JT Day 6 p. 105).

Mr. Turner told Detective Pazos he had been in the house before and knew who lived there (JT Day 6 p. 108). Mr. Turner admitted he was there to steal weed and if there was any money in the house, he would have taken that as well (JT Day 6 p. 108-110). Mr. Turner denied having a gun in his hand during the incident or firing a weapon (JT Day 6 p. 116-117). Mr. Turner indicated that when the shooting began, he ran away (JT Day 6 p. 112-113, 116).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Mr. Hudson was wrongfully deprived of his right under established law to a direct appeal and is entitled to relief pursuant to Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 871 P.2d 944 (1994) and NRAP 4(c).

In this case, Mr. Hudson was deprived of his right to a direct appeal based upon counsel's rendering of ineffective assistance. As such, Mr. Hudson is permitted to file an untimely notice of appeal. Here, given the serious nature of the offenses for which he has been convicted and the lengthy sentence received, Mr. Hudson naturally desired to appeal the instant conviction. Due to counsel's failure, Mr. Hudson never received such an opportunity. In circumstances such as this, the Nevada Supreme Court has held the defendant must be granted an untimely direct appeal. This Court agrees and hereby directs the district court clerk to prepare and file, within 7 days of the entry of the instant order, a Notice of Appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner's behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms in accordance with NRAP 4(c).

A. STATE AND FEDERAL AUTHORITY PERMITS AN UNTIMELY DIRECT APPEAL UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

In Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 354, 871 P.2d 944 (1994), the Nevada Supreme Court explained, "an attorney has a duty to perfect an appeal when a convicted defendant expresses a desire to appeal or indicates dissatisfaction with a conviction." If counsel fails to file an appeal after a convicted defendant makes a timely request, the defendant was entitled to the Lozada remedy, which consisted of filing a post-conviction petition with assistance of counsel in which the actual appellate claims could be raised. Id. Such a claim did not require any showing of merit as to the issues sought to be raised. As such, it is sufficient to receive the relief contemplated by Lozada if a petition shows that the defendant was deprived of his right to a direct appeal without his consent. Id. at 357.

The remedy contemplated by Lozada has been largely subsumed by revisions to the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure (NRAP), though the basis for obtaining relief remains generally the same. Under NRAP 4(c), an untimely notice of appeal may be filed if:

A) A post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus has been timely and properly filed in accordance with the provisions of NRSs 34.720 to 34.830, asserting a viable claim that the petitioner was unlawfully deprived of the right to a timely direct appeal from a judgment of conviction and sentence; and

B) The district court in which the petition is considered enters a written order containing:

i) specific findings of fact and conclusions of law finding that the petitioner has established a valid appeal-deprivation claim and is entitled to a direct appeal with the assistance of appointed or retained appellate counsel;

ii) if the petitioner is indigent, directions for the appointment of appellate counsel, other than counsel for the defense in the proceedings leading to the conviction, to represent the petitioner in the direct appeal from the conviction and sentence; and

iii) directions to the district court clerk to prepare and file – within 7 days of the entry of the district court’s order – a notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner’s behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms.

The Nevada Supreme Court has been clear – counsel has a constitutional duty to file a direct appeal in two circumstances: when requested to do so and when the defendant expresses dissatisfaction with his conviction, and that the failure to do so in those circumstances is deficient for purposes of proving ineffective assistance of counsel. Lozada, 110 Nev. at 354–57; Davis v. State, 115 Nev. 17, 20, 974 P.2d 658, 660 (1999) (“[I]f the client does express a desire to appeal, counsel is obligated to file the notice of appeal on the client’s behalf.”)

To prove ineffective assistance of counsel, a petitioner must demonstrate that counsel’s performance was deficient in that it fell below an objective standard of reasonableness and resulting prejudice such that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s errors, the outcome of the proceedings would have been different. Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 687, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 80 Led.2d 674 (1984); Warden v. Lyons, 100 Nev 430, 432–33, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984). Generally, both components of the inquiry must be shown, but in some instances, such as when the petitioner has been deprived of the right to appeal due to counsel’s deficient performance, the second component – prejudice – may be presumed. See Lozada, 110 Nev. at 356–57. See also Rodriguez v. United States, 395 U.S. 327, 328, 23 L. Ed 2d 340, 89 S. T. 1715 (1969) (presuming prejudice when counsel failed to file a notice of appeal against his client’s wishes). The petitioner must demonstrate the underlying facts by a preponderance of the evidence. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004). See also Toston v. State, 127 Nev. 971, 976, 267 P.3d 795 (2011).

In Toston, the Nevada Supreme Court provided guidance as to the meaning of “when the defendant expresses dissatisfaction with his conviction”. See generally, 127 Nev. at 978–79. The Nevada Supreme Court explained:

[T]rial counsel has a duty to file a direct appeal when the client’s desire to challenge the conviction or sentence can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances, focusing on the information that counsel new or should have known at the time. Cf Flores v. Ortega, 528 U.S. at 480 (discussing circumstances in which counsel must consult with a client regarding an appeal). In determining whether counsel knew or should have known that his client wanted to appeal the conviction, the courts may consider whether the conviction arose from a jury trial or a guilty plea, “both because a guilty plea reduces the scope of potentially appealable issues and because such a plea may indicate that the defendant seeks an end to judicial proceedings.” Toston, 127 Nev. at 979 (footnotes omitted).

Thus, when a defendant has been convicted pursuant to a jury verdict, counsel has a constitutional duty to inform the client of the right to appeal. Lozada 110 Nev. at 356. Counsel’s failure to do so is deficient performance for purposes of proving an ineffective assistance of counsel claim. Roe v. Flores-Ortega, 528 U.S. 470, 477–81, 120 S. Ct. 1029 (2000).

B. MR. HUDSON WAS DEPRIVED OF HIS RIGHT TO A DIRECT APPEAL AND IS HEREBY PERMITTED AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AN UNIMELY DIRECT APPEAL.

In order to prevail, Mr. Hudson must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that 1) he filed a timely post-conviction Petition, and 2) his attorney had a duty to perfect an appeal because Mr. Hudson either expressed a desire to appeal, indicated dissatisfaction with his conviction, or his desire to challenge the conviction or sentence can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances. See Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. at 354–57; Toston, 127 Nev. at 976–79. Mr. Hudson need not demonstrate prejudice as it is presumed. Lozada, 110 Nev. at 356–57. Mr. Hudson has demonstrated as such.

First, in this case, there is no question that Mr. Hudson filed a timely post-conviction petition. Mr. Hudson’s Judgment of Conviction was filed on July 2, 2018. On October 25, 2018, Mr. Hudson filed a timely Petition noting he received ineffective assistance of counsel for counsel’s failure to preserve his appellate rights (Petition, p. 3). Supplemental briefing was thereafter permitted. Thus, Mr. Hudson can demonstrate he began a timely post-conviction proceeding.

Next, Mr. Hudson can demonstrate that he was deprived of a direct appeal due to ineffective assistance of counsel not only because he expressed a desire that his direct appeal be perfected, but also because his desire to challenge the conviction can be reasonably inferred from the totality of the circumstances. This Court reviewed a declaration from Mr. Hudson confirming he expressed his desire to counsel that an appeal be filed on his behalf (Supplemental Brief, Exhibit A). Further, the nature and severity of the offenses, including the fact that Mr. Hudson proceeded to trial, demonstrated his desire to continue to challenge the conviction.

Additionally, counsel’s own statements demonstrate not only Mr. Hudson’s desire for an appeal, but counsel’s awareness that an appeal was to be filed. During Mr. Hudson’s sentencing on June 21, 2018, counsel stated: “Yes, Judge, and as I stated, I advised him, due to the mandatory appeal, to not give a statement today.” (emphasis added) (Reporter’s Transcript of Sentencing, p. 14) (Supplemental Brief, Exhibit B). Counsel continued, “I believe we are here because Mr. Hudson got some very bad advice, and I don’t believe that we should be here at a sentencing following a jury verdict, but hopefully that will be addressed on appeal.” (Emphasis added) (Reporter’s Transcript of

Unfortunately, counsel failed to preserve his direct appeal. The totality of the circumstances demonstrates Mr. Hudson's desire for preservation of his direct appeal and such a fact is obvious from a plain review of the record. In this case, Mr. Hudson received ineffective assistance of counsel concerning his right to file an appeal because a review of the record reveals that counsel was required to file the notice of appeal and failed to do so. In such a case, prejudice is presumed. This Court therefore grants the petition with regard to the failure to file a direct appeal.

Having carefully considered the record, pleadings on file herein, and evidence adduced at the Evidentiary Hearing, this Court is convinced that based upon the above Mr. Hudson has demonstrated he was deprived of his right to a direct appeal.

With regard to all other issues raised: alleged failure to object to jury instruction 38 (a flight instruction), alleged failure to object to jury instruction numbers 40 and 50, and alleged cumulative error, they are denied.

ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Post-Conviction Relief shall be, granted in part and denied in part as described within this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the district court clerk is to prepare and file, within 7 days of the entry of the instant order, a Notice of Appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner's behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms in accordance with NRAP 4(c).
