On September 14, 2021, this court entered an order allowing counsel for respondent to withdraw and directing respondent to either retain new counsel or inform this court that she will not be retaining new counsel and will be proceeding pro se. Respondent has now filed a notice of appearance indicating that she will be proceeding pro se. Accordingly, briefing of these consolidated appeals is reinstated. Respondent shall have 21 days from the date of this order to file and serve any answering brief. See NRAP 46A(c) (unless ordered to do so by this court, a party is not required to respond to briefs filed by a party appearing without counsel). If respondent does not intend to file an answering brief, so notifying this court, in writing and immediately, will expedite the submission of this appeal to the court.
